PREMIER LESAGE MEETS WITH TEXTILE EXECUTIVES

Prior to addressing the joint annual conference of the Canadian Woollen & Knit Goods Manufacturers Association, and the Man-Made Fibre Textiles Institute, held at Murray Bay, Que., Hon. Jean Lesage, Premier of Quebec, met with senior textile executives.

Seen here left to right, F. E Cleyn, President of Spinners Ltd., Huntingdon, Que. Mr. Lesage; and George H. Dobbie, President of Dobbie Industries Ltd., Galt, Ont. Mr. Cleyn and Mr. Dobbie are both Directors of the Primary Textiles Institute and past-presidents of the Canadian Woollen & Knit Goods Manufacturers Association.

During their annual meetings, both textile groups underwent name changes, to provide association titles more descriptive of work carried out.

R. Tinker Scores A Hole In One

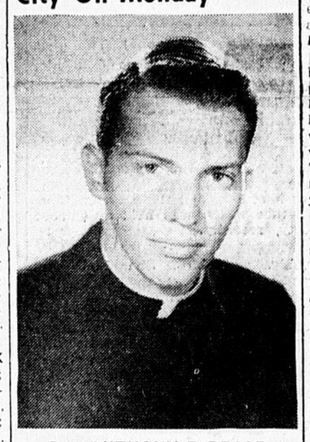

Richard "Dick" Tinker scored a Hole in One at the St. Anicet Golf and Country Club last Thursday evening, June 28th. Dick was taking part in the Spinners Ltd. annual Office Golf Tournament when he scored the hole in one on the ninety yard sixth hole using a wedge for the shot.

Winners of the two ball foursome mixed tournament were Lydia Disch and Mons Duke who came in with a score of 94 for the eighteen holes. Shirley Cosgrove and Jack Blake took the low net honors with a net score of 57.

This Sunday, July 8th, the Montreal and Huntingdon branches of Leach Textiles will meet at the Malone Golf Club for their annual Golf match.

On July 15th, starting at one o'clock, the local golfers will be out in force at the Malone Golf Club where the annual Huntingdon Open will take place. All Huntingdon golfers are invited to take part in this tournament.

Father Anthony Pease Returning From Vatican City On Monday

Rev. ANTHONY F. PEASE

Reverend Anthony F. Pease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Pease, Glenelm, Que., returns to New York, Monday a.m., July 9th, on the Italian Liner the Leonarda de Vinci, from Vatican City, Europe. He will arrive at Dorval Airport, Montreal that evening.

Father Pease attended St. Joseph's Ursuline Academy and Franklin Academy, Malone, N.Y., graduating from the latter in June 1954. In September 1954 he entered Wadham's Hall Seminary, Ogdensburg, N.Y. and in 1958 was sent to North American College, Vatican City, Europe to complete his Theological studies.

Father Pease was ordained to the Priesthood in St. Peter's Basilica, Rome, December 2, 1961. His parents, sisters Patricia and Susan and his aunt and uncle, Miss Marie and Mr. Chester Pease, attended the Ordination ceremonies.

On Sunday July 15th, Father Pease will celebrate his First Mass at St. Bridget's Church, Trout River, N.Y. at 11 a.m. and a reception, given by the parishioners, will be held for him at St. Bridget's Parish Hall in the afternoon from 3.30 to 5.30. Benediction at the Church will be at 5.30.

All friends and neighbours are cordially invited to be present at the Mass and reception.

The following certificates for the Beginners Memory Course were given to those who completed their course for the year: Ronnie Marshall, Wesley Ruddock, Bobby Ruddock.

Good Weather, Large Crowd Grace Farmers' Picnic

The Annual Farmers' Picnic held at Greig's Grove, near Howick, was attended by ideal weather and an excellent attendance, on Monday, July 2nd.

Twenty ball teams entered in the softball tournament that is always a feature of the picnic and some very close games were played before the finals. A good crowd watched these games which started in the morning. Many a group enjoyed their picnic lunch among the shady trees on the grounds. There was a cool breeze blowing in the grove and this helped to make the day more enjoyable.

The usual seats and bandstand were erected in about the centre of the grounds and the Ormstown band under the direction of Mr. Lindsay Cullen, played a number of enjoyable selections.

Following this, Mr. Greig, as master of ceremonies, welcomed everyone and enjoined them to have a good time. He said that it is still not certain if the day should be called Dominion Day or Canada Day, but it did not matter, the same old flag was flying and some of the other flags had been in use for over 75 years. With that, he called upon Mr. Jean Boucher, recently elected member for Chateauguay-Huntingdon - Laprairie constituency in the Federal Government and a standard bearer for the Liberal Party, to address the gathering.

Mr. Boucher's address was quite brief. He said he was pleased to be present and thanked all for asking him to attend. He said the picnic had been graced by very pleasant weather and he wished everyone a very pleasant and happy afternoon. The officials are to be congratulated for holding such a fine picnic each year.

Mr. Lindsay Cullen was the next speaker and he was introduced as the Past President of the Ormstown Lions Club. He gave his congratulations to all responsible for the organization and operation of the picnic and there was always good weather. He said he thought that the officials must hold some kind of formula, that they always had good weather for their picnic year after year. This is another birthday of the Confederation, the speaker said and he hoped there would be many more. There is a damaging effect in the separatist movement that is going on in the Province of Quebec, because people outside the Province were getting a bad view of what was happening. He felt that there was too small a number in the movement to offer much controversy. However, he felt that English and French got on well together if they were left alone and they should be left alone. He made a comparison of the Doukobor movement in B.C., they cause lots of trouble but they could not get anywhere. Possibly if there was more bilingualism, things would run along a little more smoothly, but there is no room for separatism.

Mr. Leon Beaudin, agronome, remarked on the beautiful weather, but he said the hay crop was not as good as it should be. He noticed that there were more ladies present this year. Going back to the hay crop, he said he did not know why the crop was poor, unless it could be due to a lack of lime or that lime is not being used at all. Alfalfa needs lots of lime. Seed may be to blame for the poor clover, as due to a shortage of seed, much had to be imported and this was being used to a greater extent. Trefoil will do better as has been proven, when mixed with clover and alfalfa. Turning to the surplus in dairy products and butter prices, etc., he felt the farmer was to blame himself. He apologized for so blunt a statement, but he said he felt it had to be said. Many farmers had bought spreads and margarine when they could have been buying butter. If they did not support their own products how could they expect anyone else to. He suggested that everyone eat more butter and then there would be greater returns for the dairy business.

Mr. John Dickson, President, Dairy Farmers of Canada, was the next speaker, and he along with the others made a few remarks about the wonderful weather. He said that there were many problems for the farmers, but that the whole problem was not as bad in the U.S. as it is in Canada. This was on account of the greater population in the U.S. More intensive research is needed, he said, and it is hoped that the Government will assist in this endeavor. More advertising is required for dairy products, especially as to butter and the changed price for same. More attention should be paid to informing the public that butter was now selling at a greatly reduced price and compared favorably with margarine. There are many factors that create problems for farmers — there is the 8% increase in salaries compared to the small increase in the price of dairy products. There had been large increases of late in the price of farm machinery. He also touched the redistribution proposals that have been talked about in Parliament. If these go into effect it will mean that the farmer will have less opportunity to express themselves as the constituencies will become more urban and less rural. Equalization of milk payments also were given an airing. The speaker said the equalization of milk payments which is being advocated means there will be equal payment for all.

This concluded this part of the program and at this point a drawing was made for the Canada Savings Certificate offered by the Huntingdon Agricultural Society in connection with its annual fair. The winners were: 1st, $30 certificate, Mr. Cyril Dahms, Huntingdon, and 2nd, $25. certificate, Mr. Bob Anderson, Huntingdon.

The boys' and girls races were then run off and there were plenty of entries in all the classes. The report of the winners in these and other events will follow.

Passing of W. K. Philps

In the passing of W. K. Philps, Huntingdon has once again lost one of its older, well respected citizens and prominent businessman. "Bill" as he was familiarly called by all who came to know him, inherited his father's business, or at least the Insurance end of it and carried this on and expanded it from time to time "Bill's" father, Andy Philps, was also a well known Huntingdon man and Bill came by his popularity quite naturally.

Bill was interested in public affairs and was also a great sports fan especially baseball and hockey. Many times he visited New York for the baseball finals of the big leagues. He was Secretary for Huntingdon School Municipality and Secretary for the Town of Huntingdon for a number of years.

Bill Philps knew the insurance business inside and out and could give good advice on any insurance matters. He was Secretary and Manager of the Mutual of Beauharnois Insurance and thus knew this angle. Because he was always very cheerful and would stop for a chat, he gathered together a large amount of business and friends.

For the past few years, however, Bill has been out of the business, laid low by a stroke which partially disabled him so that he was unable to carry on at the office. The business has been conducted by his partner, Mr. N. Bourgon during this period.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mary, who was his ideal helpmate in business and nurse during his six years of impaired health; also by his sister, Mrs. Edith Thomas.

Funeral for the deceased will be from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 2.30 p.m. Thursday.

Successful Ball Tournament Held

A very successful softball tournament was run off on Sunday, at Huntingdon Fair Grounds, when fifteen teams competed and there was an attendance of about 700 spectators.

The first round went like this:

Market Hotel, 4 — 409 Valleyfield 2.

Country Inn, 14 — Elgin, 3.

St. Philomene, 5 — St. Antoine, 7.

Massena, 3 — Ormstown, 7.

Lachute, 12 — Chateauguay, 3.

Delson, 3 — Ville de Lery, 4.

Jacques Cartier, Valleyfield, 13— Thunderbirds, Montreal, 2.

Longueuil won by default.

The second round was as follows: Market, 5 — Country Inn, 1.

St. Philomene 5, — Lachute, 2.

Ormstown, 6 — Jacques Cartier, 0.

Longueuil, 16 — Ville de Lery, 5.

The third round was as follows: St. Philomene, 6 — Market, 3.

Ormstown, 6 — Longueuil, 1.

Finals:

Ormstown, 2 — St. Philomene, 1.

Ormstown thus won the Chateau Huntingdon trophy and $75.00. St. Philomene, runners-up, received $35.00.

Gilles Benoit, organizer of the tournament, wishes to thank the officials of the Huntingdon Agricultural Society Div. "A" for the use of the grounds for this very successful day.

Legion Festival Proves To Be Successful Event

The annual Dominion Day celebration of Huntingdon Branch No. 81, Royal Canadian Legion, held this year during the evening of June 30 was generally quite successful although the patronage of same by members of the Branch and other citizens was not as large as in the past. The general chairman was David L. Watson, President of the Branch with the following as Conveners of the various events: Square and Exhibition Dancing — Rupert Hawley; General Dance — James Willock; Bingo — John Thomreson; Other Games — Irvin Laberge; Refreshments — Mrs. Winifred Napier; Grounds Lighting, etc. — Jack Elliott; General Treasurer — Gordon D. Ferry; Attendance Drawing — David Zabitsky, all of whom had willing helpers.

Leading off the event was a half-hour concert by the recently amalgamated Huntingdon — Ormstown Band under Bandmaster L. Cullen; with a similar presentation by St. Joseph School Air Force Cadet's Bugle Band, commanded by Bandmaster H. Tessier.

Of particular interest was the exhibition dancing by Miss Diane McCormack of Lachine, Que. — Highland Dancing in Highland Costume and the Sailor's Hornpipe in Sailor's Uniform. Needless to say, well merited prolonged applause was given after each appearance of this winsome 15 year old prize winning dancer.

Also of particular interest was the Square Dance competion between the Jolly Dancers of Ormstown, and a similar team sponsored by the Maple Leaf Grange, the latter with Franklin Cameron as "caller". Both teams gave particularly good exhibitions but the judges, Mrs. J. Payne and H. R. Higgins gave the O'Keefe Trophy and the Medallions presented by the Branch to the Jolly Dancers.

However, while the revenue producing events, were fairly well patronized, the hoped for revenue in that respect, for Welfare and other projects, was below expectations.

The drawing of the attendance ticket, for an all expense paid trip to New York was made by Mr. Paul Lefebvre, Mayor of Huntingdon and Mr. Allster Somerville, M.P.P., with the winner of same being Ed. Middlemiss of Huntingdon.

Historical Society Picnic Saturday July 7th

The historial society will hold its picnic meeting this coming Saturday. It was previously announced for Sunday, but this has been changed.

Site of the meeting will be Leslie Rennie's Museum Store at Cooks Lines on the U.S. border 2 miles West of Rockburn.

An informal picnic will be held with members and friends bringing their own lunches. About 2 p.m. a brief discussion meeting will be held in one of the buildings in the Valley's own "village". Afterward members will be free to examine Mr. Rennie's extensive collection.

Some members will begin cataloguing the collection this Saturday, and all volunteers will be welcomed gratefully.

The society is particularly hopeful that young people who are interested in Junior Membership (now open to all students at 50c annually (will make this an occasion to find out about the group's aims and objectives, and to offer suggestions from their point of view.

Deliberate Damage Done At Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena Past Week

The officials of the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena are offering a reward for information that will lead to the apprehension of person or persons responsible for damage done at the Arena over the past week-end.

Everything that was done was deliberate and plenty was done and it is high time that a stop was put to it. Entrance was gained by taking off a door and from then on it was a trail of vandalism and destruction. Many of the rooms in the building were entered and articles stacked on shelves were thrown around. In the office at the entrance, the sound system is stored and besides throwing around articles from the office shelves, this sound system was interferred with. In order to do this, those responsible had to pry open two doors. What they wanted is hard to say, but the microphone of the set was ripped off and taken away.

Some cans of roofing cement were opened and this was smeared on the floors downstairs and up the stairs into the hall above and across the hardwood floor and even across the keys of the piano the can was thrown on the hall floor at the far side. In a room downstairs, some hockey equipment is stored and this had been taken out and thrown around as well as other articles.

It will take some time to remove the tar and that on the piano may have gone down between the keys into the inside of the piano. The microphone is a costly item to replace and it is quite possible that other damage may have been done.

There is absolutely no reason for anyone to go into this building unless it be for mischief for there is nothing of any value left on the premises. Anyone seeing persons in or around this building at any time when they have no business, should report same to the police for investigation.

Always do right. This will gratify some people, and will astonish the rest.

Mrs. Jean Forget was called upon to answer a question to win a $70.00 prize, but failed and was awarded the consolation of $5.00.

Couple Win 1962 Car

The happy couple shown here have every right to look pleased: Mrs. Gauthier received a telephone call Thursday evening informing her she had won a 1962 Mercury Monterrey car and could take possession of it this evening (Wednesday). Mrs. Gauthier's name was picked in the Isidore Soucy musical program on Channel 10 TV sponsored by the Gold Star Stamp show. Mr. and Mrs. Philippe Gauthier live at 7 Fairview Rd. and Mr. Gauthier is employed by Chateau Dyers Ltd. Needless to say, Mrs. Gauthier was very excited when she received the good news and could harly believe her good fortune, "I've never won anything in my life before, but this certainly makes up for it", she told the good news. She had been downtown shopping and returned home as the MC of the programme announced her name. Hardly believing her good fortune, she phoned Channel 10 to be sure there was no mistake before telling her husband. "I've never won anything in my life before, but this certainly makes up for it," as she beamed to a Gleaner reporter.

On Monday, asked what they would do with their 1952 model car, Philippe said "We sold that today to my father-in-law, he's going to use it around his farm at Cazaville."

Thought For Today:

Defeat isn't bitter if you don't swallow it.

W. R. A.

Saturday, June 30th, was registration day at the Club — it was a beehive of activity.

Next Saturday, July 7th, the W.R.A. will be starting their summer activities by having their Field Day for the children at 2 p.m. The Hat Parade will start at 2.30 p.m. Children from 1 to 10 years may enter as long as they have a "dilly" of a hat. After the judging, there will be races for the children up to 12 years old. So all be there early, so you won't miss out on the fun. Don't forget that crazy hat.

A Teen Age Dance was held at the Club Friday evening, June 29. Chaperons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. Burns, Mrs. Pilotte.

Some of the W.R.A. members worked like beavers on Saturday, setting out the wharfs at the Club and may I say, the swimming pool is beginning to take shape. It should not be too long now before the finished project will be in use.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sutton of Woodland Park have returned from a wonderful three weeks vacation. Their ports of call were Vancouver, B.C., Seattle and Tacoma, Wash. They were visiting their son Gordon and daughter-in-law Dorothy and granddaughter Tammy. En-route, at Winnipeg, they met Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Price, formerly of Beauharnois, and at Calgary they had the pleasure of seeing Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Henders, also of Beauharnois.

On Holidays

Mrs. Sawyer Sr. of Woodland Park is enjoying a holiday in Toronto with her son Bob and daughter-in-law Margaret.

Belated Greetings

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. J. Daignault of Beauharnois, who celebrated their 6th wedding anniversary on June 30th. Mr. Daignault was formerly of Woodlands.

Fire

There was quite a large grass fire in Ville de Lery over the week-end. This can be very dangerous not only to our wooded areas, but to the homes along its path. One cannot be too careful, when our farm lands and bushes are very dry. Every year we read of fires in our forests which burn for days, out of control. Don't let this happen here.

Greetings

A very happy birthday to Mrs. F. Charlton, who celebrated July 3rd; also to little Collette Daignault, birthday greetings to you for your birthday on July 7th.

Ville de Lery Sports

The Little League baseball teams met at the home of Mr. Legault in Bellevue, on Saturday afternoon, to be outfitted for their uniforms. On Sunday, they had their parade through Ville de Lery to the baseball field. Three games were played. First game was the Bantams — Dodgers 6, Indians 3. Second game: Mosquitoes — Yankees 3, Red Sox 0. Third game was a tie, Bantams — Yankees 8, Dodgers 8. A good attendance stayed to watch these youngsters play. It looks like a good summer of baseball is in the making.

Monday evening — Mosquitoes' score: Red Sox 11, Yankees 9.

Last Dance

The Beauharnois Intermediate School held their closing dance on Thursday evening. There was a wonderful turnout and everyone, I'm sure, enjoyed dancing to a "Combo Band". The gym was decorated in a Mexican theme and those on the committee must have worked extremely hard to get the effect. The boys and girls from Ville de Lery who attend B.I.S. enjoy these dances very much.

4—H Club Convention

(By Mary Stafford)

The Annual Convention of the 4-H Clubs of the Province of Quebec saw 600 youths, boys and girls, attending conferences and presentations of prizes etc., at the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel for three days last week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. From Chateauguay those who attended the Convention were Mr. R. Sylvester, Viateur Lagace, André Gagnon, Pierre Mathieu, Philippe Pitre, Lorraine Laberge and Diane Pitre.

Cardinal Leger opened the general proceedings with praise and encouragement for the wonderful work being done for young people by the 4-H Clubs. Many Companies sponsored the meals for the three days, namely Texaco, International Harvester, Shawinigan Water and Power, Bank of Montreal, Eaton's Imperial Tobacco, Catelli Food Products, Alliance Insurance, Henry Birks.

The Chateauguay 4-H Club is very young but is way out front in taking regional honours.

Welcome Home

Welcome home to Mrs. F. Charlton who has been vacationing on the West Coast these past three weeks. Nice to have you back.

Illness

Chicken pox is still around — little Ann Ogilvy at present is sporting spots. Best wishes for a quick recovery.

—o—

Spending the summer on a farm can be fun for anybody — Master Doug MacKay left on Sunday for the Rennie farm at Brooklet, Que. I'm sure Doug, you will enjoy every minute. So many new things to do. Best wishes for a happy summer.

A Children's Fair was held on the lawn of Dr. and Mrs. E. Oliver on Tuesday with proceeds going to the Red Cross. The children made $24. This fair was completely run by children and attended by children.

Prizes Awarded Students By School Board and Home And School Association

(By M. McCutcheon)

The closing programmes of the Julius Richardson School, on June 27, 1962, were well attended.

In the morning, the lower grades, from 1 to 4, were presented with proficiency prizes. Mrs. W. Yarnell, school secretary, gave out those on behalf of the Home & School Association and Mr. MacDowell, Board member, those of the School Board. Rev. Buck, of St. George's Anglican Church, spoke of the importance of treasuring the book prizes and referring to them often in the future. He told of the many themes and stories in the Bible of especial interest to children and the number of different books, their authors, and what a good source of constant reading the Bible is to everybody.

To begin a memorable evening Rev. Fraser, of St. Andrew's United Church, led the assembly in the Lords Prayer. Mr. C. Harrowing, principal, welcomed everybody, and distributed the prizes of the School Board, and Mr. Carpenter those of the Home and School Association. A complete list of prize winners appears at the end of this article.

Rev. Fraser's remarks to the children centred on the Game of Life. He quoted Grantland Rice's poem and told the parable of the talents, and how important it was for each of us to use the one, or the ten talents, he had to the best of his ability and thus play the game fairly.

