

EFFORTS OF HUN SUBMARINES TO FOIL TRANSPORTATION OF FIRST AMERICAN DIVISION FAIL

U. S. DESTROYERS DROVE OFF UNDERWATER ASSASSINS—RUSSIANS CONTINUE THEIR ADVANCE TOWARD LEMBERG—AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES ARE EVACUATING BRZEZANY—RUSSIANS PREPARE FOR OFFENSIVE ELSEWHERE.

Efforts of German submarines to foil the transportation of the first division of the American army to France have met with complete failure.

American destroyers convoying the transports proved equal to the occasion and drove off the underwater boats with the destruction of at least one of them, and probably more. All of the first American division have been landed safely in France without loss of life and without even damage to any ship.

Twice the transports were attacked by the U-boats and twice they were driven off, although Secretary of the Navy Daniels says it was evident that the Germans had knowledge beforehand of the coming of the vessels. The first attack was made in force at night by a squadron of submarines, but the gunnery of the American sailors drove the attackers off. Another contingent was attacked a few days later and the American destroyers, while holding the submarines away from their intended prey, sunk at least one U-boat.

In eastern Galicia the Russians continue their advance toward Lemberg and it is reported unofficially that the Austro-Germans under the pressure of the Russians are evacuating Brzezany, the centre of much heavy fighting in the past few days.

Around Zlochoff, north of Brzezany and east of Lemberg General Brusiloff's soldiers have occupied three villages and driven the Austro-Germans beyond the little Stripa river. Berlin admits this reverse and declares that only German reserves were able to stem the onrush of the Russian tide. The number of prisoners taken by the Russians is approaching 20,000.

In Volhynia there are signs that the Russians there are preparing for an offensive and attacks have been made against the Teuton positions along the Kovel-Lutsk railroad in the direction of Kovel. Some fighting activity is also reported from around Riga and near Smorgon, north of the Pripet marshes.

The British and Germans continue to raid each others lines on the northern end of the western and in Champagne and on the left bank of the Meuse. In the Verdun sector, the Germans and French still are fighting intensely at isolated points. There have been no important actions in the other fields of war.

YOUNG ROOSEVELT IN FRANCE.

Paris, July 3—Major Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Captain Archibald Roosevelt have arrived in France to join the American expeditionary force.

HINDENBURG IS STILL WHISTLING.

Amsterdam, July 2—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg on his return to the front from Austrian headquarters predicted, according to a Berlin despatch today, that in the "not too distant future" Germany's enemies would be forced to make peace. Describing the present situation, the Field Marshal is quoted as saying:

"If we hold our ground against enemy attacks until the submarine war has done its work the war is won for us. Our enemies must continue their attacks, however hopeless they may be. They cannot wait for the arrival of the American armies.

"I wish the enemy statesmen had the same knowledge of the Austrian monarchy as I have," continued the Field Marshal. "They would then abandon their present plans. I brought home from my visit to Austria the firm conviction that we shall stand together to a victorious end. Our alliance cannot be shaken."

A TRIBUTE TO AMERICA.

London, July 3—King George has directed that the American flag be flown from the tower of the houses of parliament on the Fourth of July, American Independence Day.

BRITISH ATTEND FOURTH CELEBRATION.

New York, July 3—Officers of the British army will join in the celebration of the Independence Day at Newark, N.J., tomorrow. Brigadier-General W. A. White, head of the British recruiting mission here, announced tonight, when the Scottish clans will hold a patriotic rally.

"I presume this is the first occasion since the declaration of independence," General White said, "that British officers have participated in a Fourth of July celebration, and it seems to me to typify, in a way, the very close alliance which has been entered into between the United States and Great Britain in this great war."

BRITISH STATEMENT.

London, July 3—The report from British headquarters in France issued at noon today says:

"We successfully raided west of Havrincourt and north of Nieuport, capturing a few prisoners. Last night south of the Cojeul river the enemy attacked our advanced posts, but was driven off."

London, July 3—The official report from British headquarters in France tonight reads:

"In the Ypres region there has been considerable artillery activity on both sides. The enemy raided our trenches this morning south-east of Larentie; two of our men are missing.

"Hostile aerial activity has shown a marked increase in the past few days. Successful artillery work and bombing raids were carried out yesterday by our airplanes. One German airplane was brought down by gunfire within our lines. Three more were brought down in the air fighting. Two others were driven down out of control. One of our machines is missing."

GUARDSMEN PATROL ST. LOUIS STREETS

BUT COWARDICE IS CHARGED AGAINST SOLDIERS—POLICE INDIFFERENT.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 3—Thirteen companies of National Guardsmen tonight patrolled the streets of East St. Louis to prevent a recurrence of the race riots which, since yesterday morning, have resulted in a death list of 28 persons, the injury of 25 or more, and the destruction by fire of 310 negro homes, covering sixteen and a half acres of ground.

The entire community of 80,000 persons is terrorized by the events of the last two days, and that they have little confidence in the ability of the Guardsmen to cope with the situation was intimated today when the Chamber of Commerce demanded to know from Adjutant-General Dickson why the troops had not displayed more energetic activity last night in controlling the mobs. Members of the Chamber did not hesitate to charge cowardice against the soldiers and indifference on the part of the police. Thirty-five small fires occurred tonight in small shacks in various sections of the city, all it is believed, of incendiary origin. Up to a late hour there were no other disorders.

FINNISH DIVISION WAS AT KONIUCHY

Petrograd, July 3—Details from an authorized source of the victorious Russian attack in Galicia state that a Finnish Division participated in the victory at Koniuchy. All enemy trenches on the slopes of Mt. Srednaya Goura, east of Koniuchy were occupied. Besides the village of Koniuchy the forest west thereof as far as Kolf was taken. All German trenches south of Koniuchy and the wood west of the village of Schibalim, also two lines of trenches northwest of Zoloukhin and similar positions south-west of Potutory and east and south-east of Nitchichou fell into the hands of the Russians.

CHINESE BOY EMPEROR PLACED ON THE THRONE

Peking, Sunday, July 1—(Delayed)—Early today Hsuan Tung, the boy Emperor, was taken into the Imperial Palace under the protection of General Chang Hsun and placed on the throne. The legation quarter of the city is under a heavy guard and the troops of Sen Chang Nsun are intermingling freely with the Peking soldier.

It is expected that President Li Yuan Hung will resign tomorrow.

PREMIER BORDEN WILL COMPLETE HIS CABINET SOON

UNION GOVERNMENT WILL EITHER BE CONSUMMATED OR NOT THIS WEEK—CONSCRIPTION IS BACK AGAIN ON THE ORDER PAPER.

(Special to The Chronicle).

Ottawa, July 3—Late on Friday night H. Boulay, Rimouski, drew attention to the absence of a quorum and the debate on the Military Service Bill ceased without adjournment. It therefore was dropped from the order paper. By resolution of the Prime Minister today it was replaced, given precedence and the debate continued. Hon. Mr. Pugsley, an anti-conscriptionist, objected but the speaker sustained the Prime Minister.

J. H. Sinclair, Guysboro, continued the debate and declared against conscription. He was followed by Hon. E. B. McCurdy, parliamentary secretary of Militia, who dealt with the intary reinforcements available. He showed that under voluntary enlistment our reinforcements would be depleted in six months, and in six more we would practically cease to be a factor in the war. W. E. Knowles, Moose Jaw, who will not be a candidate again, declared for a referendum. He is a conscriptionist but stated that if it required English-speaking soldiers to go to Quebec to get one French Canadian soldier, conscription, unless endorsed by the people, would be useless.

Union government will be consummated this week or not at all. Sir Robert Borden seeks to form a union conscriptionist cabinet containing representatives of Conservatives, Liberals, grain growers and Laborites. He will complete such a cabinet this week or will reorganize on party lines. Few Liberals in the present parliament will be in the Union Government if it materializes.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

London, Ont., July 3rd, Harry Fillmore, aged 15, was instantly killed today when a rifle in the hands of a playmate, H. Arbuckle, went off as the arm of a third boy struck the barrel. A number of boys were after berries and all but Fillmore suddenly dropped on the grass to secure the fruit. It was in this scramble that the rifle went off, the bullet striking Fillmore who stood near by.

