Civil defence

Estimate the toll of H-bomb

ARNPRIOR, Ont. (CP) — The number of people killed by an atomic attack in Canada would depend on how ready for the attack the people in the target area were.

Federal experts estimate that a five-megaton bomb detonated over each of the 13 major cities in Canada without warning—and without civilian preparation—would kill more than 3,000,000 people.

But civil defence officials also estimate that in these same hypothetical explosions the toll would be reduced "very greatly" if people knew where to go and what to do, and if they had treatment facilities and teams ready.

INTENSIVE TRAINING

The civic leaders from New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland will get four days of intensive training at the Civil Defence College in this community about 40 miles west of Ottawa.

The course is sponsored by the Emergency Measures Organization, the federal agency in charge of Civil Defence.

Mayors, reeves and wardens from big and small Atlantic communities will hear experts from Emergency Measures, the defence research board, the health department and the army.

Speakers will include R. B. Bryce, clerk of the privy council, and R. B. Curry, director of Emergency Measures, the organization set up in the prime minister's office in 1957 to develop and co-ordinate Canada's CD operations.

Lecture subjects include the effects of nuclear weapons, federal, provincial and civic emergency planning, radiation hazards, emergency health and welfare services and an explanation of Canada's national attack warning system.

Motive for suit quite transparent

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A father has filed a $25,000 damage suit for the humiliation of his 17-year-old daughter suffered when, he says, a new bathing suit became transparent the first time she wore it in the water.

Claude Rogers filed the suit Monday in behalf of his daughter, Linda Rogers, against R. H. Macy and Company of New York, doing business as Davison-Paxon Company.

The suit said the girl paid $16.98 for the white bathing suit which became transparent when wet "and did expose plaintiff's nakedness, then and there causing plaintiff great humiliation, mortification and embarrassment."

C of C revives national flag issue

CALGARY — (CP) — Strong support for a distinctive Canadian national flag was given Monday night by the policy committee of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

The executive committee had recommended that chamber declarations on the matter be deleted, on the ground that the request had been passed on to Parliament and the government.

In what seemed a unanimous decision, however, the policy committee rejected the recommendation following strong statements on behalf of various chambers.

The committee also overrode an executive recommendation to delete a request that the federal government adopt an officially approved version of "O Canada" as a national anthem.

The committee further reinstated—against executive committee recommendation—a statement that the chamber give leadership to ensure appropriate observance of Dominion Day.

In the warmest debate of the day, the committee turned down a Calgary request that the government take steps to see that Western Canadian oil enters the Montreal market. It accepted arguments that the time for rec-

Plan winter works

Sherbrooke will undertake winter works costing $160,700 under the federal-provincial program for easing unemployment. It was decided by City Council last night.

Two resolutions, passed by Council to this effect, are to be submitted to the Minister of Municipal Affairs for approval.

Federal-provincial aid amounts to 90 per cent of the cost of the labor for an approved winter works program. In this case it will be $47,630.

Of the works planned, the most important is the Victoria park swimming pool which is expected to cost $132,700. Council had already decided to go ahead with this project whether or not they received aid, but it appears that the work conforms to the terms of the federal-provincial aid program.

Council agreed that personnel employed by the contractor who has the contract, J. W. Roy, would be unemployed this winter if the swimming pool were not being built. Aid foreseen for this work amounts to $26,480.70, of which $14,711.50 will be paid by the federal government and $11,769.20 will be paid by the provincial government.

The second resolution passed was for works costing $28,000 consisting of repairs to the municipal library and fire station No. 1 and for the planting of trees in various parts of the city. Under the aid program, $11,750 of this will be paid by the federal government, and $9,400 by the provincial government for a total of $21,150.

Lennoxville council: Request financial aid for housing project

The Town of Lennoxville has applied to the Department of Municipal Affairs and the Quebec Municipal Commission for financial assistance for the Windsor Street housing project, under a new clause of the Winter Work Program.

The project calls for a total expenditure of approximately $15,000. Government assistance is expected to be between $2,700 and $3,000 council revealed last night.

Under a new clause in the Winter Work program, the date has been advanced to Oct. 15.

Smallest baby holding her own

HAMILTON (CP) — Camella Almasi, one of the smallest babies born in Hamilton is "holding her own" in her fight for life, officials at the Mount Hamilton Hospital said Monday.

The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Imre Almasi, weighed only one pound, eight ounces when born three months prematurely.

Provinces upheld

OTTAWA — (CP) The constitutional validity of provincial careless-driving laws was upheld today by the Supreme Court of Canada.

The judgment upholding provincial careless-driving laws was 7 to 2 with Mr. Justice C. H. Locke and Mr. Justice J. R. Cartwright dissenting.

The issue was whether careless driving laws are within the constitutional jurisdiction of the provinces or invade the field of criminal law, a federal reserve.

The case involved an appeal by Winnipeg motorist James Patrick O'Grady contesting legality of Manitoba's careless-driving law. All other provincial careless-driving laws are the same or similar to Manitoba's.

For this reason, Mr. O'Grady's appeal was opposed by the federal government and the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Nova Scotia.

Mr. O'Grady was charged at Portage La Prairie, Man., Jan. 10, 1959, under the Manitoba highway traffic act with driving a car without due care and attention.

He also was convicted of a similar charge by Magistrate Harvey D. Sparling of Portage Oct. 21, 1958.

In the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench, Mr. O'Grady applied for a writ prohibiting the magistrate from trying or hearing the Jan. 10 incident. He argued that the careless-driving section of the act infringed federal rights because it constituted criminal law.

The court of Queen's Bench dismissed the O'Grady application and this decision was upheld by the Manitoba Appeal Court and now by the Supreme Court of Canada.

Dope ring smashed

NEW YORK (AP)—An international dope smuggling ring has been smashed with the arrest of a Guatemalan diplomat and three other men and the seizure of $4,000,000 worth of pure heroin, officials say.

The narcotics could have brought in $20,000,000 on the illicit retail market.

Officials said it was the largest seizure of narcotics ever known to the U.S. government.

Mauricio Rosa, 47, Guatemalan's ambassador to Belgium and The Netherlands, and the others were held in $1,000,000 total bail Monday after their arrest in Mahattan.

Rest house chairs ruled too cozy

NORWICH, England (CP) Comfortable sofas and easy chairs were replaced by upright wooden seats in an ancient house in Norwich because too many women shoppers fell asleep in them.

The house, left by a businessman in the 17th century "for the benefit of the public," had been furnished with the sofas and chairs so that people waiting to meet a friend could sit down.

Women shoppers found it an ideal rest spot. They removed their shoes and napped.

Said a city official: "Some of them even snored!"

Shot a gorilla

BORDEAUX, France (Reuter) — Farmer Jean Audigney went to shoot rabbits near here Monday and bagged a gorilla. The gorilla wounded one of his dogs. Audigney spotted the ape hiding in a ticket and shot it dead. The gorilla had escaped from a circus.

The accident occurred when the engine, carrying five men, struck the cows while the train was moving in reverse. The caboose and six flatcars were derailed.

The line was blocked for several hours but traffic was moving again early this morning.

Stanbridge East

Housewives win out in anti-speed drive

By PAT BOUGIE (Record Staff Reporter)

STANBRIDGE EAST — Two Provincial Police officials last night promised to support the Stanbridge East municipal council in its resolve to have speed laws enforced within the municipality.

The council's decision was the direct result of a petition presented by Stanbridge East housewives demanding that speed laws be instituted and enforced in the town.

The petition called for a 20 miles per hour speed limit within the municipality; parking on only one side of the main street, Route 52; installation of a caution light in front of the general store; a sign indicating the sharp curve at the Bedford entrance to the village; removal of a hedge at a blind corner.

Twenty-eight mothers were present at the council meeting to support Mrs. Marguerite Brown who turned the petition over to Mayor Donald Blinn.

The housewives had been circulating the petition for two weeks, ever since the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vaughan was killed on Main Street after stepping into the road from behind a parked car.

After considering the five demands which had been presented, the Council decided to have signs posted in the town's two school zones and in the commercial area reminding motorists of the speed limit; to have a caution light installed in front of the General Store on Main Street; to have a sign erected indicating the sharp turn at the Bedford entrance to the village. In addition the mayor was charged with contacting the resident whose hedges obliterate the view of the highway and arranging for them to be cut down.

The council rejected the proposal that would have permitted parking on only one side of Main Street.

Sergeant Armand Leclair of the Cowansville detachment of the Provincial Police assured Mayor Blinn that anyone breaking the 20 miles per hour speed limit in the three zones where signs will be posted would be stopped and given a traffic ticket.

