IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

BY THE "ETNA," "BREMEN" AND "ARABIA."

The Great Eastern was being exhibited at Liverpool. She is advertised to leave Liverpool for New York on the 1st of July, and again on the 16th of August.

THE AMERICAN QUESTION.

In the House of Lords on the 13th of June Earl Carnarvon called attention to Gen. Butler's proclamation relative to the ladies of New Orleans. He condemned it as without precedent in the annals of war, and asked if the Government had information of its authenticity, and if it had protested against it. He also asked if there was any truth in the rumors of the mediation of France and England. He trusted the government was in a position to give the subject favorable consideration.

Earl Russell said the government believed the proclamation was authentic; but with respect to any action of the United States government in the way of approval or disapproval they had no information. Lord Lyons had made no representations on the subject, and he did not appear to have any official information upon which he could do so. For his own part he (Earl Russell) hoped the American government would, for its own sake, disavow it. The usages of war should not be aggravated by proclamations of this character. He thought that such a proclamation, addressed to a force which had just captured a hostile city, was likely to lead to great brutality. With respect to the rumors of mediation, he was glad the question had been put, for such rumors were likely to lead to mischief. There had been no communications of any kind on the subject between the two governments. Without, however, giving any opinion as to the propriety of offering mediation at some future day if circumstances should prove favorable, he must say that the present time appeared to him most inopportune. He conceived that in the embittered state of feeling in America it would but retard the time for such an offer being favorably made.

In the House of Commons Sir J. Walsh made inquiry as to the authenticity of General Butler's proclamation.

Mr. Gregory deprecated any fussy interference in the affairs of foreign States, and entirely disapproved of the homilies continually read to foreign Powers by her Majesty's government. This, however, was an exceptional case. A proclamation had been issued by a general of the United States repugnant to decency, and humanity, which was to be put in force against a people to whom we were connected by every tie of family, language and religion. It was the duty of the government to protest against such a proclamation and appeal to the moral sense of the world against an outrage so wicked and so useless.

Lord Palmerston thought that no man could read the proclamation without feelings indignation (Cheers.) It was a proclamation to which he did not scruple to attach the epithet of infamous. (Cheers.) An Englishman must blush to think such an act had been committed by a man belonging to the Anglo-Saxon race. If it had sprung from some barbarous people not within the pale of civilization one might have regretted it, but would not have been surprised. But that such an order should have been issued by a soldier—by a man who had raised himself to the rank of a general—was a subject not less of astonishment than pain. He could not bring himself to believe that the government of the United States would not, as soon as they had notice of the order, stamp it with their condemnation. Her Majesty's government received a despatch yesterday from Lord Lyons enclosing a copy of the proclamation of General Beauregard, in which allusion was made to the order of General Butler. There was no objection to lay the despatch on the table. With regard to the course that the government might think fit to take, that was a matter for discussion; but there was no man in England who would not show the feeling so well expressed by Sir James Walsh and Mr. Gregory.

The steamer Scotia's advices of two days' fighting at Richmond were eagerly canvassed on 'Change in Liverpool to-day.

The news has no apparent effect on American securities or cotton. The advance in the latter was caused by the refutation of the mediation rumors.

The city article of the London Times again speculates on the impending financial crisis in America.

It is estimated that the cotton throughout England on the 1st of June was 428,000 bales, against 1,645,000 at the same date last year.

FRENCH MEDIATION RECOMMENDED IN PARIS.

(From the Paris Constitutionnel (leading article), June 10.)

Battles are about to be fought in America, and perhaps have been fought already. Deluges of blood will be shed, and these terrible encounters do not promise a solution of the actual crisis either for America or for Europe. The victory will not be attended with any final result.

We are willing to grant to those who do not share our opinion anything they wish; we will grant to the federals superiority by land and by sea; we will accept proximate triumphs for the North. The question which the positive spirit of modern civilization is so fond of putting still remains. "And what then?"

What do we see on the side of the Confederates? They burn their produce, their provisions, their railways, their dockyards, their arsenals, and their ships; they leave their wives and children to fight in battle. When, in a proclamation of savage energy, Gen. Beauregard recommends the planters to destroy their crops. It is not simply a captain excited by the drunkenness of war—it is the general sentiment loudly expressed.

On the other hand, what are the federals doing? Military directors have seized upon all the telegraphic lines. The same censorship compels the newspapers to publish only what is favourable to the North and unfavourable to the South. And what is the result? The North speaks to the whole world by the electric wires, while information from the South comes tardily. In fact, the journals and correspondence from the South, by way of Havana, are sometimes five weeks behindhand. * * * * * *

The North proclaims martial law; it suppresses every independent voice; it threatens the suspected with death. In presence of such despotism the English press has not been able to remain silent. * * * * * * *

In the midst of such a struggle peace can only come from without, and the word ("Mediation") which we have placed at the head of this article can alone put an end to a war which has desolated America.

But whence is the mediation to come. As regards the basis, it may easily be found.

First of all, "mediation," in principle, must be accepted by both belligerents, it can only represent ideas of justice and of moderation, and consequently it cannot be addressed to those who would like to engraft a slave war on a civil war, or to those who consider the institution of slavery as an institution of Divine right.

