OTTAWA'S CARNIVAL.

Snowshoe Races—Grand Promenade Concert—Raquetteurs in the Galleries—Badly Injured.

[SPECIAL TO "THE HERALD."]

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—The third day of Ottawa's little Snowshoe Carnival, was a busy one for the Quebec visitors; in the afternoon they attended the annual races of the Frontenac Snowshoe Club held on the College grounds and several of them won prizes; all the events were open, the weather was rough. In the evening a grand promenade concert was given in the Drill Hall, all the local clubs being present; the visitors leave for home to-morrow afternoon. All are pleased with their reception in the Capital. Many of them have spent considerable time in the Parliament Buildings, and their unique costumes brightened the public galleries of the Commons to-day. Mrs. Howard, wife of Larry Howard, business manager of Gilmour's Royal Theatre here, well known in Montreal, met with a serious accident this afternoon. She was run over by a bolting team of horses, struck by the pole and sustained dangerous injuries. It is thought, however, that she will recover.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES INDIGNANT.

Some Work Cut Out for Dr. Grandbois, M.P.

The following telegram, without signature, was sent to a number of newspapers last night.

RIVER DU LOUP, Q., Feb. 26.—The feeling of uneasiness and dissatisfaction existing for some time past amongst Intercolonial Railway employes gave place, yesterday, to one of profound indignation, when the news reached here that two of the oldest and most efficient and popular employes, Conductor Jno. Barry and Engine-driver A. Shickle, were dismissed for an offence committed six months ago and for which they were punished by a fine imposed at the time and the matter settled, on the recommendation of the Divisional Superintendent and confirmed by the Chief Superintendent. The men are determined to get their confreres back by all means, a determination reached, not only from a wish to get justice for the discharged men, but to protect themselves through a higher power from the system of tyranny to which they have been subjected to for some time past. At present the appointments and changes appear to be made at random or promptly by some motives that are not understood and certainly are not guided by good railway judgment. If efficiency is the object, the heads of the departments, who have the experience and every facility for acquainting themselves with the ability of their men have no say in the matter of discipline. Mr. Schreiber, who sees the railway only once a year and knows nothing about its employes, gives his orders from Ottawa about them, which must be carried out without question, by those in authority over these men, whose intimate knowledge both of the men under their charge and the railway must undoubtedly be greater than his.

As a sample of the present management, a driver was suspended for seven weeks for refusing to go out on a train after having been on duty continuously for twenty-two hours, fighting snow, after having a couple of hours rest, although the rule of the departments allows them eight hours rest.

Meetings are to be held here of employees, who are being joined by citizens who do not admire Mr. Schreiber's ideas of British justice. A deputation will be sent to Ottawa with instructions to request Dr. Grandbois to draw the Minister's attention to the necessity of a change in the present system of management, as regards employees, and if he cannot obtain justice for the men to resign his seat, the feeling is the same all over the line.

A Loan to Be Effected.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—At a meeting of the Hull City Council, to be held on Monday next, Mayor Rochon will submit a scheme or borrowing $1.000,00, to be expended on city improvements.

Changes Asked For.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—Petitions in favor of amending the Scott Act, so as to permit the sale of light wines and beer in Scott Act counties, are already en route for Ottawa from different parts of the country. It is probable that an attack on the Scott Act will again be made this session.

Parliamentary Printing.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—There are eight tenders put in for the Parliamentary printing. The time for the acceptance of tenders expired at 12 o'clock yesterday. Under the new order, which will be brought about this session, the Parliamentary printing will be under the direct control of the Secretary of State.

Spurring up the Judges.

QUEBEC, Feb. 26.—The members of the Bar of the District of Quebec passed a resolution to ask the Judges to fix two days in each month upon which judgments would be rendered, and also to indicate beforehand a list of cases in which such judgments would be rendered.

Heavy Snowstorm.

FATHER POINT, Que., Feb. 26.—The worst snow storm experienced within the last twelve years is now raging here; twenty-five inches of snow has fallen in the last twenty-four hours. It is ten feet high in many places.

Not Expected to Live.

LONDON, Ont., Feb. 26.—William Shrimpton was reported slightly better to-day. The hospital surgeon, however, gives very little hope of his ultimate recovery and thinks it unlikely that he can do more than last over night. Very little sympathy is expressed for him around the city, and the general expression is that he deserved what he got.

The Temperance Movement

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—A deputation from the Toronto Temperance Electoral Union are interviewing Attorney - General Mowat with reference to certain proposed amendments to the Crook's Act, recommended at a recent meeting here of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance.

Out of the Ice.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—The Marine and Fisheries Department have received intelligence that the Government steamer Northern Light, got out of the ice at St. uris, yesterday, and arrived at Georgetown. The ice is clear into Burnt Point near Georgetown, and the Northern Light will commence making her usual trips at once between Georgetown and Pictou.

To be Liberated.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—A special despatch from Winnipeg states "Information has been received from Ottawa that the immediate release of Poundmaker and the half-breed prisoners at Stoney Mountain penitentiary has been decided upon, and the order will probably take effect to-morrow." Enquiry at the department failed to elicit any confirmation of the foregoing despatch.

Notes From Quebec.

QUEBEC, Feb. 26.—About 2¼ feet of snow has fallen on the level since last night.

A Requiem Mass was said yesterday at the Basilica, for the late Hon. Mr. Cauchon, ex-Governor of Manitoba.

It is said that Mr. Justice Taschereau will change districts with Mr. Justice Cimon; the former going to Joliette and the latter to River du Loup.

To be Removed.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—It is understood that the delegation which recently arrived from Calgarry to petition the Government for the removal of Stipendiary Magistrate Travis have succeeded in their efforts to this end, and the learned Judge's unpleasant sojourn at Calgary will shortly terminate. It is probable that Mr. Travis will remove to Battleford and will be succeeded at Calgary by Judge Rouleau.

Another Railway Accident.

THORNHILL, Ont., Feb. 26.—The down express on the Northern Railway struck a farmer's team at the crossing above Thornhill station about seven o'clock this evening, and the mail and smoking cars were thrown from the track and down an embankment, where they took fire and were consumed. The mails were saved. One mail clerk, Patrick Hynes, was badly injured. Two others, Laidlaw and O'Connor, escaped with slight injuries. The news agent Wallace, who was making his first trip, was killed.

A Re-arrangement Asked For.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—About 200 residents of the counties of Grey, Wellington, Huron and Perth, interviewed Attorney-General Mowat to-night regarding the formation of a new county from portions of these four counties. Four schemes were mentioned by the advocates to effect this change. Mr. Mowatt said no legislation to that end could be procured this session. The unwieldy size of each of these counties and the long distances many residents had to travel to get to the county buildings were urged as reasons for the formation of the new county.

A Furious Snowstorm.

PEMBROKE, Ont., Feb. 26.—It has been blowing a fierce gale from the north-west all day. The weather is very cold and the roads badly drifted. Traffic on the Canadian Pacific Railway is completely blocked. A freight train has been stuck in a snowdrift about a mile east of here since 8 o'clock this morning, and all attempts to pull it out have proved a failure, so they have abandoned it until the storm is over. The mixed train from Ottawa this morning is detained at Graham's Station, 10 miles east of here, and the train from the West is reported 24 hours late.

An Official Herd Book.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—The Minister of Agriculture were waited upon yesterday by a deputation of six gentlemen from the Canadian Association of Breeders of shorthorn cattle, who asked that a grant of $3,000 be made by the Government to assist the association in completing the official herd book, by publishing three volumes of the history of thoroughbred cattle. Prior to the beginning of their operations without these back volumes the work of tracing up the pedigrees was very difficult. They impressed on the Minister the importance of the matter in the interests of stock raising, and he promised to give it his early attention

A Custom House Blunder.

OTTAWA, February 26.—Messrs. P. A. Crosby, of the Dominion Type Founding Co., and Mr. R. L. Patterson, of Millar & Richards, forming a delegation representing the type foundries awaited on Hon. Mr. Bowell, Minister of Customs this afternoon, in regard to the increased duty on printing requisities. The other day the Government included frames and cases with "furniture," thus raising the duty on the former from 25 per cent. to 35 per cent. It was evidently a slight blunder on the part of some of the Customs officials, as there is a good deal in the difference between frames and cases and "furniture." The Minister promised to have the matter rectified.

A Serious Railway Accident.

FERGUS, Ont., Feb. 26.—A bad accident happened this morning, about three o'clock, on the G. T. R., between here and Elora, just near the Grand River. Fortunately no lives were lost. The regular freight train which comes along about that time in the morning was thrown from the track a few yards from the iron bridge which spans the river, and precipitated down the embankment about 25 feet. The train was composed of a dozen cars, nine being loaded with freight, and all went down but the caboose. The engineer and fireman went down with the engine and miraculously escaped unhurt except some bruises. The cause of the accident was ice on the track. It being down grade the water had run down from the thaw of yesterday and the sudden change in the evening forced the ice along the track. The loss will be about $25,000.

A Fine Sight.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—There was a grand turn out of the visiting snowshoe clubs last night. Some hundreds of torch-lights illuminated their progress as they marched in procession from the Drill Hall through the principal streets and around Parliament Square before going to the Tache Hill slides, where a couple of hours were pleasantly spent before the return march was made. Fireworks were let off all along the route of the procession, and the effect was exceedingly picturesque.

The programme for to-day is as follows: This morning, a visit to places of interest in the city; a shooting match by the St. Hubert Gun Club. 1.30 p. m., to meet at the Drill Hall and march in a body to the College grounds. The Frontenac snowshoe races. At 8 p. m. a promenade concert at the Drill Hall.

A Pious Swindler.

QUEBEC, Feb. 26.—A young man, giving the name of Mathewson, was taken into custody by the detectives last night. He has, under a number of aliases, been doing the city for some days past and has obtained various sums of money from unsuspecting citizens. He pretended to be collecting money on behalf of the city mission, the Y. M. C. A. and other charitable institutions. The prisoner does not deny the charges, but alleges that he has been driven by want into the unenviable position he now occupies. It seems from his story that he is lately from the old country and was going to Dickinson's Landing, but being under the impression that the locality was below here he stayed over at Levis. He states that he was subsequently relieved of his purse containing some $75. He has been remanded to jail.

A Smash Up

ELORA, Ont., Feb. 26.—There was a big smash up on the Grand Trunk Railway this morning at 4.30, a freight train and eleven cars left the track within a few yards of an iron bridge spanning the Grand River between here and Fergus. The train rushed sideways dawn the embankment about fifteen feet high. The engine went over on its side and coal from the tender poured over the wreck, burying the engineer, fireman, and another man. The cars piled themselves in a heap a short distance in advance of the engine. The conductor's car did not leave the track. The conductor was obliged to dig out the three men from the wreck and was overjoyed to find them unhurt. The majority of the cars were loaded with sundries. The train left the rails, it is believed, owing the quick frost succeeding the lengthy thaw and rain covering the road with ice.

ELORA, Ont., Feb. 26.—The probable loss by the accident on the Grand Trunk Railway this morning will be thirty thousand dollars.

Some Improvements Wanted.

TORONTO, February 26.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Marine Engineer Association was held here to-day, when resolutions were passed appointing a deputation to wait on Attorney-General Mowat for the purpose of asking him to amend the law so as to relieve vessel property of municipal assessment; to appoint a deputation to ask the Dominion Government to proceed with the work of deepening the St. Lawrence canals, and pending the completion of the extensive works necessary to give the vessel trade the advantage of the additional foot which can easily be done; also to ask the Government to allow vessels to pass through the Welland Canal till six o'clock on Sunday mornings and after six Sunday evenings. The following officers were elected:—President, A. M. Smith, Toronto; Vice-President, S. Neelon, M.P.P.; Secretary-Treasurer. W. A. Geddes, Toronto.

Proposed Changes in the Territories.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—The three delegates from the North-West Council—Dr. Wilson, Messrs. Ross and Perley—who have been here for a few weeks past on business with the Government affecting important matters of territorial legislation, have concluded their business and have left for home. The delegates have been assured that the executive powers of the Council will be increased so as to give them the handling of more of their own funds than they have been in the habit of doing in the past. Henceforth the Council will defray the expense of building schools, bridges, roads, etc. The Government have promised that an early extension of the Manitoba and South Western Railway to Regina and Long Lake, with a charter to Prince Albert and Battleford will be made. It is most probable that the C.P.R. will control the line, the bonds for which have been floated in Europe. A Court of Appeal is to be established in the Territories, and the Saskatchewan and Hudson Bay trails will be constructed. Speaking of the North-West representation, mention of which was made in the Speech from the Throne, Mr. Ross said the Territories would most positively have five representatives in the House of Commons and two in the Senate. The Saskatchewan and Alberta districts will have one representative each in the House. There will be three for the Assiniboia district.

A Privy Council Decision.

CHATHAM, Ont., Feb. 26—Thursday's London, Detroit and Toronto papers contained inaccurate reports of the decision of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council regarding the crossing at Courtright, in which a decision is claimed for the Canada Southern Railway. It will be remembered that the Canada Southern brought an action against the Erie & Huron Railway to compel it to erect an overhead crossing at Courtright, and, as in all disputes of this kind, the matter was referred to the Railway Committee of the Privy Council, whose decision is final. The Erie & Huron asked to be allowed to construct a grade crossing at a point between the original survey and the river front. The principal question involved, however, was the mode of crossing, as had the Erie & Huron been compelled to construct the crossing proposed by the Canada Southern, the expense entailed would have been very great and the railway would practically have been shut out of the river front at Courtright. The decision of the Privy Council does away with the most objectionable feature of the contention made by the Canada Southern Railway, as by the result of the investigation the Erie & Huron is allowed to construct a grade crossing at a point on the original survey, but the slight divergency will not in the least effect the successful operation of the line.

Proposed Liquor Law Amendment.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—The combined deputation of the Toronto Ministerial Association and Temperance Electoral Union waited on Attorney-General Mowat, this afternoon, with reference to liquor law amendments. The principal amendments are that from May 1st, 1886, to April 30th, 1889, the limit shall be one license to every 600 of population; from 1889 to 1892 one to every 800, and after that one to every 1 000. They wish only one shop license to every five thousand, and a person holding it to carry on no other business, either in the building or any other part of the city. They wish to place the minimum fee for taverns and shop licenses at $500, with power to municipalities to increase it, and that it be divided pro rata as follows:—Government portion, $350; municipality, $150. Wine and beer licenses to be abolished. The hours of closing to be from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m., except Saturdays, which is to remain as at present. Amendments were also asked regarding prosecutions and convictions. Mr. Mowat, in reply, said the Government did not pretend to be able to accomplish as yet all that was suggested, and they must bear in mind that in what the Government did they had to convince and carry the majority with them, and quite a number were of a different way of thinking, but still he thought, all things considered, a good deal had been accomplished.

LATEST CABLE NEWS.

A Threatened Rebellion.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—It is confirmed from a Chinese source that China will not consent to the cession of Bhamo and adjoining districts to England. If England does not yield, China threatens to organize a rebellion of the tribes.

An English Strike.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The employes of the Nettlefold's screw works at Sethwick struck to-day. Subsequently a number of sympathizers joined the strikers, and a small riot occurred, during which the windows of the establishment were smashed. The rioters are now marching towards Birmingham. Joseph Chamberlain is a partner in the corporation.

Humbugging the Stock Brokers.

MADRID, Feb. 26.—A sensation was caused here by the discovery of an apparent conspiracy to affect the stock market for speculative purposes. Bogus telegrams were sent to the principal stock brokers of Barcelona, reporting, without foundation, low quotations in Madrid, and ordering large sales. The result was that the markets were badly disturbed. The authors of the telegrams have not been found. The Government is investigating the matter. It is feared that similar tricks have been played elsewhere than in Spain.

Western Ranche Stock.

LONDON, Feb. 26. — Much discontent prevails among the English shareholders in the Western ranche companies in America, and a lively discussion took place at a meeting of those interested in the Powder River Ranche Company of Montana, yesterday. Earl Wharncliffe denounced the Western managers as being little better than thieves, and demanded an accounting of their stewardship to the British Board. Morton Frewen defended the managers and charged that any irregularities or failures to make the investments of the English shareholders profitable were due to the incapacity of the British Board. A war of words ensued and was finally ended by Mr. Frewen's submitting a motion on behalf of the shareholders, which was carried, demanding an enquiry into the conduct of the London Board.

The Cabinet Meeting.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The result of to-day's Cabinet meeting has not become officially known, but it is rumored that Mr. Gladstone succeeded in obtaining general assent to a definite plan for the Irish policy of the Government, including modified land laws, abolition of cocerion and ultimate local government. Mr. Chamberlain alone expressed his views in opposition to Home Rule. It is thought likely that he will retire from the ministry. There has been a good deal of comment in political and club circles for a few days past upon the growing influence of Mr. Morley in the cabinet. It is asserted that the chief secretary for Ireland has gained complete ascendancy over Mr. Gladstone, who seems to be fascinated by his new colleague's brilliant, yet practical, methods in statesmanship. It is not confined to the domain of the Irish problem alone. Mr. Gladstone's action in the Greek question, which has caused some surprise by its deviation from what was expected of him, is attributed to the new influence. The Times refers to the Government's policy as unexpectedly vigorous, and this expresses the general view.

