(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 5.—The capture of the villages of Ronssoy and Basse-Boulogne, in the sector northeast of Peronne, is announced by the war office.

FRENCH CLOSE IN ON GERMAN LINES.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

PARIS, April 5 (noon).—French reconnoitering parties advanced last night north of Gauchy and Moy, in the region south of St. Quentin until they reached the German lines, which they found to be occupied strongly, the war office reports. Artillery fighting is in progress over the front between Laffaux and Margival.

A German attack northwest of Rheims was repulsed.

FRENCH OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

The official statement follows: "Between the Somme and the Oise the enemy undertook no counter action against the new front which we occupied yesterday. During the night our reconnoitering parties advanced north of Mauchy and north of Moy as far as the enemy lines, which they found to be occupied strongly.

"Intermittent cannonading occurred east and west of the Somme yesterday and last evening. The fire of our batteries checked quickly a counter attack which was under preparation by the Germans on the front between Laffaux and Margival. Artillery fighting continues in this sector.

"Northwest of Rheims the Germans made an attack without success on our lines between Sapigneul and the Godat farms. Some German detachments were able to gain a footing in our advanced position, but were driven out at once by a counter-attack.

"In Alsace we caught under our fire and dispersed a German group in the region of Ammersweiler. Elsewhere the night was calm."

BRITISH OFFICIAL STATEMENT

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 5.—The British official announcement follows: "We captured the villages of Ronssoy and Basse-Boulogne after sharp fighting, in which we took 22 prisoners and three machine guns. The retreating enemy was caught in his own wire entanglements and suffered heavily under our machine gun fire.

"East and northeast of Metz-En-Couture our troops continued to make progress in the face of considerable resistance, and reached the western and southwestern edges of Gouze Aconourt wood and Havrincourt wood. We captured here a further 60 prisoners, two trench mortars and five machine guns."

SHELLING OF RHEIMS GROWS IN INTENSITY

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

PARIS, April 5.—A Havas despatch from Rheims says the shelling of the city continues each day and is growing in intensity. One day this week 2,834 were thrown into the town.

FRENCH MAKE GAIN ALONG A SIX MILE FRONT

LONDON, April 5.—Along a six-mile front southeast and south of St. Quentin the French have made another notable gain over the Germans while northwest of the town the British have captured the village of Metz-en-Couture and thereby gained an additional step in their plan to push forward on the northern flank of St. Quentin. The French captured the village of Metz-en-Couture. The French gain was a dominating position running from Grugies, about two miles south of St. Quentin, through Urville to Moy, which lies

MITCHELL-WAGNER CONTROVERSY TERMINATES

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

ALBANY, N.Y., April 5.—Adoption by the Senate of resolutions expressing confidence in the loyalty and patriotism of Democratic leader Robert F. Wagner of the Senate, and containing no word of censure for Mayor John F. Mitchell, of New York, brought the Mitchell-Wagner controversy over Rockaway Fort site inquiry to a sudden termination early today. The endorsement of Senator Wagner was unanimous. The resolution ending the inquiry was adopted by a vote of 39 to 13 in which party lines were not adhered to.

MINE SWEEPER SUNK; 24 MEN MISSING

GENERAL FOCH DETACHED FROM ACTIVE DUTY

Hero of the Battle of the Marne Enjoyed Brilliant Reputation as a Strategist.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

PARIS, April 5.—General Ferdinand Foch, the hero of the Battle of the Marne, has been detached from active service. A list of promotions issued today contains a brief announcement to this effect. It is not known whether General Foch has been assigned to some special political or military mission, or whether he has been definitely placed on the reserve through ill-health and as having reached the age limit. He is succeeded as general of division by General Laboria, formerly chief of brigade.

Another well-known leader who has been withdrawn from active service is General of Division Eydoux, military governor of Dunkirk and former head of a military mission which reorganized the Greek Army in 1913. Five generals of brigade are retired, their places being taken by colonels who distinguished themselves in recent operations and who are given temporary rank of generals. General Lyautey, former Minister of War, is reappointed resident general in Morocco, the post he held prior to joining the Briand ministry.

FOCH ENJOYED BRILLIANT REPUTATION.

General Foch is 66 years of age and has enjoyed a brilliant reputation as one of the foremost strategists in the French Army. He is a Basque by origin, and spent his early years in Metz. After the war of 1870 he went to Paris and devoted himself to preparing for the next struggle with Germany, which he confidently predicted would open with another lightning drive by the Germans against Paris.

FORCED FOE TO RETREAT.

At the Battle of the Marne, General Foch held the centre of the French line with 120,000 men. He was opposed by 200,000 Germans, including the famous Prussian Guards. When both his wings were being driven back, General Foch launched a terrific attack against the German centre, which was completely successful, and forced the entire German line into a general retreat.

During his men through a gap incautiously exposed by his retiring foe, General Foch delivered the decisive blow of the tremendous conflict. Subsequently he was given command of a group of armies and promoted Grand Officer in the Legion of Honor. King George of England conferred on him the Order of the Bath, First Class.

SIX HOSPITAL SHIPS SUNK BY CENTRAL POWERS.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 5.—Six hospital ships have been torpedoed or mined by the Central Powers since the beginning of the war. Thos. J. Mc-Namara, financial secretary of the admiralty, stated in the House of Commons today. In consequence, he added, 247 lives had been lost and 73 persons injured.

BELGIAN RELIEF STEAMER SUNK

Attacked By Submarine Without Warning. Crew Shelled While in Boats.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 5.—The Belgian steamer Trier from New York, with Belgian relief supplies, was torpedoed without warning on Wednesday.

While the boats of the Trier were being lowered the submarine fired on them, severely wounding the captain, the mate, the engineer, a donkeyman and a cook. The Trier sailed from New York on March 5th for Rotterdam, and was reported arriving at Halifax, en route, on March 8th. She was a vessel of 3,001 tons gross.

24 OF CREW LANDED IN HOLLAND.

News of the torpedoing of the Trier came in a Reuter despatch from Ymuiden. The torpedoing by a German submarine, the message adds, occurred off Scheveningen, Holland. Twenty-four members of the crew of which eight are wounded, have been brought to Ymuiden.

EXPECT AMERICA TO SEND FORCE TO THE FRONT

Leaders in British Army Believe U.S. Will Want to Be Represented With Allied Armies.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, April 5.—(From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press)—There is much speculation in the British Army as to what assistance, in a military sense, the United States might render the Allies. Regardless of what theorists may say, practical fighting men here believe the United States would want to have representation with the Allied armies on this front and would send over a considerable fighting force within six months, provided the war lasts that long. One basis for this belief is that both Germany and Great Britain are fighting with new armies. Britain because she did not have an army in the European sense before the war began, and Germany because her forces are largely made up of classes called to the colors since 1914, a large proportion having had only five months' training. It is generally figured now that a good soldier can be made within six months. The organization behind the fighting force must be built up by genius, but it is thought here that America can easily meet that emergency.

It is also argued in Army circles that the Americans might well specialize in such branches as aviation and machine gun detachments. The airplanes would have, however, to come up to a high standard and must make at least 150 miles an hour to take rank with the British and French machines. One definite thing expected is that the United States will undoubtedly increase manifold the hospital and medical assistance which she is already voluntarily rendering the Allies.

MORE LIQUOR RESTRICTIONS IN ONTARIO

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

They provide that the license committee shall have power to prohibit, restrict and regulate the solicitation of orders for liquor within the province, that municipalities shall be empowered to grant to standard hotels the exclusive right to sell temperance beer and other temperance beverages, the subsection not to become operative until authorized by order in council, and a moratorium applicable to contracts in connection with hotels, breweries and distilleries originating previous to April 27th, 1916, the section to have effect during the war and for nine months afterwards, unless in the meantime a session of the Legislature is held when this act shall cease to have effect at the expiration of thirty days from the date of such session. It was also provided that the remission of a fine for a breach of the act shall cancel the conviction.

BITTER ATTACK ON WILSON BY GERMAN PRESS

Repudiate the Distinction He Drew Between People and Their Government.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

BERLIN, April 4 via London, April 5.—Bitter personal attacks on President Wilson, and the repudiation of the distinction he drew between the German people and their government, feature the comment of German newspapers on the President's message to Congress.

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "America must know that the assurance of President Wilson that the war is directed not against the German people, but the German government, cannot detract from the anger which has fostered during the whole war has fanned into a bright flame. For this assurance is untrue and dishonest as all the rest of the document from the first word to the last. Mr. Wilson knows that no war in all history was no little dynastic, and none so much a war of a whole people fighting for existence, as this one which was forced on Germany by a circle of enemies in all parts of the world, whose hate was borne of envy."

BRAZIL WOULD BE WELCOMED BY THE ALLIES

British Naval Circles Consider Her as Most Important Neutral After America.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 5.—British naval circles would welcome Brazil as an ally of the Entente considering her the most important neutral after America for the Entente cause. Her excellent harbors for operations in South American waters where German raiders have more opportunity than anywhere else for interfering with food supplies for Europe. At present the Allies warships have to contend with difficulties of coaling at sea. Cuba is also considered important as affording submarine bases. According to information here, the Germans are flocking to Mexico from South America, having taken with them a considerable quantity of arms and ammunitions.

PRESS OF BRAZIL APPROVE OF ACTION OF UNITED STATES

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Several leading journals called upon the South and Central American republics to align themselves on the side of the Allies.

