Farm Forums To Open November 2
The future of the Small Farmer.
How to sell farm products? How to sell supports save agriculture?
On November 2, the first of these topics will be discussed by over 500 groups of people across Canada. They will first listen to a half-hour broadcast from the Ontario Federation of Agriculture Annual Meeting in Toronto; then they will discuss the issue for half an hour and then they will pose questions for the experts to answer. The answers will come back to them within one and one-half hours for their further consideration.
Canada is the only place on earth where this technique is used.
Nineteen years ago this fall, the first National Farm Radio Forum broadcast went out to the communities that lie outside our cities. Since then, the system of group discussion, combined with study material and a national broadcast, has been copied in many nations. Nowhere has it stood the test of time as in this service.
This year, through the co-operation of Departments of Agriculture, Farm Organizations and Extension Departments of Universities, farm people will form in groups for the purpose of increasing their understanding of the issues which face agriculture.
Through the assistance of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, a weekly half-hour broadcast will be carried on 51 Canadian stations to these groups.
Through the National Farm Radio Forum office, at 113 St. George Street, in Toronto, these groups will be furnished with study material in the form of a Farm Forum Guide containing up-to-the-minute information on the topic.
Through provincial offices in each province, the groups will hear a summary of their findings of the previous week on radio and will obtain help in maintaining their group as a social entity. From each of these offices they will obtain study helps throughout the season.
In no other way can local leadership be developed so efficiently, thoroughly and well as in a Farm Forum. Hundreds of Canadian Co-ops, Credit Unions and local Federations of Agriculture owe their start to a Farm Forum. Hundreds of Community Centres were built as a result of their work, and countless other local services begun.
If your community needs any of the benefits obtainable from group activity and collective reasoning, you need a Farm Forum. It is easy to form one. You may obtain help from 113 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Following installation the regular work was carried out by the new N.G. Mrs. E. Montgomery, Mrs. M. Boy, P.P. was a guest, also Bro. G. Oleson, G.W. of the Encampment.
Gifts were presented to the retiring N.G. Mrs. E. Herdman and Mrs. C. Clifford, D.D.P. by Mrs. Boy on behalf of Bayview, presented Mrs. C. Paul with a photograph of the Assembly and Grand Lodge Officers in remembrance of the Institution of their Lodge 25 years ago, when she assisted as the D.D.P.
Mrs. Clifford in her address outlined the year's work and spoke of the many projects sponsored by the President. Others spoke briefly. About fifty members enjoyed the social hour at the close. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Parents Discuss Improvement Of Kindergarten
A meeting was held at Huntingdon High School on Thursday evening, Oct. 22, of the parents interested in Kindergarten who met in the Kindergarten room to discuss improving present conditions. There was a good attendance and much interest was shown in the operation of the Kindergarten. Those present felt there was a need for new equipment and it was agreed that parents of the present Kindergarten class be asked to donate one dollar at the beginning of November and December for this purpose. Other interested parents also expressed a desire to contribute to the purchase of the new equipment. The question of the suitability of the present room was raised and fully discussed and this matter will be further considered at a later date.

Dr. Clarence McCoy Addresses Huntingdon Rotary Club

At the Rotary Club meeting on Monday, Dr. Clarence McCoy, Vancouver, B.C. addressed the Rotarians about salmon fishing, as it pertained to the Fraser River in British Columbia. A very excellent film was screened showing how the salmon spawn live in fresh water for the first year, then go to the sea via the rough waters of the Fraser River, and there they remain for two years before making their return swim to the identical same quiet river, a tributary to the Fraser, to spawn. From the pictures it was all evident that the providing of fishways for the salmon to make the return trip up the Fraser River is a colossal undertaking.
Dr. McCoy also made reference to a research study he has recently been making pertaining to the Huntingdon Overlanders, who left here with a view to seeking their fortune in the Cariboo. The Huntingdon group composed of 16 to 20 men from this area was the only group of four that started out, succeeded in completing the trip, but without financial success. This group went by train to St. Paul thence to Fort Garry (Winnipeg), thence across the Prairies with the aid of oxen, one woman with three children from Fort Garry, and she was pregnant, a wet season and much mud. As they reached rivers they had to build bridges. When they at last reached the Fraser River it was expected to find it easy sailing, but such was not the case. The Huntingdon Overlanders built a log raft 85 feet in length with a railing about it. With the people on the raft, their mules and oxen they attempted to go down the Fraser River, but with the first rush of water the animals were all swept overboard. The Huntingdon Overlander party reached its destination. One of the other parties was found at a later date as having been washed up onto a bank and all dead.

Semi-Annual Meeting County W. I. Held At Franklin

The semi-annual meeting of the County Women's Institute met on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Sproule, Franklin, with an attendance of 16 delegates. The County Pres., Mrs. Palmer, conducted the meeting.
Two minutes silence was observed in memory of two members who passed on during the last year. Mrs. Chester Orr and Mrs. George Kilgour. The Treasurer's report showed a substantial balance. Consequently it was decided to assess each Branch only 25¢ per member yearly for the County Fund. Treasurer reported that grants of $25.00 had been received from the Provincial and the Federal Governments.
Arrangements were made for a Speaker for the Annual Spring meeting. Refreshments were served at Conventions and semi-annual meetings. The sale of plants, bulbs, aprons and small articles to be continued at May Convention, but on a voluntary basis.
Mrs. Robertson gave a report of the good work done at the Public Speaking Contest, and this project will be continued. The Quebec Service Fund has an objective of $1.00 per member. Discussions were held concerning Tweedsmuir Competition, Leadership course and Handicraft course. Mrs. E. M. Wood was appointed to make a Record Book of Life Members of which there are at present 52 in the County.
Special attention was given to Project 20 projects; Highway Safety; Driver Education; Branch Suggestions concerned Membership Campaign, Retarded Children, Civil Defence, Pastureland.

Miss A. Reid Wins Q.W.I. Award

The three young people at Macdonald College who won the Queen's Women's Institutes awards for 1959 are Miss Allison Reid, Huntingdon, Que.; Miss Caroline Pride, Dorval, Que.; and Mr. Stanley Holmes, Ayers Cliff, Que.
It is Miss Reid's second year to win the Frederica Campbell MacFarlane Memorial award and she has entered the third year of the Household Science course. Miss Pride who won the Mrs. Alfred Watt Memorial award is also in third year Household Science, and Mr. Holmes is second year Diploma Course in Agriculture.
These are awards given by the Provincial organization. There are many scholarships, bursaries and student loans given by county and branch Institutes as well. The Women's Institutes everywhere are interested in education, for youth as well as for adults.

Community Park At Chateaugay, N.Y. Under Construction

A contract for the construction of the Chateaugay Community Park has been awarded to Clarence Paro and Son, of Malone, who submitted the lowest bid of $6400 on the project. Seven other bids were received ranging up to $14,500.
The Malone firm commenced work leveling the area and removing trees and during the past week considerable progress has been made including construction of a road leading to the site.
Weather permitting all work on the first phase of the park is expected to be finished by December 1st, which will include construction of the 175 by 200 foot pool, installation of 500 feet of six inch pipe to fill and drain the pool, removal of 35 trees and removing all debris from the area.
Under separate contract next spring, bath houses will have to be erected and the entire area enclosed by fence. Additional improvements to the park, such as fireplaces and picnic tables, tennis courts, and playground equipment will be added as funds become available.
The Chateaugay Rotary Youth Recreation Committee stressed that the park is being constructed for use of all the people residing in this Township. Although its use is primarily for the children of the area, gradual expansion of facilities will ultimately provide recreation for adults.
Five years ago the Chateaugay Rotary Club commenced plans for the eventual construction of a permanent site for recreation. Personal donations from club members, and the annual benefit minstrel shows, raised $4000 to start the project. A gift of $750 from Mrs. Doris Pearl (used to purchase the land) and $500 from Wadhams Council Knights of Columbus, augmented the fund and provided sufficient money to start the park.

Indian Who Fatally Shot A New York Police Officer Is Charged With Manslaughter

Alex. Papineau, 38-year-old Mchawk Indian of the St. Regis Reservation, who was indicted October 19th, on charges of first degree manslaughter and first and second degree assault, pleaded innocent to all charges and was admitted to bail of $3,000 at Malone, N.Y.
Papineau was accused of shooting and fatally wounding Trooper R. J. Donahue, 23, of Mineville, and wounding another trooper, C. K. O'Connell, 27, of Cadyville, during a fight at Bombay, May 23. He was also seriously injured.
State police accuse Papineau of taking Donahue's pistol during a scuffle and shooting the trooper in the mouth. The Indian is also accused of turning the pistol on Trooper C. K. O'Connell, 27, of Cadyville, and shooting him in the leg.
The two assault charges arose from Papineau's alleged shooting at Trooper O'Connell.
The manslaughter indictment against him stated that Papineau "without a design to effect death in heat of passion, shot and killed one Ronald J. Donahue, by means of a revolver, said act not being justifiable or excusable."
When arrested Papineau was originally charged with first degree murder. This charge was reduced to second degree murder following a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace William Hardy.
Papineau appeared before the grand jury in his own behalf and without his attorney, Stanley Grossman of Niagara Falls, probably require a day or two before Papineau could be freed. Papineau is charged with the fatal shooting of Trooper R. J. Donahue, 23, of Mineville, during a fight on a fog-covered Bombay highway the night of May 23.

