THOUSANDS PAY TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD AT MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD IN CITY

Annual Ceremony at Westmount War Memorial Attracts Record Crowd—Hon. Lieut.-Col. Harold S. Laws, Chaplain to R.M.R., Conducts Service—Salute Taken by Brigadier-General Panet and Mayor W. Merrill, K.C.

Thousands of residents honored those from this city who lost their lives or their health in the first Great War, at the Westmount Memorial Monument, facing the City Hall on Sunday afternoon. The crowd was one of the largest ever to assemble for the annual commemorative service here, police officials stated.

The service was conducted by the Hon. Lieut.-Col. Harold S. Laws, chaplain to the Royal Montreal Regiment. He made no address, but offered a number of prayers, as is usual practice at Remembrance Day services. There were prayers for those on active service, as well as for victory and peace. Two hymns were sung.

"Nearer My God to Thee," and "Abide With Me." During the singing of the latter wreaths were placed at the base of the monument. This was followed by the Last Post, a two-minute silence, the Reveille, and the National Anthem.

About 800 members of the Royal Montreal Regiment attended the service, while arranged about the monument was a body of 150 veterans of the R.M.R. wearing scarlet berets, under the charge of Major H. A. Armstrong; two companies of the Legion of Frontiersmen and the 2nd Battalion of the R.M.R., under command of Lieut.-Col. J. E. McKenna. The music for the service was provided by the brass and bugle bands of the regiment.

ANNUAL FLOWER EXHIBITION IS WELL ATTENDED

Representatives From Montreal and Ottawa Garden Clubs Viewed Display on Tuesday

Formally opened Friday morning by Alderman B. Panet-Raymond, commissioner of parks, the annual chrysanthemum show sponsored by the city in the municipal greenhouse at the rear of Victoria Hall has been widely attended by residents and citizens from all parts of the island. The show will probably last for another two weeks, depending on the condition of the flowers.

The exhibition was visited on Tuesday afternoon by representatives from the Montreal Gardeners' and Florists' Club and the Ottawa Gardeners' and Florists' Club, the visitors commenting highly on the excellence of the display.

The show is arranged by E. J. Anderson, supervisor of the Westmount Parks Department.

The show was particularly well attended Sunday when many of the thousands of persons who assembled at the War Memorial to pay homage to the war dead, made a point of going through the greenhouse.

The greenhouse is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 to 6 on Sunday.

TO MEET NOV. 18

The November general meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Church of the Ascension will take place on November 18th at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Academy.

Brig.-Gen. E. de Panet, C.M.G., D.S.O., officer commanding Military District No. 4, attended the service, and later took the salute at a march past, in company with Mayor Walter Merrill, K.C., and Col. W. S. MacTier, in command of the 12th Infantry Brigade, of which the R.M.R. forms part.

Catholic Charities Drive Opens Here Tomorrow

Beginning tomorrow, canvassers will visit residents of Westmount in connection with the appeal of the Federation of Catholic Charities for $190,000 for its 1941 budget. The campaign will continue until November 26.

"We know our cause appeals to everyone," says P. C. Drake, general campaign chairman. "We appreciate, too, that these times are bringing many appeals to the generosity of the people of Westmount. But we make our plea confident that we will receive the welcome that has become traditional. Our officers have studied the Federation budgets, and the estimates for 1941 have been kept at the level of those for the current year. The task has been difficult. Not only must we maintain and support the twenty-four agencies and services already on our list. War problems have made it urgent for us to join with the other local Federations in creating a special agency: Directional Services for the Families of Enlisted Men, and noble work is being accomplished in that connection. And we need more and more trained social workers, so we have had to establish a Catholic School of Social Work. Our duties will be heavier, but we will manage with the same sum as in 1940.

"In no sense is it our intention to lower the standard of the aid we are giving the distressed, the helpless and the underprivileged. We cannot fail them. Nor, too, will we reduce our support of a number of very valuable non-sectarian institutions and agencies such as the Montreal Convalescent Home, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Child Welfare Association, etc.

"We are sure that, with the help of the people of Westmount, we will obtain the $190,000 we are seeking, and thus will be able to continue the assistance to those unable to help themselves."

WESTMOUNT PAYS HOMAGE TO THOSE WHO FELL IN 1914-18

Rev. H. S. Laws, Chaplain, Is Promoted

The Reverend Harold S. Laws, V.D., chaplain to the Royal Montreal Regiment, has been promoted from the rank of Hon. Major to that of Honorary Lieutenant Colonel. Rev. Laws received notice of the promotion by mail on Saturday.

TRIBUTE PAID WAR DEAD AT SERVICE HERE

Men Who Fell in First Great War Honored at Melville Presbyterian Church

The Sunday morning service at Melville Presbyterian Church, took the form of an Armistice ceremony and was attended by past and present officers, N.C.O.s, of the Army Medical Corps, representatives of the Canadian Overseas Nursing Assn., the Ladies Army Auxiliary Corps, and 1914-18 Veterans.

The service was conducted by Dr. W. Orr Mulligan, taking as his text the subject of "Talents."

Memorial wreaths were placed on memorial plates on the church walls just previous to the two minutes silence.

The 6th and 9th Field Ambulances attended this service regularly every year until the present war called so many of these men overseas.

Davidson.

J. W. Brunt, M.C., Presents Report at Argyle Junior High School Exercises

The annual graduation exercises of Argyle Junior High School were held in the auditorium of the Intermediate School on Friday evening when the principal's report was presented by J. W. Brunt, M.C., an address was made by John Asbury, principal of Baron Byng High School, and the invocation was given by Rev. Canon Gilbert Oliver.

The exercises were held in the Intermediate School due to the fact that the former Argyle building is now the High School.

The program opened with the entry of classes of grades, seven, eight and nine, the last being the graduating class. A. S. Brunseau, K. C., acted as chairman in the absence of P. P. Flintoft, K. C., vice-chairman of the Westmount Board of School Commissioners.

In presenting the principal's report Mr. Brunt referred to the increasing use being made of school library facilities and spoke highly of the co-operation received from the Westmount Public Library. The Westmount High Schools Home and School Association was doing much to bring teachers and parents together, he said, resulting in a better understanding of pupils' problems.

In the address of the evening John Asbury, principal of Baron Byng High School, stressed the great difference in the distance of "the jump from fair to good and the jump from good to excellent." Mr. Asbury said that those attending school fell into three categories, depending upon the attitudes which they chose to adopt. There is the pupil, he who adopts the little boy attitude and has to be led by the hand upon the high road of learning. There is the scholar, who is only called so because he is attending school. Then there is the student, so called from the Latin word meaning "I am enthusiastic." This type received the full benefit of his time passed in school.

The school choir, under the direction of S. E. McKyes, sang six selections during the course of the evening the last being "There'll Always be an England," which received an encore.

Meeting Will Inaugurate War Savings Stamp Week

War Savings Stamp Week will be inaugurated here by an open meeting of the Business Association of Westmount in Victoria Hall on Friday evening, November 22, which will be featured by an excellent program of entertainment, free door prizes and an auction of donated articles.

The main purpose of the meeting, which is expected to fill the hall to capacity, is to promote the sale of War Savings Stamps in Westmount. The Association seeks the support of all residents in this community effort, which it believes will do much to increase the sale of the Stamps here.

TWO INJURED IN ACCIDENTS DURING WEEK

Victims of Minor Mishaps Treated at Western Division of Montreal General Hospital

Two persons suffered minor injuries in accidents on city streets during the past week, the police accident report book reveals.

James O'Reilly, of 141 Clandeboye avenue, suffered head wounds and an injured left thumb when he was struck by an automobile driven by Paul H. Leblanc, of 4366 Fabre street, at the corner of Atwater and Selby avenues, at 11:40 a.m. on Thursday. He was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital by Constable A. Jones in a patrol car and was treated there by Dr. Smith.

At the time of the accident Leblanc was proceeding from north to south on Atwater while O'Reilly was crossing Atwater from west to east. He was struck by the right front fender of the car.

Leblanc stopped immediately after the accident.

Lucien Beauvais, an employee of Chevrolet Motor Sales, suffered bruises about the body when a three-wheel motorcycle he was riding, and an automobile driven by Gerald Bourque, of 1454 Mountain street, Apt. 8, collided at the corner of Western and Atwater avenues at 5:50 p.m. on Saturday.

Beauvais, who was proceeding north on Atwater, collided with Bourque's car which was proceeding south as it attempted to turn east on Dorchester. He was treated at the Western Division of the Montreal General by Dr. Dickinson. Constable Maxwell investigated the accident.

