

MOVING PICTURES OF JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHT MUST BE STOPPED

Witness' Campaign in Montreal Meets With Enthusiastic Support of Citizens.

FILMS MAY BE DESTROYED Agitation for Suppression Spreading in the United States and Britain And has even reached India

The campaign against allowing the moving pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight to be shown is becoming world-wide. Questions have been asked in the British House of Commons in order to see what powers the Legislature has to prevent them being shown in England, more cities and states in America are coming into line, and the movement started by the 'Witness' in Canada is being taken up by every paper of character.

Every citizen of any standing who has been approached on the subject has strongly condemned the suggestion that the pictures be shown here, and many of our readers have sent letters supporting the stand which the 'Witness' has taken from the commencement in regard to the fight.

The Dominion Alliance has joined the Children's Aid Society in its battle on behalf of the children, and in a characteristic letter Mr. John H. Roberts, the secretary, offers to co-operate in any concerted movement to take legal action if necessary to stop the pictures being exhibited.

In the meantime it is believed by prominent moving picture men that the company which made the films will not, in view of the public feeling on the subject, proceed with the work, but will prefer to take the money that has been put into the speculation rather than start on a tour against public opinion.

Whether this is done or not the campaign should not be slackened one iota. Now is the time to indicate to the authorities that in regard to moving pictures a stricter censorship must be inaugurated. It is true that in New York a board of censorship inspects and passes all films before they are shown, but there should be supplementary boards in every city, or at least officials connected with the police department interpreting their duties from the broadest viewpoint in relation to moving pictures.

A contemptible plea is made in some quarters that because pictures of other prize fights have been shown in Montreal no move should be made in the present case.

This is the old, old story, which all moves towards reform or the betterment of conditions are subjected to. It is one of the strongest arguments the trade brings against the temperance reformers. It is used as an argument for permitting young children to work in factories; it is used as an argument for the payment of low wages in sweated industries. No discrimination is the cry made by all the heathen things in our midst; it is the last and therefore the loudest cry which is thrown upon them, and it is not worth a moment's consideration.

Not the moving pictures, but the press, is guilty of the maniacal savagery that this fight has already provoked in Montreal, as in other cities. But such insanity will not result to boys who actually see the performance.

Pictures of prize fight and other brutalizing and degrading subjects must not be shown in Montreal. That is the stand the 'Witness' takes with the knowledge that it has the support of all the best citizens of Montreal.

FOR THE SAKE OF THE CHILDREN. The Rev. E. I. Hart, B.A., of the Dominion Square Methodist Church, writes: Permit me as one of the regular readers of the 'Witness' to congratulate it upon the commendable attitude it has taken towards the recent prize fight in the State of Nevada. It is exceedingly refreshing to see one of the great dailies of our city exhibiting such high moral sense in refusing to take to the lowest and most animal instincts of our humanity, by publishing accounts of the degrading affair. I have observed that during the last few months when the press of this city has been making the fight a feature of its issues, and thereby forcing it upon the attention of the public, there has been hardly a word in it in the 'Witness.' You are not, to my knowledge, once published the portraits of the brutal pugilists, nor any of their ruffianly exploits, nor any of the training quarters, as your readers might be kept in ignorance as to all the minute details of preparation and the daily life of the pugilistic fraternity, nor do you issue a 'special' later than the 'Witness' which would give well known matters that I could mention, but you do give certain cautions and warnings, and one

MANY STRIKERS BACK TO WORK CAPTAIN BERNIER OFF FOR THE ARCTIC

Over 75 Contractors Have Signed Two Years Agreement With Employees. (Witness' Staff Correspondence.)

CONTRACT FOR CLOSED SHOP. Out of 1,600 Men 475 Returned To-day to their Jobs.

The number of bricklayers and stone masons who returned to work on Monday morning was 1,600. This morning of last week on city jobs, and 25 had returned to jobs outside the city, where they will have employment until work in Montreal on a satisfactory basis is once more available.