Bismarck's Designs.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The debate, yesterday, in the Prussian Diet on the educational bill revealed the fact that the Clericals have not made up their minds to act with the Government, despite the tempting bait thrown out by the proposed modification of the May laws. The impression is confirmed that Herr Windthorst has succeeded in convincing the Vatican that the repeal of the portions of these laws included in the Government's bill on the subject would not materially strengthen the position of the Catholic clergy in regard to religious education. Windthorst insists upon a total abrogation of the Falk laws as a condition precedent to abandoning the long continued clerical policy of blocking Bismarck's schemes of general legislation.

He will, it is said, cause to be presented an amendment to the government's bill when it reaches the proper stage and raise the square issue with the chancellor on making the repeal of the obnoxious laws absolute. It is believed that this movement will succeed, as the support of the clericals is necessary for the successful carrying out of Prince Bismarck's designs for the internal economy of the empire.

—There is a cool wave between Rev. Robert S. Rowe, of Baltimore, and his congregation, because he referred to charity balls as "godless hops in the name of sweet charity."

UNITED STATES TELEGRAMS.

Capture of a Filibusterer.

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 26.—Another filibustering vessel is reported to have been captured off Jamaica.

California Wine.

The export of California wines in 1885 amounted to nearly 4,500,000 gallons, or nearly 1,000,000 more than for 1884.

Welsh Colonists.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 26. — The National Welsh Convention has organized a "Welsh Land Association," with the view of establishing Welsh colonies in various parts of the country.

At Work Again.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 26.—The coke drawers at Morgan Foundry, White and Summit works, who struck yesterday, returned to work this morning. The Operators having conceded the increase.

Jealousy.

MONTROSE, Feb. 26.—Elmer Ross, a well-known ranchman, shot and killed George R. Lockwood during a quarrel, yesterday; the trouble grew out of alleged intimacy of Ross and Mrs. Lockwood.

Came to an Understanding.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Brown & Earle, Levy Bros., and McCoy & Co., cigar manufacturers, have concluded to accept the Knights of Labor label. The rates paid by Krebs & Spiess, a Union shop, are accepted, and all hands in these shops will go to work to-day.

A Hurricane.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 26.—After a fearful rainstorm, last night, Baltimore and vicinity was visited by a hurricane more severe than for several years. In the western section of the city houses were unroofed and considerable damage was done.

Permanently Organized.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—The National Editorial Association of the United States, yesterday permanently organized by the editors, is now in session here. The Association will meet annually at a place to be selected each year by the Convention.

Another Outrage.

MARYSVILLE, Cala., Feb. 26.—Yesterday morning a body of masked man from Wheatland compelled the Chinese on three ranches near Wheatland to leave their sleeping quarters, and marched them to Wheatland, where they were turned loose. The Chinese quarters were destroyed with all their contents.

Blown Down.

PORT JERVIS, N.Y., Feb. 26.—About 5 p.m. to-day the tall spire of the Reformed Church was lifted bodily from its brick foundation, and crashed into the grounds of the church, the debris reaching into the street. The roof of the church was broken in, and the fine organ ruined. No one was hurt. The damage is estimated at $10,000.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., number, for the United States 214, for Canada 34, or a total of 248, as compared with 286 last week and 275 the week previous. The South and West still continue to furnish more than one-half of the weekly business casualties of the country.

A Disloyal Exhibition.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Post's London despatch says some excitement has been caused by the fact that the toast to the Queen was received with hisses at a complimentary dinner to the workingmen members of Parliament, half the company remaining seated while it was drank. Mr. Broadhurst was one of the members present and Charles Russell, the Attorney-General was present.

Proposed Exhibitions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A number of gentlemen interested in establishing a permanent American exposition in Washington and a World's Exposition to be held in 1882 in honor of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, met last evening and adopted resolutions strongly favoring the project. The chairman was instructed to appoint a committee to formulate a plan.

A Heavy Gale.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26—The wind played havoc with the house tops all over the city to-day. Shingles were blown in the air and tin roofs torn from their fastenings and hurled to the ground. A three-storey house in Juniper street was unroofed and the mass of tin was suspended in the air. The spire of the Arch street Methodist Church swayed this morning, and those who passed that way gave the church a wide berth, but it still remains in position. The velocity of the wind to-day reached 45 miles an hour.

A Skating Rink Burned.

BUFFALO, Feb. 26.—The Vallambrosa Skating Rink at Troy has been burned. Loss, $15,000. Wind prevailed, making it hard to prevent the flames from spreading, and it was thought they had succeeded, but at 1.30 p.m. the fire broke out afresh in a carpenter shop in the rear of the skating rink, and soon three buibings on the opposite side of the street were discovered to be afire. Further particulars have not been received.

A Terrible Storm.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 26.—A wind storm of a most disastrous character has prevailed in this neighborhood for the past 24 hours, and still continues. Houses have been unroofed, and chimneys blown down. This afternoon two of the large stand pipes of the Lechiel iron works were toppled over, one of which crashed over into the works. Luckily no one was injured. The damage, it is thought, both in the country and in the city will be considerable.

Suspicious Circumstances.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. Feb. 26.—The dead body of Mrs. Geo. Graham was found yesterday at the bottom of a well on Graham's farm, near here. The couple had been divorced, and Graham married a niece of Mrs. Mallar, a great temperance woman. He lived with Mrs. Graham No. 2 for a year when his whereabouts became known to Mrs. Graham No. 1 and he met her in St. Louis and brought her to Springfield last September. They visited the farm, and it was supposed that Mrs. Graham had returned to her parents' home at Fort Wayne, but her friends there making enquiries for her led to the discovery of her body. Graham was arrested and will probably be lynched.

To Dissolve Corporations.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Feb., 26.—The attorney general to-day filed with the clerk of the supreme court an information for the purpose of procuring a writ in the nature of a quo warranto to forfeit the charters and dissolve the corporations of the following railroads: The Hastings and Dakota, Minnesota Central, Southern Minnesota, Southern Minnesota Railway Extension Company, and the St. Paul & Sioux City company. This is done upon the ground that they have each sold the railroad for the building and maintaining of which they were incorporated and that they have each suspended their lawful business, and have not executed any of their franchises since the conveyance of the road, and that they are kept in existence for the sole purpose of holding their land grants exempt. The proper orders have been issued by Judge Dickinson and writs have been granted. The writs further call for a reversion to the State of the lands retained under each charter.

Trying the New Railway Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Edison railway telegraph system, to communicate between fixed stations and moving trains, is about to be applied to the St. Paul railway between Chicago and Milwaukee. George C. McGregor, manager, accompanied by Electricians Rudd and Dingle, left here for Milwaukee this morning, taking with them enough machines for two stations and four passenger trains. The battery has been greatly simplified and now consists of a bank of homœopahtic bottles, in which pure water is used instead of acid. Dr. Crowell, President, estimates that the system will be self-supporting on the road if one passenger in twenty-five sends a fifteen cent message a day.

The report that Edison's house and laboratory were cast away and lost on their ocean voyage to Florida is unfounded.

A Furious Blizzard.

BOSTON, Feb. 26.—A furious blizzard prevailed during the night in this vicinity and for a long distance down the eastern coast at Portland. Twenty inches of snow has accumulated, and business is at a standstill. The Grand Trunk Railway is blocked at Bethel and between there and South Paris is in a bad state. At St. John, N.B., the snow is the heaviest of the season and the wind is blowing at the rate of 60 miles an hour. At Westfield the steeple of the first Congregational Church was turned completely over and thrust through the roof of the building into the audience room. Telegraph and telephone poles were snapped off in this city and the streets were temporarily blocked by the broken poles and twisted wires. Many horses were entangled and a panic narrowly averted. No injury to life or limb has so far been reported but there have been many narrow escapes. At Henry Lee's residence, on the corner of Albany and Harvard street, a falling pole crashed through a window depositing the sash and broken glass on a bed where Mrs. Lee lay ill. The lady was not hurt.

MOUNT WASHINGTON, N.H., Feb. 26.—Terrific winds prevailed here to-day, reaching a velocity of 140 miles per hour, with the mercury 25 below zero at 4 30 p.m. and still falling. The barometer marks the lowest record since the signal station was established.

THE FINE ARTS IN COURT.

In the Superior Court, yesterday, a number of witnesses were examined in the case of Whittell vs. Brown. This is an action taken by the plaintiff for a balance which he claims on the price of four oil paintings sold by him to defendant. The agreement, it appears, was that Brown bought the pictures for $200, paying $50 cash and the balance later on. Afterwards, however, he refused to pay this balance, on the ground that he had been deceived, and that the paintings were not worth the price for which they were sold. Two experts, Messrs. Laurent and Hebert, have declared that these paintings, although they are not masterpieces, were well worth the price asked for them.—[Witness of Thursday.

This case did not take place on Wednesday; it occurred on Thursday, and was not concluded until 4.30 p.m.

It did not occur in the Superior Court but in Enquette.

The original price was not $200 for four pictures, but $150 for seven—a material difference.

The deposit was not $50, but $25.

The names of the parties to the suit are correct.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, TORONTO, Ont, February 27, 1 a.m.

The depression over the Ottawa valley yesterday has developed into a severe storm. It is now central over Nova Scotia. Fresh to strong gales have prevailed throughout the country from the lakes to the Atlantic, and are still blowing in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. The pressure is increasing in the Lake region and St. Lawrence, with fair, colder weather. Storm drums will be continued at all Maritime ports.

Probabilities.

Lakes—Moderate winds, fair weather, stationary or slightly higher temperature.

St. Lawrence—Decreasing north and west winds; fair, very cold weather.

Gulf and Maritime—Fresh to strong gales from north and west, decreasing by night; clearing and decidedly colder weather.

The average reader would guess a long time before he would hit upon the name of the journal that that paragraph was clipped from. It is not from Puck, or Grip, or the Detroit Free Press, or the Burlington Hawkeye, or the Berlin News, or any of those well-known jocular journals. It is from our pious contemporary the Montreal Witness. And the fact that it is a chestnut does not in the least lessen the Witness's awful crime. [Hamilton Spec.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Snowshoeing.

THE EMERALDS' RACE.

The races of the Emerald Snowshoe Club, which takes place on the Shamrock Lacrosse Club grounds this afternoon promises to be the racing event of the season. Should the day be fine, the track will be in first-class condition, and good time may be looked for. Great interest is evinced in the one-mile championship race, and already the following have entered:—A. E. McNaughton and J. Baird. For the two-mile club cup—Messrs. W. Wray, J. Lumsden, B. Monjian, T. D. Jones and J. Moore.

THE M. G.A. CLUB.

Last night being tramping night with the Montreal Garrison Artillery Club, about thirty of the members tramped out to the Rendezvous of Cote des Neiges and spent the usual enjoyable time. Next Friday night will be ladies' night and a large muster of the members and their friends is expected.

Hockey.

CRYSTAL VS. PARK AVENUE.

Last night the second eleven of the Crystal Hockey team played a friendly game with the Park Avenue Club at the Crystal Rink, which resulted in a victory for the latter. One of the Park Avenue men was severely injured by a fall and had to be removed to his home in a sleigh.

Billiards.

THE WHITE ELEPHANT TOURNAMENT.

The eighth game in the local billiard tournament was played last evening at Mr. Fortin's billiard parlors and proved very interesting. The contestants were Messrs. Pigeon and Parent. The latter was not at all in good form as he only scored 106 points to his opponents' 150. On Monday evening the ninth game will be played between Messrs. E. Fortin and Damien.

THE LAST DAY OF THE BURLINGTON CARNIVAL.

[SPECIAL FROM THE "HERALD'S" DELEGATE.]

It rained heavily all Friday night, but this did not prevent the boys, after the close of the snowshoe concert, from endeavoring to paint the town red, which they thoroughly carried out.

Owing to the pouring rain, the members of the Crystal and Montreal Amateur Hockey teams, which arrived on Thursday night, waited the coming day with low spirits as they heard the matches would have to be postponed. The weather, however, changed with almost the rapidity of Montreal weather, and the morning dawned with the thermometer away down and the wind blowing a hurricane. This was a little too much of a good thing, and the boys thought that it would be impossible for the games to come off. Nine o'clock was the hour for play to commence, and the Crystals went down to the lake ready for action. Then the ice was found to be terribly bad and a half a dozen teams and about twenty men were doing their best to get sufficient space cleared on which to play. It was then announced that the game was postponed until 10.30 o'clock. It was also learned that the Ottawa and New York teams had not arrived, and, therefore, the match would be between the Burlington Coasting Club, Hockey team, and the Crystals, and M.A.A.A., of Montreal. At the 10 o'clock the players returned to the ice but the wind was still blowing a hurricane and another postponement was announced until two o'clock. The M. A. A. A. men, however, objected, and it was finally agreed that the games would come off at once. The Crystal team were the favorites by long odds, even the members of the Montreal Club admitting their superiority, but still fate was against them, as the result showed. The clubs drawn for the opening game won the two from Montreal, and, after waiting about another hour for the final preparation of the Lake Rink, play was commenced. The first two half-hours were passed without either side gaining a goal, and the play could be called anything but Hockey. The clubs deciding to play until another should win, another half was entered, when the M. A. A. A. men managed to get a goal, and thus won the first match. Owing to pressure on our columns a full report of the game, with names of players and particulars, is held over until Monday.

As the men of both teams were nearly frozen, the match was not resumed until two o'clock in the afternoon, when the M.A.A.A. met and defeated the home team, the Crystals doing the same immediately afterwards, and thus gained the seven beautiful silver and gold medals awarded to the winners of second place. As the train for Montreal was nearly two hours late the Crystal team did not leave for home until nearly seven o'clock and it was eleven before they reached Montreal, tired but happy. The Tuque Bleue Club and the M.A.A.A. men remained behind until this morning.

Owing to the terrible weather the ice boat races were declared off, as were the trotting matches, and the money prizes offered were equally divided between those who had entered.

The carnival closed with a grand ball at the Association Roller Skating rink in the evening, which was attended by the Burlingtonians en masse as well as nearly all the Montrealers who remained behind.

Notes.

The Burlington people declare the carnival a great success in spite of the bad weather, and talk of repeating it next year.

One great mistake made by the Carnival Committee was their not having any headquarters or committee room, and one in search of information regarding the various sports and games had to search all over the town in order to gain any reliable information concerning the various events.

The Burlington people, one and all, did their utmost to entertain their visitors and are models of courtesy and hospitality. The thanks of THE HERALD delegate are due to Mr. Southwick, the courteous city editor of the Burlington Free Press, for favors extended to him during his visit.

The members of the Crystal Hockey team put up at the Commercial House, 179 Bank street, and are loud in their praises of the hospitality extended by the genial proprietor, Mr. P. B. Kelly, and his kindly lady, who did everything in their power for the comfort of their guests.

Montreal Stock Market.

The Stock Market is increasing in dullness, although no material change is noted in prices as compared with yesterday, although the tendency is downwards. Commerce is still suffering from the rumor circulated in the early part of the week respecting the proposed reduction of capital, and notwithstanding the prompt official denial of the statement, considerable stock is coming into the market. It sold in the forenoon at 122¼ and in the afternoon at 122½, and closed at 122½ asked and 122¼ bid. Montreal changed hands at 207½ and closed at 207¾ asked and 207¼ bid. Merchants sold at 119¾ and 119½, closing at 120 asked and 119½ bid. Gas sold at 194 and 193¾, and closed at 193¾ asked and 193½ bid. North-West Lands was steady at 74s, City Passenger at 129 and Canadian Pacific at 63½. Canada Cotton bonds changed hands at 101.

The day's total transactions were 1,263 shares, comprising 563 shares of bank stocks and 700 shares of miscellaneous, while the amount of bonds sold was $2,000, the whole as follows :—

The New York Stock Market.

The Stock Market, to-day, was dull and inactive. At the opening prices were generally from ⅛ to ½ lower than at yesterday's closing. During the forenoon prices dropped fractionally but after 1 p.m. the market stiffened up a little and a considerable portion of the ground lost during the forenoon was recovered, and several stocks, including Pacific Mail, Erie preferred, Jersey Central, Delaware & Hudson, Union Pacific, Kansas and Texas, Canada Southern, Omaha and Northern Pacific closed at a fractional advance over the opening figures. The greatest weakness was in Northern Pacific preferred. The disposition to support the lists on the reactions leads many to belief that affairs in the railroad world are not as serious as pretended by the numerous rumors put into circulation. The coal road shares were feverish but no material change in quotations has occurred. In Delaware & Hudson transactions to-day were ex-dividend, the dividend being 1¼ per cent. quarterly. In other stocks St. Paul M. & M. was slightly lower, while Pacific Mail, Western Union, Ohio & Miss. were fractionally higher.

The total transactions in stocks to-day as reported by telegraph were 291,000. St. Paul being the largest contributor, the sales of this stock alone being 65,300 shares, while those in Lackawanna were 51,000, those in Lake Shore 33,600, and those of Erie 21,900, Western Union 16,600, Pacific Mail 14,300, and Reading 15,800, the aggregate transactions in these seven stocks being three-fourths of the whole transactions of the day.

Messrs. Frank Bond & Co., No. 14 Place d'Armes Square, have supplied us with the following Wall street gossip, received by telegraph this morning :—

'The best judgment is that new pools have been formed in the trunk line stocks, and to their operations was due the strength shown throughout the entire session yesterday. H. Victor Newcomb continues a bull on the situation, and looks for a gradual improvement. Railroad men look for a prolonged transcontinental fight, particularly if the Huntington line force matters after the manner of the past few days.

