World News In Brief

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(CP)—Two members of the Czechoslovakian legation in Ottawa have been ordered to leave Canada within seven days.

The department of external affairs said in a statement today that a note had been delivered to the Czechoslovakian charge d'affaires in Ottawa ordering Hugo Bohounek, clerk of the commercial attache, and Richard Bergmann, book-keeper, to leave the country "within seven days of the delivery of the note."

The government approved immediate dispatch of the note yesterday, shortly after the return to this country of two members from the Canadian legation in Prague.

Whitehorse, Y.T., Feb. 2. (CP)—The first four convoys of Canadian army vehicles for exercise Sweetbriar, the joint Canadian-American military exercise on the Alaska Highway, arrived here yesterday.

The 87 vehicles, commanded by Capt. L. A. Bissonette, made the 1,700-mile trip from Wainwright Military Camp, Alta., in nine days.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 2.—Massachusetts Institute of Technology yesterday acquired the dictating machine which Winston Churchill used to record his memoirs.

The machine was presented to Dr. Vernon D. Tate, M.I.T.'s director of libraries, by Herbert Groener, chairman of the Sound-Recorder Corporation.

Paris, Feb. 2.—(Reuters)—France will pay the costs of a new Canadian embassy here under an interim settlement of a $13,500,000 debt for post-war relief owed to Canada.

Under the agreement France will meet Canadian expenses in this country for the next two years and provide an embassy for the staff of 83, at present occupying three separate rented offices.

Rome, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi's new government today won its first test in Parliament. The chamber of deputies voted 259 to 178 to consider legislation approving Italy's United Nations mandate over Somaliland.

Communists and pro-communist led the opposition. The government wants immediate Parliamentary action so that Italian administrative and military forces can arrive at the African colony before monsoon weather strikes.

London, Feb. 2.—(Reuters)—North Korea has recognized Ho Chi Minh's republic of Viet Nam, according to a mass official Soviet news agency report from Peking-Yang, North Korean capital, received in London.

Iaiping, Formosa, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Chinese nationalists planes yesterday bombed the "invasion coast" off Hainan island with increasing fury. The targets were communist troops concentrations on Luichow peninsula, whose tip extends to within 10 miles of that big south China island.

U.S. To Spurn Red Demand That Hirohito Face Trial

Washington, Feb. 2.—(AP)—A surprise Soviet proposal to try the Japanese emperor on criminal charges involving the use of germ warfare will be rejected by the United States, officials said today.

The exact response has to be worked out by the state department after study of the charges filed late yesterday against Hirohito and four other Japanese. Presumably the other wartime Pacific allies will be consulted.

But diplomatic authorities said there is little doubt that the U.S. answer will be an emphatic "no." They look for most of the other former wartime enemies of Japan to follow suit.

To accept the Russian proposal would mean (1) reversing a 1949 decision by the 13-country far eastern commission to wind up all the war crimes trials and (2) upsetting the American policy of controlling Japan during the occupation through the emperor.

Responsible officials made plain they suspect a Moscow propaganda manoeuvre. The U.S. has been pressing Russia to return 376,000 war prisoners the Japanese contend are still being held by the Soviets.

The reaction in Tokyo was much the same. Alva C. Carpenter, head of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's legal section, said the Russian de-

Reception Of More Signals Gives Rise To Hope That Lost Plane May Be Found

C.F.A. Seeks Protection For Prices

Niagara Falls, Ont., Feb. 2.—(P)—Directors of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture in closed sessions today reviewed 30 resolutions adopted at the annual convention yesterday, practically all seeking protection against slumping prices for farm products.

Of resolutions passed by the convention only one met opposition, and that was the resolution reaffirming the C.F.A.'s support of public control of radio under the CBC. A substitute motion by Howard A. Prentice of St. Catharines, objecting to continued public control, was defeated.

Chief among the resolutions passed was one urging establishment of national and provincial marketing boards to work in conjunction with the federal prices support act. Delegates asked that Agriculture Minister Gardiner call a meeting of Dominion and Provincial government agricultural officers with representatives of producer organizations to work out the plan.

The marketing boards plan was seen as the federation's answer to Mr. Gardiner's speech Tuesday, when he said that provincial rights were a factor in the complicated picture of price supports.

Dr. E. C. Hope of Ottawa, C.F.A. economist, told the convention that agriculture is at an unfair disadvantage compared to other industries and labor as a whole. He said that in drafting new price support legislation the government should consider a formula setting the range at which prices may be fixed should announce floor prices before crop production is started; should include a plan for disposal of surpluses and that farmers should be assisted by direct payments on the basis of volume of products.

Dr. Hope said that price support plans should result from consultation between the governments and organized farmers. The government's attitude appeared to be not to provide price supports until the farmers were desperate.

A surprise was the rejection of a resolution asking a four-cent increase in the recently announced floor price for eggs. H. H. Hannam of Ottawa, association president, objected to wording of the resolution which indicated it had come from the previous meeting, and the resolution was left over for the directors along with one asking for restoration of the 36-cent minimum for wildling sides.

Western wheat producers asked extension of the powers vested in the Canadian wheat board as sole agency for marketing wheat, also extension of its powers to include coarse grains.

On butter and cheese, resolutions from Gilbert MacMillan of Huntington, Que., asked that the floor price for butter be maintained at 58 cents, and that the floor price for cheese be raised from 27 to 30 cents a pound.

Two Radio Signals, One a Voice Transmission, Reported Heard in Smith River District of Yukon.

Whitehorse, Y.T., Feb. 2.—Two more radio signals, one of them a reported voice transmission, were picked up last night in the Smith river area where searchers yesterday concentrated efforts in the week-long hunt for a missing C-54 transport plane and its 44 occupants.

Air Commodore Martin Costello of Winnipeg, co-ordinator of the joint U.S.-Canada search, said the second signal was picked up by a C-54.

"Two planes from Fort Nelson (B.C.) have been sent to investigate," he said.

Costello said the second signal was heard about 7:30 p.m. Yukon time. It consisted of a series of VVV's and was picked upon the 500-kilocycle international distress frequency.

A similar signal reported Tuesday night resulted in a concentration of planes in the Smith river area, about 300 miles southeast of Whitehorse. Returning pilots reported no success.

The third radio signal was reported picked up south of Aishihik, about 165 miles northeast of Whitehorse along the route the missing plane would have taken. It was reported to be a voice transmission and to have given figures of longitude.

Pilots checking another report, that of smoke clouds in the vicinity of Teslin, 80 miles southeast of Whitehorse, also came back empty-handed. They reported seeing only vapor clouds rising from an ice fault in the vicinity.

Costello ordered a 24-hour check of the 500-kilocycle band in hopes that additional signals would be heard and that a position "fix" could be obtained on the point of origin.

In referring to the second signal—the series of VVV's—Costello said there is no reason to believe the series of the letter V were transmitted by a "Gibson girl," an emergency radio transmitter carried by army planes.

The latest report was received here as snow fell for the first time in several days. Weather forecasters said the next few days would be cloudy and snowy with the storm intensity ranging from "moderate to severe."

More than two score planes participated in the search yesterday, completing what Costello described as the "preliminary all-out effort." From now on the search will be renewed over areas covered only once or twice before.

The missing C-54 disappeared last Thursday while en route on a non-stop hop from Anchorage, Alaska, to Great Falls, Mont. Aboard were 34 servicemen returning to the States for discharge or reassignment, an expectant mother and her young son, and the eight crew members.

Air Commodore Costello said the Smith river signals warranted additional concentration of search planes in the area. The signal last night was a series of letters which the air commodore said there was no reason for a man in distress to send.

The voice transmission also was heard on the distress frequency 500 kilocycles, at a period allotted only for signals of distress. But Air Commodore Costello said that someone in the area already has used this frequency to send a personal message while the search was going on.

This was an illegal practice because the band and allotted times are meant only to send S.O.S., the Air Commodore said.

Two other clues, which search planes will investigate today are a peculiar snowslide in the Carcross area, 46 miles south of here, and a report from the Teslin, Y.T., radio range station of a large cloud of black smoke.

Planes will try for a closer look today at the snowslide which was discovered yesterday while reports of an explosion in the area last Thursday were being checked. A United States air force Dakota crashed Monday near Carcross while investigating the explosion report. Four crew members were injured.

When planes noticed the peculiar snowslide in the heavily-timbered mountains yesterday, they were unable to get a close look at it because of poor flying weather. They will make a further investigation today if visibility is good.

One plane also got a quick look at the cloud of smoke reported by Teslin radio range station, halfway between here and Snag, Y.T. But darkness settled in before the plane, a B17, could get a good view from low level. This area has been searched three times since the transport disappeared.

Thirty-four planes took off from here yesterday and covered 34,200 square miles of mountain country without success. Eight planes were in the search area from Fort Nelson, B.C., covering 12,150 square miles.

The favorable weather which has made it possible for large numbers of aircraft to search appeared to have ended today.

Food Frauds Said To Be On Increase

Washington, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The United States food and drug administration expressed alarm today over an increase in the number of dangerous drugs it has found on the market.

It also noted a rise in the careless use of the deadly rat poison 1080.

