RATIFICATIONS.

Province of Lower Canada, } IN THE KING'S BENCH. District of Quebec. } Quebec, 8th December, 1831. No. 1217.

Experte—ALEXANDER MILLER, Assistant Inspector of Roads for the City and Banlieue of Québec.

PUBLIC NOTICE is, by these presents, given that there has been deposited in the Office of the Prothonotaries of the Court of King's Bench for the district of Quebec, two deeds, to wit: An acte consented to, by JOSEPH MAILLOU, Bachelor, of full age, garçon majeur, and MAGDELEINE DROUIN, fille majeure, both of the city of Quebec, in favor of ALEXANDER MILLER of the said place, Assistant Inspector of Roads for the City and Banlieue of Quebec, passed before Mre. Louis Panet and his confrère, Notaries, at Quebec, dated the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, purporting to be a sale of three undivided fourth parts of an emplacement situate in the Upper Town of Quebec, containing in the whole thirty feet in front or thereabout, by eighty feet in depth, bounded in front by the level of the street St. Joachim, and in rear by Anthony Anderson, representing Jacques Dénéchan; on one side to the north-east by Miss Todd, and on the other side to the south-west by Mr. Mills, together with the three undivided fourth parts of the house, stable, coach-house, and other buildings thereon erected, circumstances and dependencies. And another acte, executed by Alexis

Pelletier, pilot, residing at Isle Verte, in the county of Rimouski, in the district above mentioned, as well for himself as for Emille Maillon, his wife, in favour of the said Alexander Miller, passed before the said Mre. Louis Panet and his confrère, Notaries, at Quebec, dated the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, being a sale of the other undivided fourth part of the emplacement, house, and dependencies herein before described. The said Alexander Miller has been in possession of the said immovable property since the twenty second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty; conformably to the deed herein above recited; before which period the said immovable property had been in the possession of Joseph Maillon, carter, of the city of Quebec, and this, in right of proprietorship of the said immovable property during the three years preceding. The said immovable property is Hypothèque et grève in favor of the said Magdeleine Drouin, to the payment of a sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds, currency, for the remainder of the price stipulated for the purchase according to the said deed of the twenty-second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty—which sum is payable in three years from this date, without interest for the first year, but with interest on the two last years. That moreover the said Magdeleine Drouin is to have the use and enjoyment of the said emplacement and house during three years, reckoning from the first of May; one thousand eight hundred and thirty, the first year without payment of any rent, and the two other years at the rate of two pounds, currency, per month, payable at the expiration of each month. And the said immovable property is also hypothèque et grève in favor of the said Alexis Pelletier and of the said Emille Maillon, his wife, to the payment of the sum of sixty-two pounds ten shillings, currency, for the balance of the purchase money according to the said deed of the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, which sum is payable the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, without interest. All persons who have or claim to have any privileges or hypothèques in virtue of any title, or by any other means afover, in and upon the said emplacement and house herein above described immediately before and at the time of the sale of the same by the said Joseph Maillon, Magdeleine Drouin, Alexis Pelletier, and Emille Maillon, are by these presents required to take notice, that an application will be made to the said Court, on MONDAY, the NINTH day of APRIL next, for a sentence or judgment of ratification, and they are by these presents required to signify in writing their oppositions, and file them in the office of the said prothonotary, eight days at least before that day. In default of which they will be for ever foreclosed the right of doing so.