Councillors attending the meeting were: William Reaffe, George Hamilton, Robert Boomhour, Georges Larocque, Lionel Tremblay, and Clifford Rhicard.

Town secretary, Charles Moore, and municipal inspector, Sidney Short, also attended the meeting.

Hold five in bank robberies

Five members of a gang believed to have stolen about $30,000 in bank robberies in the Province this year will face arraignment in Sherbrooke in the near future, a Provincial Police spokesman in Montreal said Monday.

The five were arrested last weekend in Montreal and were part of a gang of nine, including one woman. While the female member eluded capture, clothing belonging to her was found in an apartment where one of the arrests was made.

Of the three men still free, one is believed to be in Mexico. One of the robberies took place May 12 at a branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Scottstown when a total of $6,000 was taken.

Other arraignments will take place in Valleyfield, St. Hyacinthe and Sorel.

Living cost is up again

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian living costs reached a record high point Sept. 1 with a 0.4-per-cent advance in the consumer price index during August.

The bureau of statistics reported today a half-point rise in the consumer price index to 128.4 on Sept. 1 from 127.9 a month earlier.

The main upward pressure came from a 1.3-per-cent advance in food prices during the month. This helped move the index to a level one per cent above the year-earlier level of 127.1 on Sept. 1, 1959.

The index, yardstick of consumer living costs, is based on 1949 price levels equalling 100. The previous high point was 128.3 last Nov. 1.

2,000,000 square feet in suburban Quebec City

Canadians offer 'no strings' site for UN

By MALCOLM DAIGNEAULT (Record Staff Reporter)

A group of Canadian businessmen including Sam and Morton Vineberg of Sherbrooke, has offered the United Nations 2,000,000 square feet of land in the town of Ste. Foy, a suburb of Quebec City, "no strings attached," for a new United Nations building.

The land was offered in a letter to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld by Montreal lawyer Louis Orenstein, part owner of the land and spokesman for the group which also includes Frank and Simon Cobrin of Montreal as well as the Vinebergs.

"Since it has been suggested that the site of the United Nations be moved, we thought they might consider this offer to which there are absolutely no strings attached," Morton Vineberg told The Record this morning.

He noted that the town of Ste. Foy is ideally located near an airport and that highways into Quebec City and to Montreal are close at hand.

"It is in everybody's interest to have the United Nations meeting in a calm atmosphere and we would be very happy to donate this land for that purpose," said

Mr. Vineberg.

In the letter sent to Mr. Hammarskjöld, Mr. Orenstein noted that the London Evening Standard had suggested that the United Nations move from New York to the Quebec City region.

The offer was made because it was up to "well-intentioned people to keep the United Nations going . . ."

It went on to say, "There are absolutely no strings attached to this offer, all taxes having been fully paid and the land being free and clear of all entanglement, attachment or legal defects."

DOUBLE REVEALS WEST STRENGTH

East's two diamond opening is a typical example of the weak bid made with a six card suit and a hand that isn't quite strong enough for an opening one bid.

The subsequent bidding is just what you expect to see in tough national competition and Mrs. Ralph Kempner of Los Angeles found herself doubled at three hearts.

She won the second diamond lead with her king and promptly led the deuce of hearts. West was equally prompt in playing the four spade, but Mrs. Kempner took quite a while before calling a card from dummy.

West surely held the ace of spades as part of his double but would he have doubled without three potential heart tricks? Mrs. Kempner thought he would not have done so and in that case she had the medicine for him. The eight of hearts was played from dummy and West's three trump tricks were cut down to two.

The rest of the play was simple. She cashed the ace of hearts; came back to her hand with a club; led a spade toward dum-

About Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Television fans who believed the 3,000 miles and legal action now separating Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz meant a windup to the adventures of Lucy and Ricky Ricardo can take heart. Plans are in the works to film a semi-biographical Lucy Goes to Broadway after New Year's Day.

The setting will be New York and all the I Love Lucy regulars are to be present and accounted for. Meanwhile, Lucille Ball is spending a television leave-of-absence rehearsing for her first Broadway show, Wildcat. It's scheduled to try out in Philadelphia for six weeks starting Oct. 29 and open in New York Dec. 15.

Lucy also is involved in promoting the movie The Facts of Life which she recently made with Bob Hope and which will premiere at about the same time as the musical comedy; in regular sessions with a voice coach; in making occasional guest appearances on television (designed to plug play and film), in getting her family settled in a new east side Manhattan apartment and in getting the children settled in school.

LOVES TO WORK

"I'm over-worked and I'm over-booked—I don't have time even to see friends," she said, looking slim, happy and healthy.

"But I love to work and I love to try new things. It's good for me."

Lucy's hectic schedule is partly due to a leg infection resulting from a nasty cut just above her right ankle received while making the film in Hollywood two months ago. It stubbornly refused to clear up, with the result she was working all day at the studio and spending her nights in a Hollywood hospital. Returning to New York, she took time out to treat the infection, but only after doctors told her she might be crippled if she didn't give the antibiotics a chance to work.

The comedienne, her two children and her mother have moved into a handsome apartment in a building so new that most of the lower floors still are uninhabitable and mechanics still are installing elevators.

The apartment is still in the process of being furnished. A big terrace overlooks the city, and Lucy says the two children, Lucie, 9, and Desi, 7, like this best.

EXPLAINS DIVORCE

Recently, Lucille, collaborated with a professional writer, on a magazine piece in which she explained the circumstances surrounding her divorce from Desi after almost 20 years of marriage. She blamed it entirely on over-work resulting from Desi's success as a businessman as well as a performer, and his way of compensating by over-playing.

She wrote the piece, she says, because she wanted to explain the situation once and for all. Now she will not go into the marital matter again, although references to Desi are casually and affectionately scattered through her conversation, and pictures of him are prominent in her bedroom, the living room, and of course in the children's rooms.

Although Lucy is an Anglican, the two children are being brought up in the Roman Catholic faith—their father's religion—and both are attending a parochial school in Manhattan.

GERARD MARCHAND UNDERTAKES TO ASK THE CITY COUNCIL FOR —

1. THE ADOPTION OF A PROJECT OF BUILDING A BRIDGE towards the East, from Prospect Street.
This project will solve the traffic bottleneck of the Victoria, Prospect, Ontario Triangle, and will also solve the problem of heavy traffic in the centre of the city, by bringing a good part of it along Prospect and will also contribute to the development of an interesting part of our ward and will cost the taxpayer much less.
If the present project of a Montreal-Terrill Bridge is accepted, it will mean the destroying of many buildings; some of significant historical importance, e.g., St. Peter's Church, Plymouth Church, Grace Chapel, the Synagogue, the Convent of the Sisters of the Precious Blood, the Convent of the Sisters of St. Sacrament and many fine buildings on Dufferin Avenue. It will necessitate the opening of new streets, also doing away with Mitchell Park, which was given to the city for the use of all citizens.
2. THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE SYSTEM OF STREET LIGHTING, especially on Portland Avenue.
3. THE WIDENING OF THE KING WEST ENTRANCE TO THE CITY. We need a wide and safe boulevard which will be a continuation of Bourque Boulevard.
4. GERARD MARCHAND UNDERTAKES TO MEET YOU, ELECTORS, as often as possible, to give you reports of his activities in the council, and to receive your suggestions and work with you and for you.
5. GERARD MARCHAND AGREED TO BE A CANDIDATE SINCERELY, acting in his right as a citizen of a democracy. He will express his opinion; this opinion will always be based on the needs and desires of his electors.
Gerard Marchand should be elected because he is admirably qualified to fulfill the duties of alderman. WITH HIM THERE WILL BE ACTION AT CITY HALL. THERE WILL BE AN END TO THE INDECISION THAT HAS PLAGUED US FOR EIGHT YEARS.

Everett Nicol — a profile Cooperation with other aldermen seen key to council successes

Co-operation with his fellow council members is the key to obtaining improvements for his ward and for the citizens at large, Ald. Everett Nicol believes.

The North Ward alderman seeking his fourth term in tomorrow's aldermanic elections declares that he has been able to obtain much for his ward because of his readiness to work in harmony with the other members of the civic administration.

"When I went to the City Hall eight years ago, I promised that the North Ward should receive its fair share of the municipal expenditures," Ald. Nicol stated. "I believe the record of expenditures over this period proves that I have achieved this objective. But I do not want to take all the credit.

"All I could do alone was to advance certain projects and attempt to convince my colleagues that they were important to the development of my ward or my city. I always received a cordial reception for my requests from my fellow aldermen and the mayors. I plan to follow this policy in the future.

"But," the North Ward alderman continued, "this does not mean that I must accept blindly things which I do not approve. I have frequently opposed various suggestions I believed were not advantageous to the citizens."