Letter Of Instruction Ruled Not Will Itself

Five Quebec Court of Appeal judges rejected an appeal which sought to establish as a holograph will a letter in which an intended testator set forth his last wishes for inclusion in a proposed notarial will.
The letter, addressed to a trust company but never mailed was found during the fatal illness of 84-year-old Dr. W. C. Winfrey in August 1956, a few days after he had written it.
It instructed a trust company officer to proceed with the drawing of a notarial will leaving the bulk of the residue of his estate to his housekeeper. A notarial will made in the previous year had named his sister as principal beneficiary.
Dr. Winfrey, who lived in retirement on Winfrey's Island near Huntingdon, died in hospital of the results of a stroke on Aug. 7, 1956. Two weeks later his housekeeper, Mrs. Evelyn Molinari, who was also a family friend, had the letter admitted to probate as his last will and testament by the probate court of Beauharnois Superior Court.
Mrs. Adelaide Paquin, of San Bernardino, California, his sister, took action a few months later to set aside the judgment of the probate court and to have herself declared universal residual legatee.
Mr. Justice G. Miller Hyde in Court of Appeal said that he found no reason to disagree with the judgment of Mr. Justice George S. Chailles in Superior Court in Feb. 1958 maintaining the California woman's action.
"I agree with the Court below that the letter was not written by the deceased as a final disposition of his property in case of death," wrote Mr. Justice Hyde, "but merely as instructions possibly even partial for the preparation of a will."
Justices J.L. St. Jacques, Garon Pratte, Edouard Rinfret and G. R. W. Owen, concurred in this view.
Added Mr. Justice Pratte: "For a document to constitute a will it must appear in certain manner that the signatory desired to dispose and did dispose by the document itself. But this letter only shows its author planned to will his property in the manner indicated, but no more. Hence it was not a will."

A Message From The Canadian Legion

Record Volunteer Force Ready for Poppy Drive
What looks like the biggest poppy campaign to date will get under way next Wednesday evening November 4th, with a canvass of homes. On Saturday, another force of volunteer workers will open the traditional tag day on the town streets of Huntingdon. Alton Warden, President of the Huntingdon Branch, Canadian Legion, Branch No. 81 and David Zabit-sky, Chairman of the poppy committee feel confident that citizens will be as generous with poppy contributions as they were last year.
They emphasized that poppy funds were held in trust and were not used for Legion branch operation. "This money is earmarked for welfare and that's where it goes". They added that over 70 per cent of all such welfare work was for veterans or dependents, who did not belong to the Legion.
It means a lot to people to know that there is an organization like the Legion where they can turn for free help and advice. When the canvasser calls at your home on Wednesday next give generously to the Poppy Campaign or mail your contribution to the Huntingdon Branch No. 81 of the Canadian Legion. Remember—all money collected remains in the community.

Grade Twelve: Mildred Bryson; Jolene Denison; Donald Robinson; Grant Rogers; Peter Sutton.

Mr. J. C. Moore added his remarks following the presentation and introduced the teachers new to the staff this year.

Mr. Moore then was asked to introduce the guest speaker, Mr. Hobart Green, Supervisor, Chambly County, Central School Board.

From the time that he caught the attention of the audience with a clever fable until the last remark to the graduates, Mr. newcomers should present a fairly formidable front in inter-scholastic competition.

The girls too will feel the loss of such able players as Alanne Hooker, Karen McCartney, Joyce Begbie, Jolene Denison and others who have graduated. However, there are still quite a number of regular players left from last year who should form a fairly well-balanced team this year.

Ormsdown High School Notes

Appreciation
Appreciation is accorded the local Board for the new blinds which now grace our windows. They not only add to the attractiveness of the rooms but are a real asset when the afternoon sun shines on the boards and produces an air of somnolence in the student body just at a time when one is attempting to parse nouns or justify the use of the predicate nominative. A heartfelt "thank you" goes to the Board on behalf of students and teachers alike.

Women's Institute
The Women's Institute also deserves a bouquet for their entertainment of the teachers at their monthly meeting which featured slides taken by Dr. Stalker and Mrs. Stalker this summer in Europe. Not least was the doctor's informative talk given prior to the showing of the pictures which transported us to the continent. Our thanks are extended to Mrs. Wallace for her musical selections, and to the entire group of ladies who make this yearly event so memorable.

Basketball
Both boys and girls basketball is getting underway and very shortly strenuous practice sessions should be in full swing.

While the boys have lost such stalwarts as Murray Shapcott, Joe Davignon, Peter Sutton and Don Robinson, nevertheless, the old guard, reinforced by some

Mr. J. C. Moore added his remarks following the presentation and introduced the teachers new to the staff this year.

Mr. Moore then was asked to introduce the guest speaker, Mr. Hobart Green, Supervisor, Chambly County, Central School Board.

From the time that he caught the attention of the audience with a clever fable until the last remark to the graduates, Mr. newcomers should present a fairly formidable front in inter-scholastic competition.

The girls too will feel the loss of such able players as Alanne Hooker, Karen McCartney, Joyce Begbie, Jolene Denison and others who have graduated. However, there are still quite a number of regular players left from last year who should form a fairly well-balanced team this year.

U.K. Newspaper Averts Bull's Death Sentence

LONDON. — Brook Mandore, the bull who was just too pretty, has two brand new friends — A lamb and a horse.

Renamed Ferdinand, the bull acquired his new friends on a farm where he was sent after being bought by a London newspaper, the Daily Mirror.

Until then he had been under sentence to death. A Ministry of Agriculture ruling said he would have to be destroyed or castrated because his gentle good looks made him unrepresentative of the true Ayrshire and unfit for breeding.

When news of his plight became known last week he flocked in to save him and for a while it appeared he might be going to the United States.

But the offer of an American farmer to take him fell afoul of United States Department of Agriculture regulations which barred him as an immigrant lest he be carrying hoof and mouth disease.

It was at this stage the newspaper stepped in.

Over the week-end Brook, now Ferdinand, nibbled on a bouquet brought by a visitor, romped with a year-old lamb called Daisy and became chummy with an ex-show jumping horse named Duncan.

A few days from now he is due to have an operation that will satisfy the rules against here being any more Brook Mandore, and thus permit him to live out his days.

Green, the guest speaker captivated his audience. We were fortunate indeed this year to secure as our guest, Mr. Hobart Green, Supervisor of Schools for Chambly County. A man of most pleasing personality, enhanced with a genuine interest in young folk, Mr. Green was heard with keen interest by parents and students alike. In the course of his remarks the speaker outlined the various aspects of the setting in which young folk find themselves. The importance of the school, he believed, was intimately related with the calibre of the teachers. The church, in turn plays an important part in the spiritual growth of the children whom the speaker encouraged to stand true to their convictions. Finally the family itself was the center of the development of the child.

Here the speaker alluded to the various influences in contemporary life which promoted a close family relationship which could further be augmented by the graduates keeping in close touch with their families even after they might be separated after the young folk left home.

In conclusion the speaker referred to Canada as a land of unbounded opportunity for the graduates of today, who should take pride in their Canadian heritage.

Mrs. Campbell thanked the speaker.

The Senior Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Heather Davidson rendered several numbers with Miss Shirley Dunn accompanist.

Rev. J. C. Hood pronounced the Benediction.

Following the exercises the platform party and a few friends were entertained by the members of the staff. Coffee was poured by Mrs. J. C. Moore and Mrs. B. L. McGerrigle.

Ormstown Man Retires From Government Service

J. W. Graham, Chief of Livestock Division, Production Service, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, has retired after 37 years of service. Born in Ormstown, Que., in 1893, he graduated from Macdonald College in 1922. Mr. Graham had a special interest in sheep. He selected sheep stocks in Scotland to set up cross-breeding programs in Quebec and other provinces.

"See Through" Covers For School Books

School books even 10 years ago were so drab in color no student minded covering them with wrapping paper jackets to protect their resale value.

Today however, cover designs and colors are so attractive that transparent book covers have become the fad with the school-bag set.

Thrifty mothers prepared themselves for the fall flurry of book-covering by setting aside the transparent polythene bags which arrive with purchases of blouses, sweaters and even groceries. But polythene film can be bought in many stores by the yard. One yard will cover several books.

Lay the book open on the sheet of polythene and cut out a piece about two inches larger than the book all round. Fold in the polythene over the front and back covers, leaving it standing up top and bottom. Then with scissors, cut the film straight in to the back corners of the book and clip out the rectangles of film. Neatly complete the folds inside each cover and fasten firmly with cellulose tape.

With this type of book cover, titles are clearly visible and there's no danger of the wrong book going to school. Even if children get caught in the rain, the waterproof plastic will give their books excellent protection. It is so tough, one cover should last the whole term without growing shabby the way paper does.

Children are clever at "having their cake and eating it too" — enjoying their new text books and at the same time keeping them under cover.

Where the Money Goes

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has issued figures which indicate that the average Canadian family (fractionally over three persons) spends an average of $22.70 or $6.56 per person per week on food.

These figures are the result of a recent survey on food costs in five Canadian cities, with the family incomes of those studies varying from $2,500 to $7,000 a year. Here, in percentages, is where the food money went: meat and fish 28%, fruits and vegetables 15%, dairy products 12%, bakery and cereal products 12%, fats and oils 5%, eggs 3%, frozen foods 1%, other groceries for home use 12%, foods purchased and eaten away from home 12%.

NOTION that people lose their efficiency and should be arbitrarily retired upon reaching a certain fixed age has been neatly exploded by recent decision of the Supreme Court of Indiana, which has ruled that "professional men and women are known to be at their best upon reaching the age of 70." Court ruling is result of petition made by Elmer Boie, who was arbitrarily retired from his post as police chief of Ligonier in 1956 on ground that he was too old for the job. Court, in decision ordering lower court to re-hear Mr. Boie's petition for re-instatement and back pay, rightly notes that the Common Law has never held that a person becoming 70 "suddenly lost status in being a man and became a disabled shell of his former self."

RE: POPPY FUND

This year instead of our usual letter to friends of our "Poppy Fund" we are making this appeal through the columns of The Gleaner.

Your contributions provide quick help for needy veterans and their dependents in time of need and emergency.

We hope that we can thereby raise sufficient funds to maintain this "Worthy Fund" and we feel sure that all those who have generously supported the Poppy Fund in the past will do so again this year.

As you are aware the Fund is administered by a Board of Trustees comprised of Messrs. Robert Rolfe, R. C. Morrison and J. A. Warden.

Q.A.P.S.B. Held Annual Meeting At Huntingdon

The Quebec Association of Protestant School Boards recently held their 30th annual meeting at Huntingdon High School, with a two-day session. On the first afternoon, three panel discussions took place on various phases of the general subject "Public Relations For School Boards".

