GENERAL BOOTH STATES HE WILL NOT RESIGN Kellogg Treaty To Outlaw War Ratified By United States

Salvation Army Leader Refuses To Quit Office

Statement Given Out to Press by General Bramwell Booth Understood to Be Gist of His Reply to High Council—Daily Sketch Said Today that General's Statement Was Regarded by Members of Reform Element as Not Written or Dictated by Leader Himself.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 16.—General Bramwell Booth, in a statement given to newspapers for publication, announces that he will not resign as commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army.

This statement was understood to be the gist of his reply to the High Council of the army and the Daily Herald said it had been rejected by a show of hands. The Council then proceeded immediately to a discussion of his fitness to govern the Army.

Seven members of the High Council who presented the proposal that he retire to the General, reported that they were convinced that he was too feeble to continue effective performance of his duties.

The Daily Sketch said today that the General's statement was regarded by members of the reform element in the High Council as not written or dictated by the General himself. Officials of the reform party were quoted as saying that it was obviously impossible to reconcile the General's public statement with the report of the deputation which had visited him. They were quoted as adding:

"The language used is not that which we have been accustomed to hear from the General. It savors of bitterness and the General was never bitter, but others of his family perhaps may be."

SIX MEMBERS OF FAMILY LOST LIVES IN NEW YORK

Fire in Five-Storey Tenement on East Side Took Toll in Lives—Five Others Injured—Cause of Fire Not Known.

(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Six members of one family lost their lives in a fire that swept a five storey tenement in East 112 street last night, a few hours after they had moved into the house.

Five other persons, one of them a fireman, suffered from smoke and burns. One hundred families were driven to the street from the burning building and two adjoining buildings.

Three of the dead were identified as Mrs. Justina Martinez, forty-five years old, and two young grandchildren. The three other bodies were not identified, but the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dionisio Esposito, and another child were missing.

The cause of the fire had not been determined.

BILL CALLS FOR "AMERICAN" LANGUAGE

(Associated Press Despatch) BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 16.—North Dakota would join Illinois in having a law specially designating the language as "American" rather than "English" as a bill now before the legislature is enacted.

"American language" has been the official language of Illinois for several years.

OVER THREE HUNDRED LOST LIVES TODAY IN SINKING OF A CHINESE STEAMER

(Associated Press Despatch) HONG KONG, January 16.—More than three hundred lives apparently were lost today in the sinking of the Chinese steamer Hsinwah. The vessel sank a few minutes after striking a rock off Waglan.

Only twenty-three survivors were known to have been picked up. One survivor said that the vessel carried three hundred Chinese passengers and the crew down with her.

The survivors said the vessel, which is owned by the China Merchants Navigation Company, left Swatow yesterday at noon and encountered heavy seas and a strong wind. At 3.40 a.m. today the ship struck a rock.

The vessel filled rapidly with water. It was believed that only one lifeboat was launched. In this were a boatswain, fifteen members of the crew and four passengers.

The lifeboat tossed about on the heavy seas for about an hour and was sighted by a junk just as the Hsinwah keeled over and sank. The junk brought the twenty survivors to Hong Kong.

U.S. Senate Accepts Kellogg Peace Pact-- Naval Bill Studied

Senator Blaine, of Wisconsin, Progressive Republican, Was Only One to Oppose Treaty to Outlaw War—Nine Senators Were Absent When Roll Was Called—Secretary Kellogg and President Coolidge Pleas Over Result.

(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The Kellogg-Briand anti-war treaty was ratified by the United States late yesterday by a vote of 85 to 1. Senator Blaine, of Wisconsin, a Progressive Republican, was the lone man voting against approval. Nine Senators were absent when the roll was called. As all of these except one were announced in favor of the treaty and as the ninth also favors it, it may be said that ratification was accomplished by a vote of 94 to 1.

There are now only ninety-five members of the Senate, the seat of Mr. Vare, of Pennsylvania, not having been filled. The first against ratification was by 25 to 35 Senators, who insisted upon an implied reservation to protect the Monroe Doctrine, the American right of self-defence and to deny the obligation to punish a treaty violator was swept away when Senator Borah, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, permitted a qualifying clause to be written into the committee report on the pact.

This clause stated that the Foreign Relations Committee understood the report to embody the principles insisted upon by the irremovable, but denied that the report could be considered as a reservation. The clause read: "This report is made solely for the purpose of putting upon record what your committee understands to be a true interpretation of the treaty and not in any sense for the purpose or with the design of modifying or changing the treaty in any way or effectuating a reservation, or reservations, to the same."

Twenty-Five Signers.
The twenty-five signers of the pact were: Senators Borah, Clegg, Cramer, E. A. Tamm, Hiram Bingham, and Charles McNary, and Representatives Clegg, Hiram Bingham, and Charles McNary.

The State Department notified its representatives abroad of the Senate's action and instructed them to convey the information to the foreign governments. Secretary of State Kellogg said: "I am very much

King Today Definitely Stronger

Definitely Stated at Buckingham Palace that His Majesty's Slow Progress Is Being Maintained—Has Been Taking More Food During Past Week.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 16.—It was officially stated at Buckingham Palace today that King George's slow progress was being maintained.

It is understood from an authoritative source that the King is now definitely stronger than at any time since the beginning of his illness. The increase in strength, however, has been very gradual, and cannot be measured from day to day, but, as compared with a fortnight ago, His Majesty is considerably strengthened.

The difficulty of persuading the King to take nourishment has been largely overcome, and for the past week he has been taking more food. This has been reflected in his increased strength with the result, consequently, that considerable confidence now exists at Buckingham Palace.

AFGHANS DO NOT FAVOR BROTHER OF AMANULLAH

Abdication of King Amanullah Has Not Ended Revolt—Life of Fleeing Monarch Still in Danger.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 16.—The Mail says today it learns from authoritative circles in London that the abdication of King Amanullah has in no wise ended the revolt in Afghanistan.

The rebels are still fighting the troops at the gates of Kabul, and do not approve of Inayatullah any more than they did of his younger brother.