Up to last night contractors had signed a two years' agreement with the men, in order to get them back to work without a strike. This morning about 25 men returned to their jobs, and this afternoon there were a number waiting to add their signatures to agreements.

The most important clause as regards bricklayers' work is that work was almost suspended as a result of the strike, in which contractors' unity to the Builders' Exchange is pledged. It is as follows: 'It is also understood by all parties to this agreement: That no member of Bricklayers' Union No. 1, or Stonemasons' Union No. 2, will be employed on any work now being constructed, or may be let to contractors who are members of the Builders' Exchange under the sub-contracting system, until they have signed the Builders' Exchange agreement with the above unions.'

This clause was inserted to prevent the possibility of strikers, who have signed, leaving their work to members of the Builders' Exchange who have not signed. The clause is also contained in the agreement between the Bricklayers' and Stonemasons' Unions, and no firm, person or company, whether a contractor or not, shall employ any number of members of either union leave the work of any firm, person or company parties to this agreement until they have signed the Builders' Exchange agreement with the above unions.

The Duc D'Alencon was a second son of Louis Napoleon, who died in 1872, and a grandson of Louis Philippe, King of the French. He was born in 1844, and his elder brother is claimant to the French throne.

TO PASS DECLARATION BILL. British Commons Will Deal With Measure To-day. (Canadian Associated Press.) London, July 7.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Asquith announced that the Declaration Bill would be passed before the House rose. The Premier's decision is considered desirable in order to prevent an agitation in the country during recess. The nonconformist members of the House, numbering one hundred, decided to present a memorial to Mr. Asquith to reject the declaration. They think it sufficient that the King should be proclaimed as the King of England and not to the Church of England.

COURT ADJOURNED. Out of Respect for the Late Judge Desnoyers. At the opening of the Court of Sessions this morning Mr. F. Coyte, K.C., in a few eloquent and well-chosen words moved as a mark of respect for the late Judge Desnoyers that the business of this date the court should stand adjourned until 2 o'clock to-morrow, to allow the judges, lawyers and employees to attend the funeral.

BROKE WINDOW IN RAGE. John Tierney wanted a drink last night, wanted it badly. But it was after twelve o'clock and all the doors were closed. Tierney went up to the Bijou Hotel, on St. Lawrence Boulevard, and tried to get in. The proprietor, Mr. Renaud, declined to let him in the bar, and not being able to get a glass, Tierney heaved something through the front window. He was fined $30 damages or a month, and five dollars and costs.

ACCEPTED CALL. Ottawa, July 7.—At a large-attended meeting of the congregation of the First Congregational Church, last night, Rev. G. Watts Smith, formerly of Glasgow, Scotland, accepted the call to become its pastor.

UNFIT TO WORK. Owner of Sick Horse Fined in Westmount. Last week a man named Ritchot was summoned by the city of Westmount for driving a horse in an unfit condition. The animal was examined and discharged. To-day the proprietor of the horse, Thomas Watson, was summoned for driving a horse in an unfit condition, and the Court House was filled with witnesses, expert and otherwise.

TO LIMIT MONASTIC ORDERS. Madril, July 7.—Commercial bodies have joined in a petition to the Governor in favor of limiting the growth of monastic orders. They assert that the orders are monopolizing many branches of industry and commerce. The Republican supporters have organized themselves to support the government's religious programme.

DOMESTICS BEST MOTHERS

Infant Mortality Largely Caused by Parents' Occupation Before Marriage.

OPINION OF DR. COYLE. Greatest Proportion of Deaths Are Amongst Children of Seamstresses.

A study of the question of infant mortality has led Dr. Coyle, of the city health department, to the conclusion that the trouble is more with the mothers than with the food supply. The doctor is not a great believer in the sterilization or the pasteurizing of milk. He thinks that while all men are born equal in one sense, they have not an equal chance of reaching maturity. And he lays the greatest increase in the number of infant deaths during the hot weather not to the food, but to the heat and the mothers.

