COMET WILL NOT BE SEEN HERE TO-NIGHT

Passage Between Earth and Sun Will Not be Visible in Montreal

Better Luck Promised for Friday—Scientists Have No Fear of Danger.

To-night's the night!

Halley's comet wil turn up again some time before midnight, but there won't be much to see because the comet, the sun and the earth will be all in a line. However, the comet will move into the spotlight on Friday and astronomers predict that it will be the sight of a lifetime.

Meanwhile many persons in Montreal are disturbed, such persons belonging to a class of pessimists always ready to look on the ill side of things. To counteract this feeling astronomers and meteorological observers appear to have formed a sort of Comet Don't Worry Club and issue bulletins reassuring all good folk to turn in at the usual hour and sleep the slumber of the just.

Professor C. H. McLeod, vice-dean of the Faculty of McGill University, and Superintendent of the Meteorological Observatory, said to The Star: "Why there is nothing to worry about. People will not notice anything unusual to-night. Nothing of an unusual nature will happen."

Professor McLeod was asked on what foundation rested the amazing stories of wreck and ruin predicted by some persons who have a world-wide reputation.

"They are sensational astronomers, not observing ones," answered the Professor. "Men like Flammarion seem to be happy when indulging in some wild conjecture."

So join with the optimists and form a comet party. After that wait for the big show on Friday. Professor McLeod said that it will be a magnificent display. You want to be ready for this because performances are given only at long intervals. One thing to be said relative to the comet is that the presswork has been of an unusual nature and it will be really extraordinary if the Halley line of fireworks lives up to the reputation given it in advance.

The rainfall of to-day is not very promising for outdoor parties to-night, but there is every indication that there will be a very considerable proportion of Montreal's half million of citizens on the watch to-night; weather permitting, they will be out of doors, many persons announcing that they will climb the mountain and endeavor to catch a glimpse from that elevation. Other persons have issued invitations for select parties at home, while the restaurant people are advertising comet dinners.

ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP COMET WATCHERS WAITED

With telescope or opera glass each of the three hundred persons spending the night on Mount Royal awaited the arrival of the comet. Each of the 300 persons were disappointed, for toward three o'clock, about which time the visitor was expected, clouds banked up heavily and if the visitor did pass he succeeded in preserving his incognito.

The greater number of the searchers were assembled on the lookout, others were stationed on the board walk at the head of the Incline Railway, and a few hardy spirits were perched in trees. The visitors began to arrive about two o'clock. They gathered in small knots, discussing the comet, its vagaries and possibilities in a free and easy way which displayed the wide range of beliefs prevalent in regard to this outlaw of the heavens. Superstition clashed with science, the high brow met the superstitious one and each remained convinced of the correctness of his theory.

One party, emulating Nero on the occasion when Rome was in a blaze, brought up a fiddler, and to the strains of his music the ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a dance which is certainly unique in the social history of Montreal. Everybody present enjoyed the night, and any person who claimed to have any knowledge whatever of astronomy could at all times hold the rapt attention of a fair sized audience.

The lectures concluded toward three o'clock, the music stopped, the dancing was done, and each person relapsed into silence, standing quietly and in expectancy awaiting the first view of the shooting flame. Then was it noticed that the sky had clouded up, and about half an hour later, when the gray streaks of dawn filtered through the sky it was obvious to all that no view of the comet would be secured that night.

WILL PASS BETWEEN EARTH AND SUN TO-NIGHT

New York, May 18.—Halley's comet will to-day come closer to the earth than at any time during its present sojourn, and as it turns this evening the pole of its orbit, our watchful astronomers tell us that the little planet Earth, with all its human freight, will glide quietly through the long tail of the celestial visitor. To many, who are superstitiously inclined, the promised passage through the tail and the crisis in the comet's flight is an event regarded with fear and apprehension. The scientists, fortified by their accurate knowledge of the comet's idiosyncracies, have no fear of danger.

About 11 o'clock to-night the comet will pass between the earth and the sun. No human eye will observe the passage, for it will occur on the other side of the earth in broad daylight where the glare of the noonday sun will completely obscure the lesser brilliancy of the comet. The comet has been hiding itself in the sun's glare for the past two days, but it will be visible from the earth again by Friday evening, when it will be seen just after sunset in the western horizon, just north of the planet Mars. It will be there every evening for several weeks until it finally fades from view for 75 years.

As to the passage through the tail of the comet, the scientists have repeatedly asserted that there is nothing to fear. The earth has passed through very similar tails before—for example, in 1861, when the globe was whisked through the tail of a comet without any one being the wiser. In fact, the event was not known until revealed by observations afterward.

Professor Bayard, of the Yerkes Observatory, says the most probable phenomenon that all laymen may observe to-night will be the antics of the compass. It is generally believed that the resistance between the comet's tail and the outer atmosphere of the earth will charge the air with electricity. While some astronomers, headed by those at Mount Wilson, go so far as to predict that there may be electrical flashes, it is generally believed that magnetized compass needles will behave much as they do at the appearance of a strong aurora borealis.

The speed of the comet is to-day about 1,642 miles a minute as it approaches the region of the earth. The tail recently has lengthened, according to some observers, until it is now estimated at 20,000,000 to 46,000,000 miles.

The comet itself (its head or nucleus) is approximately 9,000 miles in diameter. To determine the character of the dust Halley's comet is said by some to be carrying in its tail, members of the United States Geological Survey, of Pasadena, Cal., will attempt to trap some of the particles at the Carnegie Observatory on Mount Wilson to-day, as the earth passes through the tail.

LEVEL CROSSINGS DISALLOWED BY THE LEGISLATURE

Increase in Pay of Recorders Refused —Mr. Prevost Wants Autonomy for Montreal.

Special Staff Corespondence.

Quebec, May 18. — The Legislative Assembly, sitting again last night in Committee of the Whole, passed practically all the outstanding clauses of the Montreal Bill, except the all-important articles referring to the duties of the Board of Control and to annexations, which were again postponed.

The most significant decision last night was that which prohibits the Lachine, Jacques Cartier and Maisonneuve Railway Company, from crossing any city street on the level on its way to the new terminal on St. Catherine street, near Turbo street. The Private Bills Committee had cut down the proposed series of level crossings to two, but on the motion of Mr. Mousseau, these were disallowed by the narrow majority of two votes, Mr. Bourassa denouncing level crossings in a city as an obvious menace to public safety.

Recorders Refused Increase.

Last night's proceedings were appreciably enlivened by the appearance of Mr. Jean Prevost, who entered a protest against the first proposal of the evening—moved by Mr. Mousseau—which was to increase the salary of the Montreal Recorders from $4,000 to $5,000 a year.

"Why increase the salary of the Recorders?" he asked. The Legislative Committee of the City Council did not ask this. I may inform the members that some strange things happen in the Recorder's Court sometimes. The Recorder makes speeches, the witnesses make speeches, and Mr. Recorder Weir occasionally inflicts poetry upon us! (Laughter.) Then, how much money does Mr. Recorder Weir receive as Expropriation Commissioner. I do not think I am far wrong if I say that as such he received $3,000 last year. He is also paid as a License Commissioner. I think the Recorders are sufficiently paid and I am against voting any increase."

Mr. Bourassa also opposed the increase and took occasion to state that ex-Recorder Poirier and Mr. Recorder Dupuis had expressed views from the Bench in regard to the toleration of certain houses of prostitution, which were contrary to the constitution.

The proposal to increase the Recorders' salaries was rejected by an overwhelming vote, those who favored the motion being Messrs. Mousseau, Robillard, Walsh, Geoffrion and Plante.

