CHAMBERS REQUEST INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

Hospital Week Drive Sparked By 60 Canvassers

One thing that is being proved by the Community Hospital Drive for funds has been that the people of East Pontiac are heartily sympathetic to the hospital; and are eager to keep it working successfully in the community. Dr. A.F. Fokes, who is in charge of the Drive, and is appointing canvassers throughout the county has had great success in this work and by the middle of this week will have 60 canvassers with their receipt books going to the various homes. The territory being covered extends from Luskville on the East to Waltham on the West; and all canvassers report that they have been very kindly received by those in the homes that they visit. Most of the canvassers will finish their work this week although a few may have to carry over into next week.

Progress reports that are coming in are most encouraging. From four communities, where canvassers had not been appointed, because the size of the task in covering the county there came requests for canvassers books phoned in. Five times, requests have come in for more books, by canvassers who had filled their books, and needed more to finish the task. All seem enthusiastic at their work.

The first to finish and bring in his report was Keith Draper, on the Elmside district. He brought in a great report getting 27 members; who not only paid their membership fee but gave special donations in many cases and he received a total of $41.00 in cash. While they have not finished their work as yet, ten canvassers have officially reported that they have passed the $50 mark in their individual canvass. Dr. Fokes has still on Wednesday 15 persons to appoint as canvassers in most of these places west of Campbell's Bay.

The headquarters of the drive is at the home of Dr. Fokes, Shawville (Phone 340) where any information or desire for help may be phoned. Let us keep up the good work until every dollar possible may be brought in for the work of our hospital.

Accompanied by David Dickson, President of Pontiac Community Hospital, Dr. A. F. Fokes attended a meeting of Campbell's Bay Hospital Auxiliary.

As head of the current Hospital Week drive for funds for the Hospital, Dr. Fokes addressed the group with the object of securing canvassers for the Campbell's Bay area.

In his address, Dr. Fokes stressed the fact that, while most people who use the facilities of the Pontiac Community Hospital are able to pay and do pay their bills, there are some who simply have not the financial resources to pay. When it has been proved either by the local council or by the court, that someone cannot pay, the hospital bill is split three ways. The Province pays a portion, the municipal council pays a portion, and the hospital stands the rest of it. With people coming to the Hospital from Waltham, from Calumet Island, Otter Lake, Beechgrove and all intermediate points, the number of bills which the hospital is obliged to stand a part of each year, is substantial. To help meet these, and other costs, a drive for funds is now going forward.

Dr. Fokes appealed to the ladies of the Auxiliary to conduct the drive in Campbell's Bay. He pointed out to them that the drive was designed to do two things:

1. To obtain more members for the hospital, so that more people would take an active interest in the affairs of the hospital. The membership fee is one dollar per year.

Civic Centre Proposed By Campbell's Bay C Of C

The Chamber of Commerce of Campbell's Bay met for its regular monthly meeting in Campbell's Bay on Monday night.

James McCuaig of Bryson attended the meeting and spoke to the group on reforestation. At its meeting last week, County Council established a committee on reforestation. The Chamber of Commerce formed a similar committee, following Mr. McCuaig's talk, for the purpose of lending County Council all possible assistance in its reforestation planning.

2. To obtain donations to the hospital to help meet its expenses.

Following the appeal by Dr. Fokes, the Auxiliary, under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Paul Martineau, voted unanimously to conduct the drive. The following canvassers for funds were appointed:

Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mrs. Chas. Bolam, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Cary, Mrs. Martineau, Mrs. Bert Smith and Mrs. Andrew Flood.

Bristol Council Guests Of Norway Bay Group

Directors of the Norway Bay Municipal Association held a banquet in Scobie House, Norway Bay last Thursday night, following a tour of the Norway Bay Area to which Mayor Beattie of Bristol Township and the Township Councillors had been invited. Mayor Hilliard Beattie and three of his Councillors were able to be present and were the guests of honor at the banquet.

Guest speaker was David Dickson of The Equity, who gave a short talk on the problems of operating a small weekly newspaper.

Banquet chairman was Mr. J. A. E. Cowley, who stated that the purpose of the banquet was to bring members of Council together with the Directors of the Association so that they might get to know each other better and get to understand each other's problems better. Chairman Cowley assured the guests from Bristol Township that the Association was deeply interested in the welfare of Bristol. In furtherance of this interest he urged Directors of the Association to take a drive around some of the roads of Bristol Township and see for themselves some of the problems with which Council has to deal.

Mayor Hilliard Beattie was invited to make a few comments regarding some of the more pressing demands made in the Council. The Mayor thanked the Association for inviting the Councillors, the secretary-treasurer and himself to the dinner and expressed the hope that Council will be able to cooperate with the Norway Bay Municipal Association. He listed some of Council's main concerns in the Township as follows: Nearly 200 miles of roads; 4 large bridges on the Quyon River, and 3 on Dam Creek; 100 small bridges; ditches and water courses; and the dog tax. He mentioned too that Council is financially responsible for livestock destroyed by wolves and dogs.

Mr. Taylor, a resident of Norway Bay for 55 years, when invited to say a few words, stated that the occasion was unique in the history of the Norway Bay Association. It was the first time, he said, that members of Council and members of the Association had dined together. He expressed the hope that it would be possible to hold a similar banquet next year. Chairman Cowley noted with regret the passing of the late Donat LeGuerrier announced that a group of businessmen from Montreal and Quebec will visit Pontiac County on July 1. A committee has been appointed to greet this delegation. The committee chairman will be President Paul Martineau with two others to be named by him.

The Chamber discussed ways and means by which a civic centre could be financed and built in Campbell's Bay.

It was concluded that it would pay for itself if it were to have a theatre and a fire hall. Grants would likely be available from the Province for the fire hall and for the civic centre. The fire hall, if constructed would also cut fire insurance rates in the village. A committee was appointed to look into every phase of the project, and to contact the M.L.A., Mr. Raymond Johnson, to find out what grants, if any, would be forthcoming. It was also decided to invite the Mayor of Campbell's Bay and all members of Council to the next meeting in order to discuss the matter informally.

Two new members joined the Chamber at Monday night's meeting. These were W. T. Mousseau, Postmaster, Campbell's Bay and James McCuaig, Bryson.

Twenty members attended the meeting.

Don't Forget Your Parcels - Trecartin

Likening the first nine years of school to a train journey, Mr. Frank Trecartin, speaking to the graduating class of the Campbell's Bay Intermediate School, reminded the students not to leave their parcels on the train at the end of the journey. These parcels were the important things that the emerging ninth graders would use throughout their high school course and thence on throughout their lives.

As the waters of the Ottawa River wash the sands of beautiful Campbell's Bay on down towards the mighty St. Lawrence and then on to the oceans of the world, so would the influences of today's graduates have their effect with the passage of time, said Mr. Trecartin.