The climax of the evening was the presentation of scrolls, and gifts, to two very deserving and endearing ladies, Miss M. Gardner and Miss M. Simpson, who were escorted to the platform by Messrs. Harrowing and Mosher, respectively. Mr. W. H. Brady, retired inspector of the School Board, told of the many years of service in teaching the ladies had given and of their special roles in shaping young minds. He recalled Miss Gardner conducting classes in the two-roomed school in Chateauguay 35 years ago and her record of teaching through 46 years of which she received the recognition of the Provincial Board of Education. Miss Simpson has been teaching 20 of her 25 years in Chateauguay, previously having taught classes of mixed grades, miraculously keeping all running smoothly in one room. Many of the parents of today's students were themselves taught in grades one and five by these ladies, both of whom plan to continue their retirement years in the community of which they are an integral part.

Mr. Brady presented the scrolls, hand worked by Mrs. B. Taylor, to both.

Mayor D. Currie, The Heights, recollecting a previous occasion when he'd stood between two teachers, presented handbags to them on behalf of the community. Mr. MacDowell, wishing the ladies happiness in their well earned rest, presented both with engraved silver trays on behalf of the school board. The warmth and spontaneity of the prolonged applause showed the affection and regard of all.

Mr. J. Fleming, president of the Home & School Association then surprised the principal with a parting gift, as Mr. Harrowing too is leaving Julius Richardson School to be principal of Maple School. Mr. Fleming lauded the great spirit of co-operation and direction by Mr. Harrowing in his years at the school.

Rev. Fraser closed the meeting with a prayer. The students were dismissed to their classes for their report cards and the parents were invited to the reception in the cafeteria, where everybody had an opportunity to congratulate the guests of honour, Miss Gardner and Miss Simpson.

WORK BEGUN ON RECONSTRUCTION OF ST. MARK'S

Construction work recently began on St. Mark's Anglican Church situated on Gault St. at Valleyfield and which was destroyed by fire last winter. Above is seen the turning of the first sod to start the reconstruction work in operation.

Shown above left to right are: Rural Dean Bonathan from Longueuil; Arch. Deacon Lidstone from Granby; Percy Perry and A. W. Gurnham, senior members of the congregation who turned the first shovelful of earth. Rev. J. B. Hall, rector; Peter Hall, son of the rector; C. Suggars, rectors assistant; Jack Birtwistle and Harry Whitehead, lay delegates. Also present on this occasion were Sheriff Charlemagne Pilon and Lorenzo Chartrand and of many parishioners and friends of this Anglican Church. The construction work is under the direction of Raymond Lecompte Construction of Valleyfield. 'It is expected the new Church will be ready for Christmas.

Protestant School Field Day, June 22nd.

The Annual Field Day of the United Church Indian Day School was again a great success. Held in the large camps of the school, with perfect weather, the program went off according to schedule.

Some of the events were as follows:

VOLLEY BALL. — The "Bonnie B'S" versus the "Agnes M's" ended in a score of 30 to 19 for the Bonnie B's. The teams were: for Bonnie B's, Bonnie Jacobs, Valerie Jacobs, Joann McCumber, Helen LaHashe, Ester Norton, Hazel Phillips, Erlene Horn. Agnes M's — Agnes Mayio, Bonnie Cross, Olive Delaronde, Jennifer Montour, Judy Montour, Marline Phillips, Francina Diabo.

SOFTBALL—The teams seemed to be unduly matched and the final score ended 15-3. "THE JOES" were manned in part by Joe Johnson (C), Kevin Horn, Rusty Nolan, George Mayio, Dennis Montour and Paul LaHashe, but they could not hold down the heavy hitting champs, captained by Jimmie Gilbert and supported by Mark Scott, Charlie Patton, Wayne Diabo, David Diabo and Jimmie Diabo.

THREE-LEGGED RACE: (Senior boys) won by Jimmy Nolan and Mark Scott; Senior girls, Lilly Diabo and Betty Gilbert.

WHEELBAROW RACE: Senior boys, David Diabo and Jimmie Gilbert; Junior, Mark Scott and Jimmy Nolan.

HOOP RACE: Shirley McGregor and Mary Delaronde. HOOP SKIPPING, Geraldine Johnston, who did 135 turns without stopping.

SACK RACES: These races were arranged according to age and the winners were, Laurie Delaronde, Robin Scott, Erlene Horn, Valerie Jacobs, Stephen Horn, Alex Phillips, Jimmie Nolan and Kevin Horn.

GIRLS RACE: (Junior): Robin Scott and Dinah McComber; (Senior), Jennifer Montour and Helen LaHashe.

BOYS RACE: (Junior), Donald Beauvais and Billy McComber; (Senior), Charles Patton and Jimmie Gilbert.

Suitable prizes were presented to the winners in all of the above named events, which were conducted by Mr. George Griffin and Mr. Angus Marquis assisted by the teaching staff, Mrs. E. M. Griffin (Principal), Miss C. B. Boomhour and Mrs. E. M. Clemens.

Abundant refreshments and treats were served to the children at the end of the Field Events. The teachers were assisted by Mrs. Mary Delaronde, Mrs. Mary Mayo and Mrs. Annie Marquis, in serving the refreshments.

The Rev. Arthur Olsen, Pastor of the Methodist Church of Grain Valley, Missouri, recently visited Frank and Mrs. Napier, Mr. Olsen pastor and friend of the Napier's nephew, Charles Napier of Grain Valley, left Grain Valley, near Kansas City, by car on Sunday afternoon and following overnight stop-overs reached Montreal on Tuesday night, and visited Huntingdon on the Wednesday afternoon. He was due to sail from Montreal for London, England, on the Friday morning, after which he will make a tour of the United Kingdom and the Continent, returing from there at the end of August. He said he was particularly impressed with what he had seen of Huntingdon and its environs, especially so since his home district is pretty well dried out after a protracted dry spell.

In Memorian

BEATTIE — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, George Beattie, who passed away one year ago on July 9th, 1961 —
"Not just today but every day,
In silence we remember."

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our relatives and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy, flowers and cards sent to us in the loss of a dear brother and uncle, Archie Tennant.
The Tennant Family.

We wish to thank Dr. Cameron and the nurses of the Huntingdon County Hospital for their kindness during our sister's illness. We also extend thanks to our neighbors and friends who helped us during our recent bereavement.
James, Mary L., Andrew and Joseph B. Walsh.

We wish to thank our neighbours, friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness in our recent sad bereavement in the loss of our Father, Mark.
Kenneth, Isabel and Boys, Earle, Lillian and Family.

I wish to thank Dr. Davidson and Dr. M. R. Stalker and the staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the excellent care given me while I was a patient there; also to those who visited me or sent me gifts, cards and good wishes.
Mrs. L. W. Parker.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for messages of sympathy, mass cards, visits and floral offerings from our relatives and friends, during our bereavement in the loss of a beloved husband and father.
Mme Raoul Soucisse and Remi.

Alderman Leduc's Resignation Accepted—Nominations July 25

The Town Council met at the County Building, on Tuesdoy evening, with all present except Alderman Leduc. The minutes were read and a number of bills passed for payment.

A letter was read from Alderman Leduc offering his resignation due to the fact that he is now residing outside the town limits. The resignation was accepted.

A resoultion was passed to increase the rate of interest on the note carried by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and according to the new regulations issued by the Government.

The Question of sign to be erected at Legare's Store was discussed and plans studied. It was found that it might extend beyond the sidewalk. It was finally decided that the company erecting the sign be notified that such sign must not exceed the width of the sidewalk and the bottom of the sign must be at least 12½ feet above the sidewalk. Owner to be responsible for any damage that may be caused by such sign.

A request was made for a French Fried stand to be located at the George Allary property on Chateauguay Street. Considerable discussion took place before the matter was tabled for the applicant to find another location and report back.

Nominations for a candidate to fill the seat occupied by Alderman Leduc will be held on July 25th. This will be the completion of the term of Alderman Leduc. If required an election will follow on August 1st.

Tenders were received for the Police car, but these were left over unopened, until the next meeting. It is expected that they will be acted upon at that time.

Weeds on private lots in town must be cut forthwith or the town will have them cut and charged to the owner of the lot.

25 bags of calcium are to be purchased from the Quebec Roads Dept., to be used to keep down dust on certain streets in town until arrangements can be made to black top them.

It was decided to send a letter of thanks to Dales Nursery regarding the roses that are now in bloom on the river bank in Town.

A resolution was passed that Chateauguay Street between Cemetery and Church Streets be raised about 20 inches at the low spot and garduated accordingly.

A letter was read from Builders' Supply and Feeds Ltd., that they were unable to make their offer regarding moving their office as the Board of Directors had decided that a consultant be called in.

Considerable discussion ensued about the bridge. For instance it would be up to the Town to give the old bridge to the Road Department, or arrange for its removal if this was not done. The Town would also have to supply the land required for the purposes of the proposed new bridge and to pay for expropriations needed. In the latter it was said that if this was not within the realms of the Town, then it would have to be referred to Quebec and perhaps to the Roads Dept. for action. This would make the difference between the bridge being started in 1962, or some other time in the future. Meantime they would have to await the decision of Builders' Supply and Feeds Ltd.

Strong objection was made to the proposal that several piers would be built in the river to carry the new bridge. It was felt by several of the aldermen that ice would pile up at these piers in the spring and flooding of nearby premises would result with probably damage claims made against the Town. There were some who felt that the Council should have been consulted regarding the proposed new bridge, not just simple set it down without notification. The matter was left pending further developments.

An adjourned meeting will be held to enable the council to meet with the engineer regarding the many Town projects. A date was suggested as this coming Thursday evening, but this was not suitable to all members. A new date will be arranged with the engineer, probably for next Monday.

W.M.S. Meeting

St. Andrew's W.M.S. held the closing meeting for the summer on Wednesday, June 27, in the Annex, with a good attendance. Mrs. Jean McCleery presided. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. McCartney. The secretary, Mrs. Reid, read a letter from Toronto concerning the 100th anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society in Montreal, which will be celebrated in 1964. To commemorate the occasion, plans are being made for an Anniversary Book, depicting the growth and development of the W.M.S. since 1864. The request has been made that a key woman be chosen in each auxiliary to take charge of this.

After some discussion Mrs. McArthur was appointed to accept contributions and have names signed in the Anniversary Book.

Mrs. Stanley Ruddock had charge of the programme, Taking for her text 1 Kings, 18 chapter, she gave an earnest talk on "If the Lord be God, follow Him." If we believe in God, then let it be known by our lives what we stand for. Mrs. McCleery thanked Mrs. Ruddock for her inspiring message. Refreshments were served to all at the close and a social hour spent. Meetings will be resumed in September.

Road Work and Signs

Much road work has been done around the streets of Huntingdon and this has resulted in a great improvement. The work is still going on along Highway No. 4. A number of new signs have also been erected at strategic points to inform the public in which direction to travel for points designated and the distance thereto. These should prove a great help to the travelling public as many enquiries are made as to the direction from strangers in town.

United Church Women's Meeting

The United Church Women held their General Meeting on Wednesday evening, June 27th, in the United Church Hall. The President, Mrs. R. Beal opened the meeting.

Following the business portion of the meeting the President placed remainder of meeting in charge of the Programme Convener, Mrs. W. E. Black, who responded by welcoming and introducing Mrs. Tolhurst of Howick, Regional Vice-President U.C.W., who speaking briefly called attention to The Summer School for United Church Women which will be conducted at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, August 14th — 17th, the theme being "The Church, It's Task, Our Responsibility."

It was very fortunate for the meeting that Mrs. Johnston, Vice-President Montreal Presbyterial (U.C.W.) was able to be present and present the pictures and illustrate same which she took while accompaning her husband to New Delhi, India, where they attended the meeting of the World Council of Churches.

A number of the pictures shown were those of individuals or groups attending World Council of Churches Meeting, of which there were 1500, comprising respresentatives with different theological convictions, yet all uniting in harmony; surely a worthy Christian example for our troubled world!

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Johnston by Mrs. Black and endorsed by all. The meeting closed with the Benediction by Rev. W. E. Black.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, who also had a table of home-cooking on sale. Next general meeting will be held on the afternoon of September 26th.

Obituary

Mrs. M. Murphy
Laid to Rest at Ormstown

It was with deep regret that friends and relatives learned of the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Murphy at the MacDonell Memorial Hospital Cornwall on June 15th. She was 82 years of age.

Born in Ormstown, Que., where she lived most of her life, she was the former Mary Ann Cunningham, wife of the late Frederick Murphy, of Ormstown. Her husband predeceased her some 20 years ago.

In failing health for some time, Mrs. Murphy became a patient at the MacDonell Memorial two years ago.

She is survived by her three sons, Joseph of Montreal, John of Cornwall, and Frederick of Chateauguay, Que., five daughters, Marion (Mrs. J. Hennessy) Syracuse, N.Y., Kathleen of St. Laurent, Que., Sara (Mrs. S. Farley) Syracuse, N.Y., Loretta (Mrs. Arnold S. MacDonald) Cornwall, Ont., and Dorothy (Mrs. R. Nolan) St. Laurent, Que., one brother, Arthur Cunningham, MacDonell Memorial Hospital, Cornwall, Ont. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Murphy was of a kindly nature, always having a cheerful word for those who knew her. Requiem high mass was sung by the pastor of St. Malachy's Church.

Pallbearers were six grandchildren, Lillis and Maurice Hennessy, Arthur, Dale, Bennan and Gary Murphy.

Many floral tributes surrounded the casket, as well as numerous mass cards. Several friends and relatives called at the friends and home to offer sympathy to the bereaved family. Burial was made at Ormstown.

Barrie Memorial Notes

The Barrie Memorial Hospital wishes to acknowledge the following annual membership for the sum of $10 from Mr. Ernest Erskine, Athelstan, Que., and the following donations: $100 from the family of the late Mrs. Stewart McNicol.

GRADUATE NURSE

Graduation ceremonies for 74 nurses of St. Mary's Hospital, were held at the University of Montreal, on May 18th. Among them was Miss Peggy Sedgwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sedgwick of Huntingdon. Peggy will start her nursing career at Huntingdon County Hospital in September.

(By MRS. E. ST-ONGE)

Writing these notes on Monday a.m., which is Canada's Birthday, I would also like to add a happy birthday to a few friends and neighbours who have also celebrated within the last few days. These include Michael Roy, Vincent Lavigueur, Lisle Chayer, Karen Kelly, Claude Joubert, Mrs. Phil. Boudreau, Mark Elson. Mark is the proud posseser of a new bike. (Another young man with a new bike is Pierre Labrosse, but I don't think this was a birthday present.) Mark is also to celebrate with a party today. I know there was also another wee party for a newcomer to the other village and I imagine this was rather a surprize to her Dad and Mother also. I do not know their names just that they are I believe from India. Anyway a special Happy Birthday to this little one who celebrated her first Birthday last week.

Mrs. M. Stevenson, (Nanna), is spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Webber and their seven daughters, at Pt. St. Charles.

Sorry I haven't got all details but I heard Jeanette Amyot passed her Business course with Highest Honors.

Mr. Bruce Dawson of Sawyerville, Que. now employed at the C.A.L. Plant, is staying at our home.

Two winters ago when we had that terrible sleet storm and our trees, along with thousands of others were battered so terribly, and left with what I called bare fingers pointing to the sky, I'm sure no one would have believed that in this short time they would have grown so lovely. Those "bare fingers" are now well covered with many branches.

Schools closed last week. Seems odd at our place not to have the usual rush at set times, instead of seeing the children at all hours. Some of the children who are brought to school by bus have already found their way back by foot or by bike for candy. We miss some of the boys who are away to camp and visiting. Sure hope they are having a good time.

Master Larry Levalley of Mooers, N. Y. has been holidaying with his cousins the Bourdon family. Larry is trying to learn to speak French on his visits here as although both Mr. and Mrs. Bourdon speak English

Athelstan

W.M.S.

ATHELSTAN — The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, was held at the home of Mrs. Lionel Gray, on Thursday afternoon, June 28th, at 2.30 o'clock.

The President Mrs. McIntyre opened the meeting with the call to worship and the hymn "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross".

The opening devotions were taken by Mrs. E. Kimball, who read Ps. 121, and Miss Hattie Shearer led in the Glad Tidings prayer.

Twelve members and several guests were present, and the word for the roll call was "Charity".

The Treasurer reported having forwarded our supply allocation to the Treasurer, and that a refund had been received on C.O.C. work. A motion was made and carried that we send another cash donation toward our allocation. This makes our aim at the allocation met at the half way mark.

Mrs. Stanley Hamilton read some items on our church work in Canada under the title of "No time to falter".

The hymn "I Need Thee Every Hour" and the auxiliary prayer closed the meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

It was found at the Barrie Memorial Hospital where he was taken, that his legs were broken, a bad gash in his face and his chest was quite sore, but to date no further reports have been made.

Powerscourt

POWERSCOURT — Miss Dorothy Taylor enjoyed a week in New York City, where she was the guest of her Aunt Miss Lorraine Frazer. She has now returned to her nursing duties at the Montreal General. Miss Frazer accompanied Dorothy on the return journey and is spending the summer at Fraser's Point.

Mr. Donald Dear motored to Toronto for the weekend, where he was the guest of his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Welburn. He was accompanied by his mother Mrs. Rose Dear, two brothers, Sonny and Gary, and Miss Lise Galipeau.

On Friday last, Miss May Ross was invited to a strawberry social at Herdman Hall. But when she arrived there it was to find that there was not a social but a gathering of friends and neighbors. They met to do honor to May on her approaching marriage. She was met at the door by Miss Barbara Foers who accompanied her to the seat of honor. There she was confronted by a table stacked high with a variety of lovely and acceptable gifts. After these had been opened and passed around among the large number of guests, May expressed her thanks and invited all present to visit her when she is settled in her new home. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Russel Myatt, Mrs. Morris McLean, and Mrs. Robert Millard, of Montreal, all Aunts of the bride, Miss Barbara Foers, Mrs. Stanley Myatt and Mrs. Roland Riel.

A prettily decorated bride's cake, a special gift from May's grandmother, Mrs. Tom Ross was enjoyed by the guests.

Miss Anderson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nolan of Montreal, on Tuesday, and visited friends at Fertile Creek.

Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Morris were Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Briand and Debbie, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Briand and two children all of Montreal.

Mrs. Joe Fischer of Long Island, N.Y., has returned to her home after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross.

Mr. A. L. Hay of Montreal was a Saturday overnight guest of his sister Mrs. E. M. Wood.

Sympathy is extended to Miss B. Anderson in the loss of her sister the late Mrs. James Hamilton.

Sorry to report that Mr. Elvin M. Wood is a patient in the County Hospital. He had the misfortune to fall off a hay rack last Thursday and as a result suffered a broken leg below the knee.

Mr. Melnyk, High School Principal, motored to New York City over the weekend for a few days. He was accompanied by several pupils who had successfully passed their grade eleven exams. Among them was Jamie Wallace. Congratulations to these young folk on their success.

Mr. Simon Bidner and three children of St. Anne de Bellvue were callers on Sunday at the homes of Wallace Brothers.

Beaver

BEAVER — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watterson and Mrs. Catherine Whitall are enjoying a holiday with relatives and friends in Olean and Ceres, N.Y.

-o-

Miss Marian Metcalfe, Boston, Mass., also Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Goldie and family, Franklin Centre, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacDonald and family, on July 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrien O'Rielly, Kingston, Ont., called on Mrs. Elizabeth McMaster and George recently.

-o-

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Platt during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Robinson Woodlands, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner and son Pat, Montreal. Pat expects to spend the summer months with Mr. Platt, also Jim Barnewell, St. Eustache.

-o-

Miss Helen Toole, Clinton, Mass., is visiting relatives and friends in Ormstown and Dundee. While in Beaver she is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jean Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. F. Cameron and family.

-o-

There are a few cases of measles in this locality.

Dundee

DUNDEE — A very successful Salad Tea was held last Wednesday afternoon in Zion United Church, under the auspices of the U.C.W. Special guest speaker was Miss F. Thomas, a social service worker in the Valleyfield district. She spoke about her work in placing children in foster homes and caring for families in need. Money for this work is partly raised by people giving towards Caritas and it is usually difficult to meet the objective. The government also helps. Miss Thomas also has an office in Huntingdon.

Miss Margaret Wilson of Glenelm and Mrs. W. E. Wood of Powerscourt sang solos, accompanied by Mrs. V. Elder. Friends from far and near then gathered in the Church Hall where afternoon tea was served.

-o-

Mr. Frank Derrick and son Bill from Lacolle called on Mrs. A. H. Faser on Dominion Day. Bill remained with the Frasers for an indefinite period.

The Misses Ann and Lynn Locey of Cornwall are spending their holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smellie.

-o-

Early morning services have been held for the past two Sundays at Fraser's Point. Last Sunday the members of the Hi-C led the singing.

Lake Gives Life To Egypt

Lake Tana, in northern Ethiopia, receives water from many streams in the uplands around it and is headwater of the Blue Nile. When in flood, this river inundates its parent river, the White Nile. On this natural irrigation, the Book of Knowlede comments, the economic life of Egypt has depended since the beginning of civilization there thousands of years ago—and this dependence still continues.

Silver Polishing Cloths

Make your own silver polishing cloths using two facecloths about nine inches square. Put eight ounces of warm water in a bowl, add three tablespoons liquid household ammonia and one tablespoon plate powder. Stir until the powder is thoroughly mixed. Put in the two cloths and let them completely absorb the mixture. Hang up to drip dry. When dry shake to get rid of surplus powder.