CANNOT GET BACK INTO DOMINION

People Who Left Canada For Fear of Conscription Are Now in Dilemma.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

OTTAWA, April 5.—(Montreal Star special)—The entry of the United States to the war and the strongly intimated probability of compulsory military service there is having a curious and somewhat humorous effect. The war had no sooner got under way in Canada than an exodus to the States started from certain quarters. Conscription was feared. Some of the same people are now attempting to come back for the reason that in the new land of their adoption compulsory service seems more imminent than in Canada. Heading for Montreal a number were stopped today. The people who are thus attempting to evade their responsibility are not native-born Canadians. Immigration inspectors are applying the law and holding up their entry to Canada with the probability of their being kept out altogether.

DECISION OF CONGRESS ON WAR RESOLUTION EXPECTED TO BE REACHED TONIGHT

Senate Adopted Measure By a Vote of 62 to 6. Passage Was Marked by Scenes of Unusual Gravity and Quiet.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Debate on the war resolution began in the House promptly at ten o'clock this morning with Chairman Flood of the foreign affairs committee, making the opening statement.

Passage of the resolution, which will complete the action of Congress in declaring that a state of war exists between Germany and the United States, is expected before night by heavy majority comparable with that which attended its passage last night in the Senate.

Far in the rear of the hall sat representative Cooper of Wisconsin, ranking Republican member of the foreign affairs of the committee who was expected to lead the opposition. Less than a dozen members, it was predicted, would vote against the war resolution.

Galleries were only half filled when the debate began less than half of the members were present when the session opened.

Under the unanimous consent rule by which the resolution was being considered, Representative Flood could move the previous question at any time after one hour and, if sustained, bring the measure to a vote. He was disposed, however, to give members every opportunity to speak throughout the day. The debate began without any limitation.

DEMONSTRATION TO MARK ENTRY OF U.S. INTO WAR

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

PARIS, April 5.—A great national demonstration to mark the entry of the United States into the war was proposed yesterday to the French Government. It was suggested that the demonstration should be of a popular character in order to enable all the French people to participate in it.

MEGANTIC CO. HAPPENINGS

Budget of News From Various Sections of County.

KENNEBEC ROAD

Last week has settled the snow very much, so that the fields are getting bare, and where there is a depth of snow it settled about three feet. The roads are beginning to get bare in places; it is said the wheels are running in St. George village, and shortly will likely be in general use. For several days the water has covered the ice on the Du Loup, but it has not broken up yet. Mr. Ray is hauling the timber for the boat keels to the Portin mill on the Metzermette to be sawed, which indicates that there is water enough for sawing.

Mr. Joseph Quirion is home from the Maine woods beyond Jackman, and reports that there were seven feet of snow where he worked.

A jobber with his wife and family, cow, pig, sheep and camping outfit were seen, the other day, passing on their way home from the woods, where they spent most of the winter, having their home house closed up.

During last week Mrs. Robt. Lowryson was visiting her aged friend, Mrs. Cathcart of St. George, who has been so long here.

Miss Ross, teacher, and the Misses, Poyer from St. George village, and Mr. Lowryson, Jr., were here on Sabbath.

Mrs. Brown and daughter, and Mr. Edwin Poyer, are home from the Stanstead College for the Easter holidays. Mr. Poyer remained for a few days in Sherbrooke to visit friends there.

Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Richmond, president of the Rebeqah Assembly, paid an official visit to Maple Leaf Lodge on Monday evening. There was a good attendance of members. Mrs. Smith gave a very interesting and entertaining address on the good of the order. A singing-off was held at the close of the business.

REGRET DEPARTURE OF WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN.

Many of the people will be sorry to learn of the removal from Danville of Mr. J. A. Bayard from our midst. Mr. Bayard will leave here about the middle of the month to take up his residence in the city of Montreal, where he has been appointed an executor to an estate. During their stay here of about five years both Mr. and Mrs. Bayard have made many friends who, while regretting their removal, will wish them all kinds of success in their new home. Mr. Bayard will be succeeded in his profession as advocate by Mr. Brosean, of Montreal.

GOES TO QUEBEC.

Mr. J. H. Lindop, accountant at the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, left on Monday for Quebec, where he will act in a like capacity temporarily.

CONCERT BY UNITED CHOIRS.

A movement is on foot among the choirs of the different denominations to give a sacred concert in the Town Hall in the near future. The idea is that each of the choirs should supply three numbers to the programme, to consist of Easter music. This would enable the congregations of the different churches to hear the music of the others, and has a number of good choirs, and there is no reason why the movement should not be put through. It would afford a profitable and entertaining evening. A meeting of delegates from each choir will meet at Dr. Porter's office this (Thursday) evening to discuss the matter. A small admission will likely be charged, which would be devoted to Red Cross or other purposes.

HAPPENINGS AT DANVILLE VILLAGE

Resignation of Councillor Leet Accepted. Will Raise Nicolet Bridge.

DANVILLE, April 5.—(Special)—A meeting of the Council of the Municipality of Danville was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening. Mayor Guilmette presided. There were also present Councillors Cleveland, Boivin, Hannan, Leet and Roux. The usual accounts were passed and directed to be paid. The resignation of Councillor Leet was presented, and upon motion was accepted. The revision of the voters' list took place. There being no other business, the session was closed.

TOWNSHIP OF SHIPTON COUNCIL

The Council of the Township of Shipton met Monday in the secretary's office Monday afternoon. Mayor J. P. Wilson and Councillors Thomas Andrews, B. McKenna and Samuel Roux were also present. A motion was passed calling for tenders for the raising of the Nicolet River bridge. It is proposed to raise the bridge three feet. Abutments will have to be laid and the ground generally prepared. In former years, especially in the spring, there has been danger of the bridge going out owing to the breaking up of the ice and the extremely high water. It is to obviate this that the proposed repairs are to be made.

PREPARE FOR EASTER SERVICES.

All the churches in Danville will celebrate the Easter season with special music and appropriate sermons on Sunday next. For some time the different choirs have been hard at work practising for this great festival of the Christian Church.

DONATIONS TO RED CROSS.

In the donations to the Red Cross Society the name of Mr. Howard Stockwell should have been Mr. Howard Riddle. A donation of $1 from Mrs. Geo. Wilson was inadvertently omitted.

APPOINTED TO ACADEMY.

Miss L. M. Stalker, of Lachute, has been appointed to fill the vacancy on the teaching staff, caused by the resignation of Miss Miller, who has successfully conducted the teaching in Grades IV. and V. for several years in Danville Academy. While all regret the removal of Miss Miller from our midst, they will no doubt extend a welcome hand to the new teacher.

PRESIDENT PAID OFFICIAL VISIT.

Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Richmond, president of the Rebeqah Assembly, paid an official visit to Maple Leaf Lodge on Monday evening. There was a good attendance of members. Mrs. Smith gave a very interesting and entertaining address on the good of the order. A singing-off was held at the close of the business.

WALKED 30 MILES FOR MAIL.

During the last week or ten days the local rural mail carriers have experienced considerable difficulty in getting the mails to their respective routes; in fact it has been almost impossible for them to do so for several days. There is one case where a man came into a post office walking fifteen miles to get his mail and that of his neighbors, they not having received any for over a week. After a few minutes rest he started back, making a trip of thirty miles for the day over decidedly bad roads. Evidently this man would make a good soldier if marching counts for such. However, it is not much of a joke in case of sickness, funerals, etc., and it looks as if it would be a week or so before there will be much relief.

HIGH SCHOOL CLOSURES.

The Magog High School closed on Wednesday night of this week and will reopen on Wednesday, April 11.

BOY SCOUTS TO RESUME WORK.

There is a probability that the Boy Scouts will commence their regular meetings again in the near future. For some time past they have been without a Scout Master, since the time Scout Master J. Allen joined Kitchener's own. At this time they were well advanced in Scout lore, and compared well, not only with other Eastern Townships organizations, but with the city organizations as well. The boys, therefore, are looking forward with considerable anticipation to a renewal of scout work.

GOOD WORK OF MISSION BAND.

On Friday afternoon the members of the Mission Band, an organization of children in connection with the Methodist Church, held an afternoon tea, which proved to be an exceptionally successful affair, and one person present stated that the older generation would have to lay by their conceit, when they realized that this younger generation has already grasped the principals necessary for preparation, conducting, and managing social functions of this nature. As a result they realized the tiny little sum of $7.00. Their chief aim is not, however, the conducting of affairs of this nature but the study of missions in foreign lands so that they may realize what is being done by the churches towards bringing these lands into the Light.

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM MAGOG

Another Well Known Resident Passes Away. Man Walked 30 Miles For His Mail.

MAGOG, April 5.—(Special)—The news of the death of Mrs. N. Lepine at the hospital in Sherbrooke on Saturday evening last came as a shock and a surprise, as but few people realized or knew that she had been ill. It appears that she had not been enjoying good health and went down to Sherbrooke for treatment, where it was found necessary that she undergo a number of operations for a complication of troubles. It was at first thought that these had proved successful, but her system proved unable to withstand the shock and she passed away on Saturday night. The remains were brought to Magog on Sunday morning. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's.

DONATIONS TO RED CROSS.

In the donations to the Red Cross Society the name of Mr. Howard Stockwell should have been Mr. Howard Riddle. A donation of $1 from Mrs. Geo. Wilson was inadvertently omitted.

APPOINTED TO ACADEMY.

Miss L. M. Stalker, of Lachute, has been appointed to fill the vacancy on the teaching staff, caused by the resignation of Miss Miller, who has successfully conducted the teaching in Grades IV. and V. for several years in Danville Academy. While all regret the removal of Miss Miller from our midst, they will no doubt extend a welcome hand to the new teacher.

PRESIDENT PAID OFFICIAL VISIT.

Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Richmond, president of the Rebeqah Assembly, paid an official visit to Maple Leaf Lodge on Monday evening. There was a good attendance of members. Mrs. Smith gave a very interesting and entertaining address on the good of the order. A singing-off was held at the close of the business.

FINANCES OF TOWN OF COATICOOK

Estimate of Revenue and Expenditure. New Taxes Make Up For Liquor License Fees.

COATICOOK, April 5.—(Special)—The Coaticook Council has just made its estimate of revenue and expenditures for the present year, as follows: Estimates of revenue for year 1916-1917: cash in treasury, $1,191.12; real estate taxes, $12,376.37; rental taxes $1,830.90; professional taxes $128.00; trade taxes, $192.13; dog taxes, $72.00; licenses, $2,600.00; market, $500.00; rental income, $110.00; $24,787.54. Estimates of expenditure: assessors, $24.00; court house tax, $175.00; damages, $100.00; election expenses, $50.00; fire department, $1,500.00; fuel, $300.00; grant, band, $100.00; interest on debentures, $5,000.00; insane and reform, $200.00; insurance, including employer's liability, $400.00; jury fund, $12.00; light, $3,000.00; legal and costs, $300.00; poor, $800.00; police, $700.00; postage, printing and stationery, $200.00; roads, $4,000.00; sewers, $300.00; sanitary, $200.00; salaries, $650.00; town hall, $200.00; telephones, $77.00; reserve fund, $6,489.64; $24,787.54.

MAKE UP FOR LIQUOR LICENSES

There was some objection on the part of a few to doing away with the liquor licenses, on the ground that the Corporation was receiving $1,000 a year for confirmation of certificates. It is said that necessity is the mother of invention and the Council when faced with the necessity of providing this thousand dollars in some other way, devised the means through annual taxes imposed in the form of license on different trades, manufacturers and commercial establishments carried on or followed by persons or corporations in the municipality. For example, the telephone company must contribute $150, every bank $100, keepers of a billiard room must pay $75 for the first table, $50 for the second and $25 for each table after the second. All professional men must pay $8.00. If a butcher wishes to sell meat outside the market, he must pay $50. A trader must pay $10 for the privilege of selling fresh fish away from the market. Every firm or trade such as barbers, blacksmiths, plumbers, tailors, harness-makers, painters, etc., are taxed to the extent of $5.00. The garage men have to pay $25, as do also the agents for automobiles who maintain sales-rooms. If they have no sales-room, they pay only $10. Outside of the hotels, restaurants and billiard rooms, it costs a person $10 for the privilege of selling soft drinks. No person is allowed to carry on any one of the different kinds of business mentioned in the by-law without having first paid to the corporation the prescribed tax and obtained a license so to do. It happens quite often that the same individual pays a number of different taxes. He may pay as an owner, as a tenant and if he carries on two or three different lines of business which are mentioned in this by-law, he has to pay a tax for each of them. The tenants of the town get off comparatively easy regarding taxes. The charter of the town only allows a tax of 5 per cent, upon the amount of rent paid, so the ordinary amount paying $100 rent per year is only obliged to pay $5.00 into the town treasury.

SPECIAL EASTER SERVICES.

There will be special Easter sermons at the Methodist Church on Sunday next. The choir have also had special Easter music under preparation for some time past.

STANSTEAD COLLEGE CLOSED FOR EASTER

Orchestral Concert a Success. Former Student Dies in Turkish Prison Camp.

STANSTEAD, April 5.—(Special) — The Orchestral Concert given recently in Pierce Hall was the most ambitious effort made by the violin department for a good many years. Miss Gladie Smith, the conductor, is to be all the more highly commended upon its success because of the fact that most of the performers had been her own pupils for years and some had begun the study of the violin with her.

For the audience not the least pleasing feature of the evening was the charming and stirring way in which the conductor carried the music along. The work of the orchestra as a whole was very creditable, the violin section being particularly deserving of praise in the excellence of its attack and shading.

The music lovers in the hall seemed especially delighted with the Russian melody, "The Song of the Volga Boatmen." With the boys perhaps the most popular number was a medley consisting of the National Hymns of the Allies.

Miss Strachan was in excellent voice which was heard to good advantage in "Nymphs and Fauns." This was followed by an expressive little encore entitled "My Great Grandmother."

The violin soloists were Alfred La-Casse who greatly pleased the house with the old favorite, DeBrierot's "Scene de Ballet," and Lindsay Hovzura whose rendition of Drdla's Mazurka showed very marked development.

MID-WINTER RECITAL: Last Thursday night the pupils' mid winter recital was given. This is a most interesting event of the year since it provides some indication of the progress being made by the students.

Judged from this standpoint the recital must have been very gratifying to the College of Music. Such results could not have been obtained without the most patient training and skilful direction.

Perhaps the most striking piano number was the first movement from Beethoven's fifth symphony played as a concerto by Misses. May Collins, Florence Morey, Kathleen Thompson, and Evelyn Hammond. Miss Hammond also appeared in a brilliantly rendered piano solo in which she showed remarkable sympathy with the composer.

Miss Mary Dyer gave a number which was most pleasing in its easy flowing technique and its directness of style.

Both the vocal numbers showed intelligent training and real development of voice. Miss May Collins sang a pretty group of songs with greatly improved strength and quality. "The Lullabye" had an added interest since the words were composed by J. Clarke Reilly and set to music by Mr. Martin. Miss Hazel Wanless gave two delightful little songs in a voice which has greatly developed.

The two numbers from the expression department were pleasantly free from artificiality. Miss Florence Morey told the story of "Sombre" in a sane and sensible way with no unnecessary flourishes. Miss Cora Williamson gave a reading from Marjorie Crawford in a good voice and with considerable subdued dramatic power.

The programme closed with two choruses sung by the girls with delightful vivacity and precision.

STUDENTS LEAVE FOR HOLIDAYS: Last Friday morning a special train pulled out of Rock Island at six forty-five carrying a special Canadian Pacific car which was attached at Newport to the Montreal train. The car was brightly bedecked with Stanstead pennants and carried over fifty students who seemed glad enough to be off.

EXPECT SATISFACTORY REPORT: The quarterly meeting of the Executive Committee of the College will meet next Saturday afternoon when it is expected that a satisfactory report will be presented.

FORMER STUDENT DIES IN TURKISH CAMP: The death of Lieut. Forrest Mitchell in a Turkish prison camp, Forrest was a most popular boy here about twenty years ago. He served with distinction in the South African war and volunteered again in the fall of 1914. He was sent to Russia in charge of an armoured car and was among those who were held up in the ice outside the port of Archangel. He took part in the Russian expedition over the Caucasus and fell into the hands of the Turks last Spring. His father has received a letter written only six days before his reported death at that time. He seems to have been quite well.

HOSPITAL WELL PATRONIZED: The College Hospital has been well patronized of late. When the holidays began there were five patients but the last one was discharged Tuesday and now the lady superintendent hopes to have a rest. We have often had good reason to be grateful for the far-sighted wisdom of honorable C. O. Colby and those who helped him to provide this comfortable and useful building.

PASS WITH HONOURS: The following students have graduated with honours in the stenography course, Norma Holmes, Lillian Nason, Marie Hovey.

STANDING OF STUDENTS: The standing of the successful students in the Easter examinations is as follows: Grade XI.—Frances Perry, 89; E. Tilton, 87; Scott Goodnoh, 77; Dicker Stroud, 69; Lloyd Miller, 68; Lionel MacGlashan, 67.

Some years ago a party sank a small hole for water on their Australian farm, and struck a running stream at a depth of three feet. One evening a large eel came up in the bucket, and a light having been obtained, the workmen watched the hole. Fish in considerable numbers were constantly darting across the open hole, and subsequently several hundred eels were caught. Recently, Mr. D. Minogue, the present owner of the farm, sank a well about a mile away and found the stream at eight feet. At nighttime, if you have a light, you can see eels flashing by still going with the stream in the direction of the coast. Some of the fish weigh as much as six pounds.

Mrs. Walter Reed, the retiring president, took the chair. Much work had been accomplished along the various lines of the society during the year especially in the Red Cross, and although all the expenses of the latter had been defrayed, $400 remained on hand.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. E. White; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. Walter Reed; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. H. McFadden; Secretary, Mrs. Chas. Green; Treasurer, Mrs. Henry Downs.

Refreshments were then served, the hostess being assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Hugh McFadden, Miss Isabel Johnston and Mrs. John Watson.

IT'S UP TO YOU. We have been and joined the Army, And we're going to the front, To fight for the old Red, White and Blue. We've put on our suits of khaki, Got our knapsack and our gun, And the rest is very plainly up to you.

Chorus: While we're fighting for the Empire Neath the old Red, White and Blue, Giving up our lives for freedom, Don't forget it's up to you. To give and give and then give, It's a gift you'll never rue, While we're fighting you be giving, For it's plainly up to you.

We have left dear Dad and Mother, Wife and kiddies all so dear We have left our boyhood sweetheart and our fond and truest friend, Brothers, Sisters and our Chums, And the rest is very plainly up to you.

While we're fighting in the trenches, Facing death without a fear, And the rain and mud has soaked us through and through; Forget your cabarets and dances, Never mind your cats and rum, For you see it's very plainly up to you.

When we know our wives and kiddies You are keeping out of want, We will fight like hell and surely conquer too. So while we do our duty On a field "Somewhere in France" Just remember that it's plainly up to you.

