ESTABLISHED 1808.—NO. 205. MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1905. PRICE ONE CENT

ENVOYS WILL NOT MEET UNTIL AFTER DRAFTING OF PORTSMOUTH TREATY

European Opinion is Highly Commendatory of Japanese Wisdom in Making Peace at Present Juncture—Prince Oukhtomsky on the Result of the Peace Upon the Internal Condition of Russia—M. de Struve and Consul-General Nosse Speak.

Portsmouth, N.H., August 30.—There will be no meeting of the peace conference to-day. When the adjournment was taken yesterday no time was fixed for the next meeting.

Mr. De Martens and Mr. Dennison will meet at three o'clock this afternoon at the Navy Yard to begin the work of drafting the treaty.

The great strain under which plenipotentiaries, attaches, correspondents and summer guests have been laboring for three weeks is over. Peace is practically concluded. Only the actual framing of the treaty and the formalities of its signature remain. It has been decided that the room in the conference building, where the plenipotentiaries yesterday came to an agreement shall be the scene of the final act in the "Treaty of Portsmouth," which is to put an end to this historic war. The plenipotentiaries yesterday adjourned, subject to call, and unless some unexpected dispute arises there will not be another formal meeting until the draft of the treaty is completed. And even should a controversy occur, it would not necessarily compel a formal meeting, as the plenipotentiaries, living under the same roof, are in a position to consult freely, either in person or by letter. Mr. De Martens and Mr. Dennison, acting respectively for Russia and Japan, have already begun the work of drafting the treaty, and their first meeting will be held this afternoon at three o'clock at the Navy Yard.

Signatures of Rulers.

When the signatures are attached the exchange of ratifications by the Emperors of Russia and Japan alone will remain. Emperor Nicholas, in the credentials given to Mr. Witte, formally pledged his word to approve any treaty his plenipotentiary would sign. While the credentials of Baron Komura, under regular Japanese procedure, reserved to the Mikado the right to sanction the treaty, that is regarded as a mere formality.

The Russians continue to regard the agreement reached yesterday as a wonderful diplomatic victory. The highest Russian authority, speaking of what would have happened if peace had not been made, said:

"Consider the military situation from the Russian standpoint in the most favorable light. Assume that the Russian arms would have been successful. Linevitch victorious might have forced Oyama back to Liao Yang, possibly to Haicheng. But with the Russian fleet destroyed he could never venture into the Liao Tung peninsula. We could not have re-crossed the Yalu into Korea. We could never have re-taken Sakhalin. Practically we obtain in this treaty what we would have had to buy with victories. Had defeat come, who knows what else we should in the end have been obliged to yield?"

King Edward's Congratulations.

Marienbad, Austria, August 30.—King Edward upon receipt of the peace announcement immediately dispatched his congratulations to the Emperors of Japan and Russia and to President Roosevelt, and also telegraphed to Queen Alexandra his joy at receiving such news.

Russian Paper Sees Japan's Moral Greatness.

St. Petersburg, August 30.—"A great diplomatic victory for M. Witte but a great moral victory for Japan," is the verdict of Prince Oukhtomsky in his editorial in the Viedomosti to-day. He says:—

"Notwithstanding the difficult circumstances under which the negotiations commenced, M. Witte carried out his task with the greatest skill and obtained from Japan the utmost she was prepared to give. More we expected to receive, but though M. Witte wrested out of defeat these advantageous terms the moral advantage rests with Japan. She will be recognized in the eyes of the east and of Europe as the victor and she has acquired a predominant position in Asia, while Russia's prestige has suffered a correspondingly heavy blow. However, Russia is only reaping the reward of a war, conceived in injustice and resting on a policy of aggression toward a weak nation, against which I and others warned the government. I was for peace before and have been ever since the commencement of the war and I rejoice that peace has been concluded. I have no fear of the results on the army. Some of the men will object to this peace, but the great mass will be glad of the termination of the war on so honorable a basis and will be content to return to their homes. It is impossible to tell what will be the result of peace on the internal situation. The revolutionary movement has roots a generation deep and its causes are entirely independent of the war, which it preceded, though its growth has been fostered by the misfortunes of the conflict. The agitation and turmoil will, no doubt, find an outlet in the coming elections for the Douma regardless of the outcome of the war."

In conclusion, Prince Oukhtomsky pays a high tribute to President Roosevelt, "whose name should be blessed throughout Russia."

CONSULS OF RECONCILED NATIONS SPEAK OF PEACE

Mr. Nicholas de Struve, Russian Consul-General for Canada, when seen at his office on St. James street, this morning, expressed himself as having been greatly astonished at the result of the peace negotiations. He admired, he said, as much the great talents of the Russian plenipotentiaries as the conciliatory spirit of the Japanese representatives. The result came altogether as a surprise to him, but he was, nevertheless, overjoyed, and immediately on learning the glad news had sent telegrams of congratulation to the Russian envoys at Portsmouth.

Mr. De Struve said he hoped the 29th of August would become a day memorable in the history of both Russia and Japan, as marking the beginning of a long period of peace which would permit the two countries to develop their great resources. In this way the future would present in the Extreme Orient the beautiful spectacle of the coming together of the two combatting nations in the interests of humanity and civilization.

Concluding, Mr. De Struve said that all Russian history has shown that two great nations had always been compelled to fight before they could learn to understand and appreciate one another. He was hopeful that Russia and Japan had learned their lesson and would in future live peaceably together.

London's Surprise.

London, Aug. 30, 12.43 p.m. — The news of the conclusion of peace at Portsmouth, N.H., yesterday reached London so late last evening that, with the exception of official and diplomatic circles and those who were in the city at a late hour the announcements in the morning papers came as a complete surprise. Even many Cabinet officers and other high officials were ignorant of the momentuous event until to-day, as those who compose the official and social circles in England are now gathered around the moors, some of them out of reach of the telegraph, for grouse shooting. With the general public the news was received with the greatest satisfaction, and admiration for Japan's "sacrifices in the cause of peace."

The announcement that peace had been arranged between the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries yesterday caused the stock markets to open with a somewhat buoyant tendency to-day, and prices established a smart advance, particularly in the case of Russian bonds, which gained four points. Japanese bonds were also affected, but not to such a great extent, opening at 1 1-2 points higher. Consuls advanced a quarter point, and Americans generally were stronger. There was moderate excitement at the opening of the markets.

Evening Press Praises Roosevelt.

The evening papers follow the lead of the morning newspapers in bestowing unstinted praise on President Roosevelt, to whom they give the fullest credit for the outcome of the conference, whose decision was entirely at variance with their daily predictions since the opening of the negotiations. Both papers and people were so astounded at the outcome of the conference that they feel that there is something in the agreement arrived at which has not yet been published, and that if this is not the case then the new Anglo-Japanese treaty has affected the result in some way. In this connection the Pall Mall Gazette says:

"The enlarged treaty with England may have had considerable weight in persuading the Mikado and his advisers that Japan's position in the Far East is now practically impregnable, and that peace may be made without pressing for the payment of costs."

The paper adds:

"Japan now stands in a position of impregnable supremacy in the Far East, and this supremacy could only be disputed by a coalition against which her alliance with the greatest naval power in the world constitutes an absolute guarantee."

Arguing that Japan might after consideration feel more satisfied with having gained the points for which she took up arms, the Pall Mall Gazette continues:

"Henceforth Asia lies at her feet and particularly China. China has been a bone of contention all along. England and the United States will have every reason to be thankful for the triumph of Japan."

A Policy of Development.

Referring to Japan's decision to give up her demand for an indemnity the Westminster Gazette says:

"It needed only a moment's reflection to see how greatly her moral and material position must have been worsened if, after having obtained all the substantial points for which she undertook the war and all the enormous assets that go with them she had taken the responsibility for renewing the war on the question of costs which could not in the long run have been recovered against an opponent who was determined not to pay. The policy of Japan is to concentrate herself upon the formidable task of developing what her victory has given her and even a successful war which would have left her in possession of further territory must have dissipated her energies and weakened her position."

The Westminster Gazette concludes with a reference to the Anglo-Japanese treaty, saying "the alliance is to be renewed and extended to a wider scope than it has yet had," and expressing the hope that the extended alliance may be one which, in the long run, may be compatible with more friendly relations between Great Britain and Russia.

Speaking of Japan's waiver of the indemnity clause, the Globe says:

Act of Extraordinary Courage.

"It has been an act of extraordinary courage and magnanimity on the part of the Emperor and his council. In the act, which seems to be justified by the results, the Emperor of Japan has given the world a lesson in moderation, and, as we believe the result will show, in practical wisdom."

The Globe also claims that Japan gained what she went to war for.

The Evening Standard says: "Russia has won one of the greatest diplomatic victories in the histories of the world. Nor are we inclined to begrudge M. Witte his hour of glory. He fought magnificently for Russia, and, thanks in a large measure to his tactical ability, she has been able to save her face."

Referring to the results gained by Japan, this paper says:

"Perhaps she is the only nation on the face of the earth who would have rested content with what she set out to accomplish."

In conclusion it says, "We come to what, from an international point of view, may be regarded as the greatest victory of the three. It belongs, as we think, to President Roosevelt. He may for instance have held out to Japan inducements which would have the double effect of securing peace with Russia and rooting up the weeds of disagreement between Japan and America."

The same paper prints a despatch from St. Petersburg, which says M. Witte will return the hero of the day, and that it is not impossible that he may become a sort of Prime Minister. The despatch adds, "It is believed, however, that he will refuse unless freedom of the press and personality are guaranteed."

DESPERATE FIGHT WITH POLICE BY PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN

Constables, After Battle in the Dark for Possession of a Revolver, Find They Have Captured the Proprietor of the House.

A protracted and desperate struggle in a bedroom of the house at [illegible] Mance street at an early hour yesterday morning came dangerously near to having a tragic ending, and the three individuals who took a hand in the mix-up have since been taking advantage of all available moments to deck themselves with congratulations that they are still in the land of the living and the place of hope.

The trio are Mr. T. J. McCarthy, restaurant keeper, Police Sergeant Larocque and Constable Etienne Desmarteau, the hero of many athletic contests.

A few minutes before three o'clock yesterday morning a telephone communication reached No. [illegible] police station that there were outward evidences that a burglary had been committed at the address mentioned, one of the doors being wide open, while the glass of a window had been smashed. It was also the opinion of the transmitter of the message that the householder and his family were absent.

The officer on duty at once despatched Segt. Larocque and Constables Desmarteau and O'Toole, who on reaching the scene of the supposed burglary raid, found things all that had been described, with the premises as silent as the grave.

After posting O'Toole and a loaded revolver in the outer passage, Sergt. Larocque led the other constable inside, and on reaching the door of a front bedroom on the first floor suspicious sounds were heard.

Signalling Desmarteau to remain by the door and to watch for a possible rush of housebreakers from other parts of the house, the sergeant penetrated into the room, and in a second or two was in grips with an unknown man behind the curtains of the bed. They had quite a time of it. Up and down and across the bed the pair wrestled, with bits of bed curtain and scraps of pillow covers mixed in, the original occupant making silent but strenuous endeavor to get his hand round the upper end of the bedstead. Desmarteau by and bye took a hand, and after the "burglar" had been pretty well subdued, it was suggested he should lie quiet as he was safe in the hands of the police.

This seemed to come as a considerable surprise to the prisoner, who on regaining his breath explained he was no burglar, but Mr. McCarthy himself. Then the lights went up.

"Good thing you managed to hold me tight," said Mr. McCarthy. "All the time I had been squirming and scrapping to get my hand round the top of the bed to where I have a rifle and revolver, both fully loaded, and had I grabbed either of them there might have been blood on the carpet."

"And so there would for sure," remarked Desmarteau, "for I had my gun in hand all the time and stood by the door."

Further investigation brought out the fact that one of the people in the house had accidentally left the door open, and the pane of glass had been broken in the course of the previous evening by some children at play.

WATER TAXES POUR IN AT THE CITY HALL

As September, the first date on which the discount on water tax is no longer allowed, draws on, the officials in the Long Room in the City Hall have been doing a full day's work every day. On Friday the 3 per cent. discount on all water and business taxes since they became due this year will cease and citizens are all anxious to take advantage of the privilege.

Not only have the receipts in the City Hall itself been large, but many taxpayers have taken advantage of the six police stations where dues may be paid.

Yesterday at the City Hall, 2,178 householders paid their water dues, totalling $28,978.96, and the sum of $20,347.93 in business tax was received.

At the police stations 470 citizens paid amounts totalling $3,550.75 in water and $495.57 in business taxes. The total received in the one day was $52,[illegible]73.22 on account of the year's taxes, not counting arrears paid up.

During the past week the payments were as follows: Monday, $47,155; Saturday, $12,713, Friday, $24,537; Thursday, $28,356, and Wednesday, $21,991.

To-day there has been a constant stream of ratepayers at the City Hall and by Friday the total receipts on account of water taxes will reach a very large figure considerably in advance of that of last year at the corresponding date.

NEW MANAGER FOR MONT. COTTON CO

Report Shows Company's Business Steadily Increasing.

The directors of the Montreal Cotton Co., at a meeting held to-day, accepted the resignation of Mr. Fred. Lacey as manager of the company.

They appointed as his successor Mr. Louis Simpson, who was manager of the company five years ago. The different mills of the company made a very good showing under Mr. Simpson, and the directors were pleased that they were again able to secure his services for the company. A report submitted to the directors showed that the company's business was picking up steadily, and that additional looms were being placed in operation every day. The outlook for the company was much more promising than

MAYOR'S CHAIN HAS NOT YET BEEN FOUND

There is a mystery in the City Hall for the question "Where is the Mayor's chain?" still to-day continues to defy solution. The bauble of office has now been missing for over a week. As it usually rests in the office of the City Clerk, and as one of the officials of that department has been absent on vacation, it was thought until to-day that perhaps he held the key to the situation. But this morning that gentleman returned, and could shed no light on the situation.

Acting-Mayor Couture was last to wear the chain, on the occasion of the St. Jean Baptiste festival, at which he represented the city. He cannot remember to which of the officials he gave the chain. This morning all the employes of the City Clerk's department signed a solemn declaration that they knew nothing of the business, and so there was nothing left to do but to ask for Chief Carpenter's assistance in finding the Mayor's insignia.

The matter is regrettable on account of the historic value of the chain, which was bought in England in 1861 when Hon. C. E. Rodier was mayor, and first worn by him at the inauguration of Victoria bridge, when King Edward VII, then Prince of Wales, visited Montreal. One of the links bore the arms of the house of Aberdeen, presented by Lord Aberdeen on the occasion of the civic reception in his honor.

