CIRCULAR.

Quebec, July, 1844.

The undersigned begs leave to announce to his friends and the public that he has commenced business as AUCTIONEER AND BROKER, and that his large and spacious fire proof Warehouse situate in Rue Sous-le-Fort, adjoining the Napoleon and Queen's Wharves, is now appropriated for the reception of goods, of all kinds, free of storage, for such goods as may be intended for sale. That the conditions of all sales will be cash. He therefore intimates that those who favor him with business will be paid the amount of their sales the moment the goods are disposed of, in conformity with the advertisement in the Public Prints, of which a copy is annexed.

PUBLIC AUCTION ROOMS,

At that extensive Cut-stone Fire Proof Warehouse, Sous-le-Fort Street, adjoining the Napoleon Wharf, the property belonging to the Subscriber, who will commence in the above business, in the early part of May, as

AUCTIONEER, BROKER, GENERAL AGENT AND COMMISSION MERCHANT, and is now ready to receive goods in the above line. No storage will be charged for goods sent to be sold. The premises being spacious can take any quantity of Furniture, or any other bulky articles, the weather will not interfere, as everything will be within the premises. The instant the goods are sold, the money will be paid those to whom they may belong. Out-door sales will be attended to.

GEORGE ARNOLD.

N. B.—The subscriber hopes that by the due attention he will pay to the interest of all parties, to obtain the patronage of his friends and the public in general.