ANZAC WILL-TO-DIE French Officer Amazed by Sight of British Front

A French officer who returned from the north says: "I am astounded with what I have seen of the admirable heroism of the British army. In the midst of the fight for Pozieres a dozen Australians were behind a wall shooting at the Germans, who from trenches less than twenty yards away were pouring in deadly volleys. "One of the Australians climbed on top of the ruined wall in full view of the enemy. He shot twice and was killed. Two others were no luckier, being killed or mortally wounded and falling at the feet of their comrades. Four others climbed up and were also shot. The eighth man was more lucky. For several minutes he continued firing at the Germans, and one after another fell. The Australian seemed to enjoy a charmed life. During the time the ninth Australian, who was getting uneasy and suddenly pulled his friend from the wall by the leg yelling as he did so at the top of his voice: 'Look here, Bill! Give us a chance!' He went up, but only to fall the next minute."

"OUR BOYS NOT AFRAID" "Boches Dirty Devils," Narrates a North Countryman

Experiences during and after an early morning advance on the Somme are described quaintly by a North Country private while he lay in hospital. He said: "It was just past their first line I got this one in me hand. A bit sore like, that was, more'n the arm; but not so very bad but what I got on all right till the third one got me here, and I fell in a shell hole near by the second line. The pity was, I could ha' used 'me bomba like; ay, I could from there, but I was afraid o' killin' our own lads. But Lance-Corporal —, he took 'em on from me, an' I lay a long while. Near along evening time I could see our stretcher-bearers comin' out behind, an' hoppin' back w' a wounded man when they could. But them Boches is dirty devils. They saw the stretchers, an' every time the bearers showed up by 'em, they turned a gun on 'em, an' they swep' the ground very low to kill off the wounded. They got all our stretcher-bearers that way, after a bit, just one after the other, as they tried to work. They've no decency like, they Germans. "So I just kind o' humped myself along, as ye might say. But they fired when they saw a move, an' then I got into a trench, an' they couldn't see me crawl. I came to where the dead lay blockin' the way, an' I didn't like to crawl on top of 'em. But I saw they was Hunns, an' outside, ye see, the bullets come pretty thick, so I crawled on 'em, till I found I was on one of our own lads. I couldn't crawl on them, an' I got out again, an' then I don't seem to mind much, after 'Twas after dark, I got in, an' the M.O. at the dressin' station he said, 'You're all right, lad, he said, like that, an' he give me a cigarette. Ay, an' a stretcher-bearer helped me out through the wood. I reckon 'twas their machine guns checked us, like. But them behind us got through with some of ours that was left. Our boys is all right, ye see, they're not afraid o' the Boche, not at all."

Breathing bad Air You cannot keep in good health if you breathe bad air either in your sleeping rooms, your living rooms or work room. Many persons who would be shocked at the thought of bathing in water that had been used by another, fill their lungs freely with air that is loaded with filth and disease from many persons in a public hall or conveyance, with no feeling of repugnance. There is far more danger in breathing bad air than in bathing the skin in soiled water.

MARRIAGES

BROWN—STEFFIN.
DANVILLE, April 5.—(Special)—The marriage of Mr. Carl J. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Brown, to Miss Henrietta A., third daughter of Mrs. G. Steffin, took place at the home of the bride, at Oxbow, Alta., on Tuesday, March 30. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Russell, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a few of the immediate family. The bride's travelling costume was of grey wool serge and messaline, with hat to match. After the ceremony the happy couple left for Danville, via Winnipeg, and are at present guests of the groom's parents. The bride is well and favorably known in Oxbow, having lived in the district all her life. The best wishes of the community are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Brown, coupled with the hope that their life may continue one of happiness and prosperity to the end.

LIFE OF A DROVER

Driving Cattle One Thousand Miles no Sinicure

To take a mob of a thousand fat steers over a thousand miles of all sorts of country, and bring them into market in prime condition, is a business involving a great deal of responsibility and care, for although cattle are generally traveled at the owner's risk, of course the drover's reputation depends upon the order in which his cattle reach the end of the journey. A good drover is always in requisition, and the wages of a head man in charge of a mob are generally about $20 a week. It is a dog's life, too, a drover's. From daylight to dark he is on horseback, exposed to all kinds of weather, crawling along behind his cattle at the slowest possible rate that is consistent with moving at all. If he averages between four and five miles a day on a long journey it is quite as fast as his cattle ought to travel. Every day the man in charge rides ahead of the mob to pick a place for them to camp at night. Water, of course, is a shu quo non, and he must have reliable information as to the state of the road for a hundred miles ahead of him, or he will get his cattle into a terrible fix. Every night the cattle have to be rounded up, and watched on the camp the whole night long. A drover never gets more than four hours' sleep at a stretch, and he is lucky if he can get that for the first month his cattle are on the road.—Farmer's Advocate.

AMUSEMENTS

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

A most engaging series of incidents sustained by a love interest that appeals because of its sincerity, a proper triangle of plot which is ingeniously unravelled and then as artfully untravelling a number of sharp dramatic climaxes and real thrills, and above all, a sustained, wholesome and refreshing quality of fun, combine to make "Charley's Aunt" the best farce of all time. The piece furnishes many mysterious and not a few melodramatic moments, that are all the more enjoyable because of the substantial quality of its story, in which additional appeal is furnished by the fact that its scenes have been enacted in every country on the Globe. Its revival at this particular time is a very opportune and patrons of His Majesty's Theatre are assured of some clean fun when it comes on the 13th of April.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

A WOMAN'S WAY.
Peggy couldn't have thought much of that fellow she married.
Why not?
She boasts that she has made another man of him.

POWERFUL.
"Did her voice fill the drawing room?"
"No; it filled the refreshment room and the conservatory."

IN DOUBT.
Was it a love match?
Looks like it, but you never can tell. One of them may have thought the other had money.

WELL TRAINED.
"Does your husband give you an allowance?"
"I should say not. He gives me his salary, and I give him an allowance."

ANGLER.
She (after a quarrel)—You were a struggling young man when I married you?
—THAT'S what you credit for landing me.

MAMMOTH WAR HISTORY

The Austrian Government has decided to prepare an official history of the war that shall embrace records of the part played therein by every town and village of the Empire. To gather the necessary information school teachers in every district have been directed to explain the sentiment of the community when war was first declared, the names of the men in their district who were called to the colors, those who subsequently were wounded or killed; conditions during the war, food supply, interesting incidents, war songs; stories told by soldiers who have returned from the front; sacrifices made by civilians, etc. After peace is declared these data will be published as a village or town history of the struggle, and the Minister of Education has arranged to compile all these local histories into one great story of the conflict. It is expected that the whole will result in thousands of volumes, giving as exhaustive a history as has ever been compiled.

AUTOMOBILE IN WAR

Great Britain Leads the Way in War Automobiles

Mr. Howard C. Felton contributes some interesting particulars about the automobile in the present war. In August, 1914, there were more motor cars of all sizes in use in England than in all the other warring nations combined. Germany and Austria together showed a census of about 115,000 cars of all kinds. France had in the neighborhood of 90,000, and Russia about 10,000. Great Britain had 250,000 in daily use. In 1913 France paid out nearly $750,000 in subsidies to the owners of motor trucks, and Austria about $600,000. Germany's outlay in that direction is not known. Like other military information, the figures were closely guarded. But to the owner of every car in Germany there was given a registered number, together with instructions to bring his vehicle to a certain point at the instant required.

REMOVING DIRT FROM AUTOS

Grease or oil is a hard thing to get off an automobile body, particularly if it has had a chance to dry. If necessary either gasoline or kerosene may be used to remove such deposits, but gasoline is the most advisable as it evaporates quickly, and therefore will not collect dust. Road tar that has not been allowed to dry can be removed by local applications of a mixture of lard or butter with a small quantity of salt. Take a small amount of it on the finger and rub it on the tar spot lightly so that there will be no scratching. This should loosen the tar and allow it to be washed off immediately.

Light's For Automobiles
When purchasing electric light bulbs for the automobile one should note with care the type of lamp needed. If the voltage system is high, the ordinary six-volt bulb will not prove serviceable. It will burn out very quickly. Lamps should be obtained of sufficiently high voltage to eliminate this possibility.

Travelers and others who carry typewriters on their journeys frequently find it inconvenient to use the tables provided because they are usually too high for typewriters. A method of overcoming this difficulty is to withdraw the drawer from the table and invert it in the slide shown. The typewriter may then be placed upon the bottom of the drawer and will be considerably lower than if placed upon the table top.—From Popular Mechanics.

Female Emigrants
As a result of the restrictions on the emigration of males of military age from the United Kingdom, the emigrant parties which now leave Dublin twice a week are largely composed of young women and children. They are setting out from that port at the rate of about one hundred a week, the majority bound for the United States. Many who hoped to settle down in the States are returning, denied admission for a variety of reasons.

OPINIONS OF WALL STREET

Tendency of Stock Market Indicate Serious Consideration of War Measures.
NEW YORK, April 5.—The reactionary tendencies of the stock market yesterday were substantially only the result of professional operations but they indicate the more serious consideration which is being given to the effects of the war measures expected to be taken by the government. As we have previously suggested the era of tremendous war profits from industrial operations is at an end, and is being more fully realized that the government both for its own requirements and on behalf of the Allies is planning to adopt far-reaching measures which will compel the provision of munitions, supplies and materials at close to actual cost. The passage of the War resolution by the Senate last night is expected to be followed by similar action by the House today and the various administrative departments will then make public their plans for the active mobilization of our resources. The average public has not yet realized the seriousness of the situation, but it will soon be brought home and every individual be called upon to adjust his mode of living accordingly. The necessity for economy and retrenchment will at once be brought out as a contingency upon the raising of the huge funds necessary to finance the war which must in the last analysis come from the individuals. The underlying cause of the recent weakness in the automobile stocks is probably a realization of this necessity and a slackening of demand for luxuries and all non-essentials will soon become apparent.—I. & Co.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET
EASTER TRADE DISAPPOINTING BOTH AS TO QUALITY AND QUANTITY.
Montreal, April 5.
 The offerings at the Canadian Pacific Stock Yards yesterday morning amounted to 150 cattle, 50 sheep and lambs, 450 hogs, and 1800 calves. The trade before Easter is usually very good, but this year it has been very disappointing, both as to quality of offerings and as to quantity. The prices have remained about steady at last week's figures, excepting that hogs are a little stronger. Some extra choice selects of carcass sold at $7. Other grades, not quite so good, but still choice, fetched $1.50. There were offered a few spring lambs, which sold at about 40c. per pound. Calves are still coming in in large numbers and meet with good demand.

