Seaway President welcomes Sun

CHEVRIER sees Advantages for Residents in area

IN AN EXCLUSIVE STATEMENT TO THE ST. LAWRENCE SUN the PRESIDENT of the St. LAWRENCE SEAWAY AUTHORITY, The HONORABLE Lionel CHEVRIER, said: "I welcome the opportunity to greet readers of The St. Lawrence Sun and to congratulate the Publisher-Editor on his enterprise in organizing this weekly newspaper with the aim of covering the districts of Valleyfield, Beauharnois and Chateaugay. I feel sure that The St. Lawrence Sun will serve its readers well in bringing to them a special treatment of the news, including that of the plans and construction projects as they progress, along the route of the St. Lawrence Seaway. In particular will they be interested in the developments to take place in what has been called the Soulange Section of the Seaway.

A worthwhile aim of this new weekly might well be to thus inform and lead the residents of this area to the fullest realization of the benefits which can be theirs through the advantages of the St. Lawrence Seaway."

WELCOME -- ST. LAWRENCE SUN

The Hon. Lionel Chevrier, PC.Q.C., president of the St. Lawrence Seaway authority.

André Corriveau guest of honor at sports club

Some thousand fans and friends gathered in the Café St. Jacques, in Montreal, last Saturday night, to honor their hero, André Corriveau, Captain of the Valleyfield Braves. The occasion was organized by the "Chevalier Sportifs" a Club that has made André their hero.

While thousand people managed to get inside the night club enough room for everybody and several hundred were refused entrance.

Valleyfield was well re-represented by some hundred fifty admirers, including Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vinet, President of the Braves and one of the oldest players in the League and his wife.

The presentations and gifts of the more outstanding ones are too numerous to mention, were a silver decanter and a hockey stick and baseball bat wrapped up in dollar bills. Many gifts were from Valleyfield merchants who banned together to give the Braves captain some of the many presents he received. Corriveau was addressed by the President of the Chevaliers Sportifs, Mr. Louis L'Heureux and various other officials.

Mrs. Corriveau was presented with a bouquet of flowers by the four year old daughter of Mr. L'Heureux. When it was André's turn to thank every body for the enormous reception they had prepared for him, the popular hockey captain just couldn't find enough words to express his feelings.

All in all it was a very successful night... one André Corriveau won't forget for some time to come.

CANADA'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS

Canada has 963 weekly newspapers, with a combined circulation of 2,475,140. Some distribute a few hundred copies every week, while others have circulation in the thousands. Singly or taken together, these weekly newspapers have a great influence on the thought and action of our people.

It is not safe to generalize about newspapers, because of the wide difference in the thoroughness with which they are not without journals that debase public taste and warp public opinion. The majority of Canadian weeklies can be said, however, that they conscientiously maintain the highest standards.

Every newspaper is at one and the same time a business enterprise on which the owner and his family depend for their daily bread and an agency of mass communication bearing public responsibility. In this land, where the press has freedom under the law, the weekly newspapers discharge their public functions with credit to themselves and benefit to the country.

The average paper represented in the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, said William H. Cranston, publisher of the "Midland Free Press Herald," in an article he wrote for "The Financial Post" last August, covers 82 trading area, has a net paid circulation of under 1,500 copies a week, and is produced by a staff of fewer than ten. The staff usually includes the owner, who may be publisher, editor, printing foreman, advertising salesman and general caretaker combined.

There are few millionaires among the 535 publishers who are members of the C.W.N.A., but every weekly newspaper represents a respectable amount of capital for the size of its town. It is usually, a family enterprise with strong bonds of community loyalty. Mr. Cranston pointed out that 95 per cent of editors of Weekly, twice-weekly and tri-weekly newspapers had served one or more terms as president of the local Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade; 45 per cent had been mayor or reeve, or had held other high elective office; 97 per cent were members of a service club, and 90 per cent had served as club president. (To Be Continued)

COMMUNITY WORTH

In a world where the quiet, intimate, stable pattern of the small community shaken, Canada is unfortunate in the manner of her growth. Throughout our development, from isolated farms to clusters of wide farming areas, and then on to towns and a few cities, we have managed to keep one foot on the soil.

For a time people flowed from rural communities to the cities. This response to industrial evolution built crowded urban centres that have exploded, during the past ten years particularly, into myriad suburban satellites, each with its own interests, prides and headaches.

Reconstitution of the small face-to-face community can be significant assistance in restoring a vigorous sense of human dignity and worth. There is no other environment that can nourish the intimate values of life and the acts of sympathy and mutual aid and the warm appreciation of personality that together go to make up the spirit of democracy. It is the small community that gives root and reality to what Canada does in world of nations.

