Nobel Laureate Dr. Robert Mundell, Canadian writer Mordecai Richler, the CEO of Canadian National Ron Lawless and Order of Canada recipient Dr. William J. Klinck will be the honorands at this year's convocation at Bishop's University, each becoming recipients of Doctor of Civil Law degrees.

Dr. Robert Mundell, winner of the 1999 Nobel Prize for Economics, will give the convocation address during the graduation ceremony on Saturday at the John H. Price Sports Centre.

Co-founder of the Cormier Centre for International Economics at Bishop's, of which he has been a friend and supporter since 1989, Mundell has been an economics professor at Columbia University in New York City since 1974.

The world-renowned economics advisor to the United Nations, the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and many governments including his native Canada, Mundell has also authored a number of works on economic theory and is a pioneer in the area of monetary and fiscal policy.

Mordecai Richler needs no introduction to Townships audiences. The highly acclaimed author, who divides his time between homes in London, England and Austin on the shores of Lake Memphremagog, is the author of many novels and an acerbic critic of Quebec politics in a weekly column for The Gazette and in regular contributions to prestigious magazines including The New Yorker, Harper's, Atlantic Monthly and the New York Times Review of Books.

Though not a university graduate himself, Ron Lawless has actively promoted the cause of higher education through his involvement with McGill, Concordia, the University of Manitoba and Bishop's. Lawless became a member of the Corporation of Bishop's University in 1988, serving as chair of the executive committee from 1993 to 1995, and president from 1995 to 1999.

A native of Ontario, Dr. William J. Klinck came to the Townships on a temporary assignment and ended up staying for more than 60 years.

In addition to his work as a surgeon in the Lennoxville community and at the former Sherbrooke Hospital, Dr. Klinck was an active medical missionary first in Labrador and later in Nigeria, the Sudan and Benin.

Always concerned for the welfare of the disadvantaged and infirm, he was the founder of Grace Christian Home and the Connaught home for the elderly, where he is still the resident physician. Dr. Klinck also founded Maplemount Home for children and provided medical care for Dixville Home and Frontier Lodge.

His lifetime of religious, charitable and medical contributions were recognized by his investiture in the Order of Canada in 1998.
