No Reaction From Council on House Keepers Protests

The newly-formed Westmount Property and Guest House Owners Association has announced that a public meeting will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 11, to form plans for fighting the by-law prohibiting operation of guest houses.

Elphege Menard, president of the organization, told The Examiner that members of the association who operate guest houses have been instructed to carry on with such operation past the date of enforcement of the by-law. He expects that some members will be summoned to face charges in Recorder's Court, and intends to appeal any penalty handed out by the Recorder.

The Association is not limited in membership only to these operators. Its charter states that it exists "to promote and develop the economic, social, and moral interests of the owners of lands, immovable properties, and guest houses of the City of Westmount and in general of all those interested in the betterment of living conditions in the city."

City Refuses Rental

The City has refused to rent a meeting place in Victoria Hall at the reduced rate which is usually given to municipal organizations. "They told us that this was done on the grounds that we are not recognized as an organization in the municipal interests", Mr. Menard stated.

The organization, which presently numbers 35 members, has elected an executive to head the coming legal battles. It includes Elphege Menard as president; Alan Mitchell, vice-president; Mrs. D. Cardinal, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. White, committee chairman; and Directors D. Lerner, L.M. Therrien, J. E. Roberge, and M. Lahaise.

To Continue Year-Round

Mr. Menard said that the organization is not just a temporary one, formed to fight the present by-law, but that it will continue to operate on a "year-round basis for the protection of the public's interest in Westmount."

He said that the Council has so far appeared quite complacent about the association's demands and that no word has yet been heard from the Council concerning the association's objections to the by-law enforcement.

He also stated that such a by-law "is completely undemocratic because any law with such far-reaching implications should be decided by a referendum." However, he added, "we have a few plans of our own in this fight." He declined to enlarge upon the statement.

Valuation Roll Appeals To Be Heard On Tuesday

Appeals to the city council on the valuation roll will be heard Tuesday evening in the council chamber at 8 p.m. it was announced today. City officials revealed ten appeals will be made. One of the appellants is going to ask for a higher valuation.

Summer Program Closing Ceremony At YMCA Tonight

Lumberman and Voyageur Week, the climax of the entire summer program for boys at the Westmount Y.M.C.A., will come to a close tonight, with an official closing at 7:30 p.m.

Concluding a continuous ten-week program for boys 9 to 16 years of age, the Lumbermen, upholding the tradition of their illustrious ancestors, have battled for an entire week against their renowned rivals — the Voyageurs.

Miniature axes and paddles, made by the boys themselves, were proudly worn around their necks to signify their allegiance. Tall stories and tales of the prowess of these two great peoples were a constant refrain.

This morning a full hour show was staged by each of the groups, taunting their opponents and lauding their fellow men. Secret meetings were called to plan strategy for the various competitions held during the week. These included a swimming meet, volleyball games, a track meet, a regatta, a softball game, a commando run, and various indoor games.

The results of the Games will be announced tonight at the official closing at 7:30 p.m., when the General Secretary of the Korean Y.M.C.A., Mr. S. Y. Chang, will be the honoured guest and will present the trophy to the winning team.

Westmount Driver Involved In Crash

Four persons suffered minor cuts and bruises when a car rammed a parked auto on Lajeunesse Street early Sunday morning. The injured were Jules Tremblay, 24, 41 Chesterfield Avenue, Westmount, the driver, and passengers, Diana Guenette, 25, 2021 Le Caron Street, Lillian Grenier, 21, 7727 St. Dominique Street, and Jeannine Caron, 20, 2021 Le Caron Street.

The accident occurred opposite 8910 Lajeunesse Street, according to police at No. 29 station.

Businessmen Ridicule Guest House Statements

"We are not going to back up the Westmount Property and Guest House Association in any way whatsoever," said Ken Willock, president of the Business Association of Westmount today.

"Why should we get into a fight that doesn't concern us," he declared. "Why should we spend our funds on an abortive incident like that?"

Mr. Willock reported that the matter had been taken up with the Businessmen's Association in all its seriousness.

"As to the loss of $1,000,000 worth of revenue in business, the operator of commercial shops in the community say it is not true," he continued.

He stated that he had personally made a poll of the different proprietors and found that very little business comes their way from the 2,000 boarders and roomers in the city.

Mr. Willock made this statement in reply to Elphege Menard's remarks last week in The Examiner that the city would lose $1,000,000 worth of business. Mr. Menard is president of the Property and Guest House Association. Most of the young people living in the guest houses he said spent only $2 a week in the city, not $10 as Mr. Menard avowed.

He contended that they left their residences at 8 o'clock in the morning and most purchases they made during the day were down town.

"Being in business in the city myself," he stated, "I can say that I haven't made more than five deliveries of items to residents of guest houses."

He maintained that the spending power of these people didn't merit the energy and money of the Businessmen's Association.

If this was going to effect the merchants of Westmount, he stated, there would have been a "lot of beefing" on their part by now.

He stated that the Westmount Property and Guest House Owners Association was not even going to get the moral support of the businessmen.

He declared that they had offered their support to these people in the past and that they had been turned down. At the time the Association had offered membership to operators of guest houses it had been refused on the grounds that they were not operating as a business.

"Now that the chips are down," he said, "they come to us asking for help."

On Bell Board

Col. R. D. Harkness, D.S.O., M.C., of Westmount, who has been appointed a director of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, filling the vacancy caused by the death of Paul F. Sise. He was also appointed a member of the executive committee. Col. Harkness is president of the Northern Electric Company Ltd. and is a director of the Montreal Trust Company, Howard Smith Paper Mills Ltd., Amalgamated Electric Corporation Ltd., and the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Ltd.

Stairs Wrecked By Runaway Car

A car rolled down Prince Albert Avenue last week and demolished the porch stairs of the house belonging to W. H. Moore, of 390 Prince Albert.

Police said the owner of the car, H. Martin, of 477 Prince Albert, parked his car outside of his home with the handbrakes on.

He turned his back to attend to something for a minute and when he turned around his auto was on its way downhill. Damage to the car was extensive and the stairs were demolished.

S.Y. Chang From Korea Is "Y" Guest Speaker Tonight

Tonight, at 7:30 p.m., the General Secretary of the Korean National Council of the Y.M.C.A., S. Y. Chang, will be the honoured guest at the official closing of Westmount Y.M.C.A.'s summer program for boys.

Mr. Chang arrived from the far East approximately two months ago to attend the Centennial Celebration of the Y.M.C.A. of North America at Cleveland, Ohio, in June. Since that time, the Korean General Secretary has been visiting various Associations in Canada and the United States, and will conclude his two-day stay in Montreal Friday evening following his visit to the Westmount "Y".

All members and dads are invited to attend the informal closing, which will also mark the climax of the famed Lumberman and Voyageur Games. Results of the entire week's competitions and games will be announced, and Mr. Chang will present the trophy to the winning team. A father-and-son swim will follow the official closing.

Westmount Member Fires Broadside At Premier

George Marler, Quebec Opposition leader and member for Westmount-St. George, said Monday the bloc of eight Liberal members is not afraid to discuss the Duplessis bridge collapse when the session opens Nov. 7, nor any other matter.

This statement was one of a series issued to the press in reply to statements made by Premier Duplessis at his press conference Friday.

Mr. Marler said his letter to the premier asking that a lawyer be named to represent the Opposition at the Three Rivers bridge enquiry had been delivered by messenger to the Premier's secretary at 11.45 a.m. Aug. 21 and the Premier was trying to create a wrong impression by saying he had learned of his letter only through the newspapers. Mr. Marler said he had not given his letter to the newspapers before it reached the premier's office.

'To Represent Public'

"I did not ask the prime minister that the province pay the costs of a lawyer to represent the Opposition at the Three River enquiry, as Mr. Duplessis claims. In the past when there were enquiries ordered into the conduct of a government, or one of its departments, as is actually the case, the governments which have respected themselves have followed the tradition of choosing the lawyer to conduct the enquiry from the ranks of the adverse party. I was, therefore, quite astonished that Mr. Duplessis did not judge it opportune to follow this tradition, based on common sense, and that he named a lawyer whose services the present government has retained on other occasions, and who is well known as a supporter of the National Union party. Under these circumstances I wrote to the prime minister to tell him that I believed it would be in the public interest that another lawyer designated by me, should also be named by the Government. I did not ask that this lawyer represent the Opposition; and it is evident that if the Government had accepted my suggestion, the lawyer named would have represented the public and not the Opposition."

