LAKE MEGANTIC ELECTRICIAN ELECTROCUTED

J. A. Thibault, Town Electrician, Instantly Killed When He Came in Contact With Live Wire—Tragic Circumstances.

LAKE MEGANTIC, June 24.—A tragic accident occurred here this morning when Mr. J. A. Thibault, forty-eight years of age, the father of three children, was electrocuted. Mr. Thibault, who is the town electrician, was repairing some wires when he accidentally came in contact with a live wire. Passers by noticed the victim dangling from the post and summoned medical aid. Drs. Leo Blais and Dube were soon on the scene, but all attempts at artificial respiration proved fruitless. The victim leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three daughters. This tragic accident is the second to strike the family within the last few years, as two years ago their only son was fatally injured in an automobile mishap.

PIRATES SEIZE PASSENGERS OF CHINESE SHIP

Refusal by a Canton Steamship Operator to Pay a "Protection Fee" of $300 to Buccaneers Who Have Infested Delta and Neighborhood Caused Attack.

HONG KONG, June 21.—Pirates boarded a Chinese steamship in the Pearl River delta yesterday, killing three men and looting the cargo. Disguised as Nationalist Government army officers nine passengers suddenly overpowered the armed guards, shooting those who resisted. Refusal by a Canton steamship operator to pay a "protection fee" of $300 to buccaneers who have infested the delta and neighborhood of Canton caused the attack. Taking forty Chinese passengers and most of the cargo with them, the pirates made off with the launch among the numerous islands of the delta. The passengers will be held for ransom. If this is delayed the pirates may enforce their demands by sending ears or fingers of their captives.

BRITISH WOMEN ARE PUZZLED OVER STYLES

Sports-Loving British Girl Has Hard Time Trying to Convince Herself that Freedom of Short Skirts Is Over.

LONDON, June 21.—The Ascot races, England's greatest fashion parade, ended yesterday. But stylishly speaking, British women still do not know where they stand. The Ascot, which is supposed to be the last word as fashions go, has left ladies in as great a dilemma as before the opening of the festive week. Is the good word to be long skirts, feminine frills and picture hats or is it to be the slightly elongated slim sports outline of last season? The week opened bravely with Victorian and Edwardian frocks trailing over the dirt in the best nineteenth century style. Then came the sudden storm of Wednesday. Even the most clothes-conscious of women bowed to the elements and discarded their ruined chignons for sterner stuffs clearing the ground by ten to eleven inches. The sports-loving British girl is having a hard time trying to convince herself that the freedom of short skirts shall be no more. Yet she is slightly tired of having even her own countrymen and women point an accusing finger at the feminine chic that dwells across the English Channel and the Atlantic ocean but not on this island. So she is willing to take a chance on frills and furbelows if she must. She watched the Ascot for helpful advice but did not get any.

HOW MANY IN E. TOWNSHIPS HAVE VOTES?

Eastern Townships Constituencies Have a Varying Number of People Who Will Vote in Federal Election.

In 1926, just four years ago, there were 150,802 voters' names on the lists of what constituted the Eastern Townships of Quebec, the name given the inland settlements in the early days to differentiate the district from the Western Townships of Ontario.

These are the nine electoral districts, with the number of voters and votes recorded at the last election:

Constituency	Voters Named	Votes Polled
Brome-Isle-Vert	16,506	13,131
Compton	15,086	12,104
Stanstead	11,939	8,875
Shefford	13,328	9,979
Sherbrooke	17,727	12,222
Richmond-Wolfe	18,848	13,888
Megantic	14,017	9,726
Drummond
Arthabaska	21,381	13,414
Beauce	22,520	13,727

In Brome-Isle-Vert a turn-over of eight out of each one hundred voters would be required to meet the wishes of the Conservatives.

In Stanstead there would be required a turn-over of thirteen and one-half per cent. to make a triumph for the Conservatives.

The Liberals had the edge on the Compton Conservatives by fourteen per cent.

In Sherbrooke city twenty voters in every one hundred would have to change their views to win a victory for Harold Lynch.

In Chateaugay-Huntingdon, where Dr. J. C. Moore looks like a winner, the turn-over would have to be but seven per cent. in the total vote recorded.

In fifteen counties in Quebec, not including Sherbrooke among them, the Conservatives could win with a turn-over of from 45 to 100 votes in each 1,000 votes polled.

Where the Conservatives hope to make their greatest gains are in the fourteen constituencies in and around Montreal Island, counting Laval, Two Mountains where Arthur Lavall is considered a favorite reception. Of 13,375 voters on the list in 1926, likely to be augmented to around 15,000 this year, the Liberals won by 3,768 with 8,064 votes polled.

THREE YOUTHS INJURED; HIT BY AN AUTOMOBILE

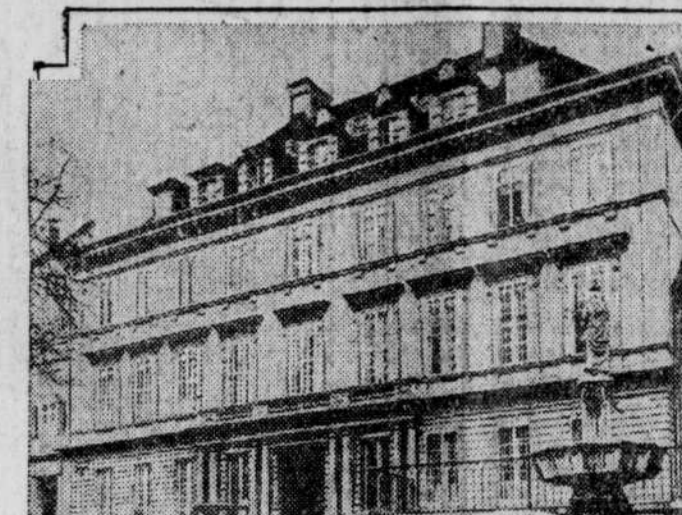

Three Sons of Mr. Ovilva St. Pierre, of Sawyerville, Struck by Automobile on Way from School.

SAWYERVILLE, June 21.—While picking strawberries on their way home from school, three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ovilva St. Pierre, of this place, were injured when they were struck by an automobile. The circumstances of the accident as reported this morning are that Edgar Stoddard, of Sawyerville, employed at a garage, was taking a car which has recently been repaired to its owner, Mr. Ray Wallace, in East Clifton. On the outskirts of the town an automobile which had been following for a considerable distance, driven by Mr. Alphonse Mignault, of Cookshire, attempted to pass the car driven by Stoddard. The latter gave too much space, with the result that he was unable to bring his car on to the road and struck the victims.

Dr. Davignon, of Cookshire, was called and the victims were taken to their home. Medical examination showed that Albert St. Pierre was suffering from a fractured leg which and he was conveyed to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, by Mr. French. The other two brothers received injuries which, however, were not serious enough to warrant their transfer to the hospital.

EXPLAINED WHAT GOVERNMENT HAS DONE FOR LOWER PROVINCES

Premier King Opened His Speaking Tour in Maritime Provinces Last Night at Moncton—Does Not Believe in Interfering in Provincial Politics—Referred to Action of Government in Arranging to Restore Pension Privileges to Veterans Who Had Signed Away Their Rights.

MONCTON, N. B., June 21.—Premier King opened his Maritime speaking tour in this railway centre last night and talked, among other things, of railroads. "The transportation problem was overweighing when this government came into power," said Mr. King. "There were a number of bankrupt roads. It was the present government that unified these roads into a single system; it was the present government that got Sir Henry Thornton, the Prime Minister, and this reference to the head of the Canadian National Railway system was applauded.