The Mail's Kabul correspondent has arrived in Lahore, India, and telegraphs that the life of Amanullah was in danger many times during recent weeks from mutinous troops, religious fanatics and court conspirators. Although Amanullah believes his most loyal supporters are in Kandahar, where he has taken refuge, the people have been incited against him and there is still fear for the safety of the ruler and his queen. The British minister, Sir Francis Humphreys, has been such a close friend of Amanullah that in India it is believed he and his wife are in some peril.

General Smuts Roundly Condemned Nationalists For Trying To Make Native Question A Vital Issue

Flatly Denied Any Intention on Part of South African Party to Make Political Capital Out of Native Bills, as Had Been Charged by Premier Hertzog.

(Canadian Press Despatch) APTOWN, South Africa, Jan. 16.—In a stirring speech at Bethal, Transvaal, yesterday, the Opposition leader, General Jan C. Smuts, roundly condemned the Government party, the Nationalists, for attempting to make the native question the vital issue in the forthcoming general election.

General Smuts was attacking the address of Premier Hertzog on January 4, at Pretoria, when the latter charged the Opposition leader with throwing the native question into the political arena and said the Nationalists were "not disheartened by failure to secure co-operation from the South African party" on the question. Whereas the Opposition is in favor of extending the existing native councils and local self-government, the Government's native bills, now under discussion, aim at providing special parliamentary representation for the natives, local native councils and segregation on land.

HEARST RUMORS RE NEWSPRINT NOT CONFIRMED

Rumor that Canadian Manufacturers Had Urged Hearst to Waive Contract With International Paper Co. at Reported Price of $50 a Ton Not Confirmed.

(Canadian Press Despatch) TORONTO, Jan. 16.—A special despatch to the Mail and Empire from New York states:

A report in financial circles that Canadian newspaper manufacturers at a recent meeting with William Randolph Hearst, urged the publisher to waive his contract with the International Paper Company at a reported price of $50 a ton, could not be confirmed here.

"However, local bankers who have floated securities for both United States and Canadian newspaper companies, declare it is their understanding that International has informed Canadian paper manufacturers that they can either share International's contract with Hearst at the reported price or remain idle, or practically so.

"The $50 price is said to be ruinous for the smaller companies, but International is understood to be making a little more than $2 per ton on the Hearst contract, because of its mass production.

"Some bankers complain bitterly about the dissolution of the newspaper association and urge that it be re-established. They frankly cannot understand how some manufacturers will be able to earn charges on bonds and preferred stock, much less anything on common shares, if they are compelled to meet International's price as set by the Hearst Company.

"Neither Mr. Hearst nor the International Paper Company would make a statement regarding the outcome of the conference."

Signs Of Lively Session Evident In Legislature— Points Of Order Raised

Opposition Scored Initial Point, But Later When Arthur Sauve Appealed Against Ruling of Deputy Speaker the Chair Was Upheld by a Margin of Fifty-One to Nine.

(Canadian Press Despatch) QUEBEC, Jan. 16.—Signs of a lively session were evident in the Legislative Assembly yesterday when the debate on the address was resumed. William Tremblay, Conservative member for Maisonneuve, led off, and showed himself, in the first instance, to be of moderate courses. Hon. Mr. Galipeau, Minister of Public Works and Labor, was not long in raising a point of order when Mr. Tremblay commenced to discuss the Workmen's Compensation Act passed last session but Hon. Hector LaFerte, Speaker, ruled the point not well taken.

First Victory for Opposition
It was the first victory for the Opposition, but a little later they lost the fruits of it when Mr. Sauve appealed against another decision of the chair, this time delivered by T. D. Bencher, M.L.A., for St. Hyacinthe, the Deputy Speaker, who was presiding at the moment. Mr. Tremblay was quoting, or reading at great length, accounts of the trials and tribulations of the farmers of the Lake St. John region, many of whom, according to his story, were driven from their homes last spring by the rise in the water of Lake St. John.

Hon. Mr. Galipeau complained that Mr. Tremblay was reading his speech, and the Deputy Speaker held this was against the regulations and later on gave it as his decision that Mr. Tremblay was reading the speech. When he reiterated his decision a few minutes later, and told Mr. Sauve, who intervened, that he must not discuss the ruling, the Opposition leader appealed against the ruling, and the result was a vote of fifty-one to nine to support the chair.

Vatican Discuss Method Of Notifying Powers Of Agreement With State

Understood that If and When Agreement Is Concluded, With Signatures of Cardinal Gasparri and Mussolini, a Concordat Would Be Adopted for Transmission to All Governments Concerned—Previous to That Communications Would Be Sent to Same Powers Through Regular Diplomatic Channels.

(Associated Press Despatch) ROME, Jan. 16.—Methods of notifying all powers which have representatives accredited to the Holy See, of the agreement between the Church and the Italian State for a solution of the Roman question, were discussed in Vatican circles yesterday. It was understood that if and when the agreement is concluded by the signatures of Cardinal Gasparri, as Secretary of State for the Holy See and Benito Mussolini as Sovereign Minister of Italy, a concordat would be adopted for transmission to all governments concerned.

Previous to this notification a communication would be sent to the same powers through regular diplomatic channels that an agreement had been reached whereby the Holy See would thereafter constitute a completely free and independent territory under the sovereignty of the Roman pontiff.

Still Considerable Indecision
There is still considerable indecision, in view of the Pope's repeated wish that he have no "subjects," as to how the new state would be inhabited. It is generally supposed that the Vatican authorities would gradually endeavor to group all outlying territory for reasons of convenience and centralization. Then it would intimate to powers having embassies or legations at the Holy See that it might be expedient to erect their buildings within the confines of that territory.

Thus the inhabitants of the new defined tract would, in the main, be of non-Italian nationality. These would then be no need for burdening the Pontiff with administrative duties in connection with civic courts and similar institutions.

TO TRANSPORT FOOD SUPPLIES BY TRACTORS

Experiment Now Being Tried Out by Hudson's Bay Company—Result of Experiment Will Not Be Known for Some Time.