Obituary

The Late William C. MacKinnon

William C. MacKinnon of 10 South St., Massena, N.Y., died very suddenly at his home, on June 15th. He had just returned from downtown to his home and died after getting out of his car. Mr. MacKinnon retired from the Aluminum Co. of America on Jan. 1st, 1961, where he had been employed for 38 years as a millwright. He was born at Glenelm, Que., April 7th, 1896, a son of George and Ida Watson MacKinnon. He married Hazel Dickenson, on June 26th, 1929, at Franklin Centre, Que. Mr. MacKinnon was a member of the 25 Year Club and of the Macabies.

The Rev. Mr. Kendall Straight, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, conducted the service at the Funeral Home on Monday afternoon, at 1.30 taking for his text 1 Samuel 20:3 "There is but a step between me and death". Mrs. Kendall Straight and Miss Marlene Fair sang "What a Friend we have in Jesus" and "In the Sweet by and by". Burial was made in the Anglican Cemetery at Franklin Centre. Pallbearers were his six nephews, William Creighton, Norval Blair, Gordon Brooks, Merrill Lindsay, George and Keith Dickenson.

Surviving are his wife, one son Clarke Brasher Falls, N.Y.; two brothers, Duncan of Toronto and John, Oswego, N.Y.; one sister, Mrs. Beatrice Creighton, Fort Covington, N.Y.; also four grandchildren, Greg, Jan, Shelly and William Charles. Two sons predeceased him Keith Gordon aged 3 yrs. and infant son William Charles; also one sister Mrs. Ethel Purtell in 1926.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, which speaks of the high esteem of the deceased.

Summary Of "Provincial Affairs" TV Program Featuring Alister Somerville, M.P.P. Huntingdon

As advertised in the Gleaner of June 20, Alister Somerville, M.P.P., Huntingdon County, appeared on the TV program "Provincial Affairs" recently. Following are the questions asked of Mr. Somerville by Robert Butler, newspaperman, and the replies given:

* * *

—As you are M.P.P for Huntingdon where is the County of Huntingdon situated and when were you first elected?

Huntingdon County is bordered on the South by the State of New York on the West by Lake St. Francis and the Province of Ontario, on the North by the County of Chateauguay and to the East by the County of St. John. It is known as the Florida of the Province of Quebec because of its moderate temperature.

I was first elected in 1952, re-elected in 1956 and again in 1960 when I tripled my majority of the previous election. I have had the honour to represent Huntingdon County in the Quebec Legislature for ten years.

—Your County is basically agricultural, what types of farming are carried on?

The western part of The County lies in the beautiful Chateauguay Valley in which there are many excellent dairy farms, they mostly produce whole milk which is shipped to Montreal. In the Central and Eastern part of the County, mixed farming is carried on. This is also a well-known apple producing region with many fine orchards which produce some of Quebec's best McIntosh apples. Maple syrup is an important crop in the spring and the revenue brought in at this time of year when there is a slackening of work on the farm is very beneficial to the farmers.

—How are your farmers benefitting from the Provincial Improvement Program?

The drainage program which was carried out by the Union National Government was highly successful. Plans had been drawn up for an extensive drainage program, but since the Liberal Government came to power this program has not been carried out. Only a very small amount of drainage has been done in the County since July 1960. The bulldozer work in the County has suffered accordingly, in fact in one Municipality the contractor to do this work has his machinery and equipment sixteen miles away from the Township. In order for the farmers to have any work done, they must group together and guarantee him that at least ten farmers will use his equipment in the district at the same time. This is very difficult as the type of work cannot be done at the same time on each farm. Another question which I am concerned about is the distribution of garden seeds to school children. For a number of years, yes, even when I was in school, garden seeds were distributed free to the school children who in turn would have their own gardens and display these vegetables or flowers at the school fair in the Fall. The Liberal Government has decided to discontinue the distribution of seeds and by doing so are not encouraging the young people to be farmers. Perhaps the lessening in the Farm Improvement Program is due to the fact that in the last two years of the Liberal administration that the Agricultural budget has been cut over four and a half million dollars. This offers little encouragement to the farmers.

—I took my basic Army training in Huntingdon, have there been many changes since then?

Yes, Mr. Butler, you will perhaps recall that the Army Training Camp was located just outside the Town limits across the Chateauguay River. The former Military Camp has been converted into a residential area which is called Garden City. Many of the home owners who have built on this site have benefited under the Union National Housing Program on which they received a rebate of 3% on the interest. You will also remember that the Chateauguay River was and is spanned by the Lower bridge which is a narrow steel structure. In 1958 and '59 plans were drawn up to replace this bridge by a modern concrete permanent type bridge. However, since the Liberal Government has come to power we have not heard any more about it and automobiles and trucks are still trying to meet on this narrow bridge.

I presume that when you were stationed at the Military Camp there were sufficient licences for alcoholic beverages in the Town of Huntingdon, however, if you were there today you would not have any difficulty to satisfy an alcoholic thirst. Since the Liberals came to power there have been at least 8 more new licences issued in the Town of Huntingdon which has a population of 3,000. This seems ridiculous to have so many outlets for alcohol, thus making it so freely available when the Department of Family and Social Welfare have an item in the estimates of $200,000. to combat alcoholism.

—You are Chairman of the Hemmingford School Commission, what comments do you have on education?

In the County of Huntingdon, five new consolidated schools were built and new additions to four were constructed in 1958 to 1960 under the Union National. Generous Grants were obtained from the Department of Education for these schools and I may add that the grants were the same whether it was a Roman Catholic or a Protestant school commission.

—You have any comments on the budget?

This has been discussed in two previous telecasts and I do not wish to repeat here. However I would like to point out the increase in the per capita debt for the Province and I will read an extract from the Public Accounts which gives the true financial picture of the state of affairs.

In the public account of 1959, we find the following: On March 31st, 1959 the per capita debt was $39.10 compared with $46.43 per capita as of March 31, 1958. Again in the Public Accounts of 1960 as of March 31, 1960 the net debt was again decreased to $35.80 per capita. In the Public Accounts of 1961 which were the first published by the Liberal Administration, the per capita debt of the Province as of March 31, 1961 was $54.47 which is a considerable increase from the previous year. The Union National Administration systematically reduced the net debt of the Province yearly whereas under the Liberal Regime the debt of the Province has been skyrocketing each year at an alarming rate.

—There are certain moves made by the Liberal Administration in the direction of Nationalization of public utilities. Where does the Union National stand on this subject?

To answer this question, Mr. Butler, I would like to quote an excerpt from a speech of the Honourable Daniel Johnson to the Montreal Chamber of Commerce: "No man in his right mind, be he French-Canadian or simply Canadian, whether he lives in our province, our country, the United States or any other area from which come the funds necessary to our development, would consent to organize or finance an industry, with his own capital or that which he has in trust, if he knows the government's policy is to nationalize or take over that industry the moment it becomes prosperous."

It is very confusing to the foreign investor when the Prime Minister of the Province visits his country encouraging the investor to invest his money in the Province of Quebec to promote industry when at the same time a Minister of his cabinet is speaking in the Province in favour of nationalizing industry. The Company which he speaks of nationalizing serves all of Huntingdon County and I have heard many citizens speak of the excellent service which they have received from this Company.

—Where do you think the policies of the Present Government are taking us?

As I mentioned a short while ago the excess of borrowing is adding a tremendous burden to our capital debt. To me it is like a farmer or a town dweller who instead of paying the mortgage on his farm or property is continually adding to it and it becomes so large that he will not be able to pay it off during his lifetime. So it remains for his children and grandchildren to pay off his debt, if they wish to keep the property and not going to bankruptcy.

It is obvious that the Provincial Cabinet do not think along the same lines and are not in agreement with the Prime Minister. As I mentioned the Prime Minister seems to have one line of thought as to how capital should be raised for the Province while one of his Ministers believes in something altogether different. Where is this leading the Province? It is leading the Province into chaos. The investor would like to know if it is safe to invest in the Province of Quebec. The Provincial Government has a duty to perform and this duty is to advise the investor as to what policy the Provincial Government intends to follow, but before any policy would be forthcoming there would have to be complete agreement in the Cabinet on this policy. Are not the members of the Provincial Cabinet like the man who mounted his horse and rode off in all directions? We know what happened to him, he used up a lot of energy and got absolutely nowhere.

CANDIAC — DELSON — LAPRAIRIE

School Closing in Candiac

A most enjoyable evening was spent in Candiac Community Hall last Thursday, Jue 28th, when parents and friends attended the "School Closing" of the Protestant School of Greater Laprairie. This gala occasion was jointly sponsored by the School Board and the Home and School Association. Mr. Harold Ball Jr., the capable Master of Ceremonies extended a hearty welcome to those present, expressing pleasure in having such a large attendance, which was encouraging for the children and the sponsors.

The programme opened with the singing of "O, Canada" and delightful entertainment followed, comprising songs, dances and drills, by young pupils. Mrs. Capron's grade 1 charmed the audience with their action songs, especially with their interpretation of "Six Llittle Ducks". Grade 2 sang a series of songs and gave a pleasing rendition of "The Teddy Bears Picnic". Miss Helen Hodgman, grade 2 teacher, organized two groups of her pupils to present Ballet and Tap dances, which greatly pleased the parents. Miss Turner's grade 3 pupils blended their voices in the singing of "Lovely Evening" and "A Frog He Would A-Wooing Go" and joined grade 4 to sing "Country Gardens". Grade 4 pupils excelled in their rendition of "Cherry Ripe", Mrs. Harold Ball Sr. was the accompanist. Mr. Gordon Pitcher presented the 1st and 2nd prizes and congratulated students who had received them and with well chosen words urged those who had not received awards this year, to make an extra effort towards success next term, reminding students that "No edeavour is in vain, It's reward is in the doing." Mr. Gerry Rackow then presented the student 3rd prizes, afterwards thanked Harold Ball and Mrs. Ball for services rendered, and expressed appreciation and thanks to all who had in any way assisted toward the success of the evening, Mr. Lloyd Jack was a welcome guest and was invited to speak to the assembly. The meeting closed with the singing of God Save The Queen and refreshments were served by members of the Home and School who took charge of the arrangements for this occasion. We wish everyone "Happy Holidays.

Delson News

The Church of St. Therese of the Infant Jesus held their Corpus Christi Procession in Delson last Thursday evening at 8 p.m. The repository, held at the home of Mr. Gaston Normandin, was beautifully decorated with flowers and lighted candles. Rev. Father Paul Emile Theroux conducted the service. Prayers were recited by Father Theroux and parishioners, asking God's Blessing on the parish.

-o-

It is encouraging to parishioners and the many friends of Father Poirrier, to note that the Rev. Father has returned from hospital after under-going another operation which has proved successful. We sincerely hope that from now on, Father Poirrier will enjoy good health which will enable him to continue his good work in the service of our Heavenly King.

-o-

Tennis enthusiasts are very grateful to Mr. Arthur Trudeau, proprietor of Magasin Trudeau, in Delson, for his generosity in donating a Tennis Court for their use.

-o-

Last Friday night towns-folk were aroused by sirens sounding the fire-alarm and in a very short time a crowd gathered on College St. Delson Gardens, where a garage belonging to Mr. Riel Lavoie was ablaze. The fire was started by a short circuit in the car, which was a total wreck after the flames were extinguished. The volunteer Fire-Brigade are to be congratulated on their prompt action and efficiency which prevented a greater loss of property.

-o-

The new fire-truck which is expected this week will be a great asset to the fire-men. The truck will be housed in the new building which is now nearing completion. Further news concerning the official opening will be forth-coming.

-o-

Many calls have been received from Delson residents protesting the inaccurate report concerning a case of theft with violence which stated that five youths, aged between 18 and 20, all from Delson, were arrested and charged. We often read of similar cases but only when we find such happenings on the home-front does real shock and anxiety take hold. This writer wishes to state that those five youths were not all from Delson, the statement should have read, one youth from Delson. This, the result of getting into bad company, should be a warning to all parents of young adults, to find out where their children go and who their associates are, and thus guide them from the ills of earth.

-o-

We are glad to know that Mr. Leslie Smith has returned home after being hospitalized, and well wishers are hoping to see Les around very soon.

United Church News

It is planned to hold a Church Vacation School from August 6th until August 17th, beginning at 9 a.m. and running until noon. The School will be located in Candiac Protestant school and children from 5 years of age up to 12 years inclusive will be welcome to attend. Student Minister R. McIntosh will be in charge of the programme, which is a relaxed one, providing a good balance of Christian education, recreation, craftwork and other activities of this nature. Children at all times will be under careful supervision.

the family only have a few words.

Oldtimers will be interested to know Mr. "Billy" Hyatt was married at Louiseville last Saturday. His sister, Dorothy, - Mr. and Mrs. L. Buchanan and family were naturally there also Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Hay who were old friends and neighbours of the Hyatt family while they lived in Nitro. Wymans sister, Mrs. McAskill, stayed with the children.

Mr. Eddie Leclair received a very welcome surprize last Thursday evening when he got a phone call from Mount Bruno to go and pick up his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Leclair had a ride that far from Summerside, P.E.I., then came on here for a visit with the Leclair families around here. On Saturday, Eddie and his wife went to Lancaster, Ont., to attend the wedding of one of Mrs. Leclair's sisters.

Mr. Fred Briggs has been away in the States for a week on a course. Jacqueline and David have returned from a visit to Scotland.

Sorry to know Philip has suffered a broken arm. What a way to begin the holidays Philip, do hope the cast will be off soon and you'll be able to enjoy "two arm" fun.

Had a few words with Carole Clendenning the other day. She is just home from school in Edmonton, Alta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fullerton Sr. were visitors at the Latour home last week, Bertha staying for a visit with her old friend Blanche for a day or two.

-o-

I'm sorry not to have any details even at this late date concerning the accident which sent both Mrs. Picard and daughter to hospital in Huntingdon. Certainly hope both are well on the way to full recovery now.

I heard that some of the young folk had a real good time at the little "school closing" party held at the Swartz home, one evening last week.

We were glad to know that Lise Quenneville passed her eleventh grade at the St. Lambert Convent, with honors. Her Mother attended the graduation exercises also the dance for the English graduates held at the Windsor Hotel.

The youngersters are always bringing their pets to show me, so when some weeks ago Gail Clarke brought over her new pet I was sorry he was suffering from the effects of injections and so very quiet but he made up for it this weekend and I had my face well washed by "Ki—Ki" her French Poodle. By the way Ki Ki is only short for a name Gail has off by heart namely "Ricardo Sabaka Panamarova", I called him a Woolly Bear!

Not All 16 Year-Olds Can Obtain Driving Permits

Quebec -- The Transportation and Communications department wishes to specify that adolescents of 16 are not eligible for a driving permit. Only those who have successfully followed an approved government course may be candidates.

One of the clauses in Bill 27, adopted by both the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council, is very explicit on this matter:

"When a person has successfully followed a course approved by the Director of Motor Vehicles and comprising at least twenty-five theoretical lessons of one hour and six practical lessons of equal duration, an operator's permit may be granted him although he may not have reached the age of seventeen years."

At present these courses are given only in certain secondary or high schools. The new Legislation, for the time being, affects only the students of these schools and it is inaccurate to say, as it has been repeated, that the age limit has been changed from 17 to 16 for everyone.

The legislation was amended after a long inquiry in which the insurance companies themselves collaborated. In the United States, where 71 per cent of that country's 20,000 senior high schools give driving courses, it has been found that adolescents who took these courses are excellent drivers.

Statistics also show that they have been involved in 50 percent fewer accidents resulting in deaths and injuries than their untrained contemporaries.

There is no doubt, and the proof is there, that youngsters trained at an early age will continue to be careful drivers with complete knowledge of the traffic laws.

Last year Canadians paid $270 million into the old age security pension fund through the three per cent sales tax collected at factory level, $229 million through the three per cent tax on personal incomes, and $104 million through the three per cent tax on corporation incomes.

Hi! — I hope everyone is well sun-tanned after this long weekend, but I also hope that none of you have sore muscles, such as I! We were down at Missisquoi Bay for a few days and while there, we entertained some friends who, like us, enjoy active sports such as swimming and badminton. Last week after I wrote the column I had writer's cramp; this week my right arm is ready to drop off even before I start! However, I shall carry on because I have, what I think is interesting news.

The official opening of the new park and baseball field took place Sunday evening, July 2nd. To mark the occasion Mayor Joe Laberge batted the first ball which was pitched by Ernest Dupont, Councillor for Ward 5. The Chateauguay Minor Sports Association was represented by President Mr. George Young. Mr. Peter Bedard, President of the Chateauguay Terrace Recreation Association and Mr. Roy Vetland, President of the Chateauguay Home Owners Association were also in attendance. All of these four gentlemen expressed their appreciation of such a fine park area in Chateauguay and also expressed the hope that all players would conduct themselves in a good sportsmanlike manner. As time goes on, further improvements will be made on the park. Such a site is priceless and the only way we can show our gratitude is to become spectators at any events that will take place there. The Sports Committee would like to thank the people who came to witness the festivities and hope for their continued support. Come down and watch the youngsters play ball. You don't need a schedule. Games will be in progress every evening from Monday to Thursday, inclusive at 7 p.m.

Many thanks to Mr. Stan Cahill who arranged to have a loudspeaker system available for the long awaited opening.

Following the ceremonies, the first league game of softball got underway. The Gardens won over the Terrace 33 - 15. It must have been the boys' enthusiasm to show their parents and friends how well they play that accounts for the high score!

Still on the subject of sports, there is something coming up for the men of the C.H.O.A. Anyone wishing to play Soccer, please call Jim Hanlon 692-6586 or Tom Cairns at 692-0704. This is an active game and would be ideal for any man who would like to work off that "spare tire!" So, come on, use your head, and kick!

There seems to be some misunderstanding on watering of lawns. Bylaw No. 190 of the Town of Chateauguay states that lawns may be watered between the hours of 7 p.m. and 8.00 a.m. but only for one hour. No hoses can be used during the day from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. not even to wash your car. During the watering period of one hour, no water must run unnecessarily on municipal streets as this is considered a waste of precious water. The first offenders will be given a warning. A second offense means a fine up to $40, plus costs. I would like to thank Sargeant Roger Giroux of the Town of Chateauguay police who so kindly gave me this information.

Happy birthday wishes to David Essiambre who was 5 just recently and also to Garry Hamilton who was 8 years old. Little Sandy Astle was 5 years old on June 14th and last week, there was a belated birthday party in her home at 96 Lang Street. Sandy didn't mind a belated celebration at all when she learned her gift was to be a black and white puppy which she named "Cookie". Happy Birthday, Sandy! Greetings also are sent to Kenny Driscoll of 53 St. Francis Street who was 5 years old on Tuesday, June 26th. There was a noon lunch party given in his honour at his home. Congratulations to Yvonne and Dick Rockwell of 59 St. Francis Street who celebrated their 13th wedding anniversary on June 25th.

By the way, I heard a very good tip this past week-end. During the summer many people take trips with young babies and often as not, mothers run out of diapers at the most inopportune time. In such a pinch, a small towel is an excellent substitute and of course, very absorbent. I had not thought of this during the time our son, now nearly 3 years old, was using diapers, but perhaps this idea will help other mothers.

This column is submitted to the Gleaner on a special form provided for this purpose. I did not think I would be writing so many pages this week as last, but so far, it seems to be almost as long. I would like to thank the people who have so willingly phoned me their news and those who give up some of their own time to report to me when I call. It is these efforts that will make this column a success. Keep the news coming in by phoning 692-2659.

HEIGHTS - BASIN VILLAGE - NORTH

Correspondent: Mrs. Mildred McCutcheon, 34 Oliver, OX. 2-6068

After much discussion, deliberation and checking by the Council of Chateauguay Heights, the firm of Lindsay, Cosgrove and Colette has been engaged to conduct a preliminary investigation of the town for water and sewerage. Land, aerial and contour surveys will be conducted as well as a house to house canvass on well depths. Following the one month preliminary surveys the matter will go to referendum.

OBITUARY
The Late Leslie Braid

Mr. James Leslie Clifford Braid, a resident for many years of Crepin St., the Station, passed away on Tuesday, June 26th at the Montreal General Hospital following a lengthy illness. He is survived by his wife, the former Millicent Selfe, a son James of the Heights and a daughter Jean (Mrs. Ron Legassic) of the Heights. The private funeral was conducted from the Chapel of Tees and Co. on Thursday at 11 a.m.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mrs. Braid and her family.

News Round-Up

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Evans of Ville St. Laurent were guests at the home of Mrs. Margaret Rice, Watt Avenue, over the week-end.

Birthdays greetings to Elizabeth Fleming of Caughnawaga Road who observed her sixth birthday on July 2nd.

Mrs. William Mitchell, her son Kent and daughter Willa of Desrochers St., the Station, accompanied by their guest, Miss Karen King, of Lang St., the Gardens, have left for their summer cottage at Chateaugay, N.Y., for the months of July and August. Happy holiday, folks. Hope to see you one day.