The Prime Minister spoke in a theatre, but loud speakers set up in a nearby park carried his voice to those who formed an overflow meeting there.

Hon. J. P. Veniot, Postmaster General of Canada and a former Premier of New Brunswick, preceded the Prime Minister in a brief address, as did H. R. Emmerson, who was yesterday selected as the Liberal standard bearer in Westmorland county in the forthcoming general elections.

Immediately after the meeting Mr. Mackenzie King boarded his private car for the trip to Prince Edward Island, where he will address a meeting in Summerside this afternoon and in Charlottetown tonight.

Dealing more particularly with Maritime conditions, Mr. King referred to the agitation for Maritime rights and the steps his government had taken to secure these rights for the Maritimes. A Royal Commission to study these problems and recommend benefits had been appointed. "When we did this the Conservatives laughed at us and ridiculed us," declared Mr. King.

The Prime Minister referred to the provincial election of Thursday when a Conservative government was returned, but did not discuss it at any length. He did not believe

MOUNTIES RECEIVE PRAISE FROM BRITISH NEWSPAPERS

Some Editors Still Vision Force as Battling With Indians and Esquimaux—Others Simply Praise Horsemanship.

LONDON, June 21.—The initial performance of the detachment of men from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at the international horse show at Olympia Thursday received generous attention in the English press today. One paper, praising the skill of such youthful horsemen, speaks of "their many varied experiences tussling with Red Indians in the backwoods and with recalcitrant Esquimaux in the polar regions."

This is certainly off the track of the tale given to the London press by the commandant of the detachment, who insists that as far as the present day is concerned, romance in Canadian police work does not exist. Less exuberant reporters are content to say the Canadian show reminds them of the books they

MANY INDIAN NATIONALISTS INJURED BY POLICE

BOMBAY, India, July 21.—More than two hundred Indian Nationalists were injured by police charging them with lathis or staves, today to clear the Esplanade Maidan, an important thoroughfare, of a demonstration. The crowd had gathered to pass in review before Motilal Nehru, acting president of the All-India National Congress, in defiance of a police order forbidding the assembly in the esplanade for two weeks.

PREMIER KING COMMENTS ON APPOINTMENTS

Further Appointments or Changes in Ministry Need Not Be Expected Until After Elections.

LEVIS, Que., June 21.—The cabinet reorganization is going on. His Excellency the Governor-General yesterday signed at Quebec an order-in-council passed at a meeting of the Cabinet on Saturday of last week, appointing Captain Ian Mackenzie, of Vancouver, Minister of Immigration and Colonization and Superintendent General of Indian Affairs. For some time past the Soldiers' Settlement Board has been under the control of the Minister of Immigration and Colonization. It will so continue. The Hon. Dr. King, who was appointed to the Senate on Saturday last, has tendered his resignation as Minister of Pensions and Health and it has been accepted. It has been decided to defer the appointment of Dr. King's successor until after the elections. Meanwhile, the Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defence, has been appointed Acting Minister of Pensions and Health.

The Prime Minister intimated that it is not contemplated that further appointments or changes in the Ministry will be made until after the elections. He desired to have it understood that it was the intention of the Government, if returned to power, to have a rearrangement of the work of some of the departments of Government, and with it a re-arrangement of portfolios as well, so as to effect as equitable a distribution of the portfolios as might be possible under the reorganization which would be made. No province would be permitted to suffer in the matter of its past representation in the Cabinet because of any of the arrangements previously mentioned. By the appointment of Dr. MacMillan as Minister of Fisheries, Captain Ian Mackenzie as Minister of Immigration and Colonization, Prince Edward Island is again represented in the Cabinet, and British Columbia continues its representation notwithstanding the resignation of the Hon. Dr. King as Minister of Pensions and Health.

Premier King wished to have it known that in the appointments that have recently been made the Government has had in view the re-

CHICAGO, June 21.—The revolver used in the murder June 9th of "Jake" Lingle, Tribune reporter, has been identified and its ownership traced, it was revealed early today.

AN INCREASE IN AUTO ACCIDENT TOLL IN 1929

Motor Accidents Claimed 1,294 Lives Last Year—In This Province 323 Were Killed.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 21.—Automobile accidents cost 1,294 lives in Canada during 1929. Figures by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show last year's total was far greater than that of 1928, when 1,082 deaths resulted from auto accidents and half as large again as the 1927 toll of 885 lives.

The toll for all Canada in 1929 represented a proportion of 13.2 deaths per one hundred thousand of population. British Columbia led the provinces with a 19.8 rate, while Ontario ranked next with 16.8. Prince Edward Island had the lowest rate, 1.2 per 100,000 population.

Automobile deaths in the provinces during 1929 were: P. E. I., 1, Nova Scotia 61, New Brunswick 46, Quebec 323, Ontario 551, Manitoba 68, Saskatchewan 56, Alberta 71, British Columbia 117.

DISMISSAL OF WOMAN DOCTOR IS RESENTED

Dr. Fleming Said to Be One of the Most Competent Medical Officers.

WINDHOEK, South Africa, June 21.—The recent dismissal of Dr. Margaret Fleming, district surgeon of Grootfontein, on the ground that, being a woman, it was undesirable that she should act as district surgeon in an area containing a very large native population, has caused considerable feeling throughout the territory and more is likely to be heard of the matter in the near future. Resentment has been occasioned mainly by the fact that Dr. Fleming is admitted by the most able and conscientious medical officers of the Administration as ever had.

It is understood at a meeting at Usakos recently the member of Parliament for that constituency was instructed to request the Administrator to lay on the table of the House of Assembly all the correspondence in connection with the case.

DENIES CHARGE MADE BY CHIEF OF OPPOSITION

William H. Moore, Former Chairman of Tariff Board, Accepts Liberal Nomination for Whitty Riding.

WHITBY, Ont., June 21.—William H. Moore, until this week chairman of the Dominion Tariff Board, accomplished a three fold purpose during his visit last night. He announced his resignation from the Board, accepted the unanimous nomination offered him by Liberals of the constituency and answered charges leveled at him by Hon. Mr. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader.

Mr. Moore branded as "false" Mr. Bennett's allegations that he had handled a "slush fund" for the Mackenzie and Mann Railway interests, builders of the Canadian Northern line, and stoutly denied the Conservative leader's declaration that "he had written" the Dunning tariff.

"When Mr. Bennett was called upon to criticize the budget," declared Mr. Moore, "and tell the people of Canada wherein it failed to meet the country's needs, he told them instead that Moore had handled 'slush funds of Mackenzie and Mann.' At that time Mr. Bennett had the privilege of the House of Commons and I was in the government service. That unequal situation no longer exists.

"I have just one question to ask Mr. Bennett and I shall put it in the kindest possible way," he continued. "I ask Mr. Bennett were his services or the services of his firm ever sold to corporations having legislative interests during the (Continued on page 9)

PETER HAS HIS TURN

(By Thornton W. Burgess)

Whatever to others you may do Be sure they will return to you. —Peter Rabbit.

Peter Rabbit didn't know whether to be angry or to laugh. At first he felt angry. Yes, Peter felt angry. You know, there are very few who laugh at jokes on themselves.