Waited for Inquiry

On the criticism that the Opposition had not raised the bridge issue when the public works estimates were before the House, Mr. Marler said: "We did not raise this question a second time because Mr. Duplessis, in the course of a debate on the subject, promised to hold a complete and impartial enquiry into the causes of the crumbling of the bridge. It is as amusing today to see Mr. Duplessis criticize our silence on this question during the study of the estimates as it was to hear him talk of sabotage as the cause of the disaster."

As to the premier's "boasting" of his generosity to the Opposition, Mr. Marler pointed out that when Mr. Duplessis received a salary of $5,000 a year as leader of the Opposition, the revenue of the province had been under $50,000,000, whereas today when he, Mr. Marler, receives a salary of $8,000 as Opposition leader, the government is spending $236,000,000 a year. Furthermore, said Mr. Marler, the salary of the Opposition had been raised long before he had been placed in that position.

As to the premier's reference to the Government's payment of $2,500 a year to a lawyer to aid the Opposition, Mr. Marler said that each year he personally and publicly thanked the premier for doing this to facilitate the work of the Opposition of eight members, so that they might acquit themselves the better of their responsibilities.

I Remember

By G. P. SMITH

A series of articles by a retired coach and physical director recalling great athletes and great teams. Mr. Smith was 32 years of Westmount High as director of physical education (boys), and concurrently 28 years at McGill as wrestling coach.

In coaching school teams every year, a sports director learns something new that is of value to him in getting better results with the boys under his care. One thing is that no one can pick a phoney quicker than a bunch of schoolboys.

I have found that if you can give a boy a reason and back it up for every move he is to make you are more likely to get results than if you just tell him to do this or do that.

Many coaches make the mistake of insisting that the players do things according to what the book says forgetting that the book is a composite of a great many different players, others, if they are old players, insist on the player doing certain things the way they used to do it. This is the biggest mistake of all, as the player may be a different build and mentally another type to that of the coach and it would not be natural for him to do it in the way set for him. In my opinion, it is best to set a standard and let results speak for themselves.

Individual Styles

A few examples will explain my contention. Hughie Farquharson, a great player, got good results playing it his way, whereas if Glen Brydson tried playing it the same way he would have been lost. Likewise Jimmy Thomson, one of the best future greats that ever played for the school, was an individualist and Murray Patrick did not play it like Doug Heron or Johnny Porter, yet they were all good in their own way.

Who could expect Maurice Richard to play like Elmer Lach or Elmer to play like that grand old timer, Hooley Smith, or the latter play like Syl Apps, or Frank Nighbor, anymore than Dicky Boon playing it like Bucko McDonald. I could go on stating examples back to the time of the Brannens, Tom Phillips, Cyclone Taylor, Si Griffis, the great Frank McGee and a host of others, all great in their own way.

One of the main reasons for the success of the school in sports in the past was that every boy was treated as an individual and he was given a reason for every move he was supposed to make on the ice or football field and then he was fitted into his particular niche on the team.

To give an example of how effective this type can be, we were unfortunate in having all but two of our seniors and four of our B team graduate in the spring, leaving green men to take their place. For three full weeks of training without one scrimmage, each practice consisting of fundamentals and daily signal drill which hardened them up, we had a few days before the opening game and had our first scrimmage. The team went into the first game without any bruises or strain and won, then went on to win the championship. The B team and juniors won their titles as well.

I have noticed over the years that many coaches of teams in the big leagues coaching a school team did not enjoy the success you would expect from them, due, no doubt, to the advanced type of work they give the boys who are not ready for it.

A school team must creep before it walks and they must be grounded in the simplest of fundamentals, unless they are carrying excess weight every boy in his training should gain weight and carry it through the season, otherwise they are likely to be forcing themselves after half time and in many cases playing on their nerve. We made it a practise of weighing the boys throughout the season for their own protection and also I found boys less likely to be hurt when not over tired.

This brings to mind an incident that happened on the park in a league game. Our opponents who, without a doubt, were the better team, came running across the park behind their captain and looked very competent and perky with their full protective equipment and their wrists and ankles bandaged, as they passed me I noticed their faces looked rather drawn and white. Before play started I called my team in a huddle and changed our plans by having them come to us until I ordered otherwise. This we did by kicking on first down and keeping them in their end of the field until halftime, after which I gave orders to go get them, which they did in the second half, winning by a comfortable score.

Towards the end of the game in all my years as coach, I was never nearer hitting an opposing coach as I was then when he came down to our bench and became rather personal and abusive. He had previously coached adult teams and had overtrained the boy team.

Another incident bearing on the same theme happened following a losing year at the school, when the senior squad came into my office and asked me if I would object if they approached the school board in reference to engaging a big time coach who had arrived in Montreal to coach a big four team. He evidently had been talking to them during the track season and filled them up with what he could do with them in football.

Big Time Coach

I agreed and went before the board and made the request which was granted, giving me a stipulated amount and the right to engage this party (which I did verbally with the written contract to follow).

At the first practice under him the whole squad came into my office asked me if I would take over as they did not like what he was giving them, and asked if it was possible to break his contract. This put me in a rather awkward spot, but due to clause in the school rules and as no contract had been signed I was able to get out of it.

I asked the boys after what was the matter with his coaching. They advised me that what he was giving them was away over their heads and they were not ready for it. It seems he had coached as assistant at a large U.S. college

Westmount Boys Return Following Extensive Tour of France

Under the leadership of Robert A. Peck, supervisor of French for Westmount schools, 21 boys from Westmount High School returned recently in the Cunarder Franconia after spending a month travelling mostly in France. The object of the tour, Mr. Peck said, was to gain a greater knowledge of practical French. Mr. Peck added that the trip was a success and hoped to make it an annual event for Westmount students. The group, shown on the deck of the Franconia, included: Michael Pittfield, Frank Evans, Alexander Cross, Roy Bond, John Moffat, Ted Fullerton, Malcolm Innes, John Brierly, Mitchel Bronfman, Hamilton May, Bruce Robertson, Michael Sundell, Daniel Slatkin, Raphael Fleming, Donald Mendelman, David Franklin, Peter Shapiro, Danny Wainberg, Robert Silverman, Gerald Levy, Monte Silverstone, and Mr. Peck.

Council Approves Lot Re-Division On Oakland Ave.

The City Council gave approval at its last meeting for the re-division of lots on Oakland and Westmount Avenues for the construction of seven dwellings.

They included lots 282 to 294, inclusive, on Oakland Avenue, re-division of four lots into three for the construction of three houses by the Owen Roberts Company.

The other lots were 212 to 216 on Westmount Avenue, for re-division of five lots into four for the erection of four homes by the Norton A. Fellows Company.

Permission was granted the Owen Roberts Company to build three garages as part of the proposed dwellings not less than 50 feet from the street line.

Permission was given Norton A. Fellows Company to build two garages as part of the proposed dwellings not less than 50 feet from the street line.

Work Hard For Ideals Speaker Urges Rotarians

The need for service clubs to strive harder for the accomplishment of their ideals was urged by Edwin C. Ford, vice-president of Gyro International and past president of district 23, in outlining the history and function of Gyro at the Westmount Rotary Club, Wednesday.

"We clubs," the speaker stated, "have a personal job to do. We have a charge that we are not living up to. We should be thinking a little deeper and work a little harder."

He added that, "we are skipping over some of the considerations of what is good in man."

In speaking of the development of Gyro clubs throughout the United States and Canada, Mr.

Ford said that the principle of friendship has been the inspiration and basis for all clubs and that through personal contacts of various members visiting in neighboring cities, new clubs have sprung up.

Besides the principle of friendship, the speaker said, "the words power, poise and purpose" are important concepts in Gyro fellowship. He added that there are few rules in the organization and the type of work and program to conduct is left for each club to decide. The one project that Gyro International has instituted since its formation 40 years ago, he said, was in 1941 when the clubs sent a total of 22 millions of cigarettes to men overseas.

Outlining the history of Gyro, Mr. Ford stated the origin of the movement dated back to 1912

Westmount RCAF Pipers Acclaimed In Edinburgh

W. P. Ransom Died Suddenly At Home

William Punshon Ransom, of 338 Elm Avenue, Westmount, a former member of Pointe Claire town council, died suddenly early Monday morning as a result of a heart attack. He was in his 81st year.

Mr. Ransom was born and educated in Montreal, but lived for many years at Pointe Claire where he made a substantial contribution to the Lilly Memorial Church. He was also superintendent of the church's Sunday school.

An accountant and salesman by profession, Mr. Ransom worked with the Burland Lithographing Company and later with the Consolidated Lithographing Company in Montreal until he retired eight years ago.