Wants Autonomy for Montreal.

Mr. Prevost was on his feet again when approval was asked for the appointment of a special civic committee to make a complete revision of the city charter and by-laws. This proposal gave the member for Terrebonne an opportunity to re-echo his old protest against what he described as the farce of the annual revision of Montreal's charter by a committee of members of that Assembly many of whom knew absolutely nothing about Montreal and the city's needs. He submitted that it was high time that complete autonomy was accorded to Montreal.

The members listened patiently to Mr. Prevost's views and then agreed to the appointment of the civic charter revision committee whose special pay for the work will be fixed by the City Council.

There was a brief discussion on the clause which sought to ratify the contract between the city and the Lachine, Jacques Cartier and Maisonneuve Railway Company under which the company asked to be allowed to carry its line across certain streets in the city to a terminal on St. Catherine street.

The Bill proposed "that the company shall make level crossings only on Iberville and Harbor streets, with the approval of the Public Utilities Commission."

The amendment was adopted by 21 votes against 19.

Libraries and Juvenile Courts.

No opposition was offered to the Charter amendments authorizing the city to erect and maintain libraries, reading rooms, and public museums, to establish and maintain a municipal publicity bureau, "in order to make Montreal more advantageously known abroad"; to contribute to the establishment and maintenance of a Juvenile Court, as well as of a house of detention and industry for young offenders; to contribute to the expenses of a committee which may be appointed to make inquiries in connection with the establishment of a Metropolitan Parks Commission, and to pay, in addition to one-half of the cost of the expropriation of St. Antoine street, from Guy to Fulford, $32,092.29, representing one half of the indemnities awarded to certain proprietors who had built outside of the homologated line and chargeable to the owners of real estate situated on the north and south sides of St. Antoine street between Guy and Fulford aforesaid.

Bids Will Probably Be Called for Next Week.

Ottawa, May 18.—Specifications for the Quebec bridge are passing between the commission of engineers and the department, and as soon as they are printed tenders for the bridge will be called for.

This will probably be done next week. A considerable time will be allowed to put in bids owing to the magnitude of the work.

Judgment in Sherbrooke Cases.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sherbrooke, May 18.—Judge Demers gave judgment in an important case in the Superior Court this morning. The Dominion Paper Company sued B. Quinn, et al, for $1,368.54, the value of 623 cords of wood which the plaintiff alleged the defendant had retained from a drive on the Nicolet River.

The defendant denied the declamation, claiming that the wood had been separated, and allowed to go down stream. The Court held that the plaintiff failed to prove thatwoo d had not been separated, but the company was entitled to the cost of securing the wood tied up on the banks of the river. Judgment was given for $24.48, with costs.

Port Arthur Protests to Premier.

Port Arthur, May 18.—The City Council last night passed a strong resolution, addressed to Premiers Laurier and Whitney, protesting against the exportation of electrical power from Fort Frances to the United States side of the border line.

DAYLIGHT SAVING AT THE CITY HALL

The Board of Control has decided to take up a subject which has occupied much attention—that of the daylight saving.

"Heads of the various civic departments," said Controller Wanklyn today, "will be asked to report to the Board as to the feasibility of the daylight saving scheme being adopted in Montreal, so far as the civic service is concerned."

If the Controllers decided to adopt the system it would mean that the employes of the city would have to start work at eight o'clock instead of nine. Then, instead of stopping work at five p.m., they would quit at four. "So far as I am concerned," said Controller Wanklyn, "I would not object to being at the City Hall at eight in the morning. The Controllers will be guided entirely, in regard to this contemplated new move, by the reports of the various heads of departments. The plan would only be in force during four months of the year, May, June, July and August. During these months the daylight is the longest."

FOURTEEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF SEVEN BOILERS

Terrible Disaster at American Sheet and Tin Plate Company's Plant, Canton.

Canton, O., May 18.—State officials arrived from Columbus to-day and began an investigation into the explosion of seven boilers at the plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company yesterday afternoon, resulting in the death of fourteen men and the injury to a score or more. Although it is believed that no more bodies will be found a careful search of the ruins is in progress. At the hospitals physicians say that several of the seriously injured may die.

The cause of the explosion is at present unknown. The fireman and engineer, who were in the boiler room, are dead. No one else who survived the accident can give an explanation.

The force of the concussion was terrific. The big plant is in such a state of ruin as to be practically a total loss. A mere eggshell of the building is left. Identification of the men was difficult because many of them were so mutilated that even their most intimate friends could not recognize the features. Heads were blown from several bodies. Arms and legs were torn from the trunks. Fragments of bodies were blown several squares from the scene and bits of human flesh have been picked up on porches and roofs of houses and in trees.

The body of one man, unknown, was blown through a house over 700 feet from the plant. The body entered the house from the east side and continued in a straight line through a bedroom and out the other side of the house to Louis avenue. The torso of another man was found in the garden of a yard about five hundred feet west of the scene. Arms, legs and parts of bodies were strewn about the neighborhood.

The bodies of seven men, mutilated beyond recognition, were found in the north end of the mill.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, May 18.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared to-day that all plans for the Quebec terminals of the National Transcontinental Railway are now ready. As the appropriation has been voted, all that now remains is the selection and acquisition of the necessary sites.

It is expected that the present site of the Champlain Market will be chosen for the terminals. It is also anticipated that the workshops for the Transcontinental will be erected in this city, as well as a large freight station at Point-a-Carcy.

Shawville Authorities Rebuked.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Bryson, Que., May 18.—The feature of the Murphy trial yesterday was the strong rebuke addressed to a witness, the Mayor of Shawville, following the latter's evidence in which he stated that the town had no policeman at the time of the tragedy.

The Crown Prosecutor stated that he would bring the matter to the attention of the Attorney-General.

AN OPPONENT OF RECIPROCITY SAYS AN ONTARIO, M.P.

Major Currie Would Not Consider Such a Treaty Between Canada and the United States.

"The day for reciprocity with the United States has gone by. Fifteen or twenty years ago, before we established our British and European trade connection, it might have been of some benefit to us. Now it would be fatal for us to turn over our fiscal arrangements to any country."

So spoke Major J. A. Currie, M.P., at the Windsor Hotel this morning, in discussing the recent activity in the United States, in favor of reciprocal trade relations with Canada.

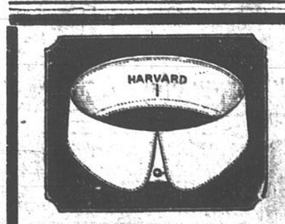

Major Currie represents North Simcoe in the House of Commons. He is one of the most aggressive Conservative members in the House, and is generally regarded at Ottawa as having a keen appreciation of the public opinion of his section of the country.

"The United States," he went on, "has everything to gain and nothing to lose by a reciprocity treaty. The Americans want our resources, our raw materials, and they want our markets.

"We should not tie up to the United States in any form commercially for this very reason, and I am of the opinion that our customs tariff should be a high specific duty wall against the United States, that would prevent their dumping their farm and manufactured products in this country, when they have hard times and want ready money.

"If we had a stiff wall against them, before twenty years, the Eastern States would be clamoring for annexation to Canada."

RAW MILK IS THE GREAT SOURCE OF INFECTION FOR SCARLET FEVER, DIPHTHERIA, TUBERCULOSIS, ETC.