The joke really was on Peter and he knew it. He had spent a lot of time hunting for Jerry Muskrat's house. Then he had been told that he was sitting on the roof of that new house, when at the time he was sitting on the bank of the Smiling Pool, where he had sat many times. Of course, he hadn't believed that he was sitting on the roof of a house. He hadn't believed it and had said so, and now it had turned out that after all he had been sitting on the roof of Jerry's house. You see, Jerry's new house was in the ground. It was in the bank of the Smiling Pool, with the entrance under water, and it was exactly under where Peter had been sitting.

Peter wisely decided not to be angry. He presently saw how funny it all was and he began to chuckle. Redwing the Blackbird chuckled with him. It was Redwing who had finally explained the joke to Peter. Finally Peter looked up at Redwing. "I suspect that Jerry Muskrat is laughing at me right now," said Peter. "I know I would be laughing if I were in his place. But I am going to get even with Jerry and then it will be my turn to laugh."

"How are you going to get even?" Redwing asked. "Watch me!" replied Peter. "Just you watch me and you'll see how I'm going to get even."

Now, Peter knew that in all probability Jerry Muskrat's bedroom was up quite near the surface. He knew that there must be a long hall from the water leading up and that a little way under the able bedroom. So Peter hopped back a little way and suddenly he thumped the ground with his stout hindfeet. He thumped as only Peter can thump. Then he hopped on a step or two and thumped again. He hopped off to one side and then to the other side each time he thumped. He thumped and he thumped hard all around where he thought the roof of Jerry's home might be. Finally, he hopped over to the edge of the bank and looked down into the Smiling Pool. Jerry Muskrat was just starting to climb up the bank and it was plain to see that Jerry was in a bad temper. Peter chuckled.

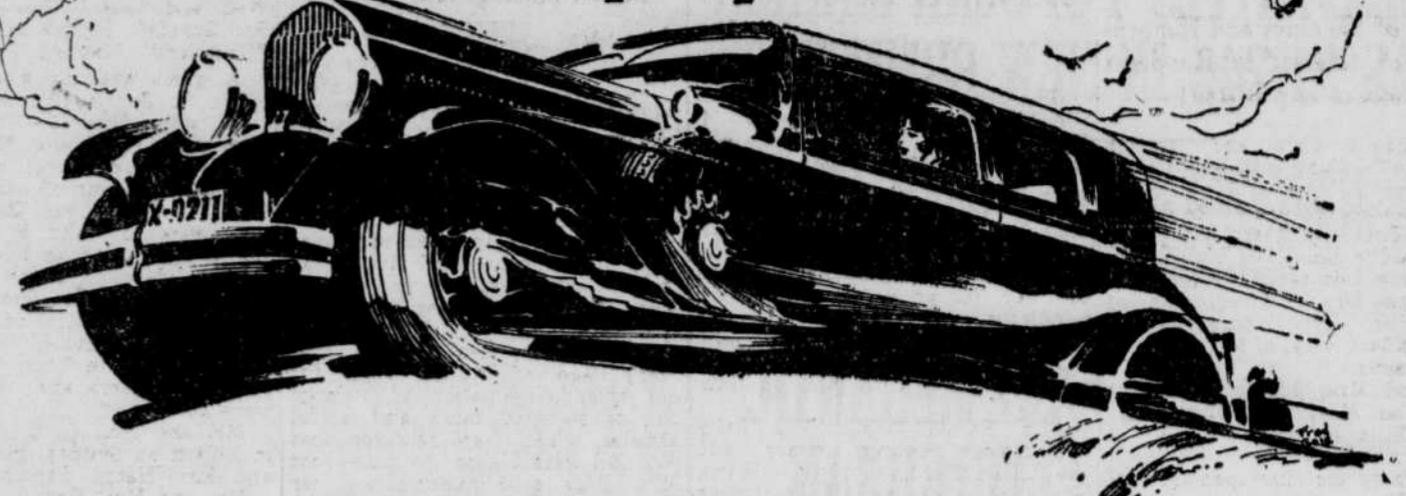

"Hello, Jerry!" said he, pretending to be surprised. "Where did you come from?"

"So it was you!" snarled Jerry. "So it was you! You were still very angry. So it was you pounding on the roof of my house! I might have known it. I'll teach you not to try that trick again!"

"I was thumping, if that's what

LADIES' GUILD MET AT BROME: GENERAL NOTES

Many Donations to Brome Village Improvements Reported at Meeting of Ladies' Guild—Red Cross Juniors Praised—School Closing Held.

BROME, Que., June 21.—The Ladies' Guild met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Soles, on Wednesday, June 19th, when there were twenty present. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Soles, and approved, plans were discussed for holding a garden party or fair in the near future and a special committee was chosen to meet at the home of Mrs. G. M. Owens, on June 18th, to discuss plans for raising money and to report on same. The ladies of the Guild are very grateful to Mrs. Mary Page, of Boston, Mass., for her splendid donation of a large box of stamped fancy and useful articles, which were received that day. All were pleased to know that Mrs. Page still remembers her childhood days, which were spent in Brome. Her father, the late Henry Williams, being one of Brome's prominent men, having owned and operated a large store and also a farm, which is now owned by Mr. Walter Patch.

Two other residents of Brome, who have generously contributed to the welfare of the church and cemetery, recently, are Mrs. Burgess, of Boston, a daughter of the late David Smith, who owned and operated the Smith Organ factory; here, in later years, and whose remains now lay at rest in the cemetery here to which she so generously contributed and many thanks are also due Mr. Great Hall of Montreal, for his benevolence in beautifying the little church in many ways and the people of Brome are very grateful to the benevolent people who have so generously contributed of their means for the upkeep and beautifying of the church and grounds, which was first realized by the fund started by the Nathaniel Pettes family, who largely contributed to its upkeep in a permanent fund.

Red Cross Praised. The following letter has been received by the Wistaf Junior Red Cross grades of the Brome Corner School.

Miss Dorothy Vail, secretary, The Wistaf Junior Red Cross, Brome Corner School.

Dear Dorothy, I don't know when I have been so thrilled as when I got the letter of May 12th, signed by the officers of your group and enclosing a money order for $10 the proceeds of your school play. What a perfectly splendid donation to send in and how you must have worked to be able to send in such a lot of money. Weren't you all excited when you counted up and found that you had made such a great big sum. I am sure that you must have all worked with a will and I want to thank everyone of you especially Miss Draper for doing such wonderful service.

I can tell you that I was glad to get this amount for we are expecting any number of patients this summer and will need all the money that we can get. We are busy now making arrangements for a little girl of four called Madeline who cannot walk. The doctors say that they can make her just like other children. You can imagine the joy of her parents who did not have enough money to help her. Your money will keep Madeline for nearly a month in our very own ward and I know that when the Corner Juniors hear that their donation is to be used to give Madeline a new life that they will be very happy and delighted to think that they did this very wonderful service.

I suppose you are all working with a will to get ready for the exams. Here's hoping that you will all come out on top!

With thanks once more for this perfectly splendid donation. Yours sincerely,

RUTH B. SHAW, Brome School Closing Held.

After lunch, Rev. Wm. Gedy, organized a ball game and races in the different grades. At 2:30 p.m. all repaired to the school building, where the prizes in the various grades were awarded to the successful competitors.

The following pupils were awarded prizes for standing first in their grade: Miss Barbara Midge, by winning first in grade VII; Cecil Sturdivant, in grade VI; Gladys Tibbitts, grade V; Herschel Peters in grade IV; Herbert Foster, grade III; Shirley Foster, grade II; grade I, Beatrice Peters and Muriel Vail, equal; grade I, Jethro Worden. GROWING INTEREST IN SEASONAL DIETETICS
Evidence that Canadian housewives are taking greater interest in seasonal dietetics is provided by researches made for sales purposes by the Canadian Shredded Wheat Company, the results of which have just been completed.