This mediation, a point most singularly overlooked, corresponds not only to the most vital interests of commercial Europe, but also to the most sensible minds that represent the interests of America. Let us remember that President Lincoln has pronounced himself in the same sense as, before him, Generals Burnside and Butler did, against an excitement to a slave war, and that in his last proclamation he called to mind his special message, quoting the following resolution, adopted by large majorities by both houses of Congress:—

The United States must co-operate with that State which might adopt the gradual abolition of slavery, by giving to such State, in its judgment, such a compensation as is required for public or private inconveniences resulting from such a change of system.

It is thus that the North speaks, in the spirit of moderation and of justice. Will the South be less accessible to this spirit? We do not think so. A man of consideration in the South (Mr. Yancey), at a banquet given at Fishmongers Hall on the 9th of November last, in London, spoke as follows:—

When our adversary shall have become sufficiently calm to treat us as belligerents the aurora of peace will appear. When that hour has struck the Confederate government will not show itself inflexible, except upon one point—the care of our honor and our independence.

Beyond this—is the point of view of European interests. The capture of Richmond would not advance the affairs of America one whit more than the capture of New Orleans. The South bathed in blood, the North plunged into Bankruptcy and anarchy, commercial Europe seeing its sufferings increase—such are the consequences of the continuance of this war.

Mediation, by putting an end to a fratricidal struggle, and by consecrating a separation already accomplished, without allowing one of the belligerents to crush the other, would render the most eminent service to America as well as to Europe.

(From the London Shipping Gazette, June 11.)

We transferred to our columns yesterday an article on the American Struggle from the Constitutionnel.

We, like the Constitutionnel, recognize in the terms proposed by Mr. Yancey the "basis of a possible arrangement," and we rejoice at the prospect of mediation founded upon that basis; but we cannot conceal from ourselves that such a mediation, pre-supposes the surrender, on the part of the North, of that which it has contended for from the first, and for which the federals are apparently prepared to accept national bankruptcy, and even national extinction. But if there be indications—which we confess are not apparent—of a disposition on the part of the North to reconsider matters. If the article in the Constitutionnel reflects, as it most probably does, the views of the imperial government, and even foreshadows its policy, let the attempt at mediation be made, or renewed, at Washington. The state of affairs in America will be shortly brought before the attention of the British Parliament. We are not sure that the mediation of England would, under any existence circumstances, be efficient, or even politic. But any interference, with the object of bringing the war to a conclusion, will have the best wishes of the people of this country, at least, for its success.

Other Paris Correspondence speaks as if France was already assured of the co-operation of England in her schemes for intervention.

Paris papers state that the approaching visit of Count Presigny to London is exclusively political, and according to the Esprit Public, he will submit to the English Cabinet the private views of the Emperor relative to arrangements for joint mediation in America. The Paris Pays says the Patrie has gone too far in its statements relative to mediation. It gives to a mere wish formed by public opinion the character of a diplomatic fact.

The London Times, in an editorial on the ministers, says:—There will be no disposition to quarrel with the decision of the Cabinet, and the country will gladly leave the question in the hands of the government to choose such an opportunity and mode of action as they may deem proper.

The London Times admits that advice from England would not be acceptable; but it would rejoice to see the Emperor of France or the Czar of Russia press on the Americans the counsels which would be indignantly rejected if offered by England.

The London Times then speculates on the disastrous effects of either a Northern conquest or the reverse, and argues that, if the Southerners continue to protract the struggle, the time must come when the intervention of Europe will be demanded by the interests of humanity, and perhaps accepted willingly by the exhausted combatants.

In another editorial the London Times seeks to encourage the development of the new cotton fields.

The Times editorially approves of mediation, and says that Europe ought not to look calmly on and do nothing.

The London News argues strongly against interference in America, and contends that England has good reasons for not wishing to see carried out the intervention policy of Napoleon, which seeks to establish an empire, with slavery for its corner stone.

The London News says that from the moment European soldiers set foot in the States, the government of that republic will enter upon a new era. Its political isolation will be at an end, and it will be compelled to become a great military and naval Power, which is not for the interests of England nor for the peace of the world. The article also contends that England should not assist in any movement calculated to restore to the South that monopoly in cotton which has now proved so disastrous.

THE DISCUSSION IN THE SPANISH PARLIAMENT—LETTER FROM SENOR CALDERON COLLANTES.

The Spanish Cortes have had communicated to them documents relative to Mexico. Among them is a despatch from M. Mon, the Spanish Ambassador at Paris, in which he informs his government of the intention of Napoleon to proceed to Mexico to demand reparation for injuries, and to assist, if the wish be manifested by the people, in the establishment of a durable government. To this the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Madrid sent the following:

Madrid, Dec 9, 1862.

Excellency,—Her Majesty wishes to state to you that Gen. Prim has been informed that the Queen's government will see with satisfaction the establishment of a solid government in Mexico; but whether the government is constituted there under a monarchical form—the best assuredly—or any other, Spain will always desire to see the election the work of the free choice of the Mexicans. The same ample liberty should also be left them to choose the sovereign to govern them, if they prefer a monarchy. But her Majesty's government cannot conceal that it would consider ... prince of the Bourbon family, or intimately allied to it, should be preferred. Nevertheless, it will not do anything directly to arrive at that result, its principal desire being that Mexico should recover the peace and happiness which they enjoyed under the protection of the throne of our country.

Calderon Collantes.

THE OVERLAND ROUTE.