(Canadian Press Despatch) COBALT, Ont., Jan. 16.—An experiment of the Hudson's Bay Company with tractors, which, if successful, may have a far-reaching effect on the method of transporting supplies in the northwestern Arctic, is being tried out this winter, according to Bishop Anderson who passed through here yesterday and who has just returned from a trip to the north.

A number of tractors were shipped to Wager Inlet, north of Chesterfield Inlet, and the intention was to use them in hauling supplies across the barren lands to Port Cockburn, 150 miles away. The posts in the territory beyond Port Cockburn at present receive their supplies by ship from Vancouver through the Bering Straits. They may in future be served from Montreal, if the experiment proves satisfactory. The results of the experiment will not be known for some time.

check later on when, in referring to the visit of Premier Taschereau to St. Mary's division, Montreal, in the recent bye-election, he said that the Premier had gone there to "play with the truth."

He withdrew the offensive statement on gave it as his decision that Mr. Tremblay was reading the speech. When he reiterated his decision a few minutes later, and told Mr. Sauve, who intervened, that he must not discuss the ruling, the Opposition leader appealed against the ruling, and the result was a vote of fifty-one to nine to support the chair.

Cardinal Bourne has continually developed this idea in sermons and writings and Vatican officials said they had contributed greatly to the acceptance of the accord which became known yesterday.

NOVELIST FOUND DEAD

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Austin J. Small, 34, novelist, who wrote under the name of "Seamark," was found dead in his flat yesterday with his head in a gas oven. The writer was known to have worried over his wife's ill health.

GOVERNMENT NOW LIKELY TO TAKE NEXT STEP

Public Hearing Regarding Project Sponsored by Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Company Has Come and Gone.

OTTAWA, Jan. 16.—The public hearing into the merits and the demerits of the project sponsored by the Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Company which envisages a fourteen-mile power canal to connect Lake St. Francis with Lake St. Louis in the Province of Quebec, constructed to develop half a million hydro-electric horsepower, has come and gone, and the next move remains with the Dominion Government. The battle which raged yesterday in the chambers of Hon. J. C. Elliott, K.C., Minister of Public Works, marked an important phase in a gigantic fight of contending power interests for the right to build works of this nature, while the inland steamship companies were also drawn into the engagement. Whether the matter will be settled without reference to Parliament, is problematical.

The hearing yesterday was called to order to give opponents of the scheme an opportunity to state their objections, and in equal measure to give the Beauharnois protagonists the chance to answer such objections. The occasion was embraced to ventilate all the problems which such an immense project involves.

THE GRAPE CURE.

Grapes are rich in valuable mineral salts and vitamins. They are rich in potassium, sodium, calcium, magnesium, phosphorus, sulphur, iron and iodine. These are organized in a form that can be readily absorbed by the blood for use in the tissues which are always hungry for these vitamins and salts.

In Europe the grape cure has long been recognized as a good regime for those who suffer from many diseases, particularly anemia, diseases of the liver and kidney trouble. The patients use no other food of any kind, but live exclusively on grapes, drinking as much water as they desire. From three to eight pounds are used daily, and this grape fast may continue for a month or more.

The strong tartaric acid of the grapes sometimes irritates the mouth but this can be avoided by washing the mouth several times daily with a solution of bicarbonate of soda and water.

Grapes should always be used by themselves, either in place of meals or as an exclusive diet for several days. Many cures have been reported on this fasting regime, and I can recommend the same diet to any of my readers who contemplate going on a grape diet.

Grapes have been cultivated for food from prehistoric times and their use may have antedated all other fruit, even the forbidden apple. The making of wine from grapes is perhaps one of the oldest industries, as it has been done for at least six thousand years.

Grape juice is one of the most nutritious drinks when fresh, unfermented, or preserved by pasteurization. The best unfermented grape juice is made from good table grapes, with nothing added to the juice, which is bottled after being carefully pasteurized.

When prohibition went into effect, many farmers dug up their vineyards. This was a mistake, since the use of grape juice has been increased to such an extent that grape growing is now one of the most profitable farming industries. The price per ton of wine grapes is actually several times that of ten years ago.

Grapes contain from 12% to 26% of grape sugar, and from 1% to 3% nitrogenous substances as well as the mineral elements.

During the grape season it is well to leave a dish of grapes standing in some convenient place in the home. Grapes should not be eaten too close to a meal.

Grapes in the form of raisins are a very valuable food, and can be used in any part of the world, since they keep well. They are rich in energy materials.

Take advantage of grape season, and you will be richly rewarded with an increase in good blood. An exclusive diet of this most delicious fruit will give a rest to your overworked digestive organs, and the whole alimentary canal will be cleansed and purified by this delectable fruit of the vine.

Raisins ground in with dried meat make an excellent pemmican which is often used by Arctic explorers and large expeditions, as it will keep almost indefinitely if protected from

Question—Mrs. E. L. J. writes: 'Please tell me how I can overcome fainting spells, and what causes them. I cannot have a slight pain without turning very weak and sick, and unless I lie down under a fan or apply wet cloths to my head I will faint.' Answer—You may have some kind of heart trouble, or you may be over-nervous, due to wrong mental and physical training. Of course, I cannot tell you specifically what is causing your trouble without a personal consultation and examination.

Question—Mrs. G. D. J. writes: 'Will you please tell me the foods that are non-cathartic-producing? I have a cold in my head constantly. I may have chronic catarrh. If so, can diet cure this trouble?' Answer—You can use all of the non-starchy vegetables and the fruit without producing any excessive cathartic mucus. All of the foods high in calory value, such as the starches, sugars and proteins may be said to be cathartic-producing if used in large quantities. The hydrocarbons, that is, the fats and oils, also contribute their share in adding to the toxins which irritate the mucous membranes and produce catarrh. The best diet for you to take is one free from starches, sugars and fats, but with a small amount of protein and plenty of non-starchy vegetables.

Question—K. L. asks: 'Are sulphur and molasses good for the blood? If so, how often and how much should be taken?' Answer—The sulphur and molasses treatment is no doubt effective in removing some intestinal toxemia, but a fruit fast is far superior for accomplishing this effect.