For business reasons, the exact figures cannot be quoted. It is found that in the large majority of homes, there is a definite tendency to regulate family diet during the summer season and as cold weather comes later in the year.

"Whether it is entirely due to the consistent advertising carried on by whole wheat food manufacturers or whether housewives are being largely advised by other means, cannot be analyzed for certain, but there is an undoubted trend for lighter, more digestible and better balanced family meals in Canadian homes as hot weather approaches," said one official of the company. Housewives are certainly paying more attention to the science of their diet than they did a few years ago.

"The day of the big meal seems definitely to be passing. Whether in summer or winter, quality food value is being realized at its true worth as being more essential than bulk."

"As far as the Shredded Wheat Company is concerned, we are naturally carrying on propaganda through the advertising columns of newspapers to promote the eating shredded wheat at all seasons."

ODD FELLOWS TO ATTEND SERVICE AT TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
The local Odd Fellows will attend divine service in Trinity United Church tomorrow morning, at eleven o'clock. The pastor, Rev. W. S. Lennon, B.A., D.D., will preach on the subject, "The Queen of Virtues." The special music by the choir will include the anthem, "Shepherd of Souls" (Jones), and a selected solo by Miss Eleanor Wheeler.

The Sunday School and the Trinity Brotherhood will meet as usual at 10 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Lennon's subject for the evening service, at 7 o'clock, will be "Men Who Missed Their Chance." The sermon will be a study of four Scripture characters who showed great insensibility to the spiritual. The choir will render Bowles' anthem, "Ere Another Sabbath Close," at this service.

ASCOT W. I. MEETING
The regular meeting of the Ascot Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. McCurdy, Spring Road, on Thursday afternoon, June 5, with a very good attendance, there being six members and four visitors present. Mrs. Faith taking the members from Orford in her car, for which she received a hearty vote of thanks. The president, Mrs. Andrew Faith, was in the chair and opened the meeting in the usual way, routine business of reading the minutes of the previous meeting and treasurer's report being given. A letter from the E. T. Immigration Society was read, inviting the members to attend their convention being held in Waterloo on June 17, and plans were made for the Institute to be represented. Mrs. Andrew Crawford reported the meeting and tea at Lennoxville, when a life membership was presented to Mrs. McCurdy. Mrs. Ashe, the county president, was present and gave the members a talk on Institute work, which was listened to very attentively and much appreciated. The hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Crawford and Mrs. C. Farnham. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 2, with Mrs. W. E. Hetherington, Victory Highway.

SCHOOL CHILDREN HAD CLOSING PARTY
Mrs. W. B. McCaw's private school closed yesterday morning, and instead of the usual formal closing, a very jolly children's party was held at Mrs. McCaw's residence on Quebec street. The closing took place in the living room, which was effectively decorated with peonies and sprays.

About eighteen tiny tots were entertained by their teacher. A few pretty opening exercises were well done by the children, who afterwards sang several little songs very sweetly.

The presentation of prizes was the next event in the programme, Miss Laura Van Vliet making the presentations. In the second grade Phyllis Armstrong won the first prize for general proficiency, which was donated by Mrs. David T. Diplock, while John Desllets won the second prize, a special prize for arithmetic, and Margaret Hovey won a special prize for reading.

In the primary grade Ann Skelton won the first prize for general proficiency; Sidney Montle won the second and Lorne Campbell the third, while Isabel Wolff won a special prize for writing, as did Teddy Chapman.

Special prizes for arithmetic were won by the following pupils: Gordon Diplock, John Skelton, and Ann Hammond, the standing being based on daily work.

After the distribution of prizes games were played, and before the children left for their homes, dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. McCaw's party was a very successful one.

Caw was assisted by Mrs. W. R. Price and Mrs. H. S. Armstrong, who joined in entertaining the little ones, making their school closing a happy and joyful event.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES TO HOLD JOINT OUTING
On Saturday next, June 28th, the several Young People's Societies of the city will hold a joint outing in the form of an excursion to Newport, via the steamer "Anthemis".

For several years individual societies have undertaken to have some form of outing or picnic in the summer season and this year the societies in the city have decided to hold only one outing. The idea was adopted, and it is believed that economy will be effected and a more enjoyable time result with the larger number participating.

The trip proposed is one of the most popular and beautiful trips available in this vicinity and should prove especially attractive owing to the fact that the steamer will stop at Mountain House to allow the Young People an opportunity to climb Owl's Head, accompanied by a guide. This is made possible through the kindness of the Quebec Central Railway and the Memphremagog Navigation Company in arranging for special train service and a special run of the steamer "Anthemis" for this event. Ordinarily when the steamer is operating on a guide, it schedules a stop cannot be arranged so as to allow sufficient time to climb the mountain. This will, therefore, afford the only opportunity of the season to make this most interesting climb.

Mrs. Henderson, convener of better schools, reported that twenty-four prizes had been promised for the school, and requested that they be sent to her during the summer, as Miss Drummond wished to have them ready early.

An excellent report of the singing class at the school, under Prof. Hayward, was given by Mrs. Marlin. Financial obligations had been met and the year's work closed with an examination for which five prizes were given.

The "Practical Idea" for the day was given by Mrs. Cameron, while the roll call was "Suggestions for a Community Hall".

Following the adjournment a social hour was spent when refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Billings, Mrs. Walter Browne and Mrs. Ashe, who were assisted in serving by Mrs. C. J. Woodward.

(Continued from page 1) presentation of all the provinces in the Cabinet. When the late James Robb was replaced as Minister of Finance by the Hon. Charles Dunning, and again when the Department of Fisheries was separated from the Department of Marine and Fisheries, it was announced that these appointments would occasion a further reorganization.

The appointment, therefore, of the Hon. W. F. Kay as Minister without portfolio is not to be regarded as a final arrangement. It will also be recalled that at the time that the separation of the Department of Fisheries and the Department of Marine and Intimation was given to the effect that there would be transferred to the Department of Marine certain of the work now performed by other of the Government departments, but which could more appropriately be placed within the jurisdiction of the Minister of Marine.

S. E. Francis, today acknowledges with thanks the receipt of a cheque for fifty dollars, which has been deposited in the Last Post Fund.

Previous to 1923 any former member of the army, navy or allied services, dying without funds or relatives, as is unfortunately sometimes the case, was buried at the expense of the city as a pauper, unless the case was brought to the notice of the Last Post Fund in Montreal. At this time, however, it was thought that Sherbrooke should not appeal to her larger sister for help, and the present branch was formed and a charter was granted by the president, Sir Arthur Currie, and the trustees. The branch has been privileged to take charge of the funerals of seven men since that time, who have been borne to rest on the shoulders of their comrades covered with their country's flag.

No appeal is made for subscriptions and no attempt is made to carry a large surplus in the bank—it is the single dollar see anonymous and the small casual subscriptions from citizens, who thus acknowledge the claim of their less fortunate brother, that provide the funds. While there is no branch of the Canadian legion in Sherbrooke, arrangements for the various funerals, including the providing of bearers and firing parties have been looked after by Messrs. Marshall and Mathias, whose help is most gratefully recognized.

Any subscriptions or inquiries should be addressed to Colonel S. E. Francis, Hon. Secretary.