Get-Well wishes to Bobby Kelly of Gordon Avenue who has returned home from the Children's Hospital following a tonsilectomy. Bobby can't wait for the next ten days to pass as he will be allowed to rejoin the gang at the Seigniory Park Pool then.

Our best wishes to Miss Dawn Johnson of St. John Blvd., the Station, who is facing a four to five week convalescence following her recent illness.

Mr. Charles Slack of Waterloo, Que., visited his sister, Mrs. Stanton Jack, of Smith St., on Thursday.

Miss Marion Jack of Kingston, Ont., is the house guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Stanton Jack.

A clinic for babies will be held at Chateauguay Station, Thursday, July 5th from 10.30 to 11.30 a.m. at the City Hall and from 1.30 to 3 p.m. at Pie XII School, the Basin.

A daily Vacation Bible School will be held at Maple School from July 2nd - July 13th. Classes will be held for children aged 4-14 years from 9 a.m. - 11.30 a.m. Mondays through Fridays. Information about registration may be obtained by phoning Mrs. A. Harvey at 692-9219.

Nice to see Joan and Norm Goodale Jr. of Beaurepaire on hand for the Regatta. They never miss.

The passing of Mr. Sydney Levine of Levine Bros. Bakery in Montreal on Saturday brought a note of sadness to this correspondent. The Levine girls, Hannah, Leba and Myrtle summered on St. John Blvd., the Station, for many years as did their grandparents, the Hornsteins, and their aunts Fanny and Sarah. My family enjoyed a friendship with them and our sincere sympathy with that of many older families of St. John Blvd., is extended to them.

Mr. Larry Gardner of St. John Blvd., the Station, and Mr. Jimmy Duffey of the Heights are vacationing in Cape Cod, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. P. Vanderwoude of Zutphen, Holland, who have been in residence on Watt Avenue for the months of May and June, left on Sunday for New York where they will visit their son, Dr. R. J. P. Vanderwoude. They will visit another son in Vienna, D.C., before sailing for Holland on August 12th. Delightful people, the Vanderwoudes are parents of our neighbour Hans and our good wishes go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ross of Montreal were holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Crepin St., the Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gardner of St. John Blvd., the Station, spent the week-end of June 25th in Sherbrooke, Que., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Price who were observing their 25th anniversary. During the festivities, the engagement of their son David Lawrence to Marilyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price was announced. The young couple have made tentative plans to be married on the 25th anniversary of Larry's parents, next July. Our congratulations.

Injured Boys Slowly Recovening From Recent Accident

(By Kathleen Cowper)

We are glad to report that two of the boys injured last Saturday are now home. Louis Murphy and Bobby Douris are both reported to have back injuries but it is encouraging to know that they are well enough to be home from hospital.

Marcus Martin is still in hospital at Lachine, with a leg fracture and will be for several weeks, but he is progressing nicely.

Rex Barrett, most seriously injured is still in Montreal Children's Hospital and is as well as can be expected at this time. We hope we may be able to bring you more encouraging news next week.

Saturday, six young Spring Crescent and Colonia St. girls held a Kool-aide sale in aid of the injured boys. They sold the Kool-Ade at 1c, 2c and 3c per glass and when they were finished had the grand total of $6.57. (Look for a picture elsewhere in this issue).

Yesterday Daily Vacation Bible School began at Maple School under the leadership of Maplewood Presbyterian and St. George's Anglican Churches. Bible School will be held every week day morning for two weeks.

Thursday night the Presbyterian "Women of the Church" held their June meeting, at Vetville Hall. This meeting began with a Pot Luck Supper for the members which was enjoyed by all. After the business meeting, games were played. Our thanks to the committee in charge for planning a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Betty Jordan of Dunver Road spent a week recently visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Bennett Lloyd at Hamilton, Ont.

Mrs. Lloyd, Catherine, David and Peter returned with her to spend some time with her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley of Cardinal St., and attended her dad's retirement celebrations at the Northern Electric Co. on Friday.

Saturday guests at the Cowper home were Mrs. Sheila Kirkland, Ian and Sheila Joy and Mrs. Canning all of Seven Islands, Que.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Ann Briggs of Colville St., who was crowned Queen of Teen Town on Friday night at the Royal Dance at Maple School. Also to the King — Jimmy Ross, of Prudential. Also congratulations are due the Teen Town Committee for the excellent way these dances are run and the enormous amount of planning and work that goes into them.

Happy birthday to Susan Roy of Lockhart St., who was 7 years old on June 26th. Susan had some friends in Thursday at noon to help her celebrate.

Also to Stephen Roper of Duquette St., who was 7 years old on June 27th. Stephen had to postpone his party as he's in with chicken-pox just now. Hope you had a Happy Birthday Stephen and that you'll soon be well and out again.

A Factual Record Of Achievement

To All Citizens,

I respectfully solicit your active support for a second term as Mayor of the Town of Chateauguay.

I have had the honour of being your Mayor for the last two years and wish to put before you the result of my multitudinous activities in your behalf during this short period of time.

The public meetings of the Town Council have been conducted with the decorum required for the smooth running of the Town's Affairs. I have had the advantage of obtaining the support of the councillors. A divided council into various factions always operates to the disadvantage of the administrative body.

The Statement of Revenues and Expenditures prepared by the Town's Auditor shows a surplus of Revenues over Expenditures of $27,633.04 for the year 1961 and $14,698.85 for 1960. This reversed the situation of previous years which had an accumulated deficit of approximately $100,000. This deficit has been paid off and the years 1960, 1961 show a surplus while taxes were reduced on two occasions during this period. The Capital and Operating Funds have been straightened out and the finances of the Town are in excellent shape. Credit with the bank has been put on a sound basis and temporary loans are easily obtained.

We have had many complaints about murky water and this situation is in the process of being permanently corrected by the installation of a filtration unit known as a Ranney Well. At the latest in August of this year the town will have crystal clear water with practically no maintenance cost. This type of filtration will save the Town in Capital outlay over half a million dollars.

The next imperative step is the installation of a sewage reclamation plant, and the effective control of flood waters.

I am thoroughly conversant with all of the problems of the Town of Chateauguay and I am fortunate in being able to give the time required and I possess the experience to cope with same in an efficient and economic way.

Parks and Playgrounds have been planned with an eye to the future needs of the community. The Public Works and Police Departments are under reorganization and I feel confident that within a comparatively short time this community will be one of the best organized municipalities in the Province.

I respectfully request your influence and support in the coming election so that I will be permitted to carry on with the job.

I do not think it necessary to publish my Curriculum Vitae as my family is one of the oldest families of Chateauguay and my past deeds are a guarantee that I will represent you with dignity, ability and frankness.

Your for a Better, Bigger and Prosperous community,

JOS. LABERGE.

Ranney Well To Be Ready Next Month

Site of Ranney Well System, nearing completion, which will provide water for the Chateauguay District.

Upon completion of the Ranney Well, water for the town of Chateauguay, will be obtained from a source 50 feet underground which lies below a 40 foot gravel bed, which acts as a natural filter. The well itself is 50 feet deep with 13 feet re-enforced concrete pipe.

Headers radiate from the bottom of the well, each controlled with a separate valve. The bottom of the well has a cement seal which forces all water to enter by the headers.

The water will rise by gravity but three pumps are to be installed in case of need. From this point the water will be passed to the regular pumping system.

This project is well advanced and completion is expected the early part of August. Capacity is 10,000,000 gallons per 24 hours, which is conceded an adequate supply to the Chateauguay District.

The water which is crystal clear has been tested and little or no chlorine will be necessary.

A feature of the Ranney Wells is that no regular supervision is required.

This is the first installation of such a system in Canada and work is progressing favorably.

Successful Sea Scout Rendezvous Held

(by Brian Walsh)

Camp Anderson, Choisy, Que. was the site last week-end for the Sea Scout Rendezvous. First to arrive was a boy from Hudson, just four miles from the camp; next came the Chateauguay Mohawk Troop work party (four boys). The rest of the Troop came later on in the evening when the tents were set up. Other troops arrived later during the night. In total there were nine troops and forty-seven tents plus a number of pup tents. The scouts numbered 155, including scouters. Nine Rovers were there as a Service Patrol. Each Scouter received a set of programmes. The Assembly and opening was held with Bosun Ian Reilly of Chateauguay raising the flag; Assistant Bosun Wayne Dombroski as Piper; Glen Fair and Brian Walsh as side boys. A swim, supper, campfires were followed by 'lights out'.

On Sunday a Church Parade was held for the Protestant boys while the Catholic boys attended mass in the Rec. Hall. The Parade was at 7 a.m. and the Mass at 11 a.m. Swimming and lunch followed and after the evening meal a campfire for the complete camp was held. Mr. Condé Crepeault was in charge. Each troop presented a skit. Lights out at 2215 hrs.

On Monday following breakfast a troop program led to a swim, then lunch, assembly and closing. Immediately following the closing some troops left but Chateauguay, Montreal East and Lake St. Louis waited. Activities conducted during the Rendezvous included passing of swimming badges, canoe charges with swimming being tested for First and Second class swimming badges. Six canoes belonging to the Boy Scouts of Canada were used.

Means of transportation used by the different troops included cars, buses, cruisers, whalers and a 40-ft. schooner. The troops brought up their own food and any perishables were lodged in the camp kitchen fridge. Milk, bread, butter and eggs could be purchased at the canteen. Monday morning saw 18 boys from the Lac St. Louis Troop go across the Bay of the Lake of Two Mountains for breakfast. All in all the Scouts and Scouters had a terrific time.

Queen's Scout Badge Received In Chateauguay

(by Brian Walsh)

Sea Scout Ian Reilly, Bosun of the 2nd Chateauguay Mohawk Troop was visited at his home on Carlyle Avenue, the Heights, on Tuesday, June 26th by District Commissioner Mr. Bill Sexton; Assistant District Commissioner Mr. Condé Crepeault; District Sea Scout Master Bill Yarnell; Skipper Mr. Des Rutherford and Assistants Mr. Stan Dombroski, Mr. E. H. Reilly (Ian's father), Group Committee members, 25 Sea Scouts from the Mohawk Crew and friends.

Since Ian joined the Troop in 1958 he has worked hard to get his second class. After second class his aim, along with that of his buddies, was to get first class. He accomplished this just before he went to the 3rd Canadian Jamboree. His first class badge along with his green and yellow all-round cords chased him to Camp Anderson and Ottawa and then back home. He left all these places before he received them. He and his chum Francis Scott received their awards just before Camp Bosco last fall.

For his Queen's Scout he earned the Public Healthman, Rescuers and Coast Watchman plus the Ambulanceman which is compulsory. Ian also had his "B" all-round cords which are red and white and mean that he is a Queen's Scout and has 12 proficiency badges. He is the first Scout to our knowledge who has earned a Queen's Scout in Chateauguay and the first to earn a Queen's Scout this year in the District.

Everyone's congratulations go forth to Ian and here's hoping he will get the next stage, either Bushman's, Thong's or the Gold All-Round Cords for which he must earn six more proficiency badges.

Two familiar faces will be missing when school term resumes at the Julius Richardson School on Abbotsford Avenue in the Fall. Upon completion of the presentation of Proficiency Prizes at the School Closing Exercises on Wednesday evening, June 27th, in the School Auditorium, parents, friends and students witnessed a heart-warming presentation to two well loved teachers, who had signified their intentions of retiring earlier in the year.

Mr. Russell Mosher, Principal Supervisor of the Protestant Schools presented a corsage to Miss Marjorie Simpson, 5th Grade Teacher as Mr. Colin Harrowing Principal of the Julius Richardson School presented a corsage to Miss Mary Gardner, 1st Grade Teacher. Both were escorted to the stage of the Audiorium amid applause where Mr. W. H. Prady of Howick, retired School Inspector presented them with scrolls. Mr. J. McDowell then presented silver trays on behalf of the School Board. Mayor David M. Currie of Chateauguay Heights gave both teachers gifts of purses and cheques on behalf of parents, friends and former pupils of the Community as tokens of their esteem.

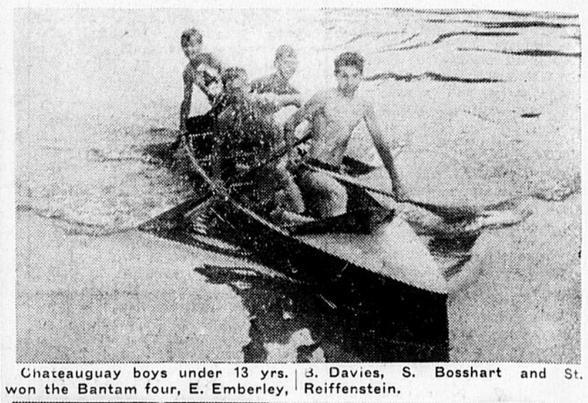

Miss Mary Gardner for whom the new Parkview-Prudential area Elementary School has been named has taught for 46 years, 35 of them in Chateauguay. She received her High School education at the Gault Institute in Valleyfield and then graduated from Macdonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue. She has taught two generations of grade one students at the Julius Richardson School. In 1951 she was awarded the 1st Degee Order of Scholastic Merit by the Dept. of Education in recognition of her outstanding service in the field of education. She has many friends in Chateauguay and expressed no plans for the future except to enjoy their company.

Miss Simpson, 5th grade teacher for the past 20 years in Chateauguay attended Clarenceville High School and Macdonald College. Her scroll commended her for having served well and faithfully, endearing herself to parents and pupils alike during this time. Miss Simpson's plans are indefinite at the moment but she hopes to do some traveling in the near future. Both teachers were lauded for their distinguished careers and loyalty during their tenure of service at the Julius Richardson School. The Rev. Howard Fraser of St. Andrew's United Church addressed the children and parents at this School closing.

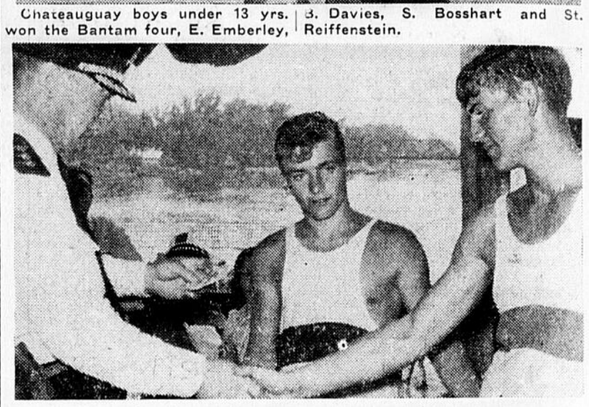

During the week the Staff of the Julius Richardson School entertained Miss Gardner and Miss Simpson at a picnic luncheon which they held at Seigniory Park. Miss Gardner received the gift of a Album of Records and Miss Simpson was gifted with a Transistor Radio.

The Ladies thanked everyone for the lovely luncheon, gifts and kind wishes on their retirement. Our good wishes to both of them.

The opening Regatta of the Season got underway under sunny skies which soon turned to thunder clouds and the subsequent rain. Business in the soft drink stand manned by Mayor David M. Currie and Aldermen Kinna and Robinson of the Heights, slackened off, but the hamburger, hot dog stand established on the sheltering gallery boomed. Commodore Kevin Duffey has expessed satisfaction with the effort of his boys although they only placed 5th. Highlights of the day were the Junior Tandem win with Gerry Kezar and Bill Lobban and the Bantam Four with I. Emberley, B. Davies, S. Bosshart and S. Reiffenstein. The Junior War Canoe with Captain D. Rose (formerly of Lachine) made a good showing. Very good promise is shown in the Bantam Tandem and the Juvenile Tandem. The Kinsman Outboard Motorboat and Trailer was won by Mrs. Margaret White of the Heights.

Preliminary Study Of Water Distribution And Sewage System For Chateauguay Heights

At the final sitting of the Chateauguay Heights Council of the June General Meeting, June 28th, it was unanimously voted by a full council to appoint the consulting engineering firm of Lindsay, Cosgrove and Collette to undertake a preliminary study for a water distribution and sewage system for the town.

With a full agenda of business the June General Meeting held the second Tuesday of the month was finally adjourned and further meetings were held June 18, 26 and 28.

Second and final reading was given to by-law 40 amending by-law 21 concerning special or personal taxes levied as permits or licences.

Second and final reading was also given by-law 14 concerning noise. A draft by-law providing for Recreational Centers and Playgrounds and leasing of Municipal Buildings was given first reading.

A letter received from A. Langis, M.D., Medical Health Officer, Ste. Martine advises that owners of vacant lots be notified to remove obnoxious weeds according to Provincial Law.

CHATEAUGUAY GARDENS AND TERRACE BALL PARK OFFICIALLY OPENED

The Chateauguay Minor Sports Assoc. softball season got off to a fine start Monday, July 2nd. with games in the Mosquito, Pee Wee and Bantam sections. The only final score your reporter was able to get by press time was the C.C.-R.A. vs C.R.V.C. Bantams with the C.C.R.A. boys spoiling the C.R.V.C. home opening with a convincing 16 to 2 decision.

Chateauguay Gardens and Chateauguay Terrace celebrated the opening of minor softball with the official opening of their new ball park. The ball park is situated just off Salaberry Blvd. in the Town of Chateauguay and is an ideal spot for a ball field with the Chateauguay River offering a picturesque view on the opposite side of the Boulevard. Mayor Jos. Laberge, along with Alderman Dupont represented the Town of Chateauguay. Also on hand were George Young, president of Chateauguay Minor Sports; Roy Vetland, president of the Gardens Association.; Peter Bedard, president of the Terrace Association, and a good number of parents and children.

This new ball park is one of the finest ball parks in Chateauguay and is a fine example of what can be done when the residents of a community through their respective association get the cooperation of the Town Council. Don't for one minute think that this was a simple matter of the associations asking for a ball field and the Town agreeing — it took a lot of hard work before this ball park became a reality.

Ball parks are needed throughout Chateauguay, especially in the Town of Chateauguay Centre, where teams are playing on borrowed land, with the threat of having no ball park tomorrow if the construction companies decide to build on these sites. Let's hope that Mayor A. Brisebois and the aldermen of the Town of Chateauguay Center follow the example of the Town of Chateauguay and supply the residents of the Center with some playgrounds.

Official Opening Scores

Chateauguay Minor Sports — Mosquitos: Gardens 33, Chateauguay Terrace 15.

Pee Wee — C.C.R.A. 1, C.R.J.C. O. Terrace 35, Chateauguay Park 5, West End 45, Imperial Gardens 10.

Bantam — C.C.R.A. 16, C.R.J.C. 2, Gardens 18, Chateauguay Park 5, West End 35, Imperial Gardens 7.

11 Taken To Hospital After Crash

A head-on collision involving two cars late Thursday night on Route 9C injured 11 persons, one of them critically.

The crash occurred near a level crossing in Cote St. Catherine about 11.30 p.m. when a station-wagon and compact car collided head-on.

Police said the force of impact hurled the compact car about 125 feet off the highway into the bush.

Taken to the St. Joseph Hospital in Lachine were: Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brunel, both 37, of 6512 d'Aragon street, and their children, Ginette, four, Claude, eight, and Robert, 14, along with Mrs. William Cyr, of 6362 d'Aragon street all occupants of the station-wagon.

The occupants of the compact car were taken to the same hospital. They were identified as: Paul Montay, 19, Nelun Gervais, 20, Charlie Stacy, 18, and Patrick Nolan, 22, all of Caughnawaga.

A fifth passenger, identified as Henry Barber, 22, also of Caughnawaga, was rushed to the Montreal Neurological Institute where officials described his condition as grave.

Police said both vehicles were completely demolished.

Notes and Jottings FROM Robert Sellar's Historical Writings

STE. MARTINE AND THE COUNTRY SOUTH OF IT.

Passing up the Chateauguay, habitants clustered as thickly on its banks, as far as the junction with the English river, in 1820 as they do to-day. The road on the west bank was the one used for reaching the upper settlements, owing to its having fewer hills and from the absence of bridges. Ste Martine from its situation, at the end of the Beauce road and a convenient stage-length from the Basin, naturally became a village. At first, it looked as if the village would be on the west bank, that it would spring up around the stone-tavern, but the erecting of the church and mill on the opposite side caused a change. The first house in the upper-village, and which stood not far from Beauriver, was that of Frs. Vallé, who built it before 1812. In 1820 the bishop divided the seigniory into two missions, the portion north of the Chateauguay constituting one, and that south of it the other. The first he named St. Clement, the other Ste Martine. The names were chosen arbitrarily, and had no local significance, as some pretend. In 1823 a small chapel was built, the site of which was next to the existing edifice. The same year the seignior built a grist-mill, the work being entrusted to Peter and Daniel Macarthur. No dam was needed, a log being bolted to the rock to direct the water to the wheel, which was very high, some 16 feet, and narrow, on the undershot principle. Macarthur continued to build all his wheels thus until he saw the American plan of marking them low and broad enough to take in the whole current of a narrow stream. The building still exists and is utilized as a carding-mill. The stones, two in number, were brought out from Scotland, and there were no bolts, the farmers getting back the stuff entire. It did an immense business for its capacity and paid the seignior its cost several times over. The first miller was Granbois.