A comparison between to-day's closing prices and those of Saturday gives the following result :—

Advanced—Western Union ⅝, Pacific Mail ⅞, Erie pref. ¼, Ohio & Miss. ½, Jersey Central ½, Del. Lack & West. ¼, Illinois Central ½, Kansas & Texas ¼, Ohio Central ½.

Declined—Lake Shore ½, Erie ¼, Erie 2nds ½, North-West ½, St. Paul ⅞, New York Central ¼, Del. & Hudson ½, C. B. & Quincy ½, Wabash pref. ½, Reading ¼, Canada Southern ¼, St. Paul & Omaha ⅛, do. pref. 1½, Northern Pacific pref. ⅛ Erie & Western ⅞, Louisville & Nashville, ¼, C. C. C. & I. ¼, Texas Pacific ½, Central Pacific ¼, Missouri Pacific ⅜, St. Paul, M. & M. ⅝, Canadian Pacific ⅛.

Unchanged—Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Oregon Trans..

Through the courtesy of Messrs. MacDougall Brothers, brokers, of this city, and members of the Chicago Stock Exchange, we are enabled to publish the following despatch from Messrs. A. Geddes & Co., Chicago :—

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 26—There was no strength to wheat in the market at any time to-day. Cable all reported dull. Easy markets abroad and export talk has ceased for the time being at least. Some holders who had faith in actual export business were sellers to-day. The market closed fully a cent below yesterday, say 84⅞c, with indications of still easier prices to-morrow. Pork opened weakest, with some country longs being sold out, but later some strong buying set in, and the market closes quite strong at about $10.90 May. Lard and ribs firm without material change in values.

Provisions.

There is a want of life in the trade, and the aggregate of daily transactions, which are in small jobbing lots, though increasing in volume, is not large. Prices are unchanged. We quote :—

Montreal, S.C. pork...... 14.00 @ 14.25
Western S.C.C. do. .... 14.25 @ 14.50
Western Mess do., old. 00.00 @ 13.50

Shoulders, per lb........ 00.08 @ 00.09
Tallow, per lb........... 00.05½@ 00.06

Dairy Products.

BUTTER—The market is unchanged. Choice qualities are almost out of the market, and the demand consequently runs on lower grades. The jobbing trade is moderately active. Prices are steady. Creamery, 21c@24c ; Eastern Townships, 12c@20c; Morrisburg and Brockville, 12c@19c; Western, 9c@15c; Western rolls, 12c@16c; Morrisburg rolls 15c@18c.

CHEESE—Business is rather slack, being almost exclusively such as arises from the requirements of the local retail trade, and is consequently of limited proportions, but at prices above quotations, which are for round lots. We quote :—9c @ 9¼c for fancy white, and 9¾c@10c for fancy colored Semptember and October; August, 8¼c@8¾c; other grades, 5½c@7½c.

The cable from Liverpool to the Associated Press is again unchanged at 48s 6d per cwt. The shipments from Portland this week are 4,306 boxes, and those of butter 248 packages.

Eggs.

The market is quiet with slight improvement in the demand. Pickled are scarce. Quotations are :—Fresh, 23c@24c ; held lots, 18c@20c ; and limed, 18c@19c.

Poultry.

The market remains very slow at unchanged quotations. We quote :—Turkeys and ducks, 8c@11c; geese and fowls, 5c@7c, according to quality.

Dressed Hogs.

are firm with a quiet but steady demand from the jobbing trade, at $6.50@$6.75 per 100 lbs., according to quality.

Ashes.

The market is dull and quotations are : No. 1 pots, $3.40.

MINNEAPOLIS MILLING OPERATIONS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—In its weekly review of the flour production for its issue for February 26, the Northwestern Miller will say : The decrease in the flour production for the week ending February 13 was followed by a heavy increase last week. Although the power from Wednesday to Saturday was inferior, the mills made 91,600 barrels for the week, averaging 15,300 daily, against 78,000 the preceding week and 73,000 barrels the corresponding time in 1885.

The mild weather for several days has favorably affected the water supply. Thirteen mills are running to-day, representing 21,700 barrels capacity, but the output will not exceed 13,500. This includes two of the largest mills in the city, but in one two-thirds of the capacity is idle and in the other half.

There is no flour being made by steam power, though one or more engines will be started if the water becomes lower.

There is considerable improvement in the flour market. Foreign demand is good at better prices. The domestic trade is better.

The receipts the past week were : Wheat, 775,120 bushels.

Shipments—Wheat, 72,240 bushels ; flour, 86,483 barrels; millstuff, 2,525 tons.

Wheat in store—Minneapolis, 5,732,799 bushels ; Duluth, 5,733,286 ; St. Paul, 1,112,000.

CONSTIPATION.

This evil habit neglected, brings a multitude of miseries, and is the source of much illness. Burdock Blood Bitters cures Constipation by toning and regulating the Bowels to a natural action.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Consular Certificates for Canadian Fish Shipments.

To the Editor of THE HERALD.

Some little time ago you called attention editorially to the excessive duties charged by the U. S. Customs on some shipments of fish by Mr. Thos. Vye, of this place. At first sight it would look as if Mr. Vye had been hardly dealt with, and that he had been used very unfairly. I do not for a moment wish to defend the peculiar regulations under which it is possible to levy different rates of duty on the same article, but I wish to point out that Mr Thos. Vye might have saved himself a great deal of trouble and expense had he had the invoices of his different shipments of fish properly authenticated by the American consular agent here, and the duty, if any, would have been levied only on the amount of fish specified in the invoices. Shippers of fish to the United States who have complied with the regulations concerning consular authentication of invoices, have experienced no trouble with their shipments, while those who, in order to save the fee for the consular invoice, have forwarded their fish without obtaining one, have been subjected to vexatious delays and expense. Those who evade the law relating to consular authentication would find their shipping business carried on much more satisfactorily if they were to comply with the regulations, and in the end would discover that the consular fees do not, after all, amount to anything like as much as the expense sure to be incurred by those who persist in shipping goods to the United States unprovided with consular-certified invoices.

Yours truly,

SUBSCRIBER.

A MONTANA BLIZZARD.

How it Howled in Dead Man's Gulch—Some Sad Sacrifices.

[From the New York Star.]

It was in the smoking car of a train on the Erie road, and some one had asked him how cold he had s en it in Montana.

"Well, sir, I'll relate a little experience of mine in 1870," he replied, as he threw his stub away. "I was then operating a saw mill on Fat Injun Creek, and courting a girl about thirteen miles away. One night in February, when the thermometer stood 26° above zero, I rode over to see her. The family consisted of herself, father, mother, two young children and a Chinaman cook. I was warmly received, and the old folks had just gone off to bed when a blizzard came howling down Dead Man's Gulch. Snow came with it, and inside of an hour the house was banked in. The thermometer kept going down and down, and before 3 o'clock next morning the mercury was dead out of sight. There was mighty little fuel for the fire, and the last stick was gone before daylight. We burned up doors, chairs, bedsteads and tables, but the cold kept growing more severe, and along toward night the father, mother and two children froze to death."

"You don't mean it!" whispered one of his listeners.

"Every word of it."

"How did the girl escape?"

"I had her on my lap with my arms around her. The old woman, when she found death approaching, begged me to hug her, too, but I refused. There's no Mormon about me But for my presence of mind I should not be here to-day."

"Why?"

"Well, when the last stick of fuel was exhausted, I jammed the body of the old man into the fireplace. It soon blazed up and made the hottest fire we had since the cold set in. He was a tough old chap, and lasted us until about midnight. I then got up and threw the old woman on for a backlog, and used the children to chink in with."

"How did the girl take it?"

"All right until just before daylight. Then she suddenly remembered that the old man had $150 in his vest pocket when I flung him on, and this of course was lost. She reproached me for my carelessness, and one word brought on another, until I plainly realized that she was no wife for me. I told her as much, and she went off to sulk in a corner. I sat toasting my shins before the grateful fire for a quarter of an hour, and then looked around and found her dead."

"You don't say! Was she frozen?"

"Stiff as a crowbar. Affairs must have been shaped by the hand of Providence, for it was ten hours longer before the blizzard broke, and I had to use her for firewood. Not having any more small children to chink in with, she burned like a log of swamp elm, and the end of my nose was frozen within five feet of the fire. She was just about gone when the blizzard broke, and I dug my way out."

"And you actually burned up that whole family to save your own infernal carcass!" exclaimed the man with the briar-root.

"Well, what could I do?"

"You look a-here!" continued the other, "I'm in a strange State now, and don't know the laws, and don't want to get into jail; but I live in St. Thomas, Canada, and if ever I catch you six inches into Canadian oil and don't maul the daylight out of you, then may St. Peter go back on me at Heaven's gate!"

The Montana man bowed his head and would say no more, although he had not told what became of the Chinaman.

OF VITAL IMPORTANCE.

It is just as essential that the human body should have pure blood, as that a tree or plant should have sap to nourish and invigorate its growth. Nearly all our bodily ills arise from unhealthy blood Burdock Blood Bitters purifies this fountain of life, and regulates all the vital organs to a healthy action.

JOYFUL NEWS.

It is certainly glad tidings to the poor invalid to be informed of a remedy that will give prompt and sure relief in case of painful suffering. Such remedy is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, adapted for internal and external use in all ordinary aches, pains, lameness and soreness. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, croup and all inflammatory pains.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 27.

THE NOVA SCOTIA LEGISLATURE.

The speech at the opening of this Legislature on Thursday was a good deal longer than that of the Governor General's, delivered on the same day, and quite as interesting. The tendency of the politicians and press controlling the Nova Scotia Government has been to put a bad face on everything connected with the condition of the Province, but the Speech of Lieutenant-Governor Ritchey is somewhat above the average tone of political addresses from that side of the House. It says the harvest of last year was abundant. It calls attention to the large output of coal and gold. These are Nova Scotia's most important mineral resources, next to iron, which is only beginning to be developed, however. It speaks of the rapid extension of the fruit growing industry, for which Nova Scotia is particularly well suited. It says the cause of popular education flourishes; that there is greater expansion than ever before; and that the people are more willing than ever to contribute to the spread of common school education. The Speech goes on to say that (although the Dominion Government have refused to increase the annual subsidy to the Province) a measure will be submitted to the Legislature for providing aid for the construction of a railway through the Island of Cape Breton, a country famous not less for its remarkable scenery and its valuable coast and river fisheries, than for the inexhaustible deposits of coal and iron.

The Speech also deals with the Fishery question, in which Nova Scotia has greater interest than any other province, since her fishing operations are the most extensive of any. The Lieutenant-Governor is advised to-day that it is desirable in the interests of Canada and the United States that the question should be settled by a treaty which shall include arrangements for the largest practicable measure of reciprocal trade between the countries, but that if such a settlement can not be effected on terms fair to the two countries it is of the highest importance that the rights of our fishermen in their coast water be effectively protected. So say we all. A fair treaty or sharp protection of Canadian interests here at home, represents the universal feeling.

But just here we would like to say that in our judgment no effective steps have been taken to bring under the notice of public men at Washington the real state of Canadian sentiment on those commercial questions which are of mutual interest. Nothing whatever has been done in this direction, and we are assured that entirely false notions in this regard prevail at Washington. The public men there know nothing of Canada. They have their several State or sectional interests to care for and have little time to give to affairs which do not seem to interest their own State. These representative men need enlightenment, but they are not getting it. Nothing whatever has been done to place before them the resources of Canada and the extent of its commerce; nothing to show wherein the commercial relations of the two countries might be extended with mutual advantage; nothing to inform them in regard to the views of Canadians on this subject and of the legislation already provided for an interchange of natural products on a fair basis. To the Washington politician Canada is a sealed book. He knows something of Mexico and Central America, for pains have been taken to inform him of the possibilities of enlarging his country's trade with those countries. But who has taken any trouble to inform him of the condition of the five millions of English-speaking people living to the north of the U. S. fine or of their willingness to buy from or sell to the United States or to have them use their railways and canals and other waterways? Nobody. The Government has not; Parliament has not; and it is nobody's business to attend to a matter of such moment. We verily believe that if the treaty desired by the Nova Scotians, in common with Canadians generally, be not brought about, it will be due entirely to the ignorance of Canada prevailing amongst the politicians at Washington. It is simply incredible that public men who know what Canada is, what her resources are, and what exchanges are possible between our five millions of Canadians and fifty-five millions of citizens of the United States, would close the door on Canada and potter with the demoralized peoples of Central America, for instance, for an extension of commercial relations. If the Dominion and Provincial Governments would do something practical towards bringing about improved trade relations with the Dominion and the great Republic, they should lose no time in enlightening the Washington politicians in regard to Canada, her people, her commerce, her natural resources, her progress and her willingness to enter into mutually advantageous trade relations. At this moment, when so much depends upon coming to a satisfactory understanding with the public men of that country, we are wholly unrepresented at Washington; in fact, our interests are entirely at the mercy of a few bold schemers from New England fishing ports who have the ear of Congressmen and Senators, and whose representations are listened to because the other side is not presented and is never heard. It will be a deplorable case of throwing away great opportunities because of incapacity to avail ourselves of the proper means for accomplishing great national objects.

NEWFOUNDLAND SHORE QUESTION.

Yesterday we received the following letter from Chicago, and to its contents we invite the attention of members of Parliament :—

P.O. CHICAGO, 24th Feb., 1886.

To the Editor of THE MONTREAL HERALD.

SIR,—I was pleased to read in your leading editorial of the 22nd instant, the very just and enlightened views therein expressed, regarding the proposed Newfoundland convention with the French in regard to the settlement of the fishery question with that nation on the west shores of Newfoundland.

When in London in 1875, I was employed by the Royal Canadian Institute (of which I was a Fellow) and the then Government of Newfoundland to draw up a report on this question.

This I did after eight months study of and research into the subject, (viz, treaties, conventions, Parliamentary debates, etc.,) in the reading room of the British Museum.

My report was first published by the Council of the Royal Colonial Institute in pamphlet form, and widely distributed through England and the Colonies—especially Canada—and then published in the annual proceedings of the Institute for 1875-1876 under the heading.

THE FRENCH FISHERY QUESTION IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

I wrote a paper (by request) also on the same subject published in Fraser's Magazine, (London, G.B.) for January 1876.

I received an autograph letter from Lord Dufferin (then Governor-General of the Dominion) very highly complimentary to these publications, and I mention these particulars here in the hope that you will publish this letter, and that the attention of the Canadian Government and people, who are more interested in the matter than is generally conceived, may be directed to those reports.

Nearly the whole Newfoundland press copied my report to the Royal Colonial Institute in extenso, and the London press (Standard, Telegraph, Advertiser, etc.) had leading editorials about and strongly in favor of it.

The Journal des Debats, of Paris, naturally criticised it as merely the work of a Canadian barrister, giving my name in full —as your obedient servant,

JAMES WHITMAN.

Address, Post Office, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Winton's letters in the Week and THE HERALD'S editorials appear to have aroused a considerable amount of public interest in this question; and as the matter must come up for discussion in our Parliament, Mr. Whitman's letter shows where the information needed to reach a proper judgment can be found. The papers to which our correspondent refers are, no doubt, in the Parliamentary library, and we would advise members to study up the subject.

It is quite impossible for the Dominion Government and Parliament to permit so grave a question to remain in the position in which this Newfoundland question is understood to be. If there are matters of Imperial policy involved there are also questions of Dominion interest at stake, and as Canadians we must see that a threatened national disaster is not consummated by our own supineness, We trust, therefore, that when a question of such moment, one rising far above the cries and contentions of the partisans of the lower political world, is up for decision, the leading men in both of the Parliamentary camps will address themselves in a patriotic spirit to its solution. The only solution possible for the protection of Canadian interests is the absolute withdrawal of foreign influence from the shores and coasts of Newfoundland and the vicinity of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Canada cannot have the Gulf, the entrance to the St. Lawrence River and the coast of Cape Breton—for this is what it amounts to—dominated by a foreign fleet. England can give France compensation in some other quarter for the withdrawal of any concessions made to France in Newfoundland or St. Pierre Miquelon. The insistance of Canada on this demand, with the weighty reasons by which it can be backed, should lead the Imperial Government to action, which is for the benefit not of Canadians only but of the Empire.

FOUL PLAY.

Perhaps the most contemptible attack on a public man that has yet appeared in the Montreal Gazette—we know this covers a vast amount of ground—was that in yesterday's issue on Mr. James McShane, Jr. The charge is that "for two days in succession" Mr. McShane absented himself from meetings of the Inundation Committee, and that other members of the Committee were obliged to look after those interests in which the people of St. Ann's Ward are especially interested. We can recall distinctly the incidents of meetings of this Committee which Mr. McShane attended, and the reports show how earnestly and energetically he urged forward the work of the Committee, when promptitude was necessary. We also recall his demand that the poor people of his ward should be employed on the work in St. Ann's in preference to others. It is also well known that he urged upon the Council the finding of other work for the unemployed, and that he went personally with food and money to the unfortunates in the flooded districts. If there is anything for which Mr. McShane is blamed in connection with his acts in the Council it is his everlasting pertinacity in forcing on the Council's notice the rights of "old countrymen" and "the people of St. Ann's Ward." Whatever others may say of Mr. McShane, these classes at least can appreciate his zeal in their behalf, and they will know how to answer the Gazette's contemptible assaults. Once more we direct attention to the fact that the Gazette persists in treating candidates for civic office, not on their merits or on the ground of civic interests, but rather on the basis of Dominion politics. Mr. McShane is assailed by the Gazette because he is a Liberal, and yet in West Ward Liberals are asked to vote for Mr. Richard White, regardless of his politics. If the latter is the proper way to treat the civic issues, why does not Mr. Richard White see that it is applied by his newspaper to the contest in St. Ann's Ward? There ought not to be one rule for Mr. White and another for Mr. McShane.

