CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY STEEL WORKS

The season of the Manufacturers' League was brought to a close last evening, when the Steel Works won the championship by a small margin.

The most scientific game of the evening was that between Canadian Club and Allis, Chalmers and Bullock, when after a fast game of real hockey, the score board showed an equality of three goals.

Some of the older men in football, who although not actively engaged in the game hold important positions in connection with it, when told of this expressed themselves as pleased, because it is no use according to their views to have a club in the union which is always of a different opinion, and having different aims and views from the other clubs.

IT WAS THE DELAY THAT COST LIVES

Miss Keyes, Teacher of Kindergarten in Ill-Fated Hochelaga School, Tells Her Experience.

Miss E. G. M. Keyes, teacher of the preparatory, or "kindergarten" class, in the ill-fated Hochelaga School, was yesterday, for the first time since the fire, in a position to give her version of the disaster. Miss Keyes, it will be remembered, was rescued by the firemen when nearly suffocated by the smoke which took the lives of sixteen of her pupils.

After detailing the incidents which immediately preceded the disaster and the way in which her room filled with smoke, Miss Keyes continued: "I had no thought of fire by some strange feeling kept me on the alert. It snowed as to continue, I thought that I would have to take the children out of the room."

"I ran to my door and shouted: 'Children stand. Run into the cloak room and get your clothes and come with me, though I had no conscious reason for fear. The children obeyed promptly and fairly rushed into the cloak room, although there was no panic, two or three of the little ones said: 'Oh I'm afraid, I'm afraid' and then I realized that I had alarmed some of the more sensitive ones, so I said: 'Don't be afraid, it's all right. I'll go with you.'

"The last children of the twenty-eight were just getting into the cloak room when I heard a noise which I thought children running, so I ran right into the cloak room in the midst of the children for them. I became really alarmed, and I said: 'Never mind your clothes, come with me,' and the children ran with me. We did not wait to go far, for it took many minutes to take little ones like that two by two. They ran with me along the hall and when we got to the top of the stairs, the stairway was blocked by gas and dense hot smoke so dense you could not see even the first step.

"Then I called the children to come back with me into my own class room, and after they were all in, I closed the class room doors, to keep the smoke out that was fast filling the upper hall. Then I called the children to come with me to the windows.

"We are not supposed to ventilate our rooms, but I had been in the habit of opening one window when it seemed to me necessary, so I ran to the window and opened it easily and quickly, and the other windows had been sealed with tallow by the carpenter, so I broke the seal in the two adjoining windows—just as they were about to close. I collected the children around the open windows.

"Up to this time there was no screaming or weeping, only a little crying to 'teacher' and little exclamations. At this time the smoke was coming through the register very rapidly, but I could see our way to the windows quite distinctly. Just then it fell across my mind for an instant, 'Where are the other children?' but once in my room there was no going back, no matter what happened.

"SAW MEN AT WORK. "Then I knelt on the window sill, which was pretty high, in order to be seen and heard, and called for help. I could see men working at the lower house just across the way, and they heard me. They answered in French, and I could not understand them, but from their gestures, they meant me to wait till the firemen would come.

"I kept on screaming for help, and begged and prayed them to bring a ladder for the children were suffocating for the room was full of thick smoke. My only hope was to get help. I could have done nothing by staying in the room, for I knew that all our lives were in danger and unless help came in a very few minutes the children would suffocate, for the smoke was now pouring in black and dense. At least 24 of my children were as helpless as babies, as far as helping themselves was concerned. They were so small that their heads did not reach the window-sill.

"THE FATAL DELAY. "If a ladder had been brought to my window when I first called for help there would have been plenty of time to have saved all my little ones and then to have taken the children in Miss Campbell's room out afterward.

"After I had been kneeling here for a short time, I heard my door opened suddenly, and as quickly closed. I turned and saw Miss Maxwell running across the room and I saw her in the act of breaking one of the windows on the other side of the room. I kept on shouting for help, but she did not speak, nor did I—it was like a dream, but I know it. There were three windows on the street side, and by this time the smoke was so dense that I could not distinguish persons or objects, but evidently Miss Maxwell ran across the room to one of the windows on my side of the room, where the children were congregated.