The village received a great impetus from the exertions of a man remarkable in his sphere, Marc Antony Primeau, who opened a store, started an ashery, and carried on lumbering on a great scale, centering his operations in the lower village, which he called Primeauville, he successively built a sawmill, tannery, carding-mill, and a brewery and distillery, which was managed by a Scotchman of the name of David Michie. The whiskey made was colored to resemble brandy, which greatly assisted its sale. When at the height of his prosperity, plank-roads had a great reputation, there being a craze about which it is hard now to understand. Mr. Primeau conceived the possibility of lifting Ste Martine out of the mud by the building of such a road. His first proposition was to plank the road to Beauharnois, which failed from the people of that town refusing to help. He thereupon resolved upon striking across the country, and opening a road to Ste Philomene, and thence to reach Caughnawago, which had assumed importance from the proposal to build a railroad from there to the States. Primeau carried out his project, and the road was opened for traffic about 1849. It was of immense benefit to the district, by opening a more direct route to Montreal than that by Chateauguay Basin, which it entirely superseded, but was a dead loss to all who put money into it, the habitants using a hundred subterfuges to escape paying toll, while the perishable nature of the plank soon made it no better than a clay road. An able and successful business man, Primeau was unscrupulous and harsh towards those who fell under his power. The business he built up disappeared at his death, and the name Primeauville was forgotten, and the place came to be known as the lower village. Besides Primeau, Trottier has to be mentioned as a prominent storekeeper, and Dominick McGowan, an Irishman, who established himself in the upper village in 1833. The old name of the rapids at Ste Martine —rapides pêche aux saumons—indicates how plentiful the king of fishes once was in a river where he has been unknown for sixty years. On the rapids above, known by the English as Reed's or Campbell's and by the French as "Parrouge," an American, James Perry, had a small saw-mill previous to 1820.

Of the priests who ministered in the parish, the name of Father Power deserves to be preserved. He succeeded Father Chartier, who went to the Grande Brulé and bore a prominent part in leading the rebels in 1837. Father Power was of Irish descent and had been educated by Father Macdonell of Glengarry and first Bishop of Kingston. He spoke French fluently, but was always glad to fall in with those who spoke English, and cultivated the acquaintance of the Scotch settlers on the Bean river and elsewhere in his neighborhood, impressing all as a man who sought to do what was right, and considerate, in speech and act, of those who differed from him in creed. One instance will suffice to illustrate the upright character of this noble Irishman. In the spring of 1835 wheat was scarce. Two Americans, calculating upon a rise in price, waited upon Father Power and offered him $2 a bushel for the tithe-wheat he had on hand, which was above the current price. He refused, and kept it to sell to the habitants on reasonable terms for seed. He came about 1833 and left at the close of the rebellion for Ontario, where he rose to be bishop of Toronto, and died through his devotion to his people during the visitation of cholera in 1849.

West of Ste Martine the habitants gradually extended, and began to creep up the Bean-river, where they were followed by the Scotch. Archibald Cameron, now of Tullochgorum, says:

My father (Donald) was a native of Strontian, Argyleshire, and a blacksmith by trade. We sailed for Canada in 1832, but arrived in Montreal too late in the season to permit of our going to the part og the upper Ottawa we had in view. While waiting in the spring for the opening of navigation, my father paid a visit to the Rev. Mr. Colquhoun at Georgetown, and who had come out in the same ship with us. He was urged to settle in Chateauguay, and, after examining the country, he bought lot 14 east concession of Bean river, which was held by a Canadian, who had a clearance of several acres on the river-bank. There were about 20 French families on the river, none of whom had been settled over 21 years. There were two English-speaking families, Hugh Henderson, a shoemaker, on lot 13, and Robert Pringle on lot 21, on the south-west concession. They had come the year before. The road from the Chateauguay had been opened on our side of the Bean river as far as lot 26, and on the other side from lot 3 to lot 22. Both roads were passable for carts. There was a bush-track to the Norton Creek, another on lot 21 leading to the Williamstown concessions, and a like track on lot 26. The country to the east of us was covered by bush without a break. The settlement grew rapidly during the 3 years after we arrived, and of the families that came the following remained: that of John Lowry lot 3, north-west concession; David Brown lot 15, John McLennan 41 and John McRae 44. On the south-east side of the river, James Ritchie lot 3, who made beer on a small scale up to the year of the rebellion; James Cameron lot 2, Peter Henderson 9, and John Taylor and Edward Harsted on 22. My father set up a forge and got all the work he could do, while the other settlers did fairly well. A great quantity of potash was made, and neighboring settlers sold their ashes to those who dwelt on the Bean river, from their facilities for leaching. The river was not the shallow, stagnant creek it now is, but had water enough to float large timber down, and I remember one white pine log that was 4 feet across at the butt. A good deal of charcoal was made, and drawn to Montreal. The school we went to was that on the Irish concession whose settlers were honorably distinguished by maintaining a good one from their first coming, and which we reached by a path through the woods. The prospect for several years was that the Bean river would be an Old Country settlement. After the rebellion, however, the French came crowding in from St Isidore, Laprairie, and Longueuil, until they occupied all the vacant lots. After that the Scotch began to sell out so that now (1886) only two families remain. The St Urbain concession was an unbroken bush when we came, but in 1835 there were two houses, which stood where the church now is, and beyond them there was not another for a mile and a half. So wide a belt of bush separated us from the Scotch settlement that there was no intercourse, but my father was told of it, and that they had Gaelic service on Sabbath, and he made up his mind he would try and reach them. So one fine Sabbath in June he followed the track that led southwards and, in due time, got through the bush and struck what is now known as the St Urbain road. After he had gone along it for about 2 miles, he began to see groups of poeple, in twos and threes, ahead of him, and all going the same way. He followed slowly until the schoolhouse was reached, and into which the people passed. When my father entered the services had begun, and he was much struck by the appearance of Norman McLeod who conducted them. He was short in stature, and thin, with dark piercing eyes, and long flowing grey hair. His text was I. Kings xix: 5 and 6, and my father considered it as good a sermon as he ever heard. When the benediction was pronounced, an old man stepped up to him and taking him by the hand asked in Gaelic, "You are a stranger here?" and my father answered that he was, the same language. The old man on finding my father was a Highlanded, took him by the arm and introduced him to the preacher and all the people, and insisted on his going home with him for dinner. The friendship begun that day between Finlay McCuaig and us was of long continuance. In the spring of 1835 I was sent to stay with him and attend Mr. McLeod's school, for he still taught, though over 80 years of age. I liked him well. He was very kind to the scholars if good and just as severe with them if they did not do what was right. If ever there were two good men, it was he and Finlay McCuaig. McLeod was a relative of Dr. McLeod of the Barony, Glasgow, and was an excellent English as well as Gaelic scholar and, when it became necessary, preached in both languages. He died, I think, the following spring. The schoolhouse was on lot 27, a mile east of Blackburn's corners, which was so called from the name of the man who kept tavern there. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd concessions were fairly settled, and the people were comfortable and contented. The 4th and 5th were surveyed by Livingstone and thrown open for settlement in 1830 and rapidly taken up, and unlike the Scotch settlement, the population was varied. The land looked well, being covered by a fine growth of hardwood, the name Beechridge being given to it from the number of large beech trees, and the newcomers did well by making potash and drawing cordwood to the city, but after the ridges were cleared there was little inducement to remain and farm the stoney land.

Dances

The dance at the Chateauguay Heights Recreation Club this weekend displayed some of the local talent in the form of Danny and the Bluecaps, another local band. As usual there was a large turnout. Several L.P.'s were given away for different contests.

The one big dance coming up this week-end is the Semi-Formal to be held at Maple School on Friday night, June 29. Sheila and Don Boucher will crown the King and Queen of Chateauguay, at this dance. Prizes for spot dances, etc. will include cameras, mirror sets, lighters, pens, perfumes and atomizers, brush kits for boys, travelling bags, cosmetic bags, soaps and bath salts, and travelling alarm clocks. The door prizes are three beautiful pandas and a pood These look like wonderful prizes so come along, see who the King and Queen will be and have a good time.

Sunday School Picnics

On Saturday, St. George's Anglican Church and St. Andrew's United Church held their annual Sunday School Picnics at St. Armand's Beach at Plattsburg, N.Y. Even though there were a few showers and the water was a bit on the cool side, everyone had a swell time.

Last week-end Maplewood Presbyterian Church held their annual Sunday School Picnic at Glengarry Park, Ontario. Like the two held the past week-end, everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

Birthdays

Priscilla Zizian celebrated her birthday on June 25. Happy birthday, Priscilla.

Chatter

Pat Taylor and Norman Patterson were guests of Lorna Lord this week-end. How was Chateauguay?

Louise Tracy and Steve Watson journeyed to St. Martin on Sunday. How were things up there?

That's it for this week folks. Seeing that the summer is upon us, news is getting hard to find so how about using your phone and giving me some? The number is OX. 2-2440.

Now the summer holidays have really started, with the children finishing school and looking forward to their vacations. We would like to congratulate all who were promoted, and to those who were not, better luck next time. We also hope that everyone enjoyed the Dominion weekend, the weather was certainly good.

ANNIVERSARIES.

Congratulations and best wishes go out to the following people who celebrated their Wedding Anniversaries: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peters of Sheraton Dr. celebrated their Thirty-Eighth anniversary on Sunday July 1st; Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connor of Sherwood Cresent, celebrated their 7th Wedding Anniversary on Monday July 2nd; Rev. and Mrs. John M. Buck of St. Francis Blvd, celebrated their Thirteenth Wedding Anniversary on Monday July 2nd. Best wishes to you both, from all your Parishioners and friends here in Parkview.

BIRTHDAY.

Birthday greetings to Hover Bartsch of Hillsdale Dr, who was eleven years old on June 26th. All your friends hope you enjoyed a happy birthday.

WELCOME TO PARKVIEW.

We wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peters, who have now come to live with their daughter Mrs. Dorothy Beattie of Sheraton Drive. Hope Mr. Peters doesn't find it too lonesome, now he is on retirement.

We also wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cruickshank and their seven children, who have come from Sackville, New Brunswick, and are residing at 110 Hillsdale Drive.

"ODE TO A PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICH"

Summer is fast upon us,
The children are home from school.
I'm thinking of things to pass the time,
Like picnics at the pool.
But the thing that makes me the happiest,
And starts my heart to flutter,
Is to make a lunch of sandwiches,
And "no Peanut Butter!"

From September through the winter,
Into the month of June,
There's "Peanut Butter" on everything,
Including the living room.
Now it's summer holidays
And you can hear me mutter,
"Thank heavens for hot dogs
And "No Peanut Butter."

On a bright sunny morning
Someone mentions a hike,
The children go a hurrying,
To find themselves a bike.
A "Peanut Butter" sandwich will do
They'll eat it on the way,
Now I know the reason why,
A mother's hair turns grey.

They put the "Stuff" on biscuits
And on bacon just for fun.
On crumpets and on muffins,
And on bacon just for fun.
But now that school is over,
I'll retire to my back yard,
To dig a hole and bury,
That "Peanut Butter" jar.

Signed
A Slightly Homogenized mother.
(all shook up.)

Various Attractions At Valleyfield Regatta July 14-15

The Valleyfield Boating Club, which organizes the International Regatta held, each year, on the beautiful St. Francis Bay in Valleyfield, will on this year present the town's people and the thousands of visitors with two days of various attractions.

The Valleyfield regatta has always been known as the most spectacular regatta in North America. This year the organizers have decided to go all out once more in order to make this regatta the best nautical event in Canada. Nothing has been spared to attain this goal and to present first class attractions.

"Never will a show have been so great", said Mr. Paul Campeau, Chairman of the Regatta Committee. He added, "We expect to have more than 25,000 visitors in town and we are doing everything so that their visit in Valleyfield will be as pleasant as possible during the two days of July 14th and 15th. In addition to the many races which will be run in the afternoons, there will be other fine attractions on water, in the air and on the ground at Sauvé Park in the afternoons and the evenings of both days. Giant fireworks on Sunday night, a courtesy of the Valleyfield Rotary Club, will end this big regatta week-end."

The Valleyfield International Regatta is an ideal entertainment for the whole family and gives to those who have never been in Valleyfield the opportunity to visit one of the nicest towns in the province, a city often and rightly called the Venice of Quebec.

THE CHILDREN'S CORNER BY MRS. HAZEL FERGUSON

FORESTS
(by Hazel Ferguson)

I guess you have all sat under a large shade tree to get away from the sun's rays on a hot summer day. Maybe you have admired a tree on your lawn and have watched it grow from year to year, but perhaps that's as far as your thoughts go. A tree is a wonderful thing. Have you ever taken the time to ponder how trees help us in our modern way of life? Canada's most important forest region covers most of the central and northern parts of the country. It stretches westward from the Atlantic coast to Alaska. It is densely wooded with spruce, balsam, fir, wood is the raw material used tamarach and Jack Pine. Today, bookstores, drug stores, dress shops, toys and grocery stores all sell forest products. Some of these products are made directly from wood. Others are made from wood that has been treated with various chemicals. Wood is one of our most useful materials. We burn untrimmed logs as fuel in stoves, fireplaces and campfires. A tree with the bark removed and the trunk trimmed and treated may become a post or a telephone pole. Sawmills square up round logs to produce heavy construction timber for bridges, dams and foundations. They cut square logs into lumber for our homes. The sharp knife of a lathe can peel a log into veneer or long paper thin sheets of wood. Manufacturers glue veneers of valuable wood such as mahogany to thicker pieces of pine or other less valuable wood. Thin veneers of inexpensive woods are used to make strawberry boxes and grape baskets. However most veneers are made into plywood — a sort of wood and glue sandwich. A process called lamination makes large pieces of wood from short ones. Lamination consists of glueing small planks of wood together with the grain running in the same direction. Shipbuilders use this wood to make keels that must withstand heavy strains and salt water. Engineers use it for Arches of churches and schools to take the weight of the roof. Wood is also ground and made into newsprint on which newspapers are printed. Wood fibers may be pressed together under great heat and pressure to make wallboard. Chemical products may be so different from wood, that they seem to be made by magic. Rayon scarves, neckties soft paper handkerchiefs and bright colored plastic telephones do not look or feel like wood, but to make them. Wood consists of two main parts, cellulose and lignin. These are separated to make products from each part. In pulp-mills wood is chipped into small pieces and "cooked" in chemical solutions. The lignin softens, allowing the cellulose to separate into fine threads. The lignin is then drained off and used to make medicines, fertilizers, cosmetics, plastics and other products.

Distillation of wood means heating tree stumps, limbs or wood slabs until the wood gives off gases. When these gases cool they turn into a liquid. Distilled hardwoods yield acetic acid, pitch and tar oil. Distilled softwood produce turpentine, rosin, pine tar, cedar oils and creosote oils. The manufacture of paper and wood pulp ranks as the leading industry in Canada. Canada produces about 7,000,000 tons of newsprint a year, more than half the world total. Three fourths of the newsprint used in the United States comes from Canada. So when you thin paint with turpentine or pick up the phone to call, or tie a scarf or necktie around your neck, remember they all came from some beautiful tree.

Vision And Intelligence

Our daily experiences teach us that our intelligence depends greatly on our vision to form judgements of the external world. Everything we know and do, in some way, depends on it.

Intelligence is really our master faculty. It is a unique power of discovery and invention. But without the help of vision, its activity would be greatly reduced. Vision gives us a phenomenal amount of information and it is upon this basis that our intelligence acquires knowledge of persons and things. So by improving vision we automatically help our intelligence.

Our civilization has evolved into the complex institution it is today, only because man was gifted with the vision necessary to accomplish it. This wonderful association of vision and intelligence has given man the power to conquer both the material and the spiritual worlds. Our visual knowledge in relation with our intelligence has made possible our modern institutions.

If God had not endowed human beings with this visual capacity, it is quite possible that humans, as a species, could have disappeared from the face of the planet.

We cannot over-emphasize the importance of good vision for our work. Fortunately, the Optometrist has the scientific means to give us the maximum visual efficiency we need so much today. Seeing alone is not sufficient. We must see comfortably as well. Properly corrected vision of course is the only answer.

Valleyfield Fair To Be Grand Affair Next Week

Paul Comte, chairman of Children's Day, Wednesday, July 11th, stated that all is in readiness for this annual event in the City of Valleyfield. Children from the City and outlying districts will be admitted free on the grounds on this occasion only. Each child, of school age or under, will also receive ice cream and soft drinks free-of-charge. Numbered tickets will be handed out to each youngster upon entering the grounds. These tickets will be valid for the drawing of two bicycles, one for a girl and the other for a lucky boy, around 4:30 on the afternoon of July 11th.

This 5-day Valleyfield Fair, which begins with Children's Day, will be staged in a brand new site this year for the first time. Park Marcil, located on Victoria Street, near the public beach and the Chalet of the Boating Club, should prove to be very popular. This Park faces Bay St. Francis and the setting in itself blends perfectly for such a fair as staged yearly in Valleyfield.

General Chairman of Valleyfield Fair, Georges Bourret is confident that this year's spectacle will meet with general favor. Bernard and Barry will supply rides, thrills and many other attractions for the youngsters and their parents who will make it a point to attend the July 11-15 event.

Organized under the auspices of Valleyfield Rotary Club this Fair is held for the purpose of raising funds for this social club. It is a known fact that in the term 1961-62, Valleyfield Rotary Club spent thousands of dollars for worthy causes. Valleyfield Seminary received a $10,000. grant from Rotary; St. Mark's Anglican Church, Valleyfield, $2,500 to help in reconstructing church destroyed by fire in December 1961; $25,000. was voted to help in erecting a pavilion at the Municipal public beach, etc. The Valleyfield Rotary Club is known for its timely achievements and the zeal and ambition of its 75-member roster.

Valleyfield Rotarians anticipate the support and encouragement of the residents of the district so as to continue the worthy deeds in the community by obtaining success at the July 11-12-13-14-15 Valleyfield Fair in 1962.

Will you be there?

The West End Teenage Dance and Barbecue took Place Saturday night. Prizes were awarded for various dances - Twist, Rock 'n Roll, Elimination, Mashed Potato, etc. Mr. and Mrs. L. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. P. Poupart and Mr. R. Sylvestre served hot dogs and soft drinks to everyone. In appreciation of all the time and effort spent on behalf of the teenagers in the development, a cut crystal sugar and cream set were presented to Mr. and Mrs. L. Golden. Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly (including the mosquitoes, who really had a ball.)

The Children's Bingo held last Tuesday on St. Louis Square was an outstanding success. Thirty games were played during the course of the evening and lucky winners went home starry eyed with their prizes. Chips were "on the house" while soft drinks were sold at a nickel each. Everyone co-operated wonderfully and in no time at all after the Bingo was over, the street was cleaned up, chairs and tables moved away. Another success can be chalked up to the Ladies Committee.

Editorial Notes

School Is Out For The Summer

LAST Thursday saw the schools throughout the area close for the summer vacation period and following the writing of examinations for promotion to the next grade when school re-opens in September. For many, the results of examination are know, but for a few more a period of further suspense must be borne until the results are made known through the department at Quebec. Others have graduated and will go in different ways about their plans for the future. No doubt some will go on with further education, while others will perhaps seek employment in the meantime preparatory to attending university at a later date.

There will be those who have achieved success and there will be the failures. Some will try their luck again and others will just drop out and try to find something they can do in the everyday world. To all we wish the best of success in whatever they undertake for the future.

With school closing for the summer months, there are going to be many more children around the streets and playing here and there. With this in mind we urge car drivers to keep a sharp lookout for children when they are driving around the streets of towns and also on the highways.

The recreation plan will take charge of a large number during the period of the forenoon. Children will be able to take part in supervised games in Huntingdon through the efforts of the Huntingdon Recreation Association. However, while some afternoons will be taken up, most afternoons will be free and the children will have to find their own spots to play.

Those people who take their family to lake resorts, we urge that they institute safety precautions for everyone in order that the holidays are not marred by tragic happenings.

The summer season is now off to a good start and no doubt many people will be starting their annual vacations and making trips to this and that point. We urge on everyone that due precautions for safety be taken at whatever is planned. In this way all should be able to enjoy a real holiday and return to homes and jobs and schools with a feeling of well-being for another year ahead.

The European Common Market

AS the weeks wear on the time comes closer when the European Common Market will come into effect in a way that may well affect our future mode of living. Many economic factors are taking place at this time that may well change our future. Our own domestic situation will have to be watched by all political parties, for a false move could plunge us deeper into distress.

It is slowly emerging that the European Common Market may be the centre of the setting for world wheat prices as well as other grains. It is based on the entry of Great Britain into the Common Market and on the fact that all the countries concerned are big wheat and grain users. With a combined buying power, it could well be that prices would be very competitive among the wheat growing nations of the world. So far Canada and Australia have been the big noises in being against Great Britain's entry into the Common Market, but now New Zealand is adding her voice. It is beginning to be seen that New Zealand stands to lose much of the British markets.