Reduce the Acid

In sick stomachs—instantly

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Aikai kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.

KING AND YONGE

One of the most famous street intersections in the British Empire is that of King and Yonge Streets. There is no history connected with it, no monument, no traditions, yet it means as much to the Canadian as Trafalgar Square to the Englishman, Champ Elysee to the Frenchman, or Unter den Linden to the German. It is Canada, concentrated on one small spot.

At this famous intersection are located the highest buildings in the British Empire. It is the hub of busy Toronto and one of its many attractions.

The heavy traffic between Montreal and Toronto is materially facilitated by Canadian National Railways train service, which provides trains at most convenient hours over its well-known double-track route.

Full particulars about train service, etc., may be obtained from any Canadian National Agent, or from 23 Wellington Street North, Phone 88.

CUSTOMS GIVE TOTAL FIGURES FOR PAST YEAR

Annual Report of St. Albans Inspector Shows that 2,396 Violations of Customs Laws Were Detected and Prosecuted.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Jan. 16.—Collector Harry C. Whitcomb's annual statement of customs law enforcement activities for the year 1928 shows that 2,396 cases of violations of customs laws were detected and prosecuted in the district of Vermont during the twelve months' period ending December 31st.

The work of the customs border and lake patrol officers with that of train inspectors and officers located at the several ports and stations of the Vermont districts resulted in the seizure of 190 automobiles valued at $64,748 and 108,664 bottles of liquors valued in excess of a quarter million dollars. There were also seized during the year thirty-one horses with wagon sleds and tackle, valued at $2,725; two rowboats valued at $40, and the contents of six freight cars consisting of hay, straw and wood veneer, valued at $554, all of which vehicles and articles were being used in connection with the attempt to smuggle in the contraband liquors.

Other articles seized while being illegally brought into the United States include nine head of calves and sheep, valued at $40; fifty-four boxes hatch needles, valued at $1,280; four diamond rings, valued at $990; one fur coat, valued at $50; and miscellaneous small commodities valued at $89.

In 2,035 cases fines of $5 per bottle of spirituous liquor and $2 per bottle of beer or ale were assessed and collected where persons with liquor in one or two bottles failed to declare same to the customs officers and it was subsequently detected by the inspectors resulting in seizure and confiscation. The number of bottles of liquors thus seized amounted to 4,300 and the fines assessed and collected $18,453.

The drivers of fifty automobile were fined $100 each for failure to properly report arrival of their cars at the first customs office on entering the United States from Canada.

In connection with these violations of the customs laws, criminal proceedings were instituted in the United States district court against 171 persons. Indictments were returned by the United States Grand Jury against 160 persons so proceeded against, and in only eleven cases were no indictments found. One hundred and four defendants pleaded guilty on trial. Of the seven defendants who pleaded not guilty and stood trial three were found guilty and four not guilty. In forty-one cases jail sentences of six months or less were imposed by the court and in addition fines amounting to $14,575 were assessed and paid to the clerk of the court. In thirteen cases bail was called and forfeited, and cases against thirteen persons were not pressed.

Civil cases against thirteen automobiles seized in Collector Whitehill's district were tried in the Federal Court, and all the cars were forfeited to the United States except one which was ordered returned to the claimant, it being proven that the car was stolen from the rightful owner by the smuggler from whom it was seized.

REV. NORMAN COLL SPOKE AT OMEGA-ALPHA CLUB
"A purpose in life, and what it brings" was the subject of an address by Rev. Norman Coll, who spoke at the Omega-Alpha Club last night. Opening with a quotation from the great dean of psychologists, Professor James, that all great lives have been great only because of a definiteness of purpose from the beginning, the speaker indicated that a purpose in life meant control of all parts of the being. It meant the fullest development of human potentialities, it meant ultimate success, the goal of all life.

The address, given in an exceedingly interesting and forceful way, was fully appreciated by all present, and the speaker was heartily thanked for his message.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the presentation to the O-Actives of the club emblems indicative of the purpose and scope of the Omega-Alpha Club. There was also some discussion of other features for the good of the club, and it was agreed to have a sking party after the regular meeting next Tuesday, with a social time following at the Y. M. C. A.

1929 LICENSE PLATES HAVE ARRIVED HERE

Auto Vehicle Plates for Province Have White Numerals on Black Background—Will Be Distributed March 1.

Black plates with white numerals will be used by the Province of Quebec during the present year for motor vehicle registrations, replacing the green and black plates of the past year. This information was received at the office of Mr. H. B. Lovell, Provincial revenue officer for the district, this morning.

The plates, numbering in the vicinity of five thousand, arrived yesterday afternoon, and will be held until March 1st, at which time distribution will take place.

The grading of the license plates this year is similar to that of the past years. Pleasure cars, weighing less than three thousand pounds, will carry plates with plain numerals, while those over three thousand pounds will have an "H" in addition. The letter M will distinguish motorcycle licenses; T, taxis; F, light trucks, with solid tires, weighing less than five thousand pounds, or pneumatic tires, weighing more than six thousand pounds; K, with pneumatic weighing more than six thousand pounds or solid, weighing more than five thousand pounds; W, auto vehicles exceeding weight allowed outside of cities and towns; S, service trucks; A, autobus; X, dealers' cars, and XP, temporary registration.

In discussing the rates during the coming year for pleasure cars, Mr. Lovell stated that as yet he has received no notification of a change, so it is presumed that last year's price of seventy cents per hundredweight will be in force during the coming year.

LARGE NUMBERS ARE VISITING POULTRY SHOW

Entries Unusually Large and of Excellent Quality — Judging Will Be Concluded Today.

The nineteenth annual poultry show of the Sherbrooke Poultry Association, which is its second year, is the most successful exhibit of its kind in the history of Sherbrooke, both from a standpoint of quantity and quality. Owing to the fact that there is no admission charge, it is impossible to definitely determine the number of visitors, but from the throngs that are crowding the big 54th Armory, where the show is being held, the people of Sherbrooke and Eastern Townships in general are evident, taking advantage of the yearly exhibit by attending in large numbers to view the numerous entries.