Rev. John MacKay To Preach Sunday

Sunday will be a special day in St. Andrew's Church when Rev. John MacKay, young and brilliant Ottawa clergyman, will preach morning and evening. Mr. MacKay's preaching is characterized by highland fervor that is particularly attractive, recalling to his hearers the eager and worshipful atmosphere of early days in Scotland. He won a distinctive place for himself among the younger generation of United Church preachers. His evening topic will point to the guide posts for modern youth, and should be especially interesting for the young men and women of the community.

After the evening service Mr. Max Ford will conduct a singing for the boys in uniform and the young folks, after which refreshments will be served.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1940

FINE COMMUNITY EFFORT

A unique type of entertainment is to be sponsored by the Westmount Business Association at Victoria Hall, Friday, November 22nd. The object is to boost the sale of War Savings Stamps in Westmount and to acquaint the public with the fact that the business men of Westmount will carry these stamps for the convenience of their customers.

The entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Betty Speirs and a very fine program has been arranged. Everyone who buys two War Savings Stamps at the door will be admitted, while children accompanied by parents, will be admitted upon purchase of one stamp. Purchasers will, of course, retain possession of the stamps. In addition, many articles donated by members of the association will be auctioned off to the highest bidder in War Savings Stamps. In this case also, the purchases will retain the stamps.

This entertainment is the forerunner of an extensive campaign to be sponsored by the Association to boost the sale of stamps in Westmount. We know the public will respond heartily to the appeal to invest in the country's future and, at the same time, enjoy a top-line entertainment.

FOR CANADIAN UNITY

Like a tonic to nerves frayed by the bombing of British cities, the sinking of British ships, and the refusal of one notorious member of the British sisterhood of nations to help in the common cause, is the forthright recent utterances of Premier Godbout of Quebec. With the exception of Mr. King and Mr. Lapointe, Mr. Godbout has probably contributed more to Canadian unity in the prosecution of the war by his appeals to reason and patriotism than any other Canadian. It was no surprise to those who know him to read of him throwing all considerations of small "prejudice" politics to the wind and telling the people of this Province some things which politicians have feared to say in the past but the truth of which will be apparent to all clear-thinking electors. This attitude on the part of politicians is difficult to understand for the French-Canadian, more than any other racial group in Canada, has the tenacity to resist side-issues—to hold to the principal issue presented to him and pass judgment on it. It is probable that Mr. Godbout's appeal to the loyalty, fair-mindedness, and common sense of the people will win him a place in their esteem alongside Laurier. His creed, like Laurier's, can be summed up in these words: "Love is better than hate, and faith is better than doubt."

WHEN TRAFFIC STOPPED

One of the most impressive things about Monday's observance of the Armistice was the stoppage of all traffic for the two minutes' of silence at eleven o'clock—the first time this has been done in Montreal. From all accounts co-operation among motorists, pedestrians and traffic police was excellent. Police on point duty stopped all movement of vehicles in their vicinity promptly at eleven, and stood at attention until the two minutes had expired. The silence had a strange effect on people accustomed to the perpetual noise and movement of down-town traffic; it is probable that many did more hard, serious thinking during those two minutes than they have done for many a long day.

THE IRISH NAVY

It is to be hoped, for his sake, that Prime Minister Eamon de Valera feels more security in the fact that Ireland's navy is defending her coasts than is felt in British circles. The statement that the ships are standing between Eire and a German invasion is cold comfort indeed for a country laboring under the "grievous burden" of being denied access to the Irish sea bases.

The day will undoubtedly come when Mr. de Valera will realize how paltry indeed is the "navy" with which he presumes to defend his country. Happenings of the past year indicate that the realization will not come any too gently, if the Germans ever decide that it is worth while to move in on Eire and take over the invasion bases they need.

Austrian Royalists Await Residence In Quebec Villa

Members of Austria's royal family prepared recently to take up residence at Villa St. Joseph, on the outskirts of Quebec city.

The former Empress Zita, mother of the Archduke Otto, Pretender to the Austrian Throne, arrived last week from Royalton, Mass., where she had been staying since coming to America following the outbreak of war last year. Four of her children are attending school here.

Zita, accompanied by Princess Isabel of Bourbon and Countess Kerssenbrink, planned to stay temporarily at Sillery convent until the villa is prepared for her use.

Two younger sons of the former Empress, Archdukes Rudolph and Charles Louis, are studying with their sister, Archduchess Charlotte, in Laval University's School of Social Sciences. Another daughter, Archduchess Elizabeth, is attending Sillery convent.

The former Empress Zita is the widow of Emperor Karl, who succeeded to the Austro-Hungarian throne in 1916 and abdicated in 1918.

Gliding His Way Through College

Gliding his way through college and getting paid for it is the experience of Bud Kimball, Pasadena Junior College student, who is majoring in engineering.

Mr. Kimball, who holds a commercial glider license which allows him to give instruction, turned to teaching the art of gliding when he found that his funds for college were running low.

The Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:

Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of the coming week are hidden.

Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose.

Contestants must be over 16 years of age. Residents of Westmount, only, are eligible. All answers must be in the office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Thursday's issue.

A convenient coupon will be found elsewhere in the paper. The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers, and, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to every one submitting the right answers.

The winners of last week's contest are as follows and their passes will be received in Monday's mail:

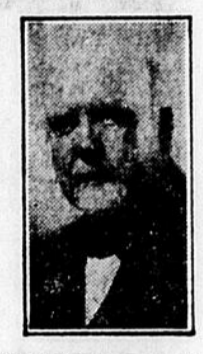

Mrs. I. O. Vincent, 396 Grosvenor Ave., Apt. 3; Miss Thomson, 4858 Sherbrooke West; C. M. Brooks, 623 Victoria Ave.; Mrs. D. B. MacArthur, 7 Gladstone Ave.; Alice Sangster, 355 Prince Albert Ave.; Mrs. P. Hildstrup, 502 Elm Ave.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

The late Premier Chamberlain, like his famous father, Joseph Chamberlain (whom I had the pleasure of meeting in London thirty-five years ago) is a Unitarian. When at home in his native city of Birmingham, he regularly attended the Unitarian Church of the Messiah. Yet as Premier his duty was to advise the King in the selection of Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of England.

Of course he sought the best obtainable advice before making his recommendations.

The U.S. estimated wheat yield of 728,000,000 bushels added to what they have in storage will give them a billion bushels. They require only 650,000,000 bushels. Their domestic market is glutted with meat. A year's yield of cotton is on hand and the 1940 crop has not been picked.

Food surpluses worry Canada, Argentina, Brazil and Australia. We're overstocked with pork and pork products and when this year's harvest is over, will have more wheat to offer the world than the U.S.A.

One authority stated: "This situation, complicated by war, promises to be no less complicated in peace. Demands for subsidies, bitter competition, monetary conflicts and peace time Europe's relative degree (80%) of food self-sufficiency are some of the problems baffling countries with too much food."

Poultry raising both for meat and eggs added $635,000,000 to farmers' (of U.S.A.) income in 1937. At present there are chickens on 90% of American farms.

The ancestors of all American poultry (except the turkey) were imported from Europe. Columbus on his second voyage in 1495 brought the first chickens.

The smallest thing, well done, becomes artistic.—Plato.

A friend thinks it's a waste of time to bother about evolution. He said, "I'm not in the least interested in where I came from what I wish to know is where I'm going."

N. C. Community Aiding Britons

This little mountain town is doing more big things in comparison to its size, to aid British refugees and other war needy than any similar community in the United States. At least so its sponsors think.

Beginning with a group of committees assigned to provide warm clothing for the bomb-devastated areas of Great Britain, the "help Britain" ideas have continued to spread here in recent months. Women, scores of them, are knitting, canning, sewing, mending, preparing anything for England and her sister isles — which means her people — in their hour of direst need.

Tryon now is bending its every effort toward the purchase of a mobile canteen, which will be virtually a "country store of wheels," designed to be moved from zone to zone throughout England as necessity demands.

The canteen, a large truck equipped both as a store and field kitchen, is not a new idea in Britain, but has done much valuable work. What is new is the acquisition of such equipment through public donations in small communities.

The Test

Canadian Club Will Hear Talk By Dr. Griffin

The Young Men's Canadian Club naturally believes that Youth is Canada's greatest asset, and that a healthy, vigorous youth will ensure a still greater Canada. At their next meeting in Queen's Hotel on Monday evening, youth will be the theme of an address by Dr. J. D. M. Griffin, associate medical director of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene (Canada), his subject being "Solving Tomorrow's Problems, an Approach to the Mental Hygiene of Youth."

The club is also appealing to members and friends for co-operation in securing sporting rifles to be on loan for the duration of the war for the C.P.C. Auxiliary Mobile Police Force. Those wishing to help should communicate with Len Cox, Harbour 1106.

Kenneth F. McNamee, president, will be in the chair at Monday's meeting.