GREAT FOREST FIRES
That in Ontario's Clay Belt Ranked as Third Most Destructive
 The Northern Ontario forest fire of July, 1916, takes rank as the third most serious fire catastrophe in the history of this continent. The Hinckley fire in Minnesota, 1894, was responsible for 418 lives and the burning over of 160,000 acres. The famous Peshtigo fire in Wisconsin, 1871, killed 1,000 and devastated 1,200,000 acres of timber. In 1835 occurred the Miramichi fire of New Brunswick and Maine, with a loss of 150 lives, six towns, 1,000 head of cattle, and damage of 800,000 acres of forest. The Clay Belt fire in Ontario, with 282 lives lost and 800,000 acres fire-awep takes its place with the great disasters of history. The Porcupine fire in 1911 killed 84 persons.
 It is noteworthy that Wisconsin, Minnesota, Maine, and New Brunswick have taken comprehensive measures to prevent further disasters by organizing their forest patrol systems on modern lines, building trails, lookout towers, telephones, etc., as well as carefully supervising settlers' clearing fires, one of the worst sources of danger.

ART OF MAKING FRIENDS

Often you come across people who complain that they have but few friends. The matter is easy enough to explain, for, as some one has well said, "The only way to have a friend is to be one." For friendship cannot possibly be a one-sided matter. Just as it takes two to make a bargain or a quarrel, so does it take the same number to make a friendship.
 What really does happen is this: Two people meet, and gradually they find points of congeniality, gradually each does little favors for the other, gradually a feeling of affection takes root in each heart. Neither one is thinking of what can be gained from the acquaintance; rather, each is thinking and planning to give instead of take. In other words, both are trying to be a friend unselfishly. And, lo, it is the very thing which makes their friendship.

CURE FOR SHELL SHOCK

Simple Invention For Wrecked Nerves Used by Canadians
 Wounded soldiers suffering from shell shock and various nervous complaints are being cured at the Ontario Military Hospital, Orpington, Kent, by a novel treatment of baths with continuously flowing water. A soldier who went into the bath a raving maniac was held down by rubber bands, and emerged cured and able to walk out after eleven days' continuous treatment. The treatment is pleasant, judging from the blissful expression on the face of a patient sleeping in the bath. The patient lies on a sheet and pillow suspended in the bath with the water up to his chin. The water is regulated to the man's temperature, and flows with a rippling motion from head to foot.

For Motor Touring

Considerable hard work can be avoided on the road if the tire rims are treated occasionally with a little shellac and graphite. Aluminum paint is also good to prevent the head of the tire from rusting in the rim. It is a difficult matter to remove the casing from a rim when it has become rusted.

The present popularity of the bicycle is partly due to the wide use of the modern warfare by officers and men alike. This shows a formal review of overseas cyclists, gathered from all parts of Canada, at Toronto.

PEOPLING THE CLAY BELT

Model Homes Built in New North Country For Railway Employees

The action of the Canadian North-ern Railway in building one hundred houses at a number of divisional points on the Montreal-Port Arthur section of its transcontinental line, provides homes—modern, comfortable and of pleasing design, for the employees of the road and their families. The conditions of occupancy are so easy that it will be a comparatively simple matter for the C.N.R. employees to virtually own outright the towns of Brent, Caprool, Folevet, Horne Payne and Jellicoe.

With the exception of electric lighting, which may be a later development, the houses in New Ontario are equipped quite as completely as homes of similar size in long established towns and villages in Old Ontario. They contain a large living room—from which a winding staircase leads to the upper floor—a kitchen, a pantry, and a bedroom, on the ground floor. Above, there are other two bedrooms, a bathroom, and a sewing room, all of fair size. One of the hardships in winter has been eliminated by the provision of a roof-cover coal and wood bin outside the house, but against the kitchen, with a sliding door arranged in the wall so that the household supply can be replenished without the usual cold out-of-door journey. Beaver board supplies the interior finish, and ship-lap may be added outside.

As a general rule the plan has been followed of placing each house at the side of a good sized lot, to facilitate the planting of the remainder to garden truck for table needs. It is understood that the Ontario Government will later throw open to settlement a township contiguous to the town of Folevet and another to Horne Payne, in the great clay belt. It is confidently expected that the building of these homes will mark the beginning of a new era in the New North. First there should follow the stores to cater to the needs of the town dwellers, and then settlers to take up the adjacent land, because of the inducement of a good market, and the advantages of adequate shipping facilities.

BRITISH RAILWAYS AND THE WAR

It would be of great interest if the companies were in a position to supply data as to the total traffic over their lines during the past year. This, under present conditions, is impossible, for, as matters stand, the clearing house is out of commission, and thus, whilst figures are available as to traffic originating on the lines of any particular company, data as to traffic of foreign origin merely passing over their metals are unavailable. In addition there has been an enormous Government traffic carried free. Excluding this latter, the traffic has attained record dimensions, and has been conducted successfully in spite of a loss of men to the colors varying in the case of different companies from sixteen per cent. up to twenty-five per cent. of the total staff. The London and Northwestern Company has provided 22,475 recruits, the Great Western Railway 20,000, and the Midland Company over 15,000. All the companies are giving assistance to the dependents of these men. On their return the fit men, it was announced at the Midland meeting, will be found work they can do, and arrangements made as far as practicable to fit the machine to the man in place of requiring the latter to fit the machine. They will be paid at the rate of the grade in which they are put, without deduction from any pension they may receive from the State. Prisoners are also being looked after by contributions from both the companies and the men. In the case of the tube railways the men's contributions are stated to have averaged 3 1/2 d. per head per week. Several of the chairmen at the recent meetings of shareholders spoke in warm terms of the way in which the men left in their service had faced the situation. Fortunately such inexcusable incidents as the strike at Paddington have been conspicuous by their relative rarity. The weather conditions last year made the work even more arduous than usual. The great blizzard of March 27 last did an unusual amount of damage, the Midland Railway being a special sufferer. Some 1,200 telegraph poles were brought down by the weight of the snow on the wires, helped by the strength of the wind. A piece of telegraph wire at Wellingtonborough, which in normal state weighed 1 1/2 oz. per foot, accumulated, it is said, such a load of frozen snow that the total weight was no less than sixteen ounces per foot. Nine thousand miles of wire had to be replaced, and this work was hampered by dense fog. The telegraph constructional staff had, moreover, joined the colors to the extent of forty per cent., yet by the evening of the 28th traffic was again moving, and matters were nearly normal at the end of a fortnight, in spite of interruptions of night work due to four Zeppelin raids.

These raids, as is no doubt fully realized by the German War Staff, have done extraordinarily little military damage, whatever their advertising value in the homes of the Huns. The Great Eastern Railway is pre-eminently that most exposed to attacks of this kind, yet the chairman was able to assure the recent meeting of shareholders that the damage suffered by their undertaking by the many raids last year was practically nothing.—Engineering (London).

John Cassell, the founder of the famous publishing house, was born in Manchester a hundred years ago. He was quite a remarkable person, who started life as a cotton operative, spent much of it as a temperance lecturer, and ended it with the fame which justly belongs to the greatest of the pioneers of cheap literature. "Essentially a working man to the day of his death," wrote one of his editors, "he possessed a refinement of manner and natural courtesy which a Duke might envy." He set up his printing office in the Strand in 1848; and in 1851 he issued the first cheap reprint library—"John Cassell's Library"—at 7d.—a miracle in its day. The "Popular Educator" followed the next year.

A correspondent suggests that the space set apart for depicting the House of Commons on the new Treasury notes might be far more usefully employed. Why not utilize the notes in the campaign for national set by the Chinese? In the Asiatic Museum at Petrograd may be seen a economy, thus following the example banknote issued at Peking in the year 2,800 B.C. In addition to the date of issue, cashier's signature, and other particulars similar to those on present-day notes, it bears inscribed around the border the sage advice: "However much you may possess, strive to be thrifty!"

HOW CANADA'S MAN-POWER INVENTORY WAS RECENTLY TAKEN

An inventory of the available man-power of the Dominion looks like a huge task. Yet it has been accomplished in record time and the returns are now being classified and sorted at Ottawa by the National Service Board. Every man in Canada, between the specified ages, has received a National Service card. A large percentage of them have now been returned.

When it is realized that the cards only left Ottawa in December last, and the bulk of the returns were back in that city by January 25th, some idea can be gained of the wonderful organization that had been so successfully provided by the Director General, R. B. Bennett, K. C., M. P.

In view of the importance of this work, a reporter recently interviewed Mr. Chas. W. Peterson, Secretary of the National Service Board, at the headquarters in Ottawa.

"The wording of the card itself," said Mr. Peterson, "presented the first serious problem. A card had to be framed that covered the case completely and which yielded information that was absolutely essential but it had to be couched in such language that the least intelligent citizen would understand each question and misunderstand none."