RAW milk is the great natural breeding place for the germs of malignant disease—all germ organisms literally fly to exposed milk—and breed faster there than in any other food you eat. ¶ Prolonged boiling will not make milk absolutely safe; the poisonous reactions produced by living bacteria may remain long after the latter have been killed. The safe way consists, not in making the milk pure, but in keeping it free from contagion. ¶ In the issue of Jan. 4th, 1904, of "Die Woche," the German weekly, Privy Councillor Prof. Von Behring, the noted specialist on consumption, said: "The longer I study the problems of a fight against tuberculosis, the more am I convinced that we have to begin with the babies; my studies with children show that cows' milk is the principal source of infection."

JERSEY CREAM BRAND EVAPORATED MILK

JERSEY CREAM Evaporated MILK right from cow to your table is guarded against contamination. Every possible precaution is taken to keep it as pure and clean as possible, while a complete sterilization process destroys any bacteria that may have existed.
This means that even should malignant germs be present in any fresh milk we receive—which is very improbable because of the care we use to safeguard our milk supply—they would be destroyed by our sterilizing process, and their power to injure would be neutralized. Therefore the normal bacteria which will develop in perfectly pure milk and cause lactic acid fermentation—that is, souring—with diarrhoeal results to the user, are completely exterminated.

Jersey Cream Brand Evaporated Milk is simply the purest and most wholesome milk imaginable, with two-thirds of the water driven out, then hermetically sealed and sterilized. Add water to Jersey Cream and it becomes normal milk—milk on which the cream will rise naturally. The Dominion Government's food experts place (total solids 27.96%; butter-fat, 8.05%) Jersey Cream higher than any other brand of unsweetened evaporated milk.
Feed Jersey Cream to YOUR baby. Jersey Cream lends itself to marvellously tasty milk dishes. For boiled rice or barley, for soup puree, for ice cream, as a sauce on puddings, jams and stewed fruits, for tea biscuits instead of butter—not to mention its use in tea and coffee, and on the youngster's porridge—Jersey Cream is unexcelled.
Remember to be sure to ask for JERSEY Cream by name—JERSEY Cream—and to look for the JERSEY cow on the label.

SPORTING VIEWS AND REVIEWS

If ever there was a place where silence is golden, it is on the baseball field, at least so far as conversation between players and umpire is concerned. In the game with which the Royals closed the tragedy of their opening home series, two players in as many minutes talked to their cost to the extent of ten dollars each. Their conversation per word cost them about as much as Colonel Roosevelt is paid for a big game article. No doubt the fines were deserved, but the umpire's judgments would be more impressive and carry more weight if they were delivered with greater dignity. They would then appear less like retaliation for a personal affront and more like the vindication of the majesty of the law. Yankee umpires would receive a lesson in judicial dignity if they sat through one forenoon's proceedings of the Recorder's Court.

It is feared that New Westminster was so easy for Vancouver that the ambition of the latter has been set on fire. They are thinking that if New Westminster can keep the cup out of the hands of the Montreals, they will have a chance of winning it at the end of the league series. Any way, the coast is said to be all stirred up over the matter, and the visit of the Montreal team is being looked forward to with more alarm than was even the comine of the comet.

HAS LONGBOAT BEEN VICTIM OF SHARPERS?

The Toronto News says:

Some people are asking, "Where and how is Tom Longboat?"

And if reports are true, it wouldn't be a bad idea for more than an inquisitive interest in the running redskin. Tom is peculiarly non-communicative because he is an Indian. And he isn't an experienced business man nor a capable financier. Which affords ground for sharp work at the Orandaga's expense, and hence the rumor.

It is whispered that Longboat has bought, or, rather, thinks he has bought, an "eight thousand dollar house." In fact, Tom says so himself.

Now, this is as much as his friends know. As the Indian and his wife manage their own affairs and say nothing, there isn't much chance of finding out the actual particulars. Anyway, when Tom left Tom Flanagan's roof and guidance one year ago, he had in his own name in the Imperial Bank vaults exactly $7,100. Most of this was coined in a few weeks. Since then Tom bought a neat cottage for $3,100, and has cleaned up a lot more cash on the track. Now it is said that the bank book shows a very small part of this amount opposite the name "Longboat," his own little cottage has a "For Sale" sign on it, there are no papers to show for a recent eight thousand dollar purchase, and the Indian's friends are wondering what it all means.

CHALLENGER MAY BE CALLED "CANADIAN"

The new Seawanhaka cup challenger will probably be known as the "Canadian."

That seems to be the name most favored, although, of course, nothing can be done in the matter without the consent of Mr. Mackay Edgar, the owner.

"Canadian" and "Dominion" are the two names favored, but as there has been a "Dominion" and never a Canadian, although there has been in the larger kind of craft a "Canada."

"Canadian" seems the name most likely.

The sensation caused by the successful Dominion will be remembered by most local sailors. How her design was objected to and how she outdistanced all the others, and finally won.

The news announced in The Star some time ago that Mr. Duggan, from whose brain the idea of the wonderful Dominion originated, will help in tuning up the new challenger, has been corroborated. He will probably sail the Thorella as against Mr. Routh sailing the new boat in the trial races.

Messrs. "Desse" Brown and Johnny Brennan will handle the exhibition match on Saturday, when Toronto and Nationals meet at the National grounds.

LATEST NEWS FROM THE TRAINING CAMPS

San Francisco, Cal., May 18.—While the promoters are inclined to be reticent, it is definitely known that arrangements have been made to hold the Jeffries-Johnson fight in San Francisco. Rickard has secured the permit granted Jim Griffin for July, and the sanction to hold the fight will be ratified at Monday's meeting of the board of supervisers.

Gossips of fightdom are busy with all manner of aids to conversation, including Jeffries' new crop of hobs and the Los Angeles offer of $300,000 for the option on the Jeffries-Johnson ight.

On the subject last mentioned, Jack Gleason, the promoter, is inclined to be facetious.

"You know, the hot weather is coming on in Los Angeles now, and siestas in the afternoon are the correct caper," said Jack. "Who knows that before 5 o'clock some other fellow may roll over, wake up and offer us a million?"

"Tex Rickard is somewhat nettled by the reports that his name was suggested as referee merely to fill a temporary breach, and came out last night with a statement that he would referee the fight and would not give way to any man in the world.

"I wanted to know whether I would be satisfactory to Jeffries," said Rickard. "I have been assured that everything is all right, and now I am going to hold the job."

Jack Johnson did his usual road work yesterday, covering miles, and then played baseball in the afternoon. He will do his second stunt of sparring this afternoon. Persistent rumors have been afloat that Johnson would discharge Little as manager and take Billy Nolan, who was present at the referee conference on Monday, but Johnson flatly denied there was any truth in the report.

Jeffries will take another holiday today. He will automobile to Santa Cruz and spend the day at the Beach.

ZBYSCO WRESTLES HERE TO-NIGHT FOR LAST TIME.

The wrestling programme at Sohmer Park to-night, which will wind up the season here, should give the fans enough excitement to last for a long time.

Zbysco, the clever and powerful Polish mat artist, will meet Raoul de Rouen, for the third time, and as the Frenchman always does better in Montreal than in any other city, due to the encouragement he receives from his followers, he is likely to make a great stand against the aspirant for the championship title.

Preceding the main event, Fred. Lapointe, of this city, will meet Johnny Billiter, in a catch-as-catch-can match. If Lapointe defeats the American he will immediately challenge Tremblay to wrestle for the title.

LACROSSE NOTES

Eddie St. Pere is telling the National team that close attention to training is necessary if the team is to keep up a winning gait.