In his annual report, commissioner Paul B. Dunbar listed these as some of the difficulties he has run into in the last fiscal year:

1. The increase in coffee prices led to attempts to salvage coffee "to the last bean." The administration seized five large lots of sweepings—beans spilled from broken bags in ship holds and on docks—some of them containing "half their weight in unspeakable filth."

2. DDT still is found in dairy farms. The agency reaffirmed its position of last fall that there will be "no tolerance for DDT in milk, because it is a poison that is not required in good dairy farm practice."

3. Shipment of short-weight products such as gift packages little more than half full, and honey-rum-brandy casks with little honey and no rum and brandy. (But the agency reported that although 14 shipments of candy were seized as short weight, "in general the proportion of the candy to the package is improving.")

4. The use of "nauseated" raspberry seeds in pie filling to give the false impression that it contained raspberries—a fraud, the agency said, which recalled practices before the passage of the food and drug act in 1906.

5. Deodorants that proved irritating to laboratory animals (70,000 such jars later were mixed with cement to form part of an excavation fill), egg shampoos short on eggs, olive oil hair dressings consisting chiefly of mineral oil, and an explosion—while the shipment was being seized—of quart jar samples of a "no boat" mixture for cattle and sheep.

6. Various phony medical devices were found on sale—including such items as coppe and zinc shoo plates to help walking and "carry off static deposit; that cause pain due to rheumatism, arthritis and backache."

7. Polluted baby foods. The agency seized more than $100,000 worth of a mixture of pureed apricots and insect-infested farina, and removed from the market 45,000 cases of an under-processed infant food which caused gastric disturbances.

Heavy Nationalist Losses Reported

Bangkok, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The Viet Nam news service said today troops of rebel leader Ho Chi Minh had killed and wounded 4,000 to 20,000 Chinese nationalist soldiers attempting to cross the French Indo-China border.

The Chinese were moving under French fighter plane cover during the last two weeks, the news service said. Ho is anti-French and has been recognized by Russia and the communist China regime.

The nationalists, the news service, were encircled at Nagiao in the Chinese border and Cao Bang Jan. 14th.

Ho's office here, in confirming the battle, said Chinese nationalist counter-attacks were driven off. The officer added French army units attempted to reinforce the Chinese but were unsuccessful.

Ray Of Hope In Coal Strike As Contract Talks Continue

Washington, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Operators watching for a break in the long United States coal dispute took hope today as contract talks between John L. Lewis and soft coal operators went into a second session.

Many industry representatives had privately predicted a short life for the negotiations, which were resumed yesterday after a three-month layoff.

Whether enough progress was made at the opening talks to warrant back-to-work order from Lewis to the 100,000 striking miners remained to be seen.

If he sent such word to his union leaders last week, it was not apparent. The number of strikers swelled Monday to more than a quarter of the total soft-coal miners in his United States Workers Union. The rest were on a three-day week.

The U. M. W. leader told newspaper men he would not have time to call in his 200-man policy committee before replying to President Truman's peace plan by the Saturday noon deadline. But he said he would have an answer.

Truman asked Lewis and the operators Tuesday to restore "normal production" for 70 days. He offered, with their approval, to assign a fact-finding board to recommend a solution to the contract dispute in the coal industry.

Neither Lewis nor the soft coal

Water Strike

To water-short New Yorkers the finding of a new water supply is cause for rejoicing. Here, officials of the Ambassador Hotel are all smiles as they watch workers tap an old, unused well in the hotel's basement. The spring was used by a brewery once located on the site.

Rental Control Orders Are Illegal, Counsel Contends

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Final argument on the validity of federal rent controls likely will be made today before the Supreme Court of Canada. The hearing began Monday.

Counsel for Canadian landlords, R. M. W. Chitty of Toronto, will resume argument, developing his theme that orders-in-council covering continuation of rent controls are illegal and that the federal government is encroaching on powers which rightfully belong to the provinces.

He said he did not argue against the validity of the war measures act under which the controls were instituted in 1941 or that the federal government had usurped powers under that act which might not have belonged to it.

All he was concerned with was that the government had passed the order under the wartime Emergency Powers Act, which was an "emergency" in Canada.

Mr. Chitty followed L. Emery Beaulieu, counsel for the Quebec government, in giving argument before the court.

Mr. Beaulieu contended that parliament had usurped powers which rightfully belonged to the provinces. It had based its right to these powers on the questionable statement that there was an "emergency" in Canada.

If there had been an "emergency" during the second world war, this emergency now had passed.

Chief Justice Thibault suggested to him that the only way rent controls could do in the civil action in the courts.

All the court was going to do in the present reference was to give an "opinion," and nothing more, the federal government, which had asked for that opinion, could accept it or not. It was binding on no one.

Mr. Chitty, counsel for the Canadian property owners association, told the court that an action against the controls had been started in the Supreme Court of Ontario. The court had decided to suspend hearing of the case last November, when the federal government announced its intention of seeking an opinion from the Supreme Court of Canada on the validity of its controls.

If the Supreme Court rules that the controls are valid, then the federal government will extend them beyond March 31, the expiry date. If the court rules otherwise, then the controls will lapse and it will be up to the provinces to step into the field if they want the controls continued.

However, since the Supreme Court opinion will not be binding, there will be nothing to prevent the property owners from continuing the action in the Ontario court.

Yesterday's court session saw a difference of opinion between court justices grow into a legal tangle.

The difference grew out of an application by the federal government to file evidence reviewing the economic factors linked with the rent controls.

Both counsel for the Quebec government and landlords challenged this application. Mr. Justice R. L. Kellock and Mr. Justice L. C. Rand differed with the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Patrick Kerwin in dismissing the federal request.

In the morning session, when Mr. Justice Kellock said he had not been consulted on the decision announced by the chief justice that the application had been dismissed, the Chief Justice suggested an adjournment to hold a private conference.

The conference was held just before the afternoon session and the

Seven Missing In Plane Crash

The Hague, Feb. 2.—(Reuters)—The wreckage of a Royal Dutch Airlines DC-3 missing on a flight from Schiphol airbase, Amsterdam, to London with freight and mail, was found in the sea early today about 50 miles west of The Hague, according to the Dutch navy rescue service.

The 1,570-ton Danish steamer Rignor was stated to be standing by the wreck.

Five British aircraft took off from England to help in the search.

The plane with a crew of seven, including six trainees, left Schiphol airfield at 3 a.m.

Forty minutes later, as the plane was crossing a Dutch coast, it reported back to control at Schiphol. Then there was silence.

A Dutch navy air service Mitchell was circling over the wreck of the plane.

The scene of the crash was just outside the shipping lanes off the Hook of Holland.

No survivors have been sighted.

India-Pakistan Dispute Is To Be Aired Again At U.N.

By NORMAN ALSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Lake Success, N.Y., Feb. 2.—(AP)—The India-Pakistan dispute over possession of Kashmir which aggravated a troubled Asia is long overdue for a showdown.

A ceasefire Jan. 1, 1949, formally ended some 13 months of fighting in the rich Himalayan area. No truce has been signed in the meantime and relations between the two Commonwealth countries have worsened.

The case first came before the United Nations Jan. 1, 1948, when there was fear the conflict might spill over into a major war involving millions on the sub-continent. That concern has not vanished with the deadlock continuing.

General A. G. L. McNaughton of Canada is expected to report next week on the latest of U.N. attempts to mediate the dispute. The Canadian's efforts were made while he was president of the Security Council during December.

So far all reports indicate McNaughton's proposals for demilitarization of Kashmir to smooth the way for a plebiscite, will not be accepted by India. The Indians argue that their forces were called in to Kashmir by the legal government of the state and Pakistan forces should therefore withdraw before Indian armies are reduced.

Pakistan is understood to be favorable towards McNaughton's

Living Costs Index Is Awaited

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(AP)—By the time they finished their Christmas shopping, most Canadians probably thought the cost-of-living had reached an all-time high in December.

In a few days, when the bureau of statistics issues its monthly report on living costs, they'll know just how high it actually was.

The bureau's cost-of-living index stood at 161.5 in November, the fourth consecutive month in which slight declines were recorded.

The index is calculated on the basis that 1935-39 average living costs equal 100.

The index reached its all time high—162.8—last July. In November it still was 60.2 per cent higher than in August, 1939.

The drop in November was one-fifth of a point and was attributed mostly to lower food prices which make up nearly a third of the index. Eggs and meats led the decline in food costs. The food sub-index fell 1.4 points to 201.9, the fourth consecutive monthly decline.

But rents, fuel and miscellaneous items, making up 48 per cent of the items compiled in the index, all edged up slightly.

The rent index was 125, an increase of 1.1 points. Although increases in ceiling rents were permitted in December, they are not expected to be reflected in the December index.

The fuel index increased one-tenth of a point, mainly because of higher costs of United States coal, to 135.2.

The drop in November was one-fifth of a point and was mainly the result in lower food—especially eggs and meat—costs. The food sub-index fell 1.4 points to 201.9, the fourth consecutive decline.

IN HOLLYWOOD by Erskine Johnson

Hollywood - Clara Bow, the screen's "It Girl" of the flapper era, is considering two movie offers and a New York TV bid. She's anxious to make some kind of a comeback and has made several trips from her Nevada ranch to confer with Hollywood agents.