Rhode Island Reds are leading this year in quality and quantity, with white Wyandottes and barred Rocks next. Other breeds represented are white Plymouth Rocks, brown Leghorns, Minorcas, Anconas, Cornish, Sussex, Brahma, Cochins, Langshans, Sebright, Black Cochins and Andalusians.

One feature of the show was the increased number of turkeys and water-fowl exhibited as compared with the past year. Bronze and white Holland were the chief breeds exhibited at the show, with a small sprinkling of other varieties, while the Toulouse, African and Embden divided honors in the large exhibit of geese. The pen of wild mallard ducks attracted attention, and shared the spotlight of popularity with the Pekin, Rouen, Runner and Cayuga varieties.

Silver fox rabbits, entered by Mrs. Pearson, of Foster, are being shown here for the first time. This breed, the fur of which is black with silver tips on each individual hair, is being used as a substitute for the high-priced silver fox. Among other breeds featuring this exhibit were Chinchilla and Flemish giants.

The north end of the Armory is taken up with the exhibit of the Lennoxville Experimental Farm, which consists of electrically illustrated pictures showing the proper way of caring for and housing poultry, as well as model coops, nests and henhouses. Free literature in connection with these points is piled on a table for those interested.

Several companies manufacturing chicken feed are also exhibiting their products, the east side of the building being used for their booths.

The poultry show will be open again this evening and closes tomorrow night at ten o'clock. The result of the judging yesterday is as follows:

GAVE ADDRESS ON HISTORY AT ROTARY CLUB

Professor E. E. Boothroyd, Vice-Principal Bishop's University, Spoke on "Uncooked History" Last Evening.

Happenings in the lives of famous men were dealt with in an interesting manner by Professor E. E. Boothroyd, vice-principal of Bishop's University, and professor of history at that institution, in the address entitled "Uncooked History," delivered to the members of the Rotary Club at their regular weekly meeting last evening at the New Sherbrooke House.

Professor Boothroyd prefaced his remarks by explaining that history as commonly presented to children at school had been boiled down to such an extent that it was more or less a mere collection of dates and dry facts. There are, however, many old letters and documents which throw interesting sidelights on the different famous personages of history to prove that the world has not changed so much after all.

The executive ability of Pope Gregory the Great was stressed by the speaker of the evening, who pointed out that in answer to a query by Augustine in the year 600 A.D. as to whether the heathen temples of the Britons should be destroyed or not, Pope Gregory the Great replied to the effect that if they were in good repair to use them as churches. In dealing with the matter of holidays to heathen gods that were celebrated then, His Holiness had merely named the days after some Christian saint instead of doing away with them and thus incurring the hostility of the Britons.

Other interesting points in history were taken up in turn, Professor Boothroyd quoting statements contained in letters written by people living in that time, one of which was written by a woman to her husband who was visiting London, asking him to match some cloth which she had enclosed.

In drawing his address to a conclusion, the speaker pointed out that at the present time the tendency in school work is to give the history more interesting by accounts such as he had spoken of. This, he thought, was an excellent idea, as it made history live again and was remembered by the child.

At the close of the address Rotarian Archie Beck tendered the thanks of the members present to Professor Boothroyd.

During the meeting it was unanimously decided to donate the sum of $180 to the Child Welfare Clinic. The attendance last evening was 85.3 per cent.

Former Lennoxville Resident Passed Away.
Word has been received by Mr. J. R. Munroe of the death of his nephew, Mr. Nelles Victor Hicks, which took place in Montreal on January 10th. Mr. Hicks was the youngest son of Rev. J. B. Hicks, formerly pastor of Lennoxville United Church, and was a bright and promising young man. He graduated in pharmacy five years ago, and followed the occupation of his choice very successfully until his health failed two years ago. A short time ago, he contracted bronchial pneumonia, which was the cause of his death. He is survived by his father, Rev. J. B. Hicks, now in Ogdensburg, N.Y., one brother, Douglas L. Hicks, of Saskatchewan, and one sister, Kathleen, the wife of Dr. Harold Skeet, of Bedford, Que.

W. C. T. U. Meets
The Women's Christian Temperance Union met yesterday afternoon in the Women's Institute room, with a fair attendance. The president, Mrs. A. F. Browne, was in the chair, and Mrs. W. H. Abbott had charge of the devotional period, giving selections of Scripture bearing upon the attitude of Christians towards drunkenness. It was decided to send a consignment of reading matter to the Scotch and Lusk's lumber camps, early next week, and members were asked to send in contributions of magazines, etc., for this purpose. Arrangements were made to entertain the Sherbrooke Union at the next meeting, and the secretary was instructed to send an invitation to that effect. The programme was left in the hands of Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. McCurdy.

The programme for the afternoon was very interesting, "The Way Our Bible Came" being the subject of a paper by Mrs. Matthews. Inscriptions on monuments and memorials, Mrs. Matthews pointed out, bear either the letters B. C. or A. Behind a lonely cross is B. C. in front of the cross is A. D., and the Christ who hung upon that cross is the centre of all history. Round that cross is grouped, the events of the Bible, the Old Testament with its promises, the New Testament with its fulfilment. The Old Testament seeks the Messiah, the New rejects Him, but in spite of persecution and indifference the Bible, the word of God, the history of His chosen people, the story of the plan of salvation, lives. A hearty vote of thanks was given Mrs. Matthews for her excellent paper. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Browne and Mrs. Abbott, who served afternoon tea with refreshments.

INCREASE IN AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE RATES

Automobile owners are not at all pleased, to say the least, over the announcement of the Canadian Automobile Insurance Underwriters Association that the rates for motor accidents and legal liability are to be increased from twenty-five to fifty per cent.

The announced increase in automobile insurance rates is to receive the attention of Attorney General Price, of Ontario, and Quebec owners can rest assured that if the new scale applies to this Province it will be given the serious consideration of the Taschereau Government.