Recent out of town callers at the home of Mrs. McEwen were Mrs. Dora Donnelly of Cornwall, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. James Barrington, Mrs. Kenneth Cambell with Mr. Bob Greig driver of the car of Ormstown, and Mrs. Pearl Forrester of Verdun, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilf. Grant and Miss M. Allen have returned to their home in Huntingdon after having spent four months in England visiting amongst a number of their old friends in the Bradford area.

Many complimentary remarks have been voiced with regard to the beautiful floral arrangements that were at Grove Hall when the recent fashion show was held. The Gleaner takes pleasure in advising its readers that the flowers were donated by Booth's Florists of Huntingdon.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor,
The Gleaner,
Huntingdon, Que.
Dear Sir:
The recent history of Dundee township, "As Others See Us, Scots of The Seaway Valley", and of Clan Fraser who settled there and of whom there are many descendants still residing in Huntingdon county, has brought to the writer an interesting document from British Columbia. It comes from the estate of the late eminent marine biologist, and one-time counsellor to Emperor Hirohito of Japan on oceanographical matters, Charles McLean Fraser, Ph.D., LL.D. The latter was a grandson of William Fraser, a first settler of Dundee Centre, and one of the founders of the first school in that community. This faded, much handled document is a copy of the Clan Fraser in Canada, instituted May 5th, 1894.

It contains a list of the officers elected, as Honorary Chief, Lord Lovat, Honorary Chieftain, Mr. Charles Fraser MacKintosh, Inverness, Chief, Mr. Alex Fraser (MacPhionnaidh), Toronto, etc. There were "District Chieftains" for provinces and cities. Also Councillors, with Angus W. Fraser, K.C., a grandson of James Fraser of Fraser Point, Dundee, representing Ottawa; Mr. Donald Fraser, Montreal, representing Quebec province; E. A. Fraser, Detroit, for the State of Michigan; and W. Lewis Fraser for New York State.

The constitution provided that "Persons bearing the surname 'Fraser' by birth or by marriage, shall be eligible for membership in the Clan. Honorary membership may be conferred on distinguished clansmen, or on persons not clansmen, who have rendered conspicuous service to the Clan." It is noticeable that in the long list of by-laws, though these provide for the appointment of a Secretary-Treasurer, there is no mention of money contributions or fees.

The writer has never come across any reference to this Canadian Scottish clan organization, instituted 165 years ago, nor has he any knowledge of how long it may have continued to exist. It may be that there are Gleaner readers who can furnish some information.
Yours sincerely,
R. J. Fraser.

Lighthouses To Replace Lake Buoys

Ottawa. (AP) — Floating light buoys now marking the seaward channel through Lake St. Francis may soon be replaced by lighthouses. The transport department said it has called tenders for soil borings in the lake bottom at 12 possible sites for lighthouse piers. If the tests are successful, the present buoys will give way to permanent piers on which channel lights would be installed. Such a move would eliminate the work and expense involved in tending the buoys, and their anchoring equipment, all of which must be lifted from the lake at freeze-up and put back in the spring. In addition, permanent channel lights would end the possibility of the floating markers being moved out of position by currents or ice conditions. Lake St. Francis is between Cornwall and Valleyfield in the river section of the St. Lawrence Seaway, about 40 miles upstream from Montreal.

Don't Underestimate Child's Intelligence

Don't put three strikes against your child's mental ability until the child has had a chance to go to bat, urges a release from the American Medical Association received by the Health League of Canada.

Dr. Willard Abraham, Ph.D., of the special education department, Arizona State University, issued a caution to parents recently.

Dr. Abraham is disturbed by parents who believe that a child is mentally retarded when he really is not.

"Few of us are objective about our own," he says. "We see them as we want them to be or as we fear they are, but seldom as they really are. We usually enjoy thinking they are bright (whether they are or not), and that error may result in undue pressure, frustration and disappointment. But even more serious is the error of underestimating our child's intelligence and not recognizing the importance of it."

Dr. Abraham devised a check list to aid parents who may be too close to their children to see them accurately.

"It is especially effective for those of kindergarten age or slightly older," he said, "and will help differentiate the youngsters who are among the less bright from those who seem to be retarded but actually might be near the top of the scale."

The question parents should ask is "Do both parts of the statement apply to my child?" For instance:

A. (1) He has a short attention span — doesn't stick to a task very long — but (2) he has many interests or hobbies as he jumps around mentally hopping from one to another.

B. (1) His vocabulary often has a one-syllable limitation, — but (2) once in a while he surprises you by accurately using words like practical, jet propulsion, historical, and realistic.

C. (1) He seems to demand countless explanations of why he should wash his hands, eat balanced meals and brush his teeth, — but (2) you get the feeling he was pulling your leg all the time when you overhear him patiently explaining these important facts of life to his little brother or sister, using terms much more understandably than you did with him.

After the plant is loosened from the old pot, remove a layer of soil from the top. Soil should be added on all sides in the new pot and made firm by pressing gently with your fingers.

If the new potting is done to improve the vigor of the plant, sandy soil, which is low in nutrients, should be used. Take the plant from the old pot and remove as much soil as possible by shaking and washing the roots with water. Use a pot just large enough to hold the roots, and water carefully, making sure none of the foliage gets wet. When the plant recovers, move it to good quality soil.

Shotgun Fashions
Soon to be introduced in Canada are 410 gauge shotguns in red, green, blue, pink, purple, black and yellow. Men may scorn this as feminine and frivolous, but actually the colorful guns have a safety feature. The bright colors attract attention if the gun happens to be carelessly laid down in the woods.

Now on the market are blow-up hangers which work on the same principle as balloons. Tie hangers are ideal for drip-drying clothes because the rounded shape allows air to circulate within the garment and the material does not stain wet fabrics.

Christmas Bouquets
And now that summer gardens have failed to yield fresh bouquets of flowers, thoughts turn to next year's bulbs.

But before that, why not plan a pot of blooming hyacinth or narcissus plants for Christmas. The bulbs should be planted now with about three to a pot to form a full bouquet. Water thoroughly and put away in a dark, cool place. Occasional watering is necessary. Then three weeks before the festive season bring the bulbs out into the warmth and light to start the top growth.

Garden bulbs, except for gladioli, begonias and dahlias, should be planted now if they are to be ready for the April showers.

Dr. Abraham calculated one "yes" answer on the 10-point list should give you an inkling that you've been wrong about your child; two to four should provide concrete assurance and five or more yes answers ought to have a parent smiling inwardly with a secret apology because his child is brighter than he thought he was.

Once the problem of supposed mental retardation is out of the way, Dr. Abraham urges parents to refrain from over-attentiveness as a child learns to stand on his own two feet.

For thousands of disabled veterans, this red badge of sacrifice is also the red badge of hope. Will you add to their hope by giving generously to the Legion's Poppy Campaign.

Wedding

Wedding Elliot-Ness

The marriage of Elizabeth Anne, daughter of Mrs. Donald T. Ness and the late Mr. Ness, to Mr. William Ross Elliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace Elliot, all of Howick, Que., took place on Saturday, Oct. 24th, at 2.30 P.M. in Georgetown Presbyterian Church, the Rev. W. M. Brown officiating. Mrs. Ethel Gruer, aunt of the bride, sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Oh Promise Me" during the signing of the register. Mrs. Wallace Logan played the wedding music. The church was prettily decorated with gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her brother, Cadet Donald Ness, of St. Johns Military College, the bride wore a street length gown of white peau de soie embroidered with Swiss appliques. Her elbow length veil of white tulle illusion was gathered on a matching headband embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of tawny gold roses.

Miss Sheila Brown, as matron of honour, and Miss Barbara Ness, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, were dressed similarly in street length gowns of gold and bronze taffeta respectively, with matching accessories and carried bouquets of bronze mums.

Mrs. Ness, mother of the bride, wore a frock of peacock blue wool crepe with hat to match and black accessories. Her corsage was pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Elliot, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green crepe dress, black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Annie Gruer, grandmother of the bride, wore a grey suit, pink feather hat and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. John Elliot, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a black silk dress, black hat, and her corsage was pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Kenneth Roy. The ushers were Dr. Murray Elliot, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Wilbert Gruer, uncle of the bride.

Following the reception held at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot left for a motor trip through the New England States, the bride travelling in a moss green wool Blin-Blin suit, gold hat and black accessories. On their return they will reside in Howick.

Out-of-town guests were from Rutland, Vt., Massachusetts, Aurora, Kingston and Windsor, Ont.

Teatime Topics Now is the time to size up your house plants.

Specialists with the Ontario department of agriculture tell us to take a good look at our favorite house plants, then lower our eyes to the pots they're planted in.

The three usual reasons for repotting are: when the plant is too large and the roots are cramped; when the soil has become sour and the plant is unhealthy; or when the soil nutrients have been used up.

Coarser and richer soil than you would use for a seedling or cutting is used when you make a shift. Be careful not to damage the plant by letting it fall. The best method is to tap the old pot gently on the rim and keep your fingers over the soil.

After the plant is loosened from the old pot, remove a layer of soil from the top. Soil should be added on all sides in the new pot and made firm by pressing gently with your fingers.

If the new potting is done to improve the vigor of the plant, sandy soil, which is low in nutrients, should be used. Take the plant from the old pot and remove as much soil as possible by shaking and washing the roots with water. Use a pot just large enough to hold the roots, and water carefully, making sure none of the foliage gets wet. When the plant recovers, move it to good quality soil.

Autumn's The Time To Plant Spring Bulbs

It isn't time yet to worry about doing the Christmas shopping but it is time to plant pots of hyacinth and narcissus bulbs if they are to bloom in time for the festive occasion.

Plant the bulbs, about three to a pot for a full bouquet, and water them thoroughly. Keep the pots away from light and in a cool place. If it is convenient they can be buried outside, in the soil near the house for protection, or for apartment dwellers a dark cool cupboard will do just as well. In either case they will require occasional watering. About three weeks before the bloom is desired bring out the bulbs where the warmth and light will start top growth. For Christmas bloom try the French Roman species of hyacinths.

Incidentally, garden bulbs should be planted now too if they are to be ready to greet April showers. The exception is, of course, gladioli, begonia and dahia which are planted in the spring.