The weekly newspaper has its home in such community. Its readers are not anonymous creatures in great impersonal aggregations, but the people in the next house, or the next street, known and understood.

The weekly newspaper knows that its great strength lies in getting itself read. To make itself widely readable the press must be free, and to be free it must be self-supporting financially.

Editorial

YOUR NEW WEEKLY

Our district is within relatively short distance of Montreal, and so within easy reach of this city's daily newspapers, but these do not and cannot take the same place in the community as the weekly newspaper. The big daily papers keep us up to date on what happens in the country at large, but the weekly newspaper, which is read by practically all members of the family, has its very own place. The readers are for a large part people we know personally . . . those who live next door or on the next street . . . they are not a large impersonal group like in the big cities. This gives the weeklies added importance and strength.

A weekly has a special job to do and it is the endeavour of The St. Lawrence Sun to do this particular job to the best of its ability. While the Sun hopes that its readers will belong to the French as well as to the English speaking population of this area, it wants to especially serve the English speaking inhabitants of Valleyfield, Beauharnois, Chateaugay and surrounding districts. The editor plans to bring readers of The St. Lawrence Sun an accurate account of local happenings. But a weekly is and should be more than just a convener of news, advertisements and comics. It should also voice public opinion and carries a certain responsibility towards the readers, for without public support any newspaper is bound to fail. All the advertisements in the world won't keep a paper alive if there are no readers. Therefore, the editor must know what the people think and want, and constructive criticism can be of great assistance.

With support of the citizenry, The St. Lawrence Sun feels it will be able to play a worthwhile part in the future and development of this area.

In giving out this year's advice on how to "Sew and Save", sewing experts have revolutionary news for the average type of home dress-maker who confines her stitching to making ordinary housedresses, and who often lacks the courage to attempt to sew her own good dress for wearing out on special occasions.

Any woman who can stitch a straight seam can now use ornamental stitching to give look to her clothes by means of a new Automatic Zigzagger, developed by Singer specialists, and available for the first time in sewing history local sewing centers all across the country.

So, ask your local sewing center to help you choose a simple pattern.

WHEN you're painting chair legs, a good idea is to use an old but clean saucepan in which to place each leg as you paint or varnish it. The pan will catch any splatters.

Old muffin tins are ideal for storing all manner of screws, nails, brads and tacks. You won't have anything which to open when you want something, and everything will be kept neatly filed.

Tiles will be easier to cut if they are warmed by an infrared lamp for a minute or so. Either knife or

SPRING MEETING HELD BY GIRL GUIDES ASSOCIATION

Southwestern Division of the Girl Guides Association held its Spring meeting on Wednesday joint meeting of the Div. Committee and the Div. Camp Committee, and was held at the home of the Div. Camp Secretary, Mrs. W. E. Kilgour, Beauharnois. As 'camping' was to be one of the main items on the agenda, the Guiders in the Div. were especially invited to attend the meeting.

All Local Associations and Guiding groups in the Div. were represented with the exception of Huntingdon.

Those present were: Mrs. Fred Willows, Div. Commissioner, Mrs. C. Dube of Chateauguy, Div. Badge Secretary Mrs. W. E. Kilgour, Div Camp Secretary, and Mrs. A. McIsaac, Beauharnois, Div.; Sec.-Treas. Three members of the Provincial Camp and Training Committees came out from Montreal — Miss Davies, Miss Osler, and Miss Tait.

Representatives from the various towns were:

Nitro: Local Association — Miss Mather. Guiders — Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Hopper, Miss Moome.

Ormstown: Local Association — Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Winter. Guiders — Miss Agnes, Miss Meredith, Miss McQuoat.

Chateauguy — L.A. — Mrs. Darlington. Guider—Miss Reid.

Beauharnois: L. A. — Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Price. Guiders—Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Van Son, Miss Stacey.

The meeting was called to order at 8.20 p.m. by Mrs. Willows, chairman of the Div. Committee. Minutes of the previous meeting held in Huntingdon on November 3, were read and approved.

Rally

The Div. Rally is to be held in Chateauguy on May 28, when Mrs. E. A. Leslie, Provincial Commissioner, will be guest of honour. All Packs and Companies in the area are taking part in the Rally. The programme includes folk dancing by all Guides and Brownies, demonstrations by the various groups of first aid, signalling, good turns, puppet show, outdoor activities and so on. There will be an interesting campfire programme for all groups, to be led by Miss Joyce Hartnell, former Provincial Musiv Commissioner.