There will be much greater competition for all those goods which the Common Market will have to buy outside itself. The reason being that in all probability a combined purchasing rule will follow in order to obtain the lowest possible price for each of the countries. This may be good and it may be bad for Canada. However, we should bid for all we can that may be had from the Common Market, or we shall be shut out entirely. At this time we need all the markets we can get for all our products if our economical situation is to improve. We have fast become a manufacturing nation and therefore we must have outlets for our products in order to keep our people gainfully employed. We have been in the habit of selling our goods to Great Britain and other countries who will make up the European Common Market and we cannot afford to miss any one of them. In fact our trade should be stepped up rather than down.

It may be a long time yet before the full effects of the Common Market are in operation, but when they are, we believe that we shall have plenty to do to keep our end up.

The Austerity Program

DURING the election campaign this newspaper mentioned the fact that any party which had the courage to state the facts and be willing to bring the economy into line by a cutting of expenses and so forth, would be the one to vote for. It so happened that this did not take place but the P.C.'s. have quickly made this a part of the program to be followed for the future. There is no doubt from indications that the Government was aware of the situation the last few days of the election campaign. Also, for any party to have admitted such a thing at that late hour, would have been disastrous to their chances. It is thus that the government has been charged with withholding information from the public.

However, no time has been lost in putting an austerity program into effect and it is to be hoped that the action will have the desired effect. It is going to take more than just a tightening of the belt. Ways and means must be found to put the many thousands of people unemployed back to work. This is not going to be done by government works projects as they are only semi-permanent and will run out in due time without a solution. Our trade must be revived so that our goods are being sold in all countries and that the goods coming into this country are controlled so that unfair competition is ruled out. If we want to sell our goods to other countries, we must be prepared to buy some of theirs in return. However, careful culling must be done to prevent competition with our own manufactures. If prices cannot be controlled by higher tariffs, then we must be prepared to meet the prices of foreign competition. This is where the real belt tightening would come into effect. Profits would have to be pared. Production would have to be increased which would mean our workers would have to work harder. The foreign market is so competitive today that drastic measures need to be taken. It must be remembered that more and more countries are entering into the business of manufacturing and they all want to get markets for their products. For a good number of them this is comparatively easy, as they can sell their products at a much lower price. Many factors enter in this particular phase of the competition, but we must be prepared to meet it. We cannot afford to stand aloof asking for high prices which others will not pay. Quality and price are important factors in the world of trade and we must be prepared to meet both.

Without sacrificing quality and our standard of living, the only other way out is to increase production. It can be done if everyone is willing to work a little harder at the same pay. That is what austerity means. Making a sacrifice to achieve certain ends.

Naturally, any government advocating such measures is not going to find very much favor. But look at it in another light, if the measures being taken assure us of our good standard of living, then the government has done its job. It would be a poor government which would let things slide until all was lost. It takes courage to put such a program into effect, as we said it would. Then let us have the courage to face it. Only by careful handling and given sufficient time, can all those things needed to get our economy back on its feet be put into effect. This is only the beginning and more may be in the offing before the final results can be achieved. That goes for whichever party is in power at this particular time.

Provincial Capital Report

QUEBEC (CP) Premier Jean Lesage said this week he hopes the current seven-month legislative session will be ended next Saturday.

But press gallery veterans took a look at the 20 Bills still in various stages on the order paper and called it "A forlorn hope."

Most important among the remaining Bills is one to establish a General Financing Corporation and another affecting Atlantic Iron Ores Limited.

The Bill to establish the $300,000,000 investment corporation breezed through second reading and article-by-article study and seems well on the way to the statute books.

Meanwhile, the Atlantic Iron Ore Bill is becalmed in the Upper House, The Union Nationale stronghold that tossed it back to the Legislature two weeks ago.

The Legislature had set a date of 1970 for the Eaton-Krupp-Owned frm to go into production. But the Upper House set the date back to 1966.

Now the Bill is again before the Upper House, again with the 1970 date, but action on it has been stalled — probably indefinitely unless the Government and The Union Nationale can come to some agreement on it.

Another major legislative matter not likely to be completed this year is the changing of the Electoral Map.

The committee studying electoral law changes has found the going heavy, with each clause or proposed change subject to intense study.

As the week ended, the Committee adopted a suggestion by Paul Dozois (UN Montreal-St. Jacques) that a sliding scale be used to determine campaign expenditures.

The Government had proposed that candidates be allotted 50 cents per voter, but Mr. Dozois suggested candidates be given 75 cents for the first 10,000 voters in their riding, 50 cents for the next 10,000, and 30 cents for each of the rest.

This would give candidates money to work with after their fixed expenses — printing costs and so on — were met. With the straight 50 cents system, Mr. Dozois said, candidates in small ridings wouldn't have much money left after expenses.

Another purely speculative matter — whether or not the Government will nationalize private electricity companies — also seems destined to remain speculative for this session at least.

Opposition Leader Daniel Johnson pecked away at Resources Minister Rene Levesque on the matter during the week.

Mr. Johnson said that for "the well-being of the people and for the industrial climate" of the province, the Government should spell out its electricity policy.

He said Mr. Levesque, an advocate of natonalization, and Premier Lesage have contradicted one another on the subject.

(The Premier was not in the House when this was said).

Mr. Levesque replied that such policy statements could only be made by the Premier. But his opinion of electricity as the "engine of economic development and economic emancipation" had not changed.

"I hope," Mr. Levesque concluded, "I never allow the member from Bagot to transform into a little debate, on the night of his choosing, a question that is the key to the whole economy of the province.

"That's all I have to say tonight."

Outside the Legislature, an inquiry into the Administration of the Gaspe Sanatorium disclosed that Mr. Jules Gilbert, who resigned early this year as director of the Hospital Insurance Plan, told the Health Department the Government would have to buy about 900 copies of a book he wrote before he would accept the job.

The condition was laid down by Dr. Gilbert in a letter to the Health Department in July, 1960. It was marked "personal and confidential."

He offered the remaining copies of his health book to the Government at $4 a copy, stating the publication price had been $8.

The inquiry continues next week.

On The Question Of A Central High School

The following will be a continuance of the articles that have been published in this newspaper on the Question of a Central High School. This is just another one of a series that we shall publish on this important question in order to acquaint the public with the proposals that are now being put forward.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED GRADE ORGANIZATION FOR PROTESTANT SCHOOLS

A few moments' reflection on trends in education which are obvious to-day and which will become persistent demands in the future, make the desirability of making twelve years of public education, exclusive of kindergarten, available in the province. Within the decade there may be justification for adding a thirteenth grade in a limited number of districts of the province.

For reasons which it is hoped will be apparent from the following, there are advantages to Quebec to employ a different "grade grouping" than is common in most parts of North America. The chart below indicates the standard groupings proposed and the variations that would be possible to meet the divergent conditions bound to exist within certain school administrative units.

PROPOSED GRADE ORGANIZATION AND POSSIBLE GROUPINGS TO MEET VARIOUS CONDITIONS.

Reference Nomenclature	Grades	Possible Groupings
Primary	1	1		1	1					1	1
	2	2		2	2					2	2
	3	3		3	3					3	3
Elementary	4		4	4	4	4	4			4	4
	5		5	5	5	5	5			5	5
	6		6	6	6	6	6			6	6
Junior High	7				7	7	7	7	7	7	7
	8				8	8	8	8	8	8	8
Senior High	9						9		9	9	9
	10						10		10	10	10
	11						11		11	11
	12						12		12	12
*Grouping Number*_____		(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)	(6)	(7)	(8)	(9)	(10) (11)

Grouping (1): There is justification under certain circumstances in establishing primary schools. This might be even a one-room school teaching the three grades. A certain area, with a circumference small enough to be within walking distance of a one-room school, might give evidence of the likelihood of maintaining 25 pupils or more for the first three grades over a period of years. If this area happened to be one with reasonable land values there are positive advantages in maintaining such a school so that the pupils will be close to the home environment. Farming communities do not produce these conditions and as soon as conveyance is required such an operation becomes uneconomical. This type of organization might meet the needs of certain villages and towns of the Province.
Grouping (2): In certain communities it could be desirable to operate two or several one-room schools for Grades 1-3 and to convey the pupils of Grades 4-6 or Grades 4-8 to a location that would assure some of the advantages which accrue from having a large group of pupils of comparable ages.
Grouping (3): Represents the standard Primary-Elementary school establishment. It must be recognized that in a minimum of cases this may have to be a one-room school and quite often only sufficient pupils for two rooms will reside within a reasonable radius. The number of rooms and facilities under such a school organization will depend on the population density. Unless land values are very high it is difficult to endorse building schools for Grades 1-6 with more than 24 classrooms or four tracks. Few areas have a sufficient number of pupils to justify 18 classrooms without locating the school in such a way that some transportation services are inevitable. Schools smaller than 18 rooms, however, are subject to certain fixed charges which raise the cost-per-pupil unduly.
Groupings (4) and (5): These are extensions of groupings (2) and (3) to make provision for the two Junior High School grades. These groupings are to be preferred to groupings (6), (8), (10) and (11) when one considers the interests of the pupils in Grades 7 and 8. Grouping (4) should not be tolerated in schools smaller than three classrooms. Grouping (5) might be attempted with a two-classroom school.
Grouping (6): This grouping provides for situations where it is possible to retain some primary schools in local communities but where numbers do not justify the establishment of elementary divisions due, in most cases, to the need for extensive transportation services. This grouping will not be used extensively because in areas facing such problems it is likely that the output of the primary schools would supplement the enrolment in a Group (2), (3), (4), (10) or (11) school.
Grouping (7): This envisages a situation where it is possible to segregate the output of several elementary schools into an institution specifically designed and operated with the needs of the pre-adolescent, young-teen groups. This is an important age group in our school systems which does not receive the type of attention it requires. In our schools these grades enrol pupils of ages 12 and 13, with some of age 11, 14 and 15. These pupils are too young for the high school routines and are becoming too old for thte activities associated with the elementary school. These two grades should be used to round out the elementary programme, provide remedial work as required in skill subjects and allow for controlled exploratory work in a number of practical and theoretical subjects. Pupils displaying characteristics of 'drop-outs' should receive adequate reinforcement, and challenges to develop the ability to think should abound.
Grouping (8): This represents the typical Junior-Senior High School, and realism dictates that it will be a common pattern. Thought must be given to the protection of the 7th and 8th grades wherever this combination or Grouping (10) or (11) is required. Special attention to the curriculum for Grades 7 and 8 will help greatly as well as specific recommendations for the administration of this type of school.
Grouping (9): This details the typical proposal for a senior high school in the Province. In urban and suburban areas, for some years to come, there will be justification for Grade 12 in only one of every two high schools. In other areas of the Province it will be some years before the demand for Grade 12 justifies operating more than every fourth school in such a way as to include Grade 12.
Grouping (10): This depicts a grouping of Grades 1-11 or 12 which will be necessary in a great many places in Qebec. This is a pattern with which we are familiar and unfortunately one which is invariably weighted in favour of the senior high school grades at the expense of the Primary, Elementary and Junior High School pupils.
Grouping (11): This arrangement or any arrangement in which Grade 10 is the highest grade, should not be used except in very unusual circumstances. Pupils in Grade 10 are too old to adjust to a new school situation easily since habits are firmly set. The existing curriculum does not lend itself to an easy division at this point. Schools which offer Grade 10 are obliged to have many of the facilities and equipment, as well as teachers with particular qualifications, as are needed in schools teaching Grades 11 and 12. In consequence a school teaching to the end of Grade 10 is uneconomical and generally inefficient.

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) Prime Minister Diefenbaker pulled tight on Canada's economic belt last week — knocking the wind from some and raising the ire of others.

But as the week progressed and the government's emergency measures took hold most Canadian business leaders — some with a sigh of resignation — appeared to be accepting the inevitable.

The signs came from the importers affected by the temporary tariff surcharges of five, 10 and 15 per cent on slightly more than half of Canada's import trade — goods ranging from clothes to cars to caviar.

Two opposition leaders — T. C. Douglas of the New Democrats and Robert Thompson of Social Credit — strongly criticized what they said will inevitably be a tight-money regime following the Bank of Canada's move in pegging its bank rate at six per cent.

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson demanded that Parliament meet before the end of July to deal with the exchange rate problem.

Get Big Loans

The austerity program was announced June 24 by the prime minister, who said that Canada had lined up $1,050,000,000 in foreign cash loans and stand-by credits to bolster the fast-shrinking foreign exchange reserves.

He called on Canadians to support "in a spirit of national purpose" these austerity measures:

1. Immediate temporary tariff surcharges of five, 10 and 15 per cent on some $4,100,000,000 in annual imports — a tax on luxury goods only, not affecting some $2,900,000,000 of such imports as basic foods, raw materials and industrial components.

2. Cuts in government spending amounting to $250,000,000 in a full year.

3. Sharp reductions on duty-free exemptions on foreign purchases brought home to Canada by returning tourists.

In a related step "to protect the external value" of the dollar, the Bank of Canada pegged its interest rate at six per cent. This compared with the previous week's floating rate of 5.17 per cent and 4.18 the week before.

This was seen as a signal to the chartered banks to curb their lending in a return to a tight money situation.

To Cut Deficit

Mr. Diefenbaker predicted the program would chop $450,000,000 in a full year from the government's budgetary deficit and produce a $300,000,000 annual reduction in the country's perennial international balance-of-payment deficit — recently running at around $1,250,000,000 annually.

The prime minister's statement — issued on a Sunday to avoid market upheavals — followed four straight days of cabinet meetings. The statement said the net inflow of capital which normally finances international payment deficits had dried up and that "very recently" capital started flowing the other way, out of the country.

Mr. Diefenbaker called it an "exchange emergency", and reiterated the government's determination to defend the present exchange rate on the Canadian dollar — pegged May 3 at 92⅛ cents in U.S. currency.

Plea for Support

He said the Canadian economy "is fundamentally strong and sound" and emphasized that the emergency measures "are temporary and will be removed as soon as circumstances permit."

The next evening the prime minister appeared on national television and radio and appealed to the country to set aside political considerations and support the financial measures with confidence.

"We have faced great difficulties in the past," he said. "We met them by substituting courage and confidence for fear — and I ask you to banish fear and false pessimism."

At the same time Mr. Diefenbaker said Parliament will be called in September "after a cooling-off period so that time will be given for political passions to subside and be followed by calm reason ..."

The prime minister told reporters the emergency arose "in recent days ... I can't put any date on things."

Liberal Demand

Liberal Leader Pearson said the foreign exchange situation reached crisis eight weeks before, and demanded that Parliament meet before the end of July to deal with the problem.

Mr. Pearson issued a 390-word statement in which he said that in order to merit the co-operation of all Canadians it was the government's duty "to put all the facts fully and frankly before the people. This has not yet been done."

He said that " in fact the present emergency began to develop early in the year. It reached crisis proportions eight weeks ago" when the devaluation of the Canadian dollar "became unavoidable."

Real Caouette, deputy national leader of the Social Credit Party, accused the prime minister of "hiding" the facts.

He said that Mr. Diefenbaker "Was aware that this situation was existing maybe six months ago." Mr. Caouette said "he was hiding those things from the people of Canada so he could be elected again."

Two More Losses

Mr. Diefenbaker's government — already a minority one — lost two more seats at the start of the week when the results of the service vote became known.

Both seats went to the Liberals, giving them 99 in the 265-seat Commons and cutting the Conservative representation to 116. There are 30 Socred members and 19 from NDP. The other seat will be settled in Stormont, deferred from June 18 by the death of a candidate.

Upset by the service vote were Solicitor - General William J. Browne in St. John's West and Conservative MP C. A. Best in Ontario's Halton constituency.

Richard Cashin, 25-year-old lawyer, was given the edge over Mr. Browne in the Newfoundland riding and Harry Harley, 35-year-old former army medical officer, won Hamilton.

Mr. Browne, 65, became the fifth member of Mr. Diefenbaker's cabinet to be defeated in the election.

Letter To The Editor

Huntingdon, Que.
July 2nd. 1962.

The Editor,
The Gleaner,
Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sir:

Some weeks ago you were kind enough to publish a letter on the matter of the possible flooding should the new Huntingdon Bridge be constructed with piers placed in the river.

If the sketch and detail of the new bridge, as shown in the Gleaner of June 27th, is to be taken at face value, then the possibility of Spring flooding becomes almost a certainty. To place piers in the river is undoubtedly only to reduce the cost of construction, and ignores completely the risk of flooding, and the damage and subsequent cost to local property owners, especially in the shopping area. It does seem only right that the Government knowing the flood risk inherent in this type of construction of the Bridge, should be called upon, and willing to assume the cost of compensation for any such damage that may arise.

This, of course, is something that can only be arranged through our local authorities. This does appear to be a very serious matter for the Town, and it is to be hoped some action will be taken.

On a smaller matter, though I think serious, people going through the Town to-day, Dominion Day, are given the unpleasant sight of the week's garbage set out along the street in the usual variety of containers, there apparently being no garbage collection to-day. Also in some parts of the Town the accumulation of rubbish along the street gutters must make strangers wonder what sort of a place this is.

Perhaps the flooding and the Town's appearance is a matter of less concern than I attach to it. I wonder? or could they have a bearing on the Town's lack of progress.

Yours truly,
E. G. Bennett.

WEDDING
FRENCH-STEELE

The marriage took place in Elgin Presbyterian Chuch, Glenelm, Que., of Rita Agnes Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Steele of Glenelm, Que., and Gerald Arthur French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford French of Athelsan, Que.

Baskets of peonies decorated the altar. Rev. J. M. Grant officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Charles Mackenzie played the wedding music. During the signing of the register Miss Janet Arthur sang "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a hoop skirt floor length gown of Chantilly lace frilled over triple tulle. The fitted bodice of lace over white satin had a square neckline trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. The long sleeves of lace came to points over the hands. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion fell from a tiara shaped cap outlined with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Gowns of pink nylon over taffeta with white lace jackets, were chosen for the attendants. They wore matching headdress and gloves and carried cascades of blue carnations. Miss Shirley Stirling, friend of the bride, was maid of honour, Miss Carolyn Fench sister of the groom, and Miss Christina Durnin, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Mr. Glen Shearer, friend of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Gordon Orr, cousin of the groom, and Ronald French, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of beige organza over lace with matching jacket and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue silk organza dress over silk with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Elgin Church basement and later the couple left on a motor trip, the bride travelling in a blue embroidered organza dress with blue organza duster, with white accessories. The couple will reside in Ste. Agathe.

Out of town guests were from, Ste. Agathe, Montreal, Howick, Ville La Salle, Ormstown, Chateaugay and Westville.

Showers

Two showers were given for the bride prior to her wedding. A miscellaneous shower was given in Montreal with Mrs. B. E. Sommers, Miss Christina Durnin and Miss Grace Wilson as hostesses, another miscellaneous shower was held in the basement of the Athelstan Presbyterian Church with hostesses Mrs. Donald Grant, Mrs. Thomas Foers, Miss Barbara Foers, Miss Shirley Stirling and Miss Carolyn French. Rita received many lovely gifts and invited all to visit her in her new home.

Reception

About two hundred relatives, friends and neighbours gathered in Herdman Hall on Friday evening, June 20th, to honour Mr. and Mrs. Gerald French on the occasion of their recent marriage. Dancing was enjoyed by all and music was supplied by various musicians present.

Mr. Eddy Robson called the honoured guests to the stage, at which time he expressed the good wishes of all present and presented the couple with a generous purse.

Sincere thanks were expressed by Mr. and Mrs. French. The hall both upstairs and down was decorated with coloured streamers and flowers. Refreshments were served upstairs, the bride's table being decorated with candles and flowers. A beautifully decorated cake graced the centre of the table.

As the guests left for their homes, they expressed their thanks for a pleasant get-together and wished the couple many years together.

Howick

HOWICK — The Georgetown W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. James Wilson, on Tuesday afternoon, June 19th, with fourteen members present.

Mrs. W. Logan opened the meeting and conducted the devotions followed by the Glad Tidings Prayer led by Mrs. Jas. Wilson.

The Roll Call and minutes were read by Mrs. M. Craig.

The W.M.S. Anniversary Fund was discussed and a motion passed to adopt an Anniversary Autograph Book to raise funds for this purpose.

The Treasurer, Mrs. A. Kerr, reported $315.00 sent in to the Presbyterial Headquarters.

Mrs. John Holmes, in charge of the Study Period, read an interesting account of "Family Life, Education and Customs in British Guiana."

Mrs. W. Logan closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Earle Bradley and Mrs. R. B. Tolhurst attended service at Dorval United Church, on Sunday, June 24th, when a stained glass window was dedicated to the memory of the late Earle Bradley, first Clerk of Session, and for many years Senior Elder of that congregation.

The window is one of a series of eight, each in two sections: four using the theme The Gift of God; and four, The Church as the Body of Christ. They are designed by Mr. Liddall Armitage of Whitefriars Stained Glass Studios, England, one of the foremost artist craftsmen of our day. Their studiors have been in continuous production since the early sixteen hundreds.

The first window is God in Creation. The Bradley section, God made man in His own image to have Dominion over all things, is depicted by man turning a sod. Mr. Bradley turned the first sod of the Dorval United Church.