The North Ward alderman came to Sherbrooke over 35 years ago and has been engaged in real estate management.

In addition to his studies as alderman, Ald. Nicol has been active in many other fields, for many years being a member of the Sherbrooke Protestant School Board and other organizations.

He is a keen sportsman, being especially interested in golf and curling.

One of Ald. Nicol's special interests is that of public health and during his eight years on the Council he has been in the vanguard of various campaigns in this respect.

Sherbrooke Clearing House

Clearings reported by the Sherbrooke Clearing House for the week ending September 29, 1960, totalled $4,306,635.88, Yvan Beaulieu, manager of the Clearing House reported.

The total for the corresponding week during 1959 totalled $4,923,888.11, compared with the total for the corresponding week during 1958 - $4,654,269.18.

Clearings reported for the month ending September 1960 totalled $15,288,023.52, compared with the totals for the corresponding month in 1959 - $22,140,060.08.

The totals for the corresponding month in 1958 was $18,595,114.51.

tion being taken. However, Ald. Nicol, believing that the majority of the aldermen and citizens favored the idea, presented a by-law and sought a show-down vote. His belief was justified and the measure was adopted at a single sitting of the Council.

His efforts to secure a filtration plant for the municipal water supply met with less success, however, a by-law to this effect being turned down by the ratepayers. But this did not prevent him from seeking to improve the supply and he was instrumental in the construction of the new reservoir on the Beckett Road which alleviates much of the risk of a water famine in this area.

Ald. Nicol also believes in providing healthy recreational facilities for the young people. During his term of office, the London street park development and the St. Alphonse park in the western section of the North ward undertaken.

Ald. Nicol has one daughter, Nancy.

Youth helped, back in jail

A 17-year-old youth, who had been placed on probation in his initial appearance in Court on September 14, following numerous efforts on his behalf from senior officers of the courts, was arraigned once again in District Court Monday morning on another series of theft charges. The lad pleaded guilty to all counts.

Judge Redmond Hayes severely tongue-lashed Marcel Talon before sentencing him to an additional year in penitentiary. Last week, the youth was sentenced to a two-year penitentiary term after he had admitted committing a series of thefts.

The youth, Monday morning, pleaded guilty to two car thefts committed in early September and to eight minor thefts, most of them perpetrated during the night of September 25.

Believe second gun used in killing of two elderly men

Police are searching for a second .22 calibre firearm which may be the death weapon used in the twin shooting Sunday morning near St. Elie d'Orford of two elderly men.

Medico-legal expert Dr. Jean Valcourt, of Montreal, last night extracted eight .22 calibre slugs from the bodies during autopsies.

Police believe that a second weapon was used, other than the .22 calibre, single shot rifle found in the cabin near one of the bodies.

Lennoxville UNICEF group lays plans

Lennoxville's new style in friendly ghosts will swing into action again this Halloween.

Instead of "trick or treat", or even a blood-curdling "boo", the small army of ghosts, goblins and witches that materializes on Halloween will be chorusing "Shell out for UNICEF."

If last year's initial effort is any indication, people will. More than $750 was collected for the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund and forwarded to Fund headquarters to aid children in underdeveloped areas of the world.

The fun of Halloween will not be lost, however, for the children who collect for others instead of themselves. A full program of parties, and a dance for teenagers, will finish off the evening.

Such an enterprise takes a lot of planning, however, and last evening members of the Lennoxville Home and School Association and representatives of the Students' Council met to hash out the details.

Almost 600 Lennoxville and area youngsters will this year receive official UNICEF cans with orange labels, bearing plaintive reminders of the good that can be worked with contributions as small as a penny.

"Just ice," reads the label, "provides enough milk for an undernourished child."

"Just 5c provides enough penicillin to cure a child of yaws, a deforming tropical disease."

UNICEF contributions multiply too, for governments of assisted countries add more than two dollars of their own for every one that U.N.I.C.E.F. spends.

Approximately $12,600 will be spent on Sherbrooke Street and about $2,000 on Didace Street.

The City's Business

City by-law breaches cost resident $20

A Sherbrooke resident will have to pay a fine of $20 for infractions of the zoning and construction bylaws, it was decided at the city council last night.

Rosario Rioux, 2308 Galt Street West was found to have finished three rooms in his basement without a permit and city inspectors found several infractions from the point of view of health. For one thing, window space in the rooms amounted to about three per cent, whereas the law stipulates it must be 10 per cent.

The proprietor was asked to correct these faults as well as pay the fine.

City council decided to retain the meteorology service which they have used for the last four winters. It cost the city $150 a month for four months.

Alderman Antonio Pinard demanded a report on whether or not anything had been done to carry out the orders of council in the matter of increased surveillance of Howard Park. He noted that this was a police matter and not one to be turned over to the parks and recreation department.

Following a request from Municipal Signal and Supply company that they be allowed to submit tenders for the construction of traffic lights at the corner of Larocque, Galt and Alexander, council decided last night to meet company representatives next Monday.

Director of Services Charles Langlois noted at this point that there would be no need for traffic lights at this intersection if the recommendations of the LaHaye Plan were carried out.

Lennoxville Council

To study '61 budget at November session

The Lennoxville municipal budget will be brought down and studied at the November meeting of council, it was announced last night during the regular session of council.

Ald. E. A. Lunderville's monthly financial statement, showed that tax collections were fairly good, but some departments would find themselves running close to the line by the end of 1960.

The light and the general administration departments are expected to have the most difficulty this year, secretary Ken Herring reported. The water department appears to be financially sound in spite of some heavy commitments expected later this year.

Ald. Albert Rayercraft, chairman of the roads department, reported continuing, but slow, progress on the paving of streets in the town.

The sidewalk on College street, running from the railway crossing tower to the northwest end of the crossing, would have to be continued, it was decided, as well as a widening of the south side of the street at the same point.

Empty threat

Mr. Khrushchev's threat to refuse to recognize UN decision unless the world organization's peace-making machinery is changed may have an ominous similarity to the wrecking of the League of Nations in the early 1930's by the withdrawal of Japan, Germany and Italy.

In the first place, Prime Minister Nehru of India, speaking immediately after Mr. Khrushchev as much as thumbed his nose at the Russian leader's threat.

He opposed any basic change in the UN structure, in effect opposing Mr. K's suggestion that Dag Hammarskjold be replaced with a three-man executive with veto powers.

Mr. Nehru, as the leader of the world's most successful neutral power, has great influence among the new Afro-Asian members of the U.N., most of whom are uncommitted. It was for their benefit chiefly that Mr. Khrushchev's tirade was unleashed. It is likely in this case, however, that Mr. Nehru's influence is greater and more potent than that of Mr. Khrushchev.

In the second place, Russia has never had any trouble before in refusing to recognize UN actions under the present setup. By the power of their veto in the Security Council, and by completely ignoring United Nations wishes, as in Hungary, they have many times completely forestalled any attempts to achieve peaceful, fair settlements of questions of international importance.

There is no reason to believe that Russia will not continue this policy in the UN when she feels it is in her interests to do so.

Mr. Khrushchev's threat is largely an empty one. It has long since been preceded by the fact.

A challenge to the English voter

The English-speaking electors of the North Ward are presented with a direct challenge in tomorrow's municipal vote — a challenge threatening the future of their representation on the City Council.

A substantial portion, perhaps the majority, of the French-speaking electors of the ward have indicated they decry the efforts being made to deprive the minority of its last representative on the City Council.

But the English voters cannot expect somebody else to carry their burden.

Only by turning out in large numbers and supporting the man who has ably represented them for the past eight years can they hope to have their rights respected in the future.

To enjoy the support of other elements in the population, the English voters tomorrow must show they have a real interest in their representation at the City Hall. Thursday may be too late.

In seeking re-election, Ald. Nicol presents a clear record of achievement during the past eight years which entitles him to the support of all residents of the ward.

He has shown the spirit of co-operation with other members of the Council that is essential for progress and has supported every undertaking for the advancement of his city and his ward. This is a fact that also must be considered by the English-speaking voters.

Favorite hymn

Doubts and aspersions have often been cast at polls claiming to select the top popular music in the United States and Canada.

But few people will challenge a recently-concluded musical poll. It was conducted by Christian Herald Magazine among 30,000 churchgoers in the United States in an effort to find the hymn America loves best.

The Herald decided on the survey as part of its campaign to encourage the singing of hymns in homes throughout the U.S.

In all, 20,000 readers of the magazine and another 10,000 interested persons cast their ballots.

They named a total of 1,666 hymns in the 50-state survey. And while their choices reflect American opinion they should prove of interest to Canadian churchgoers as well.