Experte—JAMES GIBB and THOMAS GIBB.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that there has been lodged in the Office of the Prothonotary of the Court of King's Bench for the district of Quebec, a deed of sale made and passed at Montreal before Mre. Grant and his confrère, Notaries Public, the twenty-second day of the month of October last past, between the Honorable GEORGE MOFFATT, of the City of Montreal, merchant, acting in the name of and as Attorney, procureur fondé of Archibald Lawson of Glasgow, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Scotland, merchant, the said Archibald Lawson acting in the name of and as commissioner of the sequestrated goods and chattels of the co-partnership of John Macnaught and company of Glasgow aforesaid, merchants, and of John Macnaught, as member of the said co-partnership, the said George Moffatt, acting also in the name of and as attorney, procureur fondé, of the said John Macnaught, of the one part, and Messrs. JAMES GIBB and THOMAS GIBB of the City of Quebec, merchants, of the other part, present and accepting for them Robert Simpson of the City of Montreal, merchant, their attorney, procureur fondé, that is to say:—Of one just undivided fourth part of a certain lot or piece of land and dependencies situate on the north shore of the river St. Lawrence, in the Lower Town of Quebec, in the said Province of Lower Canada, to wit:—A certain wharf or lot of land, situate on the east side of Champlain street, bounded as follows that is to say:—towards the south east by the river St. Lawrence, towards the north west by Champlain street, towards the south west by Anthony Anderson, and towards the north east by His Majesty, and containing thirty eight thousand and twenty feet in superficies, English measure, and such as the said lot or piece of land and premises are more at length described in the Letters Patent, granting the same, and in the plan thereto annexed, together with a just undivided fourth part of the houses, hangards and other buildings built upon the said premises, circumstances and dependencies, and moreover one just undivided fourth part of all the term which remains unexpired of the baill emphythéotique, under Letters Patent granted by His Majesty for the term of thirty years, which began to run from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, to the Honorable James Irvine, John Macnaught, Alexander Leslie and James Leslie, dated at the Castle of St. Lewis, in the city of Quebec, in the said Province, the seventeenth of June, in the said year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, of a certain lot or piece of land and wharf situate on the east side of said Champlain street, in the said Lower Town of Quebec, bounded as follows, that is to say: on the north east and south east sides by part of the "King's Wharf" and by the river St. Lawrence, and the south west and north west sides by the wharf and premises then actually occupied by the said James Irvine, John Macnaught, Alex. Leslie, and Jas. Leslie, and containing three thousand and forty-four feet in superficies, English measure, and such as the said lot or wharf are also more at large described in the said bail emphythéotique under the Letters Patent granting the same as above said, and in the plan thereto annexed, circumstances and dependencies. The said sale made, subject the purchasers to fulfil and execute all the charges, clauses and conditions, and to observe all the restrictions and reservations upon or concerning the said lots or pieces of land and premises so sold and granted, conveyed, and mentioned in the said Letters patent, and especially subject to the charge of continuing to pay to our Sovereign Lord the King, the annual rent covenanted for in the said bail emphythéotique, under the letters patent above dated; to wit; the sum of twenty six pounds, eleven shillings currency, every six months, the which payments, shall be made in the said province of Lower Canada, to the Receiver General of his Majesty or others to whom it may appertain, on the first days of November and May in each year, during all the remaining unexpired term of the said bail emphythéotique. It is nevertheless understood and agreed upon that the said James Gibb and Thomas Gibb, their heirs and assigns, shall only be charged by these presents, to wit: firstly, with the payment of the just fourth of the said annual rent or sum of twenty-six pounds, eleven shillings currency; and secondly, with fulfilling and executing one fourth of all and several the charges and obligations above mentioned. The said parties declaring in conclusion, that the said deed of sale is in confirmation of the sale in form of lease and release made à l'instant des mêmes lieux by the said vendor, in the names as aforesaid, to the said purchasers, which said deeds are also deposited with the aforesaid deed, to have recourse thereto, in case of need. The said undivided fourth part of the said lot or piece of land, houses, wharf, buildings and other premises, has been possessed by the said John Macnaught for the three last years, which have immediately preceded the said twenty-second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, date of the said deed of sale, and since that day to the present moment by the said James Gibb and Thomas Gibb. And all persons who may have or claim to have, any privilege or hypothec, under any title or by any means whatsoever, in or upon the said property, immediately previous to and at the time the same was acquired by the said Honorable George Moffatt, are hereby notified, that application will be made to the said Court, on the NINTH day of APRIL next, for a sentence or judgment of confirmation, and they are hereby required to signify in writing their oppositions, and file the same in the office of the said Prothonotary, eight days at least before that day, in default of which they will be for ever precluded from the right of doing so.

RULES AND STANDING ORDERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE PROVINCE OF LOWER CANADA, IN RELATION TO PRIVATE BILLS.

THAT no Bill for making or altering any Rail-way or Tram-road, Canal, Aqueduct, for supplying any city, town or place with water, or any turnpike-road, toll bridge, ferry, dock or pier, or for altering any Act of the Provincial Parliament passed for any of those purposes, by increasing any tolls or duties, or altering, or extending, or diminishing any work mentioned in such Act, or the time allowed by such Act for executing such work, shall be read a third time in this House, unless notice that an application was intended to be made to the Provincial Parliament to obtain such Bill, shall be inserted in some one newspaper having general circulation in the District, or Inferior District, in or through which such rail-way, tram-road, canal, aqueduct, turnpike-road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock or pier is intended to be made, or in which the same (if already made and intended to be varied or altered) shall be situated or shall pass, which notice shall be inserted in such newspaper in the English and French languages, eight times at the least during the two months immediately preceding the Session of the Provincial Parliament in which such application is intended to be made; and unless such notice shall also have been given at the last General Quarter Session of the Peace, which shall have been holden next before the Session of the Provincial Parliament in which such application is intended to be made for the district, inferior district or county, in or through which any such rail-way, tram-road, canal, aqueduct, turnpike-road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock or pier is intended to be made or carried, or in which the same if already made and intended to be varied or altered, shall be situated, which last mentioned notice shall be given by affixing such notice in the English and French languages on the door of the Court House or other public building appointed for holding such Quarter

Sessions. And such notices herein-before mentioned shall severally contain the names of the parishes or townships in or through which any such rail-way, tram-road, turnpike road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock or pier is intended to be made or carried, or to be varied or altered.