Darker Dublin Likely to Be Asked

The British Government is reported as likely to make representations to Eire about Dublin's lights which, it is believed, may be used by Nazi bombers to plot a course toward blacked-out Liverpool, on England's west coast.

Similar overtures were said to have been made some time ago and Dublin's cheerful peacetime street lighting was considerably dimmed. Fresh anxiety, however appears to have arisen.

Destroyers Arrive In Apple Pie Order

The latest destroyers acquired from the United States not only are "in apple pie order" but are "in apple pie order" but are equipped with everything from china and silver down to pencil sharpeners, a British naval officer reported last week.

In addition, he said the men on his ship were delighted and astonished to find abundant supplies of towels, sheets, blankets, pillows, typewriters, paper, an electric percolator, a refrigerator and an ice-water tap.

May his last years on this continent be full of peace and happiness.

Study Group Will Hold Meeting On November 20

The following is the outline of the topic "Intelligence Tests," which is to be the subject of discussion of the Study Group meeting of the Westmount High Schools Home and School Association Wednesday evening, Nov. 20 at 8.15 o'clock in the Intermediate School with J. M. Brunt, M.A., in general charge of the discussion.

Members of the association and all others interested in Westmount high schools are invited to attend. Careful consideration of the outline, and, if possible study of some of the recommended tests, will greatly aid the work of the group.

INTELLIGENCE TESTS

1. What is intelligence? Which of these definitions seems the best:

- (1) the ability to learn or understand (dictionary)
- (2) "the power of independent and creative elaboration of new products out of the material given by memory and the senses—and the ability to avoid errors, surmount difficulties, and adjust to environment" (Meumann)

2. What aspects of intelligence is the school obviously unable to measure?

3. Is the term "scholastic ability test" preferable to "intelligence test"?

4. What does I. Q. 100 mean? Are the following gradings acceptable:

below 20	idiots
20-50	imbeciles
below 70	feeble-mindedness
80-90	dullness
90-110	normal
110-120	superior
120-140	very superior
140 plus	"near" genius or genius

5. It is said that the mental age of the American soldier in the Great War was twelve years. Is this an indictment of American intelligence, or of American schools, or of both?

6. How would you rate the following in reliability for forecasting scholastic progress:

- (1) achievement in school; i.e., marks or percentages.
- (2) intelligence tests.
- (3) standard achievement tests.
- (4) a combination of the first three.
- (5) the teachers' rating
- (6) achievement plus mental ability, plus rating on study habits or attitudes.

7. How reliable is a rating based on one test?

8. What do you think of the following objections to mental ability tests:

- (1) they are just a fad.
- (2) they make the pupil nervous and he doesn't do his best.
- (3) they are based on findings for children in the U.S.A. and our children are brighter (or duller); also some of the questions are purely American.
- (4) they cannot be as reliable as the rating of the teacher who observes the pupil over a long period.

9. Why don't we have our mental ability tests for Westmount?

10. Why are these tests given in grades 4 and 6 in Westmount?

11. Should the pupil and / or the parent be told what the pupil's I. Q. is?

12. How reliable are character rating tests, and aptitude tests (e.g., clerical ability, mechanical ability)? How should they be used?

High Home And School Association Article

The following article relating an experience in teacher-pupil relationship in school athletics has been prepared for the Examiner by F. E. L. Sharpe, teacher of English and instructor in physical training in the Westmount Intermediate School.

"I'm a teacher, not an athletics director. When I was appointed to this staff, I understood I was to be a classroom teacher. My contract says so. I was not hired to teach a subject nor coach some team. There are members on this staff whose duties are just that. With me it's a case of first things first, and my job is to teach academic subjects. The university did not give me my degree for athletic proficiency, nor did my course in education consider the problem of teaching boys how to play a game. Besides, the School Board hired me as a teacher, and it is paying me to be a teacher. It neither gives me, nor any of us, any increments for extra curricular school work. Certainly, I believe in a programme of athletics for the school, but the responsibility for the maintenance of that programme is not mine. Yes, I suppose you consider me selfish; but what you consider selfishness, I consider a proper sense of values."

There is a reply to that teacher's philosophy of educational responsibility; and, graphically, that reply came from another teacher:

"I agree with at least three of your statements. And you're right when you say that I probably consider you selfish. That selfishness comes from the ignorance of inexperience. Let me answer your fallacies by telling you a story—a story about a teacher that came into my athletic life just twenty-one years ago. I've been teaching now for nearly fifteen years, but that teacher still is my gauge for judging the relationship of teacher to pupil in school athletics.

"I was a schoolboy during the Great War. The school I attended had no athletics programme whatever, except perhaps the free play of leap frog, marbles, 'scrub' baseball, and what we called 'canal' hockey. The moral habits of many of the pupils in that school during those war years appalled even the most sophisticated of us.

"When I was fifteen, our ninth year was taken over by a young man teacher. During the last three years of my schoolboy career, he taught us how to play football and basketball. He started our first inter-school hockey league. He organized our first school track meet. He established our first school athletics association. Literally, the inception of his school athletics programme changed the morale of our school overnight. From the street arabs we had a tendency to be, we were metamorphosed into the athletes we hoped to be. Our school work improved. The respectful 'Yes, sir' crept into our speech. Adolescents though we were, we had sense enough to know that we would always owe something to that teacher. That is why I, as a teacher to-day, say: 'The character and conduct of any school depends to a great extent on the maintenance of an athletic life for the schoolboy.'

"That teacher's example lives in my memory, and I hope in my actions. He introduced us to what many now consider the tritest of expressions: 'It is not if you have won or lost, but how you played the game.' Under his inspiring guidance, we learned to win as gentlemen should. Better still, he taught us how to accept defeat. He used to say, 'Let's get this straight, fellows. Always play to win—but not to win at any cost. Unless you go out to win, you're not worth your salt. If you lose, lose like gentlemen.'

Give the other team a big cheer. Pat your opponents on the back. Walk off the field with them'. One day some of the boys skipped a football signal drill. Our teacher-coach made no comment until the end of the practice. Then he said, 'Let's get this straight, fellows. This is what I expect of every member of this team. If you cannot turn out to practice, he said, 'Let's get this straight, be loyal to your team before the game as well as during it. When we filed out of the basement, locker room, or rink shack for our last game of each sport he coached, he always shook hands with each one of us in turn, giving everyone of us some verbal pat on the back.

"It wasn't until years later, when I was teaching Henry Newbold's 'Vital Lampada' to a grade six, that I appreciated fully that we had not then been playing 'for the sake of a ribboned coat nor a school letter to wear ostentatiously on our sweaters as a badge of snobbish athletic distinction. When we received that letter from the hands of that teacher at the end of the playing season, it took on the aura of a knighthood.

"The significance of one incident we experienced with that teacher of ours lay dormant within me for many years during my transition from pupil-athlete to student-athlete to teacher-coach. One Saturday morning in January, a few of us happened to pass by the town rink. There was our teacher organizing about forty of the school 'kids' into a hockey league. Before the next Saturday came around, he approached three of us, and said, 'I want you fellows of the senior team to help these youngsters out. Will you referee their games?' That 'kid' Saturday morning hockey league, of which we became such a proud part, still operates as a progressive monument to his philosophy of service.

"But the implication of that incident was wasted on me until I coached my first school team. Thirty boys turned out for the opening practice sessions. The administrative problem of coaching was a difficult one to solve; but the most discouraging task came when I was forced to notify twenty of those boys that they were to be dropped from the squad. Those twenty disconsolately blended themselves back into the mass of the athletically underprivileged, and then went on as the privileged few. Here was a recurrent classroom problem in its worst phase in athletics. We know that in classroom teaching technique we must consider the academic instruction of the good-average-poor ratings of pupil; and we acknowledge the need for a properly-administered programme of school athletics. Therefore, we haven't the right to ignore the athletic mass; for the athletic few. But classroom teachers take an active part in school athletics this is bound to happen, for no athletic instructor can hope to spread his activities over a whole city school.

"I, too, am a teacher, and not an athletics director. Yet, in the schools of this city to-day, the teachers have instituted and are administering the largest athletics organization of this province. I want everybody to help these youngsters out," said that teacher of ours twenty years ago. Pupils, teachers, parents should respond to that request, and thus establish the efficacy of the athletic life of my school."

On Telephone "Charity" Appeals — Ask For Details In Writing

To-day, more than ever, legitimate charities and other organizations need every dollar they can obtain to meet the increased burdens created by the war. And, — because you are anxious and willing to help, it is vital that your donations or subscriptions should not line the pockets of the racketeer.

The high-pressure "charity" promoter or "subscription" solicitor invariably uses equally high-pressure telephone appeals to land his victims' dollars. Too often, to-day, he "exploits the war" by falsely stating or implying that donations and subscriptions will in some way benefit organizations, military units or individuals connected with the prosecution of the war.