The depth of planting varies with the type of bulb. Tulips, for instance, should be planted at a depth of four inches for early varieties and six inches for late with 4 to 6 inches between each bulb. Jonquils are also planted at six inches, but they need about six inches between them to grow properly. Daffodils and lily go a little deeper in the ground — about seven inches — with six to twelve inches between each bulb. The depth given is to the crown or top of the bulb.

To plant, dig a hole two inches deeper than the recommended depth. Into this hole put a teaspoon of a complete garden fertilizer such as Evergreen and mix thoroughly with the next two inches of soil. On top of this put two inches of the untreated soil that was removed from the hole. This prevents the bulb from coming in contact with the fertilizer and also brings the hole up to the proper depth.

Legion Notes
CHATEAUGUAY — An Installation Party from Branch 108 went to the apartment of Eddie Laporte resident of Verville on Wednesday evening, October 21st. Mr. Laporte confined to a wheel-chair and his apartment at all times was installed as a full member of the Canadian Legion, Branch 108. The installation party included Comrade Reg Artagnan, President, Comrade Bob McGlashan, 1st Vice President, Comrade George Johnston, 2nd Vice President, Comrades Harry Grimes and Hartland Rowell, past Presidents and Comrade George Meullier, Liaison Officer between Verville and Branch 108. Mr. Jim Kieran, membership Chairman was also in attendance. Sergeant-at-Arms, George Oliver and assistant Sergeant-at-Arms Norman Goodale were in charge of the color party.

78th Birthday Observed
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Des McCutcheon, entertained on Saturday evening, October 24th, at the Chateau-Gai-Motel in honor of their father Mr. John Ross, who was observing his 78th birthday. The family and close friends numbering 20 included Mr. Robert Bernard, Miss Agnes Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morphy of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holly,

Mr. and Mrs. John Gleave and Mr. and Mrs. Syd Mitchell of Chateauguay. Open house followed the dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Des McCutcheon, the Heights.

Mrs. R. N. Ashley Bereaved
Word has been received of the death of Mrs. W. D. Millan of Cranston, R.I., sister of Mrs. R. N. Ashley. Mrs. Millan was well known to many in Chateauguay and sympathy is extended to her family as well as to Mrs. Ashley.

The Police Blotter
Chief of Police J. P. Gadoury advises that he answered a call by Mrs. Majeau of Chateauguay North during the week, who stated that she had found two small children. Upon arriving at the Majeau home and finding that the children could not tell him where they lived, Chief Gadoury took them back to the Station and fed them his lunch. He arranged for all radio stations to broadcast their descriptions. In a short while the children, a boy and a girl were found to be residents of the Heights. According to Chief Gadoury their names were Christopher John Land of 70 Hamilton Avenue and Jean Harrowing of 68 Hamilton.

Mr. Henry Lewington, 30 Trudeau Avenue, was involved in a minor accident on Saturday at 5:40 p.m. Mr. Lewington's car and one driven by Yves Longevin of Salaberry Blvd. collided near Church and Dupont Sts. Damage amounted to under $100.00 to each car. There were no injuries to the drivers.

At 2:05 p.m. on Saturday a truck owned by Canada Bread Co. backed into a car parked on the side of the road on Tougas St. at the Station. Damage to the car amounted to approximately $50.00 and again fortunately there were no injuries.

Boy Injured on Highway 4
Rene Belanger, 16 years old, of 149 Robert Avenue, the Heights, was struck by a car on Highway 4 at 8:45 p.m. Saturday night while walking with his friend Maurice Tropanier of 12 Bolvin St., the Station. Assistant Chief of Police Rousseau and Constable Bissonnette were called to the scene and took the boy to St. Joseph's Hospital in Lachine. Mr. Belanger, father of Rene advised Chief Gadoury on Sunday that X-rays were to be taken before his left leg which had been broken could be put into a cast. The driver of the car, Mr. Henri Brion of this village, tried to avoid the boy but the fender struck Rene. Visibility was very poor owing to the heavy rainfall at the time.

Mr. Gerry McKee Deputy Fire Chief, has had a busy week with two fires occurring in Chateauguay North. The first fire left eleven people homeless, seven of them were children. The other fire on Martin St. caused considerable damage.

Assistant Chief Rousseau and Constable Bissonnette worked with the volunteers manning the pumps. Chateauguay Fire Leaves 7 Homeless
Eleven persons, including seven children, were made homeless when fire razed their Chateauguay home last week.

The fire, which started at 1:30 a.m. in a two-family dwelling at 4 Joseph St., raged out of control for almost two hours and forced the evacuation of four nearby houses.

The two-family house consisting of 11 rooms, was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Meloche; their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Guy Meloche and their children.

Thirteen volunteer firemen and four town employees, under the direction of Deputy Fire Chief R. G. McKee, helped fight the flames.

An adjacent garage was destroyed and the neighboring home of Mrs. Delvini Mongeau was severely damaged. "Damage was so severe that we've been unable to determine the cause of the fire. Only the chimney was left standing," said Mr. McKee. Loss was estimated at $20,000.

Chief of Police Gadoury is at present working on plans for a Police Juvenile Club and will announce details as plans progress.

Miss Broadhurst Entertained
Mrs. Maureen Wilson was hostess at a shower for Miss Kay Broadhurst at the Plaza Hotel in the Grill, on Thursday evening, October 15th. Some 50 friends gathered for the event which was a 'Lingerie Shower'. Mrs. Violet Ostroloski of Montreal, Kay's aunt was a guest. The marriage of Miss Broadhurst and Mr. Kevin Duffey will take place at Christ Roi Church, on November 14th, at 10 a.m. The reception following will be held at the Heights Recreation Club. Catering will be handled by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. George's Church.

St. George's Church News
Rev. John Buck, rector of St.

George's Anglican Church announces through his Warden, Mr. John Gleave, that permission has been received from the Bishop, the Right Rev. John Dixon for the erection of a new Anglican Church early in the Spring. The location of the new Church will be St. Francois Blvd.

Baby Roy Christened
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Roy was christened on Sunday, October 18th, at St. George's Church. The Rev. John Buck officiated. The baby was named Michael Phillip and Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Allen of Notre Dame de Grace were the proxy Godparents for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duckworth of England. Following the christening Mr. and Mrs. Roy entertained at their home on St. Francis Blvd., the Gardens.

News Round-Up
Sympathy is extended to Mr. C. A. Smith, Hamilton Avenue who suffered the loss of his brother in Toronto, last week.

Mrs. Henri Lapointe (nee Laberge) conducted swimming demonstrations in conjunction with McGill University's Open House last week. Classes in French are being held each Monday and Wednesday evening from 7:30-9:30 p.m. under the capable instructor Mr. Jean Guimette of the Village, at the Roman Catholic School on Abbotsford Avenue.

Mr. Maurice Laberge, M.P.P. officially opened the Chateauguay District Poppy Day Campaign with the purchase of the first poppy on Saturday, October 24th. A special ceremony was held at the Legion Hall with Comrade Reg Artagnan, President of Branch 108 and Comrade Hartland Rowell, Chairman of the Poppy Day Campaign in attendance.

The poppy means remembrance of the dead and help for the living.
Give according to your conscience.

Glenelm

GLENELM — Mr. and Mrs. Benson Elder of Massena, N.Y., spent the week-end at the home of Katie and Bessie Graham.

Miss Mary McFarlane of Huntingdon, spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brown.

Mr. Wallace Tannahill of Paxton, Mass., spent two weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. Janet Gavin, also Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Gavin. Other visitors at the same home were Mr. Robert and Miss Janice Lamotte and Miss Rosena Stark of Paxton, Mass.

Mr. Lawrence Reid returned to the West last Saturday. Sorry to hear Mrs. Fergus McPherson (nee Elsie Salter) is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Three Rivers. Glad to know she is improving at time of writing. All wish her a speedy recovery.

The Huntingdon Branch of the Canadian Legion invites you to join them in a Remembrance Day Ceremony at the Cenotaph Sunday afternoon at 2 P.M.

NEW DAIRY PLAN
WINNIPEG (CP) — A new dairy herd testing plan is being operated by the Manitoba agriculture department. Dairymen weigh and sample milk from each cow in their herd each month. Weights are recorded and sent with samples to a testing station where butterfat tests and other calculations are made.

Editorial Notes

Hallowe'en This Week-end

WHAT should be a happy and joyous occasion is All Hallow's Eve or as it is more popularly known — Hallowe'en. In some respects it is much like Guy Fawkes' day which is celebrated in England, on November 5th, and when boys and girls go around in costumes and masks for treats, etc. This latter is usually culminated by having a huge community bonfire and burning the effigy of Guy Fawkes of the gunpowder plot fame. Everything is in fun and all enjoy the occasion, which ends in a display of fireworks. There is no damage done to anyone or anything and no one is annoyed by tricks.

Hallowe'en here is viewed with some apprehension and usually the police increase their forces to cope with the situation that arises from some of the foolish practices which some people conjure up. It is often marred by injury to persons, damage to property and even has resulted in loss of life. As the culprits use a sneaky way of covering up, they often are not known and thus get away with crimes which should be punishable.

Of late years, the more dangerous practices perpetrated on Hallowe'en, have subsided somewhat, which is all to the good. However, there is always someone who has a bright idea which can be the cause of injury to person, or damage to property, or both. Such a case happened last Hallowe'en and ended in injury to persons and was perhaps the only real blot on this particular celebration. The trend is for more parties to be held to hold the attention of those who want to celebrate

Hallowe'en. This has the effect of cutting down on the time which would be devoted to tricks and pranks which annoy people and have no useful purpose. Fun can be had without being an annoyance to anyone, it can be clean and innocent fun and most enjoyable. Another new feature is the organized collection for UNICEF the fund for needy children throughout the world. It provides an opportunity to dress up in Hallowe'en costumes and masks and go from house to house asking for pennies for UNICEF, leaving the contributors to guess the identity of the collector. It gives opportunity for doing good and for a friendly call on neighbors and friends, rather than causing trouble and annoyance. It can culminate in a party afterwards and the serving of refreshments after an invigorating evening spent out of doors. There is a source of pleasure when the collections are tallied up and a nice sum has been realized to help children who cannot indulge in such a pastime. There is satisfaction in knowing that pleasure has been obtained from doing something useful and which all citizens are pleased to support.