The occasion was the graduation banquet held at Pine Lodge in honor of ninth graders Martha Acres, Vera Moorhead, Gail Letts, Marilyn Young, Wayne Moodie, Peter Corrigan and Boyd Ebert. Forty five teachers and students were present.

The blessing was asked by Rev. Griffiths; toast to the Queen was by principal Carl Jackson; toast to the graduates was by Rev. Irving with a reply by Boyd Ebert; class will was read by Peter Corrigan; class prophecy was given by Marilyn Young; Peter Corrigan introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Trecartin, who was thanked by Vera Moorhead, Chairlady for the banquet was Gail Lett.

In his address Mr. Trecartin described the essence of manhood by quoting Kipling's "If" and closed with the following words from Councillor Winters McCarriston, and extended to Council on behalf of the Association the sympathy of the members on the loss of this respected and able citizen. Mr. Jack Ritchie, of Ritchie Feed and Seed was a guest at the banquet.

Introductions of the Council members and the guest speaker were made by W. A. Brown. Introductions of the Directors of the Association were made by Chairman Cowley.

Technical Schools And Road Improvements

Nine resolutions were adopted at the Union of Chambers of Commerce of Western Quebec annual meeting held Wednesday at Ste. Cecile de Masham. The creation of technical schools in Western Quebec was urged for domestic science, agriculture and forestry, as well as a school for guides and a system of licensing guides. It was also urged that guides be prevented from carrying arms while performing their duties. That the severity of the fish and game laws should be increased and the law rigidly enforced, were further suggestions which became resolutions at this meeting. Other resolutions regarding fish and game laws were that the Federal District Commission restock trout lakes in the Gatineau Park and put boats on some of these lakes, that wild life receive greater protection, that the number of fish and game wardens should be increased, that lakes streams and forests should be examined with a view to restocking with fish and game, and that the severity of the fish and game laws be increased and law be rigidly enforced.

Another resolution requested the Federal District Commission to consider the appointment of one or two more French speaking Canadians to the Commission. This resolution was based on the fact that a large portion of the Western part of Quebec is no longer represented on the Commission, following the resignation of Dr. Leduc of Gatineau. Dr. Leduc's position concerning the price paid to farmers of the Gatineau for pulp wood was supported by the Daily Vacation Bible School, under the auspices of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, will take place July 4 to July 9 this year. Rev. H. A. Smith of Ottawa will be in charge. "Bigger and Better" is the motto for this year. With last year's enrolment at 191 there is quite a record to beat. On Sunday night, July 3, the special speaker will be Rev. David Tsutada of Tokyo who has been called the John Wesley of Japan.

Bible School

Mrs. James Carson Marks 89th Birthday

Mrs. James Carson celebrated her 89th birthday on Sunday, June 12, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Palmer at Starks Corners. Celebrating with Mrs. Carson were members of her family, grandchildren, great great grandchildren and neighbors. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. William Maitland of Pembroke and the party was enjoyed by all!

Film Council To Meet

The Pontiac Film Council will meet in the Audio-visual room at Shawville High School at 8 p.m. Saturday evening, June 18. This will be the first annual meeting. Plans for next season will be discussed. It is desirable that all those who have used the films this year should attend as well as any who might want to use them next year. By starting promptly at eight it is hoped the meeting will be over early. Representatives from schools, Farm Forums, churches, Lions, Rotary and other service clubs are especially invited. A special film will be shown.

meeting. A resolution was adopted requesting provision of the law which excludes bank and Central Mortgage loans from rebate privileges to be amended to bring such loans within the provisions of the rebate privilege. Provision is made in the laws of Quebec for the rebate to the borrower of interest charges on housing loans which are in excess of 2%. The law provides that such rebates are not available on loans granted by Central Mortgage or the chartered banks.

It was resolved that laws governing the operation of trucks in Quebec should be amended to bring them into line with the laws of Ontario and the West. Road improvements were suggested on the Papineauville-Duhamel highway. (Continued on Page Twelve)

Rev. P. R. Stote World Application Most Essential

Rev. P. Raymond Stote, speaking at the National Farm Radio Forum Convention Banquet last Thursday at Pine Lodge, said that the future of Farm Forum depended upon three things, the third of which he deemed the most important. First was people. The right kind of people doing the right kind of things. Second was ideas. Ideas big enough to overcome differences which grow up between people. Third was world application. Does Farm Forum exist to get for the farmer what he wants or to give the world what it needs?

This serious note was relieved by Lincoln Dewar of Prince Edward Island who, in his reply, mentioned that all we can say for sure about the future of Farm Forum is that it lies ahead of us!

Banquet chairman S. Wyman MacKechnie then introduced Gordon MacMillan who, with a hard working committee of local people had been responsible for the welcoming and entertaining of the delegates. Those from the distant provinces were loudest in their applause, expressing their appreciation of the tour of Pontiac farms, the picnic at Bryson, the moonlight cruise and square dance, the gifts of Pontiac honey and Pontiac maple syrup, the taxi service to near and distant points and the banquet.

With loudspeakers arranged outside and inside Pine Lodge, the large gathering was able to split up, some sitting outside under the pines and others congregating in the conference room to hear the main speakers of the evening.

Don Austin and Pete Stewart of Nova Scotia and Bruce Ayeart of Quyon, Quebec, performed an impromptu gaelic song before Dr. H. H. Hannam introduced Dr. E. A. Corbett, recently returned from Jamaica.

Dr. Corbett's descriptions of the adult education program being carried out in Jamaica sounded very much like a description of Farm Forum at its very best. He said that the true values of Farm Forum are hard to measure. What happens to people's hearts and minds as a result of the searching questions brought up in the Forums cannot be ascertained.

Dr. Corbett quoted the famed Dr. Albert Schweitzer in closing when he said "You must give some time to your fellow men for remember you don't live in a world all your own. Your brothers are there too."

Travels To Regina By Air At 99

Dr. Campbell of Shawville, reports to The Equity that his mother-in-law, Mrs. Kennedy, aged 99, has left Shawville to live with her daughter, Mrs. Barber, in Regina. Accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Kennedy embarked on T.C.A.'s westbound 1 a.m. flight for Regina the same day.

Mrs. Kennedy, who has lived with her son-in-law for the past 39 years, has been a source of wonder to local doctors during the last couple of years. Just over a year ago she fell down a full flight of stairs, and suffered no after effects whatsoever.

Just six weeks ago she went to the hospital with virus pneumonia. She quickly recovered her health and has been pronounced completely fit to take the long air trip out to Regina.

The above photograph was taken of Mrs. Kennedy by The Equity on the occasion of her 99th birthday.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The Norway Bay Municipal Association is to be congratulated on taking its first step in the greater mutual understanding between its Board of Directors and the Council of Bristol Township.