Charity "hi-jackers" and unscrupulous "subscription" solicitors use the same technique. They make their telephone appeals in the names of well-known charities or individuals. Their appeals are followed quickly by "runners" or messengers who pick up the donations before you have a chance to investigate.

To protect yourself, and legitimate charities and organizations, insist upon a letter giving you full details regarding such appeals, unless they are from someone you recognize. In most cases, the letter will never arrive.

But don't be stampeded. Don't damage legitimate charities and other organizations by paying good money to those which are not. Contact the Better Business Bureau first. Get the facts. There is no charge to the public for Bureau services which are made possible through the support of many firms in this city.

"Turnabout" Will Open At Monkland On Sunday

Carole Landis, who made her bow under the Hal Roach banner as a prehistoric debutante, is co-starring with handsome John Hubbard in Roach's new streamlined comedy, "Turnabout," filmed from the Thorne Smith novel and slated for its initial showing at the Monkland United Theatre on Sunday through United Artists release.

"Turnabout" was directed by Hal Roach personally and its hilarious plot concerns the high jinks produced when Miss Landis as Mrs. Willows and Hubbard as her husband exchange sexes. The svelte, shapely Miss Landis steps into her husband's oversize shoes and experiment with the problems faced by the male portion of humanity.

Several of the largest and most lavish sets Hollywood has seen in recent years were constructed for "Turnabout," the most outstanding among these being a replica of a skyscraper office building which houses the advertising firm where a great part of the action takes place. The decor is modern.

R. A. F. Studies Raid Like College Students

Some time ago the writer was privileged to sit with pilots and crews at an airfield near here as they were "briefed" for an intensive night raid on an enemy city.

Having previously had the experience, rare and beautiful to any Londoner, of going to bed and going to sleep as if there were no such thing as a Blitzkrieg, it is easy to believe the announcement that the Royal Air Force is starting to secure the initiative of offensive in the campaign for air supremacy.

No Drama Apparent

Although it is a grim portent of destruction and although the trip under discussion is not necessarily a round one for the students listening so intently, the scene at a "briefing" was found to have no more of an air of drama about it than a university lecture and less than a "pop talk" at a conference of salesmen.

Meanwhile the Nazis and Fascists were hatching their plots for the night which brought evil-with built-in-wall radio and bookshelves, and angular furniture in black and gray colors. It reflects the strictly-business attitude of the man who uses it, and his volatile nature.

After our heroine and hero exchange places and sexes in "Turnabout," confusion and chaos ensue. Hubbard's partners in the film, Adolphe Menjou and William Gargan, cannot understand the sudden femininity of their associate who manages to cause all sorts of damage to the prestige of the firm and to lose it most of its valuable clientele. Back home, the same sort of thing happens for the somewhat masculine-looking lady of the house is hardly proficient with the servants and no match for the correct social life.

Ho who story winds up provides the picture with a surprise filled climax full of unexpected happenings and laugh-filled incidents. For the filming of the special sequences in "Turnabout," a very different technique was developed and only the versatile camera knows the way it was employed during production.

In spite of the role she plays, lovely Carole Landis exhibits a stunning wardrobe marked by femininity and sophistication. Among her most elaborate creations are gorgeous negligees, form-fitting bathing suits, smart town clothes and streamlined evening gowns for dinner and dancing.

dence that they are still following a changed line of strategy that leaves London not seriously assailed but which sends bombers up here to the Northeast as well as to the East, Midlands, and Northwest in an attempt to dislocate Britain's war effort and industry generally.

Rated as Quiet Night In the words of an Air Ministry communiqué: "Some damage was done to houses and other buildings but . . . by the early hours of this morning the attacks had slackened considerably and every activity ceased some time before dawn."

In other words, it was an exceptionally quiet night as nights go here at the present time and in no part of the country was there a concentrated attack. That to more than can be said on the other side of the Channel, now being assailed with increasing intensity as the former chief of the bomber command, Air Marshal Sir Charles Portal, develops R. A. F. offensive plans in his capacity as Chief of the Air Staff.

Tokyo Paper Sees Threat To Japan In U.S. Program

The Independent newspaper Nichi Nichi, in a Shanghai dispatch, charged recently that the United States "is rapidly developing a multilateral war program against Japan."

In support of its charge, the newspaper said, American marines in Shanghai are undergoing wartime training, that huge war stores are being collected at Manila, and that assembly plants for war materials are being installed there to be operated by highly trained Army personnel from Michigan and California.

The supplies assembled at Manila, Nichi Nichi asserted, include more than 100 bombers and pursuit planes, 100 heavy tanks, 1100 armored trucks, artillery, and anti-aircraft guns.

An array of submarines, cruisers and other warships has been quietly and gradually assembled at Manila, it went on, plus a big fleet of Boeing bombers believed capable of easily making round-trip flights to Tokyo.

Two thirds of the United States Fleet is considered ready to enter the Western Pacific at a moment's notice, Nichi Nichi said. It also declared the advice to Americans to leave the Orient and continued loans to China all were a part of the American "war program."

Furthermore, it charged the Bette Davis and Charles Boyer bring glowing life to "All This, and Heaven too," which is now playing at Monkland United Theatre until Saturday night.

Bing Crosby and Mary Martin harmonize for a scene in "Rhythm on the River," which is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday night.

"NO TIME FOR COMEDY"

"He's Mine" . . . "Oh, No, He's Mine" — It's Genevieve Tobin vs. Rosalind Russell with Jimmie Stewart very much in the middle . . . and it's "No Time for Comedy," which opens at the York United Theatre starting on Saturday playing until Tuesday night.

United States "forced" Britain to reopen the Burma Road, Chinese supply route, in order to bolster the Chinese and to keep Japan busy for the time being.

Wasted Effort Here's an old-fashioned, pre-war kind of story about a Negro maid. Her mistress had to speak to her about one annoying falling-ignoring the telephone when it rang, and allowing other members of the household to come running. "After this, I want you to answer the telephone, Clarice," she said. "Yas'm," the maid replied, glumly. "Seems sort of silly, though. Nine times out of ten it's for you."—The New Yorker.

"Flowing Gold" At The York United Theatre

"Flowing Gold," a lusty saga of love and adventure in the western oil fields, opened at the York United Theatre last night to an audience that responded eagerly to the many daring, action-jammed situations.

Heading the cast of the Warner Bros. films are Pat O'Brien, John Garfield, and lovely Frances Farmer. This talented trio, and immoderate play their roles to the hilt, gearing their performances to the exciting tempo of plot and direction.

O'Brien is seen as Hap O'Connor, a capable oil foreman, while Garfield is cast as Johnny Blake, young iconoclast, fearless and alone in the world. He has accidentally killed a man, and the ensuing hardships endured have caused him to wear a perennial chip on his shoulder. He and O'Brien meet in a western boom town, and despite occasional flashes of temperament, become attracted to each other. When Hap meets with a serious drilling accident, Johnny takes over as foreman.

TIC TOC SHOW HAS A SPECIAL FEATURE

A new show opens Monday, November 18 at the Tic Toc featuring a galaxy of stars from stage and screen.

Heading the fine bill of entertainment is the "Mighty Midget of Mirth," Jerry Bergen and Co. His past performances are rated very high — playing in many screen hits and is a great stage favorite. With him comes Milton Douglas also a comedian who works with a beautiful girl in rapid fire comedy antics. Mr. Douglas will act as master of ceremonies. Also Olive White, Princess of Rhythm, she plays various musical instruments and sings a lovely song. The team of Jack and Jill, two clever dancing youngsters combine with the beautiful dancing ensemble of the Tic Toc to provide 3 elaborate production numbers under the direction of Sidney Topley. The music will be handled by Milton Sherman and his orchestra, for relief music Ray Dawe and his "Swing-ing Four" play between dance sets. A delicious dinner is served nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. and there is never a cover charge—you can spend a delightful evening at the Tic Toc.

Galt Pupils In Entertainment

On Monday evening, the officers of the Women's Auxiliary Reserve Company entertained members of their corps at the Queen's School, Oliver Ave., Westmount. Miss Hilda Galt, who is a Lieutenant in the Corps, presented the pupils of her dancing school in songs, dances and acrobatics for the entertainment of the company. Those taking part were Terry Goodwin who gave clever impersonations of Sir Harry Lauder; Marlyn Cumming and Gloria Pine who both offered delightful song and tap routines; Moira Cumming who stopped the show with her sensational acrobatic dances; and Frae Williams who gave impersonations of England's favourite comedienne Gracie Fields. Jimmie Rice acted as Master of Ceremonies throughout and also rendered several vocal selections. The piano accompaniment was supplied by Lieutenant Hilda Galt and Miss Boehmer.

On Tuesday eve the pupils of Hilda Galt's Dancing School also took part in a program presented at the Central Y.M.C.A. for the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hussars.