Clara and her husband, ex-cowboy star Rex Bell, retired to the ranch several years ago. There was talk of Clara doing "Personal Appearance" at a little theater in New Mexico last summer, but the deal fell through.

Money-conscious Paulette Goddard's quote: "All my money is tied up in cash."
The screen credits on "Fallen Idol" list hairstylists by "J. Shear." Gag or man?
It's still Kirk Douglas and Evelyn Keyes at tables for two. Evelyn will file suit for divorce against John Huston in California.

Clustering switch for Lon McCallister, who has always played the young hero. He'll star this year in "The Hoodlum," the story of a kid who murdered his father.
Races With Gable
James Whitmore gets the role of Clark Gable's auto racing pal in "To Please a Lady."

Someone asked Jack Paar what made his small British car run gasoline or shaving lotion? Replied Jack: "There isn't any motor. Alan Mowbray is under the hood pushing."
Lilli Palmer and Rex Harrison are straining at the leash. The marriage has been on thin ice ever since those west coast headlines.
New Face
The Shirley Temple starrer, "A Kiss for Corliss," is slated for a new title. Good movie but box-office receipts are disappointing.

From Variety: "Ole Olsen picked up a complete file of Variety from 1905 on. One of the first reviews Ole's eye lit on was about Will Rogers. It read: "Should twirl more rope and tell less jokes."
Fannania:
Howard Duff loses away a cigar band in front of the Brown Derby. Three teen-age girls pounce on it with screams of "It's mine." "He threw it my way."
Sight:
Irene Dunne accompanying herself on a guitar for a cowboy song in "Come Share My Love."
They're making bets at U.I. on which female player will inherit Deanna Durbin's luxurious dressing-room bungalow. Shelley Winters, Ann Blyth, Marta Toren and Yvonne DeCarle are dreaming. Joyce Bryant's recording of "Drunk With Love" has been banned on the radio. But one L.A. station has banned it only during the day. It's okay for the night audience. Hm-mm!

St. George's Held Annual Meeting

The 67th annual meeting of St. George's Guild was held Wednesday, January 26, in the Parish Hall. The Ven. Archdeacon Jones presided and opened the meeting with prayer.
The treasurer, Mrs. G. Noonan, gave the financial report for the year. The gross proceeds amounted to $1,248.11, with a balance of $103.23 to be carried forward. $400 had been given the wardens towards the church renovation fund and $400 towards the curfew fund expenses of the church. This report was considered very gratifying.

The report of a busy and very satisfactory year's work was read by the secretary.
The following slate of officers was presented and were elected: Mrs. A. Jones, honorary president; Mrs. W. A. Bown and Mrs. W. H. Fisher, honorary vice-presidents; Mrs. J. Morrison, president; Mrs. H. O. Burt, first vice-president; Mrs. O. A. Baker, secretary; Mrs. E. L. Atto, treasurer; Mrs. G. Noonan, conveners; Mrs. A. Jones of apron table; Miss L. Molloy, fancy work; Mrs. Burbridge, food table.

Archdeacon Jones in a short address congratulated the members on a successful year's work, also the treasurer and secretary on their good reports.
He extended a welcome to the new officers and to four new members who were joining the Guild. He paid a splendid tribute to Mrs. W. H. Fisher, the retiring president, who had been president for the past ten years, stating that her devotion to the Guild work and its success was a life-long life, and he expressed the wish that she might soon be restored to health. Mrs. Morrison thanked the members for electing her and welcomed the new members.

Several letters of thanks for gifts and cards sent at Christmas were read. New business plans were made for a bridge to be played in the hall Friday evening, February 3. Mrs. H. O. Burt and Mrs. G. Noonan were appointed conveners. All members are to get up tables. May 13 was set for a rummage sale. Money was voted to the conveners to buy materials for their work.
The prizes for last year's marathon bridge were donated by Mrs. E. Deacon and were presented to the winners, Mrs. J. Morrison, first; Mrs. R. McEadden, second; and Mrs. F. C. Burt consolation. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. A. Bown and Mrs. E. Burbridge, who were hostesses for the day.

Defence Witnesses Continue Testimony At Conspiracy Trial Of Rene Rocque

Defence witness Onesime Lemay, of Asbestos, testified today at the conspiracy trial of Rene Rocque, labor organizer, that two Canadian Johns-Manville foremen, Gerald Smith and George Morel, were preparing sticks with straps on them for "scabs" to use during strike violence at Asbestos last May.
One witness had said previously that he mistook Chartrand for Rocque. Both men wear glasses and have moustaches.
Chartrand also said he was in Asbestos on May 5 and that he went to the barricade on the Danville road.
He returned to the church hall during the day and saw four men he did not know sitting on the stage. He asked for their identification and found out they were detectives Legault, Favreau, Quevillon and Therrien.
Father Camirand was there, the witness said, and Rocque was there also, for a while.
He denied seeing anyone strike the officers in the church hall.
Crown prosecutor Noel Dorion, K.C., asked the witness if he had attended the preliminary hearing in the present case. The answer was yes.
"Did you not tell the court that you were attending this hearing as a reporter?"
"Never."
"Were you not sent to prison for contempt of court during this hearing by Judge Lagardie after declaring during testimony of a witness, 'that's false'?"

Local Y's Men Hear Boys' Work Secretary

The principle of modern boys' work is to allow boys to organize themselves and run their own groups with a minimum of advice from their elders, Les Vipond, national boys' work secretary of the Y.M.C.A.'s of Canada, told the Sherbrooke Y's Men's Club last night.
This system, Mr. Vipond pointed out, lets the boys stand on their own feet from the beginning, preparing them for later life.
The boys' work secretary is in this district organizing a Hi-Y conference between Quebec and Eastern Ontario.
He congratulated Y's Men Charles Roy, mentor of the Sherbrooke Hi-Y, for his active participation in local boys' work, Sherbrooke Y groups are doing a "fine" job, he said.
Mr. Vipond was introduced by J. Edward Shortt, general secretary of the Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A., and thanked by Y's Men Chick Whatley.
Scene of the address was the regular weekly meeting of the club in the Chateau Frontenac Hotel here.

Whither The Weather

That's the question Mr. Groundhog is peeping out of a hollow log to try to answer. He tries it every February 2, one of few people to do anything about the weather. The tradition is that if there is sunshine, there will be a lot more winter; if there is no sun spring can't be far away. In keeping with the wacky doings of the weatherman in these parts this winter, the groundhog must have had to scratch his furry head this morning. There was sunshine briefly, then overcast. So really it depends upon the hour at which the groundhog emerged from his log. That's his secret. We won't even venture a guess as to whether the winter still lies ahead or whether spring is on the way. And for the benefit of younger readers, winter is one of those "half century highlights" you have been reading about in the Record recently.

Guy Blanchette Addresses Local Kiwanis Club

"The Kiwanis Club is a society and an institution which embraces the highest of principles," declared Guy Blanchette, local lawyer and guest speaker at a regular Kiwanis Club dinner last night. "It promotes the spirit of competition which makes healthy citizens."
Speaking on the thirty-fifth anniversary of Kiwanis International, Mr. Blanchette, a club member, briefly outlined the aims and objects of the Kiwanis Club.
"Primarily," he said, "the work of Kiwanians has been centered around the home. Kiwanians have tried to bring happiness into homes and communities, whether financial or otherwise. We are concerned mostly with the home, the church and the schools."
"Kiwanians," he continued, "believe that the church is the best safeguard against evil doctrines. The enemies of freedom are communists and their first attack against us has been against the church."
On the subject of younger citizens Mr. Blanchette said: "We are necessarily concerned with the schools because our school children of today are our leaders of tomorrow. It is our duty to try to support the schools as well as the church."
In conclusion he said: "We should all be proud to be Kiwanians." The speaker was introduced by President Len Keeler and thanked by Herbile Plow.
At the head table besides the President and his wife were: Rick Allan, Al Compton, Eric Sutherland, Herb Plow, Ronnie Jobel, Les Lemay, Rev. John Comfort and Jack Dunfield.

Ernest Simard Elected Magog Mayor; Alden Rousseau Back At East Angus

Magog, Feb. 2.—Magog has a new town council, headed by mayor-elect Ernest Simard.
Some 70 per cent of Magog's 3,025 eligible voters turned out yesterday to vote in a new seven-man slate.
Most of the interest centred in the mayoralty race, in which Mr. Simard won out over three opponents, including Maurice Theroux, mayor for the past two years.
Mr. Simard made his successful entry into civic politics on the strength of 662 votes cast in his favor, a majority of 90 over ex-mayor Theroux. The two other contestants—Colin C. MacPherson and Edgar Bournival—received 516 and 115 votes, respectively.
New faces joining Mr. Simard on the 1950-51 council will be councillors Gilbert Pelletier, Antonio Robert, Albert Boisvert, E. Begin, Ernest Lacasse and Leo Ledoux. Voting was split up as follows in the six wards:
No. 1: Pelletier, elected by acclamation. No. 2: Robert, 231; Charles Bergeron, 101. No. 3: Boisvert, 312; A. Godbout, 188. No. 4: Begin, 94; E. Provencal, 77. No. 5: Lacasse, 178; E. Poulin, 95. No. 6: Gouette, 64. No. 6: Ledoux, 225; W. Poulin, 153.
Seats Nos. 3, 4, 5 and 6 were formerly occupied by the defeated candidates in the election, while seats Nos. 1 and 2 had been left vacant through the resignation of former councillors.
The new mayor will serve for a two-year term, while councillors elected to seats Nos. 2, 4 and 6 will serve for a one-year period.
Town secretary-treasurer Alphonse Girard, who acted as returning officer, said following the election that the "fine turn-out was an indication that Magog citizens are civic-conscious."
East Angus, Feb. 2.—A. R. Rousseau, mayor of this Eastern Townships community since 1946, was re-elected for a third successive two-year term at municipal elections held yesterday.
Mayor Rousseau polled 490 votes, defeating his only opponent, Lucien Blodreau, by 120 votes. The latter, who had served as councillor for the past three years, received the support of 370 ratepayers.
On the nomination meeting held a week ago, two councillors—Dave Ferguson and Philippe Bedard—had been re-elected by acclamation to seats Nos. 2 and 5, respectively. Councillors serving on seats Nos. 1, 3, 4 and 6 have not ended their full three-year terms yet.
Notary Anselme Tourigny acted as returning officer.