During his retirement Mr. Ransom made many visits to the sick in the larger city hospitals.

He is survived by his wife, the former Jane Robinson, of Westmount, a brother John Milton Ransom, of Toronto, a sister Miss Maude Ransom, of Westmount, and a cousin Andrew H. Ransom, of Westmount.

The funeral service was held in the chapel of Joseph C. Wray & Bro., Mountain street, Wednesday. Rev. George K. Ward officiated and burial was in Mount Royal cemetery.

When three Cleveland men founded the first informal club. He said that Gyro was the "second oldest unit, next to Rotary, on the North American Continent."

In 1919, he said, a Gyro club sprang up in Chicago and later in Toronto. By 1920, he added, the first Gyro International convention was held.

Today, the speaker stated, Gyro clubs stretch from Dawson Creek in the Yukon to California, from the west to the east coast of Canada and all across the United States. Membership in the organization is "growing steadily" he said.

The speaker was introduced by Harry Griffin and thanked by Allie Boire.

Calgary Visit to P.P.C.L.I.

* The McGill grads' head, who will also attend a meeting of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants opening Sept. 4 at Banff, will meet officers of the Calgary branch of the Graduates' Society this weekend. While he is in Calgary he will also visit former members of the Princes Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, with whom he served during World War I.

He will outline the success of graduates' class re-unions, nearly 30 of which are scheduled for this fall; the growth in membership in the society from 3,100 in 1941 to more than 7,000 for the year ending May 31 last; the success of class organization, notably among members of the graduating classes, of whom 500 enrolled in the society at the time of graduation in May; the stimulation of interest in the Alma Mater Fund, which raised $61,000 in the first year of its operation in 1947 and last year raised $121,000 for urgent university needs.

Two Key Groups

Mr. deLalanne will emphasize the importance in alumni work of strong branch organization, and actively functions class officers, as being the two key groups in the success of the society's efforts.

There are now 49 branches of the society, with the 50th, the Newfoundland branch, scheduled to open this fall. The branches are located throughout Canada, the United States, Great Britain, British West Indies and South America.

There are 192 McGill graduates in the Calgary area where Mr. Justice S. J. Shepherd is president of the local branch; 524 in Vancouver and district where Dr. A. Leigh Hunt is president, and 198 in the Victoria area where Robert S. O'Meara serves as head of the branch.

There are 86 graduates in the Washington State branch area, which has its headquarters in

Campaign Readied By Homoeopathic; Seek $98,000 Goal

Preparations are well under way for the start of the Homoeopathic Hospital's annual financial campaign, Sept. 5 - 22, D. B. Creighton, prominent local investment dealer and drive chairman, reported today.

The objective has been set at $98,000. Careful study has shown is the strict minimum necessary to overcome the annual operating deficit and to replace a very small part of the institution's worn equipment.

Douglas Bremner, hospital president, recently announced the appointment of Mr. Creighton as campaign chairman and at the same time expressed his pleasure that the drive would be in such capable hands.

Mr. Bremner pointed out that through the years the hospital has become more essential than ever, particularly in the Notre Dame de Grace district where it is located. Calls on its services have increased which, coupled with higher costs, have made the financial problem assume more importance than ever.

Other Officials

Assisting Mr. Creighton in his important task will be S. B. Kimber, deputy chairman; John R. Gale, chairman special names; R. P. Howard, vice-chairman, special names; G. B. Puddicombe, K.C., chairman, territorial divisions; A. Ogilvy Leslie, vice-chairman, territorial divisions; Keith B. Cromble, chairman publicity; H. C. Howard, vice-chairman, publicity; J. M. McConnell, Jr., and John B. Lewis, advisory committee, and tual hospital costs averaged $13.15 a day per patient. There were 4,761 patients hospitalized in 1950 and 17,756 examinations and treatments at the hospital in the outdoor department clinics. Of these clinic cases, 12,583 were either surgical or emergency cases. A large number of the patients could make only a small payment or none at all.

In bespeaking a generous response from everybody, the chairman declared: "Please remember when you are deciding the amount of your subscription, your gift may help to save a life or ease long painful hours of suffering and that contributions are deductible for income tax purposes to the extent provided by the law."

Bank Display Teaches New Family-Financing Plan

Bank of Montreal men and women answer the personal financing and banking questions of visitors to their booth in the "Design for Living" section of the Coliseum building in the Canadian National Exhibition, just opened in Toronto. The first bank display ever set up at the C.N.E., the B of M booth last year attracted more than a quarter-of-a-million visitors and supplied information on Personal Planning to 27,000 of them.

More than 5,000 people sat down with the bank's personnel to discuss their financial affairs and banking problems. Since the introduction of Personal Planning at that time, over 100,000 persons have individually sought information on this new money management system. The experience of many of them indicates its unique effectiveness in meeting the high cost of living.

"Our boys signed thousands of autographs, and everybody wanted to know about our R.C.A.F. kilts," Pipe Major Laurie told The Star today. "They had never seen an air force pipe band before, but the way they liked us I think there'll be plenty of them before long." The pipers from 401 Squadron, who were the youngest, as a band, among some 1,200 pipers rallied in Scotland for the clan gathering, placed second in competition to the Argyl and Sutherland Highlanders of Canada from Hamilton, Ont. They nosed out the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada from Vancouver and bands from Australia and Rhodesia.

Modern Youth Not Decadent

Westmount And Other Parents Urged To Take-Stock

Westmount schools re-open next week and the long grind for students and teachers alike, starts again for another school year.

It was therefore fitting and timely that the Municipal Service Bureau and the City Improvement League sponsored a radio-address on Saturday by Robert A. Spiers, headmaster of Selwyn House School.

Mr. Spiers said that nothing could be further from the truth than to say that modern youth is decadent. He was commenting on the many stories which have recently appeared in the press concerning delinquency amongst high school students in the United States and at Crystal Beach, Ontario.

It is true of youth in every age that their condition is one of unstable equilibrium

— but their extremes of conduct, their extravagances of emotion and language and even of dress are, Mr. Spiers said he felt confident, only the forerunners of that integration of life which we hope to find in the adult citizen, if parents and teachers play their part conscientiously in their development.

At the opening of the school year is a good time for parental stock-taking. What is our rating with our children? How well have we risen to the greatness of our responsibilities? Were a few of the questions Mr. Spiers put to parents.

The Selwyn School headmaster, warned parents to focus their attention on three main characteristics of youth — "their responsiveness to vital, enthusiastic leadership; their keen sensitiveness to encouragement; and their genuine need of wholehearted confidence in them."

Team play for both parents and children should be encouraged he said.

That parents are taking a keener interest in their children's schooling is evidenced by the activities of Home and School Associations in which the parents and teachers get together to discuss the many problems to be faced in this ever changing day and age.

This is a step in the right direction and should lead to better co-operation between teacher and parent with ultimate benefit to the child. In the past too many parents have tried to push the responsibility of rearing the child on the shoulders of the teacher, forgetting that what the child learns in school, may easily be undone if the home training and atmosphere is not in harmony with the school approach.

Christian Science

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The Golden Text is from John 5:19: "The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him. And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus said unto the centurion: 'Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.'" (Matthew 8.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Our Master is first article of faith propounded to his students was healing, and he proved his faith by his works. God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such a material law, it would oppose the supremacy of Spirit, God, and impugn the wisdom of the creator. Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws. His acts were the demonstration of Science, overcoming the false claims of material sense or law."

Westmount Baptist

After a vacation spent on the Maine Coast, Dr. J. A. Johnston returns to his pulpit in Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday.

The theme of the morning sermons will be — "The House on the Top of the Mountains," while that of the evening will be — "We have Found" — Water. Strangers and Visitors to the city are cordially invited to attend these services.

Holiday Asked On Oct. 23

The Editor
The Examiner.
Sir,
Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, the future rulers of the British Commonwealth of Nations, will visit here on October 23 according to the itinerary of the Royal Tour published.

I sincerely hope that Westmount City Council and the Westmount School Commissioners will see fit to proclaim a holiday on this history making event.

Those of us who were privileged to see King George and Queen Mary on the occasion of their visit to Westmount in May 1939 will never forget the enthusiasm aroused amongst the children who lined the route when their majesties passed.

If we are to preserve the royal connection and I for one shudder to think otherwise, it is important that as many people as possible be given an opportunity to see the royal couple.

I hope that consideration will be given to the suggestion that our civic and school authorities make it a real holiday for the people here.

A Westmount Parent.