Considerable anxiety has been felt in Canada to ascertain the standing and resources of the British Columbia Overland Transit Company, which is now sending passengers from London through to the gold mines on the Cariboo for a fixed sum of £42 sterling. The establishment of such an enterprise on an efficient and permanent scale would be of lasting service to Canada. It is true that the company have chosen the St. Paul route by which to reach Fort Garry, but that would be merely a temporary arrangement. If the routes beyond Red River were organized and travel established, very short time would elapse before the line by Fort William and Rainy Lake would be opened. From members of the first band of travellers sent out, and now in Toronto, we have gathered some information as to the position of the company. A part is favourable and another unfavourable. It appears that the man who has undertaken the formation of the company is well known to fame, in London at least. It is no less a person than Colonel Sleigh (rank gained in South America) the first proprietor of the Daily Telegraph, and candidate for Finsbury a short time ago, but badly beaten. Mr. James Henson, the secretary of the company is a mere nobody, Colonel Sleigh transacting the business. The directors are respectable, but it is not known whether they take any interest in the management. The modus operandi of the company has been to advertise largely in the following style:—

British Columbia Overland Transit, via Canada.—The British Columbia Overland Transit Company will punctually despatch on the 31st of May, at 12 noon, from Glasgow, in the first class and powerful screw steamship United Kingdom, 1,200 tons burden, 200 horse power, James Clarke, commander, a party of first and second class passengers for Quebec, Canada, and over the Grand Trunk railway and continuous lines of railway to Chicago and St. Paul's and via the Red River settlements, in covered waggons to British Columbia. This is the speediest, safest and most economical route to the gold diggings. The land transit is through a lovely country, unequalled for its scenery and salubrity of climate More than one-half of the distance from Quebec is by railway. Through fares £42 from England to British Columbia; saloon berths £5 extra. Letters received from the agents in Canada announce that a first spring party of 52 in number had left for British Columbia by this route. Above 1,000 carts annually trade along this line. There are numerous posts, missions, and trading stations from the Red River settlements along the Saskatchewan now discovered to abound in vast gold deposits to the Rocky Mountains. The route is constantly travelled with perfect safety. Full particulars can be had at the offices 6 Copthall Court, Throgmorton street, E C; of the Messrs. Bennett & Wake, 17 Cornhill; of Angus D. Macdonald, Esq., Secretary North West Transit Company, Ontario Hall, Toronto, and D. Hime, Esq., agent Toronto, Canada West.

The above is filled with exaggerations, and the promises of accommodation on the way have not been fulfilled by the company in the case of the first party of travellers. They had only third-class passages across the Atlantic, and third-class tickets on the Grand Trunk. In regard to the last arrangement, however, the company have agreed to rectify their error by payment in cash. It might be supposed from the advertisement that the company had already sent a party west this spring. It is true that a party has gone from Canada across the plains, but they were independent adventurers, not in connection with any company. Other errors our readers will defect at a glance.

When the first party of emigrants started, the company had made no arrangements, except with the ocean steamship and Grand Trunk to convey the passengers, but they sent out an agent with them, who is believed to be a reliable man, and who has money with him to pay his way, and Mr. Hime, of this city, has lately been despatched to St. Paul to provide waggons and horses. We think it will be found that Red River carts are more fit for being floated across the rivers than Minnesota waggons, but that is by the way. The emigrants were promised that they would be sent through to Columbia in five weeks; if they make the journey in thrice the time, they may consider themselves fortunate. Though not pleased with the conduct of the company, the party now in Toronto are resolved to push on like brave men, and we cannot help thinking that they are in the right. If for forty-two pounds sterling they are started from Fort Garry with horses, oxen, carts and provisions sufficient to carry them across the plains the bargains is not a bad one on their part though not so good as the company's, advertisements promised. They are all young, vigorous men, well armed, and will make their way to the diggings. We have no doubt. Among other things, the company advertised to carry children under 12 at half price! Fortunately there are no babies in the first party.

As to the company they have doubtless shown duplicity, but those who have been the first sufferers, the party now in Toronto, appear to think that they sincerely intend to carry out their arrangements, and may float their scheme on the immense tide of capital now flowing into London. One thing they have established. It is proved that there are many persons in England who desire to cross the plains to British Columbia. If the facilities are afforded, money can doubtless be made by carrying these people. But stations, agents, horses, vehicles, and, in time, steamboats are needed to carry travellers in a space of time which would satisfy a man eager to reach El Dorado. The company seem to contemplate supplying these adjuncts, judging by the following advertisement from the Times:—

British Columbia Overland Postal and Steam Navigation Service via Canada. Wanted, two Chief Superintendents and eight Inspectors, (preference in selection will be given to retired cavalry officers) to take charge of the different Postal Stations about being established from Fort Garry, Red River settlement, to Fort Hope, British Columbia. The express service will consist of about 300 horses and a staff of express riders. Suitable quarters will be provided, and liberal salaries granted. Thoroughly qualified parties are also required to superintend the construction in British North America and to command a line of river and lake steamers, intended to be built this year for running next season upon the Red River, Lake Winnepeg, and the Saskatchewan River, the north branch of which is navigable for steamboats to the base of the Rocky Mountains, within 200 miles of the Fraser River, or centre of British Columbia. This line will complete the great over-land passenger, emigrant and traffic route to British Columbia, now organizing. No applications will be entertained unless from parties furnishing, in the first instance, first class testimonials and references, and who are enabled to qualify by becoming shareholders in the undertaking, which it is estimated will realize fully 30 per cent. per annum. Applications are to be made in writing, addressed to the Secretary of the British Columbia Overland Transit Company, 6 Copthall-Court, Throgmorton-street, E.C.