Through The Herald's Sieve.

The eclipse was waterlogged.

The Envoy and the Plenipo.

The Envoy and the Plenipo
Were walking on the strand.
They wept like anything to see
So many a Jap demand
"If these were only swept away,
They said, "peace would be grand."

"If Nicky and the Sylet and we
Bluffed hard for half a year
Do you suppose," the Envoy said,
"That we could get it clear?"
"I doubt it," muttered Teddy R.,
And shed a bitter tear.

"The time has come," the Envoy said,
To talk of many things,
The market price of Russian Bonds,
And Presidents and Kings,
And why indemnities are to—
And interned ships have wings."

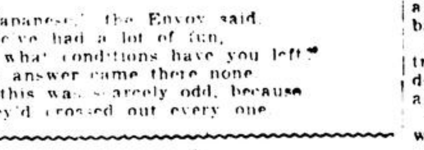
"But please, Sir," said the Japanese,
Looking a little blue,
"We really scarcely thought that these
Were what we came to do.
We thought the terms were up to us,
Instead of up to you."

"I weep for you," said Teddy R.,
"I deeply sympathize,"
With sobs and tears he weeded out
Terms of the largest size
But Nicholas said nothing but
"Chop off another slice!"

"I'm staggered," said the President;
"It almost makes me sick
I must admit that Witte has
A most infernal cheek."
The Plenipo said nothing but
"That payment's much too thick."

The Elder Statesmen wagged their heads
And looked exceeding wise,
Meaning to say that they'd "O.K."
The Russian "compromise."
And that was very strange, because
It was an awful size!

"O Japanese," the Envoy said,
"We've had a lot of fun,
Now what conditions have you left?"
But answer came there none
And this was scarcely odd, because
They'd crossed out every one.



SO ARE WE, Mr. President, so are we.

WE HAVE now a lurking suspicion that Admiral Rojestvensky is really holding Japan prisoner.

S. TEDDY WAS DISCOVERED

And Great Was His Sorrow

TEDDY RUTHLESSLY EXPOSED HIM

Went on to Predict Peace Which Was Declared Even as He Talked He Explained His Motive for Ending the Scrap Quite Candidly.

(By S. Teddy Lyre.)

"— colossal connet I have ever met you are the most stupendous, S. Teddy. Doesn't this sudden assumption of virtue hurt you? I'll bet you four cents to a Lachine cigar that if you knew how to settle the war you would take a flying leap into the limelight. You disguise your helplessness well, but you mustn't weaken your mind by imagining that you can fool me."

"Ha! Discovered," I hissed, and truly a villainous feeling swept over me, as I realized that all my efforts to eclipse Teddy's vision had been futile.

"And now, what are you going to do, Teddy?" I inquired.

"Why, settle the disputed questions," he said. "Before this interview appears in the Sieve, Witte will be as chesty as the prize-winner in a bean-guessing competition, and Komura as dejected as Hetty Green when she has to buy some new clothes, and the Daily Steer will have come out with its brazen 'I told you so.'"

"All of which means ——?"

"That the envoys will reach an agreement. Just a moment, there's the telephone bell."

Teddy went to the telephone, and when he returned his features were irradiated with an almost angelic light. He slapped me on the back and laughed strenuously.

"Ho, ho, I thought that I could turn the trick. Japan has given in and peace will be declared, and I can swell out with a thorough appreciation of the fact that I did it."

"Now that all that is settled, why did you work for peace?" I asked.

"That's easy," replied Teddy, "if this war continued some one might duplicate that San Juan stunt of mine and my reputation as a scrapper would be dimmed. I guard that reputation as carefully as you do yours for veracity, and so I resolved to have peace at any price. I think, however, that Japan was ——"

A LABOR LEADER ON EMPIRE PROBLEMS

The Proposed Conferences With the Colonial Workmen.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, August 30.—J. Ramsay MacDonald, secretary of the labor representation committee, was interviewed by the representative of a London newspaper in reference to the proposed labor conferences in the Colonies. He said the success of the Labor party in Germany, France and England was going to make a European war impossible. This country may become embodied in a war, not because we want it, but because some Colonial interest has been threatened; take for instance the Alaska boundary difficulty, that might easily have produced a rupture between ourselves and the United States. Before we can feel our friendship with continental countries is going to be an effective guarantee for peace, we must have a very strong hold on the political opinions of Colonial workingmen so that in the Colonies there will also be a peace sentiment. There the idea in many quarters is that labor men here do not care a snap of the fingers about our kith and kin across the seas.' It seems to me it would be valuable for us to meet them and show the fallacy of such a suggestion. My experiences in Canada and South Africa have been of enormous value in my relations with the labor party and institutions of my country."

A BRITISH CONFEDERATION.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, August 30.—Mr. W. J. Carter, of Victoria, Australia, addressing a meeting at Elgin in the Unionist interest, said Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa, are beginning to find it in accordance with their best interests that there should be reciprocity between them and it meant a confederation of British States.

NEW STEAMSHIP FOR LAKE TRAFFIC.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, August 30.—For service on the Canadian lakes there has just been launched at Dundee a screw steamer named the Clenellah. She has a length of 257 feet breadth, forty-two feet three inches depth, twenty-six feet six inches; gross tonnage, 2,360 tons. The engines are triple expanders fitted with cylinders, with a stroke of thirty-six inches, and a large steam boiler, supplying steam at 180 lb. working pressure. The Clenellah was built to the order of the Steamship Company of Hamilton.

BRITISH AND COLONIAL JOURNALS.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, August 30.—At the annual conference of the Institute of Journalists being held at Bournemouth, in the course of the presidential address it was stated that they wished to establish closer relations with their brethren in the Colonies. A special committee had addressed a large number of circulars to Journalists throughout the Empire, which were already bearing fruit as satisfactory replies had been received and there was every reason to believe that certain difficulties of organization in the way would be overcome, and that a great journalistic federation of the Empire would before long be formed.

The chief business at yesterday's meeting of the conference of the Institute of Journalists was a discussion of a recommendation that steps should be taken to introduce into Parliament a bill securing to the writer of news absolute property in his "copy" for at least twenty-four hours after its publication. Members complained that more than ever now journalists were suffering from newspapers taking their contributions without paying for them.

BEETESON MAY BE ON BOARD SS. MONTEZUMA

The Man Whose Trunk Was Found Shipped as Cattleman.

ON WAY HOME FOR FAMILY.

Had a Good Position as Brass Finisher and Had Saved Money Enough to Establish a Comfortable Home.

After the discovery in the river yesterday forenoon of the trunk bearing the name of T. Beeteson, Birmingham, Eng., the city detectives got active about finding the whereabouts of the owner. A telegram to Peterboro brought the intimation that he had left there on Sunday night, and on inquiring amongst the shipping companies it has been ascertained that a man of the name shipped as cattleman on the C.P.R. steamer Montezuma which sailed yesterday, and so far as is known Beeteson left by that vessel.

The Herald's correspondent at Peterboro telegraphs that Beeteson arrived in Canada from Birmingham, Eng., about one and a half years ago, and after a residence of about one year in Winnipeg and Brandon, removed to Peterboro. Since his arrival there he had been engaged as a brass-finisher in the Canadian General Electric Works. He intended going home to bring out his wife and family to Peterboro. He is described as a young man of industrious habits, and had saved considerable money during his stay in Canada, and had decided to go as cattleman from motives of economy. He left Peterboro on the midnight C.P.R. train, on Sunday, and was accompanied to the train by about twenty-five of his friends. He was quite popular in the city, and was banqueted at the Montreal House on the evening preceding his departure.

ECLIPSE WAS HELD WITH CLOSED DOORS

No one in Inhabited Regions of Canada Saw Much of it.

The great eclipse of the sun, total in Northern Canada and Labrador and partial in these more hospitable regions, came off this morning according to schedule. At least so it appears from telegraphic despatches from distant points, for no one in Montreal saw anything more than a damp and drizzling rain, with an extra dash of darkness that might or might not have been due to clouds. In a word, the local performance of the eclipse was a fizzle. It was held behind closed doors.

A GLIMPSE AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—(Special.)— The weather prevented the big telescope in the Dominion observatory being used in the eclipse this morning. The astronomical staff had made all arrangements for photographing the partial eclipse, but the sun showed through the haze for only a moment, and then the clouds shut it out altogether.

WASHINGTON DID BETTER.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The eclipse of the sun to-day was only partial at this point, and for a part of the time of its duration the sun was obscured by clouds. Nevertheless the phenomenon was observed with interest at the naval observatory and by many amateur astronomers. The sun was never obscured to the extent of more than six-tenths of its diameter.

HARVARD SAW NOTHING.

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 30.—Observations of the sun's eclipse at the Harvard observatory to-day was impossible because of the clouds.

New York, Aug. 30. — The partial eclipse of the sun, which it was hoped could have been seen in New York early to-day, was completely obscured by clouds and foggy atmosphere.

JAP PLENIPOTENTIARY OVER-RULED BY REPRESENTATIVE OF MARQUIS ITO

Komura is Reported to be in a State of Collapse—His Government Overrode His Recommendations—Is There Any Understanding With China That She Will Bear Part of the Cost of Redeeming Manchuria?—Great Britain Said Not to Have Exerted Any Pressure.

Dr. Morrison's despatch to the London Times, New York Times and Montreal Gazette, under last night's date said in part:—

"Baron Komura has telegraphed to the Emperor of Japan, and M. Witte to the Emperor of Russia, each proposing an immediate armistice. The terms of peace are as given to me by both Witte and Rosen, who returned to the hotel to lunch. The Japanese envoys remain in the navy yard, inaccessible. But the statements of both the Russian envoys are clear, positive, unmistakable. I heard them twice over from Witte and once from Rosen. To the last the Japanese prefer to leave it to their rivals, their enemies no longer, to keep in touch with the public.

"But surrender, in this case, is not thought to imply reproach. I am sure America will regard the decision of the Japanese Government as a great act of magnanimity, a great act of statesmanship. No event in the history of Japan, not many in the history of any other great power, has called for more courage. It is nothing that the Emperor and his advisers have had the courage to make an unpopular peace. But they have had courage to risk the judgment of the world on a decision which the enemies of Japan may easily represent as one of something else than courage. And I suppose they risk something further. For what Japanese here say, not including the envoys, is that they may have to fight this war over again, that they take no guarantees for the future, that Vladivostock remains a Russian fortress and naval base, that Harbin is still theirs, still the railway key to Manchuria. Not at once, but twenty years hence, what is to prevent the Russians from once more challenging Japan's naval supremacy, or from doubling her railway line and making Harbin once more a centre of attack? Why was no safeguard for the future sought? Answers to these questions there are none.

KANEKO HAS BEATEN KOMURA.

"Komura is, we hear, at the navy yard, in a state which one of his friends describe as near collapse. That he has been overruled from Tokio is known. That Tokio, not Portsmouth, has been the real seat of the peace conference is known. Kaneko, not Komura, has been the real plenipotentiary for at least many days. Kaneko is Ito's agent and Ito has swayed the final counsels of the Emperor. Kaneko and Komura are not friends; they disagree about peace and other things. And Komura has the chagrin of knowing that it is Kaneko whose policy has been preferred to his.

"Japanese friends of the Japanese plenipotentiary—what a mockery the name now is—wrote him last evening a passionate protest against the coming surrender. "Resign sooner than consent," he urged, but Komura enswered "it may not be so bad as you think," and went to the conference today in the true heroic spirit of his heroic ancestors, to whom self-sacrifice was only one form of patriotism.

His adversaries recognize it to the full. Rosen said to me this afternoon: "I hope you will express what Witte and I both feel, that it would have been impossible to meet antagonists of a finer spirit than Komura and Takahira. Through all these three difficult weeks they have shown every consideration, courtesy and fairness. We shall part from them as friends in every sense, and friends to whom a tribute of high respect is due."

WITTE'S MAGNIFICENT POSITION.

That the result is a splendid vindication of Russian diplomacy, even the Japanese admit. Indeed, they mournfully complain they have been outgeneralled; that Witte has proved himself a better negotiator than Komura. Witte's position, after such a success, is brilliant enough to stand in no need of comparison at anybody's expense. He would be the first to desire to divide the honor with Rosen, his colleague, and the last to deny to Kmura and Takahira their due credit as accomplished diplomatists. But Witte left St. Petersburg a new man in diplomacy; almost an amateur. He will return the laurelled victor in one of the greatest diplomatic struggles ever known. Perhaps the most wonderful feat of all was his convincing the Japanese, as he did, that the Russians' determination to pay no indemnity was sincere; was irrevocable. It was that fact which led Tokio to see the sole alternative was to withdraw the demand for indemnity, or continue the war. Komura is admittedly a better trained diplomatist than Witte. He is a foreign minister of high order, but he found himself in collision with one of the first statesmen of modern times, and he went under. Such is the opinion here, and if you say his own Government defeated him the answer is he ought to have been able to guide his own Government as Witte did his.

JAPANESE WERE IN TEARS.

Nobody believed the end would come as soon, and when peace was announced in four typewritten lines on yellow telegraph forms, and posted on the hotel bulletin board, there were few to read. Crowds soon gathered. It was near noon. There were Japanese, who (it is part of the history of the great event) cried. There was the usual tumult of comment, gossip, pleasure, protest and much else. "It means," said one stern partisan of war, "two wars instead of one."

The following statement is from Mr. Sato, speaking officially for Japan:—"Question of the final disposition of the Island of Sakhalien and the reimbursement to Japan of her war expenses have from the first been the issues upon which absolute divergence of views existed. Differences of opinion upon these points, not one, but both, have frequently threatened the existence of the conference. But His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, responding to the dictates of humanity and civilization, has, in a spirit of perfect conciliation, and in the interest of peace, authorized his plenipotentiaries to waive the question of reimbursement of war expenses, and has consented to a division of Sakhalien upon terms mutually acceptable, thus making it possible to bring the important work of the conference to a successful issue."

This differs in no respect from the Russian statement, except that it is less complete.

WILL CHINA BEAR PART OF BILL?