Get fun from Hallowe'en, but get it the sensible way. Don't go around causing trouble, what seems funny to you may not be the same way to the other fellow. There is no concession of the law for Hallowe'en than at any other time, if you do damage and so forth you can still be answerable for what you do. Above all, don't plan tricks that may cause injury and perhaps death.

Appeals To The Public

AT the present time, the annual drive for funds for the Salvation Army is being conducted in the Huntingdon Area. This annual appeal needs no introduction as it has been carried on for so many years that it is a standard of events. The work of the Salvation Army is also well known and there are thousands of people who have received relief since the "Army" became established a good many years ago. We can only suggest that if the canvasser has not already called on you, that you be prepared to give as generously as possible to this very worthy cause.

On Sunday, November 1st, a new appeal is being launched — the Federated Charities of Valleyfield Diocese. This is a combined appeal by a number of Charity Organizations in the Valleyfield area which includes a good portion of the Chateaugay Valley. It was felt rather than have a number of separate appeals and bother the public on numerous occasions, that one big appeal would be in the better interests of all. Thus in making a contribution to this fund, you will be helping many local organizations at one time. Several other organizations will remain separate from the Federated Charities and their appeals will be conducted at the appropriate times as in the past. The objective that has been set for this appeal is $123,000. It will be shared among all the organizations which have been registered with Federated Charities.

We come then to the appeal made by Huntingdon Branch of the Canadian Legion and other Canadian Legion Branches in the area served by The Gleaner. This appeal stems back to the Armistice of November 11th, 1918, and perpetuated since as a remembrance. It is the annual sale of poppies, the flower of remembrance, which now symbolize two world wars. A special service is held on the nearest Sunday to Armistice Day, or Remembrance Day as it has become to be known, and the poppies usually go on sale a few days previous.

The sale of the poppies serves a manifold purpose. Disabled veterans are employed throughout the year, making the poppies and special wreaths and are paid for their labor. This tends to provide them with at least a little independence and give them a useful purpose in society. The profits which are derived from the sale are placed into a special fund by each of the various branches and this money is used to help local veterans and their dependents if such is needed. The branches pay a certain sum for the poppies which is used to pay the labor and other expenses of the disabled veterans employed in the manufacture. The local poppy funds are in the hands of a committee of local citizens, and which is apart from the Canadian Legion. The Legion applies to this committee when money is needed for assistance purposes. Thus it will be noted that this fund is efficiently managed and not allowed to be used indiscriminately.

Your consideration and help is solicited for all these worthwhile appeals and it is hoped that everyone will do his part in supporting them when the time comes to do so.

Quebec and Federal Government Grants

IT would appear according to news reports that Premier Sauve is taking a far different view of Federal Government Grants for Universities than did his predecessor, the late Premier Duplessis. It is understood that Quebec would accept $25,000,000 which the Federal Government is holding in trust for Quebec Universities and that this "jackpot" would be distributed by Quebec on the same basis as if Quebec universities had accepted Federal grants. It has also been proposed that Quebec will boost its corporation tax from 9 to 10 percent and the additional one percent will be used for grants to universities.

It is further reported that Premier Sauve's propositions to the Federal authorities have been well received and that they will be accepted.

Premier Duplessis was always opposed to accepting anything from the Federal Government, on the grounds that it would affect the autonomy of the Province of Quebec and give the Federal Government more power to interfere with the Provincial authority. This view was not held by a great many in this province and it was felt that Quebec was missing out on what rightfully belonged to it and thus increasing the burden of taxation on the populace. The Universities refused to accept grants on the grounds that by so doing they might incur bad feeling and lose other grants from the province. However, they did feel that they were losing out on account of the policy. It would seem that Premier Sauve shares this view also, although he says that the government is adhering to the former policies.

We believe this move on the part of Premier Sauve is a good one and one that will cement good relations in the field to which it relates. Previously, although there appeared to be good feeling, there was an undercurrent of thought that the universities were being denied something which was rightfully theirs and which would have been of great help in relieving financial stress. There is pressure on educational facilities everywhere and the cost of upkeep of all educational institutions has increased tremendously in the past few years. More accommodation is needed, but the high cost of building and lack of funds has been a deterrent to making such plans. Some building has been done, but more is still required. The ability of the universities to accept this Federal money would be of great help to them. This one move on the part of Premier Sauve, could affect thousands of the population and enhance the popularity of his government.

We have never been able to agree that the autonomy of Quebec would be affected by accepting these grants from the Federal Government. Other provinces have rights and it was never ascertained that any of these rights were affected by their acceptance of the grants. Certain rights were given to the Federal Government during the last war and all of these have not yet been returned. However, a sane look at the situation as it exists will convince anyone that while the war is over the state of war has continued to carry on. Instead of pouring money into actual war equipment, it has amounted to almost the same thing by having to keep up with defence preparations. We must all stand our share of this expense and the way it is done is through taxation. Our individual and indirect taxes would be much higher if the Federal Government returned all the rights to the provinces at this time. We should have the burden of additional taxes for the purposes of defence. In a general way, no one has been

The Week In Quebec

Quebec C.P.—During the night from Monday to Tuesday, some 100 men passed through a small picket line at the Boischatel plant of Brick Citadel Limited, near Quebec City.

The incident gave rise to conflicting reports. The union claimed the company was resorting to strong-arm tactics to break the strike of its members by hiring thugs and arming them.

The company denied the reports, saying it had hired special constables to protect the company's property and that the men were unarmed.

The company has plants at Boischatel and Villeneuve. Both have been shut down as a result of the walkout of the employees who are members of the Quebec Local of the United Brick and Clay workers of America (C.L.C.).

There were no arrests and police did not intervene as the strike continued and picketing was resumed. But tension mounted.

Friday the Union's parent body, the Quebec Federation of Labor, appealed to Premier Paul Sauve to intervene immediately in the strike which started April 27. Some 250 men walked off their jobs.

Hon. Antoine Rivard, the Province's Attorney-General was asked to watch carefully the issuing of special constable permits and to exercise strict control over their activities. The strike started, following year-long negotiations and arbitration proceedings, over disagreement on provisions of an Arbitration Board recommendation. Post-arbitration negotiations fell flat. The strike started after all legal delays had expired.

Last summer the Union appealed to the late Premier Du-plissis to intervene and settle the prolonged dispute. He had said he would look into the matter.

If Premier Sauve decides to step into the dispute it will be the first time since he has become Premier that he will grapple with an industrial relations dispute.

The Quebec civic hospital has treated a total of 185 cases of poliomyelitis since the beginning of the year. Twenty-one persons have died and 84 patients suffered the severe paralytic form of the disease. Only 19 cases were from Quebec City itself.

A young married couple was shot and killed Thursday at a farm at St. Isidore, 20 miles from Quebec City and police are looking for a brother-in-law of the husband.

The victims, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pelchat, respectively 29 and 24, were discovered by men who came to the farm to drive the husband to work on a construction site at Lévis.

The woman was found in her kitchen while the husband was discovered in the stable. Both had been shot through the head by bullets fired from a 22-calibre rifle. The couple's baby was found unharmed as was a four-year-old son of the brother-in-law.

Friday police stood guard over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rheume, parents of the estranged wife of the man police are seeking, Joseph Bernard, 49.

Bernard's house and barn were destroyed by fire shortly before the bodies of the young couple were found.

Police said they have not yet established any direct connection between the shooting and the fire.

The Dowker Point Route

Premier Sauve has said that the improvement of traffic conditions will be one of the first matters for his consideration.

Certainly one of the greatest of these problems lies in the congestion of traffic on the route of the Island of Montreal by way of St. Anne de Bellevue. Accidents on the bridge at St. Anne's occur almost weekly. Many of them are serious.

In planning the route for the new Metropolitan Highway it is important that the future should be taken into full consideration, so that what is done will not end in new troubles, soon and serious.

The matter has by now been long enough under consideration for many opinions to be expressed. It is a serious problem for a new Boulevard that would not run to the end of the island, but would turn south, at Baie d'Urfee. It would then cross over to Ile Perrot by way of Dowker Point and little Lynch Island.

The very fact that this is a departure from the old route by way of St. Anne's is its chief recommendation. It avoids the crush of traffic that now exists, in the same way as it avoids adding yet another bridge to the cluster of bridges already at the end of the island.

Furthermore, this proposed route by Dowker's Point would avoid the necessity of building the Metropolitan Boulevard on the grounds of Macdonald College. Macdonald College already has two transcontinental railways, as well as the present Metropolitan Boulevard passing through its grounds. Another road would not only cut up the grounds still more but might well destroy much of the value of the Morgan Arboretum.

The Morgan Arboretum is something far more than a place of beauty — though it is certainly that. It is a centre for research and teaching for the management of woodlands. By the work being carried on there, farmers throughout the province may learn improved methods of managing their woodlots, both for the production of better "crops" of wood for sale, and for the development of sugar bushes.

It is also a training ground for the students in agriculture at Macdonald College. Finally, it has still wider uses in botany, and in experiments with native and introduced trees.

Echoes From The Federation Of Charities of the Diocese of Valleyfield

Confidence and Optimism Reign In The "Special Names" Section

Even though many public bodies, school commissions and various associations have not as yet forwarded their subscription to the Federated Charities Drive, the "Special Names" section is most confident and optimism reigns within their midst.

The above is what Messrs. Leogorges Perron and Frank Rosar, joint chairmen of this section, advised this week.

Accordingly, the leaders of the "Special Names" section extended hearty congratulations to the authorities, industrial and commercial of the county of Huntingdon where the subscription target was 100% attained. It is hoped that all other counties in the diocese will follow Huntingdon's example.

The County of Val-de-Rouge-Soulanges deserves congratulations for the generous manner whereby industry and public bodies have responded to this first Federated Charity campaign. Returns from this county to date have been most encouraging and it is quite evident that the population of this county is completely behind the work of the Welfare Council.

The most discouraging results to date have been from the public bodies and associations. Messrs. Perron and Rosar sincerely trust that immediate attention will be given to the Federated Charity Drive. We are not asking for any great amounts (the average subscription is from $25 to $100) but we do hope that all will do their part. Only in this way will the objective of the "Special Names" section be reached.