A dinner meeting, reported elsewhere in this paper, was held by the Directors to which all members of Council were invited, together with the Secretary-Treasurer of Council. All present were unanimously of the opinion that the meeting was an emqualified success, and that it had accomplished its purpose.

It has always struck us as a most interesting fact that where an urban group impinges upon a farming community, difficulties between the two tend to crop up. Our experience of such situations is that they can usually be resolved by free discussion between the two groups. In this way, mutual respect and understanding are quickly established.

The dinner held last week at Scobie House furnishes ample evidence that both the Municipal Association and members of Council realize the importance of knowing each other better, and on these grounds merit the sincere congratulations of the community.

WHAT IS MONEY?

Price is a mathematical function of the amount of money in circulation. An increase in the amount of money directly affects the price structure. This is a proven and long recognized economic fact. It is not a fallacy. If the Social Credit theorists base their thesis on any other footing, then they should re-examine the basic principles of their monetary policy.

The next to last sentence of Mr. Coyne's letter, published elsewhere on this page, contains a fundamental error in principle which might usefully be corrected here. "Money" is a term used to refer to ALL means of payment available in exchanging one good for another. It includes Bank of Canada bills, bank deposits, bills of exchange, coin, and also the amount of trade credits outstanding at any time. Trade credits is simply another term for the "credit buying debt" referred to by Mr. Coyne, and is recognized by all economists as a significant portion of the total means of payment in the country. One of the main reasons for voicing concern over the amount of the "Credit Buying Debt" is that it reflects an increase in amount over the total amount outstanding at the same time in the previous year. That is, "credit buying debt" has increased during the year, has increased the means of payment in the country, and has consequently been a factor in price increases experienced during the year.

ADVICE TO GRADUATES (From The Rosetown Eagle)

This week in Rosetown, and all over Canada, thousands of young men and women are graduating from high school. Many of these, in fact most of these, will be looking for work with the smaller group going on to university. If we were asked to give advice to these young folks on the best way to get a job our answer would be mainly in reference to attitude rather than ability. It is our opinion that the most important ingredient in connection with a successful life is a deep personal sense of obligation and responsibility. It is no secret that since the last war those who have left school and have sought and are seeking employment face the future with a lessening degree of social obligation and responsibility. It is difficult to know where to place the blame, but we adults, whether parents or not, must bear most of the responsibility. Most young parents today feel that society is obligated to them for their material welfare. They feel that the world owes them a living. There are those who will disagree with this opinion but few will disagree that the average young person honestly believes that society is obligated to him in a greater measure than he is obligated to it. Nothing could be further from the truth. Yet, the fact that young men and women believe it, makes it apparent that adult society has somehow conveyed this false opinion to them. After some reflection we can see that this has happened through our neglect of our own social responsibilities. Many of us, even today, are willing selling our freedom of opportunity for a mess of social security with the full know-

Letters To The Editor

Norway Bay, Quebec June 14th, 1955 The Editor, The Equity, Sir:-

I wish to compliment you, Sir, on your editorial in the last issue of The Equity on the closing of the cheese factory and Mr. Merrifield's cheese curing at Eardley. The reason that Eardley cheese, cured in Mr. Merrifield's basement, attracted so much attention and favorable comment, was that it was well nigh perfect. The writer, at the time of the visit to Canada some years ago, of the late King and Queen, had the opportunity to sample the Canadian cheddar cheese that was selected and served to them across Canada. That could have been Ira Merrifield's cheese.

That is what is wrong with a lot of our natural foods in Canada today, particularly our animal food products. They lack perfection, even the top quality of many of our manufactured foods. Curiously, in all the discussions at the Farm Forum at Pine Lodge last week, the word "QUALITY", the striving for perfection of quality in food, even food itself and its place in world economy, both the words and the sentiments thereof, were most conspicuous by their absence.

In my opinion two comparatively simple factors, not recognized as much as they should be in cheese making, accounted for the unusual quality of Eardley. Ira Merrifield's cheese as cured in his basement. For the Eardley cheese, even that purchased by Mr. Merrifield, transported in warm weather to the city and stored and cured under artificial refrigeration was not the same cheese and was not of as good and uniform quality as that stored in Ira's own basement.

First—The curing room of the Eardley factory and Ira's basement were not 50 ft apart. The cheese, in process of cure, was moved from one room to the other without any change of temperature, no sweating, no bubbling away of natural oil, that which, once happening, thwarts the perfection of any cure. In a word, there was no interruption of the cure, properly started in the original curing room.

Second—The Eardley factory and Ira's basement are located on a sand hill, possibly beach sand, the shore of an old lake. This fact has been noticed in other food products. There is a perfection possible in food curing in a dry, earthy, yet slightly moist, underground storage, rarely, if ever, attainable under artificial refrigeration. In Ira's basement the temperature may not have been quite as uniform as that obtainable artificially nor could he stop the cure at a given point as is done otherwise but he didn't need to for the public, often from far places, made a path to his door to get it.

It is unfortunate for Canada, unfortunate for Eardley, that the Eardley cheese factory should close. There is a tremendous business opportunity there, one Mr. Editor, that could well be embraced as suggested in your editorial. One can visualize, in addition to the present curing room, a larger, underground, curing room, an extension of the present factory that would perpetuate the principles, intentionally or accidentally, but yet so usefully applied by the factory and Ira.

Instead of the usual practice on the part of most cheese factories of hazardingly shipping their raw uncured cheese, long distances, under adverse conditions, perfect right there in Eardley a food factory that would not only again bring fame to Canadian Cheddar Cheese but make Eardley the focal point of cheese epicures, the world over.

A GREAT BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY!

Yours sincerely, W. A. Brown.

Quyon, Que., June 7, 1955

The Editor, The Equity, Dear Mrs. Dickson,

When space permits I shall be pleased if you will publish the following—"St. John's Anglican Church School, Quyon was honoured by having one of its members, Joan Hart, receive Honourable Mention for an essay that she submitted to the Dominion Annual Essay Contest of the Anglican Church. "The Light Dawns on India", was the topic of the essay for 1955. Some facts that Joan noted were—Eighty percent of India's 350 million people live in small villages. Only one out of every hundred persons is literate. The average life expectancy of a Canadian woman is 65 years, that of a woman in India is 27. There are some four million cases of T.B. in India and more than one million lepers.

—The Anglican Church in the Diocese of Amritsar is doing much to alleviate these conditions. The church maintains three leper homes in this diocese. St. Hilda's School and St. Anne's School for girls and St. Paul's Boys' School teaches the natives not only to read and write but sewing, knitting and domestic science. The Evangelistic work of the church is under the supervision of Bishop Heber Wilkinson. Each missionary looks after thirty or forty villages and has five or six native catechists working under him. The missionary and the catechist must come to the people as a friend not merely as a minister. He must love his pupils and be ready to squat down on the dirt beside them and treat them as friend and as his equal. There are still many millions in India living in fear and darkness who have not seen the light. We can all help these people. If we cannot go there as a teacher or as a nurse we can help them through our prayers and by our gifts of pennies and dimes to the M.S.C.C.