Draft after draft was made. They were edited and re-edited. The foremost expert opinions were secured before the final copy was approved. The uniformly satisfactory answers that have been received amply justified all the time that was devoted to this task.

Then the system of distribution and collection had to be evolved, and a large staff organized and trained to handle efficiently what was an entirely new proposition. Needless to say, the executive heads worked night and day for weeks at a time, to accomplish this end.

The first task was to create an "atmosphere" in favor of National Service, so that when the cards were sent out, the public would be ready to receive them with some knowledge of what end they would serve. Last November it was decided to proclaim a "National Service Week" early in January. To create public opinion arrangements were made for meetings in the interest of National Service in every city town and village in Canada, through local bodies. The clergy were communicated with and requested to preach on the subject of National Service. Fraternal and patriotic societies, school teachers, lawyers, doctors and others were invited to co-operate, and in most cases did so energetically.

The distribution of printed matter in a country like Canada is not so simple as would appear on the surface. The requirements of cards and envelopes for each city, town, village and hamlet had to be estimated and listed. Estimates also had to be made of how many cards in English and how many in French were to be supplied to each Post Office. Over 20,000 parcels were thus made up and forwarded from the head office.

The delivery and collection of cards was then organized through the Post Office machinery. Postmasters were personally addressed by the Postmaster General and the Director General, and they and their staffs that had to be reckoned with in outlining the organization.

At the Statistical Branch of the National Service organization, the completed cards, each in a sealed envelope, were delivered from the Ottawa Post Office in huge mail-bags. Most people enjoy opening the day's mail and set about it with serene deliberation. The average man, however, would be overwhelmed if the postman brought in 200,000 communications. That, however, is the number of letters the Director General received on one of the big days. They were contained in 84 mail-bags. One would think that a large staff would be required just to open the envelope but this is avoided by using an electric letter-opener. This little contrivance slices the envelopes open at the rate of 800 a minute, and incidentally performs six or eight men's work.

After this operation the cards are taken to the sorting rooms—a separate room for each province. The preliminary sorting, after the card has been withdrawn from the envelope, merely determines whether the card is complete or incomplete. In the classification rooms the completed cards are divided into military, munitions and industrial prospects and then sub-divided into the proper sections and groups. Those engaged in farming and those belonging to a limited list of highly skilled trades, essential in the production of munitions and other war material, are provisionally eliminated from the military prospects class. The industrial class is again sub-divided into occupational groups, so as to admit of ready reference when calls come in for skilled labor of any sort for public services or essential industries. These requisitions for labor are referred to the Industrial Branch, where a small army of typewriters are kept busy in preparing special lists for concerns requiring labor.

The completed cards are an interesting study, and by reading between the lines one realizes the splendid patriotic spirit which they have called forth. Here is a card from a man who has lost the use of his legs, but is "willing to go anywhere to do necessary work for the nation." He gets around in a wheel chair and is a first-class mechanic. A striking feature of many of the cards is the many straightforwardness with which the questions have been answered. A Belgian writes: "My three sons are gone forever. I am too old for anything but to pray for your people and mine, and knit socks." A woman on the prairies makes the pathetic statement that her husband and son have both been killed and she is running the farm herself as best she can. A returned soldier, badly wounded, expresses the deepest regret that, after repeated attempts, he will not be accepted for further service at the front. Many women filled in cards and demanded to be given the opportunity to do "a man's work." One sarcastically offered to take the place of a "slacker" at the front. Even men who originally returned evasive replies have in some instances undergone a change of heart and have written to the National Service Board to rectify their answers.

As was to be expected, the officials have been deluged with correspondence. Thousands of people, far from thoroughly instructed in what was expected of them. Arrangements had also to be made for the reception of the returned cards. This involved procuring suitable quarters and the creation of a large organization. Special furniture and fittings also had to be designed and made for the purposes in view.

An elaborate system of classification now had to be evolved. Each card was carefully considered in doing so. The "vising" necessarily had to be so simplified that it would become almost automatic. This was the work of specially trained minds for several weeks. Under this system of sorting, the effective manhood of Canada was finally divided into fourteen classes according to ages, occupations, dependents, physical defects, nationality, etc.

The next task was the organization and training of a "vising" staff of about one hundred and twenty-five women. A school was established and for a couple of weeks they had to be taught to take cards in at a glance and without mental effort, concentrating attention only on specified places on the card. Each girl had to be equal to "vising" 600 cards a day without error. Many of the less active minded pupils could not respond to the effort and had to be dispensed with. A certain type of mind, but not necessarily a superior mind, yielded the best results. Finally a satisfactory staff was organized and properly instructed and the big job of "vising" began just four weeks after the blank cards had left the Government Printing Bureau.

It is interesting to note that some eight million pieces of printed matter were utilized in connection with the man-power inventory. 70 tons of paper went into the manufacturing of the cards and envelopes. Owing to the short notice at which the work had to be accomplished, every envelope machine in Canada, making the size required, was requisitioned for night and day service for a considerable period. The mere physical effort in handling these masses of material several times was a factor being unwilling to answer the questions, have found the spaces on the front of the card quite insufficient and have written all over the back or have sent supplementary letters. In fact, they seem to regard it as a great opportunity to tell the story of their lives, and one ranges over the whole gamut from the sublime to the ridiculous, in reading these epistles.

The question uppermost in the public mind has naturally been as to the useful purpose behind it all. In the first place, it is important to have statistical knowledge as to the man-power of a country at war. Such data has a bearing upon grave questions of public policy. As the war progresses this information becomes more and more essential. The ordinary census figures are of no assistance in the matter, as, besides being out of date, they take no account of many things of vital interest in war time, such as physical defects, number of dependents, etc. It was not, however, by any means the expectation that the inventory should serve statistical ends only.

The practical business usefulness of the inventory has already been demonstrated in various ways, although the sorting has not yet been completed. During the recent coal shortage, Sir Henry Drayton, Chairman of the Railway Commission, called for the names and addresses of 500 railroad engineers, foremen, conductors, brakemen, telegraph operators, switchmen, signalmen and air-brakemen, who were not then working at any of those occupations, and who had signified that they would render national service on request. The names were furnished within TRENCH LIFE IS SOME LIFE. STANBRIDGE EAST, April 4.—(Special)—The following letter has been received by Mrs. J. J. Moore from her brother, Pte. J. C. Russell, Somewhere in France.

Well, we are out of the trenches for a few days' rest, but do not think it will be any more than four or five days, so thought I would drop a line to you. Well, trench life is some life and no mistake. It was very cold the first few days, but it rained and thawed, and then the trench mud was up to our knees. We had on hip boots and stood it first rate. I guess the next move we will make a raid on old Fritz's trenches. Well, there is not much I can write, only that Edson is still in the hospital and Arthur is well. I received your letter with the money, and it came in handy as we have to take a good lot of cigarettes in the trenches and candles to use in the dugouts. I won't be able to write a letter again for some time, but will drop a card as often as I can. I have not received the box, but expect it soon. With dearest love, I am always your loving brother—Pte. J. C. RUSSELL.

Justin has got a sore knee. Jack Curtis was wounded, but not very badly. Many thanks for the socks, and believe me they don't come amiss. I got a crack at a couple of those square heads the last time we were in the line. With best wishes from your cousin—Pte. B. BLAIR.

HEARS GERMANS ARE FALLING BACK EAST. COOKSHIRE, April 4.—(Special)—Mrs. C. A. Locke has received the following letter from her son Edwin, Somewhere in France. February 24, 1917.

Dear Mother: I am pretty well at the present time. We are now in the front line, it is terrible. The men are on the go all the time night and day, when not in the trenches they are on working parties. No, I have not got another stripe. I sometimes think I would like to get rid of those, I cannot seem to stand the shelling as I did and I have to take charge of a section in case of something happening and I am afraid my nerves would not hold out. I think a Corporal has a busy time, have to take orders to the men and the men are so tired and worked hard just now and it seems hard to please both sides. We had only two wounded in here yesterday that was being lucky for us.

LATER, FEB. 28, 1917. Well mother, I am not out today, could not go, it is my back cold settled there. I am some better now and have just eaten a dish of oat meal, our rations are small just lately and I spend all my cents for oat meal or something to fill up on. I think they are using most of the transports for ammunition now. Have seen no parcels from Canada for some time, they must be holding them back, none of the men have got any lately. There has been a big move on the Somme front there will soon be something doing, now if this weather keeps up. The mud is drying up fast. Fred Tyler came to see me last night, he is out of the 117th, he is now in a Battalion he is the only one. (Continued on page 1) ferences between Ambassador Page, and Foreign Secretary Balfour, and the close touch being maintained between the American naval attache and the Admiralty, indicate that arrangements are being discussed for co-operation when such a step is considered necessary. It has not yet been decided whether a commission will be sent to the United States or an American commission sent here. The presence of American officers here will be welcomed by naval men, but Washington seems to be more likely to be selected as the place of meeting.

SIX VOTES AGAINST RESOLUTION

WASHINGTON, April 5.—At 11 minutes past 11 o'clock last night the Senate, in the presence of a large and brilliant assembly, passed the resolution declaring war on Germany and pledging all the resources of the United States for its successful prosecution. While the actual recorded vote was 82 to 6, the Senate's true alignment on the question of war is 90 to 6, as all absent senators were accounted for as favoring the resolution. The House is expected to pass an identical resolution tomorrow by a still more overwhelming vote.