Maurice Chevalier And Clive Brook Film Stars

An unforgettable trip on a British flagship awaits all who visit the Snowdon United Theatre, for so realistic is the Michael Balcon production "Convoy," that film goes will imagine themselves actually on board the flagship as it ploughs its way through the hazardous journey which it has to undertake.

Into the stirring background has been woven a human story of a captain who is devoted to his duty. The sea has separated him from his wife. Ironically enough, the very man for whom she had left him is posted to his ship as Lieutenant. The wife herself is on a tramp steamer which falls to join the convoy and is trapped by the Nazis.

Up-to-the-minute, exciting and authentic, "Convoy" had the official co-operation of the Admiralty many of the scenes being filmed on actual convoy trips. Clive Brooks gives a remarkable performance as Captain Armitage of the flagship, and others in the cast include John Clements, Edward Chapman and lovely Judy Campbell.

Maurice Chevalier, Jack Buchanan and the charming June Knight are featured on this program in the first run production "Break The News," which was directed by the famous Rene Clair, remembered for many hits which included "The Ghost Goes West."

"Break The News" presents these two famous stars of the stage and screen in a story which affords them exceptional scope for their combined brilliant talent, and will keep the patrons of the Snowdon in gales of laughter from beginning to end.

This picture marks the return of Maurice Chevalier to the screen after a long absence, during which time he has been touring Europe.

The latest News of the Day and other short subjects will be included.

Jack Oakie Appearing In Westmount Feature Show

In his extensive stage and screen career Jack Oakie has played every type of role from go to collegian, but this is how Director Allan Dwan handed him a new one in "Young People," the 20th Century-Fox picture which stars Shirley Temple, Oakie and Charlotte Greenwood, and is coming Sunday to the Westmount United Theatre.

The script called for Oakie to play a vaudeville comedian who retires to a New England farm with his wife, Charlotte Greenwood and his adopted daughter, Shirley.

Oakie, looking slightly sheepish in a pair of ill-fitting overalls, is to go through a plowing scene. He takes a few instructions on the art of plowing in circles, and the cameras are ready to grind.

"All right," says Director Allan Dwan, "we'll shoot it."

"Giddap!" whispers the comic, but nothing happens.

By this time Oakie is downright nervous, "Giddap!" he yells.

The horse jumps, pulling the plow out of the furrow, and Oakie with it. After Oakie is dragged ten yards, Dwan calls "Cut! That wasn't in the script, but it's the funniest acting you've done yet, Jack!"

"Acting?" answered the non-plussed comic, "I was just trying to save my life!"

Featured in "Young People" are Arleen Whelan, George Montgomery and Kathleen Howard. Harry Joe Brown was the producer.

The Joys of Selling

The old countryman and his wife were comfortably seated in the shoe shop of a small market town. The occasion was a pair of new shoes for the wife.

She had tried on practically every suitable shoe in the shop and at last expressed her satisfaction with a particular pair. The weary assistant had breathed a sigh of relief.

But there was still the husband to be satisfied. Addressing his wife, he queried:

"Now are you quite sure you would like shoes for your present, or would you prefer an umbrella?"—Montreal Star.

ELECTION AFTERMATH

Hollywood, November 13—With the election settled and smoke of battle cleared away, the Cinema City has once more settled down to a systematic way of life.

Just what this "great crusade" was all about no one quite knows—not even the veteran scenarists who drafted Weary Wilkie's speeches.

The amazing fact is that Wishy-washy Wendy—as his intimates call him—managed to pile up 15,000,000 votes.

The week after election is much like the morning after the night before—if you follow this slightly hazy reasoning.

Cinematic gossip seems trivial in times like this. Nonetheless, the fair-haired lad from Western Union is chewing his cud here beside me—and up in Montreal a patient editor is biting his pencil and mumbling "Where's Hirschberg's copy? The bum is late—as usual!"

RICH DICTATOR

Charlie Chaplin's "Great Dictator" lured $78,000, to the box-office in New York alone last week, making it one of the biggest movie magnets currently on display.

Greta Garbo is pricing skis, and may spend February in the Laurentians. Officials of the R.C.A.F. have offered Dick Purcell $1,000 a month to act as instructor at Trenton.

Toronto Relief Cut Nearly Third In Nine Months

Relief expenditures in the Toronto metropolitan area showed a decrease of 31.3 per cent for the first nine months of 1940 compared with the corresponding period last year, according to Eric Cross, Ontario Minister of Welfare.

Total relief costs for September 1940, which showed the largest decrease, he announced recently, were $263,069, compared with $659,410 for September, 1939—a drop of 60 per cent.

the reduction was 37.8 per cent, in July 37.8 and in June 34.5. Mr. Cross also pointed to a marked decrease in the number of persons receiving relief in the area for the period.

Naples Is Target Of Air Raids By British Warplanes

British war planes, striking for the first time at southern Italy, roared over Naples during the night and unloaded explosive and incendiary bombs, some of which, the Italian High Command acknowledged fell in two of the city's great industrial suburbs.

A communique said one person was killed and five injured during the raid, but minimized the material damage. (The British Air Ministry said the raiders scored hits on oil tanks and "other objectives" at Naples.)

Several bombs fell at Bagnoli, four miles west of the city, and at Pomigliano d'Arco, eight miles to the northwest, the High Command said. Some Italy's biggest blast furnaces and steel mills are located in this region. The communique did not indicate from what direction the raids were launched. London reports indicated that they operated from Britain.

John Howard cured a bad case of sniffles just in time to start his role in Universal's "The Invisible Woman."

Went Back Up The Highlander saw a puff of anti-aircraft smoke in the distance and thought it was a parachutist. He gave the alarm—and men turned out to search. They found nothing, so his officer asked if he was sure of what he's seen. "Have you no doubt at all in your mind?" he demanded. "Aweel, sir," he replied, "I had none till I saw him gaun' up again."—Answers. "Mr. Jenkins always has the most peculiar collection of guests at his house parties," said the auditor. "How do you know?" inquired the bland bookkeeper.

Ford's Town Meets Free Speech Trouble

Suburban Dearborn's problem of free speech and free press, as involved in an anti-handbill ordinance, has developed new complications with another court battle promised.

Twenty-five members of the United Automobile Workers Union (C. I. O.) were arrested yesterday while distributing pamphlets at the gates of the Ford Motor Company's Rouge Plant, and two justices of the peace disagreed on disposition of the cases.

Defendants brought before Justice Lila M. Neunfelt for arraignment were released. On Thursday Justice Neunfelt had ruled the ordinance unconstitutional, declaring it an abridgment of the rights of free speech and free press. On the other hand, Justice Leo R. Schaefer, before whom other pamphlet distributors were brought, ordered all to stand trial.

"Little Women" Pattern Does Not Fit Modern Wife

A woman's club has started an "I'm not listening" campaign against the serial stories that radio sponsors offer the women of the country all day long. Which brings up the question: "What are the interests of the women of the present day?"

Women are—as they have always been—interested in improving themselves and the way in which they do their jobs.

That means they are interested in knowing how to get along with people, how to dress as smartly as possible, on the money they have to spend, how to make the most of their looks—and how to get homemaker down to a science.

But today the great majority of women is also interested in education. They want to be sure their children are getting the most out of their school years—developing their talents and personalities, as well as cramming knowledge into their heads.

They are also interested in sports. Papa no longer leaves mama home when he goes to a ball game or when he sets out for a game of golf.

They are tremendously interested in world events. Not only are they reading the front page of their papers and the editorial page, they would rather hear a news broadcast from Europe than the most romantic serial program on the air. And they are reading all the books dealing with world affairs that they can lay their hands on. After they have read the books, they make papa read them.

A great many of them are interested in politics. They no longer keep still when the men start discussing political questions and candidates.

Boston Baked Beans
1 lb. pea beans
1/2 lb. salt pork
1-3 tsp. soda
Dash ginger
1/2 tsp. mustard
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tbsp. molasses or brown sugar

Soak beans overnight in cold water, parboil one hour in morning with soda. Put in bean pot, add ginger, mustard, salt and molasses, put salt pork in centre, after cutting in squares only through the rind. Cover with hot water and bake for eight hours, looking at them occasionally and adding more water if too dry.

Simple Test for Pillows Offered

If you are in doubt about the condition of your pillows, give each one a simple test. Rest it across your arm. If the ends droop badly the pillow's usefulness is over. If it holds its shape, it probably still is in good condition.

A lifeless pillow is a sleep-destroyer and should be discarded without delay. After all, pillows are filled with perishable materials, the best of which lose their resilience in from five to ten years. It is only reasonable that they should be replaced at regular intervals.