Heading the list of 50 top favorites was The Old Rugged Cross. What a Friend We have in Jesus was second. In the Garden was third. How Great Thou Art was fourth and Sweet Hour of Prayer ranked fifth.

Other old favorites listed in the top fifty of sacred songs include: Rock of Ages (7th); Lead Kindly Light (13th); A Mighty Fortress (22nd); Holy, Holy, Holy (26th); Whispering Hope (27th); Onward Christian Soldiers (28th); Near the Cross (38th); Blest Be the Tie that Binds (41st); In the Sweet By and By (44th) and When the Roll is Called up Yonder (49th).

Letters To The Editor

Re: NORTH WARD ELECTION

Dear Sir:

In your editorial of October 1st, we read:

"... the voters of the North Ward are called upon to decide between two men, one of whom is seeking re-election to office on a record of eight years of achievement as a member of the City Council, the other basing much of his campaign on race and religious prejudice."

In my message to the electors, I declare:

"To represent adequately the population of his ward, the alderman must reflect its mentality. The parish is a social cell which favors the bringing up of the family. Parish life must count on the civic authorities to fulfil its role. It is necessary, in consequence, that the alderman participate in the manifestations of parish life in his ward to encourage them and to gain information helpful to the carrying out of his mandate."

What do you think of this?

"... the French text contains a direct, unveiled appeal for the elimination of the last English Protestant representation on the City Council."

Your translation of the text is correct, but your free interpretation is absolutely wrong. We want to point out a few remarks correlating to the text.

1 — To reflect a mentality, one does not have to belong to the group, as far as religion or language is concerned. Any Protestant is, therefore, able to reflect the mentality of a Catholic group, on the ground of civic affairs, as long as he mixes with the people, to get acquainted with their problems and find a sound solution to them with the help of every one it may concern. The alderman has not showed up in many occasions, in spite of many polite invitations.

2 — We consider the parish not only as a religious unit, but also as a cultural and social unit. What is meant by "Parish life must count on the civic authorities to fulfil its role" is, for example, the multiplication of Recreation Centers, integrated in the Community life, in order to promote social and cultural activities such as: sports, chorals, folklore dances, and many other kinds of recreation, according to the needs and the wishes of the population it would serve. We can find Recreation Centers in every progressive city of Canada. In the East Ward of Sherbrooke, we find two recreation centers. Why should we not have some in the North Ward also? They secure good recreation for youngsters and for adults. But, such social project can not be performed properly without the help of every responsible government concerned with the social welfare, including the civic authorities.

We hope these remarks, if you kindly publish this letter, will assure the atmosphere of concord and cooperation which is a characteristic of the fine spirit that exists among the Catholics and the Protestants of Sherbrooke.

Yours very truly, Gerard Marchand Candidate for seat no. 1, North Ward

Dear Sir:

Re: Your Editorial, "The North Ward Election" appearing in your issue of Saturday, October 1st. You rightly deserve congratulations and praise for your outspoken sentiments relative to the North Ward elections to be held on Wednesday of this week.

A goodly number of people will readily agree with you that in view of the lengthy period that Alderman Everett Nicol has faithfully served the peoples of his ward you could hardly realize that any person could be so uncouth to oppose Ald. Nicol in this coming election. It is the sincere hope of the writer that when the elections are over Ald. Nicol will have an overwhelming majority which will show the person opposing him that his distorted tactics do not meet with approval of the voters of the North Ward. Long may Mr. Nicol represent the people of his Ward. The writer has no personal reasons for wishing Mr. Nicol success in this election as I am not personally acquainted with him but just I would like to see fair play in this campaign. It would seem that the French Canadian person opposing Mr. Nicol is out to wipe out the last vestige of English Protestant representation on the Sherbrooke City Council.

Wanting Fair Play.

Dear Sir: Having seen reports in your paper of out of season apple blossoms and crocus, I am wondering if any of your readers have raspberries in their gardens. I have been picking ripe berries for several days, and today picked twenty-five (25) large ripe raspberries. There are some thirty (30) canes with green berries and some have as many as sixty (60) green berries. These are no overbearing, but the ordinary type of raspberry. I also picked ripe strawberry today but this seemed to be the only one.

Sincerely, (MISS) ALETA MACKEY, Cookshire, Que.

The non-vanishing Indian, Part IV

U.S. speeds balance Indian's budget

By ARCH MacKENZIE Canadian Press Staff Writer

PERTH, N.B. (CP) — American potatoes balance the economy of this Malécite Indian reservation in New Brunswick's Saint John Valley. Federal government relief fills the gaps.

Descendants of forest-dwelling hunters, their blood well-diluted by European ancestry, they travel by car across the international border to plant, pick or store Maine potatoes.

Ashwood baskets, sole relic of a traditional art, are woven for the industry to provide additional income.

Tobique for all its one-shot economy of casual labor is rated among the most progressive of Maritimes reservations. The tidy settlement of wooden homes, many freshly painted, sits at the confluence of the Saint John and Tobique Rivers 75 miles northwest of Fredericton and eight miles by road from here.

The 476 registered Indians—compared with 250 in 1930—hold 6,000 acres remaining from the original allotment made in the 1790s. Television aerials atop many homes and electrical appliances within help form the image of a village much like many small Canadian communities.

A few cars, the Roman Catholic church, the community hall and shouts from herds of children on clipped lawns or in the swimming hole strengthen that impression.

But the shadows of past wrongs, social segregation and modern economic deficiencies are there—still apparent despite the band's long association with the white man.

The Malécites, allies of the French against the British and Iroquois, cannot vote in New Brunswick. They are denied liquor although the nearby U.S. border and the bootlegger mock that law.

Their reservation, hilly and well-treed, offers only wood for fuel or their own building. Canadian work opportunities and wages are dwarfed by that available across the line. There is no local industry aside from farming and some pupwood cutting. Guiding for salmon anglers once meant up to $10,000 a year for the band members, says Norval MacPhail, hardware merchant here who served as Tobique Indian superintendent for 30 years before retiring.

But the pools vanished when provincial power dams were installed on both rivers. There was no recompense although a law up requests and questions and I have the time it takes to get here to predict the answers," says Eugene McGinley, Indian superintendent who was 24 when he was appointed last year as the youngest of 90 superintendents in the country.

He's a brisk, brusque man who, a little disenchanted, has decided to return to university to take law.

Dogging Mr. McGinley's footsteps around Tobique provides a glimpse of problems facing both the Indian and the official who represents the Indian affairs branch.

A man who has been drinking with a friend drops his basket-work to ask his advice about marrying a village widow.

One of four elected band councillors tabs him on a hot political issue—a band council decision to grant a nearby municipality garbage-dumping rights on reservation property. A petition protesting that non-unanimous recommendation was shot off to Ottawa and came bouncing back to Mr. McGinley for an explanation, which he supplied.

Now, caught in the middle, he's pressed to stop the band decision going through but he can only reply that it is up to Ottawa, which can reject or accept all Indian band resolutions.

He calls on a young mother of three whose husband has been allocated a new house to replace their near-by decrepit home. He points out two partially-finished homes built with government assistance whose owners will be "made examples of" for failing to complete the structures. Most Tobique housing is post-war—through veterans' grants or federal welfare funds sometimes matched by the prospective owner.

Mark Francis, 34, making baskets in a cool shed, drops his tools to chat. One of nine children and with three of his own, he quit school at Grade VIII because his father was hurt. He says children today have it much easier.

Twenty Indian children — a record—will attend Perth's high school this year and the population pressure is expected to squeeze a growing number from the reservation day school into integrated elementary classes here.

Would Mark leave the reservation if he found a good job? Yes, but it would have to be good enough and he made plain that he would prefer to live where he is.

He also indicates that with salmon gone—"the pools are just swimming holes for fish and kids now"—and only partial employment through the year, he'll expect relief assistance next winter. Tobique's relief bill by summer declines to cover about 15 to 30 older folk and rises in winter. One month's total this year was $1,600.

Down the street, where Roy Bear methodically pounds an ash log to produce the basket-weaving strips, Mr. McGinley takes an order for some building material, hears a complaint about difficulty in getting medical treatment for a leg injured in Maine, advises two youths on what kind of picture they require for their Indian identity cards—needed to cross the border—and listens to a legal question so old and vague that he suspects it was dreamed up on the spur of the moment.

Finally, summoned by an In-

Report From Ottawa

by Clyde Blackburn

OTTAWA — Prime Minister Diefenbaker made a little history when he spoke at the United Nations in criticism of the Soviet leader.

Perhaps no Canadian prime minister has ever spoken so freely about such an important and delicate matter as did Mr. Diefenbaker when he took Mr. K apart.