LABORERS FOR HARVEST THREATENING STRIKE.

Bisbee, Ariz., July 3—Mine strike leaders at the headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World here claimed to have received telegrams today from the agricultural division of the Industrial Workers of the World, offering support to the strike. They claimed 32,000 farm laborers throughout the middle west are being counted upon to assist in the wheat harvest, are in the division.

AMSTERDAM SCENE OF POTATO RIOTS

MOB BECAME UNMANAGEABLE AND SOLDIERS HAD TO DISPERSE IT.

Amsterdam, July 3—Serious potato riots took place here last night when mobs attacked two markets and were dispersed by police. Early in the evening the police closed all the streets and bridges leading to the chief vegetable market in Marnix street, but despite precautions enormous crowds collected, including many women carrying children.

The mob became unmanageable and at 10 o'clock reinforcements of mounted police, who were hurried to the scene, began to fire over the heads of the people. A fierce battle developed in the dark streets until midnight, when troops appeared and closed the entrances to the market.

ATTACKS PROVINCIALISM.

Drummondville, Que., July 3—A protest against provincialism in the training of French-Canadians was delivered here on Sunday by Napoleon Garceau, a local lawyer, in the course of an anti-conscription meeting.

Mr. Garceau said: "We have not been taught all that could have been taught us, and that our country was not the Province of Quebec only, but the whole of Canada. In the past we have been in the habit of living isolated, and not mixing with others. We have been a little too much of 'Quebecers', and on this fiftieth anniversary of Confederation it is for us to remember that we are Canadians at home in Quebec or in Ontario, as much at home in Toronto as the people of Toronto are at home here."

HUN FOOD IS SCANT.

Copenhagen, July 3—The food difficulties, particularly the disappearance of potatoes, have driven Berliners in masses to the municipal soup kitchens, where they hope to get better rations than at home. The management of the kitchens reports 21,000 new registrations. The kitchens however, are badly supplied and the fare is most scanty and monotonous.

The potato ration this week is one pound, but it is admittedly only on paper.

QUEBEC, JULY 4, 1917.

THE LATE COL. TURNBULL.

By the death of Colonel James Ferdinand Turnbull, last evening, Quebec loses a distinguished citizen, a good soldier, a kind friend, whom it will be hard to replace and whose memory will be long cherished in our midst.

Col. Turnbull was born in London in 1835, but has been a resident of Quebec since his early childhood. He was educated at the Quebec High School, and was for some time in business here. Having military tastes he joined the Quebec Cavalry, and subsequently visited cavalry schools in the United States and in England, taking part in the manoeuvres at Aldershot. Upon the establishment of a regular cavalry corps in Canada in 1883, he was given command of that crack regiment, the Royal Canadian Dragoons, now doing such excellent service in France. He served with marked distinction with that corps in the Northwest rebellion of 1885, was subsequently quartered with the regiment in Toronto, afterwards appointed Inspector of Cavalry for the whole of Canada, and retired in 1895, since which he has resided in Quebec, devoting himself and his purse to good works and to the service of his fellow-citizens.

Col. Turnbull married the daughter of the late James Mackenzie, a wealthy merchant of Levis, who predeceased him. His devotion to her wishes and to her memory is evidenced by the magnificent building he erected, at a cost of half a million, known as the Mackenzie Wing of the Jeffery Hale's Hospital, which has proved such a blessing to this community. As a director of the Mount Hermon Cemetery, he was instrumental in raising funds for the endowment and embellishment of that beautiful resting place of the dead.

St. Andrew's Church owes much to his generosity, which gave it a new steeple and belfry, a handsome flight of stone steps, and other improvements. He always took a keen interest in the work of his old school, the Quebec High School, and it may be truly said that no deserving cause ever appealed to his generosity in vain.

Col. Turnbull was for many years President of the Quebec Garrison Club, and his portrait in oils, which adorns its walls, is a token of the esteem and gratitude of its members, for his services. A broadminded, generous man, esteemed by all who knew him, is, alas, no more!

WORK FOR OUR SHIP LABORERS.

The President of the Quebec Board of Trade has written to the Minister of Railways at Ottawa pointing out to him that many thousands of tons of rails which have been taken up out of the tracks of the Transcontinental Railway, are, after their arrival at Quebec, sent by rail by the C. P. R. to Three Rivers and loaded on steamers there for France. It is pointed out that not only is this a heavy additional expense to the Government but it deprives the ship laborers of Quebec of the labor of loading these steamers. The President reminds the Minister that the Quebec Ship Laborers union is a body of excellent workmen who have given good proof of their patriotism by sending a large number of their members to the war, and should therefore have this work, which, in any case, properly belongs to this port, whose export trade in lumber is practically stopped, owing to all the ocean tonnage being reserved for war material.

He might have added that were it not for unfair influences in Montreal, the port of Quebec might be enjoying the benefit of a portion of the great shipping trade now going on in war material.

TRANSCONTINENTAL TRACKS

In consequence of the urgent representations of the Quebec Board of Trade, the order to take up the track of the main line of the Transcontinental Railway between Quebec and St. Prosper, a distance of fifty miles, has been countermanded from Ottawa. The Government is always solicitous to meet the wishes of the business men of Quebec.

NATIONALISM.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a recent speech in Parliament, contended that Quebec's attitude towards the war is mainly the result of recent growth of Nationalist sentiment under the auspices of the Conservative party. But the Nationalist chief himself says he learned his Nationalism from Laurier. In a letter written about a year ago to his nephew, Papineau, he said: "In 1896, your Liberal leaders and friends stumped the whole Province of Quebec with the cry, 'Why should we fight for England?' From 1902 to 1911 Sir Wilfrid was acclaimed by them as the champion of Canadian autonomy against British Imperialism. His resisting attitude at the Imperial conferences of 1911 and 1907 was praised to the skies. His famous phrase on the 'vortex of European militarism' and his determination on keeping Canada far from it became the party's by word—always in the Province of Quebec, of course. His Canadian navy scheme was presented as a scheme towards the independence of Canada. And in his paper, Le Devoir, the Nationalist leader recently said: 'Let us suppose for one moment that the Nationalist resistance is inspired by hatred towards England, at what school were we given such lessons of hatred and distrust? At the school of the Liberal party, under the supreme inspiration and immediate direction of Sir Wilfrid. Mr. Laurier, and Mr. Balfour, it was taught us, as early as 1890, that never would Canada take part in the wars of England. It was Mr. Mercier who, in 1892, under the paternal eye of Mr. Laurier, was leading a campaign for the independence of Canada. It was Mr. Laurier, it was Mr. Brodeur, it was Mr. Choquette, it was Mr. Bernier, it was their organs, the Electeur and Le Soir, which, in 1896, denounced the military preparations of the Conservative Administration, and launched to the four corners of the Province the alarm cry which carried no sign of an unlimited love for the mother country; 'Why should we fight for England?' Really, if the Nationalists, and generally the French-Canadians, do not feel in a hurry to shed their blood for England or any other country than their own, Mr. Laurier may say: 'Here is the generation I have brought up and educated; here are the principles, the ideas and the sentiments which I have impressed upon my dear compatriots.'"

As far back as the dawn of Confederation, we find Sir Wilfrid Laurier raising his voice against it. Calling upon his compatriots to defeat Confederation, he said: "That is not the way we politicians of the Papineau school look at the matter. When any change whatsoever is proposed in our political or social institutions, we do not look to see whether this change will be of any use to the English colonies or to any other neighbor. We think only of Lower Canada and the French race." But fortunately Sir George Cartier prevailed, and Quebec became part of the Dominion.