Toronto, May 18. — More than ordinary interest is attached to the city championship game, which will be played at Scarboro Beach on May 24th between the Tecumsehs and Torontos, because of the fact that the fixture will serve to introduce many newcomers to the local followers of the sport.

Invitations were issued yesterday by the president, Mr. W. E. Findlay, and the executive of the Montreal Lacrosse Club, for the opening game of the N. L. U. series.

There is very little chance now that Harris, the point player so badly wanted by the Tecumsehs, will join the team.

ASKED TO SEND IN ENTRIES.

Only Runners Who Hold Registration Cards Can Compete.

Clubs intending to compete in the Hemsley Cup race are asked to send in their entries as soon as possible, so as to facilitate the work of the officials.

Only runners who are entered in the Amateur Harrier Union, and who hold registration cards in the A.A.U. of Canada can compete. The runner's registration number is required to be shown before he is allowed to start in the race.

Rnuners who are under their 17th birthday are not allowed to run in the race.

A large number of valuable medals are being given for this race besides the team trophy, and as all the crack junior runners in the city are taking part, it is expected that there will be very close competition for these prizes.

BLACK IS AFTER PAL MOORE.

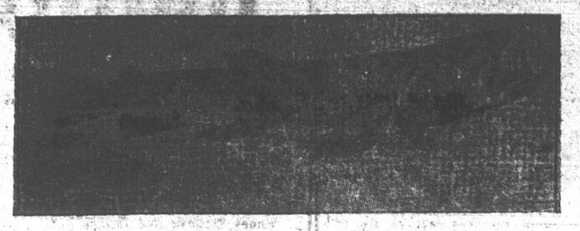

Will Leave for New York to Arrange Bout.

Kid Black, a well known boxer who has won seventeen bouts and has yet to be downed, will leave Montreal this evening, for New York, where he hopes to arrange a bout with Pal Moore for the bantamweight honors. Black is twenty-five years old and although he weighs 120 pounds at present, it will only be a matter of a few days training to take off the required weight. A short time ago Kid Black received a letter from a well known promoter and was promised a chance at Moore if he would make the required weight. He feels confident that he can do this.

DUKE WILL NOT CHALLENGE.

Sutherland Rumors About America's Cup Denied.

London, May 18. — A special correspondent called at Stafford House this morning to inquire about the rumor printed in New York that the Duke of Sutherland would challenge for the America's Cup. The reply was that "it is just as likely that the stars will fall to the earth as that the Duke will issue such a challenge."

MR. E. H. BROWN THE CHOICE

Will Likely Be Elected the President of the M.A.A.A.

Following the custom of having the president serve a two years' terms, it is likely that the new directors of the M. A. A. A. will select Mr. E. Herb Brown as their head when the board holds its first meeting on Friday evening.

Three or four names have been mentioned in connection with the vice-presidency, but where the choice will fall will not be known until the directors come together Friday evening.

The chairmen of departments, at least some of them, will be named at Friday's meeting.

The position of chairman of one of the big departments is more important under the new regime than the old, and the association is fortunate just now in having a large number of capable workers from which to make a selection.

RUMOR OF NIGHT RIDES AT DELORIMIER

An incident happened at Delorimier Park Monday night that is causing a considerably worry to the horsemen, and the question now is, are there "night riders" in the camp?

"Bull" Cannon, the local owner of Autumn King, was the victim of what appears to be either a case of night or joy ride, and as a consequence his only meal ticket will be carefully guarded in future.

Mr. Cannon, before leaving his stable Monday night, gave a lot of attention to Autumn King, who looks like a good horse this year, giving him plenty of bedding and an extra blanket on account of the cold night. When going to the barn in the morning he noticed that the lock had been tampered with, and was surprised to find Autumn King untied and uncovered, and the fact that his horse wasn't as frisky as usual led him to believe his charge had been galloped more than is necessary for a horse in training.

It is hard to understand the motive of the affair, but Mr. Cannon is worried over the matter, and has reported it to the management, who will investigate, and every precaution will be taken to prevent any such stunts as made the Hamilton and Fort Erie tracks notorious last year.

Five horses from Toronto and four from Lexington arrived at the course yesterday, and the management are beginning to have a little trouble in placing them. Stall room is about taken up, and if there are many more to come they will have to find quarters elsewhere.

Jockeys A. Martin and Wrisben made a hit with the trainers yesterday, these two boys warming up and working any horses that came on the track. Young Martin has ridden for James Robertson the past three seasons, and had the mount on Sally Preston the time she was made the medium of a big killing at Blue Bonnets.

Matthews, the boy from the New York courses, is reported to be an extra good rider, and will not want for mounts at the local track. The riding brigade will be much better than last year, only four of last year's riders being here now.

In spite of the rain quite a few horses were breezed this morning, and if the rain does not last too long, it will not hurt the going any.

NEW RECORD FOR CAMERON.

Made New Time in the Five Mile Race.

St. John, N.B., May 18.—Last night the Maritime indoor record for five miles was broken by Fred Cameron, of Amherst, in a race with Jim Corkery, of Toronto, and Ernie Sterling, of this city, in the Victoria Rink. The time for the race was 26 minutes and 24 1-5 seconds, which is 19 4-5 seconds faster than the Maritime indoor record made by Cameron at the Maritime championships in Halifax last year. The track was measured by an engineer, and later by the officials of the race. Cameron also came within an ace of breaking the indoor record for a mile, held by Ross, of Halifax, of 4 minutes and 40 seconds. Cameron's time for the first mile was 4.43 2-5.

MORE WESTMOUNT FOOTBALL TROUBLE

There is still trouble in the ranks of the Montreal and District Football Association. The latest team to cause trouble is Westmount, who, it is stated may drop out of football altogether. The Westmount players are again having trouble with the Westmount A.A.A., with which they are connected. The soccer men claim that the Westmount Association are trying to run things, and they strongly object to this.

There is also trouble over the paying of the membership fee, which the association declare all the players must pay to join the soccer club. The annual fee is $5, but the football players do not think it right that they should all pay this amount, and will ask the W.A.A.A. officials only to force the men who make the team to pay join the association.

The officers of the association, however, when spoken to, stated that they have heard nothing of the objection. The Westmount Club are also having trouble in securing enough players, and it is very probable that they will drop the game for the coming season.

LOCAL LACROSSE MEN.

St. Pere and Murphy Asked to Act in Toronto.

Two local men will handle the Tecumseh-Toronto city championship game at Scarboro Beach on the holiday. Ex-President St. Pere, of the N.L.U., and Peter Murphy, of the Shamrocks, have been asked to act. The former has accepted the invitation, but as yet nothing has been heard from the leader of the Irish contingent. If he is not at liberty to officiate, Tom O'Connell, also of the Shamrocks, may replace him. The game is expected to be a hummer.

FEAR STANLEY CUP MIGHT BE SEIZED

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 18.—Pat Doran's failure to put up a bond for the safety of the silverware; the reported trouble in the Wanderer camp, and the general unrest in the situation at Montreal, has brought about a queer state of affairs in connection with the Stanley Cup.

After the Wanderers had captured the trophy, the mug was sent to Messrs. Rosenthal & Sons, to have a new base, and also to be cleaned up a bit. This was speedily done, but three months have passed without the National League champions claiming their rightful trophy. It is not the fault of the trustees, they are patiently waiting for the depositing of the bond for the safety of the trophy, while the jewellers are ready to ship the mug at a few minutes' notice. The matter appears to rest with Mr. Doran and his officers, and from the present state of affairs, the mug will not go out of the hands of the trustees if the management of the Wanderers do not come forward with the necessary bond and claim the cup.