Presentation of the window to the Church was made by Mr. R. N. Gray. The minister Rev. P. W. Jones accepted the gift for the Church and dedicated it to the memory of Mr. Bradley.

Present at the service were the family, Mrs. Bradley, son Donald, his wife and family, 3 brothers and their wives; one sister and her husband.

Lunch was served in the Church Hall to the relatives, the Session, and other friends.

The immediate family were guests later, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bradley, Beaconsfield, Que.

WEDDING
HORTON-WELBURN

The marriage of Dorothy-Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welburn, to Keith William Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Horton of West Chelmsford, Mass., U.S.A. took place in Howick United Church on June 9th, 1962. Rev. Wm. Holmes officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Russell Stewart; Mr. John Laurin sang The Lord's Prayer. White standards and baskets of pink and white peonies, white gladioli and spirea were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, full skirt and high neckline, with applique silk embroidered flowers along neckline and on skirt. Her bouffant veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a pill box, matching her gown. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of pink and white tea roses, with stephanotis and ivy. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Lyn Horton, sister of the groom, was maid of honour, and Miss Sherrill Fisher of St. Lambert, as bridesmaid, were dressed alike in street length mint green organza over taffeta, with full skirts, scoop necklines. They wore matching halo hats with white accessories and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and sweet peas.

Little Janet Currie, cousin of the bride was flower girl, in short dress of white organza over green taffeta, with pale green sash and halo hat, and carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas.

The mother of the bride chose a lime green ensemble with beige accessories and yellow sweetheart rose corsage.

The groom's mother wore a beige and green jacket dress, beige accessories and yellow sweetheart rose corsage.

Mr. Tom Williams of St. Lambert acted as best man. Bill Welburn, brother of the bride was usher.

A reception was held in the Church Hall. The tables were decorated with pink and white sweet peas and spirea, and white candles; bridal party bouquets on bridal table, wedding cake surrounded with June roses.

The couple left for a trip along the Easter Sea Coast of U.S.A. to Cape Cod. For travelling the bride wore a jacket dress of deep pink silk linen with white accessories. On their return they will reside at Ville Le Moyne.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Sudbury, Toronto, Ile Perrot, Pte. Claire, Montreal, St. Lambert, St. Bruno, Harrington, Lachute and Namur.

Prior to the marriage of Miss Dorothy Ann Welburn, Howick friends were happy to meet at the home of Mrs. Douglas Templeton, who with co-hostess Mrs. Ivan Knox, arranged a miscellaneous shower in her honour.

Mrs. Earle Templeton of St. Lambert was hostess at a kitchen shower; and business associates presented a set of waterless cooking utensils at another shower. Old friends were glad when Dorothy came "home" to be married. The day was perfect and flowers and shrubs added their beauty; a fitting setting for such a radiant and lovely bride. The best wishes of the community are extended to Dorothy and Keith.

Saturday afternoon, June 16th, Elgin Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Rita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Steele and Gerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford French were united in marriage by Rev. James Grant. After the wedding the Ladies Aid, supported by all the Congregation catered to a Turkey Luncheon in the basement. Plates were set at eight tables for the ninety-four guests. The tables were prettily decorated and all enjoyed the luncheon served. The thanks of the Ladies Aid go out to all who so generously gave of their time, money, and food to sponsor the event without whose help it could not have been accomplished.

SUNSHINE YELLOW COTTAGE

Isabel Frith's Dream Cottage Busy Tea Room

Like most hobbies, Miss Frith's proprietorship of a tea room started out as a dream . . . a very complete one Miss Frith knew precisely what she wanted: a small cottage outside Montreal where she could serve tea. And, it was going to be painted a sunshine yellow, to provide a friendly atmosphere.

A chance scanning of a newspaper's want ads revealed the availability of a small Cottage on a half acre of land at Allen's Corners, Quebec, midway between Ormstown and Howick off the Montreal to Malone, N.Y. Highway 4.

Miss Frith's CGIT group in Montreal got behind the idea of turning her cottage into a tearoom and staged an oldfashioned painting bee one day last summer, giving the cottage its bright yellow facade, for opening day on the first Saturday in June. This year when Miss Frith bought an adjacent building with the thought of turning it into a gift shop, her Bible Class joined the CGIT girls to paint the exterior of the second building. The handicraft shop will display such items as hand carved soap stone, woven place mats, knit wear, modern and antique chine.

Fascinated by history, Miss Frith has found the area provides a rich vein of early Canadian lore. The cottage lying just off an old coach road, is flanked by the Chateauguay river where American troops penetrated Canadian soil during the war of 1812-13. (Now it's a summer swimming spot). A few yards in the opposite direction lies a monument to the defeat of that same American force at the Battle of Chateauguay. Next year marks the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Chateauguay, a decisive one in the Canadian defense against American invasioin. For on that day some 400 Canadians turned back an American force of 1,500. Across the road, an old blacksmith shop, which ceased business when the tractor replaced horse power, has been preserved in every detail.

A more contemporary bit of history is audible from the tea room where ships passing up and down the St. Lawerence Seaway five miles away can be heard.

Miss Frith's interest in the history of the area and her consideration for her neighbours in the 75-member community has earned her not only the residents' respect, but their help as well. Members of the community have prepared the rolls, maple syrup, clover honey and sweets and cheese which go toward making up the tea menu. Also one of her neighbours will help her look after the handicraft shop while Miss Frith serves tea or coffee.

Better yet from a financial point of view, the customers have endorsed the idea. Comments in the Sunshine Yellow cottage guest book read like this: "best coffee I've ever tasted", "wonderful idea" and so on from people as far away as Vancouver and London, England who chanced to be in the neighbourhood.

Every Satu.Jay afternoon from the beginning of June until September Miss Frith will be serving lunches by appointment from 12 noon to 2 p.m. and tea(or coffee) from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Although retirement is a good many years in the future, Miss Frith is already well on the way to a Saturday afternoon hobby that could become a second career. — The Bell News.

Miss Frith pours coffee for Peggy Stratton, Service Bureau, during a pre-opening gathering of Bell friends.

Isabel Frith's Sunshine Yellow Cottage at Allan's Corners is certainly remote from her position as Typing and Stenography Supervisor in the Beaver Hall Service Bureau. But, it offers little escape from work.

Dundee

DUNDEE — Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming left Dorval Airport by plane for Idlewild. This afternoon (Wednesday) she boarded the Queen Mary for England and the Continent. During her trip she will visit London, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Turkey and France. She will be gone two months and will have travelled by boat, train and bus. Her many friends wish her bon voyage and a pleasant holiday.

Several children in the community have been very sick with measles. Most managed to finish their examinations but missed out on the picnic held last Friday at Fraser's Point on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser's house by the water's edge. These youngsters thoroughly enjoyed their games, races and lunch. Mr. Fraser also helped make the day complete by taking the children for a boat ride.

The afternoon Senior Auxiliary of Riverfield and Howick met at the Georgetown Manse, on Thursday, June 14th. The meeting opened by repeating the Lord's Prayer in Unison. Mrs. Hiram Reddick read Psalms 100. Mrs. Brown led in prayer. The roll call was answered with the text word, Praise. Ten ladies responded. Correspondence was a letter with regard to celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society, Western Division of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, to be held in Montreal, in May, 1964. Discussion took place on how, ladies were appointed to see that donations were collected, and names signed in the Anniversary Book. Mrs. Janet Reddick read the Glad Tidings items by Rev. Stuart B. and Mrs. Coles. This afternoon a hasty tour enjoyed by delegates to the World Council Assembly held at New Delhi and visits made to the Bhilfield and Johansi. They were guests of missionaries there and entertained in homes of Indian Christians, amongst them Rev. and Mrs. Moti Lal.

Mrs. Gordon Easton read a paper on Religion and Life. We are saved by hope. Hope, according to the Bible, is one of the three abiding essentials of Life and there is the great hope that has sustained men and women through the ages. It is hard to measure the work that we do in the Lord. We often feel that we are like sculptors working on figures carved in ice. The results of our work can often only be told in terms of human life and happiness.

Hymn 435 was sung, and the offering was taken, after which Mrs. Gerald Roy closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Brown served delicious refreshments and the ladies spent a pleasant time together.

The weather during the past week seemed to be made to order for picnics. Howick United Sunday School held their annual picnic on Saturday June 16th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Templeton. Around one hundred and fifty, the young at heart, attended. A bounteous lunch of sandwiches, cookies, cake and pie was enjoyed at the tables under the maples. Chocolate and strawberry milk, through the courtesy of Mr. Finlay of Cherry Bank Dairy, was also enjoyed. Mr. Donald Templeton, Supt. of the Sunday School, ably assisted by a number of the young fathers conducted the races. All agreed it was a woderful day of fun and fellowship.

Beaver

BEAVER — Mr. and Mrs. K. Pedersen entertained some 37 guests on June 2nd, to a banquet and dance in honor of their daughter Norma, who graduated from Notre Dame School, Huntingdon. Congratulations Norma.

Covey Hill

COVEY HILL — Mr. and Mrs. W. Widdowson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hooker and also visited Mrs. W. R. Perry in Ormstown, on Friday.

A former resident has received an interesting letter from Mrs. Maitland, widow of the late Rev. H. P. Maitland who in past years ministered to the Presbyterian congregations at Hemmingford and Covey Hill. Mrs. Maitland now resides at Don Mills, a Toronto suburb, where she occupies a housekeeping apartment adjoining the home of her son Alvin and his wife, their son aged 12 and daughter aged 10½.

Mr. Maitland continued active in the ministry up until a week before his death, five years ago.

Mrs. Maithland was contacted through the radio work of her son whose name Alvin is altered to Allan for broadcasting purposes, presumably because the latter is easier to pronounce and to hear.

Blue Sky Revue Visits Pre-Liberation Camp

(by E. St-Onge ,Nitro)

VALLEYFIELD — I have often seen tiny bits and pieces in the Montreal papers about the Blue Sky Revue and knew they were a group of entertainers who went about entertaining many who were not as fortunate as others, so when a few weeks ago Mrs. Wm. Shannon, who is one of the group asked me to be her guest on the evening of the 13th I was pleased to accept. And what an evening's entertainment!!! No wonder they are in demand and make many a return visit to these different places. Some of the places visited have been: Queen Mary Vets., Ste. Anne de Belleville, Veterans Hospital, 1st Presbyterian Church in Verdun, 6th Huzzars, Verdun Protestant Hospital, last Saturday they were to be at Lachute County Fair and on the 22nd., they were to be at St. Monicas church in N.D.G.

This group is sponsored by the St. George's Kiwanis Club of Montreal, and Mr. Tommy Blythe is in charge of entertaining. He could give a whole show by just using his own talented family! They are regulars but the other artists change from time to time as they are lost to Night Clubs, TV shows, etc. This is a wonderful opportunity for a young person to get heard and on the first step on the ladder of success.

We were met by Mr. Lalonde Supt. of the Camp. Our little group was a small one. Just Mrs. Shannon, Mr. Jean Paul Duboise, pianist, Claude Cadieux, vocalist, Mr. Albert Castro, visitor and myself. We had a concert on our own while waiting for the Montreal group to arrive and the boys at the camp came in by twos and threes to listen. When the "Gang" arrived there was the usual flurry of back-stage changing into proper dress, make-up and etc., but in no time lighting was in order, drums in place and everything else needed for the programme all in readiness. The Blue Skyliners Orchestra, composed of Mr. Roger Peace, pianist, Master Billy Blythe, drums. Mr. Sebastian Lopez, lead Guitarist and Miss Carolyn Blythe, Guitarist, opened the Show with some toe-tapping music followed by a few words from Mr. Lalonde who reminded the boys that it was Mrs. Shannon who had brought the group to the camp for the first time last winter and that had been the first time anyone had thought of bringing entertainment to them and now here she was in the midst of another evening of entertainment for them. Mr. Blythe was then introduced to the audience, some hadn't been there for the last concert. In a few words in French and English he greeted the boys — or ought I to say — the men, and told them there were cigarettes and soft drinks for all of them from The St. George's Kiwanis Club and that he hoped they would like The Blue Sky Revue. As the evening wore on there was no doubt of that!

First on the stage was Miss Louise Girouard, Tap-dancer and Baton Twirler. She was dressed in a cute Sailor suit of navy and white and received a rousing round of applause. Then Miss Carolyn Blythe put down her guitar and became a vocal soloist. Two of her numbers were "Clap Your Hands" and "Won't You Come Home Bill Bailey" and they went over big with the men. Next was Mr. Brian Youngward, a Folk Singer. It was too bad that the piano at the camp is in a very low key and the guitars had to be retuned likewise and so Brian had a rather tough time singing in another key than what he was used to but that is all part and parcel of a "Show" like this. Then we were taken back to the year 1920, with The Charlestonites and the Boop-a-Doopers! Well I can remember the Charleston and couldn't help but think — "I wonder if some of the folk who used to dance that and who find fault with today's "Twist" realize just what they themselves looked like!" Oh I know I'll be called over the coals for comparing one dance with the other but that doesn't change my mind. This trisome was Miss Girouard, Miss Kathy Blythe, (only five years old) and Mr. Peace. Among their songs was "Dream of You", "Little Nuisance," and "Has Anyone Seen My Baby?" This was only the first of Kathys' appearances and she almost stole the Show. Then came a very pretty blonde "Cowgirl" in the person of Miss Shirley Herd singing Western songs. One was, "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose It's Flavour On The Bedpost Over Night? These songs were appreciated but more about Shirley later! Now it was time for an intermission with soft drinks for all plus cigarettes and I had a chat with Roger Peace,who was not only the pianist but also a dancer and singer. My thanks to Roger who took time to give me the data as to who was who and who did what and helped me a whole lot. They second part of the "Show" was opened by Mrs. Shannon who sang in both English and French for the benefit of some of the men who didn't understand English. Among her songs were "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands" and she got the audience singing with her, also "Oh Johnny" and she was able to persuade one of the men to come up on stage and be "HER" Johnny much to the amusement of the rest of the men. Mrs. Shannon was applauded for singing and also in thanks for thinking of this group. I don't remember where I heard her sing before but I do know I won't forget her singing last Wednesday night at the Camp, for a long time. Then there was more Valleyfield talent as Mr. Jean-Paul Duboise, pianist played "Bumble Boogie" and "Exodus." He could make that old piano "give" so I wonder what he could do with a newer one? Next was Carolyn Blythe as a ventriloquist. Many of us have seen Carolyn on Cartoon Corner on TV, but she had a show all of her own just for such a group as she was entertaining that evening, and the dialogue she had with her little friend "Sandy" brought howls of laughter from her audience but to me the best was yet to come when she changed "Sandy" for another friend "Annabelle". Annabelle was ditching her boy friend Sandy, to find another and surely she could find one from all that bunch sitting out front! Carolyn's change of voices and all in all ability as a ventriloquist is marvelous and she finally — through Annabell's coaxing got one of the men up on the stage and you don't need to be told just how Annabells' singing of "Give Me A Little Kiss, Won't Yuh-Huh?" was applauded by the audience! Then came Miss Sandy Brooks and her singing of songs such as "Sweet Nothing", "You Were Only Fooling Me" and "That's All You Gotta Do" were only three of the songs she sang. She was brought back for two if not three encores and even the men were not satisfied and I don't blame them. Boy, oh boy, has that girl ever got the ability to hold her audience. She finished up with inviting some one to come up on the stage and "Twist" with her and two of the gang were only too pleased to do so. After a few minutes lights were all turned off and only one shining on Master Billy Blythe who at only 13 years old is already an old hand at the Drums. This flourescent lighting on Drummer and instruments is hard to describe, I do know those drumsticks seemed to be all over the place at the same time and the air was thick with rhythm. Try and keep your feet still, — well I said — Try. Then back came Roger, Louise and little Kathy singing and dancing. Kathy singing "Over the Rainbow", "Rock-a-bye My Baby", Rink a Dink a Doo" and "I don't Care". What a memory this wee Miss has, as she sang all her songs and danced with her partners! I said there would be more about Shirley and this is where she really shone as she was introduced for her next number, and came on stage with her blonde hair just so, not too much make-up, wearing a pale blue sheath dress, and loaded with songs just for the boys. I'm willing to bet quite a few of them were wishing she was their private property! Among her songs were "Frankie and Johnny", and she had everyone singing "When The Saints Go Marching In." She was followed by another Valleyfield guest, Mr. Claude Cadieux who sang in French. The tunes were familiar but I did not know the titles, but it was of no matter as the men who understood French really enjoyed his singing and I must say he has a grand voice. This was the end of the "show" as given by the Blue Skyliners and here the boys from the audience were invited to come up and use the instruments and one chap was only too glad to take a guitar in hand and play. Another of the men who could sing was persuaded to come up to the stage and sang for all of us. All this time Billy was accompanying on the drums.

Now it was time for the Thank-Yous. Beginning with a few words from Mr. Blythe followed by Mr. Hugh McCracken of the St. Georges' Kiwanis Club, then Mr. Lalonde on behalf of the men. The Blue Skyliners were themselves grateful to Maislin Bros. who provided a bus and driver for the evening.

In reading over my notes I've found I forgot to mention one word about Mrs. Tommy Blythe. She was as busy as could be behind scenes, gettng her family ready for their different acts and doing all she could to keep things running smoothly.

Alvin began his musical studies under his mother's tuition and became successful as a soloist with church choirs and on the concert stage. After taking the 5 years training course in the Navy, a business opportunity proved more satisfactory than a seafaring life, but his present position in CBC offers a wider scope for his talents.

A brief message of appreciation may be just the bit of encouragement needs by one whose work must please a critical public. Coming from old friends, it is apt to be doubly welcome.

Two of Alvin's programs on CBM are I Read To You, Thursday 11 a.m. and On The Move, Saturday, 7 p.m. His address is Mr. Allan Maitland, CBC Box 500, Toronto.

Incidentally, how very fast is mass media shrinking our world! Almost daily a news chain links points (4) actually separated by continents and oceans. For instance we discover old friends living in Don Mills; soon after we are introduced (over the air) to a Mr. MacKinnon who was born in China, but now belongs to the Toronto firm responsible for the lay-out of Don Mills, then we hear that tiny Qouaette is troubled by her bigger neighbour Iraq (Arabia) which seeks to dominate the little country at the head of the Persian Gulf. finally we learn that Mr. Mackinnon's firm has the job of modernizing the harbor front of Qouaette.

Havelock

HAVELOCK — Misses Ruby and Shirley Buchanan and Masters Ernest Buchanan were confirmed on June 2nd at Ormstown. The girls looked lovely in their white confirmation dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Labelle and family of Valleyfield were recent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Laurin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. James Elvidge and Mr. Wallace Collins were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Laurin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baskin and Miss Mary Standage were also callers at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen MacMillan of Huntingdon, Mrs. H. R. Wilson and Mr. Charlie Wilson of Glenelm, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McClenaghan, Mrs. Wilson remaining for a week.

-o-

Saturday guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gibson and Mrs. Chas. Cahill of Montreal.

-o-

Mr. Kenneth McClenaghan and Mr. Gary Shoefelt, spent Sunday with Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoefelt at East Farnham.

-o-

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McClenaghan and family, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McClenaghan in Montreal.

Ormstown

ORMSTOWN —The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ormstown War Memorial Community Centre has been very fortunate in finding two expert teachers for the junior players this year. Mr. Andre Morin and Miss Viviane Cadieux who teach tennis in Valleyfield came to the Ormstown Tennis Club on Saturday, June 23rd. The 32 junior players who arrived at 1 o'clock to register and begin their course of instruction were divided into two groups: beginners and the more advanced.

Mr. Morin and Miss Cadieux have very kindly agreed to come and give a course of at least 6 lessons starting at 1 p.m. every Saturday, with a special period for the more expert teen-age boys at 2.30 p.m.

They said they would like to organize the Ormstown junior tournament this year, and to arrange for Ormstown's best players to compete for the Regional League Trophy.

The course of instruction is free to Junior Members of the Ormstown Tennis Club. Those who do not yet have their membership cards can bring 10 cents.

Everyone is asked to bring his own tennis ball and wear running shoes.

Prizes of a tennis ball each were given to Sandraa Begbie, John Moore, Machel Beauchamp and Michael Boyd for having won in in the doubles and the singles tournaments last year.

Tender Accepted For Extension Hemmingford High School

The two members of the Hemmingford High School Board whose term of office had expired, Mr. Alister Somerville, Chairman, and Mr. Charles Barr were, on nomination day, re-elected by acclamation. Mr. Lynwood Cookman, whose name was put forward, begged leave to decline. At a special meeting held on June 13th. Mr. Cookman was asked to re-consider his decision, he did so and was thereupon appointed by the Board to fill the vacancy left by the resignation, some time before, of Mr. Walter Keddy.

In response to the appeal for tenders for the building of an extension to the existing school, five firms submitted their tenders. They were opened at this meeting and were as follows: J. G. Fitzpatrick, Ltd., $113,500; Buyers Construction Co., $103,000; John F. Wickenden Co. Ltd., $101,650; Sestock Construction Ltd., $102,200; W. Keddy & Sons, $92,850. After full consideration of all tenders it was moved and unanimously adopted that the tender of W. Keddy & Son be accepted. All tenders and necessary certificates were sent to the Department of Education at Quebec for approval.