Our leaders have generally made their reputations in foreign affairs by adopting the very opposite method of procedure.

They have been so reluctant to express their thoughts on foreign affairs, or so plati-tudinous when put in a position of having to talk, that the foreign press rather grew to expect nothing.

It is an old story but a true one as I can personally testify, that when the late Mackenzie King went to see the president in Washington the White House correspondent almost always trotted out an old couplet.

When the calendar of the day's events passed in the White House press room listed a call from the Canadian prime minister, some wag would post the couplet alongside it.

It went something like this: "William Lyon Mackenzie King

"Never says a gosh darn thing."

There were some variations on that "gosh darn" but that was the idea.

And it was quite a sight to see him side-stepping and back-peddling when the White House crew surrounded him after he had talked to the president.

Now Mr. Diefenbaker has not only broken the ice of Canadian official reserve in foreign affairs but has jumped in up to his neck.

Good thing he is used to adulation—he has had a great chance to get a swelled head this past two or three years.

Canadian views probably will be watched for and listened to most carefully in the future.

He is disappointed with the degree of self-reliance exhibited by some band members and regrets that he has been unable to get the band council meetings put on a regular basis.

More progressive reservations hold them at least once a month—in some cases without the superintendent having to be there to provide guidance.

TOMORROW: Mohawks are noted for ability as steel-construction workers.

Teachers' Convention Thursday and Friday

While Protestant school pupils are enjoying the yearly "Convention Holiday", their teachers, including those from the E.T., 5,000 strong, will be attending the ninety-sixth annual Convention of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers, which will be held at the High School of Montreal, on Thursday and Friday, October 6 and 7. The sessions are open not only to teachers but also to the general public.

Canadian private enterprise in those industries "may compete on terms no less favorable than those provided by other countries to their maritime enterprises."

A Halifax proposal said that the present system of federal grants to universities works to the disadvantage of provinces with a high per capita enrolment and suggested that increases be given to provinces receiving less than the national average. This was referred to the executive council for study.

A Sydney, N.S., proposal for a Dominion loan fund to provide college entrance loans—available to those qualified—was also referred to the executive council.

Testify student had convulsion

MONTREAL (CP) — Two Sir George Williams University students testified Monday that Michael Levine, 18, who died during a freshmen initiation ceremony last Friday, apparently suffered a convulsion.

Kenneth Campbell Culbert, 19, a fourth year arts student, said Levine, a freshman, volunteered to stand trial at a mock court. When found guilty he was asked if he liked to run and replied: "I love it."

A placard reading "I am Herb Elliott" — the famed Australian miler—was placed around his neck and Levine was told to run from the university to Phillips Square, eight blocks. There he was to make a speech.

"What Levine had to do was not really a hazing activity. None of the activities were dangerous like swallowing a fish or climbing a building," said Culbert. The coroner's inquest was held before a court clerk without a jury.

Coroner Dr. A. B. Clement said the inquest was held without a jury "because I am convinced there was no accident and this was a case of natural death."

Red pressure bad

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Graham said Monday night East German religious leaders told him the pressure from the Communist government "is the worst since the days of the Nazis." The evangelist, returning by plane from a three-month lecture tour of South America, Africa and Europe, said he addressed nearly 1,000,000 people in three weeks in Germany.

Sub damaged

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (AP) — The British submarine Ancheron struck a rock pinnacle 110 feet under water off Auckland today and shot to the surface momentarily out of control and in an almost vertical position. The 80 crew members were shaken up but nobody was hurt. The sub had a bad dent in its port bow.

"Deep freeze"

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (AP) — U.S. Rear-Admiral D. M. Tyree arrived in Antarctica by plane today to launch the annual summer operations of the "deep freeze" program. Tyree, who commands operation deep freeze brought the first fresh food and mail in six months for the U.S. personnel who had spent the winter in the Antarctic.

UNITED NATIONS

five neutrals Sunday, already had blamed Russia for a series of acts aggravating tensions and indicated clearly the scant likelihood of a meeting with Khrushchev.

On file with the UN was an Australian amendment to the neutrals' resolution calling for another summit conference by the Big Four "at the earliest practicable date." It was introduced by Prime Minister Robert Menzies Monday.

Menzies said he did not know whether the United States would support his proposal. American diplomats indicated they would.

Meanwhile, Khrushchev was driving hard on three other fronts, trying to attain his objectives in this session of the assembly.

First, he lined up a phalanx of speakers Monday to support his demand for seating Communist China in the UN. Most of them centred their fire on the United States.

Second, Khrushchev kept up a drum-fire attack on Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, trying to force him to resign and threatening that the Communist bloc will disregard him if he doesn't.

Hammarskjold, in a cool rejoinder, told the assembly he has no intention to knuckling under to Khrushchev.

Third, Khrushchev worked harder than ever at lobbying for support outside the UN. He whirled from luncheons to cocktail parties to receptions and dinners, glad-handing delegates, cracking jokes, smiling, and playing the soul of sweet reason.

No other diplomat from any country hit the social circuit so hard. How much impact Khrushchev has made is yet to be determined.

Last year, the proposal to seat Red China was shunted aside by a vote of 44 to 29, with nine abstentions. With 13 new nations admitted this year, Khrushchev could make it much closer, assuming he can win them over to his side.

EVERETT NICOL, candidate for alderman, North Ward.

To north ward electors

Tomorrow, October 5th, is the day you will choose your North Ward representative for city council.

Permit me to remind you that I have worked ceaselessly for the ward I have represented during the past eight years. With my colleagues, I have applied myself to the work at hand; the progress and development of the Queen City of the Eastern Townships. Numerous accomplishments will bear witness to this.

I have always given my time and ability to the service of my electors. My wholehearted interest in council and committee meetings is well known.

Among these accomplishments, North Ward residents, and the local population in general, are aware of the benefits brought about by such projects as—the Montcalm Bridge, the North Ward reservoir, Wilson Street which serves residents living in the vicinity of St. Charles Garnier Church, the Quebec Street wading pool, etc.

It is general knowledge that I have worked unremittingly for the improvement of St. Alphonse Park and I firmly intend to continue with this project until the park is one of the best organized and most attractive in Sherbrooke, and becomes the pride of every North Ward resident.

I worked for, and helped make possible, the re-organization of the police and fire departments, the water-works system, the compulsory pasteurization of milk, etc. I did this with the aim of serving my electors.

Today, I feel justified, North Ward electors, in asking you once again to show your confidence in me. I assure you that I will continue to work in your interest with the same energy and application as in the past.

I feel I merit the confidence I am asking that you show in me; I will do my utmost to be worthy of your support.

Yours sincerely,

Everett Nicol

Study problems discussed at Cowansville H. and S.

COWANSVILLE — The opening meeting of the Home and School Association was held on Sept. 22 in the High School. The president, Rev. John Peacock, opened the meeting and Mr. Tyler extended a welcome. He explained that due to lack of space it was not possible to take all the children who wished to enter Grade 1, so the grade was limited to those who were six before the opening day of school. He reported a gym kit would be available this year to the High School boys.

The secretary, Mr. Damant, read the minutes of the annual meeting. Mr. Peacock asked for volunteers for the membership office, and for first and second vice-president. More parents should attend the meetings, he said.

The questions discussed by the panel were: What ought to be done about Cowansville High School pupils who (1) will not take advantage of their educational opportunities (2) are not able to take full advantage of these opportunities for any reason.

The first panelist, Mrs. L. McClatchie, an ex-teacher of C.H.S., said she felt that capable pupils over 14 years of age who do not study should not be allowed to continue school and waste a teacher's time and the taxpayer's money.

She felt the weeding out should be done after an I.Q. test, the first term tests and written assignments showed the pupils were not exerting themselves as they should. Children whose I.Q. prevented their advance should be given tests after Grade VII to find out what they were qualified to do well and perhaps given a commercial or trade school course.

Douglas Smith, a Cowansville business man agreed that there should be high standards set, and abided by, for High School pupils.

Miss Judy Pickel, R.N., an ex-pupil of the school, felt that simple psychology should be taught after Grade VIII, with lectures on the learning process and why study might also help those capable of good marks. She suggested a guidance program to give them a chance to look into professions and a competitive system whereby a pupil could not participate in outside activities if merits not kept up.

Heward Graffey, M.P., felt that enough emphasis is not given to education in our society today. Parents should make sacrifices to educate their children. He said that talents and capabilities show up early and should be encouraged.

Those present divided into smaller groups, many questions were asked the panelists and lively discussions took place.

The Home and School will sponsor the UNICEF collection in co-operation with other organizations. A delegation will be sent to the next school board meeting to discuss the question of having a kindergarten class. Lunch was served in the cafeteria.