In 1885, a mass-meeting was held on the Champ de Mars, Montreal, at which Honore Mercier, then a Nationalist leader, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were the orators of the day. A message was received from the notorious Clan-na-Gael of New York, offering the meeting sympathy and support, and encouraging the fight against "English ascendancy and Orange brutality." Sir Wilfrid, who next to Mercier was most fierce in his denunciation of the "judicial murder" of Riel, declared that if he had been on the banks of the Saskatchewan he would have taken up arms against the Government. Father Dowd, an Irish priest and a patriot, warned his flock against joining in the agitation, and Henri Joly, formerly the Rouge leader of the Province, resigned his seat in the Legislature rather than identify himself with the raging storm.

In 1891, we find Sir Wilfrid Laurier, then leader of the Opposition in the Dominion Parliament, declaring to an audience in Boston: "The only tie that binds Canada to the mother country is a sentiment of affection. But this dependence will not always last. Even now Canada and England have very different interests, and a day will come—necessarily—when they will have to part."

The following year, from his place in the House of Commons, Sir Wilfrid was even more outspoken. He said: "Is there a Canadian anywhere who would not hail with joy the day when we would be deprived of the services of British diplomacy? I have again and again repeated that the goal of my aspiration is to see Canada an independent nation."

This is the same Sir Wilfrid Laurier who, when Premier, resisted as long as he could the patriotic cry for a Canadian contingent to South Africa; who defeated the effort of Sir Robert Borden to strengthen the British navy by three Dreadnoughts, after ridiculing the German menace; and who now seeks to ditch the conscription measure by throwing his referendum proposal across the track.

PRESS COMMENT.

The easiest step in the Food Control campaign is the organizing of the nation for greater economy in consumption. Public influences, such as the press, the pulpit, the schools, the various women's associations, and public bodies generally are available to a Food Controller for educational purposes. Canada has already had, for this season, a "food production" campaign of exceptional vigor, but much probably can be accomplished by urgent calls for economy in consumption. Mr. Hanna's appeal to Canadians, like that of Mr. Hoover to the people of the United States, will have an influence to lessen the waste of food.

But the mere organizing of the public on volunteer economy lines will not suffice. The Administration Bill on Food Control, now in Congress, contains drastic provisions. Until it becomes law, Mr. Hoover has powers covering only organization of a food economy campaign. Co-operation between the Canadian and United States controllers in enforcing price, transportation and distribution economies is highly desirable, and progress in Canada in real "control" may be partly dependent on outside circumstances. The object of the controllership in both countries is not, as we understand it, merely a conservation of food to help the Allies, but also a regulation of our own internal food problems, particularly that of prices, to ease the burden on the shoulders of the mass of consumers. The powers invested in the Canadian Food Controller by order-in-Council are ample. Basis for action under the more drastic provisions cannot, of course, be set up within a week or two. But there is public expectation that the organizing of voluntary food economies, by the mass of consumers, will be followed by such forcible regulation of profiteering as will complete the benefits derived from more careful use of food by the public.

The new British Food Controller, Lord Rhonda, declares his purpose of driving out of business the food speculators and profiteers. His first step has been to organize a department of food costs—to ascertain exactly what the cost of grain, cattle, and other food commodities is to the farmer, and then to trace actual costs in the transit to the consumer. He does not intend to allow storage interests, or other middlemen, to overreach the public, or himself, by carefully-prepared statements of transactions showing small profits, but peculiarly large costs of doing business. Whether he can succeed has yet to be shown, but his is the method the public desires, and the only effective way of getting at the root of the exploitation which exists, but is hard to pin down. Courage is necessary to shove along that line of attack. What is needed in Canada is a thorough analysis of the whole system of food distribution—something no authority has attempted. The cold storage statistics gathered by the Department of Labor show astensible "profits," and supplies handled, but they do not deal with the capitalization of the companies, their costs, or the market effect of middlemen's dabbling that benefits no one but the dabbler.—Mail and Empire.

The extremely valuable services which Sir Eric Geddes has performed for the British armies in the field are known to all who have been in close touch with the military operations. What his genius for organization and adaptation has accomplished for the Army is an earnest of what he will accomplish for the Navy. That the Navy is in urgent need of new material is no secret. Its demands on the national industry are enormous, and they must be met without delay if we are not to imperil the very foundations on which the fighting strength of the Great Alliance is built. It is the task of Vice-Admiral Sir Eric Geddes to see that the Navy's material requirements are met promptly and efficiently. His past record is, we hope and believe, a guarantee of his future success in this new field.

These do not, of course, represent all the changes which have followed the reconstruction of the Board.—The Navy.

THE GERMAN ARMY IS DETERIORATING

RECOGNITION OF COMING DEFEAT HAS AFFECTED MORALE OF HUNS.

Canadian Headquarters in France, Tuesday, July 3, via London.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Accumulating documentary evidence, corroborated by statements of fighting men among this front who come into daily contact with the enemy, gives the impression that the German army is now rapidly deteriorating.

Up till the beginning of the April offensive there was still general confidence among prisoners that Germany would win this war. This was the basis of that self-respect which forbids that a soldier lay down his arms so long as he has even a slim fighting chance. Now it is an unvarying testimony that recognition of coming defeat has taken much of the ginger out of the rank and file of the enemy, and has even caused the arrogant Prussian officer to carry his haughty head less haughtily.

Prisoners taken during the past few days no longer care to conceal their satisfaction at being captured. None of them is greatly interested in terms of peace. They concede that Germany must in the end accept whatever conditions are imposed by the Allies.

A German non-commissioned officer captured during the present operations said that the cheerful bearing and high morale of the men of the British army reminded him of the attitude of the German troops in 1914.

This change in sentiment among the enemy soldier has not been brought about by lack of food or of war material. The rations of the Germans lack variety, it is true, but are undoubtedly sufficient to keep the men in good physical condition.

The scarcity of artillery ammunition has been emphasized in enemy documents recently captured, but for important actions there seems to be as yet no lack. The decrease in the activity of the enemy artillery is chiefly of the sort known as "harassing fire," in which shells are directed on roads, trenches, villages and other positions where human targets are supposed to be gathered. In repelling attacks and in preparing the way for counter attack the German artillery is still formidable. Other weapons most used by the enemy are machine guns and bombs. Prisoners captured immediately after they had concluded a course of instruction said that bayonet exercises are no longer taught in the training of men for the enemy line. Recruits are instead trained in the use of the various sorts of bombs.

RESTORATION OF MANCHU MONARCHY

Peking, July 1.—(Delayed)—The Imperial emblem is everywhere displayed, marking the restoration of the Manchu Monarchy. There has been no disorder. In a long edict Emperor Hsuan Tung, who was restored to the throne today, explains how, being youthful, he was forced to relinquish sovereign power to Yuan Shi Ki late President of the Chinese Republic.

China's future government will be based on the following policy: The country shall be administered according to the constitutional laws promulgated by the Emperor.

Expenses of the Imperial Household shall remain the same as those of the republic. Blood princes shall not be allowed to interfere in politics.

There shall be no difference between Manchu and Chinese. Marriage between them is allowed. All foreign treaties and contracts shall remain in force.

The stamp tax and other party taxes are abolished. The republican criminal code is abolished and that introduced the first year under Hsuan Tung's government is re-installed. Political offenders are pardoned. The wearing of queues is optional.

PLUNKETT WRITES O'BRIEN.

London, July 3.—Sir Horace Plunkett in a letter urging Wm. O'Brien to reconsider his decision not to participate in the approaching Irish convention, says that while he has no official authority for the statement, he has best reasons for believing that the findings of the convention will be submitted to a referendum if the convention scheme fails to meet with popular favor.

U-BOATS MADE VICIOUS ATTACKS UPON AMERICANS

CONVOY OF DESTROYERS ANSWERED SUCCESSFULLY WITH HEAVY GUNFIRE.