BRIDGE OUT AT WINDSOR

Owing to a change which is being made in the main highway near Windsor, which has necessitated the taking up of the bridge near the paper mills, just entering the town, motorists going to Richmond are forced to make the turn at the Ross farm on the Brompton Road and to use the left side of the St. Francis River.

START OILING PROGRAMME ON QUEBEC ROADS

Fifty Firms Tender on Work Required for Improving Dust Conditions in Twenty Villages.

QUEBEC, June 21.—The population of twenty villages in the Province of Quebec will enjoy the coming summer more than last, due to the decision arrived at by the Department of Roads to spread bituminous oil on the roads in these villages.

Tenders received came from fifty firms and the contracts will not be awarded for a few days or perhaps not until the first week of July.

"Twenty villages will no longer have to suffer from the dust coming from the automobile traffic," stated J. L. Boulanger, Deputy Minister, in making the announcement, "and our plans are to carry on that policy in other villages according to the money available."

Colonel Boulanger added that while this would be an improvement general for the residents of villages, and for motorists, another effect would be to prevent the gathering along the highways from losing much of their beauty and help the surroundings of the homes, which in villages were nearer the highways.

"While we are proceeding with the oiling process, stated Colonel Boulanger, "we have not given up efforts to try to have homes present a better appearance by the process of painting them with hydrate lime, which is distributed free by the department. Last year there were 2,000,000 pounds of lime distributed and this year, judging by the demands so far received, it is expected that this will be exceeded."

As a result, one going around the country can already notice a big change in the general aspect. While in the past houses, which were far from being clean in appearance were numerous, it will not be long before such places will be very scarce.

VOTERS WHO VOTE. Mount Royal riding in the City of Montreal is where they had the "Tories" hived, but instead of this one constituency which gave R. S. White a generous majority of around ten thousand, his opponent losing his deposit, the Liberals express fear of the loss of seven seats on the Island of Montreal.

At the next redistribution of seats which will occur in 1934, the representatives of the cities will try to make for a unit of representation rather than one governed by ancient geographical boundaries.

In Mount Royal there are 50,000 names on the voters' lists, whereas in most rural constituencies the average is less than half that number. The urban voter asks why he should be rated as half a man when measured by rural comparisons.

The apex of the unfair distribution is reached in Mount Royal and Jacques Cartier, two Montreal constituencies which are largely English. But even in Sherbrooke City and County our recorded votes count only as one-half the weight of a county vote on the north shore of the River St. Lawrence.

Jacques Cartier, with 44,197 voters on the list, recorded 35,357 votes in 1929. L'Islet, with 8,081 voters on the list recorded 6,414 in the same year.

So that one rural vote was equal to seven urban votes. R. S. White, in Mount Royal with 50,000 names on the voters' list, all of whom are well-educated French and English citizens, will have but one vote in the House of Commons in the face of the member for Bellechasse, who has only 8,930 names on his voters' lists.

That is quite unfair. C. B. Howard in 1926 went to Ottawa representing 12,222 recorded votes, whilst A. Boucher for Yamaska had more influence at the Capital, and he represented but 6,582 recorded votes.

In Sherbrooke City and County in 1926 there were 17,227 names on the Federal voters' lists.

NEW BRUNSWICK ELECTIONS. Those who are more interested in the Federal elections now less than six weeks away will be trying to find comfort and solace in the result of the re-election of Premier Baxter and thirty of his followers in the Province of New Brunswick.

There were gains and losses on both sides, but the net result is a gain for the Liberals of six seats. The issue was fought on the adoption of government control of the sale of liquor, the Baxter administration having adopted the plan of the Quebec liquor laws, with some variations.

could talk and talk and talk themselves out of their jobs. But there is in Alberta another type of elector—the sturdy Farmer who just does not believe in perspiring all year to divide up with the fellow who flirts with work in the coquettish way of the tramp.

The United Farmers believed in farm representation by farmers, and elect farmers, but allow the city men to run their show at Edmonton. The old administration at Edmonton has been returned with few changes in the standing of the parties.

Hon. J. E. Brownlee, the Premier, is a Canadian and a lawyer. Hon. Richard Gavin Reid, the Provincial Treasurer, is a Scotchman and a farmer. Hon. F. Lymburn, Attorney-General, is a Scotchman and a lawyer.

Hon. Oran McPherson, Minister of Public Works, is a farmer from Kansas, U. S. A. Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, is an Englishman, and a live stock farmer. Hon. P. E. Baker, is a Canadian and a farmer.

Hon. V. W. Smith, Minister of Telephones, is a Canadian and a farmer. Mrs. Mary Parlyb, Minister without portfolio, is an Englishwoman from London, who has been active in women's political and educational work.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK. As one alderman very brightly remarked, "It's always very nice to feel that when the City Treasury faces an overdraft we can dig into the electric light surplus." And the taxpayers who pay this surplus to the electric light funds can grin and bear it, but they cannot afford to go to Miquelon and buy grins.

Hon. Richard Bennett, the leader of the Conservative party, has promised to visit Sherbrooke City and speak here towards the end of his campaign. He is now swinging around the circle, with a start of one week ahead of the Liberal Leader, who rested for a week before beginning his speaking tour of Canada. A week is a good start in a sixty day race.

If our City Aldermen would read the letters and listen to the statements of our subscribers they would settle right down now and settle the two great health questions: the new Balmer incinerator, and the new irrigation system. Both are the civic questions of the hour, and both must be settled in the broad daylight which will henceforth be the vogue around the City Hall.

Proportional representation experts are still toiling on the electoral returns in Alberta, and it will be several days before anything but estimated figures can be presented. There is a delightful uncertainty in freak voting of this sort. It opens the way to dividing, subtracting, and adding, and permits of vociferous disputes. But it does emphasize to finicky voter the idea that he can better settle the fate of the nation.

We can go on drinking our Magog water and have our garbage hatch germs between the fifteen-day intervals of collection whilst our joy jaunting aldermen drink of the glad waters of Miquelon. Let us settle this incinerator question at a public meeting, and cite our elected representatives to appear before a full jury of their peers and peeresses. Watching the little germs play leap frog will be as interesting as seeing the porpoise cut the waves in the St. Lawrence Gulf. There may not be enough money left to get the best incinerator yet devised for health and cleanliness—the one we must buy eventually. Why not now?

FRONT WINDOW MUSINGS. "The next war will be a contest between machines." Happy day! Machines can't write memoirs. At time we wonder if Mussolini ever heard of St. Helena and Doorn or Miquelon. She will be a social success if at eighteen she has learned to tell a homely man he looks distinguished. What a world! One bunch of rebels making salt, another making hooch, and the rest making whoopee.

The great man has one peculiarity. He never admires himself in the mirror when he climbs from the barber's chair. The Russians may like sad literature, but they don't portray assault, accidents and injustice in comic strips. And in the spring a young girl's fancy prompts the planting of vines to screen the porch swing. Gandhi says the only way to deal with force is by using no force. This is especially true of traffic cops. There's one thing about daughter's graduation. Dressing her as a bride won't be such a shock to Dad now.