Members of the Beauharnois Company at the time that Mrs. Leslie was Captain are all invited to attend the Rally and renew acquaintance with their onetime leader.

Division Training:

A meeting of Guiders in the

Div. was held in November, followed by a training session. Two trainers came from Montreal — one for the Brownie Guiders and one for the Guide leaders, and presented many interesting and worthwhile ideas and projects for use in company and pack meetings.

Two of the Guiders also attended the specialized training held in Montreal on four evenings during February and March.

Badges
Mrs. Dube reported on the badge situation and a brief explanation was given on our new method of handling badges within the Division.

Nitro
A Local Association, Company and Pack have been organized in Nitro, and Miss Osler of Montreal spent a day there giving training.

Scouts Own

An exchange of correspondence between the assistant

District Scout Commissioner and the Guide Div. Comm. was read. This dealt with an invitation and acceptance thereof to attend a Scouts Own in Ormstown on Sunday May 15. Notice of this has already gone out to the L.A.S.

The Guides and Brownies are asked to wear uniform and to bring their company and pack flags. The hymns to be sung are:

"The King of Love My Shepherd Is";
 "Stand Up, Stand Up!";
 "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name".

The Division Committee meeting adjourned at 9.30 p.m. Miss Muriel Davies of Montreal took the chair for the Camp meeting.

A long, interesting and enthusiastic discussion followed a short talk on camping by Miss Davies. The meeting divided into three groups under the leadership of Miss Davies, Miss Tait and Miss Osler, and the whole matter of camping was gone into quite thoroughly.

Miss Agnes, Captain of the Ormstown Company will take her whole group to camp in the Division, for the last week-end in June.

The other Companies are all planning to camp at Lake Memphremagog for the same period. As no Guider in the Division can camp for a week — but several can camp for a week-end — this short camp is the most we can do this year. As soon as arrangements have been made for the use of the campsite, the various groups will receive all necessary information from the camp secretary.

Every one is pleased with the camping picture this year, which is so much brighter than it has been for some time, and all are hopeful that short camp this year will lead on to long camps next summer.

Anniversary meeting

The 22nd. anniversary of the Evening Auxiliary of the W.M. S. St. Edward's Church will be celebrated on Tuesday evening, May 17th, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kilgour. The Worship Service will be in charge of Mrs. L.M. Anderson.

FLUORIDATION— COST AND BENEFITS

Fluoridation of a community water supply is shaping up as the best public health bargain of all time. For less than 15 cents per person per year, the ravages of tooth decay are being reduced as much as 65 per cent in communities throughout the United States and Canada.

The cost of a single filling would pay for the fluoride for one person for many years.

The late Dr. John G. Frisch, of Madison, Wis. as chairman of the fluorine committee of the Wisconsin State Dental Society, which pioneered in the procedure, said:

"There can be no question as to whether a city can afford it, but whether any city can afford to be without it".

There are to date more than 1000 communities on this continent which have rallied under the banner of fluoridation to protect the future health of their children's teeth.

In many of these communities, the leadership came from the public—women's clubs, parent-teachers associations, churches, labor unions, civic groups. They wrote letters to health departments and city officials. They formed citizens' committees.

They were able to show that adjustments of the fluoride content in a water system was feasible from an economic standpoint. Cost of equipment has been found to range from several hundred dollars for a small town to several thousand dollars for a medium sized city.

From an engineering standpoint, the mechanism of adding fluorides to the water supply is no more involved than adding chlorine.

Water fluoridation is the most promising means at our disposal for the prevention of dental caries among children. It is as basic as all other public health programs—adequate nutrition of expectant mothers and infants, proper education about prophylactic measures such as tooth brushing and oral hygiene, etc. It is no different in principle than chlorination and pasteurization as necessary measures to prevent disease, and today Canadian people accept these measures as necessary.

An action program designed to step up recruitment and training of school-teachers was launched last week by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in the belief that "the problem of adequately staffing our educational institutions, in our expanding economy is one of paramount importance to the future of Canada." To make the program fully effective right across the country, Canada's national business organization is enlisting the aid of its 700 member Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce.

These groups, representing a cross-section of the country's business and community life are asked to give serious study and consideration to the teacher problem in Canada with the following objectives in mind: (a) training sufficient teachers to meet the increasing demands of enrolment which lies ahead (b) enlisting teachers who possess a high quality of talent and initiative (c) giving teachers adequate as will be necessary to obtain training (d) presenting teachers with such incentives and rewards for society both the number and quality of teachers required.

The Province of Quebec Safety League Says!...

This organization has said it before. But it's taking a chance on being called repetitious and repeating the advice to people to keep to the left of the road while walking along the highway.