"Inside, all was absolutely still except the roar of the fire—there was no sound from either Miss Maxwell or the children, so I went on calling for help. At last some men ran across the road with a ladder and placed it at the cloak-room window adjoining Miss Campbell's room. That was the first intimation I had had that there were any other children in the building, and I was very glad to see it go up. Somebody was going to get help.

"I noticed two or three children being brought down, but I did not stop to watch that, but kept on calling to the men below to bring a ladder for the children.

"AT LAST THE LADDER. "Meanwhile a horse wagon had arrived, but it seemed a long while to me before the ladder truck came. When I saw it, I shouted to the men below to tell the firemen where to bring it. The ladder acted promptly in putting the firemen up.

"If I had known most of the children were with Miss Maxwell at the other window, I would have told them to go there, although I knew I could not keep my concentration to the messenger. I was hanging by one of the ladders bars between the names of glass, but the only way I could get a breath of

SPECIOUS STORY DECEIVED POLICE

Fourteen-Year-Old Boy Gagged and Bound Himself and Told Tale of Robbery.

The tragic story of a boy being gagged, carried off in a cab, robbed, and shown into a lane, told to the police by a fourteen-year-old boy has been found out to be false. The boy admitted to Chief Carpenter yesterday that the story was the product of his own imagination.

When young Guimond was found last Friday night in a base on St. Dominique street, he was taken to Notre Dame Hospital and on Saturday morning was brought to Chief Carpenter's office. He said he was employed in the cigar factory and that when returning home he had been robbed of his pay.

To the police yesterday young Guimond said his four half-brothers had been sent to the reformatory if he did not find employment, and to escape this he told his mother last week that he had found work in Le Grand and Co's cigar factory, St. Peter st., and as he had no money to bring home at the end of the week, he invented the story of having been gagged and bound.

Through an error the detective were under the impression that he had been employed at Groth's factory, and it was only yesterday that they learned he had not worked there. When that was known it knocked the bottom out of the boy's tale, and he then confessed to Chief Carpenter that he had been lying.

WORTHY OF SIBERIA HE GOT TWO MONTHS.

To be found drunk in the house of another, while at home a wife and five children are suffering, is an unfortunate position in which to be found. The above tells the story of Zabolotki. He was found drunk in another man's house, and what is more he objected to being forcibly ejected.

In the Recorder's court this morning Zabolotki pleaded guilty to the offence of being drunk in another man's house, and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment, with an option of paying $25 fine, he burst into an excited jargon of remonstrance, and shouted that his wife had taken all his money from him, which looked hardly true, as he was of soldierly appearance, while she looked rather feeble.

Winnipeg's Industrial Bulletin. The publishing of an Industrial Bulletin monthly, next issue, in municipal publicity. The city of Winnipeg can claim to be the originator of this idea, and the Winnipeg Industrial Bulletin is to be the only city on the Continent, whose progress fills an eight page Industrial Bulletin 18x18, with four pages of illustrated matter monthly.

This publication is the outcome of a strong and vigorous campaign of publicity for the Winnipeg Development and Industrial Bureau has undertaken. This organization was organized, in 1902, by the City Council, the Bankers' Association, the Board of Trade, the Grain Exchange, the Real Estate Exchange, the Builders' Exchange, the Manufacturers' Association, the Trades and Labor Council, and the Commercial Travellers' Association.

They Put Water in the Milk. Although water is scarce at the present time around the city, two milkmen managed to put some in their milk yesterday. Onesime Lafrance, 230 Dufreres street, and Adelard Dagenais, Louisa Pointe, appeared before the Recorder's court, charged with having in their possession milk which had been adulterated with water. Lafrance was fined $20 and costs, while the other will have to pay $25 and costs. Lafrance is Dagenais' fourth offence.

It was by throwing myself as far to one side as I could. Evidently all the children had long before gone over to Miss Maxwell, and the children who had been placed on the window-sill. They were unconscious. Then the smoke seemed to clear for a second, and I saw Miss Maxwell very clearly, but at that very instant the firemen themselves were in flames and then all hope was gone.