The company would evidently like the agents to pay their own way, and there is something flashy about the whole affair. Still there is a solid foundation for the scheme, and its promoters may render the North-West a very essential service by drawing attention to it, and possibly may be followed by men of more capital if of less imagination than Colonel Sleigh. On the other hand, it is to be feared that he may entirely break down and bring discredit on the enterprise as well as himself.

BOGLE'S
AMERICAN ELECTRIC HAIR DYE

Is as superior to all others as the Meridian Sun to a Candle. All imitate Bogle even to his style of advertisements, which for years have been headed

The Best Hair Dye in the World.

Now others without brains steal and copy this. Their Dyes are as miserable as their invention is contemptible. Avoid them all! Bogle's has been awarded Medals and Diplomas over them all, and to their confusion pronounced "The only Hair Dye fit to be used." No rainbow tints a la "Tittlebat Titmouse." No smut! no skin staining! no humbug, but reliable, safe and sure.

The distinctive advantages of this over all other Hair Dyes, are,—1st. It is entirely free from all ingredients which can injure the Hair. 2nd. It does not stain the skin. 3rd. It is easier of application, as the Hair can be dyed by it in any weather, whether cloudy, rain, or sunshine. 4th. It acts like magic and is instantaneous in its effect, as the Hair can be washed with Soap and Water almost immediately after application, when it assumes a beautiful silky lustre, and has the most natural and life-like appearance. 5th. It is the most permanent and natural Hair Dye ever invented, and neither washing, nor the effects of the Sun or weather destroys its color.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS—Unnecessary Torture—Palpitation of the Heart.—The bleeding, blistering, salivating and torturing method of the modern treatment of disease tends to the destruction rather than the preservation of human life. Physicians have a certain routine prescribed for their modus operandi from which there is no departure. The laws of the Medes and Persians were not more immutable than the dicta of this Draconian Code that confines men to peculiar dogmas on penalty of excision. Untrammelled by particular rules, Holloway's system on the contrary is based on the simple laws of nature. Palpitation is often the effect of indigestion, disorders of the stomach or nervous affections. By their action on the stomach and nerves the Pills remove the cause and effect a radical cure. 176 r DWS

Health and Pure Blood are Inseperable.—Recollect that all sickness arises from impurity of the blood, and that Judson's Mountain Herb Pills will as surely find out and cleanse these impurities from the system, that disease cannot exist. So simple and innocent are the herbs and plants that compose them, that it is not necessary to have them sugar coated in order that the stomach can bear them. In most cases Pills are sugar coated because the materials of which they are composed are so griping and malignant, that otherwise a delicate stomach could not bear them. These Pills deal with disease as it is, and will not only cure by removing the cause, but will build up and restore the broken constitution. There are many who if they are so trifled with their constitutions that they think medicine cannot help them; but such despair, incredulity and scepticism is overthrown by a mass of testimony which is truly irresistible. At first the virtues ascribed to the Mountain Herb Pills were deemed fabulous. The public had been so often deceived that they could not believe the simple truths advanced by their discoverer. Yet facts undeniable, attested by witnesses of the highest character and respectability, have proved, and are proving each day, the virtues of the "mighty healer." They mark by their miraculous efficacy and power a new era in medicine.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers.

THE NEWS FROM EUROPE.—We have a repetition by the mails received yesterday, for the twentieth time, of the unauthorized rumors of European intervention in the Americans war, usually set afloat on the continent, and of the authoritative contradiction of the rumors in England. One would imagine that by this time these stories, so properly described by Earl Russel as calculated to produce mischief, would have ceased to be useful either for political or stockjobbing purposes. There was a time when it was possible that the European Governments would interfere to break a blockade, which, according to the somewhat elastic code of international law, might have easily been shown, at any rate by any one who desired to do so, to be sufficiently inefficient to warrant the disregard of it. But that time had gone by after the taking of New Orleans, and the complete blockade, which has led to the seizure of so many British vessels. There may still be a period when it will be found proper, according to international usage, to recognize the Southern States, though in the present maimed condition of that power, without a single seaport whence she can have access to the outside world that is not very probable, and besides would of itself effect nothing. But it is plain that mediation has never so far been possible, because mediation supposes a desire for peace on the part of the combatants, and that is as distant as ever. The gravity with which the Constitutionnel, in the article which we copy, recommends mediation to a people who cannot bring it about, while the principal parties to the conflict are determined to fight out their quarrel, is no proof of the wisdom of which gravity should be the exponent. The basis of the proposed accommodation is as little likely to be accepted by one side as by the other. For on the one hand it indicates that the separation of the late Union must be accepted, and on the other that slavery must be abolished by the South. No one who knows anything of this continent can suppose that it is worth any ones while to discuss such terms as these in Paris. The belligerents will be left to make their own peace in their own way till one of them asks for diplomatic help.