Keep Rooming-Houses Out

The Editor
The Examiner.
Sir,
After reading the Examiner of last week in which the formation of the Westmount Guest-House Keepers Association was reported, I am left rather at a loss to understand the attitude of these people.

They were told some six or seven years ago that rooming-houses would not be permitted in certain areas, but despite this warning, they continue to operate and even open up new boarding-houses in the banned zones evidently hoping that the federal housing laws would afford them protection. When the federal act was rescinded in April of this year, Westmount immediately enforced the by-law already in effect.

Just why certain individuals should think it a right to move in on Westmount with rooming houses, taking advantage of the many privileges residents here enjoy, simply for their own financial benefit is not at all clear.

Residents of any municipality have a right to say just how they wish the city to be run, and to decide what kind of a city it should be. I am quite sure that the majority of property owners would not be happy to think of Westmount in terms of a Montreal bed-room.

To our City Council I would say keep Westmount the fine residential city it is, and keep out these rooming-house operators.

Old Resident.

Calvary United Church

The services of Sunday will conclude the union services of First Baptist and Calvary Congregations for this summer period. At the morning service at 11 a.m. the sermon theme will be "The Transforming Power of Love." The communion of The Lord's Supper will follow the Sermon. The evening service will be held in the Church at 7.30 p.m. The guest preacher will be the Rev. E. Clifford Knowles, M.A., B.D., Chaplain and Student Counsellor at McGill University.

Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 8 p.m., there will be a joint meeting of the Women's Association and the Elizabeth Read Missionary Auxiliary, in the Ladies' Parlors. All the young ladies of the congregation are invited.

On Sunday, Sept. 9, at the morning service a Memorial Window will be unveiled commemorating the life and work of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. E. Munson Hill. The three daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Hill will take part in the unveiling, and Rev. E. C. Woodley and Rev. Charles Cushing, both of whom obtained their ministerial degrees during the principalship of Dr. Hill in the Congregational College, will conduct the service and preach the sermon. At the evening service Sept. 9, the Rev. F.A.C. Doxsee, M.A., B.D., Minister of Union Church, St. Anne de Bellevue, will preach.

The Nursery Division and the Mission Band will re-open on Sunday morning September 9, during the hour of service. The Church School will re-open on Sunday morning, Sept. 16, at 9.45 a.m. with an open session.

DEFEATING THE KILLERS

The average person, in his daily routine, encounters the germs of tuberculosis and, occasionally, the germs actually enter his body. Most people, however, are able to resist the disease. Care of general health, well balanced meals and regular chest x-rays are the surest means of controlling what was once a major killer.

WEDDINGS

McOUAT-BREMNER

At Westview, the county home at Isle Cadieux, Que., of the bride's parents on Saturday afternoon Aug. 25, at half-past three o'clock the marriage took place of Miss Mary Evelyn Bremner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bremner, to Mr. John Donald McOuat, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McOuat of Montreal. Rev. Dr. Charles F. Johnston officiated. Mr. John Robb played the Wurlitzer organ and Mrs. Ellen Reynolds was soloist.

The bridal couple stood beneath an arch of white gladioli during the ceremony. The bride's sisters attended her. Miss Marjorie Bremner as maid of honor and Miss Carol Bremner as bridesmaid.

Mr. Walter N. Nickles acted as best man for Mr. McOuat and ushers were Mr. W. N. Reynolds, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Reginald Parker.

Given away by her father the bride wore a white flowered nylon organdy frock over white taffeta, made with fitted jacket with tiny buttons, stand up pointed collar, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and bouffant skirt falling into a slight train. Her finger tip veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of organdy trimmed with orange blossoms and stephanotis.

She carried an all white cascade bouquet of gladioli and stephanotis.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid were dressed alike in flowered nylon organdy over taffeta. The frocks had fitted bodices with small boleros and bouffant skirts. They wore Juliet caps to tone with their costumes trimmed with pink gladioli and delphiniums and carried cascade bouquets of the same flowers. The maid of honor was in aqua and the bridesmaid in rose.

Mrs. Bremner, mother of the bride, wore a floor length gown of brown lace over apricot satin with matching hat and corsage bouquet of Pinocchio roses. Mrs. McOuat, the bridegroom's mother, wore a floor length original model of blue taffeta, a corsage of pink carnations and pink accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table was adorned with candles and white flowers. Garden flowers decorated the rooms.

The couple left on a motor tour

Guet de Lausanne Shouts Each Hour Far Into the Night

A watchman who nightly calls the hours from the tower of the Cathedral of Lausanne, Switzerland, remains as a reminder of the medieval institution of the "guet." The present-day guet, or watchman, is named René Mignot and every night at 8.30 he climbs to the bell-tower of the 13th century Notre Dame Cathedral, 120 feet above the streets of Lausanne, to keep his solitary vigil.

At 9 o'clock the largest of the seven bells in the tower sounds the hour. M. Mignot hurries out to the gallery, cups his hands to his mouth, and shouts: "C'est le guet! Il a sonné neuf!" (It's the watchman. It has sounded nine.)

He repeats this cry four times walking around the tower, to the north, east, south, and west. The same routine is followed every hour, until 4 a.m.

In olden times the guet's duties also included ringing the bells, but M. Mignot's duties have been lightened as the bells are electrified.

It was once the custom for every large city in Europe to have a guet calling the hours of the night and watching for fires from the highest vantage point in the area. M. Mignot is the last of this unusual group of watchmen, but on an average of twice a month he spots a fire and turns in the alarm by direct telephone to the police station.

M. Mignot has been the cathedral watchman for the past two years. He succeeded his father, Charles, who held the post for 26 years. Formerly a shoemaker, René Mignot plans to make the cathedral watch job his career.

"Perhaps I don't serve any very useful purpose up here, especially now that the bells are all electrified," he says, "but I like the job."

in Eastern Canada and a boat cruise.

The bride wore for travelling a tailored navy crepe dress with red accessories and a corsage of red and white glamelias.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donald McOuat will reside in Montreal.

The bride is a graduate of Macdonald College and the bridegroom of McGill University.

Miss Blanche Emard, Olivier Avenue, is spending the holiday weekend in Ottawa.

Mrs. M. G. MacDonald of 227 Elm Avenue, has left by automobile for a month's trip through the western provinces. She is accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. Ford, and their son, Junior.

The Misses Frances Henry, Norma Colcomb, Lorna Coddington and Hilda McConkey are at present vacationing in Bermuda.

Mrs. Doreen Day Troup arrived home in Montreal on the liner Empress of Canada after a trip to England and the Continent.

Mrs. Pierre F. Casgrain, O.B.E., has returned from a stay at Baie Comeau, Que., where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Panet-Raymond.

Messrs. Reg. Groome and Alan Stone, who attended the World Scout Jamboree in Austria and later visited the British Isles and various countries on the Continent, will be passengers on the S.S. Empress of Scotland which will arrive at Quebec on Monday, September 3.

Dr. J. Ray Carson, M.A., and Mrs. Carson, accompanied by their son and daughter Mr. Ross Carson and Miss Isabel Ann Carson, are spending ten days in New York. On their return they will take up residence on Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount. Mr. Ross Carson, prior to going to New York, had just returned from Camp Shilo, Manitoba, where he had been training as a cadet artillery officer, and he will shortly return to St. Francis Xavier University to resume his studies there.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ilvray announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline (Pennie) to Mr. Earl G. Davidson, son of the late Henry George Davidson and of Mrs. Davidson of Outremont, the wedding to take place at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, September 15, in the chapel of the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount.

Mr. and Mrs. Havard J. Williams of Westmount announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gwendolyn Mae, to Mr. Thomas Garfield Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pierce Gould of Notre Dame de Grace. The wedding has been arranged to take place at half-past four o'clock on Thursday afternoon, September 6, in Trinity Memorial Church.

Canadian Cadets Send Gift to Princess

Favorite among estimated $200,000 worth of birthday gifts received by Princess Margaret on her 21st birthday was beautiful mink cape displayed by Richard Smith and Jean McKelgan. Gift was sent by Canadian cadets of St. John Ambulance Corps, of which Princess Margaret is commandant-in-chief. Shower of diamonds, pearls, sapphires and furs which princess received as birthday gifts from all parts of the world made her closest thing to a fairy princess Europe has seen for decades.

Use Up Your Garden Vegetables In Colorful Pickles, Preserves

Yellows, greens and reds will make late-summer pickles colorful additions to the pickle shelf. You'll find that these recipes use the vegetables from your own garden or those that are reasonably priced in the stores. Easily made, they are good insurance against dull meals, come winter.