Welcome the Campaign Canvasser Today, it is the Welfare Council that calls upon your generosity through its Federated Charity drive which will be conducted throughout the complete diocese on Sunday, November 1st.

Thus, on the eve of the canvass, more than 3000 benevolent workers have agreed to assist in the Federated Charity Drive which will take place on Sunday November 1st.

The population as a whole will benefit by the creation of the Welfare Council. It is therefore the duty of all to generously subscribe to the Federated appeal which must collect the sum of $123,000 in order to carry out its most pressing work. Over and above helping to maintain and improve existing agencies, your contribution will permit the Welfare Council to establish additional agencies which are sorely needed.

It is therefore in a spirit of Christian Charity that we ask you to welcome the canvasser who will call upon you. Give whatever you have decided to contribute with an open heart.

The secretary-general announces the appointment of Mr. J. Raoul Dumouchel of Hemmingford and Gerard Daoust of Ormstown as chairmen of sections 12 and 13.

The following were appointed president of their respective parishes: Dr. J. A. Abran of Hemmingford; J. O. Cabana of St. Antoine Abbe; Albert Chabot of Ormstown; Emile Leduc of St. Barbe; Dr. E. The Week At Ottawa

OTTAWA, (CP) — The first batch of a 10,000,000-pound shipment of butter from the federal government's huge surplus holdings left for Britain last week.

The government sold the butter, for which it paid a support price of 64 cent a pound, to Canadian exporters for 56 cents a pound — an estimated loss of about $900,000 on the deal. But it also made a dent into the 100,000,000 pounds it is believed to have on its hands.

It lost eight cents a pound on the butter price, about a cent a pound on the storage charges. The exporters will take care of selling the butter in Britain.

British butter dealers asked the Canadian Government several weeks ago to sell some of its surplus butter in Britain to help relieve a shortage created by a summer drought in Europe this year.

The deal, however, had delicate diplomatic implications. The last time, several years ago, that Canada sold some of its subsidized butter in Britain it received strong protests from the traditional suppliers of British butter—New Zealand, The Netherlands, Denmark and Australia.

The Dowker Point route is supported by Ste. Anne de Bellevue, St. Zolique, Coteau du Lac, Grand Ile, Senneville, Soulanges, Coteau Landing, Ste. Anne de Coteau du Lac, St. Ignace du Lac, and the five municipalities on Ile Perrot.

The Dowker Point route is also supported by such bodies as the Chamber of Commerce of Soulanges (in which 11 municipalities are represented), the Senneville Citizens' Association, and the Protestant School Commission of Ile Perrot.

Valleyfield also supports the route by Dowker Point. It does so because this would open up greatly improved communications with Montreal. For the same reason the Trucking Association of Quebec Inc. supports this route.

Premier Frost of Ontario promised to connect route 406 in Ontario with Route 2 in Quebec, so that the two routes would join at Riviere Beaudette on the border. Work is now in progress in Ontario. If this were done, and the Dowker Point route were adopted for the new Metropolitan Boulevard, the distance to the Ontario border would be cut by some 13 miles.

No plan is without disadvantages. Some persons are bound to be seriously inconvenienced by whatever plan is adopted. Their difficulties and complaints are to be understood. It is easy to understand how anyone feels when he learns that a new highway with heavy traffic is to be built near his home.

But the route by way of Dowker Point has overwhelming support over a wide region, and would seem the most logical. The bridge building involved would be somewhat more costly than in the route by way of St. Anne's. But it might well be justified if an improvement, far more complete and longer lasting, could be effected by the Dowker Point route. This is evidently so. And it is to be earnestly hoped that the decision made will adopt the Dowker Point route — a decision that will far better stand the test of time. — (The Gazette, Montreal).

Any slackening of tourist revenue from United States visitors next year may be softened by brisker business from Britain.

That's a hope held by Canadian tourist industry as it keeps an eye on American plans to make 1960 a big travel year in the U.S.

The U.S. National Association of Tourist Organizations started the campaign. Director Allan Field of the Canadian Government Travel Bureau office said last week it began simply as a drive to get more tourists into the U.S. for 1960.

But some American carriers then turned it to urging more Americans themselves to take next year's vacation at home. The Canadian industry is concerned because American spending contributed more than $300,000,000 to Canada's tourist revenues of $349,000,000 last year.

Meanwhile, more money now will be spent in Canadian advertising overseas as a result of Britain's decision to let vacationers spend freely abroad. Government Travel Bureau officials feel a backlog of interest in Canada has been building up in Britain and that now some of it can be harvested.

World Law System External Affairs Minister Green says pressure for a workable system of international law has "accelerated enormously" since the second World War.

Addressing a meeting of the Ottawa Section of the International Law Association, he also said the International Joint Commission "has brought us within sight" of a solution to Columbia River development acceptable to both Canada and the United States.

Through the International Law Commission, a United Nations subsidiary, "for the first time in history, the rules required for the orderly management of international life are being developed and codified in a systematic way with the world community as a whole participating in this development."

But any workable body of world law "must not be confined to international law as we know it, which stems largely from the experience of Western countries." It must also take into account experiences of older Middle East and eastern nations and the viewpoint of new states that have come into being during the last 40 years.

Mr. Green said the "relative weakness" of international law today is not due so much to inadequacy of its rules but "to a moral weakness in the world itself."

Employment Improves New government job figures last week indicated Canada is in for a considerably better season of cold weather employment than a year earlier.

Employment took a seasonal drop between August and September, the government reported. But unemployment also dropped and on both scores the picture was considerably brighter than a year earlier.

Hemmingford High School Notes

An emergency meeting of the Student's Council was held on Wednesday, October 14. Business arising from the minutes included the purchase of some new sporting equipment. It was passed that one volleyball, two basketballs, one set of basketball nets and four whistles be bought in the near future. A dance was discussed and Friday, November 27 was decided upon with Bobby Hill supplying the music. The president announced that the Annual Student Council Conference will be held in Verdun High School this year on November 13 and 14. Each Council is required to send two delegates and the Staff Advisor. This year, the president, Robert Hyndman, the secretary, Myrne Hadley and the staff advisor, Mr. Craig, will be attending.

Mr. Craig approached the council concerning a type of sweat shirt with a school crest that is being offered to the Student Council for approximately $2.50. The class representatives are to see how many are interested and this matter will be discussed further at the next meeting on Friday, November 6.

Covey Hill

Final "500" Tournament
COVEY HILL—The final series of the "500" tournament was held at Dykebar House, Covey Hill, on Saturday evening, October 16th, with 41 persons present. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brooks and Mr. Alexander were hosts for the evening with Mrs. Keith Curran, Mrs. Celia Edwards and Mrs. Earl Brooks co-hostesses. First Prize: Mr. Thomas Fitzmaurice was the tournament winner with 10,540 points. He was presented with a cut glass crystal rose bowl. Second Prize: Mrs. Clayton

Hemmingford

HEMMINGFORD—Pleased to report that Mrs. Henry Lemieux, who was recently hospitalized at the Louis Pasteur Hospital in Montreal, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Hinchcliff—10,270 points. Third Prize: Mr. Clayton Hinchcliff—9860 points. Fourth Prize: Mr. Walter Keady—9160 points. Consolation Prize: Mr. E. Perry—5370 points and Mr. Earl Brooks—4940 points. Scores were all very high and competition was close. The money realized from the "500" series card games was given to the Wesley Church Cemetery Fund. Delightful refreshments were served afterwards and enjoyed by all; speeches being given by a few of those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emerson of Bakersfield, California, were recent guests at the home of their cousins, Olive and John Emerson of Hemmingford, Que. Mr. and Mrs. W. Logie of Ottawa, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Coleman, Hemmingford, Que.

The W.M.S. of St. Andrew's United Church, Hemmingford, held their Thanksgiving meeting in the church hall on Oct. 21st. Mrs. H. Warner was in the chair. This was an open meeting and the C.G.I.T. and Explorer groups were well represented. The guests included some small gift suitable for a young child or teenager to be sent in a mission parcel. It was suggested that books sent in cover a 10-12 year old age group.

It was also decided that the W.M.S. hold a joint meeting with the W.A.

Mrs. Warner stressed the great need of clothes for school age children and teenagers and asked for donations. For the devotional period a recording of an Angola service of worship was played including music by a native choir. Mrs. P. Pederson sang "Walk With Faith in Your Heart". Two films on life in Africa were shown by the Rev. K. Murray. Refreshments were served when a social hour was enjoyed.

Mr. Amos Myatt passed away quietly at his home in Huntingdon, on Saturday morning, October 17th, after a long illness at the age of 74 years.

Mr. Myatt was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Myatt, and was united in marriage on May 16th, 1906, to Bessie May Fall.

Mr. Myatt was a lifetime resident of this community. He is survived by his wife, one daughter (Pearl) Mrs. Russell Milne, Huntingdon; two sons, Melvin and Eldon of Burke, N.Y.; three grandchildren, Ray, Dale and Karen Myatt.

Funeral services were held at Kelly Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. P. S. Beal. Mrs. E. Wood sang a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross". The pallbearers were: Russell Myatt, Bert Shearer, Eldon Ross, Orville Gamble, William Gamble and Clarence Henderson. Interment at Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery.

The busy time in the orchard is now drawing to a close; but, as one season ends, we should look forward to the next so as not to be caught unprepared. During the next few months, the main concern will be for the sale of the apple crop but, at the same time, some thought should be given to the expensive machinery which has been used to safeguard the quality of the fruit.

The large amount of capital which the fruit-grower must invest nowadays in specialized machinery warrants his very close attention to cleaning and maintenance. We therefore make no apologies for reminding all whom it may concern, of the need for care in the putting away of orchard equipment for the winter.

The elementary principles of preparing spraying machines for winter storage are well known but it is still necessary that the time and trouble be taken to put them into practice before it is too late. The machine should first be thoroughly washed and cleaned and then the parts which are most exposed to rusting should be given a coating of grease; water must be drained from pipes, hoses and motors, and belts should be adjusted. Everybody knows what happens to these parts if they get frozen up. A new coat of paint will improve the appearance of the machine and also prolong its life.