The six senators, equally divided between the two parties, who voted against the resolution were: Mr. La Follette, of Wisconsin; Mr. Gromna, of North Dakota, and Mr. Norris, of Nebraska, Republicans; and Mr. Stone, of Missouri; Mr. Lane, of Oregon, and Mr. Vardaman, of Mississippi, Democrats.

CANADA MUST ECONOMIZE

Depression Will Come With Peace—Economy Imperative

Economy is not being practised extensively in Canada. We are sharing the prosperity which war has brought to the American continent. Prosperity is infectious. It does not always conduce to thrift. Men frequently save more when money is tight and the outlook is uncertain than they do when money is plentiful and the future assured. To-day the position here is the existence of temporary good times, dependent largely upon war orders. Peace will bring a jolt. How serious it will be, none can tell. Nor can we say what favorable factors will relieve the depression which must come with the strain of economic re-adjustment. These facts make economy imperative. Yet even although their patriotism is undoubted, nevertheless many Canadians are aiding the enemy by thoughtlessly frittering away the profits and earnings due to a prosperity which may be suddenly arrested by the advent of peace. The trade returns continue to furnish evidence of the importation of many unnecessary articles and, to the extent that this is the case, our financial ability to resist the enemy is lessened. The words of Sir Charles Adair, in his address on "The Means of War Finance," apply to Canada as much as to the United Kingdom, when he says that people "do not understand that by the manner of their personal expenditure they may be determining whether the horrors of the conflict are to be prolonged or the blessings of peace anticipated. There does not appear to be as yet any general or adequate recognition of the special responsibility for the right use of war earnings attaching to those whose prosperity depends upon the continued sacrifice of life and limb by their fellow-countrymen in the field. It is surely a small thing to ask of those who are restrained from joining the fighting line by the disabilities of age, or infirmity, or sex to make some sacrifice for those who are fighting their battles for them. Sacrifices! let us call it what it is—a privilege, perhaps the only privilege left to us."

SCREENING GRAIN

It is certainly not economy to ship dirty grain, as the farmer hauls from thresher to his car at expense of his man loading and unloading and his team drawing; pays freight on same to the terminal elevator, and then gives it away. Those who get it must consider it valuable as they insure it. I noted some time ago that my insurance company's report showed an item $55,000 paid for loss on screenings by fire at terminal. How many others were on the risk? These screenings (dockings) are treated and used for feed by chopping, steaming or boiling. Wild oats chopped fine enough to destroy power of germination or boiled makes good feed. The smaller seeds, as pig and mustard, are also good when so treated, and when cooked are relished by animals which will not eat them when raw.

The up-to-date threshing machines are so equipped that these smaller seeds are left in a heap under the mill and paid for at threshing by estimating the number of bushels in the heap. The farmer might pay two prices and leave this dockings, so left rather than have to separate it from his grain before shipping. Threshing machines should be equipped with separators to grade wheat, as to run off different screens or through a similar separator to "Jumbo" from elevator, and bag the screenings and small and broken grain, running the good into wagon boxes for the granary or elevator. If the machine does not do a clean job, then the farmer should certainly separate himself at home before teaming or run it through an elevator having a good cleaner, and see the screenings as a stock feed.

LETTERS FROM E. T. SOLDIERS AT FRONT

from home, that I knew, George Hamilton is still in England. I will be in France seven months the eleventh of March and if the news is true that came up the line the war won't last seven months more for we hear the Germans are falling back fast on the Somme front and prisoners are taken every day and staff officers but this may only be report.

I must have some mail laying around somewhere which I have not received. Hoping these few lines will find you all well. I expect to be back for the hunting season this next fall love to all from your son.

EDWIN J. LOCKE

THE LATE MISS GEORGIE MARY MOLONY, FORMERLY OF COATICOOK.

After an illness of nearly six years standing there passed to her rest on March 28, Miss Georgie Mary Molony, youngest daughter of the late Major J. S. Molony. Born at Coaticook, April 10, 1870, at an early age she became a successful teacher and taught school until the year 1909, when she turned her thoughts to nursing and entered the Montreal General Hospital as a nurse-in-training.

After a three years' course she received her diploma and medal and was offered the position of assistant superintendent in the same hospital, which office she ably filled until she received the appointment of Lady Superintendent of the Jeffrey Hale's Hospital at Quebec in the year 1905. That she filled that position satisfactorily during her stay of six years can be seen by the following report given by the Governors of the Hospital at their annual meeting for 1911: "The Governors have to report with keenest regret the well-nigh irreparable loss suffered by the institution by the sudden and serious illness of our late Lady Superintendent, Miss Molony. Her high ideals of duty, her unflinching efforts for the welfare of the institution, her great administrative talents and her keen sense of justice gained for her the respect of all and the deep affection of many."

Miss Molony not only commanded the respect of those with whom she worked, but all who had the pleasure of meeting her in the social part of life. She was bright and attractive in her ways, and when able to be about her work was a friend to all in trouble. She leaves to mourn her untimely illness and death three sisters and three brothers, besides many relatives and friends. Her funeral was held at St. Stephen's Church, Coaticook, March 31, and was largely attended, the Rev. G. Stevens, Rector, preaching the service. Beautiful flowers covered the coffin and altar. Mr. Porter Baldwin conducted the funeral, and the bearers were Messrs. Chas. Fox, L. Thomas, J. Rathbone and B. Robinson, all of whom were old friends and schoolmates of deceased.

ZEPPELIN L-33

Was Captured intact—Britain Can Build Duplicate

The Zeppelin L-33 proved to be one of the largest in the German service. It has four gondolas, containing six Mercedes engines, each of 240 horsepower and working 1,600 revolutions to the minute. One gondola contains three engines, the remaining three each carrying one engine. There are five propellers. It has been estimated that she carried some two thousand gallons of petrol in her various tanks and that her colossal envelope was filled with two million cubic feet of gas.

An officer said that everything of any practical value is intact, and that there is all the information necessary to construct a replica. The length of the ship is 880 feet, and her total weight, with her crew of 22 officers and men, about 60 tons. She is supposed to have occupied a year in building and to have cost anything between a quarter and a half a million sterling. She carries seven or eight guns, including five ordinary Maxim's, the remainder being somewhat heavier.

GLUE FROM FISH WASTE

Some attempt has been made in Canada to produce glue from fish waste, but hitherto it has usually been found that production involves too much technical knowledge and too many highly paid officers. That fish glue, however, can be manufactured in Canada at a profit is clear from the success of the Russia glue works at Gloucester. These glue works were started by two very humble men, some years ago; they bought fish skins and fish heads and have manufactured glue and fertilizer and such a success has their venture been that the company which they have organized, has become very prosperous. The works are now about ten times the extent they were a few years ago and they cannot adequately supply the demand for their product—a demand created by the excellence of the glue. There is quite an opening in regard to fish glue products. Canadian fishermen waste an enormous amount of material, which would produce fish glue, on the banks and in the Gulf of St. Lawrence fisheries, and the amount per annum would startle anybody. The fish waste is now simply dumped into the sea.

There is nothing grand about Sir Douglas Haig's headquarters, which consists of a farm house, with a vast semi-circle of granaries and haylofts and stables. A single sentry stands at the gates. Within are flower beds and lawns, and a wagon and horse. When Sir Douglas chose the chateau for his advanced base he would not allow its occupants to be disturbed. He was content to share it with them. So it happens that when he comes out of the big room where he works, where the map of the battlefield lies spread before him and the fortunes of the day are told to him from moment to moment, it is the smiling little faces of children he is apt to see and the sound of their discreet merriment that is carried to his ears.

OUTPUT OF BRITISH HEAVY GUNS GROW

Minister of Munitions Says Troops Are Adequately Supplied With Munitions.

BEDFORD, ENGLAND - Speaking at a meeting in Bedford in support of the recent war loan, Dr. Addison, Minister of Munitions, gave some figures illustrating the remarkable increase in the output of heavy artillery ammunition.

Thanks to their splendid "independence of spirit," and to the efforts of the manufacturers, Dr. Addison said the men of Great Britain were superior in the air at all events. British troops in the field were, he also stated, adequately supplied with munitions. Although he did not consider it possible or desirable to give details, Dr. Addison gave one or two illustrative figures.

Taking the average weekly output of light field ammunition from July, 1915, to June 1916, and then in the last completed week of January, and comparing them, the figure would be in the first average of weeks 6 1/2 and in January 22. For medium guns in the first period it would be 7 1/2 and in January 76.

For heavy guns - and this was where they were beating the "Boche" - the first figure would be 22, and the figure for the last week of January 365. The British army, Dr. Addison declared, owed that overwhelming preponderance of heavy artillery to the genius and foresight of Mr. Lloyd George.

With regard to women in filling factories, he said that work needed plenty, but they had never had a dearth of volunteers, and he was quite sure they never would have. So far as natural science and experience could teach, they had fearlessly adopted any regulation which was necessary or desirable to promote or maintain the security of the workers.

Dr. Addison then went on to deal with some criticism which had been passed on Mr. Lloyd George. Recently, he said, some disparaging remarks were made because Mr. Lloyd George was not at a certain time on the front bench in the House of Commons. Mr. Lloyd George was at that moment, Dr. Addison said, dealing with questions for combating the submarine menace. "What the country expects," he continued, "is that every effort shall be devoted to getting on with the war. There is no man in this country who is working harder for the development of our resources in combating the Germans than the Prime Minister," he declared.

"We have a right, I think," Dr. Addison went on, "to expect that those in responsible positions shall spare no efforts in the work of their several departments, and we are entitled to say that so long as they are trying to get on with their business we will not see their efforts undermined by ignorant or foolish criticism."