Each of these recipes will make a valuable addition to your pickle recipe file:

Pickled Cauliflower

- 2 quarts of cauliflower flowerettes
- ½ cup salt
- 1 quart white wine vinegar
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons mixed pickling spices.

Let cauliflower stand overnight in brine made by using ½ cup salt with enough water to cover. Drain and rinse thoroughly. Bring the vinegar, sugar and spices (which have been tied in a bag) to the boil and boil for 1 or 2 minutes. Remove the spices and put the cauliflower in. Just bring to the boil and pack in sterilized jars. Seal immediately.

Green Tomato Preserves

- 1 quart sliced green tomatoes,
 - 1 lemon
 - 4 cups sugar
 - 1 stick cinnamon
 - Few tiny pieces ginger root
 - ¾ teaspoon thyme.
- Although the tomatoes start out green, the preserves turn out henna color. Slice up your tomatoes and put them in a large kettle. Grate the lemon and add the rind. Then add the lemon itself, cut up into small pieces, and all the other ingredients. Let the whole business stand for at least 2 hours. (This to make juice.) Cook over slow heat until tomatoes are thick, stirring occasionally, probably about 20 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

Indian Chutney

- 1 pound sour apples, chopped
- 1 pound onions, chopped
- 1 pound tomatoes, partially green
- 1 pound seeded raisins
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ½ teaspoon black pepper
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- 2 pieces dried ginger root.

Combine ingredients, cover with apple vinegar and cook slowly for 4 hours. Pack in sterilized jars and seal. Ready to serve in 1 month. Cider vinegar may be used instead of apple vinegar.

Former London Guide Organizer Tells of Heroic Work in Blitz

By CAROLE McDONELL

A pretty, young war bride with soft blond hair and intensely blue eyes is not what one expects to fit the rigid title of Western District Guide Commissioner. Nor does one expect the holder of this important post to be the mother of two lively children, and a Sunday School Beginners Superintendent.

Yet Mrs. George Stewart Lunan is all of these, carrying out her many duties with characteristic British readiness and grace. As we sat in her chic Benny Farm apartment, Mrs. Lunan told us a little of herself, but mostly about the courage and energy of London guides during the war. A nurse at the immense base hospital there, she was in direct contact with the fright and gloom caused by the first air attacks, and saw the need for a civilian auxiliary group to do the simple protective and cheering-up tasks in the shelters, which the busy wardens and professionals could not handle.

She discussed it with others, and on the basis of her experience (Mrs. Lunan has been in guiding since she was eight) she was given charge of all guides who came to the hospital, where miles of underground corridors provided shelter for some 800 people. She quickly collected girls of many races and creeds with one sure thing in common: they were all enthusiastic guides.

Meetings were easily arranged, for alerts were frequent and when the bombs had begun to take their toll of buildings, the homeless simply moved into the shelters. Uniforms were not required, but in most cases the badges were worn.

Show Unselfish Courage

The plucky brigade did everything from choir singing and can-teen entertainment to incendiary duty. At one time a too-anxious young woman, peering from the doorway of an isolated shelter, had her leg shattered by flying debris. When an ambulance could not be obtained, four guides instantly volunteered to carry the girl on a stretcher three-quarters of a mile through heaviest bombing to the hospital. Another time, when a direct hit was made on a girls' home, the two guides who were acting as fire-spotters nearby entered the teetering ruins and comforted the trapped inmates until medical aid arrived.

One of Mrs. Lunan's favorite companies was a group of 90 mentally defective girls connected with the hospital before the war. For weeks before the second Christmas of the war they saved up their meagre weekly allowances and used the money to decorate Christmas trees in the tube shelters. The treat was long remembered by the tube's temporary residents who were "living out of suitcases" and had little cause for remembering Santa Claus by themselves.

Another main project begun by seeds. Cut into pieces about 1 by 2 inches. To each quart add a handful of salt. Let stand 2 hours, stir a few times, drain. Make a syrup of 1½ cups white vinegar, ½ cup water, 1 cup white sugar, 1 stick cinnamon and a few strips of red pepper. Bring to a boil, add cucumbers, boil 2 minutes longer, seal while hot.

Calvary W.A.

The initial meeting of the 1951-52 season of the Women's Association of Calvary United Church will be held at 8 p.m., Wednesday, September 5, in the Ladies' Parlors at the corner of Greene Ave. and Dorchester Street.

The main item of business at this gathering will be the inauguration of a new section which will hold its meetings in the evenings and whose work will be complementary to that of the afternoon section which will after the September meeting continue to hold its meetings in the afternoons.

PERKY APPETIZERS

Small slices of salty rye bread are delicious spread with a mixture of deviled ham, finely chopped cucumber and mayonnaise; season the ham with a little onion juice if you like.

Mrs. G. S. LUNAN

the guides of the shelters was the clothing banks. Into the "pools" went any and all cast off clothing, which was then distributed to stricken families. And for the late Wendell Wilkie, the girls did catering and entertaining during his visit to the shelters.

Wed N.D.G. Soldier

The nurse-guide captain responsible for this invaluable organization is a native of Norfolk, England. In April, 1944, she became the bride of a Canadian Grenadier Guardsman, Gordon Stewart Lunan of Wilson Avenue, N.D.G. They have a son, Stewart, 6, born in England the following year, and a daughter, Gail, 4, born in Canada. When the western area of the city became too large for a single commissioner, it was divided in two, Mrs. J. L. Plouffe taking charge of Montreal West District, and Mrs. Lunan was asked to head what is called Western district.

"The need for guide leaders here is greater than ever", Mrs. Lunan added, and asked that an appeal be made through these columns. Captains must be over 21, and lieutenants, over 18. Similarly, in brownies, Brown Owls must be over 21, and Tawny Owls, over 19.

Chicken And Pineapple Make Special Salad Nursing Aides Get Monograms, Pins, at Convalescent Hospital

Sparkling chilled salad from a can of condensed soup is a trick worth knowing about in warm weather.

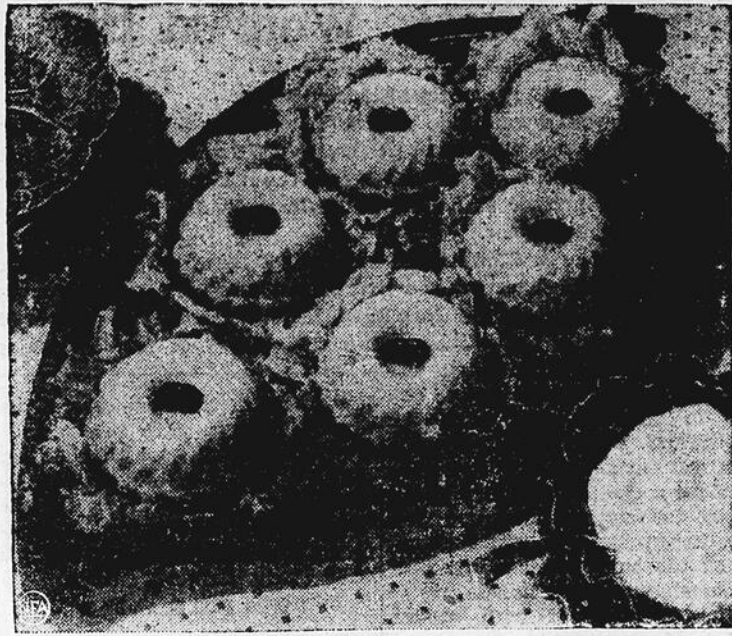

Soups like cream of chicken and cream of celery are rich with flavor and of a good consistency so they are naturals in the salad department. Blend each can of soup with one envelope of dissolved unflavored gelatin; then add about one cup of chopped vegetables, meat, or whatever makes a good combination. Pour the salad mixture into molds, chill until firm, and you'll have a nourishing holiday special.

Tomato soup makes an especially good, perky-flavored gelatin salad. So does consomme, which jells after about 4 hours of chilling. When mixed with other ingredients such as vegetables, the consomme needs added gelatin, just as the other soups do.

Chicken-Pineapple Party Salad

One 14-ounce can (1 1/4 cups) crushed pineapple, 1 envelope plain gelatin, 1 can (1 1/4 cups) condensed cream of chicken soup, 1/4 cup chopped almonds, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. One pound can jellied cranberry sauce, 1 envelope gelatin, 2 tablespoons water.