Washington, July 3.—That two vicious attacks were made by U-boats on the American transports and convoys carrying the American expeditionary force to Europe was made known today in an official statement issued by the Secretary of the Navy Daniels, on the occasion of the arrival, today, of the last contingent of General Pershing's forces at a French port. After felicitating the American people on the safe arrival of every fighting man and every ship, the Secretary says in part:

"The transports bearing our troops were twice attacked by German submarines on the way across. On both occasions the U-boats were beaten off with every appearance of loss. One was certainly sunk, and there is reason to believe that the accurate fire of our gunners sent others to the bottom.

"For purposes of convenience, the expedition was divided into contingents, each contingent including troop ships and a naval escort designed to keep off such German raiders as might be met.

"An ocean rendezvous had also been arranged with the American destroyers now operating in European waters in order that the passage of the danger zone might be attended by every possible protection.

"The first attack took place at 10.30 on the night of June 22. What gives it peculiar and disturbing significance is that our ships were set upon at a point well this side of the rendezvous, and in that part of the Atlantic presumably free from submarines.

"The attack was made in force, although the night made impossible any exact count of the U-boats gathered for what they deemed a slaughter.

"The high seas convoy, circling with their searchlights, answered with heavy gunfire, and its accuracy stands proved by the fact that the torpedo discharge became increasingly scattered and inaccurate. It is not known how many torpedoes were launched, but five were counted as they sped by bow and stern.

"A second attack was launched a few days later against another contingent. The point of assault was beyond the rendezvous and our destroyers were sailing as a screen between the transports and all harm. The results of the battle were in favor of American gunnery.

"Not alone did the destroyers hold the U-boats at a safe distance, but their speed also resulted in the sinking of one submarine at least. Grenades were used in firing, a depth charge explosive timed to go off at a certain distance under water. In one instance, oil and wreckage covered the surface of the sea after a shot from a destroyer at a periscope, and the reports make claim of sinking.

"Protected by our high seas convoy, by our destroyers, and by French war vessels, the contingent proceeded, and joined the others in a French port."

SIR HERBERT TREE DIED VERY SUDDENLY

London, July 3.—According to the morning papers the sudden death of Sir Herbert Tree last night was not caused by a recent operation but it was a case of collapse so sudden that he died in a few moments. Sir Herbert had discussed business affairs daily with Mr. Dana, his business manager, during the last few days. They were thus engaged for sometime Monday and when Dana left Sir Herbert was in a cheerful mood as he expected to be able to leave his bed soon.

Sir Herbert had a slight accident on June 16. He slipped while descending a staircase and strained the ligaments of his right knee. He underwent an operation June 21 which proved to be somewhat serious, but was expected to lead to his complete recovery. The attending surgeons, however, insisted upon the cancellation of all Sir Herbert's engagements, so he could enjoy complete seclusion and rest.

Yesterday evening he had a heart attack and the end came very quickly the famous actor dying at 8 o'clock.

Winnipeg, July 3.—A junior federation of Zionists of Canada will be organized as the result of a resolution passed today in the third day's sitting of the fifteenth Canadian Zionist convention moved by Joseph Goldstick, of Toronto, and seconded by Mrs. Clarence I. De Sola, of Montreal. The resolution, which was adopted, entails the division of the federation into those over and those under 16 years. The new federation will be under the auspices of the present body and will not be affiliated with the American Young Judean Federations, although it will be known as the Young Judean Federation. One thousand dollars a year will be donated by the senior federation towards its support.

AMERICANS WILL CONTROL EXPORTS

IT WILL PROBABLY BE PUT INTO OPERATION MONDAY NEXT.

Washington, July 3.—Control of American exports, authorized in a recent act of Congress, will be put into operation probably next Monday with the issuance of a proclamation by President Wilson requiring that coal shipments and bunkering be licensed.

There is a prospect that food shipments may be put under control at the same time.

The exports council, comprising three Cabinet members and the food administrator, named to advise the President in matters of export policy, decided at a meeting today to create an exports advisory board to assist the council. The board, it was said, will consist of probably five members, one each to be named by the Secretaries of State, Agriculture and Commerce, the food administrator and the shipping board.

The advisory board members, it was said, will be men of recognized ability who can take most of the work of administration of the export control off the hands of the council.

SUBMARINES AT BOSTON.

Boston, July 3.—Six submarines built at Quincy for Great Britain, and recently turned over to the Chilean government in part payment for a warship commandeered by the British government while under construction at the outbreak of the war, were commissioned at the Boston Navy Yard today. The vessels had been interned here and the transfer of ownership was made with the approval of the authorities at Washington.

Berlin, July 3, via London.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and Gen. Von Ludendorff arrived at Austrian headquarters yesterday to discuss present and future operations of the (Teutonic) allied armies," says an official statement given out here today. "Both Generals were received in audience by the Emperor and had discussions with the Austrian Foreign Minister and the German Ambassador at Vienna."

JAPAN COULD SEND FLEET TO ATLANTIC

Tokio, July 3.—If necessary, Japan may send a fleet to the Atlantic, said Tomosaburo Kato, Minister of Navy, in the Diet today. The Minister was replying to criticism of the opposition that the despatch of Japanese warships to the Mediterranean was not required by the terms of the Anglo-Japanese alliance and was merely for the benefit of the Entente, and not for Japan. Mr. Kato declared the government was justified in co-operating with the Allies to bring about the defeat of Germany.

LONDON NEWSPAPER'S PRAISE FOR CANADA

London, July 3.—By Reuter's Ottawa Agency.—The Daily Mail says "The fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Dominion of Canada and the number of the Canadians fallen in battle were honored yesterday by a great service in Westminster Abbey. In all the trials and sufferings of the war has been a source of constant consolation and pride to the people of this country that the states of Greater Britain and their soldiers have shown such unflinching determination and valor in the struggle. We well know the bitter sacrifices which Canada has made. Ypres and Vimy Ridge have been captured with her best blood, as with ours."

The Morning Post states: "Canada in celebrating the jubilee of Confederation, may be sure that the whole Empire is with her. The King's message expresses not only his own, but all his peoples feelings and thoughts. If Canadians are proud of themselves their fellow-subjects are equally proud of them. Great achievements and traditions are what makes a nation of a community, and during the past years Canada has created both for herself. Whatever the future may have in store no power nor influence can unwrite the imperishable record of the Canadian army, nor can the material prosperity to which Canada is destined ever extinguish its splendor. When Canada comes at the end of another fifty years to celebrate much may be changed in the world, but we may confidently forecast that Canadians still will be proud of the Canadians now at the front."

DEFENCE COUNCILS COMMITTEE.

Canadian Delegates at Conference in Washington.

Washington, July 3.—The Defense Councils Committee on universities and colleges began today a week's conference with five representatives of the educational system of Canada, who came here by invitation to give American institutions advice in marshaling educational resources for war service.

The visiting Canadians, who came with the approval of the Canadian government, are Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto; Dr. Marshall Tory, President of the University of Alberta; Dr. Stanley McKenzie, president of Dalhousie University; Dean Frank I. Adams of McGill University, and Captain A. H. Alexander of the Canadian army.

Among other things the conferences will consider to what extent technical students and instructors should be released from educational institutions for military service, how educational courses can best be adapted to immediate war needs, and how students can best be employed to promote food production.

FRANCE IS PLEASED WITH RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE.

Paris, July 3.—The Russian offensive shares with the American army in France the honors of the day in the French newspapers. The splendid news from General Brusiloff's headquarters, coming on the heels of the arrival of the American vanguard fills France's cup of joy to overflow. The temporary wave of despondency and impatience which found an outward manifestation in two dozen interpellations of the government in the Chamber of Deputies, has vanished. The reappearance of the Russian army on the scene of the great war drama had been discussed in France sometime past but the general public had hardly shared the optimism of public men who returned from visits to Russia. The allies' loyalty never had been doubted but her ability to carry out big military operations at an early date was not thought possible.

All newspapers pay the highest tribute to the efforts of Minister of War Kerensky which made the event possible.