THE HAMILTON SPECTATOR ON THE MINISTRY.—The Hamilton Spectator thinks that the present Ministry must not construe the fact of its members having been all elected without Opposition into a general approval on the part of the people. Rather it says it should be thankful for the indulgence shown them. If it is not general approval it is so good an imitation as to took wonderfully like the real article, and we know very well how to interpret the indulgence of people who are powerless for mischief. But the Spectator adds something which excites more ample remarks:—

"It is but right that the Clear Grit journals should laud their political masters, but they ought to be more sparing in their abuse of the late Government, for it can do no good to an untried Administration. When they prate about "jobbery and corruption," and remind their readers that Mr. Foote of the Quebec Chronicle was little better than a robber, they should not omit to add that the Chronicle is the leading organ of the present Administration! It sounds badly for certain journals to abuse Mr. Foote for alleged jobbery, when he is known to be the principal organist of the Government they so highly applaud. There must be something wrong somewhere; at any rate there is a want of discretion on the part of the organs when it is evident that they are virtually condemning their own masters in coming foul of Mr. Foote and the Chronicle."

It is of course, not the fault of the present Administration if the last one surrounded itself by means of bribes with unprincipled wretches, who ill not even fight for the pay they have received, but at once follow their instidctive love of plunder over to that side which has become the strongest. Nothing could prove more conclusively the utter corruption by which the late Ministerial party was kept together than the manner in which the Quebec Chronicle and the Toronto Leader are offering themselves for fresh prostitution. Of course those who insisted upon being most frequently bought are the first to try to sell themselves again; but the fact is, that the whole of the late Ministerial party, except the Ministry, were very much of the same metal, and press and people are alike trying to get over, some with a little modesty, others in a more open manner. Whenever there is another general election this will be seen to be the case. Here and there a staunch tory constituency may return a traditional high conservative; but not a coalition man will go back again. It is another thing, however, for the Ministry to accept these offers of service, which they can so well do without, and we hardly suppose that they are so jolly green as to carry about all the filth of their predecessors by way of making their own presence more fragrant.

PERTH ELECTION.—The Ministerial candidate, Mr. Macfarlane, had an overwhelming show of hands against Mr. Daley, who will find the difference between fighting against popular sentiment, with the aid of Government influences, and fighting against it as plain Thomas Daley.

The Steamship St. Andrew passed Cape Race at 1 o'clock P.M., yesterday, with 254 passengers. All well.

The Steamship Jura was detained 60 hours by a fog off Cape Race. She reports having met the steamship North American off Cape Ray at 4 P.M. on Monday, and advices the arrival at Glasgow of the Glencairn on the 8th inst, the Jona on the 13th inst., and the S S Damascus on the 9th. The ship Toronto from Glasgow, was passed off Derry on the 10th inst.

THE HIGHLAND COMPANY.—The Gold and Silver medals competed for by the Highland Company P.W.R.R., at Caughnawaga, on Tuesday, were carried off by Mr. Daniel Rose, printer.

TROOPING COLOURS.—We understand that the regiments in garrison, troop colors in turn, on the Champ de Mars, every Tuesday and Friday at half-past 10 o'clock in the morning.

BENEFIT OF MRS. BARROW.—We call for a full house this evening, to do honor to one of the best actresses who ever visited this city—one whose life-like acting has imparted sincere pleasure during the few evenings she has been with us. A fine bill is offered—the comedy of "The Jealous Wife," and "A Roland for an Oliver;" the entire company appearing. The whole is under the patronage of Lord Frederick Paulet. The fine Band of the 16th Regiment plays during the evening. The favorite danseuse, Miss Ada Laurent, will also appear in a new dance. As this is the last opportunity but one our play-goers will have of seeing and hearing Mrs. Barrow, we hope they will give her a substantial proof of their appreciation of her talents.

THE VOLUNTEERS AND THE VISIT OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.—We understand that at a meeting of the Commanding Officers of the various Volunteer Corps of this City, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided that there would be no review of the Force during the stay of His Excellency the Governor General in Montreal, on account of several of the Battalions being yet without their uniform. His Excellency will reach Montreal about 6 P. M., and will be received by a guard taken from the Prince of Wales' Regiment. There is we believe, to be a review of the whole Volunteer Force after a few weeks, and the Governor General is expected to be present.

RESISTING THE POLICE.—On Wednesday Acting Sergeant Arcand of the City Police, accompanied by Sub-Constable Manseau, went up to the brick yard at the upper end of Colborne Avenue, to arrest one of the men, but upon making their appearance they were surrounded by twenty or twenty-five of the workmen, who assaulted them and rescued the prisoner.

FIRE.—At half-past two o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in a small shed on the Market wharf, the property of the Harbour Commissioners, and used as a blacksmith's shop. The flames were extinguished in a few minutes.

ACCIDENT AT THE CANAL.—On Wednesday afternoon, as Mr. Jackson was driving along the bank of the Canal, close to the Cote St. Paul Locks, his horse took fright and jumped into the water, carrying the wagon and Mr. Jackson along with him. Mr. Jackson, and a lady who was with with him, were rescued by some gentlemen who happened to be present, but the horse was lost.

THE RACE AT THE VICTORIA GARDENS.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the races at the above place which come off to-morrow.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY.—BURGLARY.—Maxime Monta was brought before the Judge of the Sessions of the Peace, by the Detectives, for breaking into Mr. Peacocks' house, Tyrconnel Place, Dorchester Street, on the night of the 24th, and stealing some money, clothing, papers, keys, &c. The particulars of the case have already been stated. The prisoner pleaded not guilty, and was committed for trial at the next Court of Queens Bench.