Two months ago the jewellers notified the trustees that the mug was ready for shipping, but when the latter heard of the rumored unrest in the Wanderer camp, they withheld their consent, waiting for the affair to blow over before the trophy was expressed to Montreal. Mr. Doran is being sued by some of his hockey stars for alleged bonuses, and it would be a queer state of affairs should the Stanley Cup be attached for back wages. However, such is not beyond the limit of possibilities and the local governors are not inclined to take any chances. The cup presents a different appearance now that the new base has been added to the mug, and small shields have been placed on the bottom rim for the names of the future winners of the mug.

Although the intrinsic value of the cup runs up into the thousands, the actual value of the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the championship of the world, could be covered with a $50 bill. The mug is only a pewter affair plated over, but it is the honor, and not the trophy, that counts with the hockey fans, the title instead of the cup being the drawing card.

Kennedy Will Persist.

Chicago, May 18.—It was announced that the Gotch-Zbysco wrestling match will positively be held here on Memorial Day. If unable to gain a permit through the courts it is stated that the bout will be put on at the old Harlem race rack, which is outside the city limits.

A FEW OFF-DAY BASEBALL THOUGHTS; THE LEAGUE'S HEAVY HITTERS

Life-like speaking portrait of E. R. Carrington, Esq.

There being no event on P. Powers' schedule yesterday, H. Smith's athletes went out to the ball yard and made a few put outs, assists and errors among themselves.

To-day, providing the tail of Mr. Halley's comet does not sweep up the grand stand, turnstiles, base lines, peanut garage and S. Litchenhein's other assets and liabilities, there will be a combat at the widely advertised hour of 4 p.m.

J. Collins, of Providence, R. I., is here in place of J. Dunn.

J. Collins once piloted the Boston Americans to a World's Championship but like all other heroes he fell off the perch and is now operating in the League for decayed athletes, i. e., Eastern.

J. Collins, in addition to managing the Providence team, collecting his percentage of the gate money and doing the worrying, plays base in his idle moments.

In the palmy days of his youth, J. Collins was a third-baser. He still holds down that job.

Interviewed at great length this A. M. J. Collins said that the team making the most runs will win to-day's game. From this the reader will note at a glance that J. Collins is strong on logic and knows the situation thoroughly.

By casting an eye or two at the work of art adorning this column the reader will no doubt observe a snapshot of one of the finely trained directors of the Montreal B. B. C., i. e., E. R. Carrington.

Mr. Carrington was caught in the act of sitting in Coop 23 at the top of the grand stand. Mr. Carrington is one of the few f. t. directors whose thoughts do not run in the direction of benzine wagons and deafening weskits.

He rarely eats peanuts, and apart from the fact that he is interested in the cultivation of whiskers, his conduct is beyond reproach.

The gent. with the loudest batting average in the League to date is J. Kelly, of Newark. Other leaders are: M. Grimshaw, J. Collins, J. Yeager, and an operator by the name of Noah Henline, who works for Buffalo.

Mr. Henline is a right fielder, and is hitting .309. Mr. Henline may not mind it, but if Mr. Henline had sensitive feelings he would go down to the lumber factory and let the buzz-saw amputate his name.

Providence has a pitcher named Martini. A catcher named Manhattan would complete the duet.

PROPOSED CANADIAN RACE TRACK MERGER

A gentleman well up in the business of running races, states that there is a plan quietly on foot to establish a tremendous merger of all the horse-racing tracks that are in any way fit for racing.

The principal movers in the business are certain gentlemen in Ontario, but it is hinted that if the matter turns out successfully, it will be found that Montreal backers are deeply interested in it also.

The merger, it is said, is to include some of the regulation tracks and all the half mile tracks that are any good throughout the country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, so that by cutting down expenses of transportation and advertising and printing, and having more meetings, the horse racing people will be able to reap even a richer harvest under the supposed restrictions of the Miller Bill than before there were any restrictions.

Mr. Colin Campbell, of the Montreal Jockey Club, when seen, announced that the local body is not connected with the movement.

TO HOLD ATHLETIC SMOKER.

Tom Sharkey Will Be Here Next Wednesday Evening.

The athletic smoker which was to have been given to Billy Armstrong some time ago, but which was postponed owing to the death of the King, will be held at the Highlanders' Armory, on Bleury street, next Wednesday evening, May 25th. The famous Tom Sharkey has wired that he will be here to box three rounds with Phil Kelly, the New York heavyweight. The event of the evening, however, is expected, when Jem Stockley, "The Fighting Sergeant," and Tom Davis, the big Welshman, come together.

In addition, several bouts between the M.A.A.A. crack boxers have been arranged.

SNAPPER GARRISON COMING TO MONTREAL

One of the best-known horsemen who will race at Blue Bonnets at the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club from Saturday, June 4th to 11th, is Mr. E. H. Garrison, better known to the racing world as "Snapper." Garrison has been so long in the limelight that it has become passe to him. "Snapper" first broke into the racing world as a rider thirty years ago, and it was through him that the expression "a garrison finish" first originated. He was famous for his judgment of pace, and seldom or never rode out in front forcing the pace.

Garrison always believed that it was better to wait for the finish, and it was through this that he won many races where he would have been otherwise beaten. About ten years ago he started in as an owner, and has since that time owned some classy horses. The best in his string to come to Blue Bonnets is Aunt Kate. This mare has won many handicaps for the one-time famous rider, and has been the bread-winner of the stable during the past winter.

Miss Popular is another with which Garrison won a lot of money. She was rested up all through the late fall, and won her first start this spring at Jacksonville.

Miss Popular won the race for gentlemen riders at Pimlico track at Baltimore this spring, ridden by Mr. Thomas Wright, and she is sure to be started in the events for gentlemen riders at Blue Bonnets. She has plenty of early speed, and can also go over a distance of ground.

While at Baltimore Garrison picked up a couple of first-class two-year-olds, Sir Chilton being probably the best of the lot. Garrison has taken up a new following recently, that of becoming a monologie artist. He started in the theatrical business in an amateur minstrel performance at Jacksonville last winter, and made such a hit that he was asked to sign contracts on the Keith circuit.

He gave his first professional performance at the Maryland Theatre, at Baltimore, during the meeting there, and was most successful. He has decided to follow this vocation from now on, and has been largely booked at all of the towns in which there is to be racing this season. If Garrison becomes as famous as an actor as he was as a rider, his future is assured.

He has not made any stake entries at Blue Bonnets, but from the known racing qualities of the horses now in his string, his colors are sure to be carried to the front in more than one event. This stable is being trained by James McLaughlin, Jr., who is fast following in the footsteps of his father as a trainer.

STOPPED BOUT IN SEVENTH.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, May 18.—The bout between Toni Caponi and Fred McLagan was stopped in the seventh round at the request of the police, and the decision awarded to Caponi by Referee Coleman. The local man, who stripped half a hundred heavier and towered above the Italian, was out matched all the way, and obliged to seek refuge in footwork and clinching and fouled continually. McLagan would have been knocked out, but for the fight being stopped. The decision was very popular with the big crowd.

MARY DAVIS WON THE CORONA HANDICAP

Belmont Park, May 18.—There was a fairly good crowd at Belmont Park yesterday. The Cretona Handicap, over the six furlongs straightaway course, was the feature of the card, and resulted in a very easy victory for Mary Davis. Besom, a fast sprinter, was considered to be good enough to win, but was beaten off at the end. Summaries:

First race, maiden 2-year-olds, colts, $400 added, 5 furlongs straight—Towton Field, 110, Garner, 3 to 1, won; Amalfi, 110, Greevy, 7 to 1, second; Feather Duster, 110, Butwell, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1.00. Royal Pennant, Hawley, Red Wine, Dartworth, Steve Baldwin and Tiny Tim finished as named.