Yours sincerely, Irene Hart, St. John's S. S.

Bryson, Quebec, May 31, 1955.

Editor of the Equity,

In your editorial in The Equity May 5th, you are harping on the idea of taxing earned incomes for redistribution. In other words tax the "haves" for the benefit of the "have-nots", arguing thereby that there is enough money in circulation if it could be evenly redistributed. This of course is the fallacy of the era that Social Credledge that every time we do this we restrict the opportunities of those who follow after us. In reality we do not assist the men and women of tomorrow with social securities of today, we simply and unavoidably subject them to the greatest social insult of all—social equality. The expression "social equality" has been used so much by glib-tongued politicians and would-be planners, that we have begun to accept the expression as a desirous condition. If we consider the expression "social equality" we can readily see that it simply means a reduction downwards to a mass mediocrity rather than the obviously impossible task of lifting the lazy and incompetent to a higher level. Let's face it. The last thing in the world society wants is legislated equality or security.

So, to the young graduates we would say (and this we know to be true) there are more demands for executive highly paid positions than there are young men and women capable of filling them. And the reason that this condition exists is because there are fewer than ever applicants willing to accept the fundamental truth that success is in direct proportion to the candidates' ability to accept the fact that he alone, without assistance from any one, is entirely responsible to society for himself.

Supervisor's Notebook

By Frank Trecartin, Supervisor Of Pontiac Protestant Schools

Most of our School Boards in Pontiac County are affiliated with a Provincial organization known as the Quebec Association of Protestant School Boards and this Provincial organization, in turn, is a member of the Canadian School Trustees Association.

On September 15, 1951, at a meeting in Saskatoon, the Canadian School Trustees Association decided to continue research already begun and to conduct a nation-wide survey and investigation into the whole matter of school finance in Canada.

After a considerable amount of preliminary planning, Dr. M. E. LaZerte was appointed, in March of 1952, as Research Director, with headquarters in Edmonton and after almost three full years of travel throughout the nation during which the educational systems of all of Canada's ten provinces were thoroughly investigated, there has been published just recently what is known as the LaZerte Report on "School Finance in Canada."

In a large 230 page document and it cannot be considered lightly if one is to grasp the import of its findings, suggestions, recommendations, etc.

It is loaded with facts and figures of course, and does not lend itself to brief summary in a column such as this. However, there are some startling facts revealed and I might mention one of them this week. For example, consider this. In Canada as a whole, only 44.5% of the pupils who begin school continue to graduation from high school, and in the Protestant schools of Quebec only 34% of our primary pupils graduate from grade eleven. (These figures are for 1951-52).

The point is obvious that there is a terrific "drop-out" of pupils and Dr. LaZerte raises an interesting point. He suggests that if we could retain 90% of our pupils to high school graduation might not our grave problem of obtaining enough recruits for teaching, nursing and other professions be solved? It certainly is true that we must look to the graduating classes for students for our Teacher Training Colleges and our Nurses' Training Schools.

From time to time we shall hear through radio and press a great deal about the "LaZerte Report" and possibly I can mention other items from it occasionally. Dr. LaZerte makes some very interesting recommendations which we can examine at a later date and it might also be interesting sometime, to consider why children drop out of school before graduation from high school.

it has to combat. There is not enough money in circulation at any time Mr. Editor, to purchase all our requirements at the price the Retailer puts on the goods he has to sell. The only money in circulation is the amount the Manufacturer puts in circulation to purchase raw material to make ready for the Retail Trade. Now one third of our population are employed in the retail trade and they live on the profit motive or mark-up and it does not take much mathematical knowledge to know that if food, clothing and shelter (our real wealth) have been made marketable each year by the Manufacturers to the amount of $15,000,000,000 (15 Billion) that that is the amount of money put in circulation to supply the Retail Trade. Now we do know also that the Retailer marks his goods up at least 33%. So that the amount of money required to buy all the goods from the retailers would be $20,000,000,000. If the retailers can only sell two thirds of the goods, the amount of money in circulation is gone. His profit is gone. Sales and hospitalization. My proof to you, Mr. Editor that there is not enough money in circulation, is a news item in the JOURNAL, April 25th which says, that "Credit Buying Debt reaches a record of $1,930,000,000. How happy we could all be if we did not have to go in debt to this extent?"

Eight Boys, Thirty-Six Girls

Piano Pupils Of Mrs. Edgar Hodgins Present Annual Recital

Eight little boys and thirty six little girls each took their turn Tuesday evening to show a large gathering at the Shawville High School how they had progressed in their studies during the past ten months. These were the piano pupils of Mrs. Edgar Hodgins producing their annual recital.

Every number on the program was a joy to hear for the two hundred proud parents and friends in the audience, with the most advanced students appearing after all the little ones had played. Last on the program was Helen Black, now a regular trouper since her winning performance over CHOY last month. Her playing of a Grainier arrangement of Country Gardens was up to her usual fine standard of playing. Another CHOY trouper on the program was little Marjorie Dickson who sang in the intermission with the whole piano class taking up the choruses of "Open Up Your Heart And Let The Sun Shine In."

A very excellent rendition of Valse Parisienne was given by Richard Neil who also played the exacting Prelude in C Minor by Chopin. The list of performers, as they appeared, follows: Bobby Cowley, Sharon Quaille, Andrew Elliott, Della Yach, Elva Tracey, Claire Elliott, Carol Sheppard, Jean Elliott, Marjorie Horner, Benson Elliott, Sandra Draper, Helen Hodgins, Beryl Krause, George Russell, Janice MacFarlane, Henry Horner, Janey Storey, Allan Paul, Audrey Dean, Dorothy Armitage, Bernice Hodgins, Helen Mee, Ross Dickson, Gail Barr, Marjorie Dickson, Lois Mee, Joan Armstrong, Jennifer Dickson, Vivian Hobbs, Marion Horner, Eunice Krause, Elizabeth Dickson, Barbara Elliott, Brenda Hodgins, Kathryn Horner, Anna Hamilton, Shirley Mee, Ruth Gordon, Sylvia Gibson, Elizabeth Gordon, Donna Hodgins, Richard Neil, Elizabeth Hodgins and Helen Black. Helen also played God Save the Queen and Richard Neil presented Mrs. Hodgins with a gift on behalf of all her pupils.

Bristol Council Proposes New $2250 Road At Edwin Pirie's

Bristol Council, unable to complete its monthly business at the regular meeting time last week held an additional session last Friday night.