Fire Prevention And Protection Are Discussed

An interesting and instructive talk was given by J. N. Pryce of the Fire Underwriters' Association to a meeting of the Lennoxville and Ascot Community Association on Tuesday evening, the subject being "Fire Prevention and Protection in a Small Community."
Means of prevention listed were education in approved methods by means of lectures, literature (obtainable from his association on request) and moving pictures which are especially valuable in making children as well as adults conscious of the need for care; good municipal ordinances governing buildings, insulation and storage regulations, coupled with regular and careful examination of premises, business or private, by a trained inspector.
In the event of an outbreak of fire, time was an essential factor. For this reason, equipment should be kept in perfect condition and accessible with the utmost speed; warning signals should be provided, and a sufficient water supply be available at all times. While no small community, Mr. Pryce admitted, could afford a full-time staff of firemen, the minimum requirements for a town of 2,000 inhabitants had been set at two fully trained men, one of whom must be the fire chief, assisted by 18 volunteers.
The fire chief should be thoroughly instructed in all matters pertaining to proper use of equipment and methods of fire-fighting. Literature giving this information to be studied by fire chiefs and others was available on request from the Fire Underwriters' Association. An absolute necessity was sufficient hose to provide two lines of water at any fire, as well as adequate hydrants and, where natural pressure was insufficient, a mobile pump to boost the pressure. Mr. Pryce discussed various useful items of equipment and stressed the need of a suitable building for their storage and care.
In closing, he stated that the Underwriters are glad to make a survey of any town from a fire viewpoint, and that they should be notified of improvements in services and standards, for the very good reason that fire insurance rates in a community are set in accordance with the standard of prevention and protection provided by the municipality.
Robert Blake, chairman of the L.A.C.A., called upon D. S. Snow to thank the speaker, also expressing his own appreciation for the valuable information so kindly offered.
A question period followed, during which Mr. Pryce mentioned that the principal cause of fire was undoubtedly carelessness, cigarettes and matches being the most common hazards.
Mr. Blake then invited Howard Nichol, chairman of the municipal

Groundhog Is King For A Day At Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania

Punxsutawney, Pa., Feb. 2.—(AP) — On snow-covered Gobbler's Knob the hydrogen bomb and the cold war were overshadowed for a brief moment today by a little animal with a reputation as a weather prophet.
For the band of men gathered around the groundhog's hole the world's biggest crisis—will the woodchuck see its shadow?
Tradition has it that if the groundhog spots his shadow, the country is in for six more weeks of winter. If, on the other hand, there is no shadow, spring is on the way.
An ordinarily reliable source said indications pointed to no shadow this year—the first time in the 50-year history of the Punxsutawney groundhog club.
Across the state at Quarryville a rival groundhog was under observation.

Annual Business Meeting Held By Baptist Church

Reports from the chairman of the various committees highlighted the annual business meeting of the Sherbrooke Baptist Church held recently.
The meeting opened with the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the clerk, H. Leach, and his report showed a membership of ninety-four.
The financial report and reports from the various societies were distributed and explained by Gordon Leech, church treasurer.
Mrs. E. Wheeler presented the Ladies' Aid and Senior Mission Circle reports while Mrs. F. Bampton gave a report on the Crusade Young Women's Mission Circle.
The Board of Trustees report, which was presented by J. W. Blake reviewed the activities of this group for the year.
The Board of Finance report was presented by the chairman, C. G. Blake, who outlined the financial highlights of the Church for the past year.
A letter from E. W. Sanders asking that he be relieved of all his offices was read. The request was accepted with regret. C. G. Blake, on behalf of the church, presented Mr. Sanders with a gift in recognition of over 50 years of faithful service in the local church. Mr. Sanders was appointed an honorary deacon.
The Budget for the year 1950 was presented by Gordon Leech, who pointed out that although commitments were higher it was felt the church could meet the greater obligations.
A discussion took place concerning the installation of equipment in order that Sunday morning services might be broadcast over the local radio station at various times during the year. It was stated that Mrs. A. J. Hurd had graciously offered to pay for the installation of the necessary equipment. J. W. Blake was appointed chairman of a committee to raise the funds required to meet the cost of the broadcasts.
Rev. Davidson and C. G. Blake spoke briefly on the coming campaign of the Convention of Baptist Churches to raise needed funds for expansion of work in Canada, Bolivia and India, and urged the church to give as much as possible to this worthy cause.
Rev. Mr. Davidson then presented his report which outlined the activities of the pastor and church for the year 1949, concluding his report, Rev. Mr. Davidson stated: "I would like to make mention of the splendid co-operation of all groups in the church. We have enjoyed a happy year together. If a

THE DANGER OF IDEALISTS

That Alger Hiss evidently was dazzled by the fraudulent dreams of communism is not the riddle it might appear at first glance. Communism, like socialism, always has exerted a powerful appeal upon intellectuals, especially the younger ones. And the Hiss of the 1930's certainly would fit that mold.

This appeal comes largely from the fact that communism—in theory—offers clear, simple, orderly solutions to the great problems perplexing a chaotic world. And it promises them now—in this generation. Of course, whether these solutions would really work is another question.

The magnetism of such a system to an idealistic youth should be obvious. Provoked by the dilemmas and inequities of the capitalist society, he burns with a steady desire to wipe them out and create a new structure free of these weaknesses. A young intellectual is impatient of the slow, plodding gains that actually have marked the course of most real social progress. He wants the millennium in his time and often he concludes that communism will bring it more quickly than any other system.

Communists know the advantage they enjoy with intellectuals. They use it shrewdly, diabolically, drawing many into their net. While feeding them the slick, pat ideology that sustains them, the party leaders warp the energies of their recruits to serve a single master—Soviet Russia.

In the 1930's this must have seemed reasonable to deluded intellectuals. For Russia then was the Great Fatherland, the one place on earth where communism was not just theory but fact. Pro-Communist idealists of that time told themselves that whatever served Russia supported the Noble Experiment and thus was good.

Their delusion is puzzling only if we assume that an intellectual is wholly rational. Unfortunately he is not. He too frequently yields, like anyone else, to emotional thinking and the process of self-justification we call rationalizing. He believes no one is more outraged at social injustice than he. And no doubt it does strike him hard. By contrast, communism seems to him a theory of shining perfection.

But though he eagerly devours all evidences of injustice in capitalist society, his mind rejects virtually all unpleasant facts about communism in actual practice. The shocking story of totalitarian tyranny masked as a great co-operative society he dismisses as an evil concoction of "decadent capitalists" eager to save their skins.

Such blindness cannot be condoned in Hiss or any other intellectual, especially now with the earmarks of tyranny so plainly visible in many Communist countries and there is little excuse for 1950 intellectuals falling into the trap.

Perhaps the tragedy of Hiss, personal and close to home, may afford North American intellectuals with a more forceful lesson than even the most shattering accounts of life under communism overseas.

FARMERS AND THE TARIFF

One of the chief demands being advanced at meetings of certain Canadian farm organizations is that tariffs on imports into this country from Britain be removed so that this country can buy from the Old Country exactly enough goods to balance the foodstuffs which Canada has to sell to Britain.

That this argument will make any substantial headway is doubtful, for despite the sympathy of the public generally for the farmer in his present dilemma, it must be realized that the industrial system of this country was built up behind tariffs and secondly that it is unlikely that the elimination of tariffs would prove of any substantial benefit to the Canadian farmer in the final analysis. Canadian tariffs have been cut substantially in recent years but they still remain essential to manufacturing here and to abolish them would produce a degree of unemployment in Canada that would cost the farmer a domestic market far greater than that of Britain which they are attempting to maintain.

Another thing some of these farm groups fail to make clear is: How do they arrive at the conclusion that the cure of international trade is the removal of tariffs? Anybody with experience in international commerce at the present time knows that the big barrier to this trade is the system of foreign exchange controls under which, as Sydney G. Dobson, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, has pointed out, trade between countries is practically impossible for lack of a common currency, or freedom of the various national currencies to exchange with each other.

If these controls were removed, thus permitting the free exchange of currencies, it might then be possible to decide whether there still remains the necessity of doing something about tariffs. Until these controls have been removed, it is quite impossible to say whether tariffs are, or are not, too high.