PRESS COMMENT. SAFETY FIRST. It is the custom among certain African tribes to raise one hand "on resting a stranger. In Chicago, of course, it is best to raise both.—Saint John Telegraph-Journal. "SO THEY SAY." An American philosopher-journalist says trained newspaper reporters spend hours and days in running down rumor, sifting stories and arriving at facts. When the facts are printed there is always some one to say: "It's only a newspaper story." Folk seem to be getting into the bad habit of automatically discrediting the printed word. On the other hand, the most careless gossip peddler and dealer in scandal is sure of a ready and sympathetic ear. The story is repeated, and waxes fat by repetition. Everybody believes it. "They say" steals the stamp of truth, while "I read" languishes except among thinking, responsible citizens.—Brandon Sun.

STRANGE CASE WAS CURED BY FINE SURGERY

Air Cavity Found Where Heart Should Have Been—Wonderful Surgery Displayed.

EDMONTON, Alta., June 21.—Modern surgery is responsible for some remarkable cures. From one of the big Edmonton hospitals a little girl was recently discharged, who had been suffering from an unusual and painful complaint. The child's heart and chest organs had been completely pushed to the right side of her body. Where her heart should have been was a cavity, containing only air. She was completely cured when discharged.

A few weeks ago this little girl, aged nine, showed all the symptoms of a severe attack of bronchitis, and her complaint was thought to be a comparatively simple one—until her labored breathing and evident distress made it apparent that her ailment was serious. Frightened by the wild breathing of the child's heart, and her choking efforts to breathe, the mother consulted a doctor, and examination showed that the child's heart and entire chest organs had moved from their natural position to the right side of the body. Further examination satisfied doctors that there was a space below the correct position of the heart in which air had collected.

The pressure of the air forced the lungs closer together and moved the heart from the left to the right side of the body. Thus all the child's chest organs were congested on one side and on the other was a big cavity. The little heart, straining in its unnatural posture, beat rapidly and with every pulsation the frail form of the girl was shaken. The only thing that could relieve her of her pain, and to allow the straining organs to return to their natural positions, was to remove little by little, the air in the cavity.

Each day a tube was inserted in the child's chest, and a little of the air drawn out. For two weeks this was done, and by then the heart and lungs were in the centre of the body. After further treatment, and as more air was gradually drawn out, the organs returned to their former positions, and the breathing became normal.

The complaint from which this child suffered is known as pneumothorax. Few cases are on record, although two men were treated recently with the heart moved to the vicinity of the solar-plexus. Pneumothorax is caused by the pressure of the air "trapped," forcing the heart

GOLD HOLDINGS OF GOVERNMENT SHOW INCREASE

Over $67,000,000 of Yellow Metal Being Held in Vaults of Finance Department at End of May.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 20.—The total gold held by the minister of finance on May 31st, was $67,483,639. Of this amount, $64,948,339 as security held against Dominion notes in circulation, to the amount of $108,389,259. On January 31st last the total was up to $65,223,753 and at the end of April up to $66,682,103.

THE PREMIER A huge Zeppelin lost at the South Pole! On board it an intrepid band of explorers who believe there is no hope for their lives. And two of those explorers, one of them a young naval officer, the other the commander of the expedition, have in their hearts a feeling wholly out of keeping with their surroundings.

For the commander has a handsome young wife and he believes she is in love with the naval officer, his intimate friend. Food and fuel grow scarce. It is a grim battle of wits for the breath of life, and through the struggle this love triangle!

Such is the background of the story "The Lost Zeppelin", starring Conway Tearle, Virginia Valli and Ricardo Cortez, which is to be shown for the next four days, beginning tomorrow, at the Premier Theatre.

"Guilty" featuring John Holland, will be the second picture on this same program. Virginia Valli is starred as the leading lady.

The story is based on a fascinating and novel treatment of the circumstantial evidence theme. A southern senator is railroaded to prison on a false bribery charge. Ten years later he is released on parole. His daughter falls in love with the son of the judge who had been instrumental in convicting him.

When the judge refuses to consent to the marriage because of the senator's prison term, the old man decides to commit suicide so as not to stand in the way of his daughter's happiness. How the judge's son is accused and convicted of the murder of the old senator, even though the case against him is purely circumstantial, supply the rest of the action for the drama.

Billie Dove in "The Painted Angel", and Fay Marbe in "The Talk of Hollywood", will be the two feature pictures at the Premier Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next.

In "The Painted Angel" Miss Dove portrays a night club hostess in this colorful story of the Great White Way, and sings and dances for the first time in her screen career. Edmund Lowe plays opposite the star, and Millard Webb directed the picture, which was adapted from Fannie Hurst's story, "Give This Little Girl A Hand."

DIVORCE CASES WILL BE TRIED WITHOUT JURY

In the Main, English Rules Will Be Followed in Ontario—Judges of Opinion They Have No Power to Exclude Press.

TORONTO, Ont., June 21.—All divorce cases in Ontario will be tried in public without a jury. Such was the decision of the Supreme Court of Ontario after a lengthy conference yesterday when careful consideration was given to the whole matter. In the main, the English rules will be followed. One difference is that while one may petition for divorce in England, here it becomes necessary to issue a writ. Following the issuance of the writ must come a statement of claim and the affidavit of the parties swearing they believe the alleged facts to be true. More than that, the solicitor for the applicant for divorce must file an affidavit that he has investigated the allegations and believes there is no collusion. If there is collusion, under the rules passed yesterday, the solicitor is liable to be called upon to explain why he swore there was no collusion when in fact there was.

There will not be any judgment by default. The defendant will have a limited time, probably ten days, in which to file a defence. Defendant will have to make an affidavit, but the defendant's solicitor will not require to do so. Nothing was said about the presence of the press at the hearing of applications because the judges were of the opinion they had no power of exclusion. The Attorney-General for the time being, takes the place of the Proctor-General of England, and may attend the examination for discovery and the trial. It is presumed this will mean the creation of a new office in the Ontario Government. Under the rules an action for damages must go to a jury and therefore will have to be tried separately from the divorce action. All present actions—those in which writs have already been filed—were stayed until the rules promulgated from Osgoode Hall have been complied with. TORONTO, June 21.—Malcolm Stobie, Charles J. Forlong and Gordon Draper, members of the brokerage firm of Stobie-Forlong, were committed for trial yesterday by Magistrate Jones on five charges of fraud and theft. NAPLES, ITALY, July 21.—Fire caused by short circuit in electrical wiring did some damage on the first floor of the Royal Palace here today in the King's suite. It spread to the second floor of the Palace before it was extinguished.

TRADING DULL THIS MORNING AT MONTREAL

Trend of Values Was Downward, But Majority of Changes Were of a Fractional Nature.

MONTREAL, June 21.—Dullness was the chief characteristic of the first half hour's trading on the Montreal Stock Exchange this morning. The trend of values was downward, but the majority of changes were of a fractional nature. International Nickel came in for considerable selling in the early trading. This selling was off 1 1/4 points at 22 3/4. Brazilian was off 3/4 at 38 1/2. The power stocks were also soft. Quebec Power was off 1/4 at 53 and Shawinigan eased a like figure at 63 1/2.

HEAVY SELLING BROKE OUT AGAIN TODAY AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, June 21.—Share prices again gave way before heavy selling this morning. The market, Radio dropped 1 point and U. S. Steel 2 points, with transactions of 10,000 and 8,000 shares. American Telephone and Allied Chemical opened off 3, Westinghouse Electric 3 1/2, American T. & B. and Vanadium 4 points and Columbia Carbon 4 1/2. Missouri-Kansas-Texas, Pennsylvania and American and Foreign Power, however, moved upward 1/2 to 3/4.