Main subject of discussion was the question of a new road proposed to cross the south end of lot 12, range 3 of the Township of Bristol, the property of Mr. Edwin Pirie. The proposed road would replace one now in use, but which is not satisfactory in its present state. For snow plowing purposes it should be widened. It also needs a new culvert costing an estimated $700. The total cost and difficulty of widening and repairing the old road would be sufficiently great that it is considered preferable to consider the construction of a new road. It has been indicated by Ray Johnston MLA for Pontiac, that the Roads Department might possibly consider a grant for this purpose, which if given would likely be on a 50-50 basis with Council. That is, the Province would put up $1 for every dollar put up by Council. Council has stated that it is willing to put up $1,000 for the purpose. The total available for the road would be $2,000.

Mr. Bob Gordon, who was present at the Council meeting, stated that he would be able to complete the road for $2,250. Edwin Pirie, on whose property, most of the road would be built, was also present, and advised that he was prepared to pay for purchasing a small piece of land necessary for the road, also to erect all necessary cable and fencing in connection with the road. In addition, he understood to maintain the road when completed. Should these various financing proposals go through, there would remain an amount of $250 improvised for and payable to Bob Gordon for construction of the road. If the Province and the Council each pays $1,000, who would pay the extra $250 making up the total road cost of $2,250. This question has not yet been clarified, but undoubtedly will be, once the Province has made a firm statement as to the amount of grants if any, that it is willing to give.

Tenders for gravel hauling were opened and examined and were held over for special meeting on Friday night, June 10.

Motion Harkness and Ireland that the regular council meetings for July, August and September be held in the evening at 8.30 p.m. Carried.

Motion Crs. Ireland and Draper that the secretary notify Mrs. Thomas of Hull to build her fence. Carried.

Motion Stanley and Smiley that the following bills be paid:

J. A. Laderoute, $28.80; Lionel Grimes, $10.50; Robert Bulmer, $38.50; W. J. Hayes & Sons, $15.30; Hare Equipment, 33.00; Gatineau Power, 133.45; H. S. Ballantyne, 14.00; W. H. Smiley, $45.71; Melvin Stanley, $38.91; Urban Curley, $38.91; Victor Krutz, 121.80; Alex Drummond, $6.00; Percy Armitage $15.33; E. Marion, $78.35; Equity Office, $0.75.

Motion Cr. Harkness that the meeting be adjourned to meet at a special meeting Friday, June 10, 1955 at 8.30 p.m. Carried.

Dr. T. C. Routley To Preside Over Medical Convention In Toronto

The joint convention of British and Canadian Medical Associations, meeting this month in Toronto, is being presided over by Dr. T. Clarence Routley, uncle of Rev. David Routley of the Starks Corners Pentecostal Church and also uncle of Mrs. Krause of Shawville. Since such a close relative of two of our neighbors has reached such an exalted position in such a humanitarian field, it might be interesting to reprint a few facts about Dr. Routley from a recent cover story in "Saturday Night".

Dr. Routley was born in Victoria County, Ontario, in 1889 and graduated from the University of Toronto with a MB in 1915, going overseas with the Royal Army Medical Corps. In 1919 he was appointed secretary of the Ontario Medical Association and in 1923 he also took over the post of General Secretary of the Canadian Medical Association. He was medical adviser to the Canadian Delegation to the United Nations in 1946 and a member of the international commission which set up the World Health Organization and the World Medical Association. While with this Association Dr. Routley travelled a million and a half miles, crossing the Atlantic forty times since the war.

According to Saturday Night, Dr. Routley's great contribution to medicine is due partly because he put his faith in people rather than institutions and really likes meeting people. Behind the facade of the polished administrator, there seems to lurk something of the fervor of the medical missionary. Among his honors, Dr. Routley was the first elected Charter Member of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, he was appointed Honorary Consultant General of the World Medical Association in 1951. He received the rare F.N.G. Starr Award from the Canadian Medical Association, the CBE for his war services and an LL.D. from both Queen's and Dalhousie.

The May meeting of the St. Andrew's W. A. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ballantyne. The assisting hostess was Mrs. M. Stewart. Mrs. C. Young presided assisted by Mrs. S. S. McNeil, the secretary. The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn and the lesson was read by Mrs. L. Bailey. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The roll-call was answered by verses of scripture. Twenty were present. Eleven sick visits were reported. Mrs. R. Russell reported on the Sunshine Basket and it was well on its way among the members. A small donation of money had been sent to Woodland Camp and to Camp Kallala. The strawberry supper was discussed and through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown, it will be held on their lawn, the same place as last year. Mrs. P. Ballantyne, Mrs. J. N. McCreddie, and Mrs. M. Stewart were appointed as the committee to look after the supper. There is a table of work to be sold and the President asked each member to donate another dollar's worth of work before the supper for the sale, or the equivalent in parcel post packages. Mrs. L. Bailey was appointed to make posters. A committee reported on work done in the Sunday school rooms. The manse committee is to see what is wanted for the manse and to have their report ready for the next meeting. The next meeting is to be held at the cottage of Mrs. Annie Graham on the wharf road, June

FLY RARE BLOOD TO SAVE U.S. BABY

A congratulatory kiss is bestowed by Susann Robertson on her mother, Mrs. Nadene Robertson of Redwood City, Calif., on hearing the news that a supply of rare blood had been obtained from Cree Indians in Alberta to save the life of her expected baby. Mrs. Robertson is expected by doctors to give birth to a child whose blood factors are almost certain to result in death a few hours after birth. Only 25 persons in the world are known to have the blood-type that can save the child and 21 of them are on an Indian reservation in Alberta. The Indians willingly donated enough blood to save the child.

—Central Press Canadian Photos
Lt.-Cmdr. Allan Wood, RCN, and F/L Howard Robertson, RCAF, flew the Cree blood to California in an RCAF jet training plane. Francis J. Castle, Red Cross field director, right, directed handling of the blood. The plane was forced down by bad weather in Calgary, then continued its flight to California.

22. The meeting adjourned. Delicious tea was then served by the hostess.

St. Andrew's W. M. S.

The St. Andrew's W. M. S. held their May meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell. The president, Miss Sarah Campbell opened the meeting with the hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains". A psalm was read and approved. The roll call was answered by verses of scripture. Ten members were present. Eight sick visits were reported.

The treasurer's report was given and the motions of Mrs. M. Bailey and Mrs. Wiggins were accepted to send $35 to the Provincial Treasurer. $25.00 was paid by the members present for the quilting of a quilt. A box of treats is to be sent to one of our members, Miss Campbell and Mrs. M.R. Bailey are to be the delegates to the sectional meeting in Fort Coulonge on the 17th of this month. The program was about Angola. Miss Campbell and the members read from various papers. The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and prayer. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant hour spent.

Historical Society Hold Last Meeting

The last meeting of the Ottawa Valley Historical Society for this season will be held on Thursday June 16th.

As the marking of the site of Pembroke's first Pioneer Cabin is being considered, the meeting will assemble at the "Peter White site" at the corner of Elizabeth and Nelson Streets (Pembroke east).