London, Aug. 30.—It has been whispered in certain diplomatic circles that a secret agreement existed between Japan and China, by the terms of which the latter agreed to pay the expenses of the war for the restoration of Manchuria, in case Japan failed to compel Russia to pay an indemnity. There is no adequate authority for this rumor, but it is received with a certain credence, especially since the news has come of Japan's amazing sacrifice of her principal claim. It is pointed out that such compensation by China to the country which conquered and restored to her this great province would be only just and equitable. It would be unreasonable to expect Japan to perform this great service as an act of magnanimity, and that she is entitled to receive the full expenses of her campaign, minus only the value of Port Arthur, which will remain in Japanese hands. If such an arrangement exists it cannot have been known in St. Petersburg, for despatches from there indicate that no one was so much surprised at the Japanese withdrawal as the Russians themselves.

GREAT BRITAIN EXERTED NO PRESSURE.

It has been represented that Great Britain has been putting pressure upon her ally to make peace. This is untrue. England has definitely decided in favor of the advantages of peace, principally on account of the European crisis, and in order to curb the Kaiser's adventurous spirit. Japan is fully aware of the fact, and she is in full sympathy with the British wishes, but she has not been called upon to sacrifice her own interests in this or any other respect. It is in its effect upon the European situation that peace is the most welcome. There was serious danger of a renewal of the peril to European peace which alarmed the world early in the summer. The personal relations between King Edward and Emperor William are so strained as to amount to positive hostility. The Moroccan crisis is again becoming serious. The fact that Russia will now be able to place a large forc on her Western frontier at short notice must have a restraining influence of immense value during the developments of the near future. Europe welcomes peace for her own sake, therefore, with a sensation of intense relief.

DEMANDS, CONCESSIONS AND AGREEMENTS OF PEACE CONFERENCE

Russia in the agreements reached in conferences at Portsmouth has relinquished all her rights in Manchuria, with the exception of the common right of all nations to the "open door" as affects commerce, and she concedes, besides, control of Korea by Japan. The Mikado's Government has withdrawn its demand for possession of interned Russian warships and for the limiting of Russia's naval power in the East, and "splits the difference" as regards Sakhalin Island. Further, Japan has accepted, synonymously for indemnity, as charges for the care of Russian prisoners of war, about half the sum that it was prepared to demand for "remuneration as cost of the war." Appended are the original demands of the Japanese envoys and the agreements and compromises effected:

Article 1. Recognition by Russia of Japanese preponderance in Korea, with the right to preserve order and to give military and financial advice to the Emperor; but to maintain the policy of the "open door" and to observe the territorial integrity of Korea.	........................Agreed to
Article 2. Mutual evacuation of Manchuria.	........................Agreed to
Article 3. Obligations by Japan to restore Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria, including civil administration.	........................Agreed to
Article 4. Mutual obligations to respect in the future the territorial integrity and "administrative entity" of China and Manchuria, with equal opportunity ("the open door") for the industry and commerce of all nations.	.... Accepted
Article 5. Cession to Japan of Sakhalin Island.	Russia to retain the northern part of the island and Japan the southern; that is, revert to the conditions that prevailed before 1875.
Article 6. Russia to surrender to Japan its leases of the Laotung peninsula, including Port Arthur, Dalny and the Blonde and Elliott Islands.	........................Agreed to
Article 7. Surrender to China of the railway from Harbin to Port Arthur and Newchwang, with the surrender of all privileges obtained under the concession of 1898.	Accepted in principle but will again be discussed.
Article 8. Limiting the Rothstein-Ukhtomsky concession of 1896, under which the cut-off road through northern Manchuria was built to connect the Trans-Siberian and Ussuri line, but providing for the ownership and operation of the road by the Chinese Eastern; and providing, further, for substitution in the future of Chinese imperial police for Russian railway guards.	........................Accepted
Article 9. Remuneration for the cost of the war (indemnity).	Russia to pay about $350,000,000 for feeding Russian prisoners of war and for other charges, which debts can be liquidated without loss of national honor or self-respect.
Article 10. Russia to surrender its warships now interned at Tsingtau, Shanghai, Saigon and Manila.	................Demand withdrawn
Article 11. Limiting in the future the number of war vessels that Russia shall keep in the Pacific.	................Demand withdrawn
Article 12. Special fishery rights to citizens of Japan in waters of the Russian littoral from Vladivostok to the Behring Sea.	.... Accepted

Summary: Eight articles agreed to, two withdrawn, two compromised.

No woman can look beautiful without good health. A woman's good health depends on those organs peculiarly feminine, and which so often become disordered, causing misery and dragging-down pain. Nature's laws are perfect, health endures if you obey them, but disease follows disobedience. The distressing complaints of women are often brought about by catching cold at a critical period, breathing foul indoors' air and long hours of work and nervous tension. Go straight to Nature for the cure—to the forest. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is Nature's cure for the distressing complaints of women. Prof. King, M. D., in his American Dispensatory, says of Black Cohosh or Black Snake-root—"our early American Indians set a high value on this root in diseases of women. It is surpassed by no other drug, in congestive conditions of the parts where there are dragging pains and tenderness."

Lady's Slipper root is a "nerve stimulant and tonic, improving both circulation and nutrition of the nerve centers—favoring sleep and cheerful condition of the mind; of service in mental depression, nervous headache, irregularities of women with despondency."—Prof. King. Besides the above ingredients there are—Golden Seal, Unicorn and Blue Cohosh roots in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 31 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps. Over 1000 pages and illustrated. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

GARDEN PARTY IN AID OF THE CRECHE AT SAULT

A large garden party in aid of the "Creche," Sault au Recollet, will take place from three o'clock until nine p.m. in the beautiful grounds surrounding the summer home of the little waifs of the society. It is especially desirable that friends should attend in large numbers, the better to understand the work so unostentatiously done by the lady patronesses and the Sisters of Mercy. Singing, music, recitations and addresses by the best local talent will go to make up a programme attractive enough in itself, aside from the delightful trip to the grounds. Each purchaser of a ticket has a right to a "throw" on a beautiful oil painting, the gift of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart, whose cloister and convent is situated at a very short distance from the "nursery." Tickets are only 25 cents, and can be had at the gates of the garden.

COMMENDABLE EXHIBIT.

Model Tobacco Farm to be Shown at Sherbrooke Fair is Worth Government's Attention.

The culture of tobacco is daily assuming greater importance in the Province of Quebec. Anyone who has travelled through the country districts is familiar with the broad green leaves of the plant, for almost every farm now has its tobacco patch.

Among the farmers, however, there is a lack of knowledge as to the proper methods of dealing with the crop so as to get it into condition for the market. To illustrate such methods, a model tobacco farm is now being put up in the Sherbrooke Exhibition, of which it will form an interesting feature. The right way of growing, harvesting, drying, curing and packing tobacco leaf will be shown on a large scale.

The educational value of this exhibit will be widely recognized and is worthy of the attention of the Government, especially of the Honorable Minister of Agriculture. It is the exhibit of the manufacturers of "Pay Roll" plug chewing tobacco, who are large users of Canadian leaf. This model of a tobacco farm is one of their methods of showing the farmer how he can improve the quality and consequently the marketable value of his tobacco crop.

PROPOSED SALE OF COMMON ROUSES CHAMBLY CITIZENS

The advertisement announcing the sale by the Ottawa authorities of the ordnance lands in Chambly Canton, known as "The Common," has aroused an agitation among some of the citizens of that village, who desire that the land shall be preserved as a public playground. A petition to the Minister of the Interior has been circulated asking that the sale be cancelled, among the grounds for this request being that the land, some five or six acres, has been known for over two centuries as the Military Campus, and that since 1867, when the English garrison finally left Chambly, the land has been preserved as a public park. It is also urged that the Common has been of great use to the children of Chambly Canton and Chambly Basin; they have used it as a playground. It appears that there are two churches, one Episcopal and the other Methodist, facing the common, and it is urged that the building of commercial establishments near these churches would be to their detriment. The intervention of the Antiquarian Association and of the Parks and Playgrounds Association of this city is being asked on the ground that it is in the general interest that all public playgrounds, no matter where situated, should be preserved for public use.

Those residents of Chambly Canton who favor the sale state that considerable friction has arisen over the desire of part of the population to use the common as a ball field on Sundays. It might be better to sell the ground than to continue it as a cause of friction. On the other hand, they say, if it is desirable to preserve it as a park, let the municipality buy it.

LOCAL WOOLLEN MEN OBJECT TO CRITICISM

Local woollen men strongly resent the statement sent to the Yorkshire Post from a special correspondent who is in Toronto, that Canadian woollens were not to be seen in any of the windows of first-class tailors. On the contrary, said the manager of one of the large Canadian mills to the Herald, quite a few mills have quite a large sale among the best class of tailors in the country. But a tailor might easily have led the correspondent of the Yorkshire Post into error because he seldom knows how much Canadian goods he has in his stocks.

The wholesale people usually submit a number of samples and the tailor picks out the ones he wants according to the quality rather than the make. In this way he gets quite a lot of Canadian woollens which he sells as English goods. The majority of Canadian woollen mills looked after the clothing of the masses of the people, and it was on this account that quite a number were made specially of woollens to be used in the cheaper suits.

CHAS. GOW ARRESTED AT PETERBOROUGH

Returned Voluntarily from D.R.A. on Hearing of Mr. Foy's Action.

Peterboro, Ont, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Chas. Gow was arrested here this morning on the charge of manslaughter. Instructions were received last night by County Crown Attorney Wood, from the Department of the Attorney-General, Toronto, to proceed with a prosecution on a charge of manslaughter. A warrant was promptly issued and Ottawa communicated with. The prisoner was voluntarily returning to Peterboro. He was taken immediately after his arrest to the county jail and appeared at preliminary hearing this morning before Magistrate Rogers and was remanded for a week.

The preliminary hearing and examination of witnesses will take place at Norwood on Sept. 6, before Magistrate Jamieson.

Gow stated immediately upon hearing of the contemplated prosecution that he was determined to eventually return. He had no counsel this morning, but will be represented at the enlarged hearing by Mr. G. M. Rogers.

INTERVIEWED AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Charles E. Gow, who is attending the D.R.A. meet, will be indicted for manslaughter, under order of Provincial Attorney-General Foy, in spite of the verdict of the Norwood jury. Such was the news that reached him yesterday from Toronto. To a reporter who announced to him the Government's decision Gow said the shooting of young Hill was purely accidental, as the coroner's jury found. Gow seemingly feels keenly the position in which he is placed. He is a young man of good appearance, with restless blue eyes and clean shaven. He is about five feet nine inches in height and weighs about 160 pounds.

He explained that he with Edward Dewart had driven over to James Dewart's residence to obtain a Winchester rifle for the purpose of shooting ground hogs. Here they met two Murphys and another young man Geo. Gallagher. These three young men walked home while Gow and Dewart drove.

The Winchester rifle which they had borrowed was lying on the seat between Gow and Dewart. The three men ahead, Gow said, were singing and shouting as they walked along the road and when they were passing Hill's house Hill came to the door with a rifle and fired a shot into the night.

"I did not think he was firing at us," said Gow, "but I though he was trying to frighten us. I decided to reply to the shot, and reaching over picked up the rifle. The top of the buggy was up and I shoved the rifle from under it and fired a shot, following it with a couple of others. Hill fired no more and we drove on, laughing as we went at the surprise Hill received when his shot was replied to. I was not aware until next day that any one had been hurt."

MEN, IT'S FREE.

SEND FOR IT NOW.

ASK ME TO SEND YOU, SEALED, FREE, a book just completed, which will inspire any man to be bigger, stronger, younger (if he is old), and more vigorous than he ever felt. I am a builder of men.

I can take any weak, puny man and make him feel like a Sandow. Of course I can't make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by Nature to be strong and husky. I don't mean that.

But I can take a man who started with a fair constitution and before it got fully developed began tearing it down. That fellow is weak-nerved, slow, poky, lacking in vim, ambition and self-confidence. I can make a man of him in three months, so that his own friends won't know him.

Every man who is weak and "going back" knows that there ought to be something which will restore that old "steam" to his physical body. He has tried the usual drug method and found that a fizzle, and yet he knows there must be something.

I know it, too, and I've got it. It's Electricity. You can't name anything more likely to have that force which a weak man lacks. It's a natural power. I can pump it into a weak man while he sleeps and make him feel like a Sandow in no time. It's the spice of life.

So get the book if you want to be stronger.

MANUFACTURERS WILL DINE PRESIDENT

A congratulatory banquet will be tendered President W. K. George, of the Canadian Manufacturers' Assoociation, by the Montreal branch of the association, on the evening of Saturday, Sept. 16th next, in recognition of the way in which he presented the views of the Canadian manufacturers during the recent British tour of that body. The dinner will take place at the chambers of the Canada Club, Board of Trade building, and will be presided over by the chairman of the Montreal branch, Lt.-Col. Jeffrey H. Burland, if he has reutrned from England by that time; if Col. Burland is still absent, vice-chairman D. Lorne McGibbon will preside.

Final arrangements for the annual meeting have been concluded, and an exceptionally large attendance is expected from all parts of Canada. Single fare will be the rule to and from Quebec from all points in Canada, by both railway and steamer lines, and special rates have also been secured at all the leading hotels of the Ancient Capital.

Although the tariff committee of the Association has practically completed its work it is expected that many matters of special interest in this connection will be discussed at the convention, in view of the impending work of the Tariff Commission in Eastern Canada.

Messrs. U. K. McNaught, of Toronto, and George Drummond, of Montreal, are chairman and vice-chairman of the manufacturers' tariff committee, and it is expected that they will be present at both the George banquet and the Quebec convention and discuss tariff matters.

TATSZGORO NOSSE SAYS IT WAS RIGHT

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 30.—(Special).—Consul-General Nosse, when asked how the news of the peace terms would be received in Japan said he could not say. He had not been officially informed of the terms but he had no doubt those reported were correct. If so, it appeared that while Japan seemed to have conceded considerably to the Russian envoys, really she had gained all that she had gone to war for, in the possession of Port Arthur, the supremacy in Korea and the Open Door in Manchuria. To have continued the shedding of blood for the sake of dollars did not seem right. The war had been undertaken for principle, not financial gain.

Mr. Nosse said he hoped Baron Komura would be able to come to Canada as he had intimated some time ago. Whether he did or not would depend largely on the arrangements he he had made for sailing to Japan.

SULTAN OF MOROCCO IS DEFYING FRANCE

Tangier, Morocco, Aug. 30.—The Sultan has replied by letter to the French minister that he continues to regard the recently arrested French-Algerian merchant, Bouzian, as a Moroccan subject, and will refuse to comply with the demand of the French Government for his liberation.

THE FINAL SUMMONS.