"Then I was taken away by a French lady I wish I knew her name, for she was so pale, and her eyes were full of tears. Miss Maxwell's room, she dressed and bandaged my hands and face, and as I had lost my clothes, she supplied me with a new suit. The engine was one of the larger children who had been saved was good enough to bring me home."

THE WATER Famine!

Is Montreal Sleeping "Over a Volcano?"

The following emergent telegram was despatched to New York, Boston and Philadelphia:

MAYOR M'CLELLAN, New York. MAYOR FITZGERALD, Boston. MAYOR WEAVER, Philadelphia.

MONTREAL, March 4th, 1907.

Water famine threatened here. Can you, irrespective of cost, put us in communication with a man of enlarged experience, first-class ability and unimpeachable integrity, to investigate conditions of water supply in Montreal, mechanisms in vogue, methods employed to insure the public against a calamity, a man prepared to bring the blame home to the right parties, to suggest a permanent remedy and a temporary expedient to relieve public anxiety. Expense no object if we secure the right man.

EDITOR STANDARD.

The Standard is now prepared to submit to the people of Montreal a report by a thoroughly competent engineer, going into such details as the people have a right, and an inalienable right, to know.

The citizens of Montreal are absolutely in the dark on the water trouble. The famine is here, and if disaster is averted it will be a miraculous escape. The danger has not been one half disclosed. In the News Edition of The Standard, early on Saturday night the whole truth will be presented, regardless of consequences, regardless of threatened libel suits, regardless of cost.

It is time the public knew The Actual Conditions as they Exist. The Standard now knows them, and The Standard readers will realize what a crime has been committed.

Blackballing at Clubs

The Ex-President of one of Montreal's swagger clubs gives his opinion straight from the shoulder about blackballing at clubs in this week's News Edition of The Standard. READY EARLY SATURDAY NIGHT.

London, Paris, New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Toronto, Ottawa, and Quebec are now connected by wire with the office of The Montreal Standard.

Of all the English papers in the whole of Montreal and Province of Quebec, only one is ahead of The Standard in circulation. The Standard is a splendid second, and in the city of Montreal it is fully 10,000 ahead of any of them, except the first.

WILD SNOW STORM. The Tail of the Winter Wags Savagely in Cape Breton. Sydney, N.S., March 8.—Not within the past twenty-five or thirty years has Cape Breton seen such a snowstorm as prevailed yesterday. Traffic is suspended in every direction, streets are blocked, and only those who by force of circumstance were compelled to do so moved out at all during the day. So moving towards the center of the storm, it was times to see the other side of the street, much less from block to block. The wind blew at the rate of between 75 and 80 miles an hour at Low Point, and driving snow before it, in such endless confusion that it was scarcely safe to venture out at all. All the colliers were idle, and the men have called out engines to keep the surface workings clear. The latter men did not turn out, and so the pit men had to do the work. The mines will be idle for some time. It will take the remaining part of this week to open up the lines in order to move coal. The head office at Montreal, was presented with a gold cigar cutter and silver cigar case by the staff of the Forestry branch.

Mr. E. Stewart Honored. Ottawa, March 8.—Mr. E. Stewart, who has resigned the superintendency of Forestry to accept the position of managing director of the British Columbia Timber Limits Company, with head office at Montreal, was presented with a gold cigar cutter and silver cigar case by the staff of the Forestry branch.

RESTORED HIS HAIR. Scalp Humor Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. AFTER ALL ELSE FAILED. "I was troubled with a severe scalp humor and loss of hair that gave me a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience. After unsuccessful efforts with many remedies and so-called hair tonics, a friend induced me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The humor was cured in a short time, my hair was restored as healthy as ever, and I can gladly say I have since been entirely free from any further annoyance. I shall always use Cuticura Soap, and I keep the Ointment on hand to use as a dressing for the hair and scalp." (signed) Fred K. Busche, 612 East 57th St., New York City.