Chicago, May 18.—Under the arbitrary handicap rating made public by the West Golf Association for the season of 1910, former amateur champion H. Chandler Egan, of Exmoor, occupied the scratch class all by himself.

BASEBALL NOTES

Fred Tenny will probably be carried throughout the season, even if he never rounds into shape to play first base for the Giants. He has proved an excellent coacher for third base—in fact, as good as Duke Farrell, of the Yankee's, last year.

In the eight games played this spring between John Ganzel's champion Rochester team and "Joe" McGinnity's Newark Indians, the official count showed a total attendance of 50,662, an average of 6332 for each game. Four successive games at Newark beginning April 21, attracted 25 124 persons, the opening day bringing out 9,359 and the closing day, Sunday, 8,908. Rochester's total for four games was 25,538, the largest crowd turning out on the opening day of the season at the home grounds. There were 16,501 persons present.

Sammy Frock, who twirled for Providence last season, pitched the Boston Nationals to victory against the Cubs. He allowed but three hits, and Chance's men were unable to score.

First Baseman Tom Jones, of the Detroit Tigers, will be unable to get in the game for some time. Jones will have to undergo another operation on his nose, which was injured in St. Louis a few weeks ago. This will mean that Lathers will not be here this week.

BECKENDORF FOR TORONTO.

New Deal With Detroit for a Catcher for the Maple Leafs.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., May 18. — A deal hanging fire for the last month or so was finally but through last night by the Toronto Baseball Club, when Catcher Beckendorf was secured from Detroit. Beckendorf, who was drafted from Scranton two years ago by the Tigers, has been acting as third catcher during that period, but he must be some goods when both Washington and St. Louis Americans at first refused to waive on him, finally waivering when other influences were brought to bear upon them. Beckendorf caught only 15 games last year for Detroit, having a batting average of .235, while his fielding average was .957. The securing of Beckendorf fills up a bad gap in the ball club.

SPORTING NOTES

A short time ago the Montreal and District Amateur Cricket League decided that a new trophy, in the form of a cup, be obtained to be competed for, on the knock out system. This cup is now being made and will be ready in a short time. It will cost about $100.

CANDIDATE FOR NET OF THE CAPITALS

Ottawa, May 18.—Harry Nicholson, the husky goaltender of the Catholic Athletic Club, is the latest aspirant for the net guardianship of the Capitals, and Nick will be seen in a uniform at the Senator workout to-morrow night. When spoken to in regard to the failure of the famous Diamond Quinn to again show up, one of the Capital executive stated that the well known masseur expert was too high priced for the Senators at this stage of the game. Quinn, it is stated, wants $25 per game for the season, and as the Capitals are a little shy this summer, the veteran could not be accommodated.

Bowery Robertson expects Nicholson to make just as good a goal tender as Quinn, and with the experience he gained in the City league last year may prove a find. He is big enough to fill the nets almost, and proved a clever stop last year. Besides Nicholson, Clinton Benedict, who played one game with the Capitals last summer, will also be given an opportunity to show his ability in the nets, and the locals will rely on the juniors to fill the flags this year.

ENORMOUS CROWD PAST KING'S BIER

Black, Sinuous Line Seven Miles in Length Waiting Turn

Ten Thousand Gathered Before Dawn and Stood in Drenching Rain Till Doors Opened.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, May 18.—Such a crowd as had assembled in the vicinity of Westminster Hall at 4.30 this afternoon was never before approached in size, in London. A black, sinuous line nearly seven miles in length, after winding in and out of streets in the neighborhood of the Houses of Parliament, extended beyond Battersea Bridge. The line was four abreast and was growing at the rate of a hundred a minute. Three-quarters of those in line were women.

The latest arrivals must be prepared for four or five hours' wait before they gain admittance.

Hot sunshine succeeded the rain of this morning, and many women in the line fainted. It is estimated that over 150,000 had viewed the bier to-day up to 4.30 o'clock.

ALL CLASSES MINGLE IN UNIQUE GATHERING.

People began to gather about Westminster Hall, where the King's body is lying in state, shortly after it closed at ten o'clock last night, and began to form in line for the opening at six o'clock this morning. There were two hundred people in line at midnight and this number gradually increased until six, when the doors opened.

At this time there were ten thousand in line and they were nearly drenched to the skin, as rain had been falling steadily for hours. The early arrivals were mostly working people who had forfeited their night's rest. Later, all sorts of vehicles brought people of different classes. They came in everything imaginable, from private automobiles to goods waggons loaded with whole families. Fashionably dressed men and women took their places in line alongside poorly clad working girls and workmen in courduroy.

It so happened that many of the people might have saved themselves a weary, miserable vigil, for at nine o'clock in the morning there was no queue, and new arrivals were able to enter the hall without delay. But the line was soon formed again, and there was every prospect that it would exceed last night's, inasmuch as all London was apparently marching towards Westminster Hall for the purpose of passing King Edward's bier.

OVER 100,000 PASS THROUGH HALL.

The police, with tact and much patience, maintained order and kept the thousands moving steadily. The mourners entered at one end of the hall, double rows passing on either side of the catafalque and emerging at the opposite end of the building.

This morning's queue extended for miles, and was a strangely cosmopolitan throng. Every land and every color was represented. There was no class distinction. The laborer in corduroy touched elbows with the frock-coated West-ender. In to-day's files women appeared to predominate. By noon the total of those who had paid their meed of respect had passed the hundred thousand mark.

"WHOLLY UNMINDFUL OF THE PROCESSION.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, May 18.—Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of Colonel Roosevelt, was the innocent cause of considerable embarrassment yesterday, when she rode shrieking with laughter in the immediate vicinity of the procession accompanying King Edward's body from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall.

Miss Ethel grew tired of the solemn atmosphere of Dorchester House, the home of Ambassador Reid, and accepted the invitation of a caller to go riding in Rotten Row. She dug up a riding habit several sizes too large, which started both her and her friend to girlish laughing.

Their exuberance mounted higher during the ride, and it was not long until the girls, wholly unmindful of the solemn procession that they were approaching, had ridden almost up to the line of march.

Hundreds of people witnessing the procession heard peals of merriment and turned in surprise. Miss Ethel and her friend quickly realized their mistake and rode hastily away.

Route of Friday's Procession.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, May 18—After leaving Westminster Hall, at 10 a.m. on Friday, the cortege will proceed by way of Whitehall, the Horse Guards Parade, Pall Mall, Marlborough Gate, St. James street, Piccadilly, Hyde Park (east side), Edgware Road, Cambridge Terrace, London Road, and Praed street to Paddington station.

Royal Visitors Arriving.

London, May 18.—The arrival of a score of Royal personages with their suites to-day made the west end the scene of unusual animation. Buckingham Palace, where most of the members of the Royalty are staying; Marlborough House, still the residence of King George and Queen Mary; and other royal homes, opened their doors again and again throughout the day as calls of courtesy were exchanged.

THE PRINCIPLE OF DR. FINNIE'S SCHOOL BILL WAS ADOPTED

Legislation Commission Confines Its Operations to Delorimier and Laurier Schools.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Quebec, May 18.—Dr. Finnie's bill providing for the annexation to the Montreal Protestant School Commissioners of all schools in the recently annexed wards was dopted in principle by the Legislation Committee of the Lower House this morning, but it was decided that only Laurier and Delorimier schools should be annexed for the time being.