ASSAULT.—James Conway, William McGready, and Robert Duff, was brought up by the Water Police, for assaulting Pleasant Hubbard. The prisoners were liberated on bail, to appear for trial on Saturday.

CRIMINAL ASSAULT.—The two boys, Nicholas St. Denis and Eusebe Lalumier, who were arrested on Tuesday for committing a criminal assault on a little girl named Appoline Bagg, were brought up for examination. They pleaded not guilty, and will be tried on Saturday.

ASSAULT ON A SEAMAN.—Captain James Wilson, of the Bark "Yarmouth," who was before convicted of committing an assault on one of the seamen, Jenkin Jones, on the 10th May, was prosecuted for another assault committed on the 15th May. He pleaded guilty and judgment will be given on Friday morning.

A number of cases of assault and battery were postponed.

Forty prisoners were brought before the RECORDER, the majority for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

HOUSE OF ILL-FAME.—Celina Fagnant alias Mrs. Ferris, was fined $10 for keeping a disorderly house in Lagauchetiere Street.—Five girls arrested in the same house was each fined $5.

ASSAULT ON A SOLDIER.—About one o'clock yesterday morning as one Charles Swain, of the Grenadier Guards, was going along the street, he met a party of disorderly characters, and entering into conversation with them, he was asked for some money to make up the price of a "bottle." He generously gave them all he had, four half-pence, and upon that, without any apparent provocation, one of the men, named William Walsh, struck him a violent blow on the chin with a stone, inflicting a frightful wound. The prisoner was fined $20, and in default committed to gaol for two months.

We quote from Kenneth Dowie & Cos. Circular:—

Liverpool, Wednesday, June 11th 1862.

The weather during the past week has been changeable, the temperature rather cold at night, and warm in day time—which has retarded the earing and blooming period of the wheat crop.

The country Corn markets of the Kingdom have had but small supplies of Farmer's Wheat, and in some few instances are quoted slightly dearer.

At our Corn market yesterday, there was a full average attendance of country millers and dealers. Wheat met a fair consumptive demand, generally at the full rates of that day week, but in some cases at an advance of 1d per cental. Indian Corn was in fair demand at the full rates of previous Tuesday. Flour very dull, and nominally the same.

The French Corn markets are quoted dull and declining.

BUTTER—In moderate request, and as a good deal is offering, the market is again lower.

ASHES—No change; sales of the week are about 200 brls.

From D. C. Barker & Co's Produce Circular for America:—

The weather since our last has been stormy and wet, with a low temperature.

The Trade of the week has been stronger, and full prices have been obtained "ex ship" for fine parcels of Canada Club Wheat, and for barrel flour.

FLOUR—Extra Canadian and Ohio ⅌ brl 27s @28s; Super do do 25s 6d@26s 6d; States, extra do 24s 6d@25s; Sour, Heated and Inferior do 20s @23s 6d.

Yesterday's Market was well attended, and a moderate business was done, at full rates for wheat, and 3d per brl flour over last week's prices.

PEAS—Flat, at 3d to 6d per boll reduction.
OATS—Bring 6d more money.
OATMEAL—A dull sale.

Review of the Montreal Money Market.

We have witnessed during the week some extraordinary mutations in the prices of Gold and English Exchange in New York, the tendency has been steadily upwards, till at last Exchange touched 121 and the price of Gold was 10 per cent premium, these extreme rates were just before the departure of Wednesday's Cunard steamer. The cause for this rise we explained a short time ago, and although temporally the price both of Exchange and Gold has receded, the same cause still remains. There is no doubt but what a large proportion of the American securities held in England will be thrown on the New York Market, which will have to be paid for in Gold, and in spite of all exports of breadstuff and comparative decline of imports, this will leave the cash balance heavily against the States. In fact as the London Times remarks, now is the time to realize American securities, since from an inflation of capital they still hold a high value in the market.

There is no change in the value of money here. The Banks are ready to discount all the good paper offered.

Sterling Exchange is irregular. The quotation being 10 @ 10½. 60-day Bank bills are offered on the street, to a limited extent, at 10½ per cent, but do not meet with a very ready sale, importing merchants finding it cheaper to buy of their own bankers. First-class commercial bills continue scarce, and sell readily at 9½ @ 9¾ per cent for 60 and 90 days. The Banks buy Exchange less favorably known, at 9 @ 9½ per cent.

The fluctuations in the price of Gold and Sterling Exchange in the New York Market have led to a corresponding movement here. Bank drafts on New York have been sold during the week at every conceivable rate of discount between 6 and 9 per cent, the latter being a panic rate paid only by those who were determined to realize a tout prix. Most of our city Banks draw at 6½ per cent discount. Undoubted Drafts could to-day be bought on the street at a discount of 7 @ 7½ per cent. Late in the afternoon the news from New York was reported to be less favourable, and there was some anxiety evinced to sell a shade cheaper.

Bank Stocks have hardly maintained their former value. Sales are reported of the Bank of Montreal at 117½ per cent; City, 102; People's, 112½; Ontario, 105; and Molsons, 114.

Review of the Montreal Grocery Market.