PROFESSIONALS IN CONTROL YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, June 21.—The New York Advisory Service says: The confusing and rather jerky movements, which were witnessed throughout the major part of Friday's session reflected its wholly professional nature. In and out trading operations by floor brokers, coupled with a drive on wheat prices, has resulted in another attempt on the general market structure by the various bearish cliques.

ANALYZING THE MARKET AT THIS PARTICULAR POINT

It must be conceded that a little higher wheat market prices would be concomitant with a district revival in security prices. There is a point where further depression in the price of commodity would have little or no sympathetic effect on the price of stocks. It is our feeling this point is slowly materializing and that the next few trading sessions should be utilized for the completion of accumulation programmes in the leading stocks.

The technical strength of the list at this time is far greater than surface indications imply. Banking interests, who have absorbed a great deal of stock in recent sessions, now have the added support of investment trusts and the largest insurance buyer of American securities. The securities purchased for these accounts, does not at present levels represent purchases for trading purposes, but do represent outright purchases of those in a position to know of, and have confidence in the future of American industrial securities. Over the past few days, this reduction in the floating supply of the leading issues has been a thorn in the side of those attempting to press their advantage to limits out of all reason. It is our opinion that further attempts will be more aggressively resisted and we look for a turning movement of major proportions to develop.

DENIES CHARGE MADE BY CHIEF OF OPPOSITION

(Continued from Page One) times he represented the people of this country in the legislature or in parliament? In repudiating the Conservative leader's statement made at Regina that the budget was his and not Hon. J. Dunning's, Mr. Moore said, "the Minister of Finance was the master mind behind it. The Tariff Board does not make tariff schedules, but simply submits its findings and investigations to the Department of Finance." Mr. Bennett the speaker, claimed, was trying to draw the Tariff Board into politics.

Referring to the budget, Mr. Moore said Canada had long outgrown the national policy which had never brought prosperity to the Dominion, "not even when the Conservatives were in power."

In accepting the nomination for the Ontario riding, the former Tariff Board chairman said he was free to accept it, "Last Tuesday I gave to the Prime Minister of Canada my resignation and that resignation was accepted," he said. W. E. N. Sinclair, K.C., Ontario Liberal leader, moved the nomination of Moore amidst much enthusiasm.

OLDEST PENSIONER OF GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY DEAD

MONTREAL, June 21.—Probably the oldest pensioner of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, Arthur Owen Radford Huddell is dead here at the age of ninety-three. He was a veteran of the Fenian Raids, an officer of the Victoria Rifles and of the Grand Trunk Brigade. Mr. Huddell was born in Montreal on August 8th, 1838. He served fifty-one years and five months in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway.

CANNON MAY BE CANDIDATE IN QUEBEC COUNTY

In Case Mayor Lavigneur Decides Not to Run, Solicitor-General Would Take Candidature.

QUEBEC, June 21.—A rumor, which is gaining ground and is not denied by Liberal headquarters here, has it that Hon. Lucien Cannon, Solicitor General, may run in Quebec county. This report would mean that the Solicitor General, who has represented Dorchester county, would accept to run in that division in the event of Col. Lavigneur, mayor of Quebec, who has manifested his intention of not running any longer, persists in his stand. It is understood that a delegation has arranged to wait on Mr. Cannon and that most likely developments will occur within the next few days.

With Maurice Brasset, K.C., having been chosen in Gaspé, as Liberal standard bearer, there remain only three more Liberal conventions to be held in the district of Quebec. The first will be held on the 23rd at which Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and Hon. Lucien Cannon will be present; Champlain also on the same date, which will be attended by Senator Paradis and Quebec West most likely on the 25th.

In the latter division, while the choice has not yet been made, two names are to be submitted, that of Charles Parent, brother of Senator Parent, who represented that division formerly, and Gerald L. Desrochers, who is president of a Liberal organization in that division. In Portneuf three names will be placed before the delegates: Bona Dussault, of Cap Sante; Dr. Marcotte, of Port Keegan and Dr. Desrochers, of Portneuf.

Two meetings have been called at which Hon. Ernest Lapointe and Hon. Lucien Cannon will speak. The first will be held on the 29th and the other at Scott, where Hon. Mr. Cannon will address his former electors.

There will be a convention in Champlain, but it is a mere formality, as Dr. Desaulniers, former member, will be the choice. The tradition in that constituency is to hold a convention so as to allow the member to thank his electors.

NOMINATION APPROVED OF NEW MINISTER TO CANADA

Democrat Senators Rise to Defence of MacNider Following Attack by Senator Brookhart.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Senate yesterday without a recorded vote, confirmed the nomination of Hanford L. MacNider, of Iowa, as Minister to Canada.

This action was taken after Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa, had charged he had seen MacNider lead "drunken revels" at American Legion conventions and that he was the "worst enemy the soldiers of the world have had." Senator MacNider, Democrat, Iowa, immediately challenged Brookhart's statements. He said that when Brookhart implied MacNider was a "drunkard" he did not know "what he was talking about."

MACKMEN TOOK A FIRMER GRIP ON TOP RUNG

Champions Registered Another Victory Over Cleveland to Gain a Full Game on Their Closest Rivals.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The recent trades among the clubs of the American League seem to have been a series of wise ones on the part of the various managers involved. Every team that acquired new material in these deals is giving an appearance of new life, and the pennant race, already too close for the comfort of the leaders, bids fair to become closer.

The St. Louis Browns, whose batting average has been down so far it was almost out of sight, certainly have been benefited by the acquisition of "Goose" Goslin. The "Goose," who was doing practically nothing for Washington, has cut loose with his bat, hitting three home runs since he joined the Browns. Yesterday's home run aided considerably in the Browns' four to three victory over the Boston Red Sox. Sam Gray did the rest by holding Boston to five hits.

Washington's new acquisitions didn't get much chance to hit yesterday as the Senators were locked in a pitching duel with the Chicago White Sox, but Art Shires and Heinie Manush already have started clouting. With Ted Lyons on the mound and Ben Tate providing capable catching at last, the Sox nosed out a two to one triumph.

George Kestling, formerly of Detroit, did not get a chance to hit the New York Yankees from losing to his former mates after he replaced Lyn Larry, who went out in the third inning with a broken thumb, but his first and second hits of the season were not enough to beat the Tiger clouting. Detroit started by scoring five runs in the first inning and won the game by an eleven to six count.

The Philadelphia Athletics took advantage of the lapses by two of their leading rivals and made their place at the head of the American League standing somewhat safer by defeating a third, the Cleveland Indians, by eight to nothing, increasing their margin of leadership over New York and Washington to two and a half games. George Larnshaw pitched a great game to give the Indians their first shutout of the year and their sixth straight defeat. He allowed but five hits and struck out eight.

While the gap between first and second places in the junior circuit was widening, Brooklyn and Chicago, first and second in the National League, were drawing closer together.

Brooklyn's Robins gave away a close encounter to the Cincinnati Reds, two to one, while the Cubs were knocking out a seven to three victory over the Boston Braves to place themselves only one and a half games behind.

Two Robin errors in succession, combined with two hits, gave Larry Benton of Cincinnati, the decision over Dazzy Vance in a tight game. Benton gave the league leaders only five hits. The Cubs again scored early as Cuyler and English repeated Thursday's home run hitting act, and Wally Berger's two four-baggers only served to give him the National League lead with a total of twenty.

Pittsburgh kept the New York Giants from gaining ground by staging a sixth inning uprising that netted six runs and an eight to four victory. A homer by Adam Czeromsky started this scoring spree.