Tested Recipes

Cream of Carrot Soup
1/2 cup onions, chopped
2 tbsps. butter
1/2 cup breadcrumbs
4 cups broth or water
1 tsp. salt
Dash of pepper
1 tbsp. sugar
2 cups mashed, cooked or grated raw carrots
1 cup milk (fresh or evaporated)

Cook chopped onions slowly in butter for five minutes, without browning, add crumbs, broth or water, salt, pepper and sugar, and simmer for 20 minutes. Add carrots and milk, reheat and serve at once. Serves six.

Pulled Bread
Cut ends off French loaf of bread and remove crusts. Cut in half crosswise, then pull bread into strips, using two three-toothed forks. Put strips in dripping pan in slow oven until crisp and delicately brown.

Brown Nut Bread
2 tbsps. sugar
2 tbsps. shortening
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup boiling water
1 cake yeast
1/2 cup lukewarm water
1 egg
1/2 cup evaporated or fresh milk
1 1/2 cups whole wheat flour
2 cups white flour
1/4 cup pecan nut meats
1/4 cup raisins or dates

Pour boiling water over sugar, shortening and salt. Dissolve yeast in lukewarm water; beat egg, add milk and pour into sugar mixture, and when cooled to lukewarm, add dissolved yeast.

Next stir in flour, chopped nuts and chopped raisins or dates, knead until smooth and elastic. Put in greased bowl, cover and let rise until doubled in bulk—about two hours—then knead and shape into loaf and put in greased bread pan. Cover and let rise again until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 deg. F.) for about 45 minutes. Makes one loaf.

Baked Beans
1 lb. beans
1/2 lb. salt pork
1 can tomato soup
1 tsp. dry mustard
1/2 cup catsup
1 tsp. salt
1 tbsp. molasses or B. Sugar

Wash and soak beans overnight in water to more than cover. In the morning pour off water, add fresh water and cook beans until you can blow on some in spoon and the skins will roll. Some people add 1/4 teaspoon soda to water in which beans are boiled. Pour beans into heavy baking dish, bean pot or oven-proof crock, add all other ingredients after mustard is mixed with water, mix thoroughly, put pork in centre and bake very slowly for as many hours as you like—four, five, six, eight or all day.

WILL MEET
The Women's Auxiliary of the Homeopathic Hospital will hold its monthly meeting in the A. P. Griffith Memorial Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 3 p.m.

The Way to a Man's Heart

Cooked Vegetables and Mock Hollandaise Sauce

Adolescent children need large supplies of vegetables. So does every hungry person who wants to achieve vigorous health. Your food budget must allow for four servings or more every day of vegetables or fruit.

Select a vegetable rich in vitamin C, such as cabbage, tomatoes, greens, turnips, rutabagas, for one of the vegetables. Also a yellow one rich in vitamin A and iron, such as carrots, yellow squash, yellow turnips and sweet potatoes. These are low cost sources of essential nutrients for sturdy youngsters. Dried beans, dried peas, peanuts and peanut butter are valuable low cost foods on the limited budget, too.

Baked Squash With Sausage
(Serves 4 to 6)

Six squares yellow squash, 1 lb. bulk pork sausage, 6 thick slices cooking apples, pinch of nutmeg. Wash and split squash lengthwise. Remove seeds and excess fiber. Shape sausage into cakes and fill squash cavities. Do not peel apples. Core and cut into rings. Place an apple ring on top of each sausage cake and sprinkle sparingly with nutmeg. STYLE SHOW GIVEN BY CHARLOTTE GOWNS

A fine collection of smart fall and winter clothes were displayed at the annual bazaar of the Shaare Zion Sisterhood, by Charlotte Gowns on Tuesday; afternoon in Victoria Hall. Christopher Ellis was the commentator.

Included in the showing were chic afternoon frocks of sheer wool in the newest shades and featuring metallic bodies and front panels. Particularly smart for the matron was a model frock of gold colored crepe with a corded pleated bodice and sleeves and had a gored skirt.

Many stunning frocks were shown for the younger girl, many of which were finished on either shirtmaker or princess lines. Buttons and military braid played an important part for trimmings. Beige, three-quarter length and shirred sleeves were among the more popular types shown.

For evening and dinner frocks, silk jersey was the principal fabric. One model of champagne colored silk jersey was trimmed with gold nail heads and featured long full sleeves. For the extremely formal events, was a coral colored silk jersey with a smartly draped bodice shoe string straps and a long full skirt.

Fur coats to suit all occasions were shown by Rowat-Cusson-Ross. Coats and dresses were topped with smart millinery creations by Juliette.

Small Articles in Unpainted Wood

For the woman who likes nothing better than a bit of unfinished furniture, and a paint brush, there are a number of small pieces in unstained wood which will fit into any country home or bachelor girl apartment. Among them is a standing mirror, of the type great-grandmother kept on her chest of drawers. It swings to a convenient angle, and is very attractive, as well as useful. In specially selected white wood, with no prominent graining, it has a laminated top to prevent warping. Another useful small piece is an unpainted foot stool, with a top of Hong Kong grass, which looks for all the world like the old-fashioned rush seats.

Canada Stiffens Measures Against Border Running

Stricter surveillance to curb a sharp increase in the smuggling of American cigarettes into Canada during the past few months especially since the new federal and provincial revenue taxes have been in force was announced recently by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police here.

Numerous small seizures, some of only a few packages have been made recently.

Cigarette smuggling has long been one of the minor offences of tourists and travelers journeying to the United States, police declared, but with the wide difference in price now between American and Canadian cigarettes the aspects of the situation have changed and the illegal importation of cigarettes has reached the stage of a large commercial proposition.

Stiff fines, with prison options if the fines are not met will be sought in all prosecutions in the future, it was announced.

AMERICAN DOLLAR PROBLEM

Part 1 — The Reasons for the Dollar Problem.

Canada is depending more and more on supplies from the United States to keep the wheels of war industry running. We are more fortunate than most belligerent countries in having so vast a source of supply close at hand. We have, nevertheless, a serious problem — one that is becoming rapidly more serious. It is the problem of paying for American supplies.

In peace time Canada's problem of finding American dollars has not been difficult. We depend on our exports to provide us with close to a third of our national income, but we carry on about 80 per cent of our trade with two countries, the United Kingdom and the United States. Our exports to the two chief countries were about equal, but before the war we were buying about 60 per cent of our imports from the United States and only about 20 per cent from Great Britain. We made ends meet by converting the extra pounds which we made on our favourable balance of trade with Great Britain into dollars to pay for our unfavourable balance with the United States. During war time, however, exchange controls are in existence. Britain wishes to conserve her supply of pounds, and we are cooperating by not sending them to New York. Thus the problem of finding sufficient American exchange has become very important.

As far as trade with our ally, Great Britain, is concerned, we are committed to export as much as may be needed and to regard the matter of payment as secondary. Our imports from the Mother Country have increased considerably, but our exports have gained more rapidly. It is possible that to increase her resources and to replace stocks and industries which have been destroyed, Britain may demand still more Canadian manufactures. Already she has arranged to finance some of her increased payments by selling back to Canada Canadian securities held formerly in Britain. There must, however, be limits to such a policy, and it is probable that Canadian loans may eventually help to finance British purchases in this country.

Canada's trade with the United States, on the other hand, presents many difficulties. We normally buy more from our neighbour than we sell to her, but we must now buy still more, because of our essential dependence on American production for war materials. It is true that as the United States herself is stepping up her industry for war purposes, she is importing more from Canada, but as yet our imports from the United States have been increasing to a much greater degree. The great danger comes from the fact that as Canadians are now earning more money, they want to buy more non-military products from the United States. For the nine months ending in September Canada's imports from the United States increased from $320 millions last year to $526 millions this year, and her exports to that country from $233 millions to $315 millions.

There are other ways than in payment for imports by which Canada sends money to the United States. Canada annually pays a considerable amount of interest and dividends to American investors who hold Canadian securities or who have made direct investments in this country. With Canadian business expanding, this amount may tend to increase. If these payments were not made, Canadian credit would suffer, and we might find it difficult to borrow money when we need it — perhaps to carry on the war or post-war reconstruction. Further investment of Canadian capital in the United States is, of course, checked by the restrictions of the Foreign Exchange Control Board.

Ambassador Says China Is To Fight On

China will fight on, confident of victory in the end, according to Dr. Hu Shih, Chinese Ambassador to the United States. Meanwhile it needs, and is most grateful for, all the aid the American people will give it as it carries on alongside the United States and Great Britain in the war to protect the democracies against totalitarian aggression, he declared at a "bowl of rice" dinner to raise funds for his country at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York recently.

Dr. Hu Shih gave three reasons why China could not give up the fight. First, he held, to quit would mean the complete surrender of China's national independence and freedom, for which the Chinese have been fighting for 40 months.

