The course of studies, in which religious instruction holds the first rank, is divided into two sections—the classical and the commercial.

The classical course, principally taught in French, is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the Greek, Latin, French and English languages and literature, pure and mixed mathematics, history and geography, philosophy and natural sciences, and whatever is necessary as a preparation for a professional career.

It comprises eight classes—Latin Elements, Syntax, Method, Versification, Bene-lettres, Rhetoric, 1st and 2nd year of Philosophy.

The commercial course, principally taught in English, embraces the English and French languages and literature, mathematics and the other branches named above, moreover book-keeping, and whatever else may fit a young man for commercial and industrial pursuits.

It comprises four classes: Grammar, Literature, Rhetoric and Philosophy.

There are, moreover, elementary and preparatory classes for younger students.

The system of education is paternal. The teachers endeavour to unite kindness with firmness, and make use of the means of persuasion in preference to those of severity.

To be admitted into the college, applicants must present a certificate of good character.

Monthly reports of behaviour, application and progress are sent to parents or guardians.

None but relatives, or those who represent them, are allowed to visit the boarders.

Half-boarders and day scholars must not absent themselves without previous leave from the College authorities.

The collegiate year is of ten months, beginning in the first week of September, and ending in the first week of July.

Terms per year.—Board and tuition, $150.00; washing, $20.00; bed and bedding, $10.00; music lessons, $25.00; use of the piano, $5.00; drawing lessons, $20.00. Half boarders, $80; day scholars, $30.00.

Payments, which are required in gold or its equivalent, and strictly in advance, are made in two instalments, 1st in the beginning of September, 2nd on the 1st of February.

The college will not take charge of providing a student with clothing or other necessaries unless a sufficient sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer.

No reduction in the above mentioned terms will be granted for absence of less than one month.

their practical benefit to the sick poor, and their claims on the liberality of our citizens, are invited to visit the Dispensary about one o'clock on any day (except Sunday) and judge for themselves.

This institution furnishes medical and surgical aid and medicines to the sick poor of every nationality and religion in Montreal.

The attending physicians visit at their own homes those who are unable to come to the Dispensary and too poor to pay.

In restoring to health, it restores to many their only means of support, and thus prevents poverty, pauperism and crime.
