

THE STARS ARE WEEPING.

Ballad.

The Poetry Written

BY

M^{rs} Cranford.

THE MUSIC.

Composed by

SIR HENRY R. BISHOP.

Ent. Sta. Hall.

Pr. 2/-

LONDON,

D'ALMAINE & CO SOHO SQUARE.

*

[Faint, illegible text and musical notation visible through the paper, likely from the reverse side.]

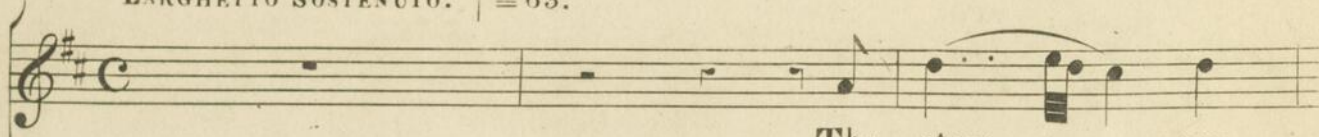

THE STARS ARE WEEPING,

POETRY BY MRS. CRAWFORD.

COMPOSED BY H.R. BISHOP.

MUS. BAC. OXON.

LARGHETTO SOSTENUTO. $\text{♩} = 63.$

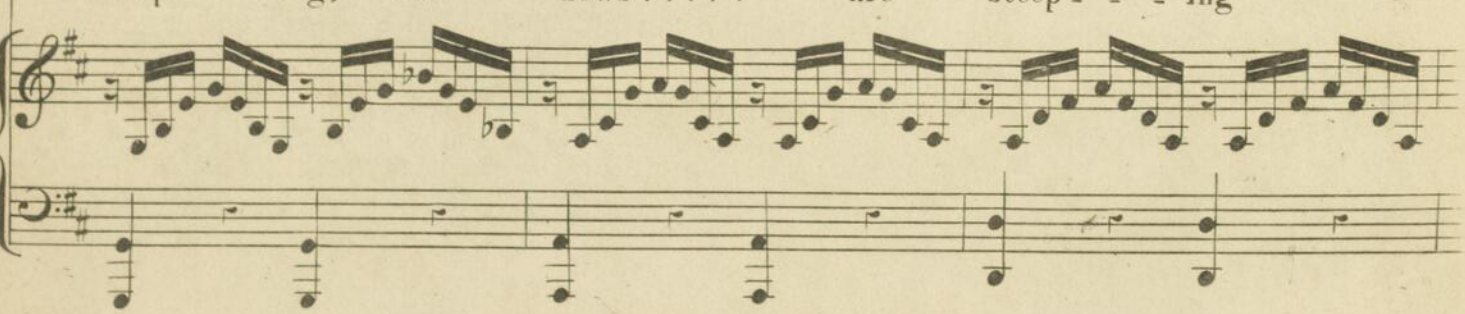

VOICE.

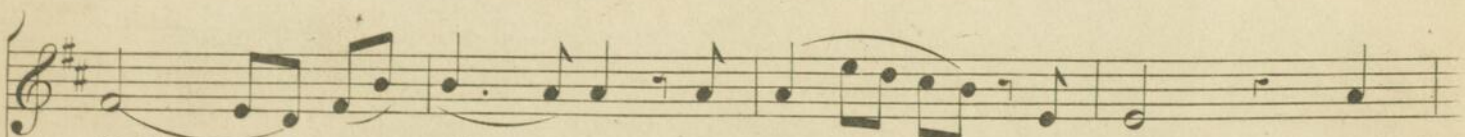

PIANO

FORTE.

weep - - - ing, The dew - - - s are steep - - - ing

Gold - - - en flow - - - ers in drops of light: How sweet, but fleet - - ing, The hours of meet - - ing!

cres. An - - - - - gels guard thee, Love! dol. good night! rall? good cres. dim. rall?

a tempo. poco più Animato. ♩ = 72. night! The Ward - - - - - er sleep - - - - - eth, The a tempo.

ban - dog keep - - - eth Watch be - neath the

rall? tempo mo ♩ = 63. 3

cold moon - - - light; Though now we

rall? tempo mo

part, Love, All my heart, Love, Goes with cres. p cres.

dol. rall? a tempo.

thee, with thee; - a sweet good night! a dim. rall? a tempo. dim.

sweet good night! good night!

pp rall? morendo.

THESE STARS ARE IN THE QUIET SKIES
WRITTEN BY

Sir C. L. Bullen.

THE NEW YORK AMERICAN

FOR

TWO VOICES with PIANO FORTE

ACCOMPAÑIMENT

AND

Adapted to the

Illustrations of the

by

H. A. OSBORN.

NEW YORK

Published by S. M. AMBLER 125 Fulton St.