Everybody knows why Mr. McShane cannot, for the moment, attend civic meetings as regularly as has been his custom. The Gazette and its clique have forced on him a bitter contest in his ward, which necessarily requires that his attention should be given to his interests in the ward for a few days. Having done this, these same parties with arrant hypocrisy demand that he shall explain why he doesn't attend every meeting of every civic committee! The thinness of the Gazette's anxiety for civic interests is phenomenal.

LONDON'S SCHOOLS.

Sir Richard Temple, in explaining the financial position of the London School Board at a recent meeting, presented some facts and figures which will be studied with interest outside of, as well as in, London. The gross expeaditure for the year ending March, 1886, amounts to £1,466,773. The receipts from fees, grants, etc., amount to £421,408, leaving £1,045,365 to be levied on the taxpayers. The expenditure for 1886-7 is expected to reach £1,568,406, or, in round numbers, $7,840,000, a very respectable amount for a single city. The valuation of property liable to the assessment is £30,523,285, or $152,500,000. In six years, there was added £3,331,768, or about $16,658,840 to the Board debt for school buildings; and the amount borrowed by the Board stands at £7,091,409, or $35,457,045. Seats in schools were provided for 619,473 children, board schools and voluntary schools together, while the highest number in attendance on any half day last year was 539,207. The attendance at the Board schools alone for the half year ending Michaelmas, 1885, was 293,723. The school staff of the Board includes 4,822 assistant teachers. School fees range from 1d. to 9d. per week. From the 1,051 school departments under the Board the fee rates are levied thus :—1d. on 231 departments, 2d. on 481, 3d. on 263, 4d. on 58, 6d. on 16, and 9d. on 2. In the main the fees really in vogue range from 1d. to 3d. The higher fees are rarely levied. The total cost of elementary education in the metropolis, including school management, general supervision, and school buildings is defrayed thus :—Fees, 8 per cent.; general taxation, 19 per cent.; local rates, 73 per cent. Thus the parents are paying only 8 per cent. of the cost of the education of their children in the schools of the Board, the remaining 92 per cent. being defrayed by the public. Sir Richard shows that if the cost of general supervision and school building were defrayed by the public under any circumstances, and that the percentage ought to be taken on the cost of schools alone, then the proportions are as below :—Fees, 12 per cent.; general taxation, 28 per cent.; local rates 60 per cent. Thus, even on this more favorable account, the parents defray only 12 per cent. of the cost of the education of their children at the schools of the Board, the remaining 88 per cent. being defrayed by the public. He intimates that an effort will be made to increase the aggregate received from fees and reduce, in a measure, the sum collected by public assessment. When the Elementary Education Bill was passed in 1870, Rt. Hon. W. E. Forster, who had charge of the measure, estimated that the parents would contribute one-third of the cost, but this expectation has not been realized. Salaries cost £785,015 out of a total of £1,053,206 for cost of management, and it is proposed to reduce the total of these by reducing the teaching staff, which is said to be too large. Another saving will be effected by selling school books to well-to-do parents. Sir Richard remarked that "the cost of school books, &c., is set down at £58,666 for the coming year. By our present system we supply school books gratuitously to all scholars, whether the parents are or are not able easily to defray the cost. Now, while we may all be willing to supply books free to really poor children, it does not follow that we should do the same for children whose parents can afford to pay. If we sold the books to the comparatively well-to-do children, that would be fair both to them and to the Board's finance. This plan of selling is adopted in some of the great Board schools in England, and we might inquire into this subject with financial advantage." It is also proposed to make the evening classes self supporting; the present gross expense is £7,000, net £2,756. Law expenses absorb £2.500, and it is proposed to cut these down. The feeling appears to be that the Board's expenditure has been too liberal, and that the schools are costing more than they need cost. Said Sir Richard :—"Finally, as an argument for economy, I give an extract from the last report of the Education Department on the cost and maintenance of children in average attendance in elementary schools. The cost in London Board schools for the year ending August, 1884, was £2 14s. 6d. a head, and in London Voluntary schools £2 2s. 2d. In England generally, excluding London, the cost in Board schools was £1 18s. 0¼d., and in Voluntary schools £1 14s. 7¾d. In Wales the Board school education was per head £1 14s. 7d., and in Voluntary schools £1 12s. 9½d., and in Scotland the Board school education cost £2 2s. 8d. and the Voluntary education £1 16s. 11d. These figures will differ from ours, because the Education Department have a slightly different method of reckoning. But the same method is applied to all parts of the country, and the comparison is fair for all. Now this comparison shows that the London average for Board schools is 43 per cent higher than that in England (excluding London), 55 per cent. than that in Wales, and 28 per cent. than that in Scotland. The additional expensiveness of a metropolis like London is, of course, to be remembered. But then the School Board average for London exceeds the rate for the voluntary schools in London also by 27 per cent."

Sir Richard points out that the object of the Elementary Education Act was to supplement, not to supercede, the voluntary work of the schools, and he thinks that if the new Board succeeds in cutting down the annual assesment in the public from £1,100,000 to £1,000,000, such a contribution in addition to the general taxes and the expenditure of the voluntary schools, would be "an emphatic testimony of the value set by the State and by the public on elementary education."

THE MAYORALTY: A WORD OF ADVICE.

The intelligence and worth of Montreal are on the side of the Mayor. The great majority of the citizens are on his side. The question is, shall the feelings and the wishes of the majority find expression at the polls on Monday next?

In an election contest opinions and good wishes are only of value as their holders back them up by their votes at the polling booths. They can do Mr. Beaugrand little good if they are not turned to practical account on polling day.

Some citizen may say to himself, there are so many electors declaring for Mr. Beaugrand that his vote is not needed. If a large number of a candidate's friends come to the decision not to vote for him because he is so strong, they may materially help to defeat him. The enemy are at this moment counting upon just such results. Let Mr. Beaugrand's friends see to it that the enemy shall be disappointed this time.

Others there are who think that if their votes are needed on Monday next they will be sent for in time. This indifference is, for every reason, to be deprecated. It is not merely a question of electing this or defeating that individual. It is the vindication of the city that is at stake, the reputation of the whole people that is in the scales. The matter comes home to every elector as a PERSONAL DUTY. The elector should see to it that he does his duty, let others do as they please. It may not be convenient to send carriages for all individual electors who are found not to have voted. Then let the elector WAIT FOR NOBODY. Let him poll his vote before he goes to his business in the morning.

The enemy have said they will divide St. Lawrence Ward. The hope of such a result is probably based upon the belief that the vote of the Ward will not be fully drawn out for Mr. Beaugrand in the absence of a contest for the office of Alderman. What has St. Lawrence Ward to say to that? Will it allow a candidate of the Party of Punishment to divide this noble ward? Will it lower its colors before Picotte? The electors will have something to say about that. We predict they will warm up to the work on Monday and give such a response to the Decary challenge as will strengthen the Mayor's hands and cheer the hearts of the workers in other wards.

What is needed on Monday is a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together. Don't forget it!

THOSE MEDALS.

We suppose it is right that English taxpayers should pay for the medals struck off for our North-West volunteers. At least, if John Bull does not object we need not, But the discussion in the British House of Commons was the first intimation to Canadians that the expense was not to be borne by Canada. It appears that sixty-six members of the British House voted against the grant, and these, we presume, are Parnellites who, knowing comparatively little of the merits of the rebellion in the North-West, took occasion to express their sympathy for Riel. Their "going it blind" in this fashion does not speak well for their judgment of Canadian affairs. If they were really opposed to the principle of the British taxpayer being required to pay for these medals, that would be an entirely different affair. We confess that we do not ourselves see why the people of England, Ireland and Scotland are willing to be taxed for them. The Canadian volunteer, however, will think none the less of the medals on that account. He gets his land, his pension or his compensation for wounds, from Canada and his medal from the British authorities. This is a sort of Imperial Federation to which the average Canadian soldier will have no objection.

FALSE CHARGES THAT COLLAPSED.—The sensational statements first published in the Toronto press on information supplied by Customs officials in Montreal, calculated to damage the business standing of Mr. G. B. Burland and the British-American Bank Note Co., of which he is manager, have been very thoroughly exploded. When Mr. Burland learned through the press of the accusations levelled at his Company, he insisted upon an investigation and placed the account books, letter books, invoices and papers of every description, connected with the business for the past twenty years, at the disposal of the Customs authorities, offering the fullest information and withholding no explanation which the official brain could possibly suggest. The result of the examination has been the complete collapse of the original charges and the admission that the information on which they were based was totally unfounded. It would have been strange, indeed, if, with the account books of Mr. Burland and the Company under microscopic examination, and the hundreds of thousands of dollars of importations, extending over twenty years, to account for, there was no irregularity of any kind whatever. Few business houses could stand such an ordeal and come ont, as Mr. Burland and his Company have done, without the slightest stain upon their business reputation. We are glad to see that the Mail, which was victimized in the matter, has promptly and handsomely acknowledged its error, and that our contemporaries are congratulating Mr. Burland upon the complete vindication which has resulted from the official examination.

THE Toronto Globe for the parliamentary session promises to be very interesting. Here is a sample of its style :—"Now W. M. Tweed was an abler scoundrel than is Sir John Macdonald. He was more courageous, if possible more unscrupulous and more crafty, and he had himself, as he thought, impregnably entrenched. Yet in a few short months he was in a prison cell, deserted and despised by all who had lived upon his wickedness—and there he died."

If this is "good form," what may we not expect before the session has closed?

In another article in the same issue the Globe remarks, quite casually, as it were:—"It is said that in the early history of the above-named Ontario township an unfortunate Catholic got among the Orange settlers, but, because he was a Catholic, was driven out of the township."

Such reminiscences are very pleasant. They tend to show the advance we are making in journalism and good feeling all round. At this rate, next to a police gazette, the Globe will soon become the most cheerful and elegant of American newspapers.

AT A SHIPOWNERS DINNER in Glasgow on the 4th inst.,—at which, by the way, shipping property to the value of £70,000,000 sterling was represented—Mr. Cochran Patrick drew attention to the fact that at the close of the 16th century the shipping trade of Glasgow was 296 tons. At the beginning of this century it had gone up to 1,956 tons. In the middle of the century it had made a leap to 145,684 tons, and in 1885 it had risen with bounds to 1,069,505 tons. Since 1752 the citizens of Glasgow through their municipal organizations had spent over £10,000,000 improving directly and indirectly the shipping interests of this great port. He found that their revenue in 1780 was the modest sum of £1,500. It was now, in 1886, something very nearly approaching £300,000.

THE EXCELLENT SERVICE rendered this city by the Sisters of St. Margaret, and especially by Sister Sarah, who now lies very ill of disease brought on by her devotion to the smallpox patients in St. Savior Hospital, is gratefully appreciated by our citizens. A small sum of money, some two or three hundred dollars, is needed to defray the expenses of her removal to Florida. We are sure that it is only necessary that the fact should be mentioned in this public way to ensure an immediate response. Contributions may be handed to Mr. Thomas Trimble, City Club, Mr. Hugh Graham, of the Star, Mr. Richard White, of the Gazette, or to Mr. Alexander Murray, secretary of THE HERALD Company, at THE HERALD offices.

POSTAL CONVENTION WITH EGYPT.—The Convention of September 11 between the post offices of Great Britain and Egypt, which was published yesterday, provides that the £12,000 to be paid annually for the conveyance of British mails by railway between Alexandria and Suez shall be reduced to £10,000 in the event of a considerable portion of the mails (say one-fourth) being at any time carried by packet through the Suez Canal instead of by the present route. This arrangement, however, applies to ordinary mails only and not to parcels sent by post.—London Times, Feb. 5

With the forwarding of mails from Britain to the East via Atlantic steamship lines and the Canadian Pacific Railway and connecting steamers to Asia, the British Post Office will be able to dispense to a considerable extent with postal conventions with Egypt. At all events, it will be enabled to act independently of the canal route, especially in time of war.

THE Week maintains that corruption is the essence of the union of the Canadian provinces. It rises to remark, for instance :—

Before sentence is passed on a particular man, we must ask whether it is possible that a group of provinces united by no bond of common interest, scattered across a continent, and divided in two by an alien nationality, should be held together in any other way.

According to the Week, there is no such thing as patriotism or mutual interest in the bond which holds together the Canadian confederation. This is making a low estimate of the intelligence and moral worth of the Canadian people. It is a shocking libel.

THE telegraph lines in the Northern States being all more or less affected by the storm very little foreign news came to us over the wires.

Patronage is Power

This is an essay on the present state of matters political in Canada, written by a person who is not connected in any way with politics.
It is a candid, impartial, and individual expression of opinion by one who has evidently studied such questions. It points out certain dangers which, in the opinion of the author, threaten the future of this country, and suggests, for the consideration of this people, remedies for these evils.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT]

MOVING THE ADDRESS.

OTTAWA, February 26.

The address in answer to the Speech from the Throne was moved to-day by Mr. Everett, the new member for the city and city of St. John, N.B. Mr. Everett, evidently, is not a novice in political matters, and though he made the usual demand for the consideration of the House it did not appear that he required it, for when, on his insisting that the numerous failures that had taken place under the N.P. were entirely due to "want of sufficient capital," the Opposition all round began to laugh. Mr. Everett was entirely unabashed, but tackled the laugh at once after the manner of a hardened stump speaker. His points were well made, from the Government point of view, and were, of course, warmly received by the Ministerial side. His remark that in consequence of the failure to effect fishery arrangements with the United States we should be bound to take effective measures to prevent encroachments upon Canadian fishery grounds, was loudly applauded from the Ministerial benches, which might either be regarded as a hint to Mr. Foster to buckle on his sword, or as a promise from the Government that they will do everything that is necessary in the premises. I send the principal points in Mr. Everett's address. After the conventional apology, to which I have referred, he dealt seriatim with the clauses of the Speech from the Throne.

Speaking of the bountiful harvest that Providence had favored the nation with, he adverted to the state of commerce as existing, and the Government's general trade policy. He then proceeded to make an excuse for the failure of the National Policy. Those factories that were now closed, he contended, had collapsed through want of capital. While the general commercial depression might, he said, account for the closing of these factories, as a rule they were closed because their promoters entered into the enterprises without sufficient capital. "With pride," he referred to the prosperity of N. P. manufacturing industries in his own province, New Brunswick. Unlike a few years ago, the artisans of that province were not now going to the States in search of employment, but were thriving at home, and even banking a portion of their wages. It was true that the shipping industry in New Brunswick had not been remunerative of late, but the same state of things existed in England, because there was too much shipping in the world. There were evidences in sight, however, that this industry was improving. He next eulogized the Government for the manner in which they had suppressed the recent rebellion, and he spoke in complimentary terms of Sir Adolphe Caron's services. When the Confederation Act was passed, the people of this country were proud to realize that they were Canadians, and the same warm national feeling that existed then still prevailed, and no better evidence of this could be wanted than the sight of citizen soldiers, from "way down by the sea," as well as in all parts of Canada, flocking to the scene of trouble on the prairies; all anxious to restore law and order. Proceeding, he congratulated the Government upon the successful completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and spoke of the vast benefits that would result from this road. Thirty years ago a line of railway from Halifax to the Pacific Ocean would have been considered a far-distant dream, but thanks to the present Administration that great event had been accomplished, and in a much shorter period of time than had been previously anticipated. He showed where the Canadian Pacific Railway had done much to make Canada better known to European nations. Her Majesty the Queen had shown her appreciation of the work by congratulating the Government, and also by conferring a baronetcy upon Sir George Stephen, the President of the Company. Mr. Everett concluded his allusion to the transcontinental railway by picturing the advantages Canada will reap by the Asiatic and Auslhaasian trade. Alluding to the fisheries, he spoke of the industry as one of the principal means of livelihood of the people of the Maritime Provinces, who hope that this question will receive the serious consideration of Parliament. Under the treaty effected with the United States the fishermen have been able to carry on their business with ports in the United States. The abrogation of the treaty, which occurred last July, has placed the fishermen in an awkward position. Their desire, he said, was to trade with the United States on fair and reasonable terms, but, if that was not to be, he hoped the Government would fully protect the interest of the fishermen of the Dominion. The fishermen began to realize that they could do without the U. S. markets, as there was a growing demand for fish from Western Canada, and large daily shipments were now made from Halifax and other ports to the West. He believed that in a short time the Western trade would have so far developed that the people of the Maritime Provinces would be unwilling to return to the old system of reciprocity in the fisheries.

THE SECONDER OF THE ADDRESS.

Mr. Ward, the new member for East Durham, seconded the addrdss and performed the ungrateful task of gleaning in a fairly well gathered field. He is a young man and wants experience on public speaking, but had evidently prepared himself for his duty by consulting the writings of Gladstone, and other eminent persons. A reference to the Premier realizing what he had promised drew forth the ejaculation "To-morrow" from somebody, and Mr. Ward must have been surprised at the laugh that broke out all over the House and the smile that flickered over the countenance of the venerable gentleman whom he was endeavoring to compliment. The duty of the seconder of the address is to pay any compliments to the Government that the mover may have overlooked, and this he did. Mr. Ward made a feeling reference to the late Colonel Williams.

THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION.

Mr. Blake followed Mr. Ward, and after complimenting the new members on the manner in which they had performed their duty, proceeded at once to speak of the country's position in the Fishery question, regretting that a year had been lost in facing the question. He limited his observations on this subject until he knew how the diplomatic state of the case lay, which would be learned when the papers came down. Seeing several openings for chaffing Mr. Everett the opportunity was too pleasing to be neglected, so he went at him at once on the "failures for want of money" of which he had spoken. But he shortly left him for more congenial ground in Sir John's shortcomings and to exchange some badinage with his old friendly foe, Mr. Pope. He said that he must express regret at the lateness of the period of the year at which Parliament was called to discharge its duty. He expressed that regret with a stronger feeling because there was a pledge to a January meeting. It is to the public interest that Parliament should meet earlier than it had in the past few years. He then alluded to the question of the Fishery treaty negotiations, reference to which was made in the Speech. He condemned the Administration for delay in arranging a settlement, and twitted Sir John about the latter's boasting of diplomacy over the Fishery relations and the failure of his negotiations, and said that people were now anxious to know whether or not at an early day the marine police were to be increased. He promised to deal with that question again. He took exception to the item regarding the prosperity of the country in the Speech from the Throne. He contended that depression prevailed, and it was the duty of honorable members to ascertain the cause of this. For Mr. Everett's benefit, Mr. Blake told him of the failure of many large factories in New Brunswick, and ridiculed the idea that this was owing to a want of capital. Alluding to the mover's prophecy of a home market for fish being established, he sarcastically said that notwithstanding the large trade along the Intercolonial Railway it is said the railway was not paying its way, as by way of retrenchment many of the employees of the road were being discharged.

Mr. Blake proceeded to point out some very important omissions in the Speech from the Throne. In the first place, there was no allusion to the large deficit that existed. Then, again, the important triumph of Provincial rights in the Privy Council, Sir John to the contrary notwithstanding, is not referred to. The Exchange Bank loss is still left alone. In reference to the Indians he condemned the action of the Government in putting the Indians on short rations by way of punishment for their faults in the North-West, characterizing it as most unwise and almost inhuman. Speaking of the paragraph in relation to the disturbance in the North-West, he said he thought it indicated intended expenditures that were disappointing after the recent augmentation of the North-West police force, and he thought that the principle of local organizations with liberal encouragement should be the guiding one. The Government, however, were in the best position to judge of what was necessary, and they were responsible for the measures they might adopt. The time to deal with this question would by and by arise. He indulged in some gentle chaff at Sir John's speech at the St. George's club, particularly on the subject of the Navy which Sir John promised to provide to enforce peace throughout the world, and then seriously condemned the idea of Canada being associated in providing blood and arms to carry out every Jingo scheme that England might undertake, instancing the Soudan campaign as one in which Canadians would not have approved our active participation. A policy of which Canada had no voice in moulding, she would not be content to promote with men and money. Breaking again into badinage he quoted several remarks of Sir John's at various times and applied some "Hans Breitman" in a ludicrous way that brought down the House. Considerable interest and some amusement was caused by Mr. Blake's reading the account of a scene that occurred some years ago between Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper and the Hon. D. A. Smith.

Mr. Blake continued his speech, reviewing with sarcastic harmour the changes in the Cabinet during the recess.

Sir John replied, explaining that owing to the approaching presidential election, and Blaine's hostile attitude towards Great Britain, it was useless to ask for a renewal of the Fishery treaty. He did so after the election, offering a continuance of privileges to avoid a conflict while the negotiations were pending. He could not help the impending failure. He defended his speech at the St. George's Club and said that an appeal to the country on that general line would leave Mr. Blake in a miserable minority, and twitted him with holding free trade principles while afraid to make it a plank in his platform. He defended the Cabinet changes and the individual members, including Mr. MacPherson. He attacked Mr. Blake, characterising his speech as unchristian, ungentlemanly and malignant. He excused taking Mr. Thompson from the Bench, repudiated the charge of cutting down the provisions of Indians remaining on the reserves, who were now better fed than in the old buffalo days.

MR. CARTWRIGHT

followed, quoting the Premier's remarks on Mr. Vail joining Mr. Mackenzie's Cabinet, these being more uncharitable and ungentlemanly than those now excepted to. He contrasted Sir John's Toronto and London speeches on Imperial Federation, showing inconsistency.

He was answered by

who maintained that the report was garbled and that all the Premier's speeches were consistent in spirit and in language.

MR DAVIES

bitterly complained of the Government extending privileges to the Americans without compensation, which was ruinous to the Maritime people.

HON. MR. MITCHELL

protested against the use of language in England on Imperial Federation that could only mislead. He would never consent to anything limiting Canada's self-government or imposing burdens on her by outside authority. On the Fishery question, he could not agree with the Premier's action. On the knowledge of the abrogation of the fishery clauses of the Washington Treaty, immediate steps should have been taken to establish a marine police in case the treaty was not renewed. It would have protected Canadian fishermen and assisted in obtaining a treaty. Although late, it was not too late now. He trusted immediate action would be taken by the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries. He referred to the harsh changes made on the Intercolonial Railway in the middle of winter, and hoped this would be rectified, as the poor people could get no employment at this time of the year.

The debate ended without any amendment to the Speech being proposed.

THE NEW WILLIAMS

SEWING MACHINE

During the comparatively short period it has been before the public has gained for itself a name and reputation that other machines have failed to acquire in twenty years.

Intending purchasers should bear in mind that the NEW WILLIAMS is not a mere improvement on the old reliable Williams Singer Machine, but a new and improved machine constructed on an entirely different principle. It has a High, Roomy Arm, a Self-Threading Shuttle, an Automotic Bobbin Winder, a Tension-Thread Releaser, a Self-Adjusting Castor or levelling machine on uneven floors, and several other new and valuable inventions.

It is very light running, quiet, and easy to learn.

Auction Sales for the Spring,

I am now making arrangements for sales of Household Furniture at private residences during March and April, and shall be pleased to hear from those who propose giving up housekeeping, so that suitable days may be selected. I have superior storage for Household Goods in my new warehouse.

During the Spring I shall also hold some good sales of Farm Stock, both in the country and at my saleyard.

The sales of Household Furniture (now established over 20 years) at my rooms every Friday will be continued as usual.

Also the usual sales every Tuesday afternoon of Horses, Harness, Carriages, &c., at my saleyard.

During the past few years I have conducted most successfully some of the largest sales of real estate, both by auction and private sale.

I beg to thank my friends and the public for the liberal patronage extended to me in the past, more particularly since moving into my new premises, which I have endeavored to make the finest in the Dominion

Insurance appraisals and other valuations all receive my personal attention.

NEW YORK GOSSIP.

The Hancock Movement—The New Baritone Ludwig—Lakme and the Magic Flute at the Academy—Miss Thursby's Concert—"Engaged" at Madison Square—Society Notes—"Au Canada"—The Fashions.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE HERALD.]

NEW YORK, February 25.

We have less than a fortnight in which to be gloriously gay. And we are doing our best to be blithesome. It is not easy.

Just as we have made out our programme something unexpected occurs, and away go our hilarious projects. No one thought that General Hancock would leave us so quickly. But as the hero has gone, the purse for his esteemed widow is as quickly being strengthened by his admirers. General Grant's fund lags. The sun of the Grant family seems to have permanently set. The publicity with which the younger members of that family conducted every possible thing appears to have had a bad effect upon the community at large. Let a noted man die now, the first noticeable request of the bereaved family is, "We wish as private a funeral as possible." This speaks for itself.

Well, the world still goes round, and steamers punctually arrive and depart. The big Cunarder Sarnia came in on Monday afternoon last, and brought with her the new baritone for the American Opera, Mr. William Ludwig. This gentleman is about forty years of age, of fine appearance, in fact a robust Irishman. He has been connected with the Carl Rosa Opera Company of London, and is familiar with the music of the operas of the American Opera's repertory.

On Monday night next "Lakme" is to be sung for the first time in this country, and it is expected Mr. Ludwig will personate the role "Nilakautha."

On this occasion the receipts will be given in charity, and an ultra fashionable assemblage will be present. Most of the boxes have been disposed of at a higher figure than usual and many of the seats in the auditorium have followed suit. Altogether, the initial performance of "Lakme" augurs to be worthy of the work.

Last night the "Magic Flute" was sung before a large and appreciative audience. Mozart's work seemed to be most solemnly interpreted, even when a lighter tone entered in the comic parts. The opera was very handsomely mounted, the mise-en-scene of the last act gorgeous in the extreme. Mlle. L'Allemand was a good "Astrafiamente," the other roles were not badly done, but none escaped mere mediocrity. "The Magic Flute," in English, does not sufficiently hold the attention. Of course, the "Priest's Chorus" is grand, and was about the best of the work done.

THEATRE GOSSIP.

The Madison Square Theatre has bid good-bye to "Saints and Sinners" and placed W. S. Gilbert's "Engaged" on its boards, with Miss Agnes Booth in her familiar character, "Belinda." The burlesque was most charmingly acted, the fine company artistically rendering each role, and making the most of every funny situation. Mr. Gilbert's play in Mr. Gilbert's style is thoroughly known to every playgoer on this continent, so I need say but little. It is not new; the author cannot get outside of himself, but the public are pleased with his results, his methods being always about the same. The English playwright seems to charm always, charm he never so wisely. The completely filled house testified their entire appreciation, and again must we praise the tact of Mr. A. M. Palmer. No doubt "Engaged" will run through the season.

MISS THURSBY'S CONCERT.

The world knows Miss Thursby. But the world itself was surprised at the immense success of that lady's musical entertainment of Tuesday evening last. The Metropolitan Opera House was filled by the friends and admirers of the talented songstress, a representative audience, who lavished their praises over the miscellaneous vocal and instrumental music of the programme as the "summer lavishes heat."

Miss Thursby was of course the cynosure. The numbers assigned to her were Mozart's "O Mia Speranza Adorata," the "Mad Scene" from Thomas' "Hamlet" and a tarentella from Bizet. In the lesser dramatic pieces Miss Thursby was at home, c'est-a-dire, facile, brilliant, pleasing. The lady has not sufficient force to fill the role in Hamlet's "Mad Scene," and consequently did not suit the severe critic. She was encored again and again, and her admirers seemed to increase with each recall.

SOCIETY NOTES.

The week has been unusually gay, both with regard to public entertainments and private parties. The exodus to the South goes on, chiefly among people who on account of bereavements do not go into gaieties. After the middle of March parties will go to the Floridas and the tropics, chiefly to be gay in a new way.

Mrs. G. R. Scheiffelin opened the week's festivities with a cotillion for her daughter at her new house 8 East 45th street. The guests were principally young people, and among them most of the debutantes of the season. The handsome mansion was beautifully decorated with flowers and tropical plants. A delicious supper was partaken of at midnight, and seemed to give strength to the dancers, for after that there was no rest till early in the morning.

There was much amusement at the opening of the new Athenæum on Washington Heights a few nights ago, when many people well known in the social world gathered together to give prestige to the occasion as well as to hear Miss Henrietta Beebe's sweet voice.

High teas, lunches, grand dinners, formal and ceremonious receptions, readings' lectures, amateur entertainments of a dramatic and musical nature are crowding each other in rapid succession. A number of New Yorkers are busy talking about the chere amie of the late Wm. H. Vanderbilt, accepting, of course, the costly bounty of her unequalled entertainments.

"AU CANADA

et Aux Montagnes Rocheuses, en Russie, en Corse, a l'Exposition Universelle d'Anvers," is the latest publication imported by Mr. F. W. Christern, of 37 West 23rd street, and consists of a series of letters written by M. G. de Molinari, upon the subjects just named, all having appeared in the Journal des Debats, of Paris.

The author graphically and truthfully describes Canada, from his arriving spot, Halifax, to the Rocky Mountains. The traits of the cities of Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Ontario and Winnipeg, of their specialties, of their good and bad qualties, of the generous hospitality everywhere offered and accepted, declaring: "Mais c'est a peine si l'hospitalite Montrealaise nous laisse le temps de respirer." Monsieur Molinari's letters are bright, philosophic and often quite witty. The talented gentleman speaks so truthfully of his North American visit, if we except a somewhat misconceived idea of the late Riel, that we feel bound to accept what he remarks of Russia, Corsica and the Antwerp Exposition. None reading "Au Canada" will be displeased to learn what others say about the Canadians. In drawing the comparison between traveling in Europe and travelling in this country, M. Molinari observes: "Bon lecteur, ecoutez un conseil d'ami: Voyagez en Amerique, mais en Europe, croyez moi, restez chez vous."

In novels the same firm has just imported "L'Histoire d'un Chinois," by Berthe Balley; "La Dame aux peignoir Bleu," by P. Bonhomme, and "Clairefontaine," by Henri Greville. This author I described to you last week; of these works another time.

THE FASHIONS.

I hinted to you about a fortnight since that the finer textures were again coming in, and that the spring innovations would show them.

To-day I am prepared to reiterate that statement, informing you that fine French cashmeres are largely imported by first-class merchants and will be used in combination with the new sheer fabrics that are striped all over with plush or with velvet. The softest dull colors are seen in these cashmeres, but most prominent are the bronze and moss green shades and all ecru and beige tints. To combine green and beige is one of the fancies for spring dresses that have already declared themselves in certain fabrics, for instance, the basque and drapery of bronze green cashmere, with a vest and panels or skirt front of ecru canvas, with lengthwise stripes of bronze plush in groups, or else with cross stripes of plush in graduated widths, quite broad arms and becoming the merest line near the belt.

Beige cashmere, when used for the basque and draperies, is associated with a similar sheer fabric of ecru ground, on which are brown plush stripes, or else a group of stripes of different colors forming one wide stripe, such as porcelain blue, chaudron, bronze green, brown, and myrtle green.

Stripes, sashes, lengthwise pleats, revers, and very bouffant draperies, some of which are long and others very short, are the features that are confirmed for next season's dresses.

On dit that flounces are to be restored to favor, but at present there is little to corroborate this assertion. The narrow foot pleating, which is sewed on foundation skirts, is needed to support the outside skirt and long draperies, and should be placed there for this purpose even when not visible.

A device of the modistes to prevent the skirt being thrust forward at every step of the wearer is that of making three slits upwards in the foot of the front breadth of the foundation skirt. Each of these slits is two or three inches long, and the braid which binds the skirt extends up the slits also. Of course these open spaces are hidden entirely by the outside skirt.

VELVET AND PLUSH

will remain in favor as the accessories of summer toilettes, to give tone to many fabrics that are almost colorless.

A spring visiting costume of moss green cashmere will have a long ridingote polonaise of the cashmere, which meets in front only at a single point in the corsage, and on this will be the wide directoire revers of dark green velvet, a dog-collar of velvet, warm cuffs of the same, a belt with a buckle, and large square-cornered pockets of velvet on each side, held by buckles or buttons. The skirt and plastron of such a dress will be of velones etamme, or plush-striped canvas, either in cross or perpendicular stripes, according as the height of the wearer may require, and will be disposed in very broad belts, of which, perhaps, only four will be visible their whole length, and those are directly in front. The polonaise will slope away from its single button at the top of the first dart, and fall in lengthwise pleats in front and behind, while the sides form broad panels on which pockets are set.

NEW PARISIAN BONNETS.

Among the new evening capotes, the three following styles are the most favorably received: One is baby shape, of light pink embroidered tulle, frilled in the crown, and forming a large puffing around the raised brim. This is trimmed with a double row of cut jet beads about the size of a small nut. These beads are also arranged in bunches on the puffing. This bonnet has, besides, a number of pink satin bows, which are placed in aigrette style in front.

Another bonnet is covered with roses stripped of their leaves. These form a ground of petals, with part of the leaves adhering to them here and there. On either side of the bonnet are tulle wings, like mercury's embroidered with pearl beads. They are joined on the top of the hat.

The "Theodora" capote is the latest Parisian novelty. It has a small ball crown of silk plush and two revers which fall from the brim over the crown. These revers are also of plush. The bonnet bears a diadem of amber beads and a light fancy bird. In fact all small capotes have very high trimmings on one side. The favored colors for these are black, brown, amber, and the shades of red, such as brick fire, and wine color.

Parisian dinner dresses, are as elegant as ever. For very ceremonious dinners, long trains are again in wear. These are round or square. Sometimes the train terminates in three sharp points, the central one being longer than the two side points. Waists are also cut in many ways. They are sometimes pointed on the upper part or they form two bretelles fastened to a low corselet. The upper part of the waist often consists of a chemisette of lace or gauze, which either covers the whole neck or is partly open.