There was some slight opposition to the bill from Rev. Dr. Barclay, representing the Protestant School Commission, who said that educationally he was in favor of the bill, but that financially it would be a tremendous discouragement to the School Commissioners.

As against this, Dr. Finnie, on behalf of the new wards, argued that there was a unanimous demand on the part of thousands of Protestant families in the new wards for the same educational advantages that were enjoyed by the rest of Montreal. Sir Lomer Gouin supported the principle of the proposed annexation.

"Don't you think," he asked Dr. Barclay, "that you will have to annex these sooner or later. If there are financial difficulties, could you not find the necessary money?"

Serious Congestion Exists.

Rev. Dr. Barclay replied that although the Protestant Commission was rapidly building new schools, and enlarging those already built, there were at the present time forty-six school classes that could only be taught in the afternoon, owing to the existing congestion. Any additional financial obligations at the present time would be discouraging. Laurier Ward's School Commission alone would have a deficit of $9,000 and Delorimier a deficit of about $1,600.

"That is only a matter of $10,000," remarked Premier Gouin. "Do you mean to say that you cannot obtain $10,000 from the Protestant ratepayers of Montreal? Supposing you have a deficit, you could come to us and say that you need more taxes and you could get the power to impose them."

The preamble and first clauses of the bill were then adopted, but Mr. Cousineau raised objections on the part of St. Laurent, after which it was decided to make the bill apply only to Delorimier and Laurier Wards for the time being.

This was owing particularly to the fact that the bill, as it read, would provide for the annexation of school commissions in St Henri and Ste. Cunegonde, where the ratepayers were against it.

Rev. Dr. Barclay told the Premier that he was glad the problem had been solved satisfactorily, especially owing to the hopes held out by the Government that financial support would be secured if necessary.

"If you need the money, I suppose we will have to get it," said the Premier.

The bill will be amended to-morrow after which it will be adopted.

Messrs George Jeffrey and William King, of the Delorimier Commission, and Messrs. Henry Blatchford and George L. Lebeau, of Laurier Ward, were present to support the measure.

COURTS CLOSED BUT WRITS WILL ISSUE

Friday Not a Regular Holiday, So Public Business Must Go on as Usual.

Although not a judge sits on Friday, owing to the proclamation of the Dominion Government declaring that day a holiday, the Court House will be open and writs will be issued as usual. "The employes will be on duty," is the statement made officially to The Star this morning. Friday, it is claimed, is not a regular legal holiday, and business must proceed as usual. The hearing of cases will, however, be suspended during the day.

The Court of Appeal, now sitting in Montreal, will adjourn at the close of to-morrow's session till the 25th.

PORT HOPE, Ont. — Eliza Johnston, widow of the late John Brand, is dead, in her 90th year.

CARLETON PLACE SWEPT BY FIRE THIS MORNING

High Wind Fanned Flames and Damage to Extent of $200,000 Was Done.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Carleton Place, Ont., May 18.—A fire which started in McGonigal's butcher shop, Bridge street, in this town, shortly after midnight, from a cause unknown, and which was fanned by a strong south-westerly breeze, rapidly spread and caused damage estimated at fully $200,000. The best business section of the town is in ashes, the finest residential district has been gutted, and the handsome Zion Presbyterian Church, recently renovated at a cost of $20,000 is burned to the ground.

The disaster descended unexpectedly on this town, everything being peace and quietness in the early hours of the morning when the alarm was turned in. Shortly after the start of the fire it was seen that the local brigade were unable to cope with the flames alone, so a call for help was sent to Almonte, which town responded by sending down its fire engine, manned by a competent crew.

The latter, in addition to the two local engines, did their best to stop the spread of the fire, but to no avail, a high wind carrying cinders and burning embers in all directions. Had it not been for the wind, a great many of the residences would never have been endangered, as several of those destroyed are quite distant from the scene of the origin of the fire.

The lack of a waterworks system in the town was never more emphasized, as it is held by many that if the town had been equipped with one, a lot of destruction could have been prevented. Starting in McGonigal's the flames destroyed the adjoining store belonging to J. Fraser, and the Singleton block. The wind then swept the course of the fire along Beckwith street towards the C. P. R. tracks. Zion Church was one of the first buildings on this street to catch, and the magnificent edifice was soon the prey of the all-devouring flames. Its value was estimated at about $40,000, and nothing now remains but the ruins. From the church the fire leaped to the Masonic Hall, a flimsy structure which soon went. The beautiful new residence of the late James Gillis, valued at $15,000 then caught and was soon destroyed. In the rear of Zion Church the manse was on fire several times, but hopes are entertained that it may be saved. The roller rink went next, followed by the adjoining curling rink. Both were frame buildings, and burned quickly.

The residences of John F. Cram, F. McEwen, John McDonald, two belonging to E. Wilkie, one to J. Macleod, and the St. Andrew's Presbyterian manse (Rev. W. Monds) on this street were also destroyed.

Flames Sweeping the Town.

On Bridge street the fire cleaned out the corner and continued north on Albert street and then east on Beckwith street. The first place destroyed on Albert street was a frame dwelling occupied by James Walters. From here the flames leaped to the Masonic Hall, a brick structure, the ground floor of which was used by the Salvation Army barracks. The large two-storey frame building of the late Donald Macnab, on the corner of Albert and Beckwith street, went next and then the double tenement frame house adjacent east on Beckwith street. This building was owned by the Masonic Order, and occupied by D. G. Thomson and Stephen Stangel.

Next, on the south side of Beckwith street, the fine brick residence of Finlay McEwen, postmaster, with its contents, was destroyed. This was the last house burned east on Beckwith street.

Presbyterian Church Razed.

Meanwhile the Zion Presbyterian Church was burning. Less than fifteen minutes after the outbreak of the fire the sparks caught on the steeple even before intervening places were on fire. The blaze was too high for the water to reach, and gradually it was seen that the church was doomed. This was a splendid stone edifice with a handsome pipe organ and all appointments, including over five hundred dollars' worth of china and linen, and a fine library. This church was rebuilt only last year, at a cost of over $20,000. It was destroyed, and the manse, occupied by the pastor, Rev. A. A. Scott, also suffered great damage. The church was situated on the south-west corner of Albert street.

The fire from Bridge street spread north along Albert street to Beckwith. On the north-west corner of Bridge and Albert streets it caught the building occupied by Albert Lowe, liveryman, and owned by the Cram estate. A great fight was put up at this point, and the fire was prevented from spreading further along Bridge street, though the building repeatedly caught fire. On Bridge street there were, therefore, only a couple of buildings destroyed, the fire going north along Albert street to Beckwith.

A Whole Block Consumed.

An entire block bounded by Beckwith, Franklin, Judson and Albert streets was wiped out. On the east side of Judson street a frame dwelling on the corner of Franklin street is the only one in the block of five. Further east on Franklin street, Miss Cameron's house was destroyed. The Zion Church and manse were on Beckwith street, west of Albert.

Fire is Now Under Control.

So rapidly and in so many directions did the fire spread that it is impossible to give the sequence though the main path was almost due north, the direction of the wind.

The Singleton block, on Bridge street, where the fire started, is owned by Wm. Comrie, Chapleau. It was occupied by Cameron Bros., butchers, and Heber Singleton, hardware merchant and tinsmith. The fire went east on Bridge street over a vacant lot and destroyed the residence of John Fraser, owned by Findlay McEwen.