'Look at the figures,' remarked Dr. Coyle this morning. 'One hundred and fifty-four died last week under five years of age. It is the heat. Those who are weak can't stand it. If we had a climate like that of Los Angeles there would be many more go. And the remedy is not to sterilize the milk. We should see to it, of course, that the supply is pure, but I don't think anything else is necessary. The trouble is with the mothers.'

'I've watched this question for years,' proceeded the doctor. 'Every time I came in touch with a family—and by reason of my work I have had to do with a great many—I often raise questions about the parents, where they came from, what the mother had done before marrying, what the father did for a living. And the result has been that I have divided mothers into three classes.'

Coyle would not say, but evidently it is largely on a basis of occupation before marriage. This, the doctor says, is of great importance. It often results in a woman's fitness or unfitness to nurse her baby, and upon this the infant's chance of passing the first few trying years.

And the doctor says he has been able to trace the large mortality directly, for his statistics show him that it is greatest among the children of women who have been engaged before marriage. And when the mothers have been domestic, the infant is natural, too,' he commented. 'The domestics, in almost every case, have lived under the best conditions, and so, when the time comes, are able to nurse their infants.'

STREET CARS COLLIDE. Three Persons Injured While Travelling on City Hall Avenue Line. A big St. Catherine street car collided with one of the City Hall avenue line about 10:30 last night. Three persons were slightly injured, the City Hall avenue car was carried off the tracks and traffic was delayed for some time.

'THE DOCTOR' First Edition Exhausted; Distribution Begins Again Next Week. The success of the distribution of Art Treasures has exceeded our utmost expectations. The original supply was large enough to meet what was considered a very heavy demand. But everybody seems to want these pictures so full of 'human interest,' and the pictures advertise themselves, for the value is so wonderful that friends and neighbors when they see them immediately want copies for their own home.

The distribution has necessarily been suspended, but a new supply has been telegraphed for, and is being rushed forward by express. This consignment should be here for delivery by next Wednesday. It is not yet too late to begin to cut coupons for this picture, as we will continue the publication of 'the Doctor Coupon' for six days from to-day, but no longer. The coupon for the second great picture, Rosa Bonheur's wonderful 'Horse Fair' will first appear next week, and it is our intention to run it for one week only, as we are anxious to get to the third of this remarkable series. Cut out to-day's coupon on the back page of this issue.

The more open and level reaches of a mill stream are generally fuller of fish than the deeper and more imposing pools. Trout cannot feed on naked rock; and if we scan the depths of one of the dark, pellucid basins under the foam that spreads outward from the cascade we see that it is bare even of such scanty crosses as clove gray boulders on the hill.

Whatever may be the general backwardness on this question in any community, there is always a minority with right ideas, and this minority can usually do something effective when it is organized.

SEA FLIGHTS FAILED.

Swedish Airman Had Narrow Escape From Drowning. Copenhagen, July 7.—Baron Cederstrom, the Swedish aviator, and Sverre, the Dane, attempted a flight last night across the Sound from Copenhagen to Malmö, in Sweden.

The distance across is about fourteen miles, and neither succeeded in reaching his destination. A strong wind prevailed and Baron Cederstrom's engine broke down while he was attempting to make headway against the gale over the sound.

He had a narrow escape from death, but finally made a landing on the island. Swendsen's flight was almost equally perilous, and after proceeding a few miles he turned back and landed on the coast.

A DOUBLE CURE FOR DOUBLE TROUBLE

Father Morrissey's No. 26 Cures Catarrh by a Combined Treatment.

The sudden weather variations in our climate result in a great many cases of catarrh—a troublesome disease usually considered hard to cure, and one which often leads to serious pulmonary and intestinal troubles.

A neglected cold in the head weakens the nasal membranes, so that at every future exposure the trouble returns. At length these conditions are fastened on the system, and the sufferer undergoes the annoyance and danger of chronic catarrh.