The next meeting will be held

Wednesday, Oct. 26, when the subject will be Why do we have to have the "extras" in our school? That is, hockey, basketball, industrial arts, gymnasium, Students' Council, etc.

The Doctor Says

—THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG... SKEPTICISM OF LABORATORY REPORTS IS YOUR PRIVILEGE BY HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN

In medicine's ivory towers, there is a tendency to accept laboratory reports as final judgments handed down from a sort of physician's Supreme Court.

While I would be among the last to undermine faith in scientific testing, experience has taught me that each human endeavor has some kind of built-in source of error.

I call this observation to your attention as a result of the simultaneous arrival on my desk of three articles describing abnormal electrocardiograms in apparently healthy persons, and of a letter from a reader whose husband obviously has an abnormal heart although his electrocardiogram (ECG) has been reported normal by competent physicians. The medical papers, based on observations made in places as far separated as Baltimore, Oakland (Calif.) and Winnipeg, emphasize the damage that can be done to a person who is condemned to a life of inactivity and fear by a tracing that mimics the trace that's found in coronary disease. In the words of one author, "if the diagnosis (coronary disease) is made without additional evidence, a healthy person may be converted to a cardiac invalid."

The other face of the coin is seen when a person with a cardiac abnormality is declared to be normal and is suspected of faking on the strength of a normal ECG.

This seems to have been the fate of my correspondent's husband.

"On several occasions," she writes, "my husband has suddenly complained of a fluttering sensation in his chest. I have had some experience as a hospital Gray Lady and, when I felt for his pulse, it was going so fast I couldn't count it."

"Each time he's been examined by doctors, after an attack, I've been assured that he's perfectly normal. They've even taken cardiograms. And they show nothing wrong."

"From the way the last doctor questioned us, I got the impression that he thought I was exaggerating how my husband looked during these attacks (he almost passes out)..." He suggested that maybe my husband was putting on an act to collect insurance or some such thing and ought to consult a psychiatrist.

"Is it possible," she asks, "to have something wrong with the heart even when all the tests are negative?"

It is indeed, dear madam. What is called paroxysmal irregularities of the heart are not too uncommon. And they may occur in a heart that's completely normal between paroxysms. I am quite sure you did not exaggerate your husband's distress at the time of his attacks. I am equally sure that he's no malingering. And I am just as sure that it is possible for all the examinations, conducted between attacks, to be "perfectly normal."

As for you, dear readers, there are these lessons to be learned from aforesaid observations and experiences. You are entitled to double check any laboratory report that seems to contradict common sense. Even with evidence as usually convincing as a normal electrocardiogram, you may be less well than you'd like to be. And you may be as well as you think you are despite an abnormal trace.

In Shakespeare's words "Modest doubt is... the beacon of the wise."

Marriage

SAVERS — NUTBROWN

The marriage of Kathleen Audrey Ethel, daughter of the late William Nutbrown and Mrs. Nutbrown of Kinross Mills to Clarence Sayers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sayers of Milby, took place recently in Lennoxville United Church. Reverend A. B. Lovelace officiated. Mrs. Fox was the organist. The church was decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums, and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Ulric Nutbrown, wore a floor length gown of white lace over satin having a bouffant skirt and a fitted bodice with a lace bolero. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a pearl and sequin tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Ulric Nutbrown as matron of honor wore a street length gown of pink lace over taffeta with a matching bandeau and veil. Her cascade bouquet was of dark pink carnations.

Miss Charlotte Harrison and Miss Alice Adsit as bridesmaids wore street length dresses of blue lace over taffeta with matching bandeaus and veils. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss Cynthia Rickaby, niece of the bride, as flower girl, wore a floor length dress of white organza over pink taffeta, white picture hat and carried a basket of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Charles Sayers acted as best man and Arthur Nutbrown and Lionel Statton were the ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a two piece dress of navy blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a royal blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The reception was held at the Milby Hall which was decorated with white and blue streamers. The bride's table was centred with a four tier wedding cake and decorated with gladioli.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to the New England States. The bride travelled in a blue nylon dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of dark pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Sayers have taken up residence in Lennoxville.

Guests were present at the wedding from Detroit, Mich., Montreal and Kinross Mills, Que.

Five Clubs To Operate In Intermediate Loop

Sherbrooke Returns To League, Montreal Admitted To Form Five Club Circuit, All-Star Game Oct. 23

DRUMMONDVILLE — (Special to the Record) — The Sherbrooke Beavers were readmitted in the Eastern Townships Intermediate Hockey League while Montreal Olympics were accepted to form a five-club circuit for the coming season, this was announced by President Len O'Donnell following a closed meeting here last night.

As certain important items were to be discussed the three teams in the league, Drummondville, Granby and Three Rivers, requested a closed meeting and all newspaper men were asked to leave until matters were put in order.

The meeting lasted into the early hours of the morning as each club's demand had to be dealt with separately. Special conditions presented to the league had to be studied before rendering a decision. Sherbrooke and Montreal both had special requests while the league had to state what conditions they wished to be observed before the final word was given.

Under the circumstances Montreal representatives were the first to appear before the executive then Yvon Pepin of Victoriaville who put forward a special demand while Sherbrooke was last. After all three cases were presented the league made their proposition to Montreal and Sherbrooke which were accepted. The special demands weren't made known when President O'Donnell made the announcement as the teams figured it would be better to guard them as a secret.

Yvon Pepin made a request regarding his players of last year but the league after listening to his proposition decided it was against the QAHA and turned it down. Two teams, Three Rivers and Drummondville, who were after some of his players came to an gentlemen's agreement to return them on certain conditions. A special rule was passed concerning players for the coming season. All players who are listed on the team's lists and fail to reach an agreement with the club will be put on a "black list" and no club in the league will have the right to talk or approach any who are placed on the list.

The next meeting will be held in Three Rivers Tuesday, October 11 when the All-Star lineup will be discussed and special rule on junior players will be discussed as well as the schedule. The executive will try to have the schedule ready so the teams may get ready for the league opening which is slated for Sunday October 30.

Bishop's Croziers Drop 3-2 Verdict To Macdonald College Aggies In Soccer Exhibition, May Join Loop Next Year

Bishop's soccer Croziers Saturday proved themselves in inter-collegiate competition, but in the process went down to a 3-2 defeat at the hands of Macdonald College Aggies.

Purpose of the game, an exhibition with Macs Eastern Canada collegiate champions, was to test Bishop's competitive possibilities against teams from the Ottawa-St. Lawrence League.

A smooth-passing Aggie offense, a decided lack of Bishop's polish and a spinning ball that just got away from goater Mike Flavell combined to beat the Croziers on a cold, bright Saturday afternoon.

Mac's slick offense, displayed speed and experience, pressed the attack throughout. The monkey wrench in this well-oiled machine proved to be a surprisingly strong Bishop's defence, led by the acrobatic goal-tending of captain Flavell. Fullback Pete Welsh and halves Andy Farquharson and Kit Vincent — in his first season of soccer — also helped hold Mac to three goals. Bishop's struck quickly in the first half on Ian Griffin's hard shot from close in. With Mac off balance, Croziers pressed the attack, but several promising sorties were nullified by offside. Poor shooting also proved costly. Near the end of the half, Aggies tied it up on Neville Arthurs' tricky drop shot into the corner.

The second half was a contest between Bishop's spirit and Mac's superior ball-handling, with the latter emerging a close victor. A low drive from the foot of Aggies' tricky centre forward, Dell Trott, made it 2-1. But Bruce Bristowe, taking a pass from Welsh, tied it up for the Purple with a long, rolling shot. Several close calls for both teams also highlighted the action. Percy Chan notched Mac's winning marker near game's end with a sharp drive that barely eluded goalie Flavell's desperate dive.

Croziers' performance drew praise from Macdonald's coach, Les Clark, who applauded their spirit and drive. "From what I've seen this afternoon, I think this

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Brooklyn Dodgers won the World Series for the first time in history when they defeated New York Yankees 2-0 at Yankee Stadium five years ago today. That gave the Dodgers a 4-3 margin in games. Johnny Podres was the winning pitcher in two games, the other Brooklyn victories going to Labine and Loes.

team would have little trouble beating either CMR or Loyola," he said.

CMR, Loyola, RMC, Sir George Williams and Macdonald presently play in the Ottawa-St. Lawrence circuit. Right now it seems they'll face a new competitor next year.

Milwaukee Braves Wrapping Up Giant Package Deal For Cubs' Ernie Banks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves, who muffed the National League pennant two years ago, are wrapping up a giant-sized package of players and a bundle of cash for home running Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

The players to be offered the Cubs include pitchers Joey Jay, Carl Willey and Don Nottebart, centerfielder Billy Bruton, shortstop Johnny Logan and first baseman Frank Torre.