A stylish black toilet is of fine quality of French faille. The skirt forms a large pleat in front, while on either side is a quille of fancy velvet. Down the sides of the velvet and following the designs thereon are the finest jet beads. These beads also fall in bunches from the centres of the flowers, and add greatly to the effect of this sombre dress.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast table with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." Civil Service Gazette.—Made simply with boiling water or milk. SKIN DISEASES

Are of two kinds: firstly, those which are only skin deep (which are not now to be considered); secondly, those which are caused by a bad state of the blood, and which attack various parts of the body in different ways. Skin disease shows itself in the HEAD, sometimes in the form of Dandruff which no amount of brushing and combing will get rid of, and sometimes in the form of Scaly Eruptions. In the NECK, by an enlargement of the glands (commonly called Glandular Swellings), which if unchecked become very unsightly wounds. In the ARMPITS, and the inside of the ELBOWS, by an inflamed Roughness of the Skin, which is very painful when washed. In the HANDS, by deep Cracks or Fissures, which, if healed for a few days, speedily open again, or by horny-looking patches. In the LEGS, by Hard Shiny and Inflamed Swellings, or by wounds more or less deep. And on the BODY, in Red Scaly Patches, which as often as rubbed off, form again, or in the discharge of a thin watery fluid of a very disagreeable nature. In all these cases the treatment must be twofold. An Ointment is required to relieve Itching, and Medicine must be taken to change the state of the Blood, and render it pure.

Both these requirements are supplied by

Dr. Roberts' Celebrated Medicines,

The OINTMENT called

"THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND,"

And the PILLS called

PILULÆ ANTI-SCROPHULÆ OR ALTERATIVE PILLS.

These two Medicines have now stood the test of 100 years' trial, having been introduced to the public in the latter part of the last century.

MEN, WOMEN, AND THINCS,

Or Cheerful Clippings from All Quarters.

—The Queen is going to the circus for the first time in 20 years.

—Maurice Grau sailed for Europe on Tuesday to complete arrangements for the coming American tour of Sarah Bernhardt.

—The Princess Amelie d'Orleans, daughter of the Compte de Paris, on her marriage with the Duke of Braganza will receive a dowry of $2,000,000 from her uncle the Duc d'Aumale.

—Albert Victor Edward, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, is described as a shy, pale, boyish-looking young fellow, who doesn't look his twenty-two years. He is devotedly attached to his mother, whom he resembles in character and features.

—Over $11,000 has been subscribed to the monument for John McCullough. Ten thousand dollars more is wanted, and it is expected that the amount will be raised among the friends of McCullough in the various cities without having recourse to benefits.

—Capt. G. Wyatt, of the Georgetown Cricket Club, of Demerara, has organized a West India cricket team, which will make a tour of the United States and Canada this summer. He will have five men from Jamaica, four from Demerara, and seven from Barbadoes and Trinidad.

—Samuel Davidson, of Corydon, Ind., failed to supply his family with enough wood to keep them warm. A lot of his neighbors seized him, the other evening, hitched him to a sled and forced him to haul wood all night. When he lagged he was well whipped with limber switches.

—They have high license with a vengeance in Decatur, Ill. Liquor sellers must pay $500 a year, and there is a heavy penalty if cards, dice, or dominoes are played in the drinking places. No screens are allowed in saloons or barrooms, and there can be no paint, lettering, or curtains to obstruct the windows.

—M. Vereschagin, the Russian painter, chanced to be in London during the recent riot, and is now portraying its features on canvas. The artist, by the way, declares that he never saw "such a famished, degraded, ill-clad, brutalized and hideously miserable mob in his life," for which he is soundly berated by the London journals.

—A Chautauqua County cheese maker went to Buffalo the other day and brought home a fine imported Swiss cheese. All praised it but his wife, who, after the praise had ceased, said she had found her husband's private mark on the cheese. He had paid thirty-three cents a pound for the very cheese that he had made and sold for six cents.

—Bobby was awake when his mother returned home from the theatre at midnight. "Did you say your prayers to nurse, Bobby," she asked, "before you went to bed?" "No," he said, sleepily; "I forgot it." "Well, you had better come and say them to me now." "What!" said Bobby, in drowsy astonishment; "does God stay up all night?"

—Amateur sportsman (to old settler)—"Any game about this neighborhood, friend?" Old settler—"Plenty of it, stranger." Amateur sportsman—"Big game?" Old settler—"Some all-fired big game, stranger!" Amateur sportsman (excited)—"Can you put me on it?" Old settler—"You bet!" Sportsman—"What kind of ammunition will we want?" Old settler—"Poker chips, stranger."

—"We have called Rev. Dr. Blank to our church, next year." "You don't mean it! I never heard of him. What church has he ever had? Is he a famous preacher?" "Famous preacher? Should say he was. He has been indicted by a grand jury twice, and was three times suspended from the ministry in four years. I expect we shall have to build an addition to our church in six months."

—First dude—"Yas, Chawley is a good enough fellow, but he is feahfully defawmed, you know." Second dude—"Defawmed? No, I didn't know it. In what way is Chawley defawmed?" "Why, Gawge, you see he has a hawid great cowlick wight on his forehead, so he can't part his hair in the middle. It is too deuced bad, you knaw, for, aside from his defawmity, Charley is a danged good fellow, you knaw."

—Miss Cleveland has adopted for use in her correspondence a crest which is a copy of the new seal recently provided for the President and shows the bald-headed eagle, not with wings outstreched as formerly, but with his wearied pinions at rest; upon the breast of the eagle rests the familiar shield, with its thirteen stripes and thirteen stars. The crest is printed in dead gold and below it appears the words, "The President's House."

—Carl Detloff, the Detroit German who is the father of a round dozen of boys, the last named Grover Cleveland, has received a letter from the President expressing his appreciation of the compliment and his hearty willingness to stand sponsor by proxy at the baptismal ceremony. The President cannot become godfather unless personally present, and the child will be taken to Washington for christening if Mr. Cleveland will promise to attend at the church.

—There is an irreverent story which was once current in books of "American Humor." In is about an incautious traveller who explored certain parts of Polynesia. The natives, not being acquainted with white men, killed, cooked and ate him—not for cruelty, but to see what kind of an animal he was. "I don't mind his being killed," said the friend of his bosom, commenting on the incident, "but I hate to hear of his being fooled away over a darned experiment."

—Gen. Hancock owned a farm of 640 acres one mile from Windsor, Mo. A portion of it was obtained on the Mexican war grant and the rest by purchase. It is a beautiful farm and has been kept in very good order, comprising fertile fields and excellent pastures. The general had visited it several times and often expressed his intention of making it his home after his retirement from the army. The place has modest improvements on it and is probably worth $25 an acre.

—The New York Mail and Express, after describing some luxurious bedrooms, concludes with that of a little child of nine, wherein the point of extravagance has certainly been reached. Off this wonderful bedroom, which is furnished in white mahogany and hung with grey silk, brocaded with rosebuds, is a dressing room lined with white enamel tiles. Here is a porcelain bath and marble toilet, on which are laid superb silver mounted toilet articles. A maid is in attendance. Just what this little girl can have when she is grown the writer does not know.

—Jeff Davis, now living on his plantation at Beauvoir, halt way between New Orleans and Mobile, is described by the Picayune on a recent visit: "He came into the drawing-room from a walk in his grounds. He was dressed in black, wearing a broad brimmed planter's hat and carrying a walking stick, on which, however, he did not lean. The old chief was tall and erect, and, save for his full white beard and silver hair, showed no signs of senility or decay. Mr. Davis in manner is entirely free from ostentation, and is exceedingly simple and natural, but always refined and courteous."

—A Burlington carnivalist writes: "I saw a fat young New York woman in sealskin take her place in front on a toboggan while her husband leaped on behind. Bang went the forward leg and away went the toboggan. It was exactly as if it had been shot over the gutter on the edge of a high roof. It feels just as that would feel. The fat young woman uttered a shriek and fainted. The flying trip was made in safety, but she was unconscious. When she came to she was taken to her home in a sleigh ill from fright."

A MODEL MAN.

He didn't play the fiddle, part his hair in the middle, nor dress like an Anglican dude.
When he goes to a party with the Meigs or McCarty, he never is noisy and rude.

He lives in frugality and sweet conjugality, and wants pie but two times a day;
He never eats onions nor treads on your bunions, nor growls when you get in his way;

He's wise and he's witty, persevering and gritty, and he has a magnificent head;
He's all light and sweetness, he's thorough completeness, he's perfection in short—but he's dead!

—"Fritz" Emmet's smile, as seen in Minneapolis, is thus described: "He opens his mouth until his white teeth are revealed. His eyes twinkle until they are nearly closed. He looks up in a shy, innocent way, and in a moment the house bubbles over with mirth. He doesn't have to say a word or sing a note. It is such a joyous, unconstrained revelation of the science of laughter. It almost makes you forgive your enemies. Pleasurable emotions thrill your whole being. It is as infectious as the smallpox, and you catch it without halt trying."

—The King of Denmark's family is a sort of religious curiosity shop. When next he gathers his family around him, which he is accustomed to do every year or two, he will have before him Lutherans, English High Church, Russian Orthodox, Greek Catholics and Roman Catholics. These varieties of belief will be represented by the Duke of Cumberland, the Princess of Wales, Empress of Russia, King of Greece and the children of Prince Waldemar. King Christian himself is nominally a Lutheran, but judging from the family belief he may be said to belong to the Broad Church.

—Lord Rosebery, British Minister of Foreign Affairs, received from his parents three gifts—a historic name, a robust constitution and a finished education. These he resolved from his childhood to supplement by three others—to carry off the Derby, to marry a rich heiress and to become Prime Minister of England. He began by bearing off the Epsom blue ribbon, and followed up his luck by winning the hand of Miss Henrietta Rothschild. These two preliminaries to political advancement he deemed necessary in a country where horses and money lead to all kinds of success. He regards his present position as the first step towards the final object of his ambition—the Prime Ministership

—Miss Minna Miller, who married Mr. Thomas A. Edison a few days ago, is about twenty-one years old, and is the seventh of ten children. She became acquainted with Mr. Edison at the home of one of his business associates in Boston, nearly two years ago, she then being at school in that city. Her father, Mr. Lewis Miller, is an inventor, holding fully one hundred patents, mostly on agricultural implements. From these he has acquired a fortune estimated at not less than $2,000,000. More than 2,000 men are employed in his factories, where a new mowing or reaping machine is turned out, finished, ready for use, every five minutes during working hours.

—One day last fall a strange woman appeared at a farmhouse in Indiana and announced that she was a clairvoyant who had come down from Chicago to show the farmer where to dig up a jug containing $20,000 in gold. "What's the charge?" cautiously inquired the farmer? "Two thousand dollars in advance." "Shoo! that's outrageous." "But think of it. You will have $18,000 left." "Y-e-s, I suppose so, but I reckon we'll let the old jug rest for a while yet. I drawed $50 in a lottery last month and I cleared $7 in a bucket-shop this week, and I don't keer to pile it on too thick. Even now the old woman wants new shoes, and the gals are crazy to have the house painted two coats."

IMPORTANT.

Passengers arriving in the City of New York via Grand Central Depot save $3 Carriage Hire and Transfer of Baggage by stopping at the GRAND UNION HOTEL opposite said depot. Passengers arriving by West Shore Railroad, via Weehawken Ferry, by taking the 42nd street Horse Cars at Ferry entrance, reach Grand Union Hotel in ten minutes for 5 cents, and save $3 Carriage Hire. 600 Elegant Rooms, $1 and upwards per day. European Plan. Elevators, Restaurant, Cafe, Lunch and Wine Rooms supplied with the best. Prices moderate. Families can live better for less money at the Grand Union than at any other strictly first-class hotel in the city. Guests' baggage delivered to and from Grand Central Depot free.

I OWE MY LIFE.

CHAPTER I.

"I was taken sick a year ago
With bilious fever."

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I
Could not move!
I shrunk!
From 228 lbs. to 120! I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters.
Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles, I am not only as sound as a sovereign, but weigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."

R. FITZPATRICK.
Dublin, June 6. '81.

CHAPTER II.

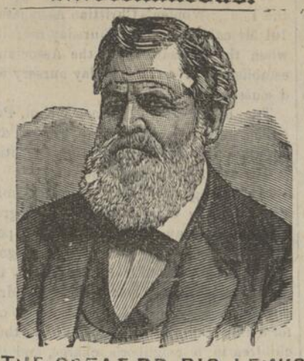

"Malden, Mass., Feb. 1, 1880.—Gentlemen,—I suffered with attacks of sick headache."
Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner.
No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure, until I used Hop Bitters.
"The first bottle
Nearly cured me;"
The second made me as well and strong as when a child.
"And I have been so to this day."
My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious
"Kidney, liver, and urinary complaint,
"Pronounced by Boston's best physicians—"Incurable!"
Seven bottles of your Bitters cured him, and I know of the "Lives of eight persons"
In my neighborhood that have been saved by your Bitters,
And many more are using them with great benefit. "They almost do miracles!"

—Mrs. D. E. Slack.

HOW TO GET SICK.—Expose yourself day and night; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know HOW TO GET WELL—Which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters!

☞ None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

THE GREAT DR. DIO LEWIS

His Outspoken Opinion.

The very marked testimonials from College Professors, respectable Physicians, and other gentlemen of intelligence and character to the value to Warner's SAFE Cure, published in the editorial columns of our best newspapers, have greatly surprised me Many of these gentlemen I know, and reaping their testimony I was impelled to purchase some bottles of Warner's SAFE Cure and analyse it. Besides, I took some, swallowing three times the prescribed quantity. I am satisfied the medicine is not injurious, and will readily add that if I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble I should use this preparation. The truth is, the medical profession stands dazed and helpless in the presence of more than one kidney malady, while the testimony of hundreds of intelligent and very reputable gentlemen hardly leaves room to doubt that Mr. H. H. Warner has fallen upon one of those happy discoveries which occasionally bring help of an ering humanity.

CITY NEWS.

The Brick Houses, 141 to 147 Nazareth Street, will be sold by Mr. Potter at his room on Tuesday morning.

The library of the late Joseph Doutre, Esq., Q.C., will be sold at my room on Saturday afternoon, 6th March. Thos. J. Potter, auctioneer.

Rosemount, Cote St. Antoine, this delightful situation, residence and grounds for sale, early possession. W. E. Shaw, 322 St. James street.

Try the Puritanos—Without exception the best imported Havana Cigar ever offered for ten cents each at S. Hyman's, 180 St. James street.

Montreal General Hospital.—The Visiting Governors to this institution for week commencing Monday, March 1st, will be Andrew Allan, Esq., and James Burnett, Esq.

Reputation.—Hirsch (the tobacconist opposite the post office) has established the reputation of keeping the highest class Havana Cigars to be had in this market. The special brand "Arletta de M. Hirsch" are acknowledged as above the average.

Writ of Prohibition.—A writ has been issued by Messrs. Mercier, Beausoleil & Martineau, on behalf of Messrs. Cyriac St. Amour, against Messrs. Normandeau & Devlin, Health Court Magistrates, on the ground of irregularities in the writ of summons.

Argyle Snowshoers.—A very successful concert was given last evening by the Argyle Snowshoe Club in the Victoria Mission Chapel, Point St. Charles. There was a large attendance. Recitations and music made up the programme of exercises.

Trains Delayed.—All the incomming trains were delayed by the storm last evening. The Central Vermont, due at 8.30, did not arrive in Montreal until 10.30; the Toronto train until 12.05 a. m., and the New York and Boston trains were also several hours behind time.

The Treasurer of the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge acknowledges, with thanks, a donation of $5 from O. H. The Superintendent acknowledges, with thanks, the following donations:—Dr. Godfrey, parcel of cast off clothing; Mr. Montgomery, do; a friend, do.; Mr. W. B. Dawson, do.

W. E. Shaw has just completed the sale of the jewellery stock of estate Savage & Lyman, the sales lasted most of the week, and were remarkably well attended. This afternoon the fixtures, show cases, safes and tools will be sold at 2 o'clock. We understand Mr. Harper has rented the store.

The Montreal Young Women's Christian Association gratefully acknowledges the receipt of $246, collected in St. Paul's Church by Mrs. Barclay and Sanderson, and also by the hand of Mr. Max Murdoch, from the Young People's Society of the American Presbyterian Church, $134, being the proceeds of the pink tea party.

For Sister Sarah.—It is announced that the offertories in Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday, the 28th instant, will be devoted to providing a holiday for Sister Sarah, Lady Mother of St. Saviour's Smallpox Hospital, whose health has been completely broken down by her long and arduous work in the hospital. It is hoped that many will contribute liberally towards this object.

The Delightful Villa "Rose Arden," Cote St. Antoine, belonging estate, late Joseph Doutre, Esq, Q.C., can be seen by permit from the auctioneer, Mr. T. J. Potter. The sale of this really charming residence takes place at Mr. Potter's room, on Tuesday morning. A business or professional man who wishes to acquire a suburban homestead in a beautiful and at the same time convenient situation should attend this sale.

Annual Dinner.—The third annual dinner of the McGill Chapter of the Zeta-Psi fraternity, one of the largest Greek letter fraternities of America, came off last evening at the Windsor. Some thirty old and active members were present, some of whom came from a distance. Festivities were continued until after midnight. Among the features of the evening was a poem by Dr. Palmer, which traced the fraternity's origin from the highly moral Eozoon-Canadense of Sir Wm. Dawson.

Complimentary Social.—A highly successful complimentary social was given last evening in the Masonic Chambers under the auspices of the Lodge of Antiquity. There was a very large gathering of ladies and gentlemen present. M. W. Bro. J. F. Walker, G.M., G.L. of Quebec, delivered a highly interesting address. A splendid programme of music and readings was given, in which the following participated:—Messrs. and Miss Aspinall, Barnjumn's G. G. Club, Mr. J. J. Greaves, Mrs. Akerman, W. Bro. Emo, Mr. Speedie, Mr. Malcolm, Master Milne, Mr. T. Clarke, Miss Parke, W. Bro. Ion and Barnjumn's G. G. Club, Miss LeMessurier and Miss Akerman, Mrs. Akerman, Mr. R. Paton, Miss Fould, Barnjumn's G. G. Club. After the concert dancing was indulged in until a late hour this morning.