Rather than listening to extended argument over something that is impractical at the present time anyway—the removal of tariffs—the Canadian Government should be pressing on other governments the need for blasting the real blockade in the path of world trade—the lack of convertibility of currencies. Not until that has been accomplished is there any hope of promoting a free international economy.

PRESS COMMENTS

MALICIOUS ADVICE TO PHONE USERS

Communication Workers of America (C.I.O.) are threatening a telephone strike against the Bell System in the United States. Their demand is the same old one which is creating the vicious circle of higher costs all along the line. Their president, Joseph A. Beirne, has called upon all C.I.O. members and the public, in event of a strike, to use their telephones as much as possible to jam telephone switchboards. "We want," says Mr. Beirne, "the public to use the telephone, so much that the unattended equipment will develop mechanical trouble more speedily than when we were there to maintain it. We advise full and complete use of telephones during the strike. We even advise over-use of the telephone."

We think Mr. Beirne has misjudged the temper of the American people, who are becoming disgusted with strikes. Unions are fast losing the sympathy of the public, due to John L. Lewis and others of his ilk who forget that the public pays for these strikes. The public is the "goat," and will not look kindly on Mr. Beirne's preposterous request.

Deliberately to set out to break down the nation's telephone system would be to play fast and loose with the lives, health and safety of the population, as well as the national economy and security. Some attempts along this line would be one of the first moves contemplated by a foreign enemy to paralyze the defence system of the United States. One is reluctant to believe that Mr. Beirne fully weighed the implications of his plan. Can it be that President Truman's indifference to the threat to the national health and safety posed by the coal strike make labor organization leaders think that they are above the law of the land?

OLD-YOUNG ATHLETES

The other day we were reading about Jack Kramer, a professional athlete who is considered to be the greatest tennis player who ever lived. The article in question described him as a veteran and gave us the impression that he was on his last legs and probably would be carted away to at least an old men's home before very long. This was until we read, however, that Mr. Kramer was born in 1921 and was not yet 29 years of age. We don't like to argue with those men and women who write about sports and who describe athletes like Mr. Kramer as "old men." We can remember, for instance, that Bobby Jones was called a "grizzled veteran" when he retired from golf at the age of 28 and that Joe Louis recently was written about in terms reserved for men of 70, not men of 34. The same goes for such great but veteran athletes like Joe DiMaggio (36), Elmer Lach (32), Bob Feller (31), and Babe Dridrickson (33). These famous sports stars are all called old; their legs are never anything but aging; their eyes are usually called "sweaty," and their limbs are described as "brittle." Surely sports writers can employ more suitable adjectives than those which refer to age and senility, when writing about athletes who are about to hang up their equipment just because they have reached a sensible age like 35.

IN DEFENCE OF CHILDREN

Brockville Recorder and Times
People with children are the people who are raising the next generation of Canadians. They take on a heavy responsibility when they bring children into the world. For at least 20 years of their lives parents devote a large amount of their time and money to their families and we think therefore they are worthy of respect. Unfortunately, there are few people who respect these hard-working men and women; in many places parent and parish mean almost the same thing. Children are pests who should not only be neither seen or heard—they should not even exist. We know from experience that children are hard on furniture and on walls, but we also know from experience that few children leave cigarette burns on floors or spill drinks on the best rugs. Inflicting this particular type of damage is strictly an adult pastime.

It might be easier for landlords if humans hatched from an egg fully grown and well mannered at the age of 21, but so far this is not a practical system and we must face children as they are. We know property owners have every right to take them or leave them alone, but what a happy thing it would be if they decided to take them.

PERJURY IN COURTS

Timmins Press
We are informed by lawyers that contempt for the truth in court testimony seems to be increasing instead of diminishing. We have even been told that certain clients, considering legal suits, even ask their counsel what they must swear to, in order to win their cases; the inference being that they would stop at nothing to be successful in court. On top of this, it is surprising and disappointing to note the small number of prosecutions for perjury which are instituted by the courts. It is quite apparent that judges and magistrates find many difficulties in fulfilling their duties by ordering charges of perjury to be laid when they find a witness deliberately giving false evidence. A few stern examples would probably make the practice less popular. Perjury is a serious offence, carrying severe punishment. If witnesses knew that they were facing terms of imprisonment by stating things they know to be untrue, they would be more apt to respect the oath they take before they are called upon to give testimony.

"Refrigerator Stars" May Have Part To Play In H-Bomb Plans

Washington, Feb. 2. — (AP) — "Cool stars" may have prompted United States hopes for perfecting a hydrogen bomb. These stars are cool only when compared with the colossal heat of the sun. But it's just that fact which may have pointed the way to making the H-bomb a practical weapon. All the unofficial theory has contended that a temperature of at least 22,000,000 degrees would be needed to explode the hydrogen in an H-bomb. That theory, suggesting the use of an orthodox atomic bomb as a "booster" for the H-bomb, is based on this fact: The sun, which has been firing its superatomic furnace with hydrogen energy since time began, has an internal temperature of 22,000,000 degrees. But there are stars in the heavens called "red giants" which stay in the energy-production business with a temperature of only 1,000,000 degrees. Dr. Hans Bethe of Cornell, who first conceived the theory that the sun and the stars derive their energy from a reaction involving hydrogen, referred to these million-degree "red giants" in testimony before a senate committee several years ago. He said these cooler stars are supposed to derive their energy from a reaction involving heavy hydrogen—a heavier form of hydrogen atom than the one utilized by the sun in generating its nuclear energy. "Heavy hydrogen," called deuterium, is one of the things the atomic energy commission is studying thoroughly. It's also developing research to a still heavier form of hydrogen called "tritium." Assuming they developed a bomb employing either of these types of hydrogen—and "built in" a regular atomic bomb as a primer to provide the triggering-temperature—the scientists might conceivably achieve this result: The built-in bomb, with a hint-of-at exploding temperature of at least 20,000,000 degrees, would have 20 times the potential heat necessary to touch off the "heavy" hydrogen atoms. The excess of 19,000,000 degrees might be a key to the shortcut needed to duplicate in a bomb the process that goes on in the stars. In the sun, the process of "fusing" hydrogen atoms to produce helium—and the release of nuclear energy—requires about 5,000,000

Many Veteran U.K. Members Will Retire From Political Field

By DON GILBERT
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, Feb. 2. — What- ever the political complexion of the parliament to be elected Feb. 23, members will miss a sizable number of faces long familiar in the Commons lobbies. Retirement has called many of the House's older members away from the political arena. Others had their seats wiped out by redistribution or failed to win re-election in their constituencies. In their places new—and usually young—faces will appear.

Bachelor's Dish

Greg Harwood, eligible-and-wary-bachelor, left his office at the Streamlined Wallpaper Company one fine Spring evening and strolled up Fifth Avenue wearing a thoughtful expression. What would it be tonight—spaghetti at Mother Martelli's, or a steak at Joe's? Suddenly he heard his name being called. He turned. A nondescript looking girl was standing stock-still staring at him with widened brown eyes. "Greg—don't you remember me?" Greg's mind reached back into the misty past. "You—you're from Stenwood?" he ventured. She nodded, and smiled encouragingly. When she smiled she was no longer nondescript. He tried hard. "Slim Clinton's kid sister."

fire commission, to speak on local conditions. Mr. Nichol referred with pride to the improved water system and outlined plans for increased efficiency in this and other matters.

The chairman asked the fire chief Samuel Gratham, to say a few words. Mr. Gratham emphasized the prime necessity for any one reporting a fire to give full particulars as to its location, the name of the owner and the street number.

Before closing the meeting, Mr. Blake asked if there was any new business to be taken up. Dr. A. N. Langford, on behalf of the Lennoxville School Board, reported that plans for the proposed new high school were nearly ready and suggested that if a modification of these to include accommodation for some activities other than those of a purely educational nature was desired, the matter should be brought up as soon as possible.

The chairman then declared the meeting closed and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. Members of St. Monica's Guild were in charge of refreshments and were offered a cordial vote of thanks.

Q.W.I. Offers Craft Of Rugmaking

The addition of rugmaking to the crafts being offered by the Quebec Women's Institutes has been announced. This decision was reached at the semi-annual meeting of the Board of that organization held recently in Montreal.

As the Tweedsmuir competitions, which are held biennially, feature a section of hooked rugs a spirited discussion showed the interest taken by the members in this project and Mme P. C. LeBeau, Secretary Home Economics and Handicrafts Division, Department of Agriculture, Quebec, and Miss Alice Lighthall, President Provincial Branch Canadian Handicraft Guild, Montreal, who were guests at this meeting, gave much helpful information as to what constitutes an original design and gave hints on workmanship.

Miss Esther Kerry, President, Local Council of Women, Montreal, was another guest, attending all sessions. The Q.W.I. is affiliated with this organization, and in extending her greetings, Miss Kerry expressed her pleasure at this co-operation, stating, "It is the right thing that we in the city and you in the country should work together."

Mrs. R. Thomson, Abbotsford, Q.W.I. President, presided, and all counties were represented with the exception of Gaspe and Brome. Mrs. W. C. Smallman, Dundee, past president, and Mrs. J. D. Lang, Brysonville, Convener of Agriculture, were also absent due to illness.