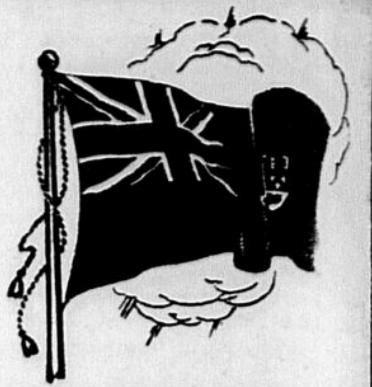

Secondly, he declared, peace was not possible because the Chinese know that the aggressors "cannot be appeased" and are "insatiable."

"For these reasons my people will fight on," he declared. "With your sympathy and assistance we will win."

Other speakers were Henri Bernstein, French dramatist; Miss Dorothy Thompson and Dr. Lin Yutang, Chinese philosopher and author. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Chairman of the dinner and formerly Governor General of the Philippines, presided and read a cabled greeting from Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the President of China.

LOCALS DEFEAT MCGILL 25-6 IN GAME OF ENGLISH RUGBY; TO MEET AIR FORCE SATURDAY

Displaying exceptional skill Westmount downed McGill 25-6 at English Rugby at the college campus in a hard-fought match on Saturday afternoon.

Slightly heavier than their opponents, Westmount scored an early lead of three points when Patterson scored from a free kick shortly after the game got under way. Patterson made a good run and passing to Hall, the latter got a try. Patterson took the kick and was successful, thus increasing Westmount's total to eight points.

After a spell of play at midfield Westmount invaded, but despite great efforts by Glasgow, Larsen, and Mackie, all attempts to score were frustrated.

Stain was pushed into touch at the corner when almost in, and half time arrived without any further scoring.

On resuming play Westmount took the ball to McGill's end and soon Mackie got in, but Patterson's kick failed, although Westmount's lead had now been increased by three points.

After a lot of loose play in front of the Westmount goal Lang got a try for McGill, but they had to be content with three points as Tyhurst's kick failed.

From a free kick off-side, Kayser scored a goal, and followed this up by securing a try, which being converted by McGill, increased Westmount's score to 19 points.

Walsh, the McGill skipper, who throughout had done much hard work for his side, got a try, but Tyhurst's kick went wide, and the score was now 19-6.

Westmount, from now on, kept play mostly at McGill 25, then Larsen and Pratt both got tries but neither were converted. Play ended soon after, leaving Westmount victorious by 25 to 6.

This match concluded McGill's season, but Westmount has arranged a game for next Saturday against the air force whose team is expected to include a contingent of Australians now in Canada for training.

The teams: McGill: Stuart, Brewerton, Knox, Neish, Reid, Lang, Fraser, Tyhurst, Walsh, Seaman, Jobin.

Later one of these days will become a day for instruction in the fundamentals and techniques of badminton. Confirmed

Two laborers were working on a very tall block of apartment buildings. Suddenly the man at the top of the ladder called to his mate at the bottom:

"I say, Jim, come up here a minute and listen."

His mate slowly climbed the ladder and at last, quite out of breath, reached the top.

"I can't hear anything," he said after listening intently for a while.

"No, said the other. "Ain't it quiet?"

SENATORS AND REDS TIED IN RUGBY LEAGUE

The Senators jumped into a first place tie with the Reds in the Senior section of the Westmount Municipal Six Man Rugby League on Tuesday afternoon, when they defeated the Hillcrest squad, 16-0. This loss also eliminated the Hillcrest from the loop play-offs between the first two teams.

The Hillcrest were on the offensive for the most part of the first half and frequently threatened but not been content with anything less than a major score, the Senators would stiffen up and hold them out. Finally with Hillcrest having possession on the Senators' 15 yard line, Macken attempted a forward to Maurice Shea which Kevin Kennedy cut into intercept and out-ran the entire Hillcrest team the length of the field for the touch. Will Graham converted and the Senators held this 6-0 lead till the half. The second half was a rout for the winners, scoring two unconverted touches, L. MacDonald and Will Graham doing the ball carrying.

The Senators turning in their third straight win showed a well balanced team that will take plenty of beating, while for the losers, B. Macken, M. Shea and Bob Drury showed good efforts.

START OF PLAY THAT BEAT ARMY

This is the start of the single play which saved a much-touted Notre Dame team from ignominy at the hands of a fighting Army eleven which outplayed the Irish all afternoon. Steve Juszik (15), of Notre Dame, streaks forward to snatch a Cadet pass intended for Lou Smith (24). Juszik raced 80 yards to score the only touch-down of the day. Over 76,000 astonished fans saw the Army hold Irish to 7-0 in New York.

PANTHERS WHITEWASH FLYERS, SENATORS DEFEAT REDS 11-1 IN TOUCH RUGBY LOOP TILTS

Last week saw at least six games played in the Senior and Junior sections of the Westmount Municipal Six Man Touch Rugby League, with unexpectedly close races developing in both sections. Last Thursday the smooth working Panthers whitewashed the Flyers 10-0, in a Junior section game at King George Park. The league leaders led by Shorty Fairhead and Wrigglesworth, notched up an unconverted touch in each half to win the game. Herbie Kert was the standout for the losers but the hard charging Panther front line gave the Flyers little time to get their plays away.

On Friday the Senators defeated their arch-rivals the Reds in a Senior game, by the score of 11-1. This was the first defeat of the season for the Reds and left the winners in a commanding position for the league leadership. The Senators scored first when Kevin Shea went over for a touch and converted it himself, the winners other five points resulting from a short forward Kevin Kennedy to P. Graham. The lone Red point was a rouse kicked by Rodier midway through the first half.

The University teams split a double-header on Saturday morning, the Seniors losing to the Hillcrest in what might be termed a bit of an upset, 16-7, while their Juniors beat an overconfident Crusader team 8-5. The Hillcrest-University game was one of the best of the season, the passes were accurate and fumbles few. The winners who have been just missing out on every game, made no mistakes on this one and played smart ball throughout. The Hillcrest got a converted touch in the first half on a Macken to Light forward pass and two more in the latter half of the game, McGillis and Davie Harvie doing the ball carrying. The losers got their points when Hazen caught Light behind the line for a safety touch and Birkett took a pass from Ted Moyle behind the Hillcrest line for a touchdown that went unconverted, Macken, Light, McGillis and Harvie played good games for the winners, while Moyle, Birkett and McCammon were the best for the School team. The University School came up with a surprisingly strong Junior team and defeated the Crusaders, 8-5. This was another good game, with School half line of Laurin, Darling and Ogle playing a standout game. Drydon, Hawksworth and Clark were best for the Crusaders.

Two high scoring games were played on Monday morning, with University teams dropping both ends of a double-header. The Seniors lost to the Senators 18-0, and the Juniors were outscored by the Flyers, 26-7. In the senior game, the Senators completely outplayed the School team and looked even better than the score indicates. The winners got their first touch in the first half, when Kevin Shea gathered in a forward to go over standing up and then added two more in the second half for good measure. Kevin Kennedy and Jim Macken getting the tries. Two of these touches were converted by Will Graham, who also booted the lone rouse. All of the winning team played good football, with Kevin Kennedy's broken field running the feature. For the losers, Moyle and Birkett were the best. The Flyers finally got into the win column of the Junior section, when they defeated the University Juniors. This was as it put them back in the league race. The game itself was a wide open affair with three touches being scored in the first couple of minutes of play. Liebman led the scoring brigade getting two tries for the winners, with Kert, DeLalanne, Robinson and McGeen one apiece, one of them being converted by Jimmie DeLalanne. The School got their points on Hayes' touch which was converted by Mickey Darling, who also kicked the last point on a deadline kick. All the Flyers players came through with a good game, while Darling and Ogle played well for the losers.

There seems to be much talk around town of local school coaches stopping a few of their star players from turning out with the Junior teams at the Forum... One coach in particular, we won't mention any names of course, spoke to a coach, and told him not to allow a certain party from even going out to skate with his team... What do you think of that folks?... But the player has an ace in the hole too, he will receive a tryout with a team where the school mentor does not know the Junior coach, and then he will not go out with the school team... That's the way to go, son, it is about time this kind of coach minded their own business and let the boys play where they want... Montreal's public is wondering why this city has to import players from other cities... There is one of the reasons folks... West Hill and Loyola will clash next Saturday for the second year in succession and it should prove to be a nip and tuck battle all the way through as the Red and Grey squad is without its star Allan Hall, who suffered a broken collar bone in the final game of the year... We still pick West Hill, though... We were up to Cobourg on the week-end and really enjoyed our stay... Saw

LOCAL SQUAD DOWNS M.H.S. BY 21 TO 0

By defeating Montreal High 21-0 at Westmount Park on Friday afternoon, clinching the Protestant High School Football League's Senior B eastern section title, Westmount qualified to meet the western section winner, Montreal West, in a home-and-home series for the league championship.