First Baptist Church.—About 500 persons were present, last evening, in the Lecture Hall of the First Baptist Church, on the occasion of a grand literary and musical entertainment given by the choir in aid of the debt on the church building. The event was in every respect an enjoyable one, and credit is due to those who took part in the programme for the manner in which they acquitted themselves of their respective tasks. The choir sang the following jubilee songs: "King Emmanuel," "Hard Trials," "My Lord's waiting all the time," "Oh, Sinner Man," "Steal Away," "The Lord's Prayer," "Wait a little while," "Good-bye Brothers." Readings were given by Mr. Packard, Miss Allan, and solos by Mr. W. A. Scott, Mrs. Simpson, Miss Buchanan, Mr. Barnard; duets by Messrs. Barnard and Scott, and a quartette by Miss Buchanan, Mrs. Simpson and Messrs. Barnard and Scott.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music.

Miss Rosina Vokes and her company of talented artists appeared again, last evening, before a full house. This afternoon and evening will witness the closing performance of this company. Those who have not yet seen the play should not lose this opportunity, as the play is a good one.

"The Rajah," to come from the Madison Square Theatre of New York, will commence an engagement for the week at the Academy of Music next Monday, March 1st. The play will be presented by a strong company, part of the original cast, and scenery. "The Rajah" is a four-act play of the present time, the scene being in and around and about an English country house called Wyncot Lodge, and Harold Wyncot, the master of Wyncot, is the Rajah. The New York Morning Journal of February 2nd says:—"The Third Avenue Theatre last night had a large audience gathered in its spacious auditorium to witness the first performance at this house of 'The Rajah,' which achieved such a decisive success some years ago at the Madison Square Theatre. The play was finely mounted, and the brook scene was particularly realistic and effective. The company engaged in the presentation was very good, and did at least justice to their roles. Some of the strong points of the drama were almost uproariously applauded, and there were several recalls in the course of the performance."

Theatre Royal.

This evening the "Argonauts of '49" will be produced for the last time. It has drawn full houses all week and been well received. On Monday J. Z. Little's celebrated play of "The World" will be produced with all its beautiful tableaux and thrilling effects. The Brooklyn Eagle says of this play:—

The Grand Opera House was crowded last night on the occasion of the production of Mr. J. Z. Little's drama "The World." Henry Ellison, the principle character, and only son of a wealthy American, is forced by the cruelty of his father and the contrivings of his parent's house-keeper to leave home. He enlists in the U.S. Navy and is lost to sight. His sister Rosa mourns him as dead. The father dies, one Powers is appointed guardian of Rosa. He is a villain, and is determined to possess himself both of the girl and her fortune. In his nefarious schemes he is assisted by Palastrio, alias Morris Abrahams. The auxiliary characters are Captain Dickson, commander of the steamer Good Hope, and Jennie and Dennis, servants. The play opens with the departure of the steamer for America, having on board as passengers the brother and sister, who are unknown to each other as such, and the rascally guardian. The latter scuttles the ship, which sinks in mid-ocean, Harry Ellison, constructing a raft and lashing Rosa and her maid on the same as the vessel sinks in mid-ocean. In the second act the famous raft scene is produced, the occupants of the frail craft being rescued by a ship, which beats up from windward just in time to save the life of Rosa. Other Tableaux following this exciting episode are the cottage home, a revolving tower, a moonlight panorama, the lunatic asylum with the escape of the imprisoned hero, and a mountain scene, in which the villian meets with a deserved fate. As before stated, the house was completely filled, and the play received with every demonstration of approval by the great audience. Mr. Little as Harry Ellison made a favorable impression. The minor characters were generally well taken. The play made an undoubted hit.

Lyceum Theatre.

"A Barber's Scrape" continues to attract good houses at this theatre. Mr. Richard Golden and Miss Earle Remington have scored a success in their parts, and their comicalities and "gags" are so original in many instances that the "chestnut indicator" is silent and fails to register. This evening Mr. Golden takes a benefit and the management have procured special attractions in addition. Mr. Mills, the celebrated "change" artist will appear, also two well known song and dance artists. An excellent entertainment will be offered and will doubtless draw a crowded house.

THE POLICE CALENDAR.

A Serious Charge of Forgery Against Three Persons—Other Cases.

Thomas Prince, Emma Roberts and May E. Green were yesterday afternoon fully committed by the Police Magistrate to stand their trial at the coming session of the Court of Queen's Bench for alleged conspiracy to defraud one Mr. Griffith Jones. It appears that the three accused reside at 19 St. Genevieve street. Jones boarded in the house for some time, but left it recently. On looking over his bank book he was astounded to perceive that two cheques for $200 and $500 had been paid by the Bank of Montreal and charged to his account. Jones alleges that he gave two cheques for $50 and $100 respectively, and that they were altered to $200 and $500. He further claims that he is short sighted and did not notice the alterations made at the time. Sergt. Charbonneau has succeeded in recovering some $412.

RECORDER'S COURT.

At the Recorder's Court, yesterday morning, the cases were unimportant. Those of any public interest were Joseph LeMonde, a cabman, charged with assaulting one of his confreres, named Robert; he was remanded. Peter Lacey, driver, loitering and assaulting the police, $5 or 15 days. Thos. Hayes, breaking windows, $3.50 or 8 days; Israel Nantel, drunk while in charge of his vehicle, $2 or 8 days. Robt. Wilson, vagrancy, $1 or three months.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Judge Cimon, Joliette, is at the Hall.

Hon. Judge Bourgeois, Three Rivers, and Mr. John H. Vivian, Toronto, are at the Hall.

Hon. Ossian Ray, member of Congress from the Second New Hampshire District is at the Windsor.

Irving Drew, Esq, one of the brightest lights of the New Hampshire Bar, is a guest at the Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gilman have left for Boston to join a party of friends for an extended trip to the Southern States.

We regret (says the Quebec Chronicle of Thursday) to learn that Mr. A. E. Demers, one of the proprietors of the Canadien is very seriously ill.

Mr. W. J. Mills, change artist, arrived at the Richelieu, last evening, from New York and will appear at Ottawa on Monday in "A Barber's Scrape."

Mr. John McKenzie, Albany, N. Y.; Hon. E. J. Armington, Boston; J. J. Fanning, Winnipeg; R. A. Borden, Moncton, N. B.; W. H. O'Dell, Halifax, are at the Hall.

"ARREST OF THE CONSPIRATORS"

"Le Monde" Says that the Mayor, City Clerk and Four Aldermen

Are to be Arrested this Morning for Conspiracy

To Deprive Citizens of Their Rights and Prerogatives.

An Artful Dodge to Count in St. Jean Baptiste Ward.

General Electoral News from All Quarters Touching the Impending Struggle.

"ARREST OF THE CONSPIRATORS."

Le Monde, last evening, published the following editorially with attractive head lines:—

"ARREST OF THE CONSPIRATORS."

"M. le Maire Beaugrand, Alderman "Grenier, Mr. Glackmeyer, City Clerk, "and Aldermen Berger, Malone and Fair-"bairn, who refuse to obey the orders of "the courts, on the Statute Labor ques-"tion, will be arrested to-morrow forenoon "for conspiring against the rights and "prerogatives of the citizens and electors "of the city of Montreal. There must at "last be an end to the reign of terror."

It could not be learned last evening what truth there was in the above statement, but it was believed in some quarters that Le Monde, or some of their friends, might resort to this expedient for the purpose of making election capital at the Mayor's expense. It is needless to say that any such proceeding will be unreservedly condemned by all peaceable citizens.

THE CITY CLERK EXPLAINS.

Mr. Chas. Glackmeyer, City Clerk, has addressed the following official letter to Alderman Prefontaine, Chairman of the Board of Revisors, enumerating his reasons for not complying with the order of the Board to give up the lists or add any names to them:—

Gentlemen,—I am asked, by a resolution adopted by your Board yesterday, to produce to you the voters' list of St. Antoine ward, to enable you to qualify one H. Theodule Dechene, in compliance with a judgment of the Hon. Mr. Justice Caron and the peremptory writ subsequently issued by the same judge. I may, perhaps, be allowed in the first place to express my regret that your Board should have thought proper to throw upon your humble servant so grave a responsibility as that which a sense of duty compels him to take of declining to accede to your request. After a careful examination of the law, and having taken advice from the legal adviser of the Corporation, I have, though reluctantly, come to the conclusion that, with all the respect I entertain for your Board, and for the Honorable Judge, I cannot conscientiously comply with your request, and that for the following reasons:—

1. Because by the 31st section of Act 37 Vic., Cap. 51, as amended by the Act 48 Vic., Cap 6, it is enacted that "the voters' lists shall be finally revised before the ten days immediately preceding that fixed for voting at the municipal elections," that is to say, on the 18th of February.

2. Because by the 32nd Section of the said Act 37 Vic., Cap. 51, it is enacted "that the said list so revised and settled, shall be signed by the Chairman of the said Board, countersigned by the City Clerk and sealed with the city seal, and shall be filed on record in the office of the City Clerk, and any copies or extracts from the same, certified by the City Clerk, shall be deemed authentic for all the purposes of this Act."

3. Because the voters' list in pursuance of the above cited sections was, in fact, finally revised and settled on the 18th February inst., and is signed by the Chairman, countersigned by the City Clerk, and sealed with the city seal and filed on record in my office on the 22nd February inst.

4. Because the certificate at the bottom of the list for the electoral district No. 15, in the St. Antoine Ward, being in the district in which the petitioner, H. T. Dechene, claims the right to vote, is as follows:—

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the above voters' list for the electoral district No. —— in the —— ward of the city of Montreal, for the current year, has been revised by the Board of Revisors, according to law, and that one hundred and four is the exact number of qualified municipal voters in the said electoral district.

R. Prefontaine, Chairman Board of Revisors

City Hall, Montreal, Feb. 18th, 1886.

Chas. Glackmeyer, City Clerk.

6. Because the legally constituted custodian of the voters' list finally revised and settled, signed and countersigned, sealed and delivered as aforesaid, I do not feel justified in parting with, and much less in allowing any changes to be made therein.

7. Because I have already issued certified copies of the voters' list for the several electorial districts of the city, in accordance with the above cited section 32 of the city charter [37 Vic., cap. 51], which said copies, I humbly submit, cannot now be legally modified or interfered with.

8. Because the provisions of the law, which require the revisors to end their revision and to finally close the voters' list on a certain day, have, for the last thirty years, been held as binding, and were strictly observed by the different Boards in succession.

9. Because I am informed by the City Attorney that a writ of appeal from the said judgment of Judge Caron has been issued on the 20th February inst.

The whole, nevertheless, respectfully submitted.

CHAS. GLACKMEYER, City Clerk.

City Clerk's Office, City Hall, Montreal, 26th Feb., 1886.

THE CENTRE WARD FRAUD.

The preliminary investigation into the circumstances attending the perpetration of the attempted fraud in altering the lists of the Centre Ward was continued privately yesterday, before Police Magistrate Desnoyers, Mr. Ethier, Assistant City Attorney, representing the city. The witnesses heard were Messrs. Gosselin, Christian and Cresse. It is understood the hearing of evidence will again be resumed, and if sufficiently strong evidence be given, warrants will be issued against the suspected party or parties.

A DODGE TO COUNT IN ST. JEAN BAPTISTE.

The Mayor, yesterday, was supplied with a copy of a circular, or voting paper, said to have been printed at Le Monde office, and which is intended for use on Monday at the polling booths in St. Jean Baptiste Ward. The idea is that the voter who enters the polling booth to vote for either Mr. Lamontagne or Mr. Grenier, who are aldermanic candidates, will, at the same time, present the returning officer with one of these circulars, on which it is stated that the elector demands that his vote be taken for the Mayoralty and that he votes for Mr. Decary. The dodge here is very plain. As soon as Mayor Beaugrand is re-elected, should his opponents make any attempt at contesting his election, which is altogether probable, they will use these bulletins in court and argue that the electors who presented them and asked that their votes be registered, were wrongfully and illegally deprived of their votes. In the meantime the returning officers at the various polling booths in St. Jean Baptiste will receive orders not to take any notice of these bulletins and to receive votes only for the two candidates for alderman. The Board of Revisors, as is known, acting in the opinion of the City Attorney, have declared that St. Jean Baptiste was not entitled to vote until they had elected their aldermen, before which they did not form a part of the city.

RALLY TO MAYOR BEAUGRAND.

The Municipal Reform Association has issued a circular signed by Mr. Wm. Cassils, in which the following occurs:—

"The importance of securing the re-election of His Worship Mayor Beaugrand will readily be perceived by every one who has the true interests and welfare of the city at heart. The strength of the opposition to his return, which exists in certain quarters, must by no means be under-rated. It is the duty of every citizen to aid in defeating this opposition by every legitimate means in his power, the first and foremost of which is to poll his vote at the proper time and place."

THE MAYOR AND THE LADIES.

The following note has been received at Mayor Beaugrand's Central Committee from a lady, in which $5 was enclosed:—

"I take great interest in the election for Mayor, in what I hope may be the triumph of order, health and prosperity over dirt, poverty and disease. Will you kindly apply this trifle [I wish it were much more] toward furthering the re-election of Mayor Beaugrand."

HOCHELAGA AND THE MAYOR.

A largely attended meeting of the electors of Hochelaga and other wards was held on Thursday evening at the Municipal Hall. The result was most satisfactory for Mayor Beaugrand. His candidature was strongly defended by Aldermen Prefontaine and Gauthier, both of whom urged their constituents to do all in their power to secure his return. Alderman Prefontaine declared that the Mayor would certainly obtain the majority in the ward. Alderman Gauthier said he had opposed the election of Mr. Beaugrand last year, but now he would give him his hearty support for the courageous and zealous manner in which he had discharged his duties. Alderman Gauthier concluded an eloquent address by saying that the Mayor deserved to receive the support of every honest citizen in Montreal. Mr. Tetu, of Le Monde, put in a few words for Mr. Decary.

A WARNING IN SEASON.

The report gained general currency last evening that a movement was being organized by the Mayor's opponents for the purpose of obstructing the voting at polling booths where His Worship is expected to have large majorities. This movement was to consist in delaying the voting by swearing the voters, presenting men who have no votes and taking up the time in useless argument as to why they have not, &c. It may be interesting to the people who propose to resort to these contemptible methods to know that the whole police force will be on duty on Monday and that the first man who attempts any work of this kind will be at once arrested and means will be taken to arrest all the conspirators who attempt to prevent qualified electors from exercising their franchise.

The authorities will give orders that all necessary means shall be imployed to preserve the peace and to give every man who has a vote an opportunity of exercising his privilege.

THE RETURNING OFFICERS.

The Returning Officers and their clerks will be sworn in to-day at 2 o'clock by Ald. Prefontaine, Chairman of the Board of Revisors.

ANOTHER DECARY MEETING.

Mr. Decary, Le Monde's candidate for the Mayoralty, held his fourth meeting last evening in the St. Jean Baptiste Municipal Hall. The object of the meeting was to protest against the fact that the electors of St. Jean Baptiste had not been permitted to vote in the Mayoralty election. Mr. Decary might have imparted some information to his hearers had he read that section of the St. Jean Baptiste charter which states, they, the town, would become a part of the city, only after it had elected its representatives in the City Council.

ST. ANN'S WARD.

A large representative meeting of the electors of St. Ann's ward, favorable to the re-election of Alderman McShane, was held last evening at the corner of Notre Dame and McCord streets, Mr. Barbeau in the chair. The rooms were crowded. Addresses were made by Mr. P. Ernest Tremblay, Arthur Boyer, M.P.P., Dr. Desrosiers, Messrs. D. Messier, John Rose, Jas. McEwan, Geo. Roberts, A. Desjardins, Thos. Gauthier, J. M. Fortier, Wm. Black, Edward Cross and others. The result of the canvass all over the ward shows that the feeling in favor of Alderman McShane is intensely strong, and even his opponents admit that he will be elected by a large majority.

After a vote of thanks to the Chairman, the meeting broke up with enthusiastic cheers for the Queen and the candidate.

Alderman Stroud and the West Ward.

To the Editor of The Herald.

Allow me just one last word to the electors of West Ward.

One of the recommendations for an Alderman is integrity. Can any man lay his hand on his heart and say that he does not believe Alderman Stroud is a man of integrity, of rigid honesty, conscientious and square in all his dealings, whether in private or in public? I answer No! And every elector of the ward will answer No.

Another qualification is attention to the civic business. Can any member say Alderman Stroud has neglected the civic business? That he has placed his private interests before his public duties? That he has dodged or shirked or evaded any issue? I answer No. And every elector answers No.

The great majorty of the people of Montreal have decided that monopolies should be opposed or rendered as harmless as possible. Has Alderman Stroud ever wavered on this point? Has he given a single vote that was not in the public interests? Has he not fought monopoly to the bitter end? And has not his course been endorsed by the citizens of all degrees? I answer, Yes,—emphatically Yes.

