GRAND SEMINAIRE.

L'enseignement du Grand Séminaire, dont la durée est de quatre années, comprend la THEOLOGIE DOGMATIQUE, la THEOLOGIE MORALE, l'ECRITURE SAINTE, le DROIT CANONIQUE et les autres sciences ecclésiastiques.

Le Prix de l'Enseignement et de la Pension est de

$125.00 PAR ANNEE.

Les livres, le blanchissage, les soins du médecin, sont à la charge des séminaristes.

PETIT SEMINAIRE.

Le cours d'études est de dix à onze années, et se divise en deux parties: le COURS COMMERCIAL, qui comprend cinq classes; et le COURS CLASSIQUE, composé de six classes, y compris les deux années de philosophie et de sciences.

Une CLASSE d'AFFAIRES termine et complète le Cours commercial. L'Anglais y est la langue dominante. Toutes les matières commerciales y sont enseignées avec soin, au point de vue pratique, de manière à mettre les élèves qui auront suivi cette classe en état de remplir avantageusement tous les postes qu'on pourra leur confier, dans les banques, les bureaux d'affaires, etc.

COTEAU LANDING, the chief town of the county of Soulanges, situated on the St. Lawrence River and on the G.T.R., 1½ miles from Coteau Station 36 miles from Montreal. It contains 1 Catholic chapel, 1 Episcopal church, 1 model school, grist mill, 5 stores, 2 hotels, 1 grain elevator, telegraph and express offices, and is the chief grain shipping port of the county. During summer it has communication with Montreal by steamer. The Soulanges Canal, connecting Lakes St. Francis and St. Louis, starting near the G.T.R. Bridge at Coteau and terminating near the junction of the Ottawa and St. Lawrence, passes in front of the town. This canal will take the place of the Beauharnois canal, and will, no doubt, add considerable importance to the town in the near future. Pop., 385.