The local squad chalked up all its points in the first three quarters with a converted touch and a field goal in the first period, a touch and two rouses in the second, and another major in the third stanza.

It was Jim Peters who opened the scoring, booting a 25-yard field goal from placement, while Billy Nicholson scored a touchdown which Peters converted before the quarter ended. Nicholson was the scoring star, for aside from his opening major, he booted a pair of rouses and went 35 yards on an end run in the third heat for a touch. Westmount's other try was recorded by Keith Wake in the second period when he shook loose around right end for 45 yards.

Two teams: Montreal High—Flying wing, Patterson; halves, Gibbs, Allen, Merry; quarter, Turnbull; snap, Webb; insides, Lank, Henderson; middles, Agaytos, Nuttall; outsides, Elder, Oakes; subs, Barrett, Wilson, Graham, Robertson, Lira-gis.

Westmount—Flying wing, Clarkson; halves, Peters, Nicholson, Wake; quarter, Minty; snap, Murray; insides, Chisholm, Harrison; middles, Bardwell, Marks; outsides, Drennan, Girard; subs, Mitchell, Wallbank, Woods, Chatterton, Goode, Farquharson, Fraas, Tilden, Waterston, Applin, Levinson.

Frank Eddolls in Oshawa and he is doing fine... He still has his leg in a heavy bandage, a cue which he received when at the Maple Leafs' training camp in St. Catharines... A flash just came through that Keith Elison may not play in the finals as his shoulder is in bad condition and was advised not to play the final game.

A certain Westmount resident is thinking very seriously of trying to obtain the McGill franchise in the Junior loop and place a team composed of Westmount boys only in the same... Of course there would have to be a sound backer for the club who would like to see a team representing this city in this loop, and this gentleman has approached a few already... They seem to like the idea and are getting together on the matter shortly... there is no reason why this city should not have a representative as we think that a good team could be made from the local talent.

Glenn Brown, well known football player in this city for the past five seasons and one who really knows his football, stated that John O'Connell was one of the best all around football players he has seen around these parts for a long time... John is a triple threat man for the St. Leo high school team... His great passing, kicking and plunging caught the eye of everyone interested in football and his opponents had great respect for his marvellous display on the gridiron... Congratulations John... If the former Municipal Hockey League is thinking of turning over to the Q.A.H.A., then Bert Dalzell had better get a team of rookies this year... His last year's team's average was about 29... Incidentally Bert has taken brother Ossie's place as business manager of the Junior Canadians... By next year he should be able to take over the coaching duties of the club... Eric Fleet has taken over a regular defence post with Frank Carlin's Royals... He is playing very steady beside Bert Janke... Howie Hurlston is trying for a place on the Junior Concordias... If he isn't better than anything we saw out at the practice, well... But he is English so he won't be playing for Concordia this year... Alex Jamieson of the "Chop House" is an executive of one of the Junior teams this year... We do not seem to agree with the local papers concerning

ORGANIZATION MEETING HELD BY MUNICIPAL LOOP MONDAY; NINE SQUADS SEEK BERTHS

An organization meeting of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League was held in Victoria Hall on Monday evening. Nine teams were represented at the meeting, five seeking berths in the Juvenile section of the league, one in the Midget section and three in the Bantam section.

The teams voted in favor of the motion that the league affiliate with the Q.A.H.A. It is believed that this affiliation will be a decided boost for local hockeyists, not only due to the fact that the local champions will enter City and Provincial play-downs, but that it will also encourage the organization of teams with younger players, especially of the Bantam age.

Terms intending to enter in the Juvenile section of the league and represented at the meeting were: Red Wings, (Doug Alexander), Bulldogs, (John Harvie), Grads, (W. McCarthy); Argos, (Pierre Rodier); Comets, (Mr. Kitchen); The 'N'en Jacks, (Percy Turner) was the sole Midget entry. In the Bantam section there was the Aces (W. Chippendale); Royal Scots (H. Kert); Tigers (R. Burris).

The Pee Wee League which operates at Staynor Park rink was represented by Jack Featherstone, secretary of the loop. This popular league will be in full swing again this year and it is quite probable that the girls league that played at Staynor last year will again be organized.

The League this year will have a Referee's Board which will be affiliated with the Q.A.H.A., referees and any players or persons desiring to take up this sometimes hazardous occupation should attend the next hockey meeting in two weeks time.

It was announced that the next meeting of the league will be held on Monday evening, November 25 at Victoria Hall, when league fees will be taken, playing certificates given out and the definite allignment of the sections decided. The meeting was presided over by E. J. Anderson, superintendent of Parks and Playgrounds, assisted by Jimmie McCormick, recreation supervisor.

The all-star teams picked by one of the local writers... The writer in question must never have seen Westmount play or else he never could've missed Bob Lang at snap... Or Johnny Howard for Montreal High in the backfield... Cobourg Collegiate did not do so well this year in the Ontario School Football league as they only had enough players for one complete team and they had to use several Juniors... Doug Mac-player steadily all year and has become quite a placement kicker... One sailed over the uprights for forty five yards... This was during the dying minutes of the game and which eventually won the one and only game of the year... The girls up at play are pretty fair basketball players and we think that they could give any team down this way a sound trimming... Say, you look just like Margie... Doesn't she Doug?

Herb Priestman is still standing by the Toronto Argos for the Dominion Title... He states that it is too bad that "Blue Noses" do not participate in the play-downs or the championship would always be in the East... We wouldn't bet on that Mr. Priestman... We will admit, though, that they may be a heavy favorite for the Allan Cup this year as the teams in the East have lined up numerous star players... Getting back to this gentleman's idea of entering a team in the Junior league, we are sure that a squad could be picked that this city would very well be proud of.

There is still one Westmount team in the running for school football honors and that is the Westmount Intermediate's... On Wednesday last they won the first game of a two game total point series defeating Montreal West High 4-0... Jimmy Peters and Owen Clarkson gave the purple and white boys the necessary points to carry into the next tilt... Peters fell on a fumble which paved the way for his own three (Continued on Page 10) the beautiful church built as a result of an idea he conceived while serving Overseas in the Great War.

This service is being held as part of the week of commemoration of the Centenary of Trinity Parish and Brig.-Gen. E. de B. Panet, C.M.G., D.S.O., has expressed his intention of being present. While a Memorial Service will be held on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock for the members of the Trinity Parish of which the late Archdeacon was rector for 35 years the afternoon service is intended to provide an opportunity for the members of those organizations outside his own church with which he was connected, to honour his memory.

With Military

Trinity Memorial Church dedicated on May 26, 1926, to "The Glory of God and in Memory of Those who served 1914-1918", represents 190 years of the closest association of Trinity Parish with Military affairs in Montreal. At the beginning of those hundred years namely in 1830 the parish owed its foundation to a major William Pienderiean Christie, a son of General Christie of the "Royal Americans", subsequently designated the 6th King's, who combined Christian philanthropy with his military profession.

From the time that the first Trinity Church was built it was known as the Military Church of Montreal and the Regular Forces used to attend service there. The first Military registration recorded there was the baptism of Charles William, son of Gunner James Tidcombe of the Royal Regiment of Artillery on June 29, 1940.

Back in the days when the Imperial Army was stationed in Montreal the original Trinity Church was within a "stones throw" of the Military Barracks and was the regular place of worship for those officers and men who were members of the Church of England, frequently presenting imposing sights as they marched to Church in their various uniforms led by the bands of well known British regiments.

It would appear that the Governor-Generals of that day attended Divine Service at Trinity as it is recorded that Earl Cathcart, Lord Sydenham and Sir Charles Metcalfe were attendants and there is a resolution in the minutes of a vestry meeting held on April 19, 1849, which reads as follows: "That the pew originally fitted up and appropriated for the use of the Governor-General shall be again offered for the same purpose to His Excellency the Earl of Elgin and his Staff."

All during the time the congregation worshipped on St. Denis Street the close association with Military organizations was kept up and a further tribute to the military character of Trinity Church as its very close connection with the "Last Post" Fund.

It was in Trinity vestry that this organization was formed under the supervision by express wish of His Excellency, Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, of Brigadier General Lawrence Buchan, C.V.O., C.M.G., A.D.C. The first president was the Rev. John M. Almond rector of Trinity Church, which office he still held at the time of his death in 1939. The organization grew in its work and scope largely due to his untiring efforts on its behalf.

While the late Archdeacon Almond was serving as Director of Canadian Chaplain Services in the Great War in France he conceived the idea of building a great monument in Canada to those who lost their lives serving their Country. On his return from the War he set about this task and the result of his effort is the present beautiful Trinity Memorial Church, on Sherbrooke St. and Marlowe avenue, dedicated to "The Glory of God and in Memory of Those who served 1914-1918."