FUEL SITUATION MATERIALLY ALTERED

A progress report of the activities of the Dominion Fuel Board covering the changes that the fuel situation in Canada has undergone since publication of the official statement in 1923 was issued yesterday.

At the time of the Board's inception a question of primary importance was to replace foreign anthracite in Central Canada by suitable alternative fuels. There has also arisen a strong national desire for a maximum of Canadian fuel independence instead of reliance on the United States for fifty per cent. of the coal used.

The fact is emphasized, however, that the problem of Canada's complete fuel independence is still unsolved. The geographical handicap consequent on the location of our largest markets far from our great producing fields, but in close proximity to those of the United States, is one difficultly to be overcome.

The Board points out that it cannot assume as its function the formulation of a national fuel policy, for this is a prerogative of Government, and any such policy, so far as it concerns complete fuel independence, must be determined largely by questions of national expediency, based however upon the most complete and accurate knowledge of all technical and economical facts obtainable.

ALEX BERNIER ARRESTED ON ARSON CHARGE

Drummond Street Resident Faces Charge in Connection With Fire Which Destroyed Barn of John Graham, Township of Orford Farmer.

An alleged confession by the minor son of Alexandre Bernier, Drummond street, was responsible for the arrest of Bernier, Sr., yesterday afternoon at 5:50 o'clock by Detective Malo, member of the Provincial police, on a charge of arson in connection with a fire on October 31st which destroyed the barn of John Graham, of the Township of Orford.

The annual meeting of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Advent was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Price, Woodward Avenue. The Rev. Mr. O. G. Lewis, opened the meeting, and complimented the Guild members upon their splendid work during the past year.

The details previous to the arrest of Bernier on the arson charge somewhat scanty. From what can be determined, however, Detective Malo has been working on the case for some time in an effort to determine the cause of the fire which destroyed the Graham barn and Bernier was taken into custody by the officer late yesterday afternoon, just as he was finishing his day's work as bus driver for the Sherbrooke Railway and Power Company.

The accused appeared this morning before Judge J. H. Lemay in the Magistrate's Court and pleaded "not guilty" to the charge. The hearing was postponed for eight days, bail for $2,000 being set.

She is survived by one son, Mr. George Alger, three daughters, Mrs. N. H. Baird, Mrs. H. L. Wilson, and Mrs. Della Flanders, of Newport, Vt., nineteen grand-children, and eleven great-grand-children. Those from out of town were Mrs. Flanders and Bessie Baird, of Ayr's Cliff.

MR. ARTHUR L. BRADLEY, KNOWLTON, QUE.

The death of Mr. Arthur Leon Bradley took place at his home in Knowlton, Que., on Monday, December 31st, after an illness of two weeks with pneumonia.

The late Mr. Bradley was the eldest son of O. A. and the late Ellen L. Bradley, and was born in West Bolton in 1887. In 1914 he was married to Miss Eva Walker, of South Stukely, by the Rev. F. C. Ireland. He then came to Knowlton to live, where he spent the remainder of his life.

Mr. Bradley was a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, and up to the time of his illness was rarely absent from the services.

The funeral service was held in St. Paul's Church, Knowlton, on January 3rd, and was conducted by Rev. Canon Carmichael, assisted by the I.O.O.F., who attended in a body.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, an aged father, four sisters and one brother, besides other relatives and friends.

MRS. MARY ALGER, FITCH BAY, QUE.

FITCH BAY, Que., Jan. 16.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Alger, who passed away Wednesday morning, was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Wilson, on Friday morning at 10.30, with Rev. F. W. S. Waldron officiating. The funeral being attended by many friends and relatives of the deceased.

Three favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Shall We Meet Beyond The River," were rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. A. D. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rider, and Rev. F. W. S. Waldron. The bearers were Messrs. W. W. and John Wilson, C. H. and Roy Alger. The casket was covered with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The interment took place beside her husband in Brookside Cemetery.

The late Mrs. Alger, whose maiden name was Mary Baker, was born at North Hatley on the second day of April, 1845, and came to this place at the age of ten years and has since resided here. Since the death of her husband, she has made

by DAVID LYALL

"We have at least lived with dignity and peace," he protested. "You have. Nobody knows what my life with Francis was, because I could hold my tongue," she said calmly. "Marriage needs all the love one can bring to it, and if Poppy has got the real thing in her heart, she'll weather it and come out on top. Of course, you'll receive them at Cudham, Ted, after a decent interval."

"Augusta says never again," he remarked with a sigh. "The facts are really rather awful, Victoria—a shop, and Dissent, and everything simply everything we in the natural order of things would bar."

"Perhaps this is your bit in the war," suggested Lady Stanton Pole. "We have done our bit—we gave our only son," said the Rector stiffly.

"Well, it may be part of the general mix-up that will come after the war. Perhaps it is part of the great reconstruction scheme that a daughter of Cudham shall help to build up the new democracy which they say is to be the universal outcome of the fight."

"For Heaven's sake don't say such things to Augusta! She feels badly enough. At least disguise your revolutionary feelings while you're here."

"Oh, I haven't any real revolutionary feelings, my dear. I'm merely a spectator. But, of course, living as I do now, and having in my house a constant succession of the fighting men, middle-class most of them, the men who think and do things, I'm being gradually informed that there are things in the world, many of which I had dreamed of before. But you haven't told me yet what kind of a letter they wrote."

"They simply stated the facts, in the usual way, and asked to be forgiven."

"Lady Stanton Pole kept silence a few moments, and when they swept through the gates of Cudham—the south gates, which took a mile off the journey to the station—she looked about her interestedly.

"I wonder whether there will be any plans like this after the war. In many places people are beginning to realize their estates, I saw Frederick Moreton's, and it's going to put Astley in the market."

The Rector made no comment. His eyes were fixed with a kind of painful intensity on the house where he had left his wife in a state of great agitation.

"Have you told Beau's wife? What does she think about it?" "Beau's wife disapproves highly. She properly thinks that marriage between those of differing ranks is a mistake."