Along with the regular committee reports will be an account of the historical display at the Trade Fair and a report of the weekend workshop (subject—"The Small Museum") which was recently held at Midland.

The highlight of the meeting will be the reading of a copy of Samuel de Champlain's Journal of his explorations (1613) of the Ottawa River. We are fortunate in having received a copy of this interesting historical document for our Society's use. As it contains extensive and detailed description of the journey and of the Indians and of Champlain's dealings with the Indians, an inspiring meeting is expected.

He then introduced Mr. John Brown who gave an address on poultry, the care and feeding of them and marketing them. And he pointed out how that if poultry were raised in a co-operative way a fine market could be built up. In closing his address Mr. Brown said that the opening exercises of the E.W.I. are well worth thinking of "Ode and Collect". Mrs. Ebert Smith thanked both men for being with us and for their fine addresses. Mrs. L. Bailey and Mrs. J. Farm Forum Convention Seven Provinces Report:

Last Wednesday morning at Pine Lodge, Bristol, nine provincial representatives reported to the Annual Convention of the National Farm Radio Forum.

one candidate and every member has one vote. Mr. Dewar stated that the Farm Forum finances are in a happy condition in Prince Edward Island.

J. L. Dewar, speaking for Prince Edward Island, explained the Methods used there to create interest in Provincial Forum elections. Each Farm Forum presents

Gerald Finley of Nova Scotia reported an increase in Forums in that province with two new field workers both interested in Farm Forum and also help from the Extension Department and the Agricultural Representatives. Mr. Finley considers the active part taken by these Agronomists to be an important part of Nova Scotia's Farm Forum in Nova Scotia.

Marjorie Nicholson spoke for the fifty three active Forums of New Brunswick. Her Forums kept up their meetings beyond the season's end in March. Their April meetings took the form of a study of marketing. New Brunswick also undertook seven one day leadership courses where parliamentary procedure and program planning were studied.

Walter Hodgman's report was more of an individual comment on what he personally considered interesting information than a Provincial Report on Quebec Farm Forum's active season. Fortunately, though, the delegates could see for themselves that Quebec, and particularly Pontiac County, is endowed with a wide awake association of forum groups. Their work was reported in the special convention edition of The Equity. Mrs. Lillian McJanet reported twenty seven groups in Manitoba, an increase of eleven over last year. The Manitoba Farm Forums receive help from the Manitoba Pool Elevators and the United Grain Growers.

Dave Robinson of Saskatoon told how the University there provides office space and stenographic services to Saskatchewan Farm Forums of which there are now 68. Glen Smiley proudly claimed a 92% success in reports from Alberta Forums.

Allan DesChamps of B.C. where there are few Farm Forums but very strong ones, reported more interest during the last year than in previous years.

An interesting excerpt from the Prince Edward Island report describes a workshop where Farm Forum, the Federation of Agriculture, the Library Branch, the National Film Board, the Musical Festival Association, Home and School Association, Department of Agriculture and the Women's Institutes all took part.

Questions Answered

Mental gymnastics were indulged in by those present at the Wednesday afternoon session last week at the National Farm Radio Forum Convention in Bristol. The problem, set by the committee for solution by the gathering of delegates and Pontiac Forum members, was one which concerns all Forum members from time to time. It concerned the holding of old Forums, increasing the number of Forums, financing the work and making the best use of Provincial and National Secretaries to this end.

To hold existing forums and build new ones the suggested methods were reorganizing into smaller groups, rallies, visits from field men, forming a strong County Committee with a trouble shooter, concentrating on one area each year. Financial resources were reported by members by the following methods: a drama festival, box social, cake sale, grants from farm organizations and the Federation of Agriculture, membership fees, dances, collections at rallies, help from local Co-ops as an investment or advertising booth at the fair, raffle of a pig, and one member stating firmly that if Farm Forums aren't able to support themselves they aren't worth supporting and anyway there is little use for money in an organization where the work is done on a voluntary basis. The paid secretaries, thought the group, should be contacting the top brass of other organizations, contacting some of the brass that isn't at the top, running workshops, rallies, field days and holding special meetings where each Farm Forum member brings a non-member to see what its all about.

POWER COMPANY

SUMMER STORMS

At this time of year brief but violent storms sometimes tear down trees and branches and smash them across the electric lines.

The power company tries to keep such interruptions to a minimum, and when power failures occur the line crews are sent out immediately to find and repair the damage thus restoring service as quickly as possible.

While it is inevitable that sometimes interruptions in service must occur these are not as numerous as formerly. This is largely due to the many customers who have cooperated in spotting and reporting trees and branches which overhang the power lines.

This struggle of the power company against the trouble caused by trees is a never ending one, in which the help of the customer frequently means improved service to that customer.

"It will not be as dry as it sounds", says Dr. Anis Harrison, M.B.B.S., speaking of the title of her address, "Modern Trends in Medicine" which will be given at the provincial convention of the Quebec Women's Institutes at Macdonald College, June 21-24. Circus Promises Thrills At Renfrew

The King Bros and Cole Bros. combined Circus, one of the world's big amusement organizations, will exhibit in Renfrew, Thursday, June 23 at the Fair Grounds.

More than 150 performers representing the best talent obtainable from the five continents of the world are to be seen with the big show this season.

As a prelude to the circus performance, a gloriously enchanting and stupendous spectacle entitled "La Persia", a gorgeous festa, is unfolded. To those who love fairy lore, it far exceeds in magnificence brilliancy, gorgeousness and beauty the glories of any spectacle yet staged by this circus.

There will be dancing girls; great companies of trained singers, orchestras of vast size, grand golden-toned organs and the crash of symbols. Yet this colossal production which daily amazes thousands, is but one feature of the King Bros and Cole Bros combined Circus.

The internationally famous Conley family of riders with Oscar, the celebrated comedian, come from Europe to thrill and amaze you along with the Jordon Troupe, aerialist, "Buddy" the seal with a human brain and the flying La Forms. Clowns headed by Frank Cain, John Toy and Phil Enos, will furnish fun for the little folks. King Bros and Cole Bros. troupe of dancing horses, ridden by feminine riders will be seen.

There are 600 people with the big show which recently returned to America after a tour of South America. The 150 performers represent eight foreign countries. Twenty-two tents covering 12 acres of ground are used to house the transient city which at night is transported from town to town upon two special convoys.

The clean business methods and the magnitude of this great traveling enterprise have always made the King Bros and Cole Bros combined Circus welcome visitors to this community. This marvel, super show of 1,000 wonders, represents an immense investment.

The performances will be given at 2 and 8 p.m. The doors will open an hour earlier to permit an inspection of the immense zoo or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Lee Hinkley's military band.