The informant, who requested anonymity, said the two clubs would get together during the world series to discuss the trade.

"The Braves feel they can make an offer so attractive that the Cubs cannot help but take the matter under advisement," the informant said. "I know the great regard they have for Banks but they realize that even with him they have been unable to finish in the first division. The fellows offered to them could fill four or five regular positions who could help them more than any one man."

With Banks in a Milwaukee uniform, the Braves would have three players who among them hit a total of 120 home runs in 1960. The slugging shortstop, who will be 30 next Jan. 31, is the Cubs' all-time homerun leader with 269 in seven seasons with Chicago. He was the league's most valuable player 1958 and 1959.

The Braves have had several talks with Detroit involving Tiger second baseman Frank Bolling. The Braves, it is understood, have dangled outfielder Wes Covington, young second baseman Chuck Cottier and a pitcher.

SEEK RELIEVER

Still another player sought by the Braves is Dick Farrell, the hard-throwing relief pitcher of the Philadelphia Phillies.

The announcement of Joe Gordon as the new manager of the Kansas City Athletics succeeding Bob Elliott, will be made before the world series moves on to New York. Gordon quit as manager of Detroit Monday, although his contract still had a year to go. Elliott was fired about the same time.

The Detroit board of directors was slated to meet with general manager and president Bill Dewitt today and out of the meeting is expected to come the announcement that Don Heffner, now a coach with the Tigers, will be named manager.

Tigers Faced With Another Problem, Must Find A Manager To Replace Joe Gordon Who Quit On Monday

DETROIT (AP) — Baseball's wackiest merry-go-round, losing managers and coaches at almost every turn, was due for another spin in Pittsburgh today on the eve of the world series.

The owners of Detroit Tigers met in regular session, as they do before every world series opener. This time, they are a disgruntled lot and wondering whether it was worth all the trouble—the $5,500,000 they invested in the lopsided Tigers four years ago.

Since that time they have changed managers five times, general managers four times and presidents three times.

Now they are faced with more changes. Joe Gordon quit the Tigers Monday after only two months as manager. He had replaced Jimmie Dykes, who was so unhappy with what he called interference and meddling by President Bill Dewitt that he would have quit had Dewitt not beaten him to the punch by working the unique managerial swap that sent Dykes to Cleveland and brought Gordon to Detroit.

MANAGE THE ATHLETICS?

Every indication is that Gordon will become manager of Kansas City Athletics. The A's fired Bob Elliott Monday, a few hours after Gordon notified Dewitt he was quitting the Tigers. Elliott's coaches were let go, too, just after Elliott completed his rookie year as a big league manager.

The Athletics finished last in the American League. The Tigers wound up sixth, their poorest finish since 1953.

Gordon wanted a free hand in running the Tigers. He did not feel he had it under Dewitt.

He made it clear he did not agree with Dewitt's firing of coach Bill Hitchcock. Gordon also wanted a close look at some of the Tigers' top farm hands, but Dewitt said no.

FOUR MANAGERS GONE

In four seasons, the Tigers have gone through four managers—Jack Tighe, Bill Norman, Dykes and now Gordon. Dewitt said he does not know who the next one might be.

He will meet with the owners today. Some of them are concerned over the sweeping charges Dewitt has brought to Detroit baseball in his one year as president. There has been a multiple of firings, demotions and reassignments. Dewitt has been getting quite a panning from all three of Detroit's daily newspapers.

"The only thing we lead the league in is headlines," said an unhappy owner.

Bill Kerr And Al Johnston To Represent Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Two Montreal golf pros, Bill Kerr and Alan Johnston, were named Monday as Canada's representatives at next month's Mexican open and the 1961 Caribbean tour which takes in five Latin American countries.

The Mexican open begins Nov. 10 in Mexico City. The Caribbean tour starts Feb. 9 in Panama.

Gerry Plamondon To Coach Border Frontier Jets

ROCK ISLAND — Gerry Plamondon of Sherbrooke has been named coach of the Border Frontier Jets of the St. Francis Valley Intermediate Hockey League.

Plamondon is well known in hockey circles throughout the Province having played pro with the Montreal Canadiens and Royals before taking over coaching duties. He also performed with Richmond, when they were members of the Eastern Townships Intermediate Hockey League, in the role of playing coach.

His addition to the club will no doubt add plenty of experience to the team and the players should improve under his guidance. Five teams are in the league at present, Richmond, Magog, Windsor, Asbestos and Rock Island.

Coach Perry Moss And His Star End, Hal Patterson, Patch Differences As Alouettes Prepare For Rough Riders

MONTREAL (CP) — A reconciliation between coach Perry Moss and his star end Hal Patterson has patched up a rift in the camp of Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four football league.

No one is talking about what sparked the conflict but it appeared that Patterson and one or two other players had resented a tough drill program Moss detailed Sunday, the day after the Alouettes were swamped, 50-15 by the Argonauts in Toronto.

There were no complaints when Patterson and the rest of the players turned out Monday night for a workout at the club's training headquarters in the city-operated north-end Jarry Park. "Everything is back to normal now and we should be okay from here on in," said Moss whose club is third in the standings. "It would be a shame to waste the potential of this team."

Patterson, Moss and club owner Ted Workman all confirmed the split but declined to disclose the precise circumstances.

QUIT IN A HUFF

Import Patterson, 29, a seven-year vet with the Alouettes and one of the top-salaried men in the Canadian game, held the reconciliation with Moss Monday in the team's downtown Mountain Street offices.

Sunday at Jarry Park he participated in a 90-minute field drill and quit the team in a huff before a film session that all players were to attend.

It was learned that he did not plan to attend Monday's practice but changed his mind after the get-together with Moss.

One source close to the team said Patterson was apparently "sore at himself" for lackluster performances in recent games and this had made him edgy.

"It's not like Hal to act like that," said the source. "He's normally placid and easy-going." Since joining the Alouettes from the University of Kansas, Patterson has won acclaim as one of the greatest offensive ends in the history of the Canadian game.

But he has been hard hit by injuries in the last few seasons. This year in a pre-season exhibition game he suffered a fractured cheek bone and last year it was knee injuries.

There was no doubt that some of the snap was missing from his performances this year. Although still one of the league's top pass receivers, he appeared to have lost some of his speed and mobility.

Dick Groat Claims His Knees Were Actually Shaking When He Went To Bat For First Time After Accident

PITTSBURGH (AP) — When Dick Groat left the Pittsburgh dugout to pinch hit in the third inning of Friday night's game with Milwaukee, his knees were actually shaking. His hands were ice cold and the camp and chilly weather had nothing to do with it.

"I actually was afraid," the Pirates' captain and shortstop swung bat in active competition in three weeks. I didn't know how the wrist would react.

"I wondered whether I was doing the right thing. The doctors had told me the wrist was only 75 per cent healed. But I had to find out. I wanted to play in the world series more than anything else in the world. I had been dreaming of doing that since I was a little boy."

Groat, the acknowledged leader of the Pirates, the National League's leading hitter and top candidate for most valuable player honors, had not seen action since Sept. 4 because of a wrist fracture.

He hadn't swung a bat, even in practice, until four days before. But there he was facing Bob Buhl, one of the hardest throwers in the league. Groat's knees stopped shaking long enough for him to hit a sharp grounder to second base.

"The second baseman threw me out," said Groat, "but I felt good. I had hit the ball right on the nose and there was no pain at all. You can't imagine how good that felt. It was only one swing but somehow I just knew I'd be able to play in the world series."

Groat's wrist still is not fully mended and it won't be for several weeks yet. But Dick can live with it. The toughest part is when he misses a swing and has to turn his wrists on the follow-through. That's when he feels pain. The determined young man has found a remedy for that, though.

"I'll just have to keep hitting the ball," he said.

Indians Dump Kitchener 7-3

Springfield Indians of the American Hockey Association made it look easy as they trimmed Kitchener, Waterloo Beavers of the Eastern Professional Hockey League 7-3 in an exhibition game Monday night in the Beavers' home territory.

Casey Stengel To Call On Art Ditmar To Open Series Wednesday

Murtaugh To Start With Vernon Law, Sellout Crowd Of 38,000 Expected To Be On Hand, Dick Groat To Play

By JACK HAND

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Pittsburgh bristles with "we won't scare" confidence and New York Yankees are riding high on a 15 game winning streak going into Wednesday's world series opener at Forbes Field.

The Pirates scheduled a morning workout today and the Yanks were to look over this unfamiliar National League territory in the afternoon.

Thirty-three years ago today they said the Pirates lost their last series to the Yanks the day before it started. They were apparently overawed by the fence busting of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and company in a pre-series batting drill.