LII. No Bill for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, except turnpike-roads, shall be read a second time in this House, unless a map or plan of such intended rail-road, tram-road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock or pier, or of any intended extension or alteration in any rail-road tram-road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock or pier, already made (as the case may be) and of the several lands from which any streams of water shall be intended to be taken for the use of any such canal or aqueduct, shall have been deposited with the Clerk of the Parliaments; in which map or plan shall be described the line of such intended rail-way, tram-road, toll-bridge, ferry, dock, or pier, or of such intended alteration, and the lands through which the same is intended to be carried, or from which any such streams of water are intended to be taken, together with a book of reference, containing a list of the names of the owners or reputed owners, and also of the occupiers of such lands respectively; and that there be also annexed to such map or plan an estimate of the expense of such undertaking (in cases where provision is intended to be made for raising money to defray such expense) such estimate to be signed by the person or persons making the same; and if such money is proposed to be raised by subscription, that there be also annexed to such map or plan an account of the money subscribed for that purpose, and the names of the subscribers with the sums subscribed by them respectively; and there shall also be annexed to such map or plan an estimate of the probable time within which the whole work may be completed.

LIII. That no bill for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, except Turnpike-roads shall be read a third time in this House, unless previously to such Bill being brought to this House from the Assembly, application shall have been made to the owners or reputed owners, and to the occupiers of the Lands in or through or upon which such work or undertaking is intended to be made, or carried, or any such alteration is intended to be made, for the consent of such persons respectively, and unless such Map or Plan as aforesaid, or a duplicate thereof, shall at the time of making such application, have been shown to them respectively; and unless separate lists shall have been made of the names of such owners and occupiers, distinguishing which of them upon such application have assented to or dissented from such intended work or undertaking, or such alteration, or are neuter in respect thereof, and unless such list shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Parliaments at the same time with the map or plan, and book of reference mentioned in the standing order No. 51.

LIII. That in case any bill for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, shall contain a clause to empower the persons who shall make or execute such work or undertaking, to vary or deviate from the line particularly described in the map or plan deposited with the Clerk of the Parliaments, such bill shall not be read a third time in this House unless a like application shall have been made to the owners or reputed owners and occupiers of the lands in, through or upon which such work or undertaking might pass, or be carried by virtue of the power so given to alter or vary the line thereof, and unless a like list as aforesaid of such owners or reputed owners and occupiers shall have been deposited at the time and in the manner aforesaid with the Clerk of the Parliaments, as if it had been originally proposed to make or carry such work or undertaking through the lands of such persons respectively.

LIV. That no bill for making or improving any canal or aqueduct shall be read a third time in this House unless previously to such bill being brought to this House from the Commons, application shall have been made to the owners or reputed owners, and also to the occupiers of lands, streams and mills from which any water shall by such bill be proposed to be taken for the purposes of such canal or aqueduct, to the prejudice of such owners, reputed owners or occupiers of such lands, streams and mills.

LV. That no bill for any such purposes as aforesaid shall be read a third time in this House, unless there shall be contained therein a provision that in case the work intended to be carried into effect under the authority of such bill shall not have been completed so as to answer the objects of such bill, within a time to be thereby limited, all the powers and authorities given by such bill shall thenceforth cease and determine, save only as to so much of the work as shall have been completed within such time, with such provisions and qualifications as the case shall require.

LVI. That with the exception of Bills for making or executing any such work or undertaking as is mentioned in the foregoing standing orders, all Bills brought into this House enacting or declaring that certain persons shall form a body politic and corporate, who shall only be bound to the extent of their respective shares, or granting to the same the privilege of perpetual succession and a common seal, or the right of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, or granting further privileges to any body politic and corporate previously constituted such, or any Bill conveying to any number of persons who are not bound conjointly and severally to the extent of their respective fortunes one or more of the aforesaid privileges, such Bill shall not be read a third time in this House unless it contain a clause requiring, before any one or more of the privileges intended to be conferred by such Bill, shall avail to, or in any manner be exercised by such body politic and corporate, that the capital intended to form the joint stock of such body politic and corporate shall be subscribed, and three-fourths thereof actually paid up, to be certified under oath, by a majority of the directors or managers of such body politic and corporate, to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province for the time being.