Paris, Aug. 30.—The Foreign Office has issued an announcement to the effect that to-day or to-morrow the French minister at Fez, St. Rene Taillandier, will be able to address a final summons to the Moroccan Foreign Office relative to the release of the French-Algerian merchant, Bouzian. The minister at the same time will advise the Moroccan Government of his intention to leave Fez if the demand for the release of Bouzian and redress for his arrest be not complied with. M. Taillandier will be instructed to reach Tangier by the surest route, and to take such steps as may be deemed necessary after his arrival there, if in the meantime the demands remain unsatisfied.

Despatches from Toulon to the French newspapers announce that in view of the trouble with Morocco the cruisers Charnier, Brulx, Pothuau, Chanzy, Latouche-Treville and Bequin are being held in readiness.

George T. Gillespie, of Toronto, was groomsman and Mr. Harry Ponton, of Montreal and Mr. Allen Barnett, of Toronto, were ushers. Miss Violet Anderson, sister of the bride was bridesmaid.

The church was beautifully decorated and the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Laidlaw.

FIRED REVOLVER INTO HIS HEAD

John Lally Not Likely to Recover from Effects of Wound.

John Lally, manager of the Montreal New System Barber School, on Craig street, was found, yesterday afternoon, lying in a field at Mile End, near where the C.P.R. track crosses St. Lawrence street. He had a bullet wound in the head just back of the right ear, and as a revolver was found close by, and a box of cartridges in his pocket it is supposed that he had made an attempt to commit suicide.

For the last three weeks Lally had not been himself. He had been drinking heavily, and had not been attending to business. Only last week he appeared in the Recorder's Court charged with assaulting his wife. Mrs. Lally however refused to prosecute and her husband was dismissed.

The bullet in the unfortunate man's head has been extracted successfully but his condition is so serious at present that his recovery is regarded as impossible.

Mr. Lally who is forty-one years of age, came here originally from Boston. His wife is at present on a vist to that country.

ELECTROCUTED THIS NOON AT ANGUS SHOPS

Joseph Bourassa, of Villiery, employed by the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company, was found dead this afternoon in the power room of the Angus shops, where he had evidently been electrocuted. His body was on the way to the morgue at three o'clock. The manner in which the accident occurred is not known.

FROM KOREAN SERVICE.

Seoul, Aug. 30. — John McLeavy Brown, who for twelve years past has been at the head of the Korean customs, is to be dismissed. This is probably due to the fact that the customs administration has been undertaken by M. Megate, the Japanese adviser of the Korean Government, and is part of his general plan to reorganize Korean finances. In 1901 Russia attempted to oust Mr. Brown, who was retained, however, owing to the support of the Governments of Great Britain and America. Director Brown lighted the coast and improved the harbors during his long service in the department, which was the only one honestly administered in the government.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

The statements given in our last "Talk" tell the story of the result of Municipal competition in Glasgow. The municipality, operating a service at charges fifty per cent. lower than the rates charged by the National Company, is hopelessly behind the Company in number of subscribers, and consequently, in the value of its service to the public. The difference between the two services is increasing rapidly day by day.

Judged by another standard set up before the Special Committee, the capitalization per subscriber, Glasgow after three years' operation admits a capitalization at the end of the fiscal year of 1904 of $136.60 per subscriber, while the Bell Telephone Company of Canada after twenty-five years' operations has a capitalization for its exchange service of only $92.00 per subscriber. Glasgow is even now expending another half million of dollars in rebuilding its telephone plant, which has not been included in the previous statement.

These facts and figures which we have given regarding Glasgow's service are taken entirely from the evidence of the Chairman of the Committee of the Glasgow City Council which has charge of their Municipal Telephone plant.

Of the financial results, different contentions have been set up. We need not enter upon this point, "time will tell." No evidence has been offered that the other four municipal telephone ventures have been even as successful as the Glasgow one. Sufficient undisputed facts have been given to show that Great Britain, either in Government or Municipal administration of the telephone, does not offer an example which Canadians should be anxious to follow.

We shall draw a few conclusions in our next.

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, AUG. 30

THE END OF THE WAR.

The war has ended, as it commenced, with dramatic suddenness.

Japan gains a free hand in Corea, a territory more than half the size of the entire Japanese Empire as it existed on Feb. 6, 1903. Japan acquires possession of that Port Arthur littoral of which she was robbed by Russia's intrigue with France and Germany after her victory over China in 1894. Japan gains one-half that island of Sakhalin, of which a still earlier and more discreditable Russian intrigue robbed her. Japan has annihilated the Russian navy and doubled her own. Her credit is two per cent. higher and that of her antagonist two per cent. lower in the money markets of the world than was the case 620 days since. And, finally, Japan has been the means of emancipating the great Chinese Empire from Russian tutelage, restoring to it the great province of Manchuria and incidentally establishing Japanese influence in Pekin in such a manner that should Russia desire to renew the war she would probably find herself face to face with an allied Japano-Chinese army, perfectly trained, numbering more millions than even the White Czar could put in the field.

And yet, notwithstanding all these achievements, we are asked, forsooth, to accept the opinion of the Russian plenipotentiaries and their carefully-organized press bureau that "the terms of peace are tantamount to a Russian victory!" Our American neighbors seem to be so saturated with the notion that ready money is the be-all and end-all of existence that they have utterly misapprehended the degree of importance which Japanese statesmen attached to the indemnity question. The prestige Japan has gained throughout the eighteen months' campaign has been still more securely established by her attitude in the council chamber, and the acquisition of that prestige is worth more than hundreds of millions of dollars indemnity. Henceforward Japan can obtain all the money she needs to furnish and cultivate her newly-acquired property at a moderate rate of interest. Insistence upon an indemnity would have increased the risk of an early renewal of the war.

It is calculated that more than one million of the more able-bodied of the Japanese race—over one-fortieth of the entire population—has been engaged in this war. In Russia less than one in two hundred of the population has been withdrawn from civil occupations. The longer the war had continued the greater would have been the handicap against the numerically weaker power; every Japanese victory won on land would have taken the soldiers of the Mikado further and further from their base, increased their risks of defeat, doubled their expenditure and fatally delayed their opportunity for the settling and cultivating that enormous area of fertile territory to gain control of which was their principal casus belli, and the development of which is likely, in another decade, to make them thrice armed against their recent foe.

Again, if Japan remains the paramount maritime power in the Far East of what use is half of Sakhalin island to Russia? And only so long as Japan—with or without alliance—retains that maritime supremacy can she be seriously reckoned with in future international relations. Indeed it will be interesting to watch the comparative degree of advancement which the two sections of the island will make under their future respective Christian and Pagan forms of administration. We may be certain that the higher of the two civilizations will assert itself and in such a small area it will soon be easy to witness a modern illustration of the well-worn theory that the fittest survive.

Of course Japan has not obtained all she was theoretically entitled to by these reported terms of peace. As we have urged over and over again no peace was possible at this stage of the struggle unless it was founded upon a compromise, but the more the actual terms and their probable effect are examined by the political student the more it will, we believe, be recognized that Japanese statesmen have once more exhibited their prescient wisdom both by the mode and the manner in which they have acceded to the influences which have, undoubtedly, been brought to bear upon them in the interests of international peace.

That Russia and Russian sympathizers should shout as loud at the end of the encounter as they did at the beginning is probably a circumstance which affords some amusement in London as well as in Tokio.

THE TRANSATLANTIC MAILS.

Considering that, during the last decade, the Allan line has so increased the size and speed of the vessels it employs upon the Canadian trans-Atlantic route that they have now become seriously recognized rivals to the heavily subsidized British steamships which ply to United States ports it is not surprising that after mature consideration, the Dominion Government has concluded an arrangement by which the owners of the Tunisian and Bavarian, the Victorian and Virginian, will continue to be Canada's Atlantic mail carriers for another five years. That the arrangement should be made some months before the actual expiry of the existing contract is esssential inasmuch as the construction of proposed successors to the Victorian and Virginian, even in British yards, will occupy more than a year and the experience of the Cunard, White Star and other leading trans-Atlantic lines has taught us that, without some very definite understanding as to the amount of subsidy guaranteed, no private corporation will undertake the arduous responsibilities which are involved in guaranteeing the regular weekly despatch of vessels necessarily constructed upon such fine lines that as freight-carriers their earnings pay but a small percentage of their running expenses.

A company which is not tied down by contract has many advantages; it can choose its own sailing date; when the tourist season is over it can lay up those steamers which only pay expenses when their cabins are full. Those who compare the service rendered to United States ports with that afforded by the Canadian mail line are apt to forget that, between November and April, record breakers such as the Deutschland, the Kaisers and the Kronprinzes rarely figure in the sailing list; their places are occupied by the modern type of twelve or thirteen knot mammoth freight carrier.

The Postmaster-General in the United States has the opportunity to select whatever steamer is scheduled to leave in a given week and pays its owners by poundage for the mail they carry, but many of those steamers are only available for his selection in consequence of the subsidy which their Government in Europe pays them for performing the westward voyage. The British Government compensates the Cunard and White Star, the German pays the Bremen and Hamburg lines, and the French the Compagnie Transatlantique, for making regular sailings westwards winter and summer, full or empty; the Canadian service, upon the other hand, has to rely upon the Canadian Government exclusively.

During the next five years marine engineers promise us a great advance in ship-building science, almost every foreign power and every leading steamship company is imitating the example set by the Allans in experimenting with turbine machinery; also in the matter of oil fuel and new types of boilers we seem to have reached an era of novelty in construction. The two new Canadian Pacific steamships, which are to out do the performances of the Virginian, will in their turn be followed by still larger and more speedy [illegible] by 1910 [illegible] may find another great Canadian railway inclined to enter the lists as a competitor for trans-Atlantic and trans-Pacific traffic. There are, however, some shrewd observers who do not view without alarm the tendency for great railway companies, in intimate relations with the Government as subsidy earners on land, to become large operators of subsidized steamships. Such an arrangement might lead to the crushing out of legitimate competition by the mere steamship owner unable to recoup himself for losses on ocean carriage by the profits he makes out of railway traffic and land sales. The contract now understood to have been made by the Government will, without the payment of any such immense subsidy as would now be needed to secure a regular twenty-two or even twenty knot trans-Atlantic service, encourage that legitimate competition between steamship owners which will ensure the development of the sort of fast service that Canada must ultimately possess.

PEACE WITH HONOR.

Magnanimous in victory as they were heroic in battle, the Japanese have granted terms of peace to Russia that it is no exaggeration to say astonish the civilized world. There will be of a certainty claims set up on behalf of Russia that Japan has abandoned its main demands because of the necessity it is under of ending the war. The drain of men and money, we will be told, has been too severe, and Japan could not afford to continue the war. But no such claims will dim the lustre of Japan's magnanimity in the eyes of the world. The island people have shown such marvellous resource, such power of accomplishing on land and sea the tasks they set themselves, that there is almost universal confidence in the ability of Japan to continue the war to an ending that would mean the complete humiliation of Russia. That she has seen fit to choose otherwise, that she has refrained from adding humiliation to the bitterness of defeat will be taken, then, as evidence of a magnanimous spirit that is as admirable as the heroic spirit in which her sons went forth to do and die.

The peace is as honorable to Japan as the war. The struggle and its endings have revealed a new world power of the first magnitude, great in military and naval skill, but greater in the heroic spirit of its sons.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A correspondent draws attention to the fact that the present visit of the Prime Minister to Western Canada is not the first, as he accompanied the Duke of York to the Pacific Coast in 1902, and at that time received a reception as cordial as though he were himself the guest of honor.

The Attorney-General of Ontario has done well to order a magisterial investigation into the killing of the Hill lad. The verdict of the coroner's jury has aroused widespread surprise and indignation, and if some punishment is not meted to the guilty party there will be a general feeling that a serious miscarriage of justice has occurred. The indignation has not been lessened by the participation in the rifle matches at Ottawa of the confessed slayer of the boy.

President Roosevelt is certainly deserving of much of the credit that is being accorded him for his efforts in the cause of peace. As one observer remarks, if he was not able directly to influence the rulers of either Russia or Japan, his persistence kept the conference alive, and thus made a peace arrangement possible. It was on his initiation that the conference was called, and it was his negotiations that preserved its existence. He essayed an important part, and played it with energy and dignity to the end, as became the head of a great nation, friendly to both belligerents, and sincerely desirous of restoring peace between them.

HON. MR. MONTAGUE GOES WEST

Toronto, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—Hon. W. H. Montague, ex-Minister of Agriculture, has accepted the Presidency and General Managership of the Western Canada Settlers' Mutual Land Co., Limited, with head office at Winnipeg. This company is a strong one financially, with $2,000,000 paid-up capital.

I.C.R. Deficit and Its Causes

The Moncton Transcript says: It was to be expected that Tory newspapers would misrepresent facts respecting the I. C. R. deficit and its causes, but that Ontario and western Liberals would accept those misrepresentations and opposition criticisms of the I.C.R. management thereupon was not anticipated.

The course pursued is not merely unjust to the Liberal party's management of the Intercolonial but unjust to the Hon. Mr. Emmerson personally. The present Minister of Railways undertook this year to present facts respecting the Intercolonial Railway, its cost of operation and maintenance and also the revenue returns precisely as they are. In so doing, he merited being commended for his straightforward course.

Instead of distributing charges for replacing rolling stock and locomotives, chargeable to revenue over a number of years, Mr. Emmerson recognized the present needs of the I.C.R. in the lack of locomotives, and rolling stock and had its workshops taxed to their utmost capacity in replacing old cars and locomotives, with new or rebuilding the same out of revenue. The result of this policy was a considerable contribution towards the size of the deficit last year which swelled the deficit caused by the abnormal climatic conditions which prevailed during the winter months. These two factors added to the increase in wages, principally by the wage earners rather than the salaried officials and clerks produced the sum total which has been the joy of the Tory politicians and editors and the dismay of Liberal friends.

It is just as well to be frank in admitting these facts, but frankness in admitting the facts should be accompanied by the intimation that from every branch of the I.C.R. services reform is expected and demanded by the Minister of Railways. This can only be brought about by a thorough reorganization of the railway and the firm enforcement of reform measures.

The explanation given by the Tory newspapers and subscribed to by some not far thinking Liberals, that the political management of the road alone is responsible for the result, is nonsensical and unfair.

There never was a time in the history of the Intercolonial Railway when political interference in the management of the railway, or in the promotion of its employes or in the enforcement of discipline was less exercised than at the present moment. It is because of these indisputable facts that the criticism emanating from some Liberals echoing Tory misstatements is keenly felt by their political Liberal friends here in the East.