Drain pineapple; soften gelatin in pineapple syrup (about 1/3 cup). Heat soup over low heat;

Chicken-Pineapple Salad begins with condensed chicken soup and includes tasty almonds and cranberry sauce.

add gelatin and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add drained pineapple (about 1 1/3 cups), the chopped almonds, mayonnaise and lemon juice. Rinse six individual or one large mold with cold water; fill mold half full with this mixture, then chill until firm. Now make a cranberry layer this way—crush cranberry sauce with a fork. Soften gelatin in water set in a pan of boiling water and stir until dissolved. Mix gelatin thoroughly with cranberry sauce. Pour cranberry mixture on top of congealed chicken-pineapple layers; chill until firm. Unmold on crisp salad greens.

Yardstick May Save Housewife Vexation In Buying or Moving

I keep two or three rulers in the house in convenient places to be used at any time, says a reader.

Did you ever try guessing at the length or width or height of a mirror, a chair, or a lamp? The next time you have company, bring up this game of measuring, with the ruler as final authority after each one's guesses or estimates have been written down. A tape measure may be one of your aids also in this fun. It seems that few people can measure by the eyes with much accuracy.

Yardstick Appliance

We have usually included a yardstick with our household appliances and when buying new furniture or moving, it saves much time and effort. By measuring first, one can be sure that the space will fit the new furniture, or a table slide into a certain corner. No amount of ingenuity or personal energy will make a hard wall flexible to accommodate a hard wood bureau or a piano that is three inches too big. Something has got to give, and usually it's the temper of the careless measurer, male or female. If a certain man had measured his hall before buying and putting on wallpaper, it wouldn't have had to be patched out, and if a certain woman had carefully measured the length from pole to floor, and not guessed, the drapes would not have been a foot short.

Train the children to use rulers and yardsticks because it's one of the best ways to teach arithmetic automatically. Have measuring games with them and they will enjoy the fun and not know they are learning and working.

CREAM CHEESE ICING

To make a plain loaf cake a dressy affair, try frosting it on top and sides with this cream cheese icing. There's no cooking to this, so it's just the thing for a hot day. Cream a three-ounce package of cream cheese and add 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Combine well. Add 1 tablespoon cream and 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar alternately. Beat well and spread.

The Graduation Exercises of the Montreal School for Nursing Aides was held August 24 at 3:00 p.m. at the Montreal Convalescent Hospital, 3001 Kent Avenue.

Montreal School for Nursing Aides began as an experimental school in the autumn of 1948, under the sponsorship of the Montreal Hospital Council, the Provincial Nurses Association and six hospitals viz. Homeopathic Hospital, Jewish General Hospital, Montreal Convalescent Hospital, Montreal General Hospital St. Mary's Hospital and Herbert Reddy Memorial. Mrs. L. H. Fisher, R.N., organized and has directed the school since its inception.

The purpose of the School is to prepare young women as Nursing Aides, to assist in the care of the non-acutely ill, the chronically ill and the convalescent patient, in the wards of our general and convalescent hospitals, thus relieving, to a great extent the nursing load in these institutions. The reports from the hospitals have been very favourable, and the Aides themselves, they have stated, find great satisfaction in their work.

Two Groups

Two classes participated in the Graduation Exercises:

The March 1951 Class received their arm-monograms, having completed six months of theory and practice in the School and on the wards of the Montreal Convalescent Hospital. They are now ready to begin their practical experience in general hospitals. Each Aide has been assigned to a hospital where she will remain for a six month period.

The September 1950 Class Aides, having just completed their six months practical experience in general hospital, received the School Pin and Certificate.

Those receiving Arm-Monograms were: Miss Jean Vivien Buchanan, Miss Frances Burgess, Miss Alfreda Carlin, Miss Mary Dewar, Miss Helen Emily Ford, Miss Shirley Kathleen Johnson, Miss Helen Adelaide Mallory, Miss Margaret Moody, Miss E'va Moskovits, Miss Marion Isabel Stillwell, Miss Beverly E. Templeton, Mrs. Antoinette Upham, Mrs. Elizabeth Suzanne Ward and Miss Evelyn Teresa Woodbury.

Those receiving Pins and Certificates were: Miss Effie Beaton, Miss Mary Donna Culhane, Miss Mary Lou Deachman, Miss Maria Hubisz, Miss Shirley MacDonald, Miss Margaret E. MacEachern, Mrs. Mary E. Madsen, Miss Francisca Matisans, Miss Alfa Sprogis, Miss Marian E. Staines, Miss Dagmar Tille, Miss Helena Tarowska and Miss Alera O. Valdstyra.

Program

The guest speaker at the Exercises was His Excellency the Honourable Gaspard Fauteux, Lieutenant Governor of Quebec; and the prize for general proficiency throughout the year, awarded to Miss Alfa Sprogis, was presented by Madame Fauteux.

Mr. Samuel Cohen, President of the Board of Trustees, presided at the Graduation Exercises and thanked the guest speaker, and the Rev. G. R. Addie gave the invocation and benediction. The School Pledge was written and taken by the aides. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Laure Fink, Miss A. Martineau, R.N., President of the Association of Nurses of Province of Quebec presented the Pins and Certificates; and Miss Evelyn Kessler, R.N., presented the Arm Monograms. Miss Sara Tansey, Superintendent of the Montreal Convalescent Hospital, spoke briefly.

At the conclusion of the Exercises the Aides received their guests at tea in the Board Room of the hospital.

Military Whist

Under the auspices of the True Kindred, a military whist will be held in Trinity Memorial Church Hall, corner of Sherbrooke and Marlowe Sts., at 8 p.m., Sept. 6. There will be table and door prizes and refreshments will be served. A $10.00 permanent wave certificate is being donated as one of the many valuable door prizes. Players are asked to bring their own cards. Further information may be had from Mrs. Kate Brown, Convener, DE. 6454.

File "Steak Rollies" Under "Budget Meats"

With the beginning of school just around the corner and the end of summer not far off, let's think about good meat dishes. But they must be within the budget, of course.

Flank Steak Rollies (Yield: 12 rollies)

One flank steak (bout 1 1/2 pounds), 1/2 pound salt pork, 2 cups cooked mixed vegetables, frozen or canned.

Cut salt pork into a strip about 1/2-inch thick. Put pork in center of flank steak and roll steak over salt pork. Fasten roll with poultry pins at about one-inch intervals along seam. Slice roll between pins to make rollies about 1-inch thick. Brown rollies on both sides in a large skillet.

Cover and cook over low heat about 50 minutes or until meat is tender. Spread mixed vegetables over rollies. Cover and simmer 15 minutes longer or until vegetables are done. If desired, gravy may be made from dumplings left in skillet and served over rollies.

"Harvey" And "Valentino" At Monkland

Jimmy Stewart takes great delight in introducing his invisible rabbit pal to Charles Drake, Peggy Dow and Josephine Hull in this scene from the Universal-International's version of "Harvey", the Pulitzer Prize Winning comedy by Mary Chase. Miss Hull is of five years on Broadway. "Harvey" tops the current double bill at the Monkland starting Saturday.

Will Start Sunday At Westmount

Comedy Hit, "Born Yesterday" Starts Sunday At Westmount

"Born Yesterday," a great success in the history of the American stage, has been transformed by Columbia Pictures into a fine motion picture. Judy Holliday recreates the role she originated in the celebrated stage play and William Holden and Broderick

Crawford, are also starred in the Westmount Theatre's "Born Yesterday," which starts Sunday and is a mature, hilarious film.

The film traces the development of a blonde, beautiful-but-dumb Billie Dawn, ex-chorus girl, into a cultured, intelligent young woman. With wisdom comes new values. The girl ultimately must choose between a rich and raucous boy friend and a crusading writer who doesn't think her two mink coats much of an achievement.

It's praise enough for Miss Holliday to say that she equals, even surpasses, her droll performing in the Broadway play; the greater scope of the motion picture camera permits greater scope for Miss Holliday's happy histrionics as the brazen beauty whose knowledge covers only men and mink until she learns the alphabet from A to "L for love."

Added Attraction

"Storm Warning" is the accompanying feature at the Westmount Theatre.

What happens in a little town when a girl accidentally is witness to a murder by a band of hoodlums and then is torn by her sense of justice on the one hand and stark fear on the other, forms the background of the new, widely-heralded Warner Bros. film.

Ginger Rogers arrived one evening in the "friendly" town to visit her sister, she sees a man shot down in cold blood and she recognizes one of the killers. At first determined to bear witness, she reneges in a dramatic courtroom scene after she has realized that the murderer was the husband of her sister.

When later, through her brother-in-law's own lecherous actions, she resolves to reveal the truth, she is kidnapped by the mob and flogged in another climatic scene.