Dangers exist at all time for the pedestrian, but particularly at night. The league explains that by keeping to the left, the pedestrian is able to see oncoming traffic. While walking along the right side of the highway, the pedestrian is risking being hit from the back.

The league asks parents of children who have to walk along the highway to reach school to warn their offspring of these dangers.

The Rev. and Mrs. Alec Nimmo of Wingham, Ont., formerly of Beauharnois, paid a brief call on Wednesday, May 4th. on a number of old friends in Beauharnois, while on their way home from attending the 88th. Annual Convocation of the Presbyterian Church, Montreal, held in the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul the previous evening. During their short visit, they looked in for a few minutes on the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, holding their regular work meeting, were warmly welcomed by everyone and congratulated on the recent arrival of a grandson, born to their daughter Margaret and her husband, the Rev. Geo. Malcolm in Formosa, where they have been for some time carrying on their work as missionaries.

with Joe Foster

It is estimated by the Department of Lands & Forests that somewhere around 100,000 eager anglers of both sexes turned out for the opening of the speckled trout season in Ontario last Saturday, April 30th. Just how many Lady Luck favoured with full creel won't be known for a few days yet, although the prospects for pretty fair fishing looked good and certainly the weather on both the Saturday and Sunday was just about ideal. Trout fishers in Quebec got a ten day start with opening day April 20th, but according to all reports the earlier opening bestowed no particular advantage, many of the northern lakes still being ice-bound for the first few days.

Still Too Early

Sunday, the wife and I loaded the car with a couple of the offspring and drove up to Carvel Hammond's camp in the Laurentians. There the ice had only been out four days, a little too soon to expect very much action.

In early spring lake fishing for speckles, it has been my experience that ten days after ice is out, is soon enough for fly fishing.

A Boy's First Trout.

While we sat around with our hosts soaking up the noon day sun, Harry our thirteen year old, put his spinning rod together, tied on a "Turk" spinner with a quill body and wandered down to the boat dock to kill time while the older folks got through with the chit-chat and ready to get out on the lake. Of a sudden the peaceful stillness of this fabulous May 1st morning was shattered by a yell for me and to hurry with the landing net.

With Harry fast to his first trout I needed no urging and a few minutes later we netted the fish, a colourful male, fourteen inches long. The look on that boy's face as he held up his prize for the grown-ups to admire is something I'll remember for many a day.

Perch Belly Did The Trick

I only had time for a couple of hours with the fly rod. Started off with a February Red Dazzler on the dropper and a white Maribou streamer on the leader tip. It wasn't long before I got a good strike on the Dazzler, a fly that has been very successful on this lake, and netted another fourteen incher. Substituted a hair wing Perch Belly streamer in place of the Maribou and got four strikes on this fly, losing two and netting two. This Perch Belly streamer is, I am finding a more killing pattern than the old and reliable Mickey inn. Although described in this Column several weeks ago, here it is again for the benefit of any who might care to try it. Body, silver tinsel; Tail, none; Wing, sparse yellow overlaid with white and overlaid again with red, let the red predominate; Throat, bright red nashua; Shoulder eyes, cut out of gold metallic paper.

Get Your Gear Ready

Here's a quick run down on Ontario opening dates and limits with particular reference to the Rideau District. Residents of Quebec shouldn't overlook the handiness of the excellent fishing area and that the non-resident licence is only $6.50. Black Bass, small and large mouth—July 1st to October 15th—limit, 6 in one day not less than 30 inches in length. Musky: July 1st to October 15th—limit, 2 in one day not less than 30 inches in length. Speckled, Brown, Aurora, Kamloops and Rainbow Trout—April 30th to September 15th—limit, 5 in one day not less than 7 inches in length, except speckled trout, the limit is one and an additional 14 in one day, provided the additional 14 in the aggregate weigh not more than ten pounds. Walleyes—May 14th to December 31st, limit, 6 in one day regardless of length. Exception the St. Lawrence River May 14th to November 15th. Northern Pike—May 14th to March 31st next following, limit 6 in one day regardless of length. Exception the St. Lawrence River—no closed season. Lake Trout—November 6th to October 5th next following, limit, 5 in one day. Perch limit—in the St. Lawrence River and tributaries east of Robideaux Bay in Cornwall Township 35 per day, regardless of length. "Tight Lines" to one and all!

NEWS FOR YOUR GARDEN

Care of Hand-Mower Important

If a hand-operated lawn mower is well built and is used with reasonable care it should be in fighting trim for several years between sharpenings, and should last as long as the strength of the man pushing it. At least that's according to the experts. To be certain that the machine can give such service, it would be well to look it over before it is put into weekly use this month.