But the Intercolonial Railway last year was not alone in suffering keenly through the excessively unfavorable climatic conditions of last winter. The Grand Trunk itself suffered keenly and so, too, did many of the railways in the New England States.

In the Boston Herald of a recent date appeared a long editorial article dealing with this matter, apart altogether from the I. C. R. Its consideration was directed to conditions which existed in the New England States and the regrettable influence and effect these conditions had upon the earnings and the revenues combined with the expenditure of a great system of railways.

It stated that the people of Massachusetts are deeply concerned in the announcement respecting the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway Co. This is one of the three greatest transportation systems on which the people of the New England States depend and in which they have large investments.

The announcement of the situation respecting the first three months of the present calendar year created consternations among investors.

In those three months the railway named announced a deficit of $417,224, compared with a surplus of $115,473 in the corresponding period of the preceding year. The Boston Herald describes the announcement in its own words as "a positive shock to all who take serious interest in railroad properties."

The Boston writer proceeds to state that the railway management explains that this disastrous showing "was attributable to the severe weather conditions this year." There is also added a supplementary explanation respecting the local car service law, but The Herald points out that the law was not in operation during the three months mentioned.

The gross earnings of the railroad named during the three months actually increased by $493,929 over the gross earnings for the corresponding period of 1904. But note this fact, the operating expenses of this company owned railway, free from political influence, free from all the petty explanations of the Tory party in Canada, respecting the I. C. R., actually increased its operating expenses by $161,439 in those three months compared with the corresponding three months of 1904.

Here is a showing which in fairness to the Minister of Railways and Canals ought to be presented in every newspaper favorable to Liberal administration. The climatic conditions of the New England States last winter which prevailed in Nova Scotia, in connection with the company owned railroad named, were trivial compared with the climatic conditions which prevailed in Nova Scotia.

In fairness to Mr. Emmerson, it should not be forgotten that while the I.C.R. management was prepared to grapple with the snow question fairly well from Moncton north and west to Montreal, it was caught unawares in Nova Scotia, because the normal winter climatic conditions of Nova Scotia, so near the sea coast, are those of an open winter or comparatively light snow fall, but the climatic conditions suddenly changed and snow fell to such a depth that a load of hay could be driven over the top of the snow embedded trains from one side of the road to another and conditions were called into existence with which it was impossible to quickly grapple.

The tremendous snow fall combined with prolonged high winds, which later drifted the snow into the cuttings as rapidly as they were cleared, caused an expenditure of money for labor, in keeping open these cuttings, which had to be repeated many times before the trains could pass through.

The country on one hand was demanding that the road should be immediately opened, no matter the cost, and it was the Minister's duty to bring about this result, but it is unfair when having obeyed the popular will and wish in this respect which also was a commercial necessity that the Minister of Railways should be criticised unfairly and adversely.

Look at the result, $450,000, or nearly one-half of a million of deficit (following a surplus) alone for three months on one Company-owned railway in the New England States, due to exceptional climatic conditions. Recall the circumstances that deficits are chronic on the Intercolonial railway and when combined with that due to the severity of last winter, there were also the exceptional ones indicated in the preceding portion of this article, then ask if the criticism bestowed upon the Hon. Mr. Emmerson is just or fair. Unhesitatingly it may be said, it is not.

This for Our Money

There is an idea abroad that all the picnic locations that have been calling or are about to call, for permission to range up their junior tabernacles alongside the superior gilt-edged article of Montreal, there is a notion that our suburban little brothers have nothing to offer but several tons of debt and many acres of badly kept roadway, in exchange for the advantages of a twentieth century civilization held out by the commercial capital of the Dominion.

True, it may be, there are one or two of our island suburbs whose giving hand is not too fully weighted with gifts quite suitable for the gods of the very topmost bench!

In some directions there has certainly been setting up of the merry debit total at a first class rate, and it may be that occasion is taken of an evening when the walnuts are being cracked, to smile the smile when past present and to come financial struggles of big brother Monty are whispered by men of figures and prophecies.

All the same, there be some assets, the acquirement of which will surely come in on Greater Montreal with some degree of shine.

It ain't going to be all eclipse!

Maisonneuve, for instance, has much in the way of Sunday entertainment that could be extended and utilised in place of those theatrical shows demanded by many of those at present on the roll of citizenship and doubtless Notre Dame des Neiges in the West, and Petite Cote in the wilds of the Nor-West, quarry lands, have each one or more things that would, if better displayed, help along the gaiety some.

Even Ville St. Louis has more to set up in its front show window than a small section of ground half railway depot, half milk cans. Not to speak of such assets as a first class road roller and a water cart that splashes real water, our little neighbor on the hilltop has on her list of things to be included in the bill of benefits to be exchanged, a letter carrier who not only can run but does run when delivery duty's to be done in a hurry.

Naturally enough Ville St. Louis is proud of this young man, and looks upon him as one of the things that call for preferential treatment when it comes to a real business deal to the city of the low lands.

He is certainly more than interesting!

Come along in Mister St. Louis, and don't spill the first class specimen by the way.

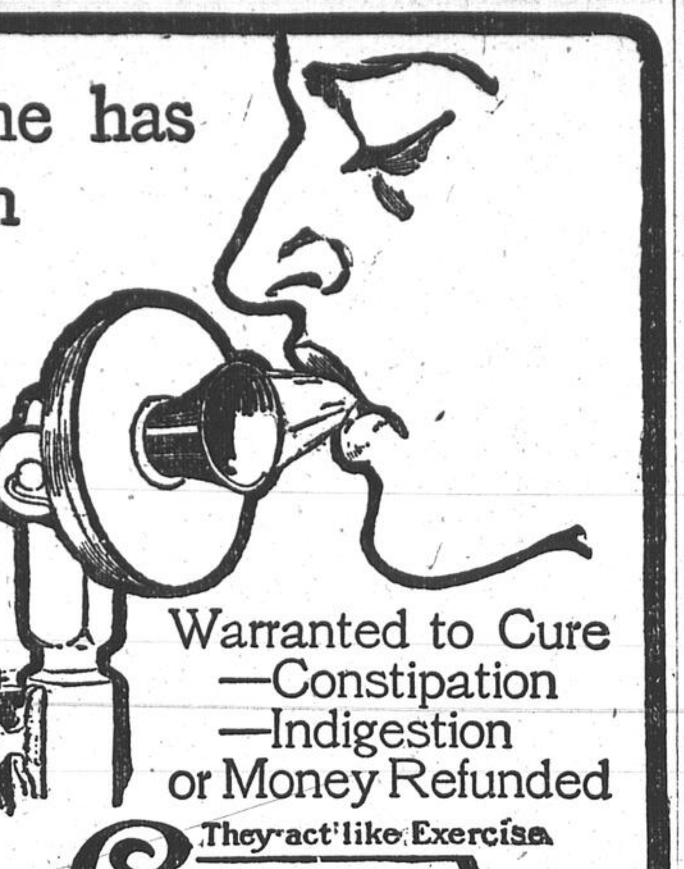
When the Telephone has a Bad Breath



THAT'S the time to take a Cascaret.
—When your Tongue is coated—
—When you have Heartburn, Belching, Acid Risings in Throat.
—When Pimples begin to peep out.
—When your Stomach Gnaws and Burns.
—That's the time to check coming Constipation, Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

One single Candy Cascaret will do it, if taken at the right minute, just when you first feel the need of it.

A "Cascaret in time is worth nine" later on.

Cascarets don't Purge, nor Weaken, nor waste Digestive Juices in flooding out the Bowels, like Salts, Castor Oil, Cathartics.

You can try Cascarets FREE before you buy. Write for Free Sample and booklet, "The Curse of Constipation," best ever printed on the subject. Address Sterling Remedy Company, 374 St. Paul St., Montreal. 658

When Appetite Fails

you must excite it, not by using drugs that harass the stomach, but by means of a condiment of quality above reproach, which tones up, stimulates and enlivens the functions of the digestive organs. Mustard, when pure, constitutes the best of aperitives; it awakens the laziest stomach. Unfortunately, almost all mustards are "compound," that is, that they contain strange products which diminish their cost, impairing their quality. There is but one STRICTLY PURE mustard sold, that is

Dr. Osler's Chloroform Theories.

A Veteran Makes Practical Protest Against Oslerian "Happy Despatch" Methods.

Some prominent citizens, chatting recently with Mr. George Murray, the veteran journalist, said to him:

"You, Mr. Murray, are a living contradiction of Dr. Osler's theories that a man begins to fail at 40 and should be chloroformed at 60.

"Why don't you start a paper—a paper that will disprove by its vigor and interest the Osler theory—a paper of NATIONAL AIMS, ON BROAD LINES. Do it, and we will back you."

This suggestion Mr. Murray has acted upon. It is responsible for the organization of which will shortly commence publication.

The Standard,

Mr. Murray has been promised the literary co-operation of some of the most celebrated men in Canada, England and the United States, who would, like himself, be victims of the Official Cloroformer if the Osler theory were put in practice.

POLICE THANK PUBLIC.

The officers of the Montreal Police Athletic Association are desirous of expressing to the public their thanks for the splendid patronage bestowed on their recent annual games. The attendance was greater than on any previous occasion, and the number of tickets taken out by all sections of the citizens beyond the outside expectations of those in charge of the affair, and the financial result means a handsome addition to the benefit fund of the city police force.

"PONTIAC'S JESSE JAMES" PLACED UNDER ARREST

Supposed to be Connected With Killing of Syrian Pedlar Near Shawville, and His Trousers Are Missing.

Bryson, Que., Aug. 30.—The coroner's jury in the Oldfield murder case has returned the following verdict:

"We find that the late George Charly or Solomon came to his death on Friday, Aug. 25, by being struck with a stone and blunt and sharp instrument in the hands of some unknown person."

Detective McCaskill has James Laderoute, a Frenchman, under arrest. The prisoner lived about three miles from Wolf Lake, and the murder was committed in a lonely little valley between two high hills, and one mile from the nearest farm house. The pedlar was last seen driving leisurely towards Shawville. Laderoute had gone in that direction previously, and repeated cries for help were heard shortly after by a farmer named Lebrun, who was unable to learn from whence they arose. Laderoute has been married eight or nine years and has two little daughters. For years he had been causing trouble at his home and had a bad reputation. He forged a cheque for $60 several months ago, and was out under suspended sentence. Always reckless, Laderoute was feared by many, and had been known as the "Jesse James of Pontiac." He always managed to get free when arrested for theft or fighting. Laderoute submitted to arrest without a murmur.

Evidence at the inquest went to show that the Syrian had been robbed of $200, while a sum of $17 had been overlooked by the murderer.

At the inquest a bailiff was sent for Laderoute's clothing. He soon returned, producing the coat, hat, vest and boots worn by the prisoner on the day of the crime, and announced that the trousers were not to be found. The shirt gave signs of having been recently been washed, but Laderoute denied it. He also said that he could not account for the disappearance of his trousers.

Preliminary hearing is set for Monday.

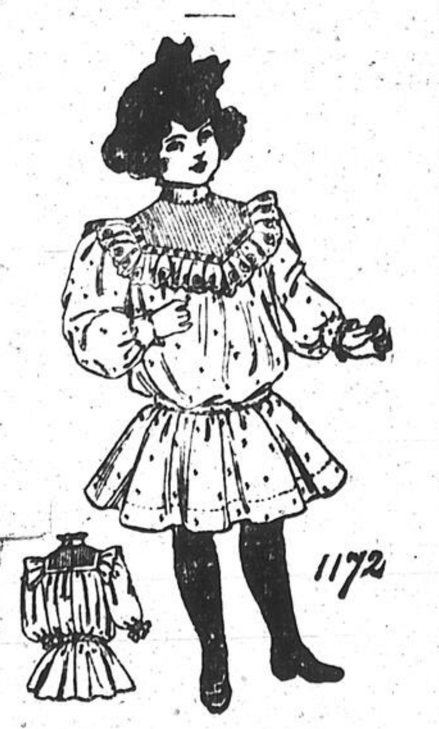
HERALD DAILY PATTERN



AN ATTRACTIVE FROCK OF BLUE LINEN

Pattern No. 1172. Sizes 2 to 8 years.

Heavy, rough-woven linen is the material chosen for developing the pretty, childish dress shown in our Parisian model to-day. The yoke is of white pongee silk. This style of frock, with loosely bloused waist and short, full skirt, is the one chiefly worn by small girls from the time they leave off baby dresses until they attain the dignity of misses' costumes. There are endless variations of the costume, but the central idea is the same, and a most becoming style it is too, for childish figures. For the fall these little slips will be made up in cashmere, serge, challie or flannel, the range of materials and colors being varied enough to suit the most fastidious taste. Remnants, picked up at a trifling cost, can often be utilized for them, as the little dresses take such a small quantity. For a child six years old it will require 3 yards of material 32 inches wide, with 1¾ yards of embroidery and 2 yards of beading, for the frock. The pattern, No. 1172, is cut in sizes for children from 2 to 8 years of age and may be obtained, post paid, by sending ten cents, the number and size desired and the name and address to The Fashion Department of this paper.

BRIGHT EYES.

Lend an Irresistible Charm to Every Face.

Clear, sparkling eyes make the plainest face beautiful. The eyes cannot be bright if the body is suffering from blood poisoning. Many people suffer from blood poisoning and do not know it, but they show it by their dull eyes, grey or sallow complexion and faded appearance. Constipation poisons the system. Instead of the blood taking up wholesome nourishment in the intestines, it absorbs the poisons which the bowels have not gotten rid of. The blood deposits these poisons wherever it can, which accounts for the dull eyes, pimples and headaches. Ripe fruit is Nature's remedy for constipation. Fruit acts on the bowels and makes them move—acts on the liver and causes more bile to flow, which is the natural purgative,—acts on the kidneys—acts on the skin and clears it and beautifies it. An Ottawa physician has discovered a process for combining the juices of oranges, apples, prunes and figs—and then by forcing into the united juices an additional atom of bitter from the orange peels, a new and very much stronger fruit is produced. The fruit extract is made into tablets, with the addition of tonics, and sold under the name of "Fruit-a-tives" or "Fruit Liver Tablets." These little tablets are easy to take, have the gentle fruit action and are a positive cure for constipation, biliousness, headaches, kidney and liver disease and all blood impurities. "Fruit-a-tives" are recommended by able physicians everywhere. For sale at Druggists 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HERALD SERIALS ARE GOOD SERIALS.