Some doctors confine themselves to prescribing external applications, and thus do not reach the seat of the trouble. Others give internal treatment exclusively, and thus do not promptly relieve the affected parts.

Father Morrissey, the skilled physician, rightly regarded catarrh as a double trouble, consisting of unpleasant local effects and their fundamental causes, the latter having to do with impaired general vitality.

His famous remedy, No. 26, is a combined cure for catarrh. It consists of a tablet to be taken three times a day, and an especially compounded salve.

The salve is antiseptic, and quickly heals the inflamed membranes of the nasal passage. The tablets go to the seat of the trouble and restore the system to its usual tone. Together, they cure.

Instead of neglecting a disease that is unpleasant to yourself and to others, and one which often leads to pneumonia and consumption, it is surely the part of wisdom to take timely steps to do away with the effects at the same time remove the cause, No. 26 does just that.

50c for the combined treatment. At your druggist's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

PEACE CENTENNIAL

World Wide Celebration of Treaty of Ghent Anniversary Proposed.

New York, July 7.—The movement for a world-wide celebration in 1914 for the one hundredth anniversary of peace among English-speaking peoples took form here yesterday with the announcement of a committee selected to organize the work of preparation.

The committee is headed by Mr. Andrew Carnegie as chairman, and announcement of the present status of the movement was made by the chairman, Mr. John A. Stewart, of the executive committee of one hundred.

The treaty of Ghent was signed on December 24, 1814, and it is proposed to commemorate this event through an international observance jointly by the citizens of the United States and Great Britain to the world at large to take part during 1914 in a common celebration.

The exact form which the celebration shall take has only been tentatively discussed. A suggestion that has received considerable consideration is that of a world-wide fair in the way of a world's fair is contemplated, however, the committee's report is not yet ready.

It is stated that the movement has been discussed with President Taft, who has expressed a sympathetic interest in the proposed work. It has been suggested that a part of the celebration programme be the creation of a memorial bridge on the Niagara border.

SABBATH BREAKING.

Secretary of Lord's Day Alliance Reports Greater Interest in Sunday Observance.

Mr. Geo. W. Mingle, the secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, was seen this morning on his return to the city from addressing various meetings in the Eastern Townships, where he reported much progress.

The Sunday question, he said, was gaining in interest, many towns are seeking to enforce existing laws, and where these are not adequate are passing by-laws to restrain the commercial spirit which would deprive the workers of their rest and make Sunday the same as any other day.

The great difficulty they found was that the legal processes were vexatious and of little application. The Alliance, for instance, had taken two exactly similar test cases with regard to the by-law of the city of Montreal and the judges who tried the cases held two entirely opposite views, which was, of course, satisfactory to neither party, and both cases were taken to appeal, where the decision is awaited with keen interest.

Speaking of the Aviation Meet last Sunday at Lakeside, Mr. Mingle said that while it had been of benefit to the city in ending many to see the new conquest of the air, yet the Alliance was indignant and it was a disgrace after the holiday of Dominion Day and Saturday that it should be carried into Sunday and that the Federal laws should be set at defiance by the railways and the meet. The experience has been that such utter disregard of the day and defiance of the laws of the country is productive of immense harm to the people and brings every law into contempt. After nearly a century of open contempt on Sunday the Premier of Spain, in the interest of the people themselves, has sought to put an end to them.

When spoken to with regard to the petition of the bootblacks for a day of rest, he said it was a shame that these workers should be deprived of the rest given them by law, and that a little foresight on the part of the public would obviate the necessity. Other cities which do give them a rest do so in a way that such utter contempt is avoided thereby. If the law is a good one, he said, let us enforce it or else rescind it and not bring every law into contempt by our apathy.

CHEMICALS EXPLODED.

Seven Men Were Injured, Three of Whom May Die.