Danny Murtaugh, scappy pilot of the Bucs, told fans the 1960 Pirates "don't scare. Don't forget we have a pretty good ball team too. We played and won in a tougher league. We're going to show them a good infield and a good outfield and some pretty good pitching."

DITMAR STARTING

Casey Stengel, boss of the Yanks, said when he arrived here Monday:

"From what I'm told this (Pittsburgh) is a good solid club. But we have some good players, too. I think these fellows (Yanks) will keep right on just like they left off the season Sunday."

Before leaving New York, Stengel announced that Art Ditmar, a 31-year-old right-hander, would open for the American League champs. He is expected to follow with Bob Turley and Whitey Ford in that order.

Ditmar, top winner of the Yanks with a 15-9 record, throws a sinking fast ball, good curve and slider, much the same repertoire as owned by Vern Law, the Pirates' 20-game winning starter. As Ditmar has given up 25 homers wanted to take advantage of the spacious outfield territory in the Pirate home park.

Murtaugh announced he would use Bill Virdon in centre field and Dick Stuart on first, regardless of the opposition pitching. During the season he often benched Virdon, a left-handed hitter, against a southpaw and played Gino Cimoli. He switched Stuart, a right-handed hitter, for Rocky Nelson a gainst right-handed pitching.

A GOOD FIELDER

"I want to give the Yankees a look at a real good centre fielder," said Murtaugh. "Stuart also will go both ways unless he goes things up."

The only switches in the Pirate order will be Smoky Burgess catching, instead of Hal Smith, against righties and Cimoli replacing Bob Skinner in left field against southpaws.

Although Law (20-9) has been troubled by a tender right ankle, Murtaugh was confident his ace would be all right. He worked out briefly Monday.

A sellout crowd of 38,000 could expect a good break from the weatherman. The advance forecast called for mostly sunny and warmer with the temperature around 70.

The best medicine for the Pirates was the assurance that Dick Groat, their league batting champ, would be ready to play. Groat, sidelined by a broken left wrist Sept. 6, got back into action over the weekend.

Louisville Colonels Walk Off With Little World Series 4-2, Handley Stops Maple Leafs On Five-Hitter

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Louisville baseball fans today were singing the praise of Bobby Handley, the little southpaw who pitched the Colonels to the junior world series title.

Handley mastered Toronto Maple Leafs in the finals 5-1 Monday night, scattering six hits, striking out eight and giving no walks.

His masterful performance gave the Colonels the series four games to two and their first series title since 1954.

It didn't take Handley long to prove his worth in triple A baseball.

HOT SOUTHPAW

Promoted this season from Austin of the Texas League, Handley went on to become the winningest southpaw in the American Association. His 20th victory came against the International League Maple Leafs in the championship game.

It was the rookie and the old pro who struck the decisive blows.

Frank Torre, sent down by the Milwaukee Braves in mid-season, struck the big blow in the sixth inning when he crashed a two-run homer. It was only his second of the season.

Toronto got its only run in the fifth. Earl Hersh, sold by Louisville to the Maple Leafs this season, singled to right. Then Herb Plews, an ex-major leaguer, walloped a triple that brought a 1-1 tie.

COLONELS BROKE LOSE

Louisville led 2-1 in the sixth when the Colonels broke loose with three runs, including Torre's homer, to drive out Steve Ridzik. The former National League pitcher had beaten the Colonels soundly in the second game of

Gene Conley Not To Play With Phillies Again

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Philadelphia pitcher Gene Conley said Monday night he will not return to the Phillies even if compensated for giving up his basketball career.

"I will never pitch for the Phillies again," Conley said at his home where he returned after skipping his team's final games against Cincinnati Saturday and Sunday.

The big righthander would not say whether his decision not to play for the Phillies meant he is finished with baseball.

"Never is too strong a word," he said. "I love to pitch too much for that but it won't be with the Phils. They haven't shown me the respect, consideration and thoughtfulness they should."

The 28-year-old hurler said that he had signed a two-year contract with Boston Celtics basketball team calling for a salary "substantially higher" than his baseball pay. "I was getting more in basketball last winter," he added.

Sugar Ray Upset Over Postponement

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I was so upset with the news that I felt like the whole world fell down on me," said Sugar Ray Robinson, ironically cast today in the role of complaining challenger.

Robinson was glum and unsmiling after learning that his Saturday title fight with middleweight champion Gene Fullmer was postponed Monday until Dec. 3. Fullmer pulled a calf muscle during a sparring session Saturday.

"I believe me, I was in top condition for this one," said the downcast Robinson at his training camp at nearby Gilman Hot Springs. "I feel I know Sugar Ray the best, so I know in my

Dow Brewery's Bowling Tournament Of Champions To Be Repeated This Year, Qualifying Rounds Will Open Nov. 6

One of the province's most successful mass sport competitions—Dow Brewery's bowling Tournament of Champions—will be repeated this year with qualifying rounds starting the week of Nov. 6 and ending April 15, 1961.

Last year an estimated 250,000 male duck pin bowlers took part in the tourney which started week of Jan. 6. This permitted close to 17,000 bowlers to qualify for subsequent elimination tourneys. The same number are expected this year.

Climax of last year's competition took place Sept. 24-25 at the Leader Bowling Alleys in Montreal, where the Canada Broadcasting Corporation's two-day roll-off of 240 top bowlers from all parts of Quebec was held.

Dow's tournament, which is based on high triple leaders, supplied 120 of these bowlers while the C.B.C. selected the other 120 according to year-long averages. The top 34 players of this C.B.C. event are the bowling stars who are appearing on the popular French-language Sunday afternoon television show, "L'Heure des Quilles."

Jules Hogue of Dow which sponsors the television show, said this year's Tournament of Champions has the same aim in view—a chance for every league bowler to appear on the television program. Winners also receive trophies and cash awards. This year's competition will be run exactly as last year. The main stages of the Dow tournament are, briefly, these:

- 1—Twenty weekly qualifying rounds. The two weekly high triple bowlers of every hall qualify for
- 2—A tournament in each hall where weekly qualifiers will meet.
- 3—District tournament where the top three bowling hall tournament winners will meet others from the same district. (From this event the top bowlers from this region will go on to the provincial tournament.)
- 4—Provincial tournament, run by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, where all district champions meet.
- 5—"L'Heure des Quilles" where the top 34 provincial tournament winners compete on the television program.

AS FINE AS NEW AS YOU CAN GO

Now! Full comfort, full luxury in a trimmer, full size car

With a car that's so new clean through, Buick was able to start right down on the ground and compromise on no component all the way up.

IT STARTED WITH AN ALL-NEW FRAME

Buick's new X-frame made way for lower door sills, a smoother, quieter ride, easier handling and better insulation of the body from road shock.

The new frame allowed a NEW CONTROL-ARM SUSPENSION

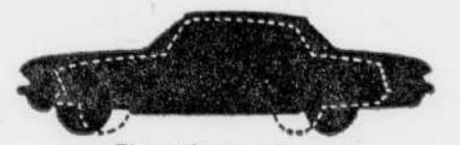

From this came flatter cornering and mirror-smooth going over the bumps as well as the highway. Buick has a new semi-floating rear axle, too!
This combines what engineers call Torque-Tube Drive and Hotchkiss Drive—giving you the finest features of both.

The new axle allowed a NEW HIDE-AWAY DRIVE SHAFT

Buick put a totally new kind of double-joint into a 2-piece drive shaft. This let it bend down under your feet—and down went the hump in the middle to give you far more flat floor space than before.

Smaller than big

Bigger than small

THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Now! The room, ride, go, pride of the costliest cars plus the savings and ease of the small

It took combined GM and Buick ingenuity to work the near miracle which made this car possible.
Here is FULL-SIZE LIVING WITH NEW-SIZE CONVENIENCE.

COMFORT? STRETCH OUT!

The Special gives you more headroom than most new-size cars, more legroom than most new-size cars, more shoulder room than most new-size cars—and more total room for comfort.

CANADA'S ONLY ALUMINUM TRANSMISSION

Not another new-size car has it! New Dual Path Turbine Drive is the liveliest automatic in any car. It's like having two transmissions—one with an oil connection for infinite smoothness, the other with a direct mechanical connection for greater go and greater gas savings.

CANADA'S FIRST ALUMINUM V8

puts the power in the Special. It develops astonishing power per pound. The Special got this power without adding weight. And there you have the start of a great gas savings story.

SAVINGS? TERRIFIC!

The Special gives you the gas savings of a compact without giving up go-power. It sells in a price area you'll like without giving up looks. The miracle explained: the smartest engineering in years plus the new wonder materials.