The Brethren

BY H. RIDER HAGGARD.

(Copyrighted and published exclusively in The Herald)

So Wulf went, nothing loath. In this dark season of the year when there was no fishing, it grew very dull loitering about the Hall, and since he did not read much, like Godwin, sitting for long hours by the fire at night watching Rosamund going to and fro upon her tasks, but not speaking with her overmuch. For notwithstanding all their pretence of forgetfulness, some sort of veil had fallen between the brethren and Rosamund, and their intercourse was not so open and familiar as of old. She could not but remember that they were no more cousins only, but her lovers also, and that she must guard herself lest she seemed to show preference to one above the other. The brethren for their part must always bear in mind also that they were bound not to show their love, and that their cousin Rosamund was no longer a simple English lady, but also by creation, as by blood, a princess of the East, whom destiny might yet lift beyond the reach of either of them.

Moreover, as has been said, dread sat upon that rooftree like a croaking raven, nor could they escape from the shadow of its wing. Far away in the East a mighty monarch had turned his thoughts towards this English home and the maid of his royal blood who dwelt there, and who was mingled with his visions of conquest and of the triumph of his faith. Driven on by no dead oath, by no mere fancy or imperial desire, but by some spiritual hope or need, he had determined to draw her to him, by fair means if he could; if not, by foul. Already means both foul and fair had failed, for that the attack at Death Creek quay had to do with this matter they could no longer doubt. It was certain also that others would be tried again and again till his end was won or Rosamund was dead—for here, if even she would go back upon her word, marriage itself could not shield her.

So the house was sad, and saddest of all seemed the face of the old knight, Sir Andrew, oppressed as he was with sickness, with memories and fears. Therefore, Wulf could find pleasure even in an errand to Southminster to buy wine, of which, in truth, he would have been glad to drink deeply, if only to drown his thoughts awhile.

So away he rode up Steeple Hill with the Prior, laughing as he used to do before Rosamund led him to gather flowers at St. Peter's-on-the-Wall.

Asking where the foreign merchant dwelt who had wine to sell, they were directed to an inn near the minster. Here in a back room they found a short, stout man, wearing a red cloth cap, who was seated on a pillow between two kegs. In front of him stood a number of folk, gentry and others, who bargained with him for his wine and the silks and embroideries that he had to sell, giving the latter to be handled and samples of the drink to all who asked for them.

"Clean cups," he said, speaking in bad French, to the drawer who stood beside him. "Clean cups, for here come a holy man and a gallant knight who wish to taste my liquor. Nay, fellow, fill them up, for the top of Mount Trooldos in winter is not so cold as this cursed place, to say nothing of its damp, which is that of a dungeon," and he shivered, drawing his costly shawl closer round him.

"Sir Abbot, which will you taste first —the red wine or the yellow? The red is the stronger but the yellow is the more costly and a drink for saints in Paradise and abbots upon earth. The yellow from Kyrenia? Well, you are wise. They say it was my patron St. Helena's favorite vintage when she visited Cyprus, bringing with her Disma's cross."

"Are you a Christian then?" asked the Prior. "I took you for a Paynim."

"Were I not a Christian would I visit this foggy land of yours to trade in wine—a liquor forbidden to the Moslems?" answered the man, drawing aside the folds of his shawl and revealing a crucifix upon his broad breast. "I am a merchant of Famagusta in Cyprus, Georgios by name, and of the Greek Church which you Westerners hold to be heretical. But what do you think of that wine, holy abbot?"

The Prior smacked his lips.

"Friend Georgios, it is indeed a drink for the saints," he answered.

"Ay, and has been a drink for sinners ere now—for this is the very tipple that Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, drank with her Roman lover Antony, of whom you, being a learned man, may have heard. And you, Sir Knight, what say you of the black stuff—'Mavro,' we call it—not the common, but that which has been twenty years in cask?"

"I have tasted worse," said Wulf holding out his horn to be filled again.

"Ay, and will never taste better if you live as long as the Wandering Jew. Well, sirs, may I take your orders? If you are wise you will make them large since no such chance is likely to come your way again, and that wine, yellow or red, will keep a century."

Then the chaffering began, and it was long, and keen. Indeed, at one time they nearly left the place without purchasing, but the merchant Georgios called them back and offered to come to their terms if they would take double the quantity, so as to make up a cartload between them which he said he would deliver before Christmas Day. To this they consented at length, and departed homewards made happy by the gifts with which the chapman clinched his bargain, after the Eastern fashion. To the Prior he gave a roll of worked silk to be used as an edging to an altar cloth or banner, and to Wulf a dagger handle, quaintly carved in olvie wood to the fashion of a rampant lion. Wulf thanked him, and then asked him with a somewhat shamed face if he had more embroidery for sale, whereat the Prior smiled. The quick-eyed Cypriote saw the smile, and inquired if it might be needed for a lady's wear, at which some neighbors present in the room laughed outright.

"Do not laugh at me, gentlemen," said the Eastern; "for how can I, a stranger, know this young knight's affairs, and whether he has mother, or sisters, or wife or lover? Well here are broideries fit for any of them." Then bidding his servant bring a bale he opened it, and began to show his goods, which, indeed, were very beautiful. In the end Wulf purchased a veil of gauze-like silk, worked with golden stars as a Christmas gift for Rosamund. Afterwards, remembering that even in such a matter he must take no advantage of his brother, he added to it a tunic broidered with gold and silver flowers such as he had never seen—for they were Eastern tulips and anemones, which Godwin would give her also if he wished.

These silks were costly, and Wulf turned to the Prior to borrow money, but he had no more upon him. Georgios said, however, that it mattered nothing as he would take a guide from the town and bring the wine in person, when he would receive payment for the broideries, of which he hoped to sell more to the ladies of the house.

He offered also to go with the Prior and Wulf to where his ship lay in the river, and show them many other goods aboard of her, which, he explained to them, were the property of a company of Cyprian merchants who had embarked upon this venture jointly with himself. This they declined however, as the darkness was not far off; but Wulf added that he would come after Christmas with his brother to see the vessel that had made so great a voyage. Georgios replied that they would be very welcome, but if he could make shift to finish the repairs to his rudder, he was anxious to sail for London while the weather held calm, for there he looked to sell the bulk of his cargo. He added that he had expected to spend Christmas at that city, but their helm having gone wrong in the rough weather, they were driven past the mouth of the Thames, and had they not drifted into that of the Crouch, would, he thought, have foundered. So he bade them farewell for that time, but not before he had asked and received the blessing of the Prior.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—At the opening of the autumn sittings of the Railway Commission yesterday, Mr. Drinkwater, of the C.P.R., brought up the objections to the location of the Grand Trunk Pacific line west of Winnipeg, asking that a date be fixed to hear the C.P.R.'s objections to the route. UCH KICKING AT GAME YESTERDAY irds Won 3 to 2 in 11th—Two Sailors Punished by Umpire.

Jmpire Moran and the Newark ilors enlivened yesterday's game th a series of altercations, one of iich eventuated in Jimmie Cockman d Jimmie Jones being put out of the me. Jones was disinclined to obey oran's command to hike for the ibhouse, and the stocky little ume called for the police and two huscops escorted Mr. Jones to St. therine Street.

The Birds won 3 to 2 with Frank rber in the box, and that the Sail- were not shut out was due to an ror by Barber in the seventh. Mahl- went out. F. Hartman to Lachance, but O'Hagan singled to right, d Wagner, who had replaced Cockin in the fifth, drew a base on balls. ander flied out to L. Hartman and rlarity, Jones' successor, dropped a nt down the first base line. Bar- fielded the ball cleanly, but inad of throwing promptly to first, attempted to tag Moriarity. He led to do the tagging act and esred to throw the Sailor out at first, t his throw was very wide, and bee Pat Meaney could corral the ball. Hagan and Wagner scored. Barber lled himself together and struck tins out.

Ip to the seventh the Sailors only ide one hit. Gatins was the lucky in, but he was nailed by Raub when attempted to steal second.

h the six innings only eighteen men ied Barber, and Gatins was the only e to reach first, and he was retired fore a time at bat could be record- against the next hitter.

n the ninth and tenth innings the ilors got men on the bases, but good lding by the Birds and heady pitch- by Barber prevented a score.

The Birds had two men left on the ses in each of the first two innings. the third, with two down, Dutch irtman picked out one of Fertsch's oicest offerings and straightened it for a home run, the ball going er the left field fence well down m the foul line. It was a mighty ut, and the ball sailed to St. Cathne Street on a dead line, being at time more than twenty feet from ground.

The fifth was the lively innings of game. Wiedy led off with a hit left field and was sacrificed to sec- by Meaney. Bannon drew a base balls and Dutch Hartman dropped ball back of the pitcher. Gatins s slow in fielding the sphere, and ien he did get it, it was too late head Dutch off at first, so he threw Cockman to catch Meaney at third. was a close decision, but Umpire ran called the runner safe.

mmediately Cockman expostulated th more force than politeness and was ordered out of the game. The ier Sailors sent up a howl of pro- t, and finally Moran gave them five nutes in which to shut up and comnce playing. This ultimatum sent m fieldwards, but Jones dallied by way in what the umpire consider- an insolent manner and he, too, s requested to desert the diamond. nother howl went up to heaven, Manager Burnham took a hand the discussion. Exasperated by the itinuance of the row, Moran called police and requested them to re- ve Jones. Jones promptly asked m to remove Moran, but he was lared out of order and was taken the clubhouse.

For a few minutes Moran's life was ide miserable by the Sailors, who him things not mentioned in any rk of etiquette. Eventually his tience became exhausted and he re the visitors a minute in which get into the game again. Reluc- tly they obeyed the order.

oyce drove a hot liner at Wagner the latter muffing it Meaney red. Raub ended the innings by ng out on an infield hit.

The Birds didn't cinch the game till eleventh. Lachance reached first a scratch hit to Mahling. Lou rtman fouled out to Shea. Lachance stole second and Barber fanned. Wiedy hit a liner to left and Lachance scored. The ball hit just inside the chalk line and the Sailors kicked strenuously when Moran adjudged it fair.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Both Wagner and Moriarity were guilty of muffs.

Cockman's error was a low throw to O'Hagan. It wasn't expensive.

Lachance led off with a triple in the sixth, but was stranded on third.

The Birds got one or more hits off Fertsch in every innings but the eighth and tenth.

Gatins said he would protest the game on account of Moran putting Jones out of the game.

The Birds have, during the present home series, won 13 out of 19 games. They have lost 5 and drawn 1.

Dutch Hartman's drive had terrific force behind it. This is his second home run this season over the St. Catherine Street fence.

Within the week McCarthy and Barber have robbed themselves of the credit of pitching shut out games by throwing wildly to first.

With one gone in the seventh Bannon singled to centre and went to second on Joyce's hit to Wagner, thinking the side was out, he left the base and was tagged by Mahling. Jimmie doesn't care to have the incident recalled.

Few more brilliant plays have been made at Atwater Park than that pulled off by Lou Hartman in the third. Jones smashed a grounder through the pitcher's box. It looked to be safe as a church, but Hartman gathered it in on the dead run with one hand, and, by a remarkable throw, retired the Sailor at first.

FAMOUS ATHLETES ARE COMING HERE

They Will Take Part in the Caledonian Games on Labor Day.

Additional interest will be lent to the Caledonian games, Labor Day, by the entries of six famous New York athletes, T. J. Walsh, H. L. Hillman, P. Sheridan, J. S. Mitchell, F. Sebrick and H. V. Valentine. Their entries were received last night.

The prospects for the success of the games are bright, as the number of entries received and the athletic abilities of the contestants assure a good afternoon's sport.

In the shot distance events, 100 yards, 220 yards and 440 yards, Walsh, Hillman and Valentine, of New York, will represent the United States; Morton will represent England, and Morrow, Molson and Lukeman, of the M.A.A.A., and Kerr, of Hamilton, will be among the representatives of Canada.

Mitchell and Sheridan will be entered against the Desmarteau brothers in the weight events and as both the Montreal constables have been smashing records this summer, a first in some of the events is likely to mean a new Canadian, if not a new world's mark. Sheridan, one of the best all around men in America, will compete in the jumps also.

The Harriers' League and its weekly runs has developed a promising lot of distance runners in Montreal this summer and men like Stanley and Palmer, of the M.A.A.A., and Woods, of the Gordons, will be in the running all the time, with the distance men from the West. Elwood Hughes and J. J. Thompson, of the Toronto Y.M.C.A., are entered, as are also Arthur Burns and Williams, of Ottawa, for the two and five miles.

EXCELLENT RACING ON GRAND CIRCUIT

Walter Direct is Distanced After Winning Two Heats in 2.09 Class.

Providence, R.I., Aug. 30.—About 1,000 persons journeyed to Narragansett Park yesterday, the principal attraction being the Park Brew stakes, purse $5,000. The crowd saw six heats of the event raced before the deciding heat went over to-day, with Allerson and Edwin C. both having two heats to their credit, while the favorite, Walter Direct, after capturing the second and third heats, became lame in the fourth and was distanced. He went off his feet as he turned the first quarter in the heat and the entire field went by him. Geers managed to get him going again, but too late, and he finished outside the flag.

In the first race Deleree was favorite over the field, and Harrison Wilkes, the second choice. The latter won the first two heats, dropped the next two to Leonard O., and in the fifth heat took the race. In the first heat he lowered his mark a half second to 2.11¼.

The bay mare, Ethel's Pride, on account of previous performances, was thought to be the best of the field in 2.13 trot, but failed to come up to expectations. Lizzie G., driven by A. L. McDonald, had the pole in this race and carried off both heats.

In the 2.13 pace Phalia was favorite, with Lady Sealskin second choice. Queen of Spades, with slight backing, captured the first heat, after which Lady Sealskin took the next two and the race, getting a mark of 2.06½ in the final one. Summary:—

HORSEMEN INVITED TO FREDERICTON EXHIBITION

Six Races on Programme, Each With $300 Purse—Entries Close Sept. 11.

Fredericton, N.B., Aug. 30.—In connection with the Fredericton Exhibition, which lasts a full week this year, the Fredericton Trotting Park Association will hold a three days' race meeting on their track, adjoining the exhibition grounds.

The directorate of the association are sparing no efforts or expense to make the meeting the most successful ever held in the Celestial City or conducted in the Maritime Provinces for many years. The executive ability and knowledge of harness racing in personnel of the directorate is such as to lead one to believe that the management will be all that can be desired.