Experts hands fashioned this film for Warner Bros. Director Stuart Heisler, to secure actual small town atmosphere, took the cast and crew of "Storm Warning" to Corona, Calif., 60 miles away from the sound stages, where exteriors were photographed on a location trek that lasted two weeks.

Thought He Was Bombed As Hammer Smashes Light

Brock L. Potter, Jr., 23, of 4880 Queen Mary Road, thought his auto had been bombed Monday as he was backing into a lane at 410 Victoria Avenue.

There was a loud bang on the roof of his auto and the dome light shattered into fragments. But it turned out to be not a bomb but a falling hammer that caused the damage.

Roger Marineau, of St. Eustache, a construction worker, working on the building dropped his hammer from the roof.

James Stewart in "Harvey" Tops Bill at the Monkland Theatre Sat.

"Harvey" is here at last. The fabulous rabbit who delighted thousands of people for five consecutive years on the New York stage made his movie bow Saturday on the screen of the Monkland Theatre. The invisible rabbit shares starring honors with James Stewart in the screen version of the Pulitzer prize-winning play. Josephine Hull, who created the hilarious role of Veta Louise Simmons in the highly successful stage production plays the same role in support of supporting cast which includes Charles Drake, Cecil Kellaway and Wallace Ford.

Although he is physically invisible, "Harvey's" presence begins to be felt almost from the first. And when Stewart as the bumbling but well-meaning Elwood P. Dowd introduced his long-eared pal at a party, the fun begins. From then on, "Harvey" is a continuous riot of laughs as star Stewart leads the rabbit through countless merry episodes.

Added Attraction

"Valentino," Columbia Picture's exciting drama of the loves and times of Rudolph Valentino, the romantic idol of a fabulous era. Eleanor Parker and Anthony Dexter as Valentino star in the Edward Small production which was filmed in color by Technicolor, with Richard Carlson, Patricia Medina and Joseph Calleia in the leading supporting roles.

"Valentino" is said to climax producer Small's long-cherished ambition to make a motion picture about Rudolph Valentino. Small, after searching for ten years, discovered Dexter, the one man in the world who could play Valentino, so amazing in his resemblance to the immortal lover.

Against vivid backgrounds of the Colorado Rockies, M-G-M's "Vengeance Valley," the added attraction at the Westmount, is one of the year's outstanding.

SAVES HER MONEY

Despite the fact that she's a top-flight actress, Rhonda Fleming refuses to be extravagant. The star of Pine-Thomas' "Crosswinds" for Paramount claims that a girl's best friend is her bank account.

Avenue Stars Are Champs Again

R.M.R. Half Game Behind RCMP In Service League

Old man weather has certainly played havoc with the schedule of the Westmount Inter-Service Softball League. All games with the exception of two being rained out during the past two weeks, creating somewhat of a headache for league officials, as six teams in the league still have a chance of gaining a playoff berth. Due to this fact, the league has decided to run off the postponed games during the coming week, until they can at least eliminate two of the teams, leaving just the four playoff contenders.

In the only two games played, R.M.R. defeated Navy 15 to 4 while R.C.A.S.C. were walloping R.C.E. The win put R.M.R. just a half game out of first place, while R.C.A.C.★

pulled up to within half a game of the fourth and last playoff spot.

The R.C.A.S.C. had an easy time disposing of the hapless Engineers in what proved to be just another nightmare for the Engineer pitcher. The R.C.E. have yet to win a game, and it is doubtful if they will, as they appear to be hopelessly outclassed by the rest of the teams.

The R.M.R. vs Navy game started out to be a real pitchers battle, and a very tense game until the fifth inning, when with Navy holding a slim 2 to 1 lead, and both sides having only 4 hits each. The roof seemed to fall in on the whole Navy team, allowing R.M.R. to score 7 runs on 4 hits 3 walks and 3 errors.

That finished the Navy, as the sixth inning was a repetition of the fifth, as R.M.R. scored 6 more runs on 4 hits 2 walks and another 3 errors. Cliff Gill led the R.M.R. hitting parade with a single, double and homer good for six runs batted in. Van Ryswyk R.M.R. pitcher walked 9 while striking out 12 and helped his own cause by lacing out a single and triple in four times at bat. The standing up to Tuesday Aug. 28th. was as follows.

Westmount Lose In Davidson Cup Cricket Tournery

West Indians and Westmount continued their Davidson Cup croquet matches against McGill and Verdun Saturday.

McGill with 169 runs topped West Indians, who scored 84 in their semi-final round game at the Campus. Verdun scored 160 runs to 70 for Westmount at the hospital grounds to win their semi-final match.

After the fall of Westmount's ninth wicket in the cup game, Verdun walked off the field. The Verdun captain apparently ignored the league ruling that Westmount could bat 11 men, although only fielding 10. This will undoubtedly bring repercussions. It was the third time Verdun has been embroiled in league disputes.

In league games Saturday, the Indians defeated McGill, 109, for four wickets to 108. Westmount bowed to Verdun, 116 to 117, for four at Verdun, while Adastrians won their second game of the year from Wanderers 95 for two wickets, to 94 for Wanderers at Royal Avenue. In the final match, Maisonneuve outscored St. Paul's 150 for five to 49 at Maisonneuve Park.

Blackman with 39 was high scorer for Indians in their cup game. Bowling for McGill, Liverpool took five for 32, and Dujon three for 12.

Defending Titlists Down RYPS, 12-10, 26-9, 7-6

By ALLAN SANDZELIUS

Last Monday evening, August 27, witnessed the climax of one of the Westmount Intermediate Softball League's better seasons as the 1950 defending champions, the Avenue Stars, again headed the list of teams entered with a year's average of 16-2 in wins and an overwhelming three straight play-off victory against the ever contending RYPS.

Saturday afternoon was the time for a doubleheader when the Stars downed the RYPS 12-10 in the first game and then went on, behind the stellar pitching of veteran Mike Barnard, to smash a tired Blue and Gold squad in the second half of the twin bill, 26-9. Freddy MacDougall was rubber man for the losing team in the first game and George Cochrane relieved starter Cliff Gill in the second inning of the second encounter as Gill was tabbed for the loss.

The bottom of the seventh inning of the 1st game proved the downfall of the scrappy little Church team as overconfidence swept the players and the always alert Stars took this to their advantage and neatly plastered MacDougall all over the field as Doug Brambell, "Cap" Graham, Barnard, Murray, Dunbar and Bradley crossed the plate in that order! In this process, the RYP hurler gave up two hits and four walks. One error was racked up.

The top of the ninth saw the RYPS make a desperate bid for supremacy but the hard driving Red and Blue limited them to two hits and one run, Gill hitting first, stealing second and then coming in on Cochrane's two bagger. The final score: 12-10.

The champion Stars found the pitching of Gill and Cochrane much to their liking in the second and proved it by smashing into them for a total of twenty-six runs, the second highest score in the league this season. Five consecutive errors by the losing side accounted for the five runs scored by Dougie "Moose" Brambell and two hits and two errors were the background of Dickie Dunbar's four run efforts. Stu McGowan also tallied four markers to help his "Cohorts" along by virtue of a base-hit, a homer, a walk and two errors! Cochrane, Moen, Rodgers, Dormer, Badke and MacDougall scored the 9 runs for the RYPS.

Monday's game, however, was a fast moving close to the vest type of battle as the RYPS racked up an early two inning three to one lead only to see it flutter away forever on a four hit five run spree by the Stars in their half of the third stanza. Lomasney was walked in the fifth inning and finally stole enough bases to come sliding home with the last run of the year on behalf of the Avenue Stars for a total of seven.

Al Dormer, Cliff Gill and Fred MacDougall brought to six the number of points in the losers' favour all too late unfortunately, as the winners already had enough to take the 1951 Westmount Intermediate League Championship and retain the cup they carried away last year! Congratulations to all the members of the Ave. Stars' team who always tried their level best no matter what the adversities and the same to all the members of the League for making this one of the best years our League has enjoyed.

St. Ann's Win Atwater Pennant

Gerry Harkin, centre, is all smiles and so are two of his team mates Norm Perron, left and Gerry Whalen, right, after Harkin had singled across the winning run Saturday in the 10th inning to give St. Ann's an 8-7 win over St. Henry at the Westmount Athletic Grounds. The victory brought the pennant to St. Ann's for the first time in seven years.

M.C.C. To Play Rugger At WAG Against Westm't

The Marylebone Cricket club now touring Canada will play their last games at Westmount Athletic Grounds on September 11 and 12.