The past week has been one of considerable activity, owing to the number of trade sales which have attracted buyers from all parts, especially from the Western section of the province. Taken altogether, the sales have not been satisfactory, for although a large amount of goods have been disposed of, still considering the alterations in the tariff, prices have by no means kept pace with the increase of duties. The long drought, the low prices for produce, and the scarcity of money in the agricultural districts, induces an extra amount of caution amongst the country storekeepers, and they have purchased but sparingly.

SUGARS.—At the public sales only a comparatively small quantity was sold. At the first sale only two hogsheads bright Porto Rico was sold at $7.80c, rest withdrawn. At subsequent ones the prices ranged from $7.30 @ $8, for fair to bright Porto Rico. Cubas brought $7.15 @ $8, for dark to bright. Sellers were unwilling to submit to these prices, but buyers would not advance. Nothing of importance has been done privately. The news from New York has had a depressing influence on this market. We have no change to quote in refined sugars; the demand is tolerably brisk. Some English dry crushed brought at auction 11½c, the same price as it is held at by Messrs. Redpath.

TEAS.—The cargo of the Maria was offered, and about 3,500 out of 4,500 assorted packages were placed. Good teas sold at comparatively low prices, but the assortment was so large that it is almost impossible to give quotations. Uncolored Japan ranged from 56 @ 65c. These teas are gradually working more into favor. Congou from 35 @ 39c; Gunpowder 68 @ 89c; Young Hyson from 42c for common to 89c for finer qualities. A small amount was sold at the other sales, but prices realized were not such, especially considering the state of the New York markets, as to induce holders to press sales.

MOLASSES.—But little business has been done, and prices are not quite so stiff. Stocks are but light. At auction a very bright sample only brought 31c for Muscovado; the prices may be quoted at 32 @ 32c, at private sale. New York Syrup brought 33½c, at which it was withdrawn. We quote no change in our local manufactured.

COFFEE—Both publicly and by private sale there has been a good demand. Laguayra was sold at auction at 21½@22c, Rio at 18c, Java 26@26½c. Higher prices are demanded by private sale; the stock is not heavy TOBACCO—There have been large sales of local manufacture at prices which were not allowed to transpire, but which, we are informed, were full rates. Of American we have only retail sales to notice, and no change in prices. Nearly all offered at auction was withdrawn, prices not suiting sellers. We refer to another part for details of prices.

RICE—Sales have been made at fully last week's rates. At auction Arracan sol l for 18s 6d@19s 3d. There is no Patna in the market.

LIQUORS—A considerable amount of Brandies of different brands has been offered, but prices have ruled so low that but a small quantity has been disposed of—Hennessy's Pale selling at 12s 9d per gal. for quarter casks, and $8⅝ per case; Gin brought 4s 2d@4s 3d per gal., Green Cases 12s 9d@13s; Scotch Whiskey $3⅜ @$3½ per case; London Porter 9s 9d@10s for quarts; Allsop's Pale Ale 9s 11d@10s 6d for do. The demand for Wines has been limited, and prices have ruled low.

MONTREAL HIGHWINES is still held at 75c. It is impossible to give any quotation for Western Canada, as we have heard of no recent transactions.

CHEMICALS—The market for Soda Ash and Crystals remains unchanged. There is but little demand for either articles.

COAL.—The price of English Coal remains the same as last week, but that of American has an upward tendency owing to the sudden rise in New York, caused by the flooding of the great Pensylvanian coal fields. The stock there is light and prices range at $6 so that it could not possibly be laid down here for sale at present rates, prices are for Lehigh $7@$7,50.

SALT—There have been considerable transactions, the demand being chiefly for shipment to St. Louis; 55c ⅌ bag for Liverpool course, was paid but that price has since been refused.

Gen. McClellan's Headquarters, June 24.

From the movements of the enemy last night, and from information received from a contraband, a general engagement was looked for this morning. The troops were all under arms at daylight, and everything in readiness; but after a slight demonstration by the rebels, and finding themselves promptly met at every point, they retreated to their old position.

A terrible storm visited this section last night. The wind blew a hurricane, levelling tents and trees in all directions.

The Richmond papers complain of the large price paid for substitutes in the rebel army, many of whom immediately desert. They mention instances where as high as $15 and $20 have been paid.

The action of Col. Rufus Ingalls at White House, in causing the arrest of some 50 of the most prominent citizens remaining in rear of our army, is having a most salutary influence on those who remain.

Ten arrests were made yesterday morning in the neighbourhood of New Kent Court House and Charles city, and the arrested parties sent to Fortress Monroe

A ride at sunrise this morning along the entire front of the lines found every thing ready for any emergency that might arise. There has been more loss in skirmishing within the past 24 hours than at any other time since the battles of Fair Oaks.

The Richmond papers to-day contain nothing of special interest except the arrival of General Price. No mention is made of the whereabouts of Beauregard's army.

Redoubt No. 3, at 1.30 P. M.

Hon. E M. Stanton, Secy. of War: We have advanced our pickets on the left considerably to-day, under sharp resistance. Our men have behaved very handsomely. Some firing still continues.

Signed, GEO. B. McLELLAN.