"Having proved it in her own case?" "I rather think she has learned to appreciate differences, but Augusta can tell you more about that. Ruth was going off to France this week, and she is at the house now. We have taken the twins, and I hope that the re-establishment of a nursery at the Abbey will help to reconcile Augusta to Poppy's loss."

"Don't speak as if she were dead, for Heaven's sake, Ted. Perhaps you'll live to be proud of your new son-in-law. He is a fine soldier. He might even be a general before the war ends."

"Augusta would tell you he will remain a temporary guest," said the Rector drily, as the car purred softly up to the terrace door.

"They were met inside the hall by Lady Augusta, not tearful, but with an expression her sister-in-law fully understood.

Their meeting was stiff in the extreme. A peck which could not even by courtesy be called a kiss passed between them, and they shook a limp hand.

"How do you do, Victoria; you got a puncture. Come and have a cup of tea in my boudoir; William Voles is waiting to see you, Edward—something about his son's pension. He is in the library. Come, Victoria."

Lady Stanton Pole, feeling a little like a village child about to be severely rebuked, followed her sister-in-law's tall, angular, but stately figure up the first staircase and into the boudoir.

There was a maid in the room setting out the tea-table. The moment she left I. d'Augusta faced her sister-in-law like an accusing angel.

"I hope you've come to make some explanation, Victoria, of the disaster your carelessness brought about."

"I haven't any explanation to offer," replied Lady Stanton Pole rather tartly. "After all, when you sent Poppy to me, I didn't undertake to wrap her in cotton wool, nor even to chaperon her. In war time these things have to go by the board, and please do remember very particularly that I didn't ask for her. You offered to send her."

"What has that to do with it? I expected, of course, that you would exercise a little supervision, the same as if she had been your own daughter."

"I could not have taken better care of Poppy if she had been my own daughter, Augusta, and I'm not going to be scolded like this. As I said to Ted, the mistake was in letting her go to London to look after Trix. I thought it most injudicious at the time. It simply opened the door."

"We thought the man had gone back to his own people in Yorkshire; we were told so," said Lady Augusta coldly. "I want you to tell me all you know about the man. I can't name him; he is a scoundrel, of course. Any man who would do what he has done to tell them so! What is he doing outside the pale of all decent people?"

"Oh, come, Augusta; there must be a lot of scoundrels about just now. It's a pure love match, that's what it is. It might be a lot worse. He's a most charming and lovable fellow, and I hope you are going to forgive them quite soon, and ask them to Cudham to tell them so."

Lady Augusta's mouth shut like a steel trap. Her expression became hawk-like, vindictive, relentless.

"We shall never do that," she answered in a level voice that had the same quality as her face. "She knew what we suffered through Beau; knowing it, she deliberately walked into the first trap a vulgar adventurer set for her. Well, she must pay that, that's all."

MANY CASES OF 'FLU AND GRIPPE DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Father John's Medicine Supplies Strength and Power to Resist Disease

The one thing to keep always in mind during the winter months is, that 'flu and pneumonia go hand in hand; and there is always the lurking danger that any severe cold, any case of grippe, any case of 'flu is liable to develop into pneumonia.

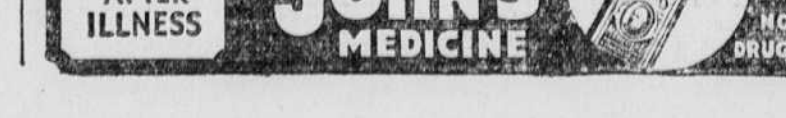

The second thing to remember is that 'flu and pneumonia attack those who cannot fight back—those whose systems are below par and lack the power to drive off the insidious disease germs. It is not a question of size or weight, many people who are apparently in good health, lack the fighting strength to ward off disease and are among the first to come down with 'flu.

If, at the first sign of a cold—or if you feel the least bit tired or rundown—you will immediately start to take Father John's Medicine, you will not only get rid of the cold itself, but you will also gain the vitality and fighting power to ward off further colds, and greatly lessen the danger of the cold turning into pneumonia.

Father John's Medicine is the greatest body-builder because it is all pure nourishment. Its basis is the finest cod liver oil, blended with other food elements by specially designed apparatus. It is so prepared that the cod liver oil, and other body-building substances are promptly taken up and put into use even by a system weakened by persistent coughs and colds. In a perfectly natural way, the vitality is increased, the blood enriched, strength restored and the whole body rendered impregnable to the attacks of grippe and 'flu.

Father John's Medicine is safe for every member of the family, being free of alcohol and narcotic drugs

CANADIENS ARE NOW LODGED IN SECOND PLACE

Nosed Out Chicago Last Night and Hurdled Leafs and Maroons—Boston Climbed into Second Position in American Section.

(Canadian Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Jan. 16.—The second position in both divisions of the National Hockey League changed hands last night. The Boston Bruins are now trailing the leading New York Rangers in the American section, while the Canadiens are in second place in the Canadian division.

The Bruins defeated the sectional leaders, the Rangers, by four to one at Boston, drawing away from Detroit, with whom they had previously been tied for second place, while the Canadiens hurled the idle Maroons and Leafs by defeating the Chicago Blackhawks by one to nothing at Montreal.

The Canadiens-Chicago game at Montreal was settled in the first minute of play when Mantha, big defence man, split the Hawks' defence and beat Gardiner, visiting goalie, from a few feet out. From then until the start of the third period the teams played dull and listless hockey.

The Americans and Senators, rated as two of the best defensive machines in major league hockey, lived up to their reputations and battled to their third draw in four games. The Ottawa team scored first when Finnigan got through alone to beat Worters, while Sheppard tied it up for the Americans in the final period.

The standings to date are as follows: Canadian Section Teams W. L. D. P. A. P. Americans 11 6 6 29 24 28 Canadiens 9 6 6 35 29 24 Montreal 9 9 5 41 39 23 Toronto 11 11 0 46 45 22 Ottawa 5 9 9 26 36 19

CHICAGO WHITE SOX 1929 TEAM PROMISING ONE

Strengthened by Several Minor League Stars—Many Changes in Last Year's Line-Up to Be Made.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 16.—For the first time since the Black Sox scandal of a decade ago shattered a mighty baseball team, it appears as though the Chicago White Sox may be something more than just a doom for the city's glory, teams of the American League in the 1929 pennant race.