Rain, Sleet Fall In Mid-West U.S.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—(P)—Heavy rains and sleet dumped torrents of flood waters into the fast-rising Ohio river today.

Rain and sleet fell from Texas to New England.

Serious flood dangers grew in Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas, and other states. Thousands were homeless.

Winter also set cold records in the United States northwest, and tied up north Texas in traffic-paralyzing ice.

Rivers and creeks in Kentucky and West Virginia surged out of their banks and raised toward the climbing Ohio, rising hourly.

The Ohio hit the 40-foot mark at Cincinnati during a heavy downpour last night. Flood stage is 52 feet. The Saturday forecast is for 57.5 feet, but the river may go higher.

Four to six days of steady rains and melting icecaps fed the Ohio and its tributaries.

In eastern Arkansas 19,570 persons have been forced out of their homes, chiefly because of the flooded St. Francis river.

He saw a man run and trip in the streets, and that there was a crowd running after him. At this point, he said, Roque appeared on the scene and said to the strikers: "Are you losing your heads? Don't mistreat this man."

He addressed his remarks to three men who said they would look after the victim and Roque is alleged to have said, "You guarantee that you will not molest him."

Witness said that when Deputy Chief Dionne arrived at the police station to get the officers he said to him, "Promise us you'll take care of them." He said this was a protective measure because quite a crowd was swarming into the station.

Deputy Chief Dionne testified a few days ago that he was told by one of the men that he could take the officers on one condition. He was told: "If you let them go, you'll pay for it."

Under cross-examination by Crown Prosecutor Noel Dorion, K.C., witness admitted that those were the words he used.

Last of the two witnesses heard at yesterday afternoon's session was Rodolphe Carriere, photographer from La Presse, who testified that he was sent to Asbestos on May 5 with two reporters, and that he found the road blocked. He said he took a picture of an overturned car, and this was produced as an exhibit.

Prior To St. Paul's Congregational Meeting At Magog A Supper Was Held

Magog, Feb. 1.—The Ladies of St. John's United Church once more invited the parishioners to the congregational supper, which was held in the Church Hall on Monday evening, January 30, at 6 o'clock. Following the supper, the annual general meeting of the congregation was held around the tables. This annual event has become one of the high spots of the congregation. At the meeting, reports of the many groups and organizations associated with St. Paul's were given, along with the congregational business, which was transacted and officers elected.

At the communion service of January 28th, the Session was happy to receive on behalf of the Church, six new members into the fellowship of the Church.

The Official Board is making plans for the anniversary service of the Church, which will take place on Sunday, March 19.

The amount of the giving from the White Stocking Offering on December 18th, will be shared between St. Columba House Mission in Montreal and the children in the Mission in Korea.

The new telephone number of the manse is 3778.

Some eighteen chairs have been repaired for the use in the Church

Hall which continues to be a very busy spot, being occupied every evening as well as several afternoons each week.

Giving some idea of the growth of the congregational family, and the obvious need of a new public school, the minister performed thirty-two baptisms in the past year, as well as making twenty-eight registrations. This number, sixty, is the largest for any year in the church's history.

General Notes

Three Magog stores have changed hands. White's Registered has been bought by Mr. Gordon Meek, and Smith's Meat Market is now owned by the Mayor, Mr. Thiroux. The Bond family, formerly proprietors of the Union 5 and 10 Store, bought Pearl's Clothing Store.

Mrs. William Fraser, Mrs. C. Rolland and Miss A. d'Dion are moving to the Willowdale Farm. There are many in Magog, who hate to see them go but then, Austin is not so far away.

So re-discover brassware! Hunt out your old brassware treasures... look wares! Hunt out your old brassware treasures... look wares! Hunt out your old brassware treasures... look wares!

No More Bother About Making Apple Sauce since I've discovered canned 'Scotian Gold' writes a reader. She says, quite frankly, that SCOTIAN GOLD APPLE SAUCE is better than any she has ever made herself! What gives Scotian Gold that extra-good flavour? Well—it's Sauce made from specially selected varieties of the Annapolis Valley's famous flavour-filled apples. With 15% sugar added, they are quick-cooked in a process which retains every bit of the natural flavour and aroma of the fresh fruit. Scotian Gold Apple Sauce is not strained!—you'll really appreciate its complete natural goodness! Try it soon—for breakfast—as a dessert—a "special treat" for your youngsters' lunch—a tasty side-dish with pork or sausages—or as a delicious topping for ice-cream!

For That "On-top-of-the-world" Feeling—just follow this simple formula:—Drink the juice of one fresh lemon in a glass of water—first thing on arising! You see, unlike harsh laxatives that "tie you up in knots", this natural fruit juice gently helps your system regulate itself... helping you keep regular the healthful way! Lemons help get rid of colds, too. You just pour the juice of one lemon in a half glass of water. Then add—slowly—half teaspoon baking soda, and drink as foaming quies. A glass every 2 or 3 hours helps alkalize. Try hot lemonade, too, at bedtime! And always be sure to ask for SUNKIST CALIFORNIA LEMONS... they're the finest, the juiciest of all!

You'll Be His Valentine forever if you make a point of always looking your freshest and loveliest. And it's so easy with that wonderful, new-formula WOODBURY DRY SKIN CREAM! Heinz are soup specialists—they combine long experience with great skill to bring you the very best of flavour-packed soup! There are eighteen scrumptious varieties of Heinz Condensed Soups and then there are the special soups for babies—the ready-to-serve soups for use with Heinz electric kitchens in restaurants—and soups in huge tins, also for restaurant use. But you can give yourself the taste treat of any one of the delicious Heinz Soups right at home! Tonight!

Shimmering And Clear As A Crystal Lake—and just as inviting-looking too!—JELL-O desserts are so exciting to eat as they are to see. The seven delicious "locked-in" flavours are a pick-me-up to tired menus. And they allow such a variety of desserts. I'm particularly attracted to the very definite economy of Jell-O Jelly Powders, too. At a few cents a serving, I know of no more delicious and yet inexpensive dessert to serve to family and friends. Just about everyone in the family will have their own preferences, and I'd advise you to keep a full stock of their special favourites always on hand!

DOROTHY DIX

Parasitic Child

Healthy Girl, 24, Demands Full Support From Invalid Father

Dear Miss Dix: I am a man 55 years of age, totally disabled for the last two and a half years. I have a small income that could provide the necessities of life for us because my wife is willing to do all the housework and make the dollar go very far. We have four children at home. The oldest girl is 24, healthy and strong. She is not a bad girl, but the tragic part about her is that she does not want to work; refuses to even look for a job in spite of the fact that we are not in a position to support her. She gets up late in the morning, goes to sleep again after lunch and goes out whenever she has a chance. What worries me in addition to her unwillingness to support herself is her influence over the young children who are 21, 20 and 16.

DOROTHY DIX

I ask your advice on this family problem.

ANSWER: I doubt if there is any problem in the world that is more difficult to solve than how to deal with lazy, selfish, parasitic children. Unfortunately we cannot emulate the example of the birds who cast their young out of the nest when they are big enough to depend upon themselves, for we are held back from taking these heroic measures not only by our affection but by our sense of responsibility.

IS PARENTS' FAULT

What the parents should do who have these grafting children is hard to say because, after all, the fault is the parents' and they are more to blame than the children. In the last analysis children are what their parents make them and they treat their parents as they were taught to treat them.

I am sorry I cannot give you any remedy for dealing with your daughter. If she had any generosity of soul, any affection or sense of duty, she would be eager to put her strong young shoulder under the load and help you and her mother bear it. So would the other children, all of whom should be earning their own livings and assisting you instead of being a burden upon you, just as hundreds of thousands of other girls and boys, less well prepared for life than they, are helping their fathers and mothers.

It is a pity that your youngsters cannot be made to understand the contempt with which people regard lazy, idle boys and girls who sponge on their old fathers and mothers. And it is still more a pity that they cannot be made to comprehend how much happier they would be at work than they are loafing.

Dear Miss Dix: The expressions "how to catch a man" and "how to hold a husband" are degrading and take away the beauty and sanctity of courtship and the marital estate. Nature intended man to be the pursuer and all modest women acknowledge and adhere to this precept.

ANSWER: Perhaps Nature did originally intend that man should be the pursuer and women the pursued, and we still pretend to believe in that romantic theory, but in reality, we know it is no more true than is the myth about Santa Claus. For ninety-nine times out of a hundred and maybe the hundredth time, it is the woman who sees the man first and gives him the high sign that attracts his attention to her.

Nor do I see why it is immodest or degrading or in any way whatever reflects upon a woman to pick out the man she wants as a husband and for the father of her children and to use every art and wife she knows to catch him. Marriage is her business in life. It is what her happiness and prosperity depend upon, and she would be a fool not to go after what she wanted.

Personally, I deplore the fact that this has to be done by stealth and that a woman has to camouflage her intentions toward a man and pretend she is running away from a man when she is really running after him.

Now do I understand how it degrades marriage or makes the sacred relationship between a husband a wife less sacred for her to deliberately try to keep him in love with her.

Dear Dorothy Dix: What do you think of designing women who strip married men of the money that should go to the hard-working, thrifty wives who have helped make and save it, and that is needed for the rearing and education of his children?