SOME ROOSEVELTIAN FACTS. On these grounds a personal agreement there was not a matter of personal sympathy between the two men. Sir Mortimer probably distrusted the President. Mr. Roosevelt probably thought the British Ambassador was a traitor. At any rate the President determined, if possible to get rid of him. The main difficulty of the American policy in the Empire was not very considerable, and was only brought to bear against Sir Mortimer. It has even been said in America that Mr. Roosevelt was more than one in the British Cabinet. At a time when Mr. Roosevelt had been given the right to demand Sir Mortimer's resignation, and to demand Sir Mortimer's resignation, it was characteristic of the British Foreign Minister to give up before a man who was more than one in the British Cabinet. How You May Eliminate Business Strain and Worry YOU have promised yourself that some day you will work with less strain and less tension. YOU CAN NEVER DO THIS UNLESS YOU MAKE YOUR METHODS OF FILING LETTERS AND RECORDS SIMPLE AND AUTOMATIC! YOU DON'T NEED AN EXPERT to come into your place of business and plan an elaborate filing system. WHAT YOU DO NEED is to select a simple combination of 'Y' and 'E' methods, operating in 'Y' and 'E' Sectional Filing Cabinets, to take care of all your records. No one can serve you half as well in this matter as we can. We will send a representative to talk to you and get YOUR ideas as to what you need. He will then furnish a lay-out showing methods and cabinets to do YOUR work exactly (not someone else's). This will bring the thing down to a concrete proposition—enabling you to settle these annoying routine troubles ONCE AND FOR ALL.

"A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED." The water which the Montreal Water and Power Company has been supplying the city during the present famine material, is considered the softest in St. Jean Baptiste and D'Arny wards. The population of these two wards is over 25,000, and the greater portion of the population would have been out of water had it not been for the supply through the Montreal Water and Power Company's pipes. Previous to the turning on of this company's supply the inhabitants of this portion of the city had been practically waterless for several days.

Will Visit Philadelphia Crossings. The Local Crossings Committee, after a few minutes' yesterday afternoon, it was explained by Aid. Sadler, chairman, that as the Grand Trunk was willing to elevate its local crossings, it might be well if the committee visited Philadelphia, in which the local crossings question is in much the same condition as in Montreal. It was thought that information could be got by the visit in this question. The suggestion of Aid. Sadler will be carried out.

Many Eat as Though They Were Blind and Their Tongues Cut Out. Dyspepsia is built on confidence—on much confidence in the ability of your stomach to digest anything and everything you put into it. In this age we have developed speed in every line of action, and we have also developed speed in mastication. We don't take time to eat right, and sometimes we do not eat the right kind of food. Sometimes we carry our business to our meals and as a result eat mechanically. As we eat as though we were blind and our tongues cut out. We simply swallow. The result is that the food we eat is half chewed, and lies like a lump of lead on the stomach. You may deny to yourself that you abuse your stomach, but when you get a bilious feeling, you can't deny you've got it. When you get brash, eruptions, burning sensations, bloating, aversion to food, loss of appetite, belching and other kinds of ailments, there is not much use asking yourself, for the time being, why you suffer. The fact is, you've got these ailments, and the germ of the hour is how to get rid of them at once, so that you may be able to sit down and look at your meal straight in the face with a keen appetite and a smile, and enjoy thoroughly everything you eat. Just one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest an ordinary meal, without the help of the stomach. One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. The strongest stomach couldn't do the work any better than one of these wonderful little Tablets can do it. Each tablet contains the strongest digestive agents it is possible to obtain. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine. We come out and say just what is in them—hydrastis, gentian, lactase and aseptic pepsin. They are recommended by 40,000 licensed physicians in the United States and Canada. And they are recommended by every one who uses them—they can't help it, for they immediately invigorate the stomach by letting it take a rest; they strengthen the gastric juice and cause the appetite to become keen and regular. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will speedily destroy dyspepsia, brash, belching, "stump of lead" feeling, burning sensations, indigestion, loss of appetite and aversion to food. Have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets handy when you can take one or two after each meal. Then you will know what a blessing it is to have a good appetite and to get all the good points out of everything you eat. You'll feel rosy and sweet. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth, 50c. If you wish your name and address to be put on our list, send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 85 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