Mr. Sylvio Hébert of the Horticultural Service of the Quebec Department of Agriculture recommends that any repairs which are necessary be carried out at the same time; fruit-growers who do this will be ready to start off on the right foot next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Merin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Somerville, Sharon, Nancy and Andrew, Jr., were guests at the home of Mr. Ernest Moore, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Nitro

NITRO — Mr. and Mrs. John Brabant and Joscelyn were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brabant, Laurier Street.

On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brabant entertained twenty-one members of the Brabant family from Verdun at a Thanksgiving dinner.

With the coming of the fall season the bridge clubs are once again underway. The Marathon bridge has re-convened under the guidance of Mrs. Don MacLean. Approximately ten couples have joined this year.

Mrs. Bruce Clarke, Mrs. J. R. Rouchard, Mrs. J. R. Rouchard, Mrs. Dunc Campbell all entertained their respective bridge clubs this past week.

NITRO — Several Nitro people are following the French conversational courses offered at the St. Cecile School Valleyfield, Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. Anyone interested should contact Mr. Rene Charon, Valleyfield.

Our Nitro hunters returned from Duhamel Sunday night, very wet, but "deerless". Nothing daunted, they will try again next week-end.

The shocking news of another polio case in our village has been the subject of everyone's conversation this past week. Little Andre Fortin, although a mild case, is hospitalized in Montreal. May he have a speedy and complete recovery.

Badminton — The first game of the Valleyfield, Beauharnois, Chateauguy Badminton League will be played on Sunday, November 1st, 1959 at 1:00 p.m. sharp. All players please bring your own lunch. This will be eaten following the afternoon's play at the Legion Hall in Valleyfield and will be followed by dancing until 9:30 p.m. Two new clubs are joining us on this date (Cornwall and Hudson) and they will become members of our league. Three Rivers are holding a tournament on October 31st and Nov. 1st and our club has been invited to attend. Singles (men and women), Doubles (men and women), Mixed Doubles will be played.

Try This Party-Time Novelty — Bubbly Cubes

Now that the party area has moved indoors from the backyard, why not try this colourful new idea in party novelties —

100 Aspirin Tablets 29c
SMITH PHARMACY
 24 E. Main St. MALONE, N.Y.

The bubbly ice cube. It'll be a conversation piece during the upcoming festive season, too. This carbonated ice is really quite simple to make. Just pre-chill the bottle thoroughly, then pour the contents slowly into an ice cube tray and freeze as usual. Less time is required to freeze this than plain water — and though the cubes seem softer than ordinary ice, they actually last as long. As they slowly melt, they twinkle and bubble, keeping your punch or tall drink lively and cold to the very last drop without diluting it!

The beverage cubes may match or contrast with the flavor of the drinks you are serving. Fill glasses with the cubes and serve the companion chilled beverage in unopened bottles — letting each guest pour his own.

For a planned entertaining, when you want something special, you might like to flavor the cubes still further for example:

COLA-PEACH CUBES
 1 cup mashed canned peaches
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 ¼ cup sugar
 Bottled cola, chilled
 Mix together the peaches, lemon juice, sugar and about one cup of the cola. Put in ice cube tray. Fill tray with additional cola up to about half inch from the top. Set control to coldest and freeze. Serve with bottles of chilled cola beverage.

PINK FROST CUBES
 ½ cup currant jelly
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 ½ cup water
 Bottled ginger ale or lemon-lime soft drink, chilled.
 Put jelly and lemon juice and water into a small sauce-pan. Heat, stirring, until jelly completely melts. Pour into freezing tray and cool. When cold, fill tray to about half inch from the top with chilled carbonated beverage.
 Turn control to coldest, and freeze.
 Serve with chilled bottles of either ginger ale or lemon-lime beverage.

Franklin Centre

FRANKLIN CENTRE — Congratulations to our old friend and former neighbour, Mr. Ben Johnston, now a resident of Ormstown, who celebrated his 97th Birthday on Saturday, October 24th. He received many cards and a "Telephone Call" from his nephew, Mr. Benny Rowe at Irasburg, Vt., which pleased him very much. On Sunday, he enjoyed a visit from his nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kyle of Huntingdon, which brought a very pleasant occasion to a happy ending.

Mr. and Mrs. Armitage of Montreal were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dunn, also Mr. and Mrs. Preston Nussey and family of Ormstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor and sons of St. Lambert, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunn and family.

More Floor Space Trend In Today's Housing Plans

Contemporary taste and rising living standards are reflected in the rapid decline in 1½ and two-story dwellings, and the gradual rise in floor space, according to the current Commercial Letter published by The Canadian Bank of Commerce. At the same time, modern fashions in housing, which permit fewer houses per acre than the older styles, plus the trend away from the larger urban centres to the new suburban developments, pose grave problems in regard to the financing of roads, sewers and other services in many municipalities.

Sustained prosperity and rising income, coupled with more liberal mortgage-financing terms in the post-war era have been key factors in stimulating housing demand, the Letter says. Immigration and a high net rate of family formation have also played their part in maintaining the building boom.

Between 1946 and 1958, more than 1¼ million new residential units were completed, and older structures were converted into some 56,000 duplexes and apartments. The current year's program may see the completion of another 150,000 structures, bringing the post-1945 figures to nearly 1½ million new units.

During the past ten years the average cost of a one-storey dwelling financed under the National Housing Act has risen from $7,379 to $14,263. The size of the average house in this category has increased from 877 square feet of floor space to 1,094 square feet, and building costs per square foot have gone up from $7.62 to $10.56. The rising cost of land — $570 for the average single-storey house in 1948 to $2,463 in 1958 — is the third large factor in the increased cost of housing.

There are already signs of changing trends in Canadian housing from the pattern of earlier postwar years, according to the Letter. Apartments and other tenant-occupied dwellings have taken up an increasing proportion of new housing construction in recent years, and a stage of rent reduction has now been reached in certain areas. However, apartment building is on the increase in the nearer suburbs of some cities, where high land prices have tended to discourage the building of private dwellings. The co-operative apartment house, owned jointly by the tenants, is a relatively new feature which appears to be growing in popularity.

The birth rate, after reaching a peak in 1954, shows signs of a temporary decline, and with the future of immigration somewhat uncertain, some sources of housing demand may slacken. However, net family formation is likely to rise within a few years as a result of the high birth-rate in the 'forties, and, coupled with the sustained rise in personal income, will probably give underlying strength to the housing construction industry.

NOW... '60 CHEVROLET STURDI-BILT TRUCKS WITH REVOLUTIONARY TORSION-SPRING SUSPENSION THAT GIVES ASTONISHING NEW SHOCKPROOF ACTION!!!!

Chevy's done the next best thing to paving every road in Canada!

First they threw out the front axle and put in torsion-spring independent suspension. Then they built coil rear springs into most light-duty models, variable-rate leaf springs into heavies. That made it a ride you have to feel to believe. A ride that lets you move faster to get more work done in a day.

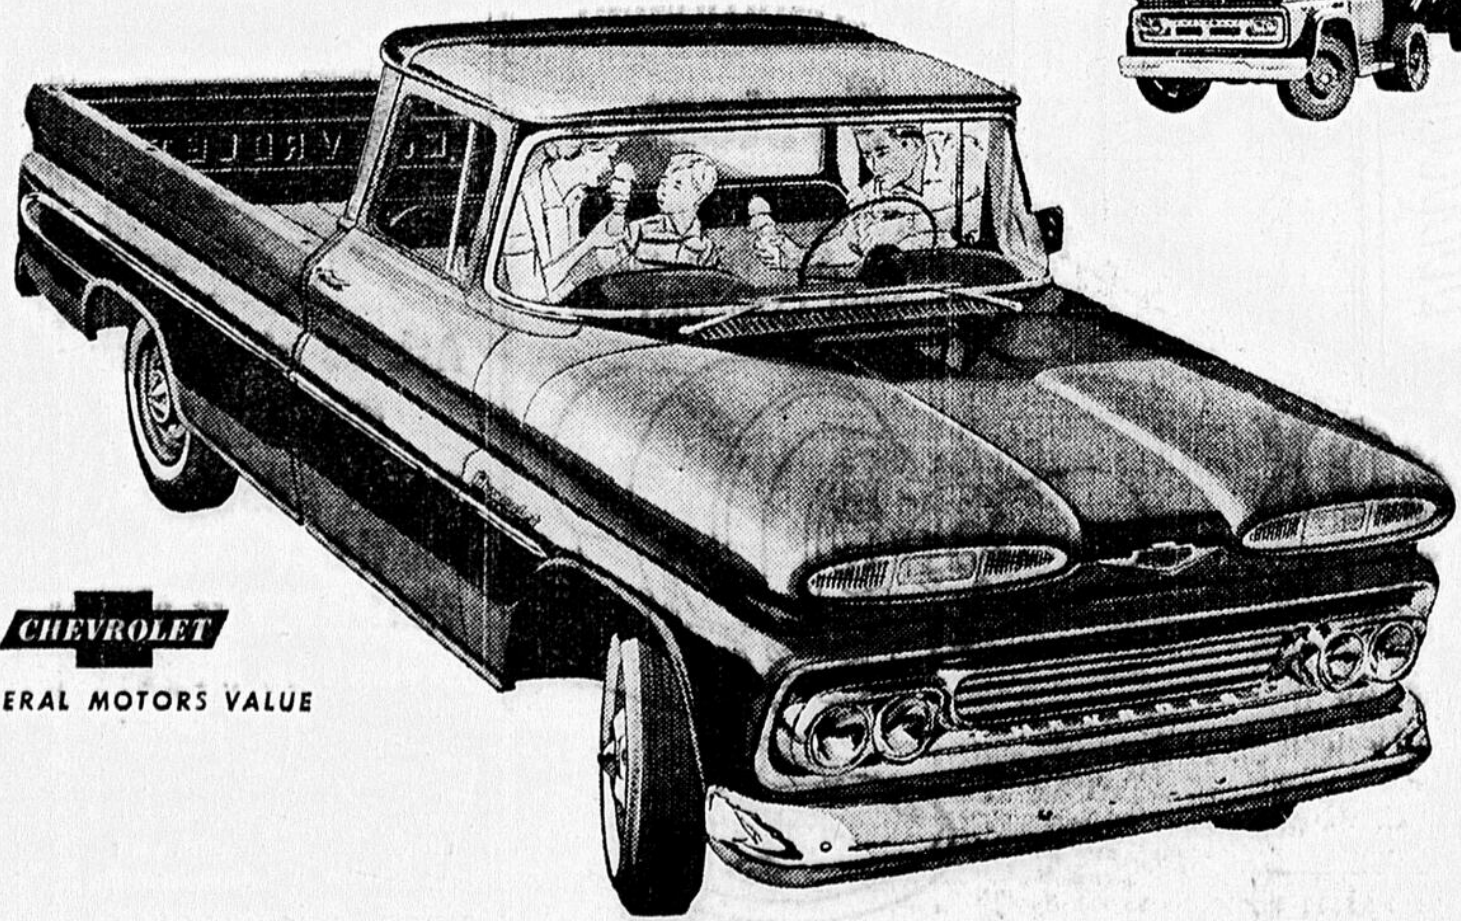

Brawnier bulldozer build!
 They're tougher than any Chevy trucks ever made. Frames are stronger, cabs 67% more rigid. Front wheels and tires are precision-balanced. And that new suspension cushions jars and road shock that used to spell slow death for sheet metal.