ANSWER: I think that a highway robber or a porch climber is a fine and admirable character compared to such a woman. For these women are sneak thieves who steal from babes in the cradle and who, worst of all, not only take away from a sister woman the pennies she has scraped together by a thousand self-denials and economies, but rob of her husband as well.

Conduct Still Considered Top VD Preventative

There is some indication that the use of more recently discovered drugs such as penicillin are having a marked effect in reducing the incidence of gonorrhoea and syphilis, states the magazine HEALTH in a special National Social Hygiene Day editorial.

National Social Hygiene Day, observed annually in Canada and the United States, falls on the first Wednesday in February. In Canada it is incorporated with National Health Week which this year is being observed from January 29th to February 4th.

HEALTH goes on to say that not only the drugs but the willingness of governments to spend money on providing clinics and public health machinery in the form of an adequate legislation and personnel to see that infected persons are treated have had some effect.

"It is wonderful that science should have provided the means for an effective medical attack on the venereal diseases, veritable plagues which have maimed and killed hundreds of thousands of people," the HEALTH editorial observes. "It is well to remember in our elation at medical achievement that these diseases are essentially the medical results of moral and social problems unsolved. It might well be that in curing the result we may be tempted to neglect the cause, thus in the long run by failing to influence favorably human conduct as between the sexes, we may damage social and moral standards and in the long run even fail to control disease."

After all spectacular medical discoveries were made just before the first world war and their application resulted in a steady fall in venereal disease incidence after the first war until the beginning of the second world war. But with the beginning of the second great war

V.D. incidence rapidly rose again, and we have not yet learned to prevent war.

There was a school of thought a generation ago which was opposed to the establishment of free V.D. clinics because this was said to encourage immorality. One cannot but wonder as to what may be the effect on human conduct when the once serious consequences of immoral conduct are no longer serious. And it would seem that that soon may be true.

It was John Stokes, one of the most famous of syphilologists who said that conduct and not medication was the true preventative of venereal disease. This is the essential theme of a special social hygiene section of Health Facts, a carefully prepared little booklet published by the Health League of Canada in connection with National Health Week. It is significant that the voluntary societies charged with the duty of study and popular education in the field of venereal disease control have generally been called social hygiene societies. Social hygiene goes far beyond the problem of mere treatment, a fact which unfortunately many people have forgotten.

PEOPLE WITH BLOOD VESSEL DISEASE SHOULDN'T SMOKE

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

I have never seen any claims that tobacco smoking promotes good health. There is vigorous debate on how harmful smoking may or may not be but no one claims that it strengthens the muscles, improves the "wind" or does anything else of a health-building nature.

Nicotine is probably the principal ingredient of tobacco smoke which may exert an unfavorable effect. As a pure drug, nicotine is a powerful poison. When burned as it is in smoking, the harmful effect of nicotine is certainly lessened.

Tobacco smoke irritates the delicate mucous linings of the breathing passages. Coated tongues in heavy smokers is the rule. The trachea and larynx, or voice box, are irritated by heavy smoking and smokers frequently have a slight cough or hoarseness.

Drummondville Dye Plant Caused Considerable Damage By Explosion

Drummondville, Feb. 2.—Considerable damage to the dye house plant of The Canadian Celanese was caused by an explosion on a huge tender frame machine. A company official placed the loss at between $95,000 and $100,000. Two workers were slightly injured, and it was fortunate the incident happened after dye-house employees had just left for lunch, otherwise there might have been a large number to have been seriously injured.

About 5,000 yards of material were destroyed in the fire which followed the explosion. The plant fire brigade succeeded in extinguishing the flames quickly without the help or assistance of the city fire department.

SUPT. DIES

Wilfred Perman, assistant superintendent of the textile department of the Canadian Celanese Ltd., died Saturday at the St. Croix Hospital at the age of 62.

Mr. Perman had been in failing health for some time, and little hope had been held by his doctors for some months past for a complete recovery. He was born on May 15, 1887, in Easton, near Nottingham, England. He served an apprenticeship with The Lacey Manufacturing Co. of Nottingham and in World War I joined the Imperial forces in 1915. He was discharged in 1918 and returned to his previous position with the Lacey Manufacturing Co. for an additional five years, leaving to accept a position with the British Celanese to become later the assistant superintendent of this department.

Mr. Perman was well known, and highly esteemed in social and sport circles, and was an active member of The Drummondville Golf and Country Club, also The Canadian Celanese Curling Club.

He leaves to mourn his passing his widow, three sons, Dennis, of Moncton, N.B., Geoffrey, of Montreal, and Neville, of Shawinigan. Funeral services were conducted at St. Georges Anglican Church, January 26, with Rev. Harold Church officiating.

YOUTH SENTENCED

A St. Jean Baptiste youth was arrested Sunday, January 22, and accused of stealing a roll of Celanese material, valued at $50, from the C.N.R. station. Pleading guilty to the charge laid against him before Recorder Rousseau, he was sentenced to twelve months in prison, having a previous record at the Police Station.

$40,000 DAMAGE

Damage estimated at $40,000 was caused by a fire, which broke out in the establishment of Gigue Brothers, Funeral Directors at St. George East. The city fire fighters fought the flames for four hours, before the blaze was brought under control. In addition to the entire gutting of the building, one of the firm's ambulances was also destroyed, cause of the blaze is still unknown.

TAXPAYERS MEET

Nearly two hundred taxpayers, representing nearly every organization and private enterprise, gathered at St. Frederick School, to ask Mr. Antoine Biron, K.C., to accept the candidacy for the mayoralty at the coming municipal election. His Worship Mayor Gaston Ringuet is retiring on account of failing health and has endorsed Mr. Biron as one of the most qualified citizens to take over the Mayorship in the city's municipal affairs, by his proven ability and services rendered on the School Commission and various other municipal affairs.

Accepting the candidacy, Mr. Biron declared that he had hesitated for some time, before making a decision to accept, and took into account the fact that His Worship Mayor Ringuet himself offered to call a meeting and offer him the candidacy. At the conclusion of the meeting, the audience was invited to sign the bulletin with the public agreed that Mr. Biron will be elected by acclamation.

LEGS FRASER AND COMPANY TANGLE WITH SAINTS TONIGHT

Senators Paying Last Scheduled Visit Here This Evening; Bush Only Player On Sidelines For Tilt

"Bill 'Legs' Fraser is in town again."

The rangy acrobatic net minder with the Ottawa Senators, who put on a one man show last Thursday evening at the local arena, will be back on the job this evening when Eddie Dartnall leads his Barber Foles into town for their final scheduled game of the season.

Fraser, who played a very big part in last week's game when the locals edged out the Senators 2-1, will no doubt be the man that the Saints must get by, if they wish to register another victory, and keep their home record clean with the Ottawa clan.

The Senators haven't as yet chalked up a victory on Sherbrooke ice, and no doubt Coach Dartnell will have his charges going all out to do so tonight. In their four games here the Saints hold a big edge as having downed them 7-2, 6-2, 2-1 and one shut-out 2-0. Only five goals have been allowed by Paul Leclerc, whereas the Saints have pumped fifteen by Fraser. The Senators have had trouble with the locals all season, and the Saints is the only club in the circuit that Gorman's team has failed to beat.

Coach Dugre will have only one player missing tonight when they take the ice against the rough and ready Senators and that is Eddie Bush, the husky rearguard, who has been on the sidelines for the past week. The rest of the team is in good condition and they held a strenuous workout yesterday afternoon in preparation for tonight's tilt.

The above photos show three men to whom special attention will have to be paid in tonight's tilt when the Saints will be hosts to Ottawa Senators at the local arena.

Butch Stahan, the rugged rearguard, who plays a big part in Ottawa's defensive plans and has the habit of breaking up many a play at his own blueline, and gives his mate, Legs Fraser, good protection. The man in the middle needs no introduction to local hockey fans. He is Bill 'Legs' Fraser. Fraser gave a very outstanding performance on his last trip to Sherbrooke and is without any doubt the man whom the Saints must pay special attention to in tonight's battle.

The third member of the trio is Ray Trainor, another player who forms part of the rearguard with Stahan and can always be counted on to form a good solid line in front of Fraser.

Heikki Hasu Still Favored To Win Combined Event; Runners Move To Rumford For Cross-Country Tomorrow

Lake Placid, N.Y., Feb. 2.—(AP)—The odds are 5 to 1 against him but don't sell Heikki Hasu of Finland short in the combined event of the World Ski Championships which will be completed with the 18-kilometer (11-mile) cross-country run at Rumford, Me., tomorrow.

The five against Hasu, 1948 Olympic Champion in this double-barrelled snow feature, are the quintet of Norwegians who finished ahead of him yesterday in the jumping half of the competition.

Hasu is the Paavo Nurmi of the skis, winning fourth place in the Olympic 18-kilometer. It was that placing that helped him take the Olympic combined title.

The combined winner's point are determined approximately 45 per cent on how he did in the jump and 55 per cent on where he finished in the cross-country.

The snow twin bill will be decided in Maine Friday because there is a desperate shortage of the white stuff in this area—where the 1932 Olympic Games were all but rained out and where the 1949 world bobsled races were curtailed by warm weather last year.

Last night all the runners of the nine competing countries started the 300-mile journey to the Maine milltown where the 40-kilometer (25-mile) relay also is booked for Sunday and the 50-kilometer (31-mile) grind for Monday. The world jumping title, however, will be decided here Sunday.