RUFUS H. POPE UNANIMOUS CHOICE Former Member Nominated as Federal Standard Bearer. FOR COMPTON COUNTY Enthusiastic Convention Held at Cookshire—Mr. Pope Reviewed Record of Government. Special Staff Correspondence. Cookshire, Que., March 8.—Mr. Rufus H. Pope, the former representative of Compton County in the House of Commons, will again be the standard-bearer of his party in the next general election. This was the decision reached yesterday by the delegates from all sections of the county, when they held their annual meeting and elected officers of the Conservative Association for the ensuing year. Mr. John McLeary of Compton, was elected president to replace Mr. Joseph Hoberge, Lieutenant Governor of Compton, and Notary Thibodeau, of Megantic, were elected vice-presidents, while Mr. Cyrus Macrae was, for the eighth year, filled the office of secretary, with Mr. Robert Macpherson as assistant. Messrs. C. Rogers and S. Gobeil, the organizers in the county, reported the formation of 15 young men's clubs, and a great improvement in the voters' list which had been neglected in the past. MR. POPE UNANIMOUS CHOICE. When the question of choosing a candidate came up, there was but one mind, and that was that Mr. Rufus H. Pope should again be called upon to carry the standard. He was sent for, and in a thoughtful address, he outlined the difficulties which the party in Compton, but finally yielded to the solicitation of his friends, telling them, however, that it was his hope and not his battle, that they must take the means to achieve success.

MR. RUFUS H. POPE.

In the evening a banquet took place in the Victoria Hall, under the auspices of the Young Men's Conservative Club of Compton County. Several hundred persons sat down, the majority being young men. Mr. Alden Leamond of Cookshire, president of the club of that town, presided most acceptably. The hall had been carefully decorated with lighting and portraits of Conservative chiefs of the white line, and the ladies, which were crowded with charming ladies, were the portraits of the late John Henry Pope and Mr. Rufus H. Pope with the names of their representatives for forty-seven years.

The chairman welcomed the guests in addresses in both languages, after which Mr. C. Rogers and Mr. S. Gobeil did honor to the toast of the young man's club. A TOAST TO LABOR. Dr. George Hume, of Sherbrooke, gave the toast of labor organization, which was responded to by Messrs. J. G. K. Wark and Alex. Devine, who declared that the Conservative party had always been the most attached to labor men, not only by providing them employment through the National Policy, but by giving them the right of association which the present Government was striving to deprive them of. Mr. A. W. Girard dwelt principally on matters affecting the Provincial House. He commended the Government's policy with regard to colonization and commended that adopted in Ontario. The educational policy of the Government also came in for commendation at the hands of the speaker. He closed with a few remarks in English, commending the choice of Mr. R. H. Pope as their next candidate, and calling upon the young men to insist that the next fight be a clean one.

THE CANDIDATE'S ADDRESS. Mr. R. H. Pope was greeted with applause and cheers when he rose to thank the gathering for the confidence they had displayed in him. He thanked them for himself, and for the name he bore, a name to which the people of Compton had shown much attachment. Mr. Pope then reviewed the record of the Liberal administration, declaring that the party in power had violated every promise it had ever made. He condemned the Government for having doubled the taxation while not helping the industries of the country any more than they had helped. The Conservative party stood for broad Canadianism. They were told that they were Imperialists, yet advocated a selfish policy for Canada. That was the Liberal service Canada can do the British Empire is to make herself strong and powerful, so that the hour of need England may count on a million men, if needed. Sir Wilfrid Laurier did not understand this, but offered a preference where none was needed nor asked.

Reviewing the fiscal operations of the Government, Mr. Pope pointed out that the exports last year were $200,000,000, while the imports were $220,000,000. Under the Conservative regime the balance of trade was the other way, though it was in a period of hard times.

APPEAL TO YOUNG MEN. Mr. Pope appealed to the young men to study public questions in these clubs, to discuss them openly, to invite their liberal neighbors to study public questions with them, and to let the young men take up the fight to conduct it in a clean, bright manner, and to be guided by their leaders. If he needed a certificate of appreciation from his country, he got it when the Premier, the Minister of Finance, the Minister of Agriculture and a host of other members of the Liberal side came down into the county, and sent down besides large supplies of money and an army of swears.

Mr. M. O'Reilly addressed the gathering in French, after which the toast of "The Ladies" was duly honored by the speaker, and then Mr. C. W. Mackie, and the gathering broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.