Since the last big race meeting over their track at the time of the 1903 Fredericton Exhibition, the association have expended in a judicious manner large sums of money at their track for improvements. The track itself has been kept up to the usual standard and enough improvements made to make it as fast and well constructed a half mile oval as is in the Maritime Provinces. When the horsemen arrive they will find free hay and straw and good-stabling free with running water.

Horsemen will appreciate the thoughtfulness of the directorate in arranging with the Intercolonial Railway for a fast freight train direct to Fredericton upon the close of the Halifax Exhibition, and moreover race horses entered in exhibition classes will be entitled to exhibitors railway privileges. A change in the original entry blanks has been made so that records made at or after the opening meetings of the Maritime Circuit at Springhill on Aug. 28 are "no bar."

The programme of classes follow:

Friday, Sept. 22.

Class.	Purse.
2.40, trot and pace	$300
2.25, trot and pace	300
Saturday, Sept. 23.

2.28, trot and pace	300
Monday, Sept. 25.

The entries close with T. H. Colter, secretary of the Fredericton Trotting Park Association, on Sept. 11, and all applications for entry blanks and general information should be addressed to him at Fredericton, N.B.

CANADIAN CRICKETERS DEFEATED AMERICAN XI.

Toronto, Aug. 30. — The Canadians finished their first innings in the international cricket match yesterday morning with a score of 245, giving them a lead of 118 runs.

When the Americans went in for their second innings, it was thought they would certainly knock off the arrears and still give the Canadians a lot to do. However, such did not prove to be the case, and, as a matter of fact the visitors seemed even more completely at the mercy of the bowlers than they were on their first attempt. At the lunch adjournment the score stood 30 for three wickets. The innings were closed in the afternoon with a score of 89, Canada thus being victorious in the international match of 1905 by an innings and 29 runs.

POLO MATCHES AT ST. LAMBERT

The Toronto and Montreal Teams Play Thursday and Saturday.

The Toronto and Montreal polo teams will play two matches at St. Lambert this week, the first to-morrow afternoon and the second Saturday afternoon.

The Toronto team will be strong, its members being Alfred Beardmore, No. 1; Captain Von Straubenzie, No. 2; Larry McCarthy, No. 3, and D. Baxter, No. 4. Captain J. H. Elmsley will be substitute.

Montreal's team this season has been strengthened by the addition of Lieut.-Col. Williams, of Kingston, who last year was the star of the Toronto team. He will play No. 2 to-morrow. Mr. G. A. Simard will be No. 1, Major Meighen No. 3, and Dr. Arthur Mignault No. 4. Mr. O. Beaudry will be substitute. Mr. F. N. Beardmore, brother of the member of the Toronto team, will probably play with Montreal on Saturday in the second game.

The polo grounds have never been in better shape, and the increasing interest in the game will probably bring a big crowd to St. Lambert's for the two games.

To-morrow Mr. T. A. Beaudoin will be Montreal's umpire, Mr. Spackman timekeeper, and Mr. Hugh Watson scorer. The referee will be chosen by the captains of the teams to-day.

WESTMOUNT CLUB'S BOWLING TOURNEY

Will Take Place on Kensington Greens, September 14, 15 and 16.

The members of the Westmount Bowling Club have watched with interest the growing popularity which has been manifested here and elsewhere during the last year in the game of lawn bowls, and which has resulted in the establishment of certain new clubs throughout the Province of Quebec. As the pioneers of Scotch bowling in this province they purpose holding an open tournament on Sept. 14, 15 and 16 with a view of further stimulating and encouraging the game, and hope thereby to assist in placing it in its true position amongst athletics, their aim being to have it play the same part in the social life of this province as it does in Ontario. The members have every confidence in inviting their fellow bowlers throughout the country to participate in the forthcoming tournament; they can then a lawn which, it is acknowledged, has not a superior in Canada, and of such a kind as will enable the game to be played to perfection. The committee has selected prizes for the different competitions, and these will be of a very handsome kind and will provoke the keenest rivalry. The club trusts that their bowling friends throughout Canada will bear these dates in mind, and will, by their presence, evince their practical interest in the growth and development of the game in this province.

Play will commence at nine o'clock each day.

The trophy competitions will be as follows:

Open to any four players — First prizes, four cases, dessert or fish knives, fluted ivory handles. Second prizes, four silver-plated entree dishes.

Association competition—First prizes, four sterling silver flower vases; second prizes, four wedgewood biscuit jars.

Doubles—First prizes, two "Dorflinger" cut glass vases; second prizes, two "Dorflinger" cut glass vases.

Singles—First prize, handsome travelling bag; second prize, cut glass biscuit jar; two third prizes, French bronze inkstands.

Arrangements have been made with the G.T.R. and C.P.R. for special convention railway rates. Visitors are required to purchase to Montreal one single one-way ticket and to obtain at the same time an ordinary standard convention certificate, which must be handed to the honorary secretary, who will endorse the certificate, entitling the visitor to return home at one-third of a full single fare.

The entrance fee must accompany the entries.

Rinks—$4 each rink, entitling the players to take part in both the rink competitions, subject to the conditions thereof.

Scotch doubles—$1 each player.

Singles—$1 each player.

Entries for rinks must be in the hands of the honorary secretary not later than 8 p.m. on Monday, 11th September, 1905. The draw will be made at the clubhouse, corner Kensington avenue and Sherbrooke street, at 8.30 p.m on Monday, and will be published in the Montreal papers on Tuesday, the 12th.

Entries for Scotch doubles and singles will close on the grounds on Thursday, the 14th, at 6.30 p.m. The draw will be made that evening and posted immediately on the lawns.

As far as possible no two rinks from the same club will be drawn against each other in the first round.

In the trophy competition 18 ends will be played (21 in finals). In the association competitions 15 ends will be played (18 in finals). In the Scotch doubles 13 ends will be played (16 in finals). Singles, 15 points will constitute a game, final (21 points).

C.A.A.U. CHAMPIONSHIPS WILL BE DECIDED SEPT. 16

The twenty-second annual championships of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union will be decided at the M.A.A.A. grounds, Sept. 16, and it is likely that in the matter of entries the meet will eclipse any of its predecessors.

The events as given in the official programme now issued will be: 100 yards run, 220 yards run, 440 yards run, 880 yards run, one mile run, one mile relay race, two mile run 120 yards hurdles (3 ft. 6 in) running high jump, running broad jump, throwing 56-lb. weight, throwing 16-lb. hammer, putting 16-lb. shot, throwing discus.

Entries close with the secretary, Dr. Fred. J Tees, M.A.A.A. clubhouse, Peel Street, on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

LAST YACHTING RACE OF SEASON

Will Take Place on Labor Day, Monday, September 4.

The last of the regular yachting races on Lake St. Louis this year will be that for the Baie d'Urfe—Beaurepaire Challenge Cup, on Labor Day.

The committe controlling the challenge cup have this year decided upon a new departure—the institution of the Dingley Cup—to be a perpetual annual trophy. In 1898, the committee were instrumental in introducing the Morse Dinghy on Lake St. Louis, and there are now scores of these able little crafts on the water about Montreal. Since 1899 there has been annually a Dinghy race at the Baie d'Urfe-Beaurepaire regatta, and it has been decided that the names of the winners of these races will be inscribed on the new trophy, which, therefore, begins its career with an "honor role" of six names.

The Baie d'Urfe-Beaurepaire committee considers that it is most advisable that the original simplicity of the class should be maintained, and they therefore have presented a very handsome trophy—to be raced for annually under the following deed of gift:

"The Baie d'Urfe-Beaurepaire Dinghy Cup by the Baie d'Urfe-Beaurepaire Challenge Cup Committee, under the following terms and conditions.

The cup is offered for annual competition between twelve feet length over all dinghys, as designed by Mr. Wilton Morse, of Toronto, carrying not more than seventy-five feet of sail, in one place. All dinghys to be eligible for competition for this cup must be sound and of solid construction, without decks, waterways or water screens, and be equipped with row locks for at least one pair of sculls, and centreboards that must house entirely within the boats without coming above the thwarts or seats.

1. The committee reserve the right to refuse to accept the entry of any boat which, in their opinion, is in any way a harmful departure from the standard Morse Dinghy.

2. The race shall be sailed around a triangular couse of half a mile to the leg, to be laid out in deep water in the channel between Baie d'Urfe and Beaurepaire, and shall not be less than three, nor more than four and a half miles in length.

3. The winer of the cup for the year may be required to give bonds for its return to the custody of the committee prior to the date of the annual race in each year.

4. The race shall be sailed under the rules of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

5. The committee of the Baie d'Urfe-Beaurepaire Challenge Cup shall have full charge and control of the annual race, and their decision on all matters relating thereto shall be final."

Besides the handicap race for the Challenge Cup, and the race for the Dingh Cup, there will be prizes given for the first and second boats in all club classes that fill. Entries should be sent to Mr. C. P. Sclater, officer of the day, Bell Telephone Building.

BEALS WRIGHT OR HOBART TO PLAY HOLCOMBE WARD

Newport, R.I., Aug. 30.—Through the success yesterday in the semi-finals of the all-comers' tennis tournament, Beals C. Wright, of Boston, and Clarence Hobart, of New York, will meet in the finals to-day to decide which shall have the honor of challenging Holcombe Ward, of Orange, N.J., for the United States singles, championship. Wright defeated William A. Larned, of Summit, N.J., who already has his name twice on the championship cup, in a four-set match, the first set of which Larned won. The scores were 4—6, 6—3, 6—2, 6—2. Hobart won his way into the finals after a hard-fought contest with Kreigh Collins, of Chicago, five sets being played. The scores: 4—6, 6—4, 7—9, 6—4, 6—4.

Dashing play won Wright's match with Larned, while consummate steadiness enabled Hobart to defeat lins.

TOURNAMENT AT NIAGARA.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Aug. 30. The twenty-first annual international tournament opened yesterday afternoon on the courts of the Queen's Royal Hotel. Ideal weather prevailed. The entry list is a much larger one than in former years, and includes a number of the cracks who have been playing at Newport, in the national tournament. The men's open singles and ladies' singles will be started to-day, the handicap and the all-Canadian champion to-morrow, and the Buffalo-Toronto on Friday.

The scores yesterday were:—International singles—Irving Wright beat E. Field, 6—4, 4—2. D. M. Stewart beat R. Rumsey, 6—2, 6—4. W. A. Boys beat W C. Grant, 3—6, 6—4, 7—5.

WRIGHT DEFEATS LARNED.

Newport, R.I., Aug. 30.—In the national lawn tennis semi-finals yesterday Wright defeated Larned 4—6, 6—3, 6—2, 6—2.

In the other half of the semi-finals Hobart defeated Collins 6—4, 4—6, 7—9, 6—4.

This will bring Wright and Hobart together to-morrow in the finals.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—The preliminary meeting of the new executive of the O.R.F.U. was held last night at the King Edward Hotel. H. L. The next meeting will be held on Sept. 8.

SPORTING NOTES

The committee of the Montreal Football Association will meet on Thursday evening at 8.30 at the M.A.A.A. Club House. The team to meet the Pilgrims, now on their way over from England, will be selected.

London, Aug. 30.—The gate receipts for the recent match between Towns and Stanbury for the sculling championship amounted to £1,000. Of this amount Towns received 75 per cent., the other 25 going to Stanbury.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 30.—Jack Carey, the Montana cowboy, defeated Doc Fillmore, Canadian champion, in a wrestling match here last night. Carey took the first two falls in 19 minutes and 20 seconds and 12 minutes respectively.

A championship game of baseball was played between the Maples of St. Henry and the Wanderers of the Points. The Wanderers defeated the Maples by the score of 22 to 19. Now both teams are even for the championship. The game to decide the championship of the Church League will likely be played on Labor Day.

New York, Aug. 30.—The American quarter-mile amateur cycle championship was captured last night at the Vailsburg track in Newark by Teddy Billington, of the National A. C., of Brooklyn. His clubmate, Jas. Zanes, finished second. Iver Lawson, of Salt Lake City, was defeated in straight heats by Frank L. Kramer, American champion for the last four years.

MRS. CORNELL DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Cornell, of 89 Hallowell street, Westmount, was found dead at her home this morning. A doctor was called in and he reported the matter to Coroner McMahon, who is making an investigation. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of the woman's death.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

C.P.R. Climbs Still Higher; Markets Incline to Weakness

Improvement is Looked for During the Next Few Days.

With peace a certainty, it was expected that the local market would have made a much better showing than it did to-day. There were a good many more sellers than buyers, and this had the tendency to depress prices somewhat. The general opinion was that in a few days the market would show up much better.

Canadian Pacific again to-day gave a number of Canadians cause to regret they had parted so willingly with their stock when it was selling around 140. After closing in the Wall street market yesterday at 164 1-2, the stock opened there to-day a full point up at 165 1-2, but this price was the best of the day.

Before the Wall street market opened the stock had been active in the London market, and it was the strong demand there that caused the big advance in the opening price in New York.

On the local exchange there could not be said to be any movement in the stock, a few small lots only selling around 165. As one broker remarked, it was ridiculous to think any trader would buy the stock here when he could make a much better profit by getting the stock through a New York house.

The activity in the stock was most marked right after the opening. Towards noon the price eased somewhat, and sales were made down to 163 7-8. The total sales to noon were 17,500 shares. After to-morrow the stock will be selling ex-dividend.

The record of the stock for the past few years has been as follows:

	High.	Low.
1900	100	86
1901	116 5-8	87
1902	145 3-8	110 1-4
1903	138 1-2	116 3-8
1904	135 1-8	110

What the advance means in dollars and cents is indicated by the fact that last year, figuring on a capitalization of $101,000,000, the total capital of the company had a market value of $111,000,000, while to-day it has a market value of not less than $165,600,000, a gain from the low level of last year of $54,000,000.

The volume of trading in the local market was very limited, and the changes in price were very small.

Detroit United again displayed a slight tendency to sell off, and after opening at 95 sold at 94 3-4.

A few large lots of Mackay common were taken at 42, which was the same price as reached in the Toronto market yesterday. The stock has been much more active in the western market than here.

Toledo sold fractionally higher at 35 1-4, but the demand for the stock was not very great.

Dominion Iron common sold 22 1-4, which was fractionally better than yesterday.

Montreal Power sold 90 3-4 to 91.

Richelieu again continued its upward movement and closed at 76 1-2, the best price of the day. Toronto Rails sold 106.