WEEK OF RECRUITING FOR BRITISH SUBJECTS

New York, July 3.—The week of July 16 will be British and Canadian recruiting week in New York, when efforts will be made to get "the last available man eligible among British subjects in this city to do his share in support of the war."

FOOD RIOTS IN GERMANY.

Copenhagen, July 3.—Residents of Stettin, Germany, appeared before the military court Saturday to answer for participation in the food riots on June 19 and 20. The testimony showed that excited by rumors the merchants were shipping potatoes abroad, great crowds, hostile to the merchants, attacked the police and plundered stores. Two ringleaders were sentenced to eighteen months and a year imprisonment, others received lighter or suspended sentences.

WINNIPEG BANK CLEARINGS.

Winnipeg, July 3.—Winnipeg bank clearings for the first six months of 1917 passed all former records, eclipsing last year's figures by nearly $400,000,000, and those of 1915 by close to $700,000,000. The total for the half year ended June 30, was, $1,223,945,050.

WORKMEN AND SOLDIERS ISSUE APPEAL FOR ARMY

RUSSIA MUST CONCENTRATE EVERY EFFORT TO ASSIST FIGHTERS — FORCE OF THE OFFENSIVE GIVES WEIGHT TO REVOLUTIONARY MOVE.

Petrograd, July 3.—The Congress of Workmen and Soldiers' Delegates of All-Russia and the executive of the peasants, delegates, in sending fraternal greetings to the army, "who on the battlefield is defending the cause of the revolution and giving your blood for liberty and universal peace," says:

"The Russian revolution has long been calling the people of all countries to universal peace. That the people of Europe do not respond is not your fault. Your organization and the force displayed by your offensive give weight to the voice of revolutionary Russia in her appeals to the countries struggling against her, as well as to neutrals and her allies and will bring the end nearer. "In this decisive hour the Congress of the Workmen and Soldiers' Delegates and executive of the peasants delegates summon the country to concentrate all its efforts to help the army.

"Peasants! Give the army bread. Workmen! Let the army suffer no lack of munitions. Soldiers and officers! Form reinforcing detachments and regiments to go to the front at the first order. Citizens! Remember your duty and let no one seek at the present moment to evade the accomplishment of his duty towards the fatherland.

"Soldiers and officers! Let your hearts have no doubts that you are struggling for the liberty and welfare of Russia and an early general peace."

The provincial government has issued an appeal to the Russian people urging all citizens to forget personal interests and to mass as a single man behind the army which, "is marching to death to save the revolution and to free the Russian people."

Minister of War Kerensky, in view of the new offensive movement, has forbidden all leave of absence to soldiers unless necessitated by ill-health.

"Aviation: On June 8 a German Zeppelin dropped 18 bombs on the town of Venden (north-east of Riga). A German battleship brought down one of our machines in the region of the village of Savitch on the Bersina river (west of Minsk). The airman was killed.

"A German airplane has dropped a note within our lines from which it is evident that one of our machines lost on June 28 fell in the rear of the German positions and that the dead airman were buried by the Germans with military honors."

MILITARY HOSPITALS COMMISSION PATIENTS.

Ottawa, June 3.—On June 22nd, there were 7,271 invalided members of the Canadian expeditionary force under the care of the Military Hospital Commission in Canada, according to figures received today from the Commission's headquarters in Ottawa. The total shows an increase of 93 since June 15th.

The latest returns from the Old Country shows a decrease of 415 between June 1st and June 8th.

Of the 7,271 in Canada, 5,949 are convalescents, 884 are in sanatoria for tuberculosis and the remainder are in other institutions, chiefly general hospitals.

The Canadians invalided in the United Kingdom on June 8th, numbered 22,067. Of these, 10,941 were in Canadian hospitals—as against 10,881 on June 1st. In the same period the number of Canadian in "British" or non-Canadian hospitals fell from 11,325 to 11,050. The number in sanatoria for tuberculosis, 76, was unchanged.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S SURPLUS.

St. John, Nfld., July 3.—The greatest surplus of revenue over expenditures ever obtained by the colony of Newfoundland is shown in preliminary statements for the fiscal year which ended on June 30. Revenue from all sources was approximately five million dollars, nearly a million dollars in excess of expenditures.

This is double the surplus of the previous fiscal year. The increase is due to the enhanced value of fishery and other products of the island, the high prices received having enabled the people to import exceptionally large stocks of goods of all kinds on which heavy duties were paid.

CONDITIONS IN POLAND REPORTED VERY GRAVE

Stockholm, July 3.—Three Poles now in Stockholm, M. Scheke, formerly a member of the Russian Upper House, M.M. Sobizki and Sobanski, have issued an appeal for aid for the Poles of Warsaw. Their appeal says people are dying in the streets of hunger. The Associated Press is informed from other sources as well that conditions elsewhere in Poland are equally grave, being particularly serious in Lodz.

BARON HARDINGE IN OWN DEFENCE

FORMER VICEROY OF INDIA, MAKES EXPLANATION REGARDING MESOPOTAMIA.

London, July 3.—There was an unusual scene in the House of Lords this afternoon when Baron Hardinge, the former Viceroy of India, appeared to defend and explain his share in the management of the first Mesopotamian expedition, which culminated in the surrender of Major-General Townshend at Kut-el-Amara with the largest British force which had laid down before an enemy in more than a century.

The revelations contained in the recent report of the commission on the Mesopotamia expedition, and the charges contained therein, created a greater sensation in Great Britain than any similar episode since the Crimean war, and a portion of the press has been calling for the impeachment or the dismissal from public office of all concerned, including Baron Hardinge, who is now permanent Under-Secretary of the Foreign Office.

Lord Hardinge began with an expression of regret that the commission did not include an eminent lawyer accustomed to weigh evidence, and that all the evidence taken could not be published. After a detailed review of the management of the expedition, he said:

"The Viceroy is theoretically responsible for everything that happens in India and outside of India where Indian interests are affected. But he has to trust to his lieutenants and advisers for information and guidance. I have no desire to shirk any responsibility that is due me, but it is not easy to know what further strenuous and peremptory action I could have taken without exposing myself to the charge of excessive civilian interference in military affairs.

"Private rumor said that things were going badly. The official reports said they were going well. It was my first duty to ascertain the truth. It may be difficult for people in England to realize the inherent difficulties in personal supervision by the Viceroy of medical arrangements on a river 3,000 miles away in the midst of his other heavy labors of governing a country bigger than Europe and with more than 300,000,000 inhabitants."

He expressed regret that the commission's report might create a feeling in India that India's efforts and sacrifices had not been adequately appreciated at home. The report scarcely referred to the greatest military effort ever made in India's history in despatching expeditions to France, Egypt and East Africa, so that the military equipment and stores were almost exhausted before the Mesopotamia campaign was considered.

He pointed out that the commission under Field Marshal Baron Nicholson, which investigated the Indian army in 1913 recommended the maintenance of 7-13 divisions of infantry, five cavalry brigades with reserves and that within six months after the war India had mobilized ten infantry divisions and had sent seven overseas, and eight cavalry brigades, of which six went to France. India had also supplied immense stores of ammunition and equipment to the home government. As a result, India's own needs became pressing when the Mesopotamia operations began, but insistent demands upon the War Office for troops, machine guns and other material met with refusal or scanty supplies, owing to the greater need in France. At the same time, he said, the Indian government at the most critical period of the war successfully carried out the greatest military operations since the frontier campaign of 1897 in effectively dealing with seven serious attacks by tribesmen on the north-west frontier.

Dealing with the circumstances of General Sir John Nixon's advance from Kut toward Bagdad was an insufficient force, Lord Hardinge said that although the government of India was fully alive to the political and military advantages of the capture of Bagdad, it was absolutely opposed to an advance without reinforcement by another division, and he read unpublished correspondence with the India Office to that effect. General Nixon reported directly to the home government that he could defeat the Turks and occupy Bagdad, but that if the Turks were reinforced he would need another division.