The St. Louis Cardinals batted and bickered their way to a seven to five victory over Philadelphia.

With a full complement of regular infielders on duty, the Cards played better ball than they have for some time, but Manager Gabby Street and Infielder Ray Blades argued their way out of the park trying to produce better results.

JONES TODAY IS HOLDER OF THREE TITLES

Georgian Is First Player to Hold Both British Open and Amateur Since John Ball Accomplished Feat in 1890.

HOYLAKE, Eng., June 21.—Bobby Jones today is the holder of three golf championship titles, namely the United States open, British open and British amateur. Incidentally he is the first golfer to hold the British amateur and open championships since John Ball accomplished the feat in 1890.

The Georgian won in spite of two shaky rounds yesterday. He took seventy-four strokes in the third round, when he carded a six, and seventy-five in the afternoon when he had a seven on his card. His first two rounds of seventy and seventy-two pulled him through.

Diegel, P. G. A. champion of the United States made a great bid, but finished two strokes behind Jones, taking seventy-five for the third round, the same score Bobby returned.

Compton finished with a score of 277, taking an eighty-two on the last round.

The leading scores were: Bobby Jones, United States, 291; Leo Diegel, Mexico, 293; Archie Compton, Great Britain 297; James Barnes, United States, 297.

BOXING

STRIBLING KNOCKED OUT VON PORAT

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—The angular figure of Otto Von Porat, Norway's heavyweight contender, today was out of the championship scheme—propelled there by the left fist of William Stribling, of Georgia, United States. Two minutes and fifty second after they crawled into the ring at the Chicago Stadium last night, Von Porat, the paralyzer, was stretched paralyzed on the floor, by the same left hand that caused Stribling to ask postponement of the battle.

The ex-schoolboy from Macon, Ga., fighting in a fashion that amazed a throng of around 21,000 persons, carried Von Porat off his feet from the start.

FOOTBALL

ENGLAND WON FIRST TEST MATCH FROM NEW ZEALAND

DUNEDIN, New Zealand, June 21.—England won the first rugby football test match with New Zealand today by six points to three. The English team attacked vigorously in the first half. Reeves scored an unconverted try to give the visitors a lead of three points to nothing. New Zealand equalized the score with an unconverted try through Hart soon after resumption. In the last minute Ivor Jones bolted away from England's twenty yards line, headed off New Zealand tacklers, drew out their back, Nepia, and passed to Morely, who went over for a try, which could not be converted.

MAKING PLANS FOR GOLF CLUB AT RICHMOND

Special Committee Successful in Leasing Desirable Property—Many Citizens Signing Memberships.

RICHMOND, Que., June 21.—On Wednesday evening a second meeting was held in the municipal offices of citizens interested in organizing a local golf club. Mr. John McKernin presided and Mr. MacLeod Ross acted as secretary. There was quite a large and enthusiastic number of citizens present.

The secretary read a number of letters he had received in answer to inquiries from the secretaries of other clubs, giving valuable information and suggestions as to how to proceed towards the object in view.

At the previous meeting, a committee had been appointed to look over available properties suitable for a golf course. This committee through Mr. K. G. Nourse, reported that they had inspected three different properties, any one of which was suitable for the purpose. However, they recommended the Lane property in Melbourn, which had been recently purchased by Mr. E. Odell as being the most preferable.

Mr. Odell has been interviewed and has expressed his willingness to dispose of either the entire property or a part of it, or to lease a part for a term of years, with an option to purchase at the end of the lease.

After the report had been received, it was decided to form a club to be known as the Bellevue Golf Club and to continue negotiations for leasing the property. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Linahan, Beiber, Nourse and McKernin, was appointed to negotiate on behalf of the club.

Membership fees were placed at ten dollars a season for gentlemen; fifteen for husband and wife, and $7.50 for single ladies or for ladies whose husbands are not members.

A committee was appointed to canvass for members, consisting of Messrs. Shelley, Hibbard, Lambert, Atkinson, Annis and Brown.

On Thursday afternoon, the committee met Mr. Odell and succeeded in leasing his property for a term of years. Mr. Shelley reported on the same evening that the canvassing committee had already secured over sixty members.

It is the intention of the club to have the course put into condition at once and it is expected that it will be opened for use by the end of August.

MAGOG BOARD OF TRADE SPONSOR ENTERTAINMENT

MAGOG, Que., June 21.—A very enjoyable evening was held on Tuesday at the basement hall of the St. Patrick's Church under the auspices of the Board of Trade. The programme consisted of two comedies given by the amateurs of Magog and a great deal of excellent talent was manifested. The star performer was Mr. R. H. Duhamel, of Quebec, who was responsible in a large measure for the splendid performance. The Lanahan orchestra furnished music and E. Durprent sang a couple of songs. The hall was crowded and on the arrival of the parish priest, Canon Brassard, the audience could not withhold a hearty handclap. This was as a recognition of the Father's courage in coming out after his illness.

The first comedy was a short play entitled "La Lettre Chargee" (A Registered Letter) in which there were Miss M. L. Berque, as Hortense, a widow; Miss T. Archambeault, as Francine, a chambermaid; Mr. R. H. Duhamel, as Fougasson, an American and Mr. E. Gerin, as Hector de Courville, a substitute. The interest of the play centred around Hortense the young widow, and the American, who had he thought been a widower for eight days and sought to show her affections on the handsome widow. She was not in a receptive frame of mind and failed to fall a victim to Betsy's husband. Fougasson was very lavish with his love making, even daring to bring Francine into the meshes of his amours.

Fougasson is shortly made aware that Betsy was not dead and hastens back to America to be with her once more after believing a hideous hoax.

The second comedy was more pretentious and was listed "Ruses Etudientes" (Students' Tricks). Dr. Duhamel as Launcelot acted a very difficult role in a really artistic manner. This is not to detract one whit from the acting of the others, all of whom covered themselves with glory. Launcelot was a wealthy retired merchant and fell a victim to the machinations of two nephews and other pals, who concocted a scheme to take uncle on an ocean trip. This was to be in imagination, so Laurent a young medical student drove him around town all night and landed in the same room at morn, the uncle believing himself

TO BE ON THE ROLLING DEEP

A cleverly fixed painting presented the ocean to the merchant and the sea air quickly put him feeling better.

Finally the uncle learns the trick and he is let out of the room and into his same dear old Paris. The play provoked continually roars of laughter and was enjoyed by everybody. The other actors were Dr. O. Dionne, a painter, who was most natural; Messrs. A. Robert, a lieutenant on the ship; E. Gerin, as Laurent, a medical student; Paul Beigue, Saladin, a domestic; A. Allaire, as Alcibiade, a sailor of really good type; L. Desève, a dealer in paints. The practising had been done under Dr. Guertin and he is deservedly receiving high encomiums of praise for the performance, together with all the others who took part.

General Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Percy and daughter, Miss Carla Percy, are away on a motor trip around the Gaspé Peninsula, via New Carlisle.

The municipal authorities are making good progress on the streets and sidewalks. Despite the torrential rains of the past week. Much needed repairs have been made to broken concrete corners and so forth.

Mr. Arnold Buzzell, one of the enthusiastic baseballers had the misfortune on Sunday last to break the end of the bone of his elbow, caused from pitching a ball, and received an injury that will lay him up for a couple of months.

The Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A. football team played Magog in Magog, which resulted in a score of four to three in favor of Y.M.C.A. This game was a splendid one and was watched by a good crowd of spec-