Wall Street Market

Wall Street, noon.—Business contracted and the market was steady at the decline until near noon, when the decline was renewed. St. Paul fell two points and Union Pacific, Erie, N.Y.C. and Louisville & Nashville and other favorites extended their losses to a point or more. Bonds were steady.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Norris P. Bryant—It is believed that financiers will not care to float large Russian or Japanese loans until details of the treaty have been worked out, an operation requiring considerable time and with other factors carrying this matter beyond the crop-moving time.

E. & C. Randolph—Tractions were the strongest feature and held up well in face of weakness elsewhere. After the first half hour transactions fell off largely and since has been on a small scale. The tone now remains unchanged with call funds at 2¼.

Total sales to noon on Wall Street were 483,000 shares.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Noon—The opening was decidedly heavy and failed to reflect the strength in London. Japanese were active and strong. Canadian Pacific was the exception to the general weakness, advancing under London buying. There seemed to be a good deal of stock for sale on the declaration of peace, but good support developed. St. Paul eased off readily. The decline in Copper was stubbornly contested. Union Pacific and Steels acted fairly well. Do not look for much of a market for next few days, but prices should begin soon to discount improved conditions.

Charles Head & Co.—"The Boston bear operator continued to put out adverse bulletins and was thought to be active on the selling side. The tone of the market is very feverish and the fluctuations extremely irregular with the dealings largely professional.

Russian Bonds Higher

Paris, Aug. 30.—Trading on the Bourse to-day was extremely active on the news of the conclusion of peace, Russians rising with a bound.

Russian Imperial four's of 1901 rose over six francs and those of 1904 rose twenty francs.

Berlin, Aug. 30.—On the Bourse today there was lively speculation. Russian bonds rose three points and nearly everything else, both home and foreign went up, from one to twenty points.

Jap Bonds Active

The Japanese bonds though very active on the New York market did not show much change in price. The failure to show much of an advance was ascribed to the fact that as there was not any indemnity paid Japan, she would not be likely to redeem the present loans nearly as soon as had been expected. The new 4½ per cent. bonds opened at 91⅞, and though they varied some small fractions sold at the same price at noon; th eold 4½ per cent. bonds opened at 92, sold later at 91⅞ and again at 92; the 6s bonds sold at 101⅞ and the 6s 2d bonds at 100⅞ to 101.

Can. Securities in London

The Canadian Gazette in its last number says of Canadian securities in London:

"The past few days have been by no means devoid of beneficial influences. There has been a good investment demand for the principal Canadian securities with the result that prices are better."

In Dominion issues Canada 3 1-2 per cents. are 1 up at 102, and the 4 per cents. (1910-35) and 3 per cents. are both 1-2 better at 103 1-2 and 99 respectively, while in Provincial stock Nova Scotia 3 1-2 per cents. (1942) are 1 firmer at 95, and the 3 1-2 per cents. (1954) have had a similar rise to 95 1-2. As already mentioned, there has been a good inquiry for Canadian Pacific shares, and the price has risen 3 3-4 to 164 3-4, while the 5 per cent. bonds are 1-2 up at 110 1-2. The movements in Grand Trunk stocks have been appreciable, especially in the third preference, which is 2 3-4 up at 54 1-2, on greatly improved dividends prospects, while the second preference is 2 higher at 104 1-4, the guaranteed 3-4 to 102 3-4., the ordinary 9-16 at 23 1-2, and the first preference 1-4 at 112 1-4, while in sympathy the 4 per cent. debentures stock has improved 1-2 to 109., and the Great Western 5 per cent. debenture stock 1 at 131. In the other railway issues Alberta shares are 2 1-2 better at 67 1-2 and the debenture stock has risen 1 to 98. "Soo" second mortgage bonds are 1 higher at 103. Ontario and Quebec stock is 2 up at 139, and Nakusp and Slocan, 4 per cent.. bonds and Qu'Appelle, Long Lake, etc., bonds have both gained 1 to 99 and 79 respectively.

Marked attention has been paid to Canadian land shares, with the result that values have further increased. As compared with a week ago Hudson's Bays are 3 1-2 up to 74 1-4, Canadian Northwest Land common have jumped up 5 1-2 to 86 buyers and Calgary and Edmonton Land shares are 1-8 better at 2 1-8.

Scotia Doing Well

Writing on the Nova Scotia Steel Company, the editor of The Mining Record, says:

"I do not profess to know a very great deal about the steel end of the business, but the coal end is doing so well, that of itself it is making profit to meet nearly the full amount of the fixed charges. I do not say that Sydney No. 1 is producing as cheap coal as some of the Dominion collieries, but I have no hesitation in saying that Sydney No. 1 now the larger producer of the two, is producing coal at a price which would have been thought impossible for Sydney mines five years ago. If the steel end of the business is doing itself half as well as the coal end, the Montreal brokers who amuse themselves by wagering the particular stock that will first resume payments of dividends may risk a little on Nova Scotia Steel. At least all the stock will earn a dividend. It is just possible that while the company needs no money for construction, it would be none the worse of a little more for working capital."

MARKET REPORTS.

Eighty Per Cent. of Wheat Cut; Bulk of Crop Practically Safe

In the Dauphin District the Cut Has Been Simply Phenomenal.

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—The weather today is cool and cloudy but dry. South winds swept the West last night, and the farmers are again hard at it in the harvest fields. C. N. Bell, secretary of the Grand Exchange, was asked to-day what he considered a fair estimate of the crop. He said it was difficult to venture an exact figure, owing to the measure of uncertainty regarding the exact average, and possibility even at this stage of shrinkage owing to the weather, but he believed ninety million bushels would not be far short of the mark. Mr. Bell says the crop is certainly a phenomenal one.

Hon. Peter Jensen, vice-president of the Saskatchewan Valley Land Co., returned this morning from a tour of the wheat districts. He is a prominent Minnesotan, who makes a special study of crop conditions.—"Eighty per cent. of the wheat has been cut," he said to-day. "The crops in Dauphin district are phenomenal. The wheat will average about thirty-five bushels per acre."

By the end of this week the great bulk of the crop will certainly be safe.

The Provision Market

There were no new developments in the provision market which rules very firm for all lines. The trade in smoked meats is active and the demand for lard is fair, but abattoir fresh-killed dressed hogs are quiet at $10 to $10.25 per 100 lbs.

Heavy Canada short cut mess pork, in tierces, $30.00 to $31.00; heavy Canada short cut mess, $20.00 tot $21.00 Canada short cut back pork, $19.00 to $20.00; heavy Canada long cut mess pork; none, heavy Canada short cut clear pork, $18.00 to $19.00; heavy flank pork, $21.00 tot $22.00; light Canada short cut clear pork, none.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain—There continues to be a good demand from foreign sources for Manitoba spring wheat for October shipments but local grain men say that the recent advance in ocean freight rates makes the foreign bids fully 1-2c per bushel out of line. The local market for coarse grains is quiet and steady but lower prices are expected as soon as the new crop arrives. Old crop oats are selling at 42 1-2c for No. 2 white, and at 41 1-2c for No. 3 do. per bushel, ex store. New crop oats are quoted at 37c to 38c for No. 2, and at 36c to 37c for No. 3.

Flour—The condition of the local flour market is unchanged but a further decline in winter wheat grades is predicted. Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.30 to $5.40; strong bakers, $5 to $5.10; winter wheat patents, $4.80 to $4.90; straight rollers, $4.45 to $4.60; and in bags, $2.15 to $2.25.

Millfeed—The tone of the market for millfeed is firm, the demand being very good. Manitoba bran, in bags, $17 to $18; shorts, $20 to $21; per ton; Ontario bran, in bulk, $14.50 to $15; shorts, $19 tot $20; milled mouillie, $21 to $24; straight grain mouillie, $28 to $29 per ton.

Rolled Oats—Business in rolled oats continues quiet, but the tone of the market is still steady at $2.40 to $2.42½ per bag, and cornmeal at $1.45 to $1.50 per bag.

Hay—The demand for baled hay is good and the undertone to the market is firm: No. 1, $8.50 to $9; No. 2, $7.50 to $8; clover, mixed, $6.50 to $7; and pure clover, $6 to $6.25 per ton, in car lots.

Cheese Boards

Campbellford, August 30.—At the cheese board, 1,590 boxes were boarded, price offered, 11 1-16c, no sales on board, some buying after the board on the curb at board bid.

Stirling, August 30—At the cheese board, 1,100 boxes were boarded 900 boxes sold at 11 3-16c, balance refused at 11 1-8c.

Three Rivers, Que., August 30.—At the butter and cheese board 273 boxes of butter and 204 boxes of cheese were offered; 145 boxes of salted butter sold at 21 5-8c. All cheese sold at 11 1-16c.

Roxton Falls, Aug. 30.—At the cheese board here the offerings were 870 boxes. Sales were made at 11 1-8c.

Country Produce

Beans—The market for beans is quiet and unchanged at $1.55 to $1.65 per bushel for choice primes.

Honey—Business in honey is fairly good, the demand for white clover comb being active at 12c to 13c and 8 1-2c tot 9c per lb. for extracted.

The demand for maple produce is limited and prices are nominal.

Hops—There is no change in hops for which the demand continues slow: Choice Canadians, 26c to 27c, and fair to good at 22c to 23c per lb.

Potash—The demand for potash is very slow and the market dull. Firsts at $5.07 1-2 tot $5.10; seconds at $4.50 to $4.55, and pearls at $7 per 100 lbs.

Wheat Inspection

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—Wheat inspections here to-day were as follows: No. 3 northern, 1 car; no grade, 1 car; other grades, 2 cars; total, 4 cars; same date last year, 13 cars.

Wheat Market

At the Winnipeg market this morning 77 1-4 was bid for September options at the opening and 77 1-2 was bid later. For October options 76 3-4 was bid at the opening and later sales were made at 76 3-4.

At the Chicago market September options were quoted at 78 5-8 at the opening and later at 78 3-8. December options were quoted at 80 1-2 at the opening and later at 80 1-4. May options were quoted at 83 1-2.

Cheese, Butter and Eggs

The receipts of cheese this morning were 21,105 boxes. The market is quiet and steady at 11 5-8 to 11 3-4 for Ontario and 11 3-8 to 11 1-2 for Quebec makes. A few sales of small lots are reported at the ruling market quotations, but dealers say that there is very little profit in the business. It is expected that the country boards will be weaker this week if the English market does not become firmer. It is not likely that the decline will be permanent, however. The English market is said to be short of cheese, and it is likely that high prices will be realized in September. At present the English dealers are filling their orders with lower grade cheese, and are keeping out of the market as much as possible.

The receipts of butter this morning were 4,424 packages. The local demand is active, but business is quiet in the export line. Holders are quoting good to choice creamers at 22 1-4c and fancy lots at 22 1-2c. Cable offers of 22c were received this morning.

The receipts of eggs this morning were 832 cases. The market is firm under a good demand for local consumption. Straight receipts were selling at 17 1-2c to 18c and selected at 21c to 22c.

Western Wheat of Splendid Quality

Mr. Robert Meighen, of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, this morning exhibited on the Board of Trade a sample of wheat which he received from the company's elevator at Warden, Man. The wheat is of very high grade, and the members of the board who examined the sample expressed the opinion that it is the best for milling purposes that has been grown in Canada for several years.

INSURANCE STOCKS ADVANCE IN VALUE

Steady Improvement Despite Heavy Payments For Losses.

Despite the excessive fire losses of the past two years, fire insurance stocks have made steady and substantial gains for almost all the important underwriting institutions. In some instances rather spectacular advances have been scored, notwithstanding the heavy payments in connection with the Baltimore and Toronto conflagrations of 1904. This is notable in the case of the Hartford Fire, Continental and Home, of New York, Connecticut of Hartford, the Commercial Union, London & Lancashire, and the Union of London. The features which contributed to the sucess of these instituions are varied, but in the main the improvement is due to sound underwriting judgment, expansion of business, judicious investments and old established agency connections.

The subjoined table gives the stock quotations of most of the prominent fire insurance corporations of this city, Hartford and England. These are some instances where no material change in price is recorded, but this does not of necessity indicate that the values are not higher, but simply that the shares are so closely held that the quotations remain nominal. In the case of the Westchester there have been no sales recorded since the price reached 400, wheras the book value now stands at 556. The quotations given in the table are in per cent. for New York and Hartford stocks, while the English companies are quoted in pounds sterling per share.

Referring to the foregoing, we wish to call the attention of our clients and the general public to the security and profitableness of this investment.

Before offering these bonds to our clients we made a very careful investigation of the properties and rights of the Maritime Coal & Railway Company, Limited, securing the best expert advice. Messrs. Greenshields, Greenshields & Heneker, Advocates, pronounced favorably on the validity of the title and Messrs. McGibbon, Casgrain, Mitchell & Surveyer, Advocates, have passed on the legality of the mortgage to secure the bondholders.

As to the value of the property and the ample security offered, we have received extremely favorable reports from John E. Hardman, S.B., and James Baird, Chairman Board of Examiners for Mining Certificates for the Province of Nova Scotia. Another report from A. V. Cameron, Deputy Inspector Department of Mines of Nova Scotia, is most satisfactory.

Though the real work of winning the coal from the Company's properties has not yet begun, the first complete year under the present management, which ended February, 1905, shows a net profit equal to nearly six times the required amount of the interest on the present outstanding bonds. The month of June shows a net profit of over eight times the required interest.

The very strong Directorate of the Company is a guarantee of thorough competent and energetic management.

We would like to give anyone interested full particulars of this safe and remunerative investment. Write and we will send a prospectus giving full details and extracts from the different reports on the property.

35c AND 50c SALES TO-MORROW

THE LAST ONE-PRICE OR "DOUBLE HEADER" SALE OF THE SEASON

We take pride in what we have accomplished during preceding one-price and "double header" events, and naturally are optimistic as to what we shall do on the morrow—the occasion of the 35c and 50c sales—the last of the kind for a season. A splendid climax to a splendid months business—a fitting wind-up to the most successful season we've yet encountered. Cease regretting the sales—the chances you have missed. Resolve to be a participant in those of to-morrow.

In your promenade along St. Catherine street this evening take a peep at the window displays of considerable quantities of the goods selected for this sale.

GREEN TICKETS DISTINGUISHING THEM there, and will also be their location mark in the store to-morrow.

These special values are certain to interest your neighbors equally as much as they do you. There'll be a crowd after them at 8 a. m. Beneficial for you to come at that hour, too.
