

no 17 111

Meet Me
IN THE WILLOW GLEN.
A Favorite Song

BY M^{RS} CORNWALL B. WILSON.

PRICE 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ CENTS.

E. FERRETT & CO.
212 CHESTNUT STREET, (ABOVE EIGHTH,) PHILADELPHIA.
237 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
WESTERN DEPOT: CINCINNATI, 42 WEST FOURTH STREET.
S. COLMAN, 30 CORNHILL, BOSTON.
1846.

MEET ME IN THE WILLOW GLEN.

AS SUNG BY

MISS SHIRRETT.

WRITTEN BY MRS. CORNWALL B. WILSON.

COMPOSED BY A. LEE.

E. Ferrett & Co. 212 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.—237 Broadway, New York.

Andante quasi Allegretto.

piano. PP

cres.

f

Meet me in the willow glen, When the sil-ver moon is beaming; Songs of love I'll sing thee then, When all the world is dream - ing. Meet me in the willow glen, When the sil - ver moon is beaming; dim.

Songs of love I'll sing thee then, If you'll meet me in the willow glen.

No pry - ing eye shall come, No stranger foot be seen; And the dis - tant vil - lage hum, love, Shall e - cho through the glen, The bu - sy vil - lage hum, love, shall e - cho, f Shall e - cho through the glen. Meet me in the wil - low glen, When the sil - ver moon is beaming; Songs of love I'll sing thee then, If you'll meet me in the wil - low glen.