3 P. M.—Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secy. of War: The enemy are making desperate resistance to the advance of our picket lines. Kearney's and one-half of Hooker's force are everywhere I want them. I have this moment reinforced Hooker's Right with a brigade, and a couple of guns, and hope in a few minutes to finish the work intended for to-day. Our men are behaving splendidly. The enemy are behaving well also, and thus far all goes well, and we hold every foot we have gained. If we succeed in what we have undertaken, it will be an important advantage gained. Loss not large thus far. The fighting up to this time has been done by Hooker's Division, which has behaved as usual, that is most handsomely. On our right, Porter has silenced the enemy's batteries in his front.

Signed, G. B. McLELLAN.
Redout No. 3, 5 p m.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton:—The affair is over and we have gained our point fully and with but little loss. Notwithstanding the strong position our men have done all that could be desired. The affair was partially decided by two guns that Capt. DeErnseny brought gallantly into action, under very difficult circumstances. The enemy was driven from his camp in front of this, and all is now quiet.

(Signed,) G. B. McCLELLAN.

New York, June 25.

President Lincoln was accompanied as far as this city by Gen. Scott. In response to loud cheers at Jersey city as the train was leaving, the President said a few words to the effect that his visit to West Point was not to make or unmake any Generals.

Boston, June 25.

The Arabia arrived at 3.40, p.m.

May 25th.—The S S. Fulton sails for New Orleans to-morrow. The S.S. Coatycoaticos are rived from New Orleans this afternoon, her dates are to the 18th inst. The weather was delightful, with refreshing showers. Rebel officers and soldiers were allowed to return to their old condition by taking the oath. 700 hhds. of sugar sold on the 16th and 17th insts.

San Francisco, 9th June.

Gen. Carlton's brigade has entered Arizona; the advance guard, under Col. West, reached Tucson about the 17th ult., the Rebels having previously abandoned the place. The stars and stripes were again hoisted over the ruins of Fort Breckinridge.

Memphis, June 23.

The navigation of White River is now open to Gen. Curtis's army.

Norfolk, June 24

Gen Viele held a conference with he city officers here yesterday, and finding that they would not take the oath of allegiance, ordered that no election for municipal officers be held as arranged for. This morning he issued a proclamation declaring the city under martial law, and returning the old city officers whose terms have expired. Viele has found it necessary to adopt this course in consequence of numerous petty disturbances between the Union men and Secessionists.

New York, June 25.

Letters to Philadelphia papers from McClellan's army state that our first line, three miles long, is completed, and it is also believed that the rebels cannot muster 60,000 men on whom they can rely to make a charge on us or stand one from us.

New Orleans advices state that the four men [illegible] were executed on the [illegible].

Com. Porter's Mortar fleet had gone to Vicksburg.

Com. Farragut was before Vicksburg, a portion of his fleet had routed the enemy from Grand Gulf; a man named W. H. Weeks was killed on the Itax, and four wounded.

The Bank of America at N. O. was paying specie.

General Shepley had vetoed several acts of the Common Council, which were calculated to injure the rising Union feeling in the city.

Harper's Ferry, June 25th.

The greater part of the force here is throwing up earthworks on Bolivar Heights.

It was rumored yesterday that the rebel Gen. Gwell was advancing on New Creek with 4,000 men. Gen. Kelly is fully able to receive Ewell. Jackson is by this time checked by Fremont and Bank's.

Washington, June 25th.

The President arrived here at ten minutes to seven this evening. On the return from his visit to West Point and New York. The trip from New York was the quickest on record.

Gen. McClellan's Headquarters, June 25th, P.M.

Gen. Hooker at 9 this a m., advanced his division with a view of occupying a new position. The result was that his troops met with a most determined resistance from the enemy which lasted until 4 o'clock p.m., but the Rebels were forced to give way during the day. Everything indicated a general engagement, but the enemy backed out. The troops all fought as gallantly as ever, loss on our side will be about 200 killed and wounded. Col. Morrison volunteer, aid to Gen. Palmer was wounded in the hand. Capt. Rafferty of the 2nd Excelsior regiment was wounded in the leg. Capt. Wild of the 1st Massachusetts regiment wounded in the hand. Capt. Carruthers wounded in the face. Our killed is small, most of the men being wounded. Loss of the enemy not known, but believed to equal ours. The camp of the Rebels in front of Hooker was captured and is now occupied by our troops. The ground fought for was a swamp with thick underbrush, beyond which is an open country. Two Napoleon 12 pounders succeeded in getting through the swamp during p. m., and did excellent service. An effort of the enemy to capture them, resulted in their being driven back with severe loss. The result of to-day is highly important to the health of the army as but little more ground is to be gained to place our troops beyond the swamp. McClellan was present during the whole day superintending all movements,

New York, June 26.

The Tribune's correspondence, dated Washington, 25th, says:—Major-General Pope spent some time on the floor of the House to-day, and many members were introduced, to whom he expressed, very freely, his views concerning the conduct of the war. He considers the war in the West as virtually at an end, the only thing yet to be done being to possess and hold the immense breadth of country already really conquered. In answer to a question concerning the 10,000 prisoners taken by him, according to Gen. Halleck, he says he took 3000 men, they could hardly be called soldiers, and 20,000 stand of arms. Most of the captives were from Kentucky and Tennessee. Beauregard's rear guard was driving South. Having no means to feed them, and believing that there was little temptation for them to join the rebel rout, he released them on parole.

A letter from Mr. Raymond to the Times says McClellan is bringing up from Yorktown sundry siege guns, some of which have already arrived. The rebels show no disposition to assume the offensive, but are certainly preparing to resist an attack.