Lawn mowers as well as lawns suffer when the grass is cut too short. There is much more dust and dirt on the base of the blades of grass, near the soil than there is, say, two inches up. This grit abrades the blades and the strike (continued page 15th)

From Valleyfield by DICK RICKARD

Saturday, May 21, brings the start of the baseball season for the small fry in Valleyfield. Beginning with a parade at 1 p.m. the little Leaguers will have a double header ball game to start their season off with a bang. The second year of the Little League will bring good "Kid" baseball to Valleyfield. They will compete with other teams in the region for Little League honors.

The Champlain Reds, Salaberry Giants, Bellerive Cards and the Maisonneuve Braves will comprise the 4 teams in Valleyfield as they did last year. This season, each team will have "farm" teams which will give more boys a chance to play baseball this summer.

Sponsored entirely by the Valleyfield Rotary Club, this venture gives the boys in our city a chance to play ball like any Big League. This year, the Rotary hopes to secure grounds to build a ball park and recreational area for the children of Valleyfield. There was a possibility of securing part of Parc Sauve for this field, but according to the latest news from the city council, this has fallen through. At the present the Rotary is in search for a suitable site for their recreational field. A grant from the Provincial Government will be forthcoming in the near future to help the Rotary in building a club-house and bleachers for the recreational field. All the money collected at the games will go to the teams, to sponsor trips and picnics during the season.

The Board of Directors for the Valleyfield Little League this year are: Medard Cousineau, President; William Hendershott, vice-president; Cliff Foley, secretary; Roger Bernard, Treasurer. Also on the Board of Directors are Philippe Malouin, William Dickie, Dr. L. P. Brisson, Arthur Beaulieu and Marcel Boucher.

Umpire in Chief is E. Burgess and Charles Zeagman, Gordon Cousineau and J. P. de Repentigny are umpires. The Team managers are Marcel Lalonde, Adrien Lefebvre, Peter Stanger and William Dickie, Marcel Bessette, J. Degre, R. Lacroix and J. Morin are the Coaches.

All English speaking boys from the Gault School (11-12 yrs) are invited to see the team coaches in their wards if they are interested in playing ball in the Little League.

Andre Corriveau to Play Fast Ball in Montreal

Andre Corriveau, flashy star of the Valleyfield Hockey team will play Fast ball in Montreal this season.

Andre, a fast character on the ice, will play short stop, the "hot slot", for the Fisher Brothers team in the Snowdon League this year. This will be the 8th season in fast ball for the popular Corriveau. In 1953 Andre played for Savorin Electric during the whole season and then played in the Eastern Canada championship with Northern Electric, against Hamilton. Northern Electric took the Eastern Canada championship that year in 2 out of 3 games with C orraveiuhgt; , shrdlu shrr with Corriveau hitting a home run in the first game. To an all round athlete we wish a good year.

TRACK MEET AND FIELD DAY 14th. Trials for the track team were held on Monday the 9th. to determine the number of entries. The Interscholastic Track Meet and Field Day of the Chateau-guay Valley District will be held in Ormstown on Saturday, May 14th. Any offers of transportation will be greatly appreciated.

Other bad practices are leaving the mower out over night and failing to wipe the cutting edges dry after each mowing. The blades, being of high grade steel, are not stainless; in fact they rust rather easily. Often the cutters are set too close to the strike bar. It may be a dramatic sight to show the mower snipping paper like a pair of scissors but setting the cutters so close makes for increased wear. They should be as far apart as possible so long as they don't jam. Set properly they will cut dry grass but jam on wet grass. It is advisable to set your mower in such a way that it will cut two to three thickness of newspaper.

New Lawn Sprinkling System

"Install-it-yourself" sprinkler systems for lawns were a feature at the National Home Show at Toronto this year. They are all based on new plastic piping, inserted in a slit dug in the lawn and covered over. The householder can leave them there all winter, let the water freeze in them without damage. The pipe is buried five inches or so below the surface, with "risers" up the sprinkler heads. It can be connected to the hose, or in at least one case, to a separate pipe that leaves the outside tap free. Another arrangement puts the sprinkler system in an "L" at the tap; another hose can be attached to the second arm of the "L" to wash the car.

One system covers up to 2,400 sq. ft. with six sprinkler heads for a suggested retail price of $49.50. "Easy to Install" advertises the maker. "All you need is your pocket knife, pliers and a spade! "The sprinkler heads are installed flush with the ground line, so the lawn mower has free passage over them.