COLONEL TURNBULL QUARTERS WANTED BY WAR VETERANS BIED YESTERDAY

FATAL ILLNESS ONLY LASTED A FEW MINUTES — A CRACK CAVALRY LEADER.

Col. J. F. Turnbull expired at his home, 14 St. Denis Avenue, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, following an illness of only about ten minutes' duration. He passed away peacefully shortly after partaking of his luncheon. Had he lived this venerable and highly-esteemed citizen would in a few days have celebrated the 82nd anniversary of his birth.

The late Col. Turnbull was born in Scotland and came to Quebec a mere slip of a lad where he settled. Among the more salient deeds in his long and useful life might be mentioned the following facts. Col. Turnbull acted as Secretary of the Reception Committee that welcomed to Quebec the late Albert of Wales in 1862. He took a deep interest in the turf and was a keen devotee of curling, his stones being widely known as the "china alleys." In military matters the late Col. Turnbull took an active part. He joined B Troop, Queen's Own Canadian Hussars under the late Col. J. Bell Forsyth. After serving some time in the cavalry the late Col. Turnbull went to England where he took a course in one of the crack cavalry regiments. On his return he organized the first permanent cavalry in this country. It was known as the Hussar Regiment and afterwards as the Royal Canadian Dragoons. Col. Turnbull for many years commanded the troop. One of the first officers was General Lessard, C.B. Much to the regret of Quebecers at the time the troop was moved to Toronto under the continued command of this esteemed citizen. After spending some time in camp in the Queen City Col. Turnbull was appointed Inspector-General for Cavalry. He then returned to Quebec and took up his residence at his country house "Claremont." On the death of his brother-in-law deceased came to live at 14 St. Denis Avenue where he has since resided.

COLONEL MARRIOT AND MR. BURSTALL WILL LOOK FOR SAME.

Under the presidency of Col. Marriot a rather important meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association was held at the City Hall last evening and was largely attended.

Among the correspondence was a letter from the Dominion Secretary urging Comrades in Quebec to write poems and songs of the nature which cheered the hearts of Canadians while in the trenches. Those having any such patriotic verses should communicate with Comrade Duchesnay, Secretary of the Quebec branch of the Association.

The committee, which was appointed to secure quarters, made a report last evening. It was decided to leave the matter with Col. Marriot, who will communicate with Mr. J. F. Burstall. Mr. Burstall, it will be remembered, has generously offered to aid in securing suitable quarters for the returned warriors.

It is gratifying to the members of the Association to note that several more applications for membership have been received, which is steadily increasing the roll. Among the new members admitted are Col. Talbot, Capt. Reiffenstein, Lieut. McLennan, Downie, and others.

In connection with the three months' pay authorized by order-in-council which debar ex-Federal and Provincial Government employees the following resolution was passed: "Resolved that this action is unfair. That if the three months' pay is given to one it should be given to all who are otherwise eligible." The Secretary was authorized to forward a copy to the Dominion Secretary at Ottawa with the object of having him take the matter up directly with Militia Headquarters.

All returned officers and men from the City and District are again urged to attend the general meetings of the Association as it is important that they be present to offer suggestions, etc. Before the meeting adjourned last night a hearty vote of thanks was passed in favor of His Worship Mayor Lavigneur for placing a room at the City Hall at the disposal of the Association for the meeting.

MURPHY vs. PETRY.

In this case the Petry heirs gave formal notice in Court yesterday and inscribed in Review, before three Judges, of the judgment rendered against them June 25th, by the Hon. Judge Dorion. At the same time, they deposited in Court the amount of money required by law to secure the costs, in case they should not succeed in their appeal.

WEDDING AT THE ST. LOUIS CHAPEL.

In the St. Louis Chapel, the Basilica, at 7.30 yesterday morning the marriage was solemnized of Miss Gabrielle MacKay, only daughter of Dr. Ernest MacKay, V.S., and Mrs. MacKay, to Mr. Paul Letourneau, son of the late Dr. A.H. Letourneau. Mr. E. G. B. Letellier attended the groom. The chapel was prettily decorated with cut flowers and the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mgr. Lafamme, cure of the parish. The bride who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in a champagne colored travelling suit with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses with streamers of baby ribbon. The groom was attended by his father. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Letourneau left immediately on their honeymoon which will be spent in visiting Montreal, Portland, Boston and New York, taking up their future residence in Quebec. Among the many handsome gifts is a silver tea set from the staff of Molson's bank. The out-of-town guests included Mr. Arthur Dansereau, director of La Presse, and the Misses Janine and Paule Dansereau, of Montreal, Lieut. Wm. A. MacKay, of the 258th Battalion, C.E.F., and Mr. Lionel MacKay, of Sherbrooke.

The drawing for the beautiful painting from the hand of Princess Patricia, which she donated in aid of the Quebec Tuberculosis Hospital, took place yesterday afternoon at Mayor Lavigneur's office in the presence of Lady Gouin, Mrs. L. A. Taschereau, Mrs. Porter, Miss Routhier and Dr. Rousseau. The winner is Mr. Etienne Samson, 46 Wolfe Street, Levis.

POSTPONED MOONLIGHT EXCURSION IS HELD.

The postponed moonlight excursion on the river, organized by the Young Men's Christian Association, was held last evening under ideal weather conditions. The steamer "North" with about 125 excursionists, left the Champlain Market and proceeded on a water route which was lighted by a full moon. There was instrumental and vocal music to enliven the cruise which was declared to be the most enjoyable of its kind held under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. During the cruise the Quebec Bridge site and other interesting points were visited. Mr. Hess, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., stated after the return that he was delighted with the attendance and the success of the excursion.

FINE SHOWING WAS MADE BY VALCARTIER DETACHMENTS YESTERDAY.

His Excellency, the Duke of Devonshire, attended by His A. D. C., Captain Ridley, reviewed some two thousand troops, most of whom were detachments from Valcartier, on the Drill Hall Square yesterday afternoon. On alighting from his motor car he was met by the O. C., M.D. 5, and by Lt.-Col. J. S. O'Meara, G.S.O., and Major B. J. D. Acland, A.A.G., and Q.M.G.

The parade was in command of Col. G. E. A. Jones, Lieut. Girna, C.E., acted as brigade major and Lieut. C. J. Brown, 8th R.R., was orderly officer.

The units represented were the 336th Highlanders under Major McLean; the 249th of Winnipeg under Lt.-Col. Keenleyside; the 250th of Regina, under Lt.-Col. Kennedy; the 8th R.R., under Capt. G. W. S. Dunn; the 9th V. Q. under Col. Chabot.

After the Duke had reviewed the Royal Salute he went through the ranks inspecting the men. The brigade then advanced in review order, after which it proceeded through the Cove Fields, turning into Grande Allee by the Montcalm Monument and then marching down to the station.

The R.C.G.A. Band under Lieut. O'Neill was in attendance as also were the bands of the various units represented.

The troops looked hard and fit and their appearance was much admired by thousands who witnessed the parade.

LAW EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations by Provincial Law Board Started Yesterday.

Shortly before noon yesterday, the annual examinations conducted by the Provincial Law Board for admittance to the study and practice to the Law profession went under way.

Some sixty men, hailing from all parts of the Province, met at Laval University, and were submitted to written tests on the Sciences and Letters, success in which will admit the aspirant to the study of law.

About forty graduate lawyers from Laval Universities of Quebec and Montreal, and from McGill University, Montreal, wrote on their senior examinations in the Court House. The written examination is conducted in two sessions, the successful students being admitted to an oral test tomorrow morning, and subsequently to the practice of their chosen calling in the various parts of the Province. The results of the written examinations in both sections will be announced today.

The examinations are conducted under the auspices of the Provincial Bar Association of the Province of Quebec, of which Messrs. J. A. Laroche, Aime Marchand and Ferdinand Roy are the advocates representing Quebec city.

THE COST OF THE WAR.

Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars a Minute for Great Britain.