With his years of experience, Mr. Stroud is a better representative of the Ward than when he was first elected. He has been tried. (Mr. White is untried.) Mr. Stroud has stood the test manfully. (No one can tell how Mr. White would turn out when confronted by his friends, the monopolists.) Mr. Stroud has time to give to the duties. (Mr. White has not.) By no possibility could Mr. Stroud be induced to turn his position to his personal advantage. (Mr. White makes a business of supporting those who support him.) Mr. Stroud may not be a greater orator; nor is Mr. White. He may not be as great in scheming as Mr. White, but that is something the citizens detest in their representative.

I have known Mr. Stroud many years. I know him thoroughly. I have watched him closely. I believe in him; and so do the citizens generally. Let all who believe in him rally to the polls on Monday, and give the square, honest, kind hearted gentleman a majority that will give him another three years' term.

Yours truly,
Nemo.

The late Madame Niding, who died on Thursday, bequeathed property valued at $12,000 to the Roman Catholic Bishopric of Montreal.

MONTREAL YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

A largely attended meeting was held at the Young Women's Christian Association, 101 Metcalfe street, on Thursday morning, when the advisability of the Association establishing a creche or day nursery was discussed.

The Rev. Messrs. Evans, Nichol, Patterson and A. Campbell were present as a deputation from the Associated Charities, and also Dr. A. Lapthorn Smith.

In opening the discussion, Dr. Smith expressed the opinion that there is great need for such an institution. Many poor women, who might otherwise earn a good living, are prevented from doing so by the want of a place to leave their children during their absence. If they do go out for a day, they have perhaps to leave their children in a neighbor's charge, and the children often get things to eat which are not good for them. Out of one hundred sick children brought to the dispensary for treatment the sickness in about seventy-five cases results from injudicious feeding. At the creche regular habits in eating would be acquired, and that would soon tell upon the children, who would sleep better and be in much better health. The creche should be partially self-sustaining. Let the women pay a small sum daily for their children, and then they will feel that they have something to do to keep it up, and they will feel more independent and appreciate it more than if it were free.

Rev. Mr. Nichol agreed with what Dr. Smith had said about such institutions. He thought that the rooms rented by the Association in Fortification lane, and which had already been spoken of for this purpose, would be a suitable place for one. Ladies and gentlemen might greatly help in the work by advising women who work for them to send their children to the creche.

Rev. Mr. Patterson stated that children in poor houses are exposed to many dangers and also to the loss of education, as many boys and girls who ought to be at school are left at home to take care of their younger brothers and sisters. It ought not to be difficult to get the public sympathy for such a scheme as the creche, he felt convinced of the popularity of it. Friends will, of course, also be needed for this as for every other good work, and the income will be all required to provide the food for the children.

Rev. Mr. Evans stated that the presence of the deputation was not entirely with reference to the creche but also to bring before the Association the wish of the Associated Charities, to see a place established where Protestant foundlings would be taken and cared for.

After some further discussion, Mr. Evans, in the name of the deputation, thanked the ladies for their reception of them and wished them God speed in their undertaking.

As an outcome of the meeting, it was resolved that the Young Women's Christian Association start a creche at 161 Fortification Lane, off St. Peter street and all ladies who are in any way willing to assist are cordially invited to meet with the Committee of the Y.W.C.A., at their rooms 101 Metcalfe street, on Thursday next, March 4th, at 11 a.m., when a committee will be appointed and this new branch of work organized.

ST. PATRICK'S T. A. & B. SOCIETY.

This Society celebrated its 46th anniversary by a lecture and musical entertainment in the hall of the Catholic Young Men's Society last evening. The attendance was large. Representatives of the sister societies were present as invited guests. The programme was opened by a well executed overture on the piano by Mr. Thos. Grant. Rev. Martin Callaghan, President of the Society, delivered the opening address. The rev. gentleman in the course of his remarks said that the members of St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society had every reason to feel proud at the glorious and prosperous career which had attended the Society since its formation, nearly half a century ago. The Society was founded by the Rev. Father Phelan, one of the first Irish Catholic pastors of this city, who was afterwards Bishop of Kingston, Ont., and it has since been under the fostering care of the present venerable and dearly-loved pastor of St. Patrick's, Rev. Father Dowd, to whom the rev. speaker paid a glowing and eloquent tribute, during the course of which he referred to the fact that Father Dowd had twice refused the mitre, preferring to live in semi-obscurity among his cherished and faithful flock. The rev. gentleman also paid a feeling tribute to the original members of the society, and mentioned the fact that amongst the invited guests present were three of the original members, viz., Charles Moffat, James Connaughton, Andrew Emerson, who, together with the respected lecturer of the evening, were all that were left of the original band, and he was proud to proclaim the fact that these four had remained staunch and true to the principles of the society, and were to-day as active and as energetic as of old. The rev. gentleman concluded by introducing the lecturer, Mr. Edward Murphy, to whom he paid an eloquent and worthy tribute.

Mr Murphy's lecture was on the Microscope, and as our space to-day is limited, and our full report of the lecture will scarcely bear condensing, we hold it over for Monday's issue. Mr. Murphy and his excellent paper were warmly received. We only say at present that Mr. Murphy by means of his powerful microscope illustrated many of the curious and interesting wonders revealed by that instrument, in a series of highly magnified images of insects such as the human flea, the bed bug, its eggs and its young ones, spiders, water devil, itch insects, trichinæ in pork, drops of water, sections of wood, sections of Montreal limestone, and other objects of great interest.

Mr. Murphy commenced the second part by exhibiting some medallion pictures of Father Matthew administering the pledge to the multitudes in Cork 1838, when he commenced the crusade against intemperance. Medallions of Father Matthew's pledge and also pledge of the Montreal St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society, beautifully colored enlarged views of Montreal, Lake and River Scenery in Ireland, old abbeys, churches and castles,—views in England, Canada and the Holy Land,—Lake of Como, Grotto of Antiparos, Earthquake in Lisbon, Falls of Zambezi, &c. Also some curious and amusing pictures with life like movements and phantasmagoric effects, &c.

Mr. Dugald Macdonald moved a motion of thanks to the lecturer, which was seconded by Mr. Thos. Davis, and carried amidst great applause.

Mr. Murphy made a suitable reply.

During the evening the Flood city quartette, Messrs. Hamelin, Emblen, Rowan and Hammill, sang some choice selections in a manner which showed careful training. Their efforts were heartily applauded. Mr. Thos. Grant's selections on the piano gave evidence of remarkable ability, and showed him to be a complete master of that instrument.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Court of Review.

February 26, 1886.

DOHERTY, JETTE AND TASCHEREAU, J.J.

Lassiseraye vs. Riendeau.—Mr. Durand, for plaintiff, asked that this cause be fixed for hearing at 2 p.m. It was called on the preceding day, when it appeared that defendant's counsel, Mr. Cresse, who was not in attendance, had taken away the record with him, in consequence of which it could not be argued then. The record had since then been given back to the Prothonotary. Mr. Cresse was again absent from Court, but he would be notified of the appointment of the cause for hearing.

Taschereau, J., said that as the cause had already been called once for hearing, it would be unjust towards the lawyers whose cases came after this one, if the order of those cases were to be deranged to make place for it, as they had a right to expect that their cases would be called before any case that had lost its turn.

The Court, therefore, rejected the application.

Johnson vs. Brunelle.—This action was instituted under the law respecting the relation of lessors and lessees, and was inscribed in Review from Mr. Justice Caron's judgment, by the defendant.

Mr. Geoffrion argued that the inscription in Review, which had been made within eight days after the Superior Court had rendered judgment, was made in time, and that parties to actions of the same kind as this one could follow in this Court the ordinary rules of procedure, and were not bound to proceed from day to day as they were in the Court below.

The merits of the case consisted in a question of procedure. The plaintiff had examined his witnesses on a certain day, and the Court below ordered the defendant to examine his witnesses immediately after the plaintiff had closed his case. But as the plaintiff had given to the defendant no notice that he intended to proceed with his enquete, the defendant was taken by surprise and had no time to summon witnesses to disprove plaintiff's case.

Mr. Beique, for the plaintiff.

Decision reserved.

The following cases were also argued and taken en delibere.

Lapierre vs. Wiseman—Mr. Mireault and Mr. Duhamel.

Masson vs. Hubert—Mr. Geoffrion and Messrs. Cresse & Hubert.

Blain vs. Dansereau—Mr. A. Mathieu and Messrs. Prefontaine & Co.

Superior Court.

MERITS DIVISION: MATHIEU, J.

The Court rendered judgment according to the written consent of defendant in the case of Cadieux vs. Glatz—Messrs. Longpre & Co. and Messrs. Laflamme & Co.—and heard the case of Reid vs. Rasconi.—Messrs. Maclaren & Co. and Messrs. Geoffrion & Co.

BOURGEOIS, J.

Other cases heard and taken en delibere.

Grenier vs. The North Shore Railway Co.—Messrs. Longpre & Co. and Messrs. Lacoste & Co.

Elizabeth Globensky vs. Daniel Wilson—The plaintiff instituted this action to have her marriage with the defendant declared null and void. The facts of the case, as averred in her declaration, are as follows:—The parties were married in this city, on the 12th Dec. last, by the Rev. Chas. A. Doudiet, in the presence of C. A. Ducharme and Hormisdas Courtois. They being members of the Roman Catholic Church, must submit to the laws of that church respecting marriage, impediments to marriage and the power to dispense from those impediments. They were related to each other in the degree of first cousins, and were married without bans being first published, and the presence of their own Cure. On the 31st December last, Bishop Fabre, of Montreal, decreed their marriage to be null and void, and on the 7th January last, Archbishop Taschereau, of Quebec, to whom an appeal had been taken from the Bishop's decree, confirmed the same. Plaintiff never cohabited with defendant. She resides with her father, Seignior Globensky, of St. Eustache.

To this action, the defendant pleaded that the marriage took place before the Rev. C. A. Doudiet, a Minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, who was authorized by the Statute of Quebec 38 Victoria, chapter 62, to keep Acts of Civil Status, and who was prior to the passing of that Act, a duly ordained Minister of the Presbyterian Church here in connection with the Church of Scotland, to which said Act alludes. The parties were married only after they had obtained from the Lieutenant Governor a license enabling them to get married without the publication of bans. The marriage was celebrated according to the usages and customs of the Presbyterian Church. The relationship existing between first cousins did not constitute before the Presbyterian Church and the other Protestant Churches an impediment to marriage, but was considered as such only by the Roman Catholic Church, who claimed, however, the power to dispense from it. Nevertheless a violation of that rule could have no more effect on the civil rights of the parties than the decrees of the Bishop and Archbishop, which pronounced the nullity of the marriage.

Messrs. Laflamme & Co., of counsel for plaintiff, fyled a written admission of the following facts:—1. That the Rev. Mr. Doudiet was a Presbyterian minister. 2. That the authenticated copy of the act of the marriage of the parties issued by the latter minister from "St. John's Church at Montreal," showed that that church was a Presbyterian Church. 3. That the marriage was solemnized according to the usages and customs of the Presbyterian Church. 4. That the parties at the time of their marriage had reached the complete age of 21 years, and were first cousins. 5. That no bans were published. 6. That both parties were then Roman Catholic, but that the defendant contends that his application to a Protestant minister to be married was equivalent to an abjuration on his part of the Roman Catholic faith and doctrines. 7. That the that the parties were first cousins was not, according to the Presbyterian Church, an impediment to their marriage. 8. That plaintiff was domiciled at the time of her marriage at St. Eustache and defendant at St. Jerome.

Mr. Laflamme argued that the success of his case depended upon whether the parties to the cause were at the time of their marriage members of the Roman Catholic Church or not. If they belonged then to that religious denomination the plaintiff was entitled to a judgment in her favor; if not, judgment should go against him. But the acts of the plaintiff's baptism and of defendant's was unimpeachable evidence in support of the former's case. It had repeatedly been settled by the decisions of the different courts in this Province that two Roman Catholics could be validly married but by the proper cure of either of them, and quoted at length from the judgment rendered to that effect in the case of Larammee vs. Evans. He was quite ready to admit that a license dispensing with the publication of bans had been granted, and that the marriage was valid according to the law of the Presbyterian Church; but he laid down as an indisputable proposition that, as the parties had not abandoned their religion to embrace the Presbyterian faith, they were subject to the laws of their religion, to which the State had extended, as a protection, its sanction.

The Court having expressed a doubt as to whether the admissions affiled of record by plaintiff's counsel were good evidence at law, and having suggested that legal proof of the facts which plaintiff intended to admit as true, could be, perhaps, furnished,—

Mr. Lafleur, of counsel for defendant, asked that his adversary be allowed to complete his evidence in that respect before the case went any further. He thought the procedure in the cause should be regularized at once, more especially as a final discussion in the matter would be reached only in the Supreme Court or the Privy Council, to either of which an appeal would ultimately be taken.

The Court directed counsel to proceed with his argument.

Mr. Lafleur contended that though the law respecting marriage was correctly summed up by Mr. Justice Jette in Larammee vs. Evans, as it existed prior to the cession of Canada to England, yet he could not agree with that learned Judge as to what was the law since then. England had conceded religious liberty to the Roman Catholics of Canada; but it could not be inferred therefrom that it had divested its own Church (the Church of England) of her right to celebrate the marriages of all Christians. England extended the prerogative of her Church first to the Church of Rome, and afterwards to the Dissident Churches. The following were our statutes respecting the matter:—35 Geo. III., ch. 4; Consolidated Statutes of Lower Canada, ch. 20, sect. 16; 38 Victoria, ch. 62, sect. 7. The law was brought to a concise form by articles 128 and 129 of the Civil Code, which read: 128. Marriage must be solemnized openly, by a competent officer recognized by law. 129. All priests, rectors, ministers and other officers authorized by law to keep registers of acts of civil status, are competent to solemnize marriage.

The decrees of the Council of Trent, on which the bishops had based their decisions, were never promulgated in Canada. That was admitted even in the case of Larammee vs. Evans. Moreover, the judgment rendered by Her Majesty in council in the celebrated Guibord case, clearly showed the absolute nullity of ecclesiastical decrees of that kind.

Mr. Lafleur concluded by quoting from Pothico, on Marriage, No. 459, to show that when a court had doubts in regard to the validity of a marriage, it should endeavor to have the dispute settled so as to avoid scandal, as would likely arise in this case if the parties were declared to be free from each other.

Mr. Laflamme was heard in reply.

The case was taken en delibere, the plaintiff being bound, however, to give legal proof of the facts sought to be admitted by her in favor of defendant.

Another case was subsequently argued: Forest vs. Chevandier dit Lepine. Messrs. Etheier & Co. and Mr. A. Dalbee.

Enquete and Merits Division

PLAMONDON, J.

Cases tried and argued:—

Arless vs. Arless, continued from Wednesday.—Defendants examined two more witnesses, and plaintiff one witness in rebuttal.

Withell vs. Browne.—Messrs. Ouimet & Co. and Messrs. McGibbon & Co.—Plaintiff declared he had no enquete to make. Defendant examined five witnesses, and plaintiff three in rebuttal.

Vincent vs. the Town of Ste. Cunegonde, and the Town of Ste. Cunegonde vs. Berger et al., postponed from Wednesday.—The principal plaintiff examined nine witnesses, the principal defendant four witnesses, and the defendant in warranty five witnesses.

NOTES.

The Practice Division did not sit yesterday. It will remain closed until Monday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Justice Cimon will render judgments to-day, at 10 a.m., in the Practice Division room, in the following cases:—Drapeau vs. Marion; Myler et al. vs. Styles; Smith vs. Masterman; Gagnon vs Gaudry.

PUMPS FOR THE INUNDATION COMMITTEE.

It is stated that this Committee were offered a 15 inch Baldwin steam pump, with frame, gearing, engine and everything complete and in perfect order for $3,000, placed on the ground ready to put steam on. This pump is well known to contractors, engineers and others, including Mr. Lesage, the engineer of the Inland Cut. It is the largest in the Dominion, with a single exception. The pump (Mr. McNamee's) successfully pumped out the Inland Cut in 60 hours; section 34 of the Welland Canal, a mile in length, in six days; having previously supplied the city of Buffalo with water for eight days when the city's engines had broken down. Competent judges pronounce the figure at which the pump is offered to the city as really much below half its value. No attention, however, appears to have been paid to the offer; but it is said that three new pumps have been ordered from the United States, and Alderman Stevenson is now about to order two more, or five in all, and threatens to go on with the work independent of his Committee. Two of these new pumps will be 10 inch and three 6 inch. The cost of a pump is a comparatively small portion of the whole expenditure. These pumps may cost $600 to $700 each; the duty will be about thirty per cent., thus adding some $200 more to the cost of each. Then the frame, gearing and connections will cost $1,000 for each pump; and to this must be added the cost of the engine for each. Mr. McNamee's engine alone cost $3,000, so that some idea can be had of the expenditure on which the Committee is embarking. If one pump, engine, and all complete, will do the work of all these five pumps, five engines, etc., why not invest in the powerful but comparatively cheap pump, and particularly if, as we are informed, Mr. McNamee undertook to have his pump on the ground and in working order in fifteen days from the date of his offer? We do not profess to know all that is in the mind of the members of the Committee, but we think that some explanation of the purchase of five steam pumps in the States, under the circumstances we have described, ought to be forthcoming.

Mr. John E. McFee, brother of Mr. Donald McFee, of the International Railway, has sold his gold mines in Southern California for £300,000 to responsible parties in England.

Mr. Tarte, whose intended departure for Ottawa was announced on Monday, has been detained here in consequence of the serious illness of Mr. A. E. Demers. Mr. L. J. Demers is at present in Paris.