Simon Slaattvik, a Norwegian railroad engineer, floated off the lip of the 65-meter intervals jump three times yesterday to gain 231 points for the lead at the half-way point in the combined. He had the longest jump of the day, 223 feet, and was also almost perfect in form.

The five judges gave out only two top 10's all day—20 is perfect—and Slaattvik got them both.

Per Sannerud, a Norwegian bus driver, was second to Slaattvik with 223.4 points. That may prove only that in ski jumping a locomotive sometimes is better than a bus.

Noel Paul of Princeton, B.C., Canada's only representative in the jump, placed 17th. He had jumps of 176, 185 and 188 feet for a point total of 191.1.

The Norwegian who may be the toughest obstacle for Hasu is Otar Gjerumshaug, a 25-year-old farmer who specializes in cross-country. Rated a poor jumper, he was third yesterday with 220.8 points.

Royals Slap Down Aces 5-1 To Move Into Third-Place Tie With Senators; St. Laurent Gets Two

Quebec, Feb. 2.—The fourth-place Montreal Royals last night outskated and outplayed Quebec Aces defeating them 5-1 in a regular Quebec Senior Hockey League game before 2,500 fans.

Dollar St. Laurent led the Montrealers against the second-place Aces with two goals and one assist. Gerry Desaulniers, Pete Morin and Lulu Denis shared the three other Royals markers.

The Royals had lady luck on their side throughout the game. St. Laurent scored the first Montreal goal when the puck deflected from Dean McBride's stick.

Pete Morin was awarded a goal about half-way through the middle stanza when he shot at the Aces nets. Goalie Al Millar stopped it but on the rebound Julian Smith of

Montreal Ties Red Wings To Take Over Second Spot As Black Hawks Blank Leafs; Bruins Edge Rangers

Chicago Black Hawks are tagging along at the tail-end of the National Hockey League but they did a nice job of giant-killing last night by shutting out the rarified Toronto Maple Leafs by 3-0 and thus giving Montreal Canadiens a hoist up into undisputed possession of second place.

The Canucks, tied with Toronto behind Detroit until last night, managed to pick up a single point by drawing with the leading Red Wings 3-3.

In the third game of the full bill, Boston Bruins vaulted ahead of New York into fourth place by beating the Rangers 3-2.

Chicago's goalie Frankie Brimsek looked like the "Mr. Zero" he once was with Boston as he held off Toronto in the final period. In racking up his third shutout of the season, the dead-pan netminder was superb.

It wasn't until more than half-way through the second period that Brimsek was supplied with the goal he needed to whitewash Toronto. Red Hamill then picked up a loose puck and sliced it into the Toronto net.

Speedy Billy Mosienko had broken away a moment before and had pulled Toronto's Turk Broda out of the net to save. While Broda was sprawled on the ice, Hamill pushed the puck in at 11:37.

At 16:09, Metro Prystaj made it 2-0 for Chicago with Gus Bodnar and Bay Guidolin assisting. In the last period, Jimmy Conacher gave triple insurance at 14:55 with a marker that saw Gage Stewart and Doug Bentley assisting.

The draw-game between Montreal and Detroit marked the third straight time that the clubs have tied—but Montreal had to come from behind to tie the slipping Wings, Steve Black and Marty Pavelich put the Wings ahead 2-0 in the second period. Early in the third, Montreal's Roger Leger got one back but George Gae retaliated with a Detroit marker to make it 3-1.

Capitalizing on a tripping penalty to Jim McFadden, Montreal threw its all into a few power plays. Defenceman Glen Harmon got one marker at 16:36 while Elmer Lach tied the score at 17:55.

In the rough-and-ready contest, Detroit goalie Harry Lumley suffered a two-stitch cut and Rip Riopelle of Montreal had three stitches to close a cut in his right eye.

Bud Poile was the man who whipped the Rangers for Boston. The former Ranger pushed in two first period goals and Johnny Peirson gave Boston its first third goal in the 16th minute of the second session.

The Rangers put on the pressure and Buddy O'Connor got New York's first goal on a pass from Jack McLeod shortly after Peirson had connected.

With less than four minutes to go, Allan Stanley fired a 30-footer into the Boston net.

The Rangers got another chance to go ahead of Boston tonight when they play the Canadiens in Montreal in the only N.H.L. game scheduled.

At present, Detroit, with 60 points, has a 10-point margin over Montreal, Toronto has 49 points in third place, Boston 44 in fourth, New York 43 in fifth and Chicago 38 in last place.

Cataracts And Braves Battle To 6-6 Draw

Valleyfield, Que., Feb. 2.—Despite a three-goal effort by Gilles Trudel, Shawinigan Falls Cataracts last night fought to a 6-6 overtime deadlock with Valleyfield Braves during a slow-moving game before a slim Quebec Senior Hockey League crowd.

Other Shawinigan Falls markers were Bernie Limoges, with two tallies, and Maurice Deslongchamps.

Jimmy Haggerty, Larry Kwong, Ray Mayer, Jacques Schmidt, Amare Corveau and Jean Paul Bisailon did the sniping for Valleyfield.

Valleyfield held a 3-2 lead at the end of the first period, but Limoges bagged a brace of goals early in the middle stanza and Trudel scored his second counter to put the Cataracts ahead 5-3. Mayer managed to get one past goalie Roger Bessette in the Valleyfield nets with only two minutes to go in the second stanza.

Schmidt knotted the tally 5-5 after 42 seconds in the third ses-

Ike Williams Forced To Postpone Bout

Seattle, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The non-title scrap between lightweight champ Ike Williams and Californian John L. Davis has been postponed until Feb. 27.

Matchmaker Jimmy Fittens said yesterday the champion's eye was cut a few days before he was due to meet Davis here Jan. 27. The fight then was rescheduled for Feb. 7.

In the overtime period, Trudel completed his hat trick after 3:32 minutes, but Corveau sank the tying marker about four minutes later.

Canadian Figure Skating Tests Promise Keen Competition For All Titles Except Senior Pairs

St. Catharines, Ont., Feb. 2.—The Canadian Figure Skating Championships start today and experts said that almost any one of the 41 competitors may be a champion when the meet concludes Saturday.

A. H. Williams of Calgary, president of the Canadian Figure Skating Association, said there is little chance of a walk-over in any event except in the senior pairs, in which title-holders Marlene Smith of Niagara Falls, Ont., and Donald Gilchrist of Toronto are not opposed.

"With many new faces appearing on the scene, mostly in junior events, and with the youngsters quickly improving there promises to be some close results," he said.

The junior women's singles this afternoon are the first of the seven championship events. Sixteen are entered in the junior women's, the favorite being Barbara Graton of Toronto, runner-up a year ago to the champion, Maureen Senior. Miss Senior this year has moved up to the senior women's division.

Wrestler Payette To Miss Games Next Week

Quebec, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Canada's wrestling team at the Empire Games received some bad news today when it was learned that light-heavyweight Fernand Payette of Montreal is unlikely to be ready for action when the matches start next week because of a neck injury suffered in training.

"The doctor's report on Payette is a tough blow," said wrestling manager Frank Morphet. "He had an excellent chance to win his division."

The 25-year-old French-Canadian strong boy sustained the injury while sparring with teammate Henry Hudson of Montreal, a welterweight.

On the bright side today was the news that marathoner Gerard Cote had covered the official games course in just under three hours.

Breeder's Association Favors Night Racing

Toronto, Feb. 2.—Delegates to the annual meeting of the Canadian Standard Bred Horse Association yesterday gave unqualified support to a movement for night harness racing.

Several speakers declared that night racing would be the salvation of the horse breeding industry. James W. Brown of New Liskeard, president, said there are 3,000 breeders of standard bred horses in Ontario. Some of them were fortunate enough to be able to sell colts to U.S. buyers. Night harness racing in Canada would open a new market for these breeders.

L. Guillemette was the high man for the Chain Store squad when he rolled 435, while M. Bergeron tallied 376 to lead his mates.

Shawinigan Falls, Que., Feb. 2.—The franchise of the Shawinigan Falls Cataracts of the Quebec Senior Hockey League may soon be transferred from the Junior Chamber de Commerce to the City of Shawinigan Falls, it was learned last night.

Gaston Hardy, in charge of publicity for the team which has been in the cellar since the start of the season, said directors of the Junior Chamber de Commerce and city officials met last night to discuss the transfer.

He added that the Club's administration board would meet tonight to study offers made by the City and to decide on the fate of the team.

"Ol Pete" Alexander Leaves Hospital

Los Angeles, Feb. 2.—(AP)—It will be a happy birthday after all for Grover Cleveland ("Ol' Pete") Alexander.

The former great pitcher, who will be 63 on February 26, is out of the hospital and on his feet again after a month of serious illness.

"Ol' Pete just won't give up," his divorced wife, Amy, said last night. She has found a small apartment for him in Hollywood, near the apartment house she manages.

The deafened veteran, a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, is being fitted with a hearing aid to offset the disease which already has cost him his right ear. Mrs. Alexander says that it is cancer, but general hospital doctors here declined to give their diagnosis.

New York — Paddy Demarco, 135½, Brooklyn, outpointed Orlando Zulueta, 133, Havana (10).