Orillia, Ont., July 7.—One of the Standard Chemical Company's buildings at Longford Mills was wrecked by an explosion at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, and seven men injured, three of them seriously, and one probably fatally.

The explosion occurred in the acetone building without any apparent cause. The injured are Messrs. Coubrough, McNaughton, John McCauley, Ed. Smith, Wm. Heslin and the Rev. W. E. Smith, Presbyterian minister. Four men and several hospital nurses went over from Orillia and three of the injured were brought to the hospital here.

NERVOUS SYSTEMS

Always Follow a Run Down Condition of the Blood.

It is an old story now that nervous people are all of how the blood becomes poor and thin, and then the nervous symptoms followed. How many really know that this blood was responsible for the nervous disorders? The nerves get all their nourishment from the blood, and as thin blood is deficient in nerve-building material, the nerves become starved and pain and nervous breakdown is the result.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood that supply it with the necessary elements to nourish and tone up the nerves and the cause being removed, nature does the rest and health is fully restored.

Mrs. Harry Patterson, Dauphin, Man., tells how she was cured of nervousness and decided to try them. After taking two boxes I felt a little better and I got a further supply which I continued taking for about a month when I was as well as ever; could do all my household work without difficulty, and could walk for a long distance without being tired out. In view of the wonders Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me I sincerely recommend them to all weak nervous, run-down people.

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SMART RESTAURANT GOWN.

The gown illustrated was brought from Paris by a young matron. Over a slip of ashore of rayon tulle, and over that is worn a coat of Irish lace. The girde and sleeve trimmings are of an immense ostrich plume.

MISTRESS OF THE ROBES.

The Duchess of Devonshire, who succeeds the Duchess of Buccleuch as mistress of the robes, is the daughter of Lord and Lady Lansdowne, Lady Evelyn Fitzmaurice, as she was called before her marriage was a school girl in her early teens when her father was Governor-General of Canada. She is the niece of the Duchess of Buccleuch, who has held the appointment of mistress of the robes for nearly a quarter of a century with two short intervals.

The Duchess of Devonshire has always been accounted a particularly successful and charming hostess. She is a very capable organizer in public schemes in which she takes an interest, but her own family of seven children occupy much of her time, and she is known among her friends as a devoted mother. She is the chateleine of several beautiful homes, among them Chatsworth, one of the most interesting houses in England.

The post of mistress of the robes is the highest in the Queen's household, while the duties do not call for so much time and attendance as some of the others. She accompanies the Queen on the occasion of any state ceremony, and is present in any procession in which the Queen takes part. When visiting royalties are entertained, the mistress of the robes is in constant attendance. At the coronation she has many duties, and is held responsible for all the lesser ladies and the women in actual attendance on Her Majesty. It is the rule of the court that on state occasions the mistress of the robes is gowned in black satin.

SHOE WISDOM.

There is no part of their outfit which many women dread selecting so much as new shoes, for the shoes that it is often hard to find a perfectly fitting pair, and so much of comfort or misery depends on the fit of the shoe. While there are many good shoe shops, there are not so many really capable shoe salesmen, and it must be confessed the position of a shoe salesman is not an easy one to fill. Have we not, many of us had the experience at some time or other of leaving a shop after a wearisome half or three-quarters of an hour, with the clerk trying to play anything, or even to step into a canoe or take a good walk in a skirt that measures a yard and a half around the hem. Some one has suggested that the comet might be responsible for the outbreak of sartorial insanity. Whenever the cause is it is likely to run but a short course.