The war is costing great Britain over $25,000 a minute. What is it costing you? Are you giving your savings to the nation? Canada is paying hundreds of millions annually to maintain its divisions in the firing line, to give Britain the munitions credits it desires, to insure the conduct of the war in a manner worthy of the Dominion. Are you helping? The country needs every dollar you can spare. It can use it for national purposes. The Government is urging you to exercise every possible economy. The National Service Board is urging investment in War Savings Certificates. Have you invested in them? Are you still indulging in luxuries? Are you eating peace meals or war meals? Are you taking every possible measure for the utilization and prevention of waste? Have you cut your expenditures to the minimum? If you cannot answer in the affirmative to these questions, you are not doing your utmost to win the war and only the utmost will suffice. Save your money, invest in War Savings Certificates and help to win victory. A-11.

CIVIC FIRE AND ROAD COMMITTEES MEET.

It was decided at a meeting of the Civic Fire Committee last night to call for tenders for a new automobile hose wagon which Deputy Chief Belanger reports necessary. It was stated at a meeting of the Road Committee later, that that Committee was not co-operating with the Fire Department in carrying out repairs which were sadly needed. Tenders for the supply of gasoline and oil and grease were awarded to the lowest tenderers.

BURNS ANXIOUS TO MEET FLEMING

HIS MANAGER SAYS FRANKIE HAS ALREADY RUN OUT OF A COUPLE OF MATCHES.

Nate Penney, who besides playing lacrosse and incidentally doing a little boxing at the same time, manages Joe (Kid) Burns, the clever little P. St. Charles scrapper, has written to the Irish-Canadian Club asking that a bout between Fleming and Burns be staged in Quebec before their meeting in Montreal on the 28th.

Penney says Burns will meet Fleming any time and more than that will make a side bet that he gets the decision over him, as he will be only too glad of the opportunity of getting a fight with Fleming who, he alleges, has side-stepped him time and again for fear of losing his Canadian championship title. Burns has many friends in Quebec and there is no doubt that a match with Fleming would be a big thing down here.

Sporting Notes

Today being the Fourth of July, our American cousins will, no doubt, celebrate it with more vim than ever. And more power to them.

Some Yankees claim they are far greater than George Washington, because George couldn't tell a lie, while they can, but will not.

The Quebec Junior League scores have nothing on the International. It will be counted an off day soon, when Baltimore, Newark, Providence and the rest of the team can't drive home more than fifteen or sixteen runs in a game.

Gordon Filtrault announces that he has signed up H. Gagnon and Young Joe Jeanette for the semi-final event of eight rounds before the Irish-Canadian Club, on the 13th, the same evening on which Brennan and Jones meet.

K. O. Jocks will make his first appearance in a Canadian ring when he swaps punches with Joe Crevier, Chaplin boxer. "Dave" Beland is managing Jocks, and Dave says he is a sure winner.

Frank Hughes was back in the game last Sunday, and helped out considerably as St. Pat's missed quite a few of their squad.

Charlie Querrie's Indian team failed to keep their lacrosse engagement with Cornwall, because they could only get together seven of their players. Of course, it is just like a Toronto team to pull off that kind of stuff. Any other team in the league would have pressed juniors or veterans into service rather than default a match and besides hit poor old Cornwall a wallop financially as the Factory Town were turning out en masse to see the game. Toronto seems to be a splendid sporting town - for a winning team.

After watching various lawn tennis courts in the city, we might ask who put the "lawn" in lawn-tennis?

Jules Morency is pitching the game of his life for the Sillery team in the Junior League. Morency pitched Tipperary to the championship last summer and Collie Phillips is pinning his faith in his ability to cop the pennant for Sillery this time.

Ty Cobb continues to bat his way to a new world's record for hitting consistently, but he still has quite a way to go to beat Ness's record.

Facts not worth knowing: There are none so blind as those who will not see the hat when it is passed around at a ball game.

When you enter a theatre you go in by the front and yet when you get in, the usher will ask you to take a seat in front and he'll take you to the other end. Can you explain how it is that the front is the back and the back is the front after you enter?

"BILL" BRENNAN A COMING CHAMP

MAN WHO MEETS JONES HERE ON 13TH, RECEIVES GREAT PRESS NOTICES.

That "Bill" Brennan, the knockout king, who meets Horace Jones here on the 13th, at the Grande Allee Rink before the Irish-Canadian Club, is a real top-notch fighter borne out by the many flattering tributes he has received from the American press.

Bat. Masterson, probably the most authoritative writer on boxing topics, says in the N. Y. Telegraph: "Brennan will flatten Coffey, sure." P. T. Knox, in the N. Y. Evening Telegram, says: "Brennan is the equal of any heavyweight in the country, barring Jess Willard."

The New York Evening Globe says: "Brennan reminds one of James J. Corbett in his hey-days."

The N. Y. Evening World says: "Brennan has the speed and footwork of a lightweight, and is the fastest big white man boxing."

Brennan was born in the county Mayo, Ireland. His folks brought him to this country at an early age, and settled in Kentucky. Later they moved to Chicago, where Brennan became an iron worker. He got his boxing education in a good school - Harry Gilmore's - which was responsible for the success of Jimmy Barry, the undefeated bantam champion; Packey McFarland, and Jack Britton.

He fought under the name of "Bill" Shanks until 1916, and is called "The Fighting Celt."

It will be seen however, that Jones will meet one of the best in the business, and if the big Gaspesian can win out, he will have every right to be pleased with the best he has in America.

There will be a big demand for the tickets for the bout, and those desiring them should put in applications at once.

Haynes 6.20, 4.60, second; Perpetual, 103, Doyle, 12.00, third. Time 1.15.

Birka, Lady London, Armine, Dahlia, Cannonade, Scaramouch, Cardome, Captain Ben also ran. "Seventh Race. 3-year-olds and up, purse $700, claiming, one mile and 70 yards - Gartley, 101, Jeffcott, 69.20, 18.70, 4.30, won; Phil Ungar, 116, Rice, 4.40, 2.90, second; Harry Lauder, 110, Parrington, 2.40, third. Time 1.47 3-5.

SOME "HURRY-UP" KNOCKOUT RECORDS

"BAT" NELSON KNOCKED OUT ROSSLER IN TWO SECONDS - OTHER QUICK ONES.

The briefest boxing bout on record stands to the credit of Battling Nelson, the old lightweight champion of the world, who knocked out "Billy" Rossler in 2 seconds, on April 5, 1902, at Harvey, Ill., but this was run very close by "Dal" Hawkins, who knocked out Martin Flaherty in four seconds at Carson City, Nevada, on March 17, 1897.

Malachy Hogan, the well-known American referee, was the third man in each contest, and made an affidavit that Nelson's was the quickest victory.

A few facts relating to other contests between notable boxers which have had the early closure applied, follow:

Bantamweights: "Terry" McGovern knocked out Pedlar Palmer in first round at Tuckahoe, New York, Sept. 12, 1899, for the championship of the world. "Kid" Williams knocked out Johnny Coulon in the third round for the American title, at Vernon, Cal., on June 9, 1914.

Featherweights: Ike Weir knocked out Jimmy Connors in third round at Buffalo, July 4, 1890 (American title). George Dixon knocked out Abs Willis (Australia), in the fifth round, at San Francisco, on July 28, 1891 (world's title at 8st. 3lb.). Young Corbett knocked out Terry McGovern in second round at Hartford, Conn., November 28, 1901, for world's title.

Lightweights: Jack McAuliffe knocked out Sam Collyer, of England, in second round, at Williamsburg, N.Y., on Dec. 18, 1888. Joe Gans knocked out Frank Erne, in the first round, at Fort Erie, Can., on May 12, 1902. Dick Burge knocked out Lach Thompson in second round in London, June 27, 1892, for English title, and also beat Tom Causer in the first round in London, on October 8, 1897.