A spectacular street parade with trumpeting bands, tooting calliopes, cumbersome elephants and humping camels will take possession of the downtown streets at 11.30 a.m. It will be the first time a circus parade staged here in 20 years. Children of all ages are promised something new in the way of thrills.

new thrill to seek. Pat Fenton, Toronto, holds up a splake, a cross between a lake and speckled trout, one of 43,000 which have been planted in the waters there. Hundreds of enthusiasts have headed into the area anxious to land one of the beauties.

The financial statement was read by Marcel St. Marie, Co-operative inspector of rural economic, branch, co-operative division Montreal.

Approach Started To Island Bridge

The dream of thousands of people on both sides of the Ottawa River for many years, the Pembroke Allumette Island Bridge took the first step towards becoming reality at Pembroke last week.

Monday, employees of the A.H. McCoy Construction Co., of Stittsville, Ont., started to work on the approach to the Ontario side of the bridge and by Tuesday afternoon a narrow "tote" road had been cut into the side of the hill, immediately to the river side of the Highway.

Tons of heavy equipment and a large group of men are already at work on the grading phase of the project which is to be completed by the end of September.

The McCoy contract, accepted a short time ago, is for grading of the approach and making it ready for a granular base, preparatory to the actual load being laid down.

In the same area what is known as an access road will be built, to be completed by the end of July in order to allow machinery to be moved by the federal government to the inter-provincial site for work on that part.

It was revealed that this will be constructed on the highway right-of-way, using its grade, but that it will not be an actual part of the approach.

Clearing operations were started first and the brush and other obstructions are rapidly being cleared from the proposed right-of-way so that work may go ahead on schedule.

What's On Your Mind?

Mature Marriage

I am a widower and am now over 60 years old. My wife died four years ago. We had a long and very happy life together and I missed her terribly. Our only son was lost in the war and life has been pretty lonely for me.

About a year ago I met a lady, who is nearly 20 years younger than me. She is a widow and has two charming daughters. It has meant a lot to me to visit in their home nearly every week. I feel altogether different when I'm with them. It gives me an interest in life while I'm with them but when I go back to my own home things look dark again.

I admit I've thought about asking her to marry me but I'm afraid she'd laugh at an old codger like me getting romantic. Do you think it's foolish of me to think of marrying someone so much younger?

Dear Mr. A. I don't think you are foolish at all, and there is no need for you to depreciate yourself.

However, it is understandable that you do lack self-confidence. This is a normal reaction for those who have lost someone near and dear to them. Your double loss has been a blow to your self-esteem.

It is a good sign, I believe, that you are thinking of marrying again. Instead of drifting into a lonely, premature old age, you are tackling your problems in a realistic way.

You have many assets to bring to marriage. A man who was happily married for many years, must have been a good husband.

You are both mature people and the difference in your ages at your time of life should not necessarily be a deterrent.

You can build a warm, affectionate companionship that can be satisfying to both of you.

Don't be afraid "to pop the question". The lady must be interested in you as she invites you to visit her and her daughters so frequently.

(You may consult Phyllis Pol and about your personal or family problems by writing to her in care of this newspaper).

Last Tuesday night a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Alphonse Tanguay to honor Phyllis Farrell, whose marriage took place Saturday. The bride-to-be was presented with many gifts. An enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. Tanguay and daughter, Mrs. A. Lance.

Friday night a number of friends gathered at the Maple Leaf Inn for a stag party to honor Donald Malette, who was married Saturday.

Miss Angela Giroux has taken a position in Renfrew. She is in the office of Sulphur & Son, contractors.

Shenboro—Graduation exercises of St. Paul's High School were held Sunday with mass in the morning celebrated by Reverend J. J. Harrington. Appropriate hymns were rendered by the choir during mass and two boys of the graduating class, John Morris and Garnet Morris were servers.

An Easy-to-Make Strawberry Dome Cake

EASY-TO-MAKE desserts—that's what we need for summer! But easily-made doesn't rule out the possibility that it will be easy on the eyes, too, and a Strawberry Dome Cake is certainly that. Surrounded by cups of fresh and fragrant coffee, it's a pretty and welcome sight on a warm day.

You'd never believe, just by looking at it, how very easy this dessert is to put together. Baker's sponge, a package of instant pudding mix (we suggest vanilla, but you can use your own favorite flavor), fresh strawberries, some whipping cream. There's nothing to cook, no special mold required. Strawberry Dome Cake is chilled right in the mixing bowl it is made in, turned out straight onto the serving platter.

From then on, all you have to do is frost it with whipped cream, make fresh hot coffee to go with it—and eat it! Then see if you don't agree that this quickly made and decorative dessert is every bit as delicious as it looks.

Strawberry Dome Cake

- 1 pkg. baker's sponge cake (3 layers)
 - 1 pkg. instant vanilla pudding
 - 1 cup whipping cream
 - 1 qt. strawberries, sliced and sweetened
- Split sponge cake layers in half, to make 4 round layers. Prepare pudding and let set as directed on package. Press one of the cake layers into a medium sized mixing bowl. Spread with one-third of the pudding. Add second layer and another third of the pudding. Repeat with third layer and remaining pudding. Top with fourth layer. Chill several hours or overnight. Unmold on serving dish. Whip cream. Spread over surface of cake. Surround with sliced, sweetened berries. Garnish top with a few whole berries, if desired. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

ADVERTISE IN THE EQUITY

You wanted it

All over Quebec people are showing a preference for a milder, full-bodied ale — Milder than ordinary ale, but more full-bodied than lager.

O'Keefe's found it

The secret of a mild ale was discovered by O'Keefe's — Brewing with seedless hops eliminates all the unpleasant bitterness found in ordinary ale, leaving a tasty, full-flavoured ale that's pleasantly mild. Your increased purchases are proving that O'Keefe's have found the mild ale you want.

HAVE YOU TRIED O'Keefe's ALE?

Try O'Keefe's Ale — compare it with the ale you have been drinking — notice that O'Keefe's has no unpleasant bitterness. When you taste this good, mild ale, you will understand why so many of your acquaintances are switching to O'Keefe's!

Fort Coulonge

By Rev. C. Younger-Lewis

The Women's Missionary Society of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church met on Thursday evening June 9th at the home of Mrs. John Stitt, Mansfield. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs.

John Stitt, who was assisted by Mrs. Hugh Proudfoot, treasurer, who also acted as Secretary in the absence of Mrs. James Duke. The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn "Arm of the Lord awake", after which the President read the scriptures followed by prayer offered by Mrs. C. Younger-Lewis. The roll call was then answered and the president read an article on the work among the lepers in Africa and the work of the Church in India. Then the hymn, "Jesus shall reign" was sung and the meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary followed the routine business was carried out. Articles were sold and certain things planned for the autumn bazaar. The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and prayer. Supper was served by the hostess Mrs. John Stitt. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sandford Smith.