Their opponents will be a select Quebec team with most of the players being from the Montreal & District Cricket League.

This will be the last occasion lovers of the game will have of witnessing this fine aggregation of cricketers before they return to England.

The M.C.C. has run up an impressive record in the games played in the Dominion but lost one match to British Columbia in Vancouver.

On Thursday, September 13 the members of the M.C.C. will doff their cricket togs and don rugger uniform. An English rugby game has been arranged between the M.C.C. and Westmount English Rugby Club.

Several of the visiting English cricket club are rugger internationalists besides being expert cricketers.

This game should be one of the highlights of the local rugger season.

St. Ann's Edge St. Henry To Win Atwater Title

Gerry Harkin's two-out single in the 10th inning Saturday scored Norm Perron from second base with the winning run as the St. Ann's Saints edged the St. Henry Red Sox, 8-7, to capture the 1951 pennant in the Atwater Senior Baseball League.

Harkin's game-winning single, his third of the game, settled the extra-inning thriller before 1,500 fans at Westmount Grounds, the largest crowd of the season. The pennant was the first in seven years for the Irish. St. Henry won it the last six years while playing under the name of Postmen.

The teams entered Saturday's pennant struggle with just 15 percentage points separating them. Both had been in and out of the lead all season and the game loomed as a "natural".

By winning St. Ann's qualified to meet fourth place Y.M.H.A. and St. Henry meet third place Mount Royal in the best of seven semi-final playoff series.

Neither starting pitcher, ace righthander John Harmony of St. Ann's, who was bidding for his 10th win, nor Guy Campbell of St. Henry, was around at the finish. Southpaw Gerry Whalen, who relieved Harmony in the eighth inning, received credit for the win. Vince Capozzi, third St. Henry pitcher, was the victim of Harkin's big hit and was charged with his sixth loss of the season.

The Red Sox raced into a 2-0 lead but it was shortlived. The Saints came back with seven runs through the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to go ahead 7-2. The Sox fought back doggedly to tie the score and drove Harmony to cover in the eighth.

St. Ann's had the game won in the ninth. They led 7-6 with two out when second baseman Dale Douglas committed a two-base error that led to the tying run and sent the game into extra innings. Harkin then came through in the clutch to drive Perron across the plate with the pennant-winning run.

Harkin and Bob Barsha paced the Saints' 16-hit attack with three safeties each. Frank Maguire and Douglas picked up two each. Outfielder Gerry Flynn slammed a towering two-run triple to spark the Saints' five-run rally in the sixth.

Billy McDonald and Dino Caon got two hits each for St. Henry. Playing-Manager Johnny Bellini connected for a triple for the Sox that accounted for two runs in the eighth inning onslaught.

The individual batting championship went to Ray Boutler of Verdun, who won the title while hitting a robust .370 for a last-place team. Boutler won the crown Saturday when his closest pursuer, Gino Bellini of the Red Sox, went hitless.

and expected them to do the same type of training as the adult group did there. The boys realised themselves, they had to creep before they could walk and he expected them to run. That year we went on to win the title and after that I never heard any more about bringing in another outside coach.

I am not against bringing in outside men to help brush up on fundamentals and advanced work with the senior squad, but never bring them in just before a game as it usually confuses them and throws them off their game.

Putters Held Sealed Hole Competition Tuesday Night

After a number of postponements due to inclement weather the putters were finally able to hold a tournament on Tuesday night. This took the form of a sealed hole competition. The fine weather attracted a large number of players.

The successful winners in both sections came up with identical scores. Mrs. Kent for the ladies with 13 and Lew Wheatley for the men with the same score.

Another tournament was held last night.

Successful Track Meet Held At Athletic Ground

A highly successful track and field meet was held at the W.A.G. on Thursday, Aug. 23. A team from the Westmount playgrounds and a team from the Town of Mount Royal playgrounds competed in the afternoon affair.

Top honors went to Westmount who amassed a total of 149 points, to Mount Royal's 97 points. Individual point winner was Phyllis Gavin of Staynor Park with two firsts and one second.

Breakfast A Must For School Kids

Montreal Department of Health has issued a statement urging that parents see to it that their children always have breakfast before going to school.

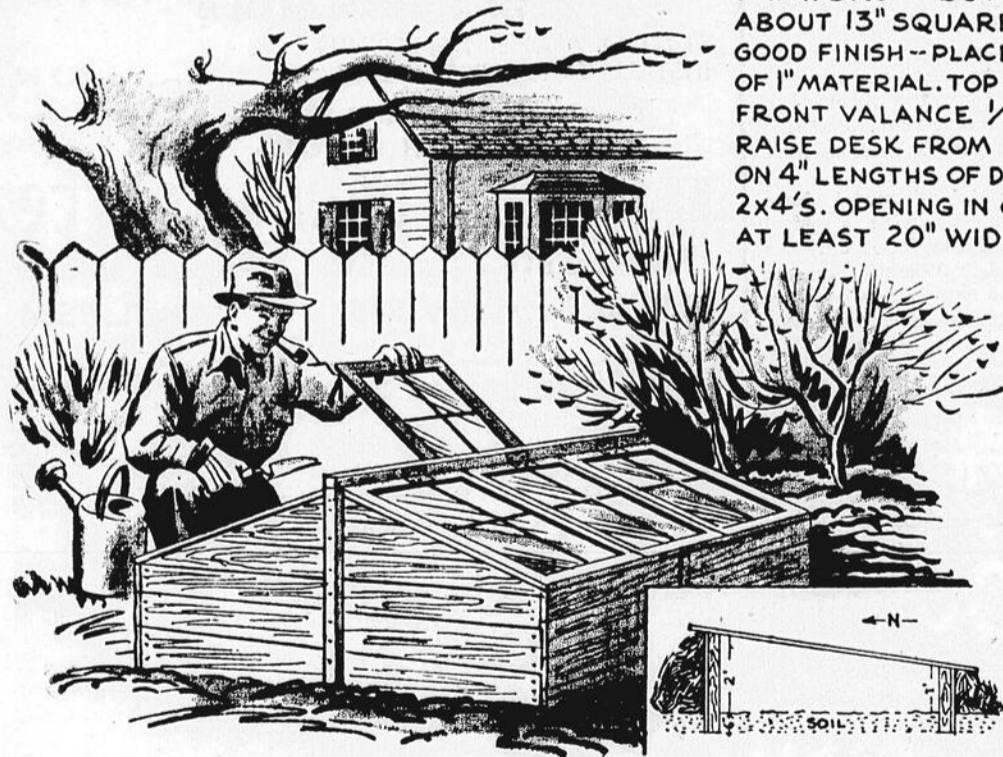

It is hoped, said the Health Department, that every child has acquired during the summer vacation, the excellent habit of taking a good breakfast before leaving home for the playgrounds.

When school opens children must continue this practice and always take a full breakfast before leaving for school.

When a child's stomach is empty he cannot derive advantage from his lessons. He will be unable to concentrate and this lack of attention will in no way assist his future progress.

For a good breakfast the child requires fruit juice, cereal, an egg or bacon or ham, bread and butter, cheese molasses and milk.

It has often been said that necessity is the mother of invention. It was certainly proven to me the other day while travelling in the Ste. Annes area. I was invited to spend the evening with a young couple whose acquaintance had been made on their honeymoon the previous summer. I had admired their courage in starting a home on a shoe string and was most anxious to learn how they were getting along.

Their house was far from being luxuriously furnished but there was plenty of warmth and friendship that made you feel immediately at ease. They had had to make sacrifices but their youthful enthusiasm had been retained, and they had created a truly happy home.

The husband shared my opinion of butter boxes. He had made many pieces of furniture, including the chesterfield, and had found these boxes could be used in many ways. One of his best efforts was his wife's dressing table - made entirely of boxes, plywood and pieces of two by four. Even the mirror had been salvaged from a discard, resurfaced and placed in a refinished frame.

Fireplace Fuel Holder

Something else that caught my eye was a homemade fuel container made from a soap pail. It had been enamelled black and then stippled inside and out with gold. The feet and handles from an old brass jardiniere had been attached to add to its attractiveness. It was the finishing touch to a rustic stone fireplace he had built with his own hands.

Nor was all the beauty found on the inside of the house. Excellent progress had been made in changing a large "empty" town lot into an attractive setting for their small bungalow. He took great pride in showing me the cold frame he built from packing cases and on which he made the storm windows do double duty. Their harvest this fall will go a long way in helping the food budget through the coming winter.

I couldn't help but feel as I left them, here is one home that will be a definite asset to the community and to our country.