A Paris letter says: 'Most decidedly the fashion papers have made a good deal of the tied-in skirt, but as a matter of fact it is an eccentricity that is not being taken up to any great extent by the really well-dressed women. Where is the grace, beauty, or justification for its existence in a frock that, tied in round the ankles, looks like a dressy woman's umbrella, and that obliges its wearer so that she could no more take a good tree step than she could fly—without a Elcot. The straight narrow skirt is less ungraceful than the tied-in affair, but it pinches its wearer like a straight jacket. Up to the present they are so unusual as to be stared at on the street, and it is to be hoped that the love of outdoor sport will head off the fashion door from making any advance in the trying to play anything, or even to step into a canoe or take a good walk in a skirt that measures a yard and a half around the hem. A Paris letter says: 'Most decidedly the fashion papers have made a good deal of the tied-in skirt, but as a matter of fact it is an eccentricity that is not being taken up to any great extent by the really well-dressed women. Where is the grace, beauty, or justification for its existence in a frock that, tied in round the ankles, looks like a dressy woman's umbrella, and that obliges its wearer so that she could no more take a good tree step than she could fly—without a Elcot. The straight narrow skirt is less ungraceful than the tied-in affair, but it pinches its wearer like a straight jacket. RACE VENGEANCE

Cowardly Assaults on Negroes in Montreal.

'I'll avenge Jeff,' said a man on Craig street yesterday afternoon, and with that felled a negro to the ground with a cowardly blow on the head.

The man guilty of the assault said that his assailant was Joseph Milligan, and he considered that he was justified, as the black man had not got out of his way quickly enough on the sidewalk.

When he was picked up the negro was bleeding profusely from a cut on the cheek, but retreated quickly down St. Antoine street.

Another 'upholder of the white man's burden' waited with a companion and a brick outside the colored men's club on St. Antoine street at midnight, and hurling the brick at the first man to come out, took to his heels. The colored man took to his heels also, but after his assailant had catching him about the end of St. Monique street administered a well-deserved thrashing.

BUILDS TWELVE ELEVATORS.

Manitoba Commission Issues Orders For Materials.

Winnipeg, July 7.—The Manitoba Government Elevator Commission yesterday placed order for material for twelve elevators. The total amount of this order is over $100,000.

Having approved of sufficient sites for the erection of elevators at points from which positions have been received, and having also many such sites under inspection, the commission to-day placed its order for all material and machinery for the first twelve elevators taken in order in which they are received and sites approved. Work on these elevators will start at once. Orders for more material and machinery will be placed in a few days, as more sites are being inspected and approved every day and the commission is prepared to rush the work so as to have as many elevators as possible ready for the incoming crop.

STRIKE ON C. N. B. Steamfitters Quit Work and 500 Car Men May Join Them.

Winnipeg, July 7.—Steamfitters and their helpers on the Canadian Northern Railway between Port Arthur and Edmonton marched out on strike yesterday, demanding an increase in wages. The steamfitters number ninety, but there are nearly five hundred car men who threaten to go out, and the sudden withdrawal of these necessary employees would badly cripple the company's equipment.

THE 'WITNESS' DAILY PATTERN.

The home dressmaker should keep a little catalogue across book of the daily pattern cuts. These will be found very useful to refer to from time to time.

GIRLS' DRESS. Paris Pattern No. 3325.

In summer the dresses of little people ought to be changed very frequently. Without regard to what their elders call overpowering heat the juniors enjoy all manner of games and if they are to be kept sweet as the flowers they resemble they must have plenty of changes. This should be an argument in favor of simplicity of style, for otherwise the laundress will surely rebel. In the accompanying illustration we show a model which will be a joy to make, so simple is it, and at the same time so pretty. It has like most children's dresses, Gibson tucks at shoulders. These make a shaped panel in both front and back, and in order to provide a little necessary fullness for the front there is a small group of tucks, only a few inches long, just at the point of the V-shaped opening at the neck. The back, of course, is plain, otherwise the little maid would look round-shouldered. This model is suitable for girlish slacks, challis or lawn. The pattern is in four sizes—6 to 12 years. Size 8 years will require 2-1/2 yards of material 36 inches wide.

TIED-IN SKIRT 'GOING OUT.'

The fashion papers have made a good deal of the tied-in skirt, but as a matter of fact it is an eccentricity that is not being taken up to any great extent by the really well-dressed women.