Strengthened by several minor league, "big berths", and led by a manager of the old school, Russell "Lena" Blackburn, the White Sox will put a young but fast and dangerous outfit in the field. Neither Blackburn nor the "old Roman" Charles A. Comiskey, is predicting a pennant, but both expect a first division place, a position unoccupied by the team since Comiskey broke up his great club of 1919.

With an array of rookie material and veterans from last year's fifth place club, Blackburn's problem is who to discard. Only Willie Kamm, leading third baseman of the junior circuit, finds his position uncontested. There are nine candidates for the outfield, four for second base, three for catcher and two each for shortstop and first base, in addition to a small army of prospective pitchers.

Of the score of rookie hopefuls, four stand out—"Dutch" Hoffman, an outfielder obtained from Sacramento for $25,000, and Earl Sheely; J. C. Walwood, a hard hitting outfielder from Shreveport; Johnny Kerr, twenty-eight year old second base sensation of the coast league, who is up for second trial in the majors; and Bob Weiland, a left-haw obtained from Moline, of the Mississippi Valley League. Weiland pitched the last game of the season for the White Sox last fall, and shut out the Athletics, 1 to 0.

INCREASE IN TOTAL TRADE IS INDICATED

Canada's Total Trade for Last Nine Months of 1928 Was $2,007,890,158 — Increase of Nearly $235,000,000 Over 1927.

(Canadian Press Despatch) OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 16.—Canada's total trade advanced nearly $235,000,000 during the last nine months of 1928. The total of $2,007,890,158 compares with $1,773,092,834 for the corresponding period in 1927. Figures are available at the Department of National Revenue today.

Imports entered for consumption amounted to $936,242,994. This was an increase of $113,254,527 over the figure of $822,988,467 for the same month in 1927. Dutiable goods were valued at $604,156,987 and free goods $329,085,967.

For December alone exports amounted to $130,847,423, or approximately the same as the figure of $130,278,157 for December 1927. Imports were $94,514,002 as against the comparative figure of $83,262,695.

NIAGARA FALLS THREATENED BY SEVERE ICE JAM

Promised to Be Similar to That Experienced in 1909, But Officials Were Relieved Last Night to See Water Receding.

(Canadian Press Despatch) NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Jan. 16.—Threatened with an ice jam, similar to that experienced in 1909, which choked the river from the mouth to the falls, officials were relieved when the waters of the river started to recede last night. The water had dropped four feet at a late hour last night but was still seven feet above normal. The jam, six miles of solid ice, reaches from Niagara on the Lake to Queenstown village. It is too long to dynamite successfully and as long as the cold spell continues the situation will be dangerous.

Not since 1909 has a jam, formed at the mouth, reached so far up the river. That year the water rose fifty-three feet in three hours and completely crippled the Ontario Power Company plant. It is possible that the rise may be repeated this year but engineering safeguards have removed much of the danger as far as the power plants are concerned.

Buildings on both sides of the river are menaced by the water and the power output of the Queenstown plant is curtailed but engineers stated there was no cause for alarm. At the Canadian Niagara Power Plant, in the upper river, a tug boat is being kept moving continually to keep open water in the fore bay. Even with such measures, however, it is estimated that production has been cut 12,000 kilowatts by the jam.

NEW YORK PRESS MARKET COMMENT Furnished by McManamy & Walsh.

Wall Street Journal: While the money flurry was regarded as a temporary incident, the reappearance of abnormal tightness in the demand loan market so soon after the holiday stringency occasioned marked uneasiness in speculative circles.

Journal of Commerce: The decided firming up in the call money situation, with a jump in the rate from seven to nine per cent, brought about nervous price movements in stocks after the early dealings yesterday, when quotations broke sharply from the maximum levels of the morning.

New York World: In view of the generally firm condition of the money market, the increase in funds can be considered normal. It certainly could have been no surprise to the speculative community which has learned to expect such fluctuations in the mid-month and month-end shifts of credit.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

Prices Paid for Cattle and Other Live Stock at the Montreal Stockyards.

(Canadian Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Jan. 16.—There were 69 cattle, 43 calves, 201 hogs and three lambs, fresh arrivals, for sale on the two markets, and in addition 298 cattle held over from Monday and Tuesday.

Monday's decline in cattle prices was still in force, and sales were very drab. One lot of good 1,200 pound steers sold for $19. Plain to medium cows were selling from $5 to $6.50, or in spots nearly $1 lower than last week.

Lamb quotations were unchanged. $10.75 was the standard quotation on hogs. Sows were from $8.50 to $9.

COUNTRY AND DAIRY PRODUCE PRICES

BUTTER—Trade in butter here yesterday was on the moderate side. Buyers seemed to be well supplied for their immediate requirements and the amount of new purchasing was not large.

CHEESE—The local cheese situation was again inactive yesterday. This being the quiet season in cheese, little business was passing.

EGGS—For the first time in nearly two weeks there were no changes made by jobbing houses in their egg prices, and the same list prevailed on the business day.

POULTRY—Trade was more active on the local poultry market yesterday. After the quiet period of the previous week, receipts were plentiful and moderate.

NEW YORK PRESS MARKET COMMENT Furnished by McManamy & Walsh.

Wall Street Journal: While the money flurry was regarded as a temporary incident, the reappearance of abnormal tightness in the demand loan market so soon after the holiday stringency occasioned marked uneasiness in speculative circles.

Journal of Commerce: The decided firming up in the call money situation, with a jump in the rate from seven to nine per cent, brought about nervous price movements in stocks after the early dealings yesterday, when quotations broke sharply from the maximum levels of the morning.

New York World: In view of the generally firm condition of the money market, the increase in funds can be considered normal. It certainly could have been no surprise to the speculative community which has learned to expect such fluctuations in the mid-month and month-end shifts of credit.