"I was seriously informed the other day that we were being governed by a sort of dictatorship. Well," Dr. Addison declared, "there never was more unmitigated nonsense spoken in this world. As a matter of fact, the War Cabinet has met nearly every day since the new Government was instituted, commonly morning and afternoons. All those concerned with the business in hand are there."

ASSAILED PRO-GERMANS AND PACIFISTS

Advised to Use Their Influence and Talents in Addressing Kaiser Wilhelm.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Fiegel of New York, republican, favoring the war resolution in the House said he would not disregard the fact that "Though we cry peace, Germans answered by warring against us." "During this week," he said, "intimations have come to me that political expediency required me to cast my vote against this resolution, and that contrary action on my part would mean a general effort from now on to end my congressional career."

It would be unworthy of American citizenship were I to be deterred from acting by such warnings." Representative Harrison Democrat, of Mississippi, assailed pro-German sympathizers and pacifists. "I would suggest to them," he said, "that they now employ their talents and eloquence not in attempting to cause dissension among the people, but in addressing Kaiser Wilhelm, Bethmann-Hollweg, the Reichstag and the author of that remarkable sample of diplomatic, 'Kultur,' the Zimmermann note."

First expressions of the opposition to the resolution came from representatives Cooper and Stafford of Wisconsin, and Representative Britten of Illinois, while Mr. Flood was recounting German violations of American rights which have led up to the war resolution.

NO ROOSEVELT REGIMENT

War Department Determined to Block Plan of Colonel to Head Force in France.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's plans to raise a regiment are meeting with determined opposition on the part of War Department officials. The statement was made at the department to-day that the Colonel's proposal is "on file and probably will remain there. It was said that there is no law on the statute books which will permit the Colonel to raise a regiment and go to France. One official contended that only by the passage of a special act by Congress could the Colonel raise his regiment. High officials in the War Department contend that the nation must accept the judgment of the military genius of the United States if we are to do our part in the world war. They say that as a man turns to a physician when he is ill, so must the nation turn to its military experts when war comes. Otherwise there will be a ruthless slaughter of Americans on the European battlefield. It was admitted that if the Colonel so desired he could raise a regiment and serve under France, if France should desire his services, but it was argued that France would soon find out that the Colonel and his few thousands of men would prove more troublesome than all the millions of officers and men now fighting the war of the Entente Allies.

"Numerous offers similar to that of Colonel Roosevelt have been received by the department in the last few weeks," said one official this morning. "The only one that has attracted any particular amount of public attention is that of Colonel Roosevelt."

CARRANZA IS EXPECTED TO BE FRIENDLY

U.S. to Let Well Enough Alone Unless He is Actively Anti-American.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—President Wilson will let well enough alone in Mexico unless Carranza becomes actively anti-American. This was the belief here yesterday, although officials refused to comment on the administration attitude toward Mexico, or upon the report that Germany's intrigue plans also called for blows at Texas and British Honduras.

Surface indications are that Carranza will remain friendly, although he has not answered the American inquiry as to his position. In the light of the Zimmerman-Mexican-Japanese plot letter, if, however, Carranza should develop unfriendliness in any form, the United States would deal promptly and forcefully with him, it is felt.

MORE MEN ARE REQUIRED FOR ARMY AT ONCE

Gen. Robertson and Admiral Jellicoe Declare That Serious Time is Yet Ahead.

LONDON, April 5.—General William Robertson, chief of the Imperial Staff, and Army Headquarters, addressed a conference of trades unionists yesterday for the purpose of explaining the government's proposals on the question of man-power. Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, a member of the War Council president, and the Minister of Munitions and other members of the Government were present. Admiral Sir John H. Jellicoe, first sea lord, also gave his views of the situation.

General Robertson emphasized the fact that, while the War Office was not a leech, it must have more men to meet the desperate effort the enemy was now making. His speech, as officially given out, was in part as follows: "Our progress with the war is bound to be slow because of the colossal numbers engaged and because Germany derived a great advantage at the start. It is difficult and long business to make up for a bad start."

"As to the retreat from the Somme, the pessimists say Germany is making fogs of us and laying traps. We are not in any way disturbed by her. At all times pessimists are cowards, while in war time they may be classed as criminals. Whatever happens she has won many more divisions in the field than last year, and has increased the number of her soldiers by about one million. Admiral Jellicoe said he was not there to ask more men for the navy, but for the army. Nobody knew better than naval men that the navy alone could not win the war; the navy's business was to enable the army to reach its destination and to get supplies.

"The navy cannot get at the Germans," said the First Sea Lord, "because the German ships stay in their ports. Therefore, if the war is to be won, we must have men for the army."

THE SUBMARINE QUESTION. Referring to submarines, Admiral Jellicoe ventured the belief that there never was a more difficult task than dealing with them set to any navy. Formerly submarines attacked merchantmen on the surface, but when merchantmen were obliged to attack under the water. This limited the activity of the submarines, but it also made the attacks more difficult to carry out. In order to give security, the Admiralty had large numbers of small craft.

In this connection, he appealed to the workers to do their utmost to turn out these small craft as well as merchant ships.

ONE MEATLESS DAY WEEKLY IN BRITAIN

Food Controller Has Issued New Instructions Which Go Into Effect April 15.

LONDON, April 5.—Baron Devonport, the British food controller, has ordered that, beginning April 15, in hotels, restaurants, boarding-houses, and clubs, there shall be one meatless day weekly. In London the day will be Tuesday. Elsewhere in the United Kingdom it will be Wednesday.

The Controller has also ordered that no potatoes or food containing potatoes shall be allowed except on meatless days and on Friday.

The order imposes restrictions on the quantities of meat, sugar and bread at meals served in hotels, restaurants, boarding-houses and clubs. The scale for meat is, for breakfast, two ounces; luncheon, five ounces, and dinner five ounces. The bread restrictions call for two ounces at all these meals.

Baron Devonport, in explaining the order, said he expected it to result in a saving of 65 per cent of the meat now consumed, 53 per cent of bread and 63 per cent of sugar. He said he had originally intended to order two meatless days, but that he feared this would lead to an increase in bread consumption.

The military authorities are looking after the food question by issuing an order which prevents soldiers in garrison from taking meals at the Y.M.C.A. and other canteens. This restriction was referred to by General Sir Francis Lloyd, G. O. C., London district, when visiting the Maple Leaf Club yesterday.

Commenting on some complaint made by the ladies interested in these clubs to the effect that they were not well filled, he expressed the opinion that they should not be kept for garrison men, but cater only for visiting soldiers. The general believed that the clubs would be found useful for the period of demobilization also. In any case they had housed over 35,000 men in the past eight months.

TWO KILLED IN TORONTO FIRE

Were Caught in Flames which Broke Out in Queen's Hotel.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
TORONTO, April 5.—Fire, which started at 8.30 this morning in the female servants' quarters of the Queen's Hotel, has, according to early reports, resulted in fatal injury to two servants, while two others are suffering from smoke effects. The damage is trifling.
Anna Anderson and Thirza Hopkins are in hospital, reported fatally burned, and Margaret Barnes and Mary Clark were seriously injured. The blaze broke out in a linen closet directly beneath the sleeping quarters of the female employees. The flames crossed the stairway cutting off the only exit except the fire ropes attached to the windows which the women were too terrified to use. Two of them attempted to break through the wall of flame, but were forced back and were found lying in their rooms terribly burned about the face and body. The others remained in their rooms stupefied by terror and were eventually overcome by smoke. The fire at no time threatened the destruction of the hotel and was quickly extinguished. Defective wiring is suspected.

REORGANIZATION OF BORDEN CABINET IS EXPECTED

Character of Changes Will Be Taken Up on Return of Sir Robert Borden.

OTTAWA, April 5.—Some reorganization of the Borden Cabinet is reported as likely after the Premier returns. The character of the changes and when they will be operative rests with the Prime Minister, but it is known that they have been considered by Sir Robert, and doubtless will be taken up anew on his return.
Rumors for which no official confirmation is obtainable to-day, but to which considerable credence is attached in political circles, have it that Sir George Perley may become High Commissioner permanently; that the Hon. Robert Rogers will be Overseas Minister of Militia; that the Hon. Frank Cochrane will direct the Government control of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern Railway, under legislation to be suggested by the Smith-Drayton-Ackworth Commission; that the Hon. T. W. Crothers will go to the Senate; and that the Hon. Martin Burrell and the Hon. W. J. Roche will also retire.
Those mentioned as likely to come in include R. B. Bennett, Col. Hugh Clark and W. S. Middlebro.

THREE VILLAGES AS USUAL LEAD

First to Demonstrate Unity in War. Canadian "Blue Jacket" and Yankee "Tommy" Fraternize.

Messrs. James Mackinnon and T. J. Parkes have returned from Coatocook and Rock Island where they addressed meetings on behalf of navy recruiting. Both meetings were well attended.
An interesting incident which occurred at the Three Villages is related. The speakers were accompanied by one of the sailor recruits in uniform. He was advised that he was not supposed to cross the line as the United States was not at the moment a belligerent country, it being the day of the president's message. Jack lost his bearings, however, and when found was strolling along the Derby Line stile arm in arm with the American recruiting sergeant who was looking for men for the American army.
The Three Villages, therefore, which has never been divided, was the first to demonstrate the actual unity in war.
The meeting at the Border Theatre at Rock Island in the evening, was well attended.
It is expected a number of naval recruits will be secured. One young man actually came forward and volunteered not for the navy but for the American Army. "It's all the same," remarked one of the speakers, "the blue jackets of the British navy and the soldiers of the new American Army are fighting the same foe."