The proposed additions will include four new classrooms, toilets and room for a Library, some remodelling in the existing building such as a Teacher's Room on the top landing and a possible alteration of the Principal's office and the whole school will be painted, a very necessary job, it has not been done for ten years. With this extension it is hoped to aleviate the extremely difficult conditions under which some of the pupils and teachers have been working for the past few years. One classroom had to be divided with a temporary partition to make two rooms, one class was held on the stage of the Auditorium and yet another worked in a very small room originally intended as a storeroom. Work will commence on the new rooms as soon as the grant is authorized by Quebec and it is sincerely hoped, by all concerned, that they will be ready for occupancy by early Fall.

There are a few changes in the teaching staff and the complete list reads as follows: Principal Mr. G. F. Matheson, Mr. R. Bruce, Mr. J. Laurie, Miss Ann Northrup, Mr. George McKay (a new-comer from the Maritimes) and the French Specilist, Miss Winifred White. Mrs. F. Barr, Mrs. L. Cookman, Mrs. Carson Wallace, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. Wayne McNaughton and Mrs. Clara Merlin.

Lachute Spring Fair

While we have not yet seen a full report of the placings in the cattle classes at Lachute Spring Fair which was held during the week following that of Ormstown Exhibition, we understand that Kengor Ideal Aggie, Senior and Grand Champion Holstein at Ormstown won similar honours at Lachute. Her owner being C. A. Naylor, Lancaster, Ont.

For the first time in more than a decade the Burnside herd of R. R. Ness & Sons, Ltd., Howick, Que. was represented at Lachute in this instance by a choice truck load of animals. Their well known ten year old Burnside Appreciation, a former leading winner at Ormstown and the Royal Winter Fair, was first prize cow, 5 years and over, dry, and senior and Grand Champion female.

Holstein Sale

It may be of interest to note that, as an indication of current prices in adjacent areas, in this instance across Lake St. Francis, at Winchester, Ont., 38 head of Holsteins made a total of $9,451 for a general average of $248 each. A breakdown in that respect being: 12 milking females averaged $328 each; 11 bred heifers $296.; 9 open yearlings $157; 4 bulls $186.

The occasion was the 12th, Eastern Ontario Holstein Sale.

The Elsie Holstein Cow

The Borden Milk Company's "Elsie", emblematic of the Jersey breed of cattle and its products has been widely publicized over a long period of years. However, the Holstein breed now has an "Elsie" of whom they are naturally very proud; that is, Rosafe Shamrock Elsie which was recently sold in the Romandale Production Holstein sale for $33,000.00. This is a record price for a female of any breed of cattle, and while a lot of non-Holstein people are wondering why a 6-year-old cow sold for that enormous price, it would appear that there are several reasons annexed to same. According to the official report of that sale in The Holstein Friesian Journal, Rosafe Shamrock Elsie and her paternal sister entered the ring together and were offered on choice. The opening bid of $17,000 was soon raised to $25,000; $27,500 and $28,000, and finally raised from that figure to $33,000. It would appear that the other sister was withdrawn when Elsie was selected as she doesn't appear in the sale list. Anyway they are daughters of A. B.C. Reflection Sovereign (Ex-Extra) while the sister, Thornlea Reflection Belle (Ex.) was Grand Champion at Chicago in 1961.

Previously, at the Rosafe Dispersal of 1958, Elsie was the top priced bred heifer at $7,400, the purchaser being Romandale Farm. Subsequently, she was Reserve All-Canadian as a 2 year old, and as a 3 year old. She produced a 20,592 lb. honor list, 2 year old class leading record and became the mother of three sons, one of whom topped the 1961 National Holstein sale at $6,100. The other two sons are herd sires in leading New York Holstein herds. At sale time she was due in mid-June to the service of the $25,000 bull, Seiling Triune Rocket, "Ex."

It may be presumed that Elsie's milk production more than paid for her keep, the interest on her initial price and her three services. She therefore brought Romandale a profit on herself of $25,000, plus $6,100 for one of her sons, plus the prices paid for the other two sons, doubtless substantial ones. Moreover, Romandale still owns a half interest in one of the sons. A lotta money.

Value of Calf

Following the above writing we received the following, headed "Cattlemen Speculate on Value of Calf", from the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada:

"Rosafe Shamrock Elsie, who was recently bought by Angelo Agro of Agro Acres Farm, Hamilton, Ontario for the world record price for a dairy cow of $33,000 has presented her new owner with a heifer calf. The sire of the heifer calf is Seiling Triune Rocket, another high priced individual, who sold last year to J. L. Alston of Norfolk, England for $25,000 from the herd of Albert Seiling, Elmira, Ontario. The baby calf carries the imposing name for one of its tender years of Romandale Pontiac Elsie and there is speculation amongst the cattlemen as to its value in the light of the selling price of its distinguished parents. However, Angelo Agor says that there will be no opportunity to establish her value through an auction sale because she is destined to stay at Agro Acres and become a major cornerstone in their breeding programme."

Quebec Farms

Quebec Department of Industry and Commerce publication "Number and Area of Farms, 1961 Census" makes interesting (statistical) reading. Also given are comparative figures from the 1956 census. In that instance, however, it is pointed out that same is not comparable because while in the 1961 census a farm was designated as a holding of 1 acre or more with sales of agricultural products, during the past 12 months, valued at $50.00 or more, in 1951 and 1956 a farm was defined as a holding on which agricultural operations were carried out and which was (a) 3 or more acres in size, or (b) from 1 to 3 acres in size and with agricultural production during the previous year valued at $250.00 or more.

In 1961 there were 480,903 farms comprising 172,551,051 acres in Canada, as compared with 575,015 farms, comprising 173,923,691 acres in 1956, both of course compiled as explained above.

With respect to the Province of Quebec the publication says: "In 1961, according to the Federal Census and based on the new farm definition, there were in the Province of Quebec 95,777 farms with a total area of 14,198,492 acres while, in 1956, according to the old definition, there were 122,617 farms covering an area of 15,310,128 acres. By adding to the 1961 figures the holdings excluded following the change in farm definition — that is 13,088 farms and an area of 1,051,131 acres — one arrives at 108,865 farms and an area of 15,249,623 acres, representing an actual decrease of 13,752 farms and 660,505 acres as compared with 1956.

District of Beauharnois

A breakdown by Districts and Counties of Quebec gives the following information with respect to farms and acreage in the following counties derived from the 1961 census, with the 1956 figures being given in brackets in each instance:

Beauharnois: 622 (696) farms; 60,984 (64,913) acres.

Chateauguay: 1,107 (1,279) farms; 136,338, (138,824) acres.

Huntingdon: 1,133 (1,296) farms; 188,983 (202,596) acres.

An appendix to the bulletin gives the number and area of holdings not classified as farms in 1961, due to the change in farm definition, between 1956 and 1961 by Economic Regions and Municipal Counties of the Province of Quebec.

In the case of the following counties the number of holdings excluded by the farm definition change reads:

Beauharnos: 12 holdings — 345 acres.

Chateauguay: 25 holdings — 1,273 acres.

Huntingdon: 46 holdings — 3,119 acres.

LACOLLE — Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Boyse entertained about fifty friends and relatives Friday evening, June 22nd, after the graduation exercises of the Champlain Central School. Miss Winona Boyse and Donald Edgerton, both graduated with high standing.

Father's Day guests at the Elmer Robinson's lakeshore cottage were Mr. and Mrs. A. Barrington and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. McClintock and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. McCaig, Ormstown, also Mr. and Mrs. Alan Robinson and Jeffrey.

Hemmingford

A very pleasant afternoon meeting was held on June 6th, by the Hemmingford W.I. Branch at the home of Mrs. A. Lucas. Nineteen members and eleven visitors were present which included two members of Cercle des Fermiere, Mrs. Middlemiss, County President and four members from Huntingdon W.I. Branch.

Mrs. H. McAdam presided, opening the meeting with The Ode and extended a warm welcome to our visitors.

Mrs. L. Simpson, Finance Committee reported that Mrs. C. Edgerton had agreed upon the menu and price per head for her daughter's wedding reception on Aug. 4th and asked for helpers for the catering.

The Treasurer's Report given by Mrs. R. Lee showed a fair balance.

A motion was approved by Mrs. R. Lee — that each year the delegates to County and Provincial conventions be allowed their expenses from W.I. Funds.

A second motion was approved — made by Mrs. H. Palmer — that 25c per member be sent to the County Funds. Mrs. McAdam explained that this money took the place of a booth at the Ormstown Fair.

Mrs. J. Robertson, Secretary, read a letter of thanks from the Salvation Army for our cooperation in the handling of their Pick-Up of used articles.

Conveners' Reports followed:—

Convener of Agriculture, Mrs. J. L'Esperance reported that she had $20.50 toward seeds for the School Fair, also that a few changes had been made in the different categories — Fruit cake had been left out and had been replaced by six cookie recipes. Two more knitting classes had been added — babies' booties and a knitted hat. She hoped the Fair would be continued into the evening so that the parents could attend.

Convener of Education, Mrs. W. Beattie read an article from "The Montreal Gazette" saying in part that the Q.W.I. have given a great deal of attention to schools in their 56 years of experience. Since 1911 consolidation of schools and closer cooperation between school and home has been accomplished.

Convener of Home Economics — Mrs. R. Petch reported that the Tile Work and Nutrition courses had been arranged for the afternoon and evening of June 11th to 15th inclusive, and would like to have names of those who would attend.

Convener of Publicity — Mrs. C. Harris read a report of the County Convention. Names of County Officers elected for the year 1962 were written down by the members.

Mrs. Middlemiss gave us an informative talk dealing first with Life Membership, stating that this honour used to be given for an outstanding achievement. The fee is now $25.00 instead of $10.00 and it had been suggested that a Federated Pin be given when the occasion arises. She quoted a code of safety for farmers — Be careful with farm machinery — Have lights on tractors, have a rest every two hours, etc. She read excerpts from The Federated News stating that Mrs. Harold Laird, the Editor is very anxious to have a copy of The News in every member's home. In this paper Mrs. Haven Smith, a world Vice-President of A.C.W.W. emphasizes the economic importance of women in the world. She quoted one man as having said that A.C.W.W. had changed his family's way of living because it had changed their thinking. "When we bring the message of Christ to a woman, we bring the Kingdom of God to a family," and urged that women all over the world become organized to promote peace and understanding.

The Provincial Convention is being held at Macdonald College from June 25th to 29th and a short discussion followed as to the dates when delegates and other members would attend.

Mrs. R. Curry, 2nd Vice-President, suggested that a more distinctive traffic light should replace the one hanging at the crossroads of Route 52 and Frontiere Street in Hemmingford. She proposed the words "Stop" and "G" in both languages should be affixed, to benefit strangers passing through, and also to prevent possible accidents. This mattter will be brought before the next Council meeting.

The Roll Call was answered by Ideas to Help the Finance Committee. Many suggestions were given — food sales, dramas and plays, catering, fashion shows, clothes, etc. Fees were collected.

The business meeting adjourned. The Collect was repeated and a reminder given of the next meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Laurie on the afternoon of July 4th.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Lucas and her co-hostesses Mrs. L'Esperance and Mrs. Cleland, and many of the members took advantage of the beautiful weather and ate outdoors.

Sympathy also to Mrs. A. Rankin in the loss of her brother, Thomas Duff Cameron, of Verdun, who was buried in the Montreal Memorial Park on Monday last.

—o—

Bereavement

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. George Stanford of Hemmingford in the death of his brother Earl Kitchener Stanford of Brockville, Ont., Kitch Stanford, as he was popularly known, died on Monday evening, June 18th. He was a prominent business man of the community and Campaign Manager for the P.C. Candidate, Mayor Jack Langmuir, in this Federal election. Although ailing for the past year he continued with his many activities right up until Monday afternoon when he, reluctantly, entered hospital. He passed away just before the results of the election, for which he had worked so hard, were announced. Mr. Stanford was a veteran of World War II, a member of the Isaac Stern Masonic Lodge, he held office in many of the Town's sporting clubs and organizations and was, himself, a keen hunter and fisherman. He was very active in municipal affairs and had served on the Executive of the local Conservative Association for many years. His loss will be severely felt in the community. Mr. and Mrs. George Stanford attended the funeral service which was held in St. Peter's Anglican Church with the burial in the family plot in Oakland Cemetery.

Prize - Giving Day At Langlois Academy, Hemmingford

The annual distribution of reports and prizes to the pupils of Langlois Academy, Grades 1 to 6, took place on Friday morning, June 22nd. The pupils, together with a large number of parents, members of the teaching staff and School Board, were assembled in the Hall and the Parish Priest, Reverend Father J. M. LaRocque presided.

Hussell Town Church Celebrates Anniversary.

HEMMINGFORD — The Russeltown United Church celebrated its 136th anniversary on Sunday, July 1st, 1962, by holding the annual service at 2.30 p.m. Regular services are not now held in this Church which is, nevertheless, in an excellent state of preservation, but at least once a year a service is held to mark the anniversary. The Church comes under the Hemmingford Charge so the Reverend Gordon Ficko conducted the service and the Church was very well filled. Mrs. Emmett Cleland accompanied the congregation singing and additional music was supplied by Miss Davis of Montreal who sang 'Song of Hope and Peace', and a young grandson and granddaughter of a former member of the Church, Mrs. Wood of Ormstown, very pleasingly rendered a duet, 'How great Thou Art'. They were accompanied by Miss Anderson of Ormstown.

Vacantion Church (Bible) School

Again this year the Vacation School will be held in Hemmingford, sponsored by the Protestant Churches. Classes will be held, mornings only, in both the Anglican Hall and the United Church Hall and will commence Monday, July 30th for one week. In order that sufficient material for handicrafts and lessons may be ordered, the organizers would very much appreciate immediate registration of all children who will be attending. Contact your Minister or Mrs. James Robertson, at CHarlotte 7-2571.

Varia

Airman 2nd. class K. W. Sample of the U.S.A.F. arrived at his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sample of Covey Hill, on Saturday evening, June 23rd after motoring up from California, visiting various places of interest on the way and crossing Canada from Vancouver, covering a total distance of 5,300 miles. The joy of his homecoming was saddened by the death, the previous morning of his grandfather, Mr. Mark Sample. Of this he had no knowledge, having started his journey some days before.

Winston, or, as he is now popularly known, Kenneth, is attached to the Electronics Branch of the U.S.A.F. and is on a long embarkation leave. He will leave for duty overseas on July 19th, and will be stationed at Charlemagne just outside Paris.

Congratulations to our newest grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Welthe arrival of their first granddlington Potter of Covery Hill, on the arrival of their first grandchild, a boy, born to their daughter, Esther, Mrs. J. C. Ashley of Fort Worth, Texas, on Saturday, June 30th. The baby arrived at the hospital in Grand Prairie and both mother and son are well.

-o-

Mrs. W. F. Orr entertained a few friends to tea on Tuesday, June 26th, in order to wish Bon Voyage to Miss Eleanor Spearman, who is spending a two month vacation in Europe. Miss Spearman left on the Wednesday evening B.O.A.C. flight. After tea, Mrs. Donald Orr presented Eleanor with a beautifully bound Diary in which, all hoped, she would faithfully record the interesting details of her trip.

-o-

Miss Shirley Warner, chosen for the good work she has done with the Junior Red Cross in Hemmingford High School, left on Tuesday morning, July 31st for Charlettetown, P.E.I., where she will attend the J.R.C. High School Training Centre for two weeks, returning July 13th.

WEDDING
THIBERT-DUQUETTE

The marriage of Fernande, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ovila Duquette of Hemmingford, to Mr. Lucien Thibert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emile Thibert of St. Edward, took place at the Church of St. Roman, Hemmingford, on Saturday, June 23rd. The bride looked charming in a gown of white organza, the fitted bodice having an over-lay of lace with lace sleeves forming points over the hands, the full bouffant skirt was designed with an over-skirt of flounced lace cascading to the hem at the back. Her finger-tip veil was held with a dainty coronet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of Madonna lilies.

Miss Pierette Duquette acted as Maid of Honour to her sister and wore a gown of pink nylon while the groom's sister, as bridesmaid chose yellow nylon. Both wore matching accessories and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Little Irene Duquette was flower girl for her sister and the groom's young brother, Luc Thibert was the ring bearer. Lucien and Réal Boulerice, two close friends of the groom, were the groomsmen.

Mrs. Ovila Duquette, the bride's mother, wore a gown of rose-beige lace with matching three-quarter length coat and with accessories while the groom's mother, Mrs. Lucien Thibert chose a gown of orange nylon with matching duster and white accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of white rosebuds.

Mrs. J. H. L'Espérance played the wedding music and, during Mass, the Ladies Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Smith, sang appropriate music. The Reverend J. M. LaRocque was the celebrant.

Following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held at the Frontain Bleue Hotel, St. Johns. The honeymoon is being spent at St. Anne de Beaupre and for her going-away outfit the bride chose a dress in turquoise nylon with matching duster and beige accessories. With this she wore a small blue and beige hat.

On their return, the happy couple will make their home in St. Edward.

OBITUARY
The Late Mark Sample

Covey Hill lost one of its lifetime residents on Friday, June 22nd, 1962, when Mr. Mark Sample passed to his last rest. He had been hospitalized but a few days and seemed a little better but in the early hours of Friday morning he slept peacefully away. Mark Hamilton Sample was born, and lived all his life on the old Sample homestead, where two generations had preceded him. He was the son of David Sample and Isabel Hamilton and reached his 78th birthday on the 4th June. He was married 53 years to Abra Christina Milne, who predeceased him on 12th October, 1959. Mr. Sample, despite his many duties on the farm, nevertheless found time to enter into the life of the community around him. He was, for years, a Councillor of Havelock Municipality, a Director of Havelock Fair and for forty years an Elder of, first, the Presbyterian Church, continuing after the amalgamation, in the United Church. He is survived by his two sons, Kenneth Mark and Earl Milne, their wives and four grandchildren, Norris, Winston, Mark and Sharon and by two sistersin-law, Mrs. Ernest Sample of Franklin Centre and Mrs. Alec Gebbie of Scarborough, Ontario.

The funeral took place on Sunday, June 24th, at 2 p.m., the service was held in the Union Church on Covey Hill, and was taken by the Reverend Gordon Ficko who chose as his text the words from Matthew II, verse 29, 'Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart and you shall find rest unto your souls'.

Two hymns were sung, 'The Old Rugged Cross' and 'What a Friend we have in Jesus' and Mrs. Emmett Cleland accompanied the singing.

The pallbearers were Ross White, Brand Edwards, Allan Sutton, James Curran, Fergus Moore, Aaron Churchill. Among the many friends and neighbours who attended the funeral were Miss Emma McCuaig who so kindly and capably cared for Mrs. Sample in her last illness and then stayed on to care for Mr. Sample. The family deeply appreciate her kindness.

The funeral arrangements were in the hands of Mr. J. M. Sharpe of Franklin Centre and the many beautiful floral wreaths and arrangements were supplied by The Little Denmark Flower Shop.

LITTLE DENMARK FLOWER SHOP

How to Cut and Care For Flowers.

The problem of keeping cut flowers is to keep a supply of water coming up through their stems. To accomplish this you should cut your flowers with a sharp knife, taking care to avoid injury to the plant. A special pair of cutting scissors may be bought which will hold the cut-off stem, making the removal a one-handed operation. It is wise to have a container of water along with you in which to place the freshly cut blooms.

After cutting remove the lower leaves and any excess foliage and recut under water if desired. This prevents air bubbles from entering the stem canals and obstructing the upward flow of water. Flowers which have wilted badly can be revived by this treatment or by placing them in boiling water for a few minutes. If the latter method is used the tops of the flowers should be protected from any steam which would shorten their life.

It is advisable to make a slanting cut which will expose more absorbing surface and prevent the tubes being sealed by resting upon the bottom of the vase. Woody stems, such as are found on peonies and chrysanthemums should have the ends slit or a little bark peeled away.

Another important factor in making bouquets last is that they be cut at the proper stage of their development. Most flowers fade immediately after pollination, and it is therefore best to cut them just as they begin to mature. Gladiolus, for instance, should be cut as the first bud opens, peonies as the outer petals develop and roses in the soft bud. Iris should also be cut in the bud. Wild flowers as a rule do not keep well as cut flowers, except for daisies and goldenrod.

Plants are filled with sap in the morning and this is the best time to cut those which wilt easily, however those with hollow stems such as gladiolus and zinnias are best cut in the late afternoon when the stems are empty. They will fill quickly when plunged deep in water and be in prime condition the next morning.

Never crowd flowers into a small-mouthed vase. There should be plenty of air circulating around the stems. Make certain the water is always clean, cool and pure. Never allow leaves below the water, especially those of chrysanthemums and dahlias. Cut flowers do best in cool places. Drafts and sunshine cause rapid evaporation and place too much of a burden on the flowers.

New Flower Of Ethiopia

Addis Ababa, capital city of Ethiopia, means "new flower". Founded as recently as 1837, it was christened by the Empress of Ethiopia, the Encyclopedia Americana says.