Mr. Eugene Hurtubise is visiting at the homes of his sister, Mrs. Joe Dubeau and his nephew, Larry Dubeau and will also visit relatives and friends in Otter Lake, Campbell's Bay, Calumet Island, Pembroke and Renfrew. He was born in Otter Lake 76 years ago, went west when a young man and spent 40 years in the North West Territories (Great Slave Lake Area). He is now retired and makes his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

MISQUOTED

—Central Press Canadian

Winnipeg citizens, according a quotation by Gisele MacKenzie in a magazine, can't take a cocktail before dinner without considering it's wicked. That's what the magazine says she said. But that's not what Gisele's manager says she said. His story is that she was misquoted in that statement and in half a dozen others in the magazine. One of Canada's most famous radio and television singers, Gisele is now in New York where she let her manager, former Canadian bandleader Bob Shuttleworth, deny the magazine story.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Vacation Tips

Vacation time can be fun time—if you make the proper preparations before you take your vacation trip.

If you are one of the 28,000,000 persons who will be taking a vacation trip during the next six months, it is likely that you will take the family car and will clock some 1,000 miles on it before you are through.

There will be sun-burned backs, upset stomachs, and car-sick kiddies and adults galore before the summer is over. You can insure a happy vacation by following a simple check list of MUSTS

1. Check your dentist. A toothache far from home can be catastrophic.

2. Check your doctor Bonamine, the motion sickness drug, will keep car or air sickness from shattering your vacation. Clinical tests have shown that a daily dose of the drug will provide 24-hour protection against motion sickness. This drug is now available in a convenient mint-flavored chewing-gum tablet.

3. Ask your doctor to prescribe a diarrhea remedy for you — just in case. Have him give you a thorough physical check-up.

4. Travel light. Carry the minimum, but enough to give you complete comfort and weather protection.

5. Name-tag all your luggage. Paste your name and address on each piece of baggage.

6. If you are going abroad, check health regulations of the countries you plan to visit.

7. Visit your neighborhood drug store and stock up on shaving cream, cosmetics, toiletries, razor blades, film, sun glasses, talcum powder, a fungicidal powder for athlete's foot, mineral oil or milk of magnesia, sunburn lotion, a poison ivy remedy and adhesive bandages.

DON'T WASTE HOG FEEDING TIME

You can't afford to waste time feeding hogs no matter what the market price is. If you are feeding straight grain to hogs YOU ARE WASTING TIME.

WHY! Because grains alone do not contain the proper levels of nutrients to get hogs off to market in a hurry. Tests prove that straight grain-fed hogs take up to two months longer to reach market weight than balanced fed hogs.

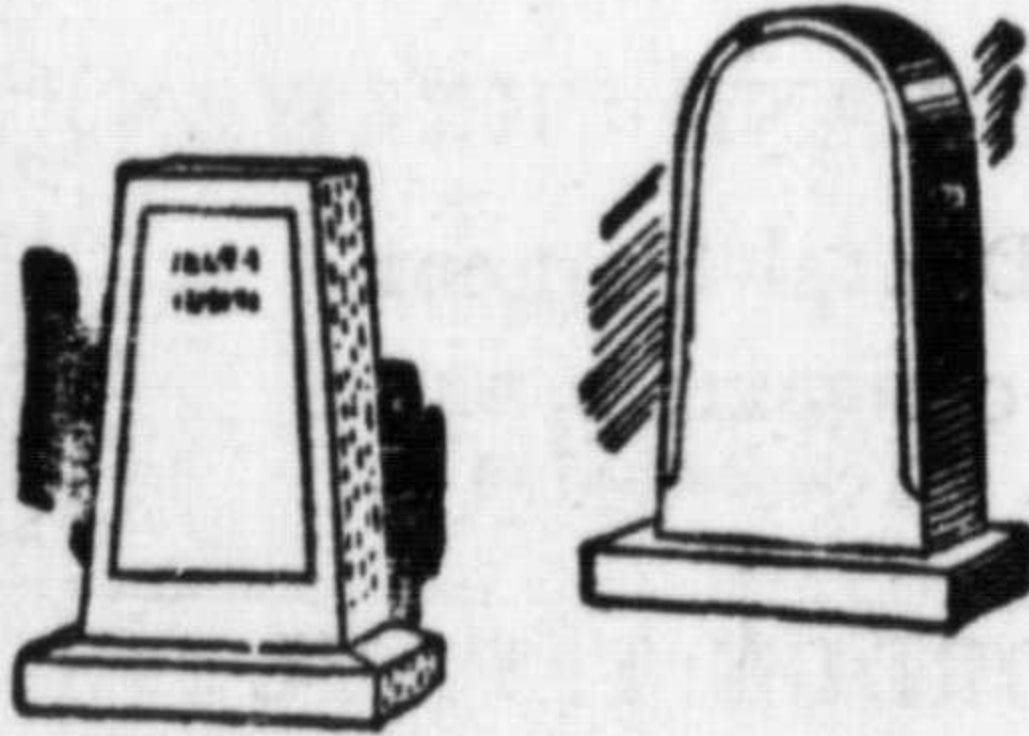

Get YOUR hogs off to market in record time THE SHUR-GAIN WAY.

Call us about SHUR-GAIN HOG FEEDS.

Vigorous Soul Searching Features 15th National Forum Convention

By Keith Russell

Vigorous soul-searching was the outstanding feature of the 15th Annual Convention of National Farm Radio Forum. Delegates from all provinces but Newfoundland are disturbed that Farm Forum membership numbers are not increasing as rapidly as they would wish. They feel that the situation would be a much brighter one if more farm organization and Department of Agriculture extension men would use Farm Forum as a medium for promoting their programs, by closer attention to trouble-shooting when farm forum groups show signs of weakening, and possibly by improved provincial office services.

was a good place where people can disagree without being disagreeable.

While the official photographer from the Quebec Agricultural Department took pictures of Dr. Corbett, this versatile speaker recited two French Canadian poems in admirable patois. Bill Munroe then led the singing of several songs, including his now famous "American" version of Allouette.

First entertainers on the program during the banquet were four girls from Campbell's Bay, Giselle LaSalle, Sylvia Poisson, Joan Carey and Mary McGahern, who, accompanied by Katherine Smith, sang two selections, one of them in English and French. These girls, in great demand locally for every sort of entertainment, filled all the Pontiacers with pride and charmed the guests from far and near.

Head table guests, piped in ceremoniously by kilted piper Doug Stevenson and introduced by Mrs. Gilbert Telford, were James Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre LeBrecque, Mr. and Mrs. Wyman MacKechnie, Dr. Hannam, Dr. David McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Proudfoot, Mr. Raymond Johnston Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Staples, Dr. Robert Kidd.

Mrs. Telford also introduced some of the banquet guests including the Agricultural Representatives from each Province and two leading Agriculture students at Shawville High School, Harold Davis and Allan Quaille.

Mr. LeBrecque's welcoming speech to the delegates will appear in its entirety next week in this paper. Glenn Smiley of Alberta replied to the welcome.