Middleweights: "Bob" Fitzsimmons knocked out Jem Hall, England, in fourth round at New Orleans, March 8, 1893, and Dan Creodon in second round at New Orleans, on September 26, 1894, both contests being for the world's title. Fitz also won several one round contests, Joe Gaffrey and Peter Maher going out thus; Sailor Tom Sharkey, the heavyweight, failed to survive the second round. Stanley Ketchell knocked out Hugo Kelly in the third round at San Francisco, on July 31, 1908, for the American title. Ketchell, like Fitzsimmons, had habit

Pay Your Debt to Your Defenders!

Turn Your Luxuries into Comforts for those who have Sacrificed Most.

"Self-sacrifice, self-denial and service lie at the basis of the highest personal and national development."

Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance.

Is it nothing to you that men from all round you have sacrificed home and salary, safety and life, to defend your home as well as their own?

Is it nothing to you that their wives and families tremblingly scan each casualty list, and pale at the step of the postman or telegraph messenger?

Can you see others giving their dearest, without feeling that you must do something yourself? Do you wonder what to do?

You can at least save—and lend your savings to the nation. Canada needs every dollar her loyal sons and daughters can spare, to meet the growing expenses of the struggle.

Every dollar you invest in Canadian War Savings Certificates helps the nation to deal generously with those who are defending you.

Certificates in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, repayable in three years, may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively. This means over 5% interest—making them a profitable as well as a patriotic investment.

Shipping News

IRREGULAR MOVEMENTS OF SHIPS IN JUNE

INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF VESSELS BETWEEN N.Y. AND FOREIGN PORTS.

New York, July 3.—In spite of German submarines the movement of shipping between New York and foreign ports increased in June as compared with May, according to custom house statistics given out today. Thirty seven more ships arrived at this port in June than in May. The arrivals numbered 463 with a total tonnage of 1,252,599, as compared with 428 ships with a total tonnage of 1,099,433 for May.

Thirty more ships sailed from New York in June, the total being 458, with a tonnage of 1,225,536, as compared with 428 and 1,153,508 tonnage in May.

American ships reaching this port in June, numbered 121, a decrease of six, while 136 American ships departed, an increase of two over May.

Clearances for the year ending June 30, 1917, totalled, however, only 13,630,245 tons compared with 16,541,482 tons for the year ending June 30, 1916, the year before the war. On the other hand, the clearances were in excess of those for the 12 months ending June 30, 1915, which were 12,944,075 tons.

CUSTOMS RETURNS STILL ON INCREASE.

More Than $9,000 Collected the Past Month Over Corresponding Period Last Year.

The customs returns for the port of Quebec still continues to show an increase despite war conditions.

For the month of June, 1917, the receipt amounted to the sum of $230,615.49, while for June, 1916, the receipts were $222,393.63. Consequently there is an increase of $8,221.86 for June, 1917, over the corresponding month last year.

BRITAIN MAY CURTAIL SHIPPING TO FAR EAST.

Advices from London under recent date state reports have been current that it is intended to suspend all shipping of merchandise to the Far East. The Shipping Controller writes to the Manchester Chamber of Commerce that the reports are inaccurate, but he repeats the warning that was recently given to a Manchester deputation, as follows:

"It may become necessary, despite the considerable reduction already made, still further to curtail the facilities, and in the circumstances we (the Ministry of Shipping) think it is not inadvisable that you should bring to the notice of your members the necessity of exercising caution in entering into commitments ahead. It is quite impossible for this Department to make any precise and categorical statement as to the future, but the Controller desires me to say that the interests of shippers to the Far East are continuously receiving his careful attention and that any further guidance which it is possible to give from time to time will be given."

FRENCH MERCHANT MARINE FACING GRAVE CRISIS

Writing in the Petit Parisien, M. Georges Bousset, a member of the Chamber and Secretary to the Naval Committee, after declaring that the French mercantile marine is passing through a very grave crisis, says:

"If ruin of our mercantile marine is not to be complete it is urgently necessary: 1. That the Allies should supply us with raw materials of which we have need, and that Great Britain, in particular, should furnish us with a certain quantity of plate steel in compensation for tonnage which she has been obliged to withdraw from us. At the present moment we have 608 British ships working for us, a slightly smaller number than that provided for in the agreement of December 3, 1916.

"2. That the formalities required by the Administration for the delivery of material for the repair of ships should be simplified.

"3. That 1,000 or 1,200 skilled workmen now serving in the army should be sent to the dockyards.

"4. That those of our Allies, who, like Great Britain and the United States, possess many shipbuilding yards, should place a certain proportion of their building resources at our disposal.

"5. That the agreements made with Great Britain regarding the joint purchase of neutral ships should leave to France a fair number of ships so purchased."

In conclusion M. Bousset declares that a complete reorganization of the different services would be required to secure speedy and efficient carrying out of the above suggestions. All matters regarding sea transport should be centralized. In a single department at present, responsibility was divided between the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Marine and Finance, and the Food Controller.

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

Harriston (Ont.) Father Says Dr. Cassell's Tablets Saved his Child's Life.

Mr. Corby, Harriston P.O., Ont., writes: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things got no better. She just lay in her cot and cried, and neighbors all said we could not save her. The doctors said she had stomach trouble, and that her chances were small, yet Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured her. They have been worth their weight in gold to us, for we were just giving up hope of saving our little daughter. I don't think there is any other medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Publish this letter if you like; it may help others as the Tablets helped us."

A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCaul-st., Toronto.

Closing Letters By the Can. Press

(By Canadian Press)
New York, July 3—In its essential features today's stock market was almost a repetition of recent dull and irregular sessions. Business was much curtailed because of the impending holiday and the continued absence of public participation.
Money conditions were actually conducive to speculation for the bull account, but trading in that quarter was checked by increasing perplexities respecting war profits and taxes. Call loans were in free supply at 3 1/2 per cent and time money was more abundant than at any period in the past three weeks.
Bears renewed their attacks upon the more mercurial issues, chiefly motors, some of the lesser equipments and minor specialties, Studebaker showing an extreme loss of about 6 points and others of the same division yielding 2 to 4.
Rails also experienced additional price attrition, a few of the dividend issues recording lowest quotations for the current decline. That group rallied briskly in the covering movement of the final hour, St. Paul making material recovery from yesterday's severe loss. Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Great Northern and Reading was equally responsive to fair support.
Pronounced betterment was also shown by coppers, oils, tobacco and certain high priced specialties, under professional control. Industrial Alcohol, Ohio Gas, Mexican Tobacco finished at gains of 2 to 4 points.
United States Steel and kindred shares were depressed during the greater part of the day, but hardened later on the strength of allied equipments. Virtually all the activity occurred in the first hour, the balance of the session being characterized by extreme apathy. Total sales amounted to 540,000 shares.
The strength of Swiss exchange featured the market for foreign remittances, rubles holding at the minimum recorded yesterday.
Railroad bonds were heavy, international's irregular and Liberty's firm at par to 100 3/50. Total sales par value, were $2,540,000.
United States coupon and registered 2's and 4's declined 1-2 per cent on call. Registered 4's lost 1 per cent on a single sale.

Closing Letters By Local Brokers

(By McDougall & Cowans).
New York, July 3—During the larger part of the afternoon the volume of business was so light that such price changes as occurred had no great significance. Studebaker went off about 5 points and made only a slight recovery. Mexican Petroleum displayed some strength, but the general list sold off in a desultory way, and then slightly recovered just before the close, making only the slightest net changes for the day. Sales today, stocks 701,000.
(By Breen & Gourdeau).
New York, July 3—Irregularity and generally narrow changes characterized the movement of stock market prices today. Dealings, too, which were chiefly for professional account, were considerably reduced in volume. Trading up to the last hour of business was carried on in a listless fashion and represented practically little else but the salping efforts of a very few floor traders.
Pre-holiday evening-up in the final hour of the session caused a general improvement in the price level, but this advance was wholly unimportant, so far as its bearing on the market's future will be concerned. We regard the general situation and outlook as unchanged.
Sales, stocks, 540,500; Bonds, $2,500,000.