More comfortable cabs!
 Easier to hop in and out of, too. Many models are a whole 7 inches lower outside. Yet there's more head room inside, plus more width for shoulders and hips.

Big in the power department!
 With the industry's most advanced gas-saving 6's. With high-torque Workmaster V8 performance in heavyweights. With new 6-cylinder or V8 power available in new L.C.F. models.

More models than ever!
 New 4-wheel-drive models, tandems and high-styled Suburban Carryalls. It's the handsomest, hardest Chevy fleet ever to report for duty. See your dealer for the whole story, and be sure to take a ride!

Anything less is an old-fashioned truck!

Khrushchev May Visit Paris Late This Year

A prominent newspaper in India says Prime Minister Nehru's government may be forced by public pressure to sever diplomatic relations with Communist China, as a result of the alleged ambush of Indian policemen in a disputed border area last week.

The government at New Delhi said that Chinese troops, striking 40 miles deep into north Kashmir, killed 17 Indians and wounded three. The New Delhi and Peking governments exchanged protest notes, each charging the other with responsibility.

The Statesman, British-owned, English-language newspaper at Calcutta, said that unless Red China's response to the Indian note is satisfactory "it would become difficult for the Indian government to resist public pressure for severance of diplomatic relations."

Premier Nehru himself said the border dispute has caused "a lot of anxiety," but he did not think there would be war with China.

"We have to act with restraint and responsibility and not be swept away by emotion," he told a political meeting, warning against "brave talk" by people who "vociferously suggest 'attack

China."

Isolated Area

Snow was falling in the area last week-end and Indian Army sources said it was "virtually impossible to move in reinforcements. The Kong Pa pass, where the latest clash occurred, is 17,000 feet up in the barren mountains of the Chang Chemo valley, about 200 miles east of Srinagar.

India claims the area is 40 to 50 miles inside the Indian frontier as marked by official Indian maps. The Chinese, who have recently built a road there, say the clash took place within their frontier.

The nearest Indian military garrison is 100 miles away at Leh, the capital of Ladakh state. Supplies have to be taken to the army garrison at Leh by mule train, a journey of two to three weeks.

The Chinese are believed to have a large military base with an airfield at Rudock in western Tibet, about 60 miles southeast of Kong Pa. To the northeast they have built a road across Indian-claimed territory to link Sinkiang with Gartok capital of western Tibet.

In Peking, Chinese newspapers front-paged Peking's "serious protest" to India, alleging that Indian troops intruded into Chinese territory and attacked Chinese frontier guards. They did not mention the Indian government's protest.

Thanksgiving Meeting

HOWICK. — A joint meeting of the afternoon and evening auxiliaries with the Canadian Girls in Training was held in the United Church on Tuesday evening, Oct. 20.

A short business meeting was held separately by both auxiliaries after which all came together. Mrs. R. B. Tolhurst and Mrs. Clarence Kerr presiding.

A happy feature of this meeting was the presentation of two Life Memberships: one to Mrs. Jas. Crawford presented by Mrs. Robt. Templeton, and the other to Mrs. Russell Stewart, presented by Mrs. Melville Brown.

The devotional was taken by the C.G.I.T. Scripture reading and prayer was taken by Marilyn Smith, after which a two-

Peking protest was the first report published in Red China of fresh Sino-Indian border troubles, since the frontier dispute flared into prominence last month.

Khrushchev to Paris

Acceptance by Premier Khrushchev of an invitation to visit France has given President de Gaulle his first opportunity for personal talks with the Russian leader.

De Gaulle alone among the Big Three Western leaders has not had private talks with Khrushchev. Both President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan deal with Khrushchev from the standpoint of personal experience, and de Gaulle is known to want the same advantage — especially for any East-West summit talks.

Khrushchev's visit to Paris may come late this year or early in 1960.

May Be Helpful

In the British view, the Russians may be in the best position to budge President de Gaulle from his reluctance to participate in a summit meeting. De Gaulle is anxious to take his seat at the conference table on terms of apparent equality with his allies, after the first French test of a nuclear weapon.

In the view of some British observers, Russian pressure on de Gaulle would be the most hopeful portent for East-West amity since the Second World War. The Soviet news agency Tass said in an authoritative statement last Friday: "The earlier a summit meeting is called the better it will be for world peace."

Cuban Troubles

Mysterious planes slipped past Cuban air force patrols to shower Havana with more anti-government leaflets last week-end. The raids were the latest in a series that began Oct. 21, a day that brought the most violent show of opposition to Fidel Castro since he took over the Cuban government last New Year's Day.

Castro charged that counter-revolutionary planes based in the United States carried out the raids, and denounced U.S. authorities for falling to halt them.

A U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation report on Oct. 23 said former Cuban revolutionary air force chief Pedro Diaz Lanz admitted flying a leaflet plane over Havana. Lanz, now living in Miami, Fla., fled Cuba last July. He claims that Castro is a Communist and that the Castro regime is riddled with Reds.

Bering Sea Dam

The Soviet Literary Gazette at Moscow last week published proposals for a Russo-American dam across the Bering Strait between Russia and Alaska. The strait is about 38 miles wide at its narrowest point.

The Russian newspaper said Peter Borisov, a Soviet engineer, has worked out a plan to build a 46-mile dam which would help change the climate of Polar regions of the Soviet Union, Canada and the United States. The Literary Gazette said such a dam could transform the Polar land regions into rich agricultural areas.

The aim would be to have powerful pumping stations on the dam to pump Arctic water into the Pacific and increase the flow of the warm Gulf Stream into the Arctic. There was even a cost estimate with the proposals: 70,000,000,000 rubles (about $7,500,000,000 at the official rate.)

part hymn was sung very effectively by the girls, led by Mrs. Eric Smith.

The guest speakers were then introduced by Mrs. Tolhurst, viz: Mrs. Dupre, Christian Stewardship convener, and Mrs. Poole, Sectional Vice-Pres. of the Montreal Presbyterial.

Mrs. Dupre spoke especially to the C.G.I.T. girls and reminded them that youth is the time to store up knowledge. She emphasized the power of prayer and the happiness of living the Christian life. Mrs. Poole took as her subject: Big Business, meaning giving full time to the work of the Church. She asked all to work with enthusiasm and to give our best years to this work.

Mrs. Donald Chisholm thanked the speakers for their inspiring talks.

Refreshments were served to all in the Church Hall and a social hour enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hope and family of Lindsay, Ont. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hope.

Mrs. Richard Seale of Montreal has been a recent guest of Mrs. Andrew Tolhurst and visited other friends in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Candlish and family of Lemberg, Sask. visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Muir.

Mrs. R. B. Tolhurst and Mrs. Bradley are visiting friends in Ottawa and Shawville.

A meeting of the Red Cross was held in the Curling Club, on Monday, Oct. 19th. After a short business meeting, a quilt was finished by the members.

Friends of Mrs. Joe Desgroseillers are sorry to know that she is a patient in the Barrie Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Lacombe have returned to Montreal after spending a week with Mrs. Georges Rollin.

On Sunday morning, Oct. 25th, Georgetown Presbyterian Church observed the Annual Rally Day service. The devotional part of this service was conducted by eight members of the Senior Boys Class, whose names are as follows:

Garry Barrington, Jackie Peddie, David McArthur, Jimmy Cullen, Alvin McArthur, Jimmy Kyle, Wayne Tillotson and Barry Cullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ness were week-end guests of Mrs. Dan McFarlane and Miss Linda McFarlane.

MORE AND MORE DELIVERIES BRING O'Keefe ALE

Delivery boys everywhere are noticing this new trend to O'Keefe. Every day more and more people are discovering mild O'Keefe Ale. Next time you order beer from your grocer, be sure to ask for O'Keefe — you'll enjoy its natural mild flavour.

THE O'KEEFE MILDNESS SECRET

Ever bitten into a grape seed? It's bitter, unpleasant. Grape growers found by experiment that they could develop seedless grapes with nothing to spoil the delicate flavour. It's the same with hops.

Ordinary hops contain seeds which give an unpleasant bitterness to ale. However, O'Keefe master brewers insist on costlier "Seedless Hops" result—there's no unpleasant bitterness, just the right, natural mild flavour.

Drink O'Keefe The Mild Ale!

TOMMY'S DOLLAR

Tommy is saving up for a bike. Dollar by dollar, week by week, his bank account is growing... bringing the Big Day nearer.

But meanwhile, Tommy's dollars are serving a second useful purpose.

Bank credit is based on the dollars Canadians keep in 11 million deposit accounts in the chartered banks—and Tommy's account is one of them. Bank loans are constantly being made to meet the needs of business and personal borrowers in all parts of Canada.

So every time you make a deposit you are—like Tommy—building toward something worthwhile for yourself, and at the same time keeping your dollars at work for the benefit of all.