On Beckwith street the houses burned were those of Dr. Howard, A. T. Wilkie, E. A. Wilson, Mrs. Alex. Steele, drill shed and armory No. 2 Company, 43rd Regiment.

On Judson street, J. McFarlane, S. Dunfields, F. Gordon and J. A. Gallagher, R. Gordon and W. H. Hamilton's residences were burned.

On the east side of Judson street the properties destroyed were the houses of Peter McDonald and John McDonald, Ed Bradford and John McLeod, stables of S. Torrance and frame house of Miss S. Cameron.

The fire is now under control.

Enforce Insurance Tax.

The city has decided to enforce the payment of the one per cent. tax on earnings, which was placed some time ago on all insurance companies in the city. It is expected that from this source the city will get a revenue of $20,000. There are forty-eight fire insurance companies doing business in Montreal.

LIQUOR ISSUE AND WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE IN AUSTRALASIA

Visitor to Montreal Tells of Live Questions in the Commonwealth and New Zealand.

An unusual method of handling the licensing question was described to a representative of The Star this morning by Mr. H. S. Stewart, of Melbourne, Australia, who is a guest at the Place Viger Hotel. This method is through the medium of a commission with large powers, at the head of which sits a judge. There is no limit on the number of licenses which the commission may grant. That is left to its discretion, the guiding principle being the needs of the community.

This is the method by which the problem is handled in the State of Victoria, and Mr. Stewart, who has large investments in that section of the Australian Commonwealth, is of the opinion that it works very well. "The police," said he, "must approve of the grant of any license in the first place. Then a high standard of accommodation and character is demanded by the commission, who receive frequent reports from the police. The law is stringently enforced, and before the time comes round for the renewal of licenses, everyone knows what licenses are to be renewed."

But Mr. Stewart brings very favorable reports as well of the system of local option in New Zealand. Large sections of that Dominion, he states, are under local option. He visited New Zealand on his way to Canada and found that the local option laws were well enforced. "Of course," he said, "one hears that there are a good many people who get liquor in illicit ways and that in that manner the morale of the community is injured. But judging from my observation and inquiry, that evil is small compared with the benefit of the local option law."

Women Have the Suffrage.

Mr. Stewart explains the victory of the local option campaigns in New Zealand by the fact that women there have the suffrage. To the same influence he credits to a considerable degree the recent victory of the Labor party in Australia.

"My interest in politics," he said, "has for some years been only academic, but there are some things which one can see even from the outside. And the success of women's suffrage—as far as getting the women out to the polls is concerned—is one of them. They double the vote of the Labor party, and though the women of other classes go to the polls, too, the increase in the vote of the workingmen is naturally the larger."

In addition to women's suffrage, Mr. Stewart credited the Labor victory chiefly to the superior organization of that party. He does not, however, anticipate any radical change in the policy of the country as a result of the change in government. The Labor party would not, he thought, be able to carry out all its plans, but would be held in check by public opinion.

Mr. Stewart's visit to Canada is taken in search of health and pleasure. He sails for Great Britain on the Empress of Ireland on Friday.

MILITIA ORDERS CHANGED.

Through the courtesy of Principal Peterson of McGill University, the proclamation which was to have been read to the troops of the Montreal Garrison on the Champ de Mars before the memorial services to His late Majesty at the different churches will now be read on the campus of the university after the services. A general order to this effect is being sent out from headquarters to the brigadiers and commanding officers.

ROYAL ARCANUM SUPREME COUNCIL IN ANNUAL SESSION.

The Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum was formally opened this afternoon in the Ladies' Ordinary at the Windsor Hotel. The Council as a rule sits behind closed doors, but by special arrangement the public was admitted to the opening proceedings.

Promptly at half past two the Supreme Regent, Mr. Clovis H. Bowen, of St. Louis, took the chair, and called the meeting to order. After a few introductory remarks the Supreme Regent called upon Mr. J. B. Tresidder, Grand Regent, to welcome the delegates on behalf of the order in the Province of Quebec. Mr. Tresidder's words of welcome were brief, but hearty, and conveyed an enthusiastic greeting to the visiting brethren from all over the continent.

It was a day of welcomes. After the welcome from the brethren in Quebec, came the welfare from the city of Montreal. Mayor Guerin himself had expected to speak on behalf of the citizens, but was unable as he had already left for England to be present at the King's funeral. In the Mayor's absence Aldermen Leslie Boyd and U. H. Dandurand represented the city. Each spoke briefly and gave the visitors a hearty welcome to the city and promised better weather after the comet is past.

The Supreme Regent acknowledged the addresses of welcome on behalf of the Supreme Council, and declared the public session at an end. The Council then went into session behind closed doors, when the Supreme Regent presented his annual report. He congratulated the Council on a prosperous year. Both membership and finances, he said, showed healthy growth, and he was glad to be able to state that he had no legislation detrimental to the order to call to the attention of the Council.

RAILWAY COMPANIES UPHELD BY THE BOARD

The application by local interests that Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk tickets should be interchangeable on trains running between Toronto and Hamilton has been refused by the Railway Commission. The track between these two cities belongs to the Grand Trunk, but is also used by the Canadian Pacific, and according to the despatches it was stated that these two companies applied for their tickets to be made interchangeable. This is denied at the head offices of the companies, it being stated that both of them strenuously opposed the application, with the result that the Railway Commission upheld them.

AN UNFAIR RULE AGAINST RAILWAY ASSERTS OFFICIAL

Project of Lachine, Jacques Cartier and Maisonneuve Railway May Be Considerably Modified.

The decision of the Quebec Legislature not to allow any level crossings whatever in Montreal in connection with the proposed Lachine, Jacques Cartier, and Maisonneuve Railway, is looked on by those behind the project as rather an unfair stipulation, and one which will go far to wreck the scheme. The railway is one by which the Grand Trunk proposes to reach the east end of Montreal, where remarkable industrial growth is now going on. It is contended that it would be greatly to the advantage of manufacturers and residents in the west end to have their railway running from a station on the waterfront at Harbor street, and thence in a northerly direction to the Sault au Recollect road, to join the present Grand Trunk lines at Jacques Cartier Junction.

The company has proposed to cross some of the streets on the way by means of subways or bridges, and others on the level. The Private Bills Committee had ordered that level crossings should be allowed on Harbor and Iberville streets, and with these exceptions the scheme would probably have been feasible. The contention is that little public inconvenience would result from these crossings, the only people, for instance, interested in the portion of Harbor street proposed to be crossed being the railway itself and the gasworks. To make the system either overhead or underground at this point would, it is said, entail enormous engineering difficulties.

If the decision of the Legislature is persisted in, it is now declared to be probable that the scheme will be considerably modified, and instead of the railway being taken down to the important manufacturing and shipping district contiguous to the harbor front, the terminal will be made at a point considerably farther north.

This is the branch by which it was intended ultimately to give the Grand Trunk Pacific, as well as the Grand Trunk, access to the harbor front in the eastern part of Montreal.

Victorian Making Good Passage.

R. M. S. Victorian was reported 245 miles east of Cape Race at 2 p.m. today. She is due to reach Quebec at 2 a.m. on Friday, and Montreal Friday evening. Amongst other passengers on board the Victorian are: General Sir John French, General Henderson and Aide-de-Camp Major Watts. The Victorian sailed from Liverpool at 6 p.m. on Friday last, and was reported at 3 p.m. to-day. The Royal Edward sailed from Bristol at 6 p.m. Thursday last, and was reported at 6 p.m. yesterday. It is evident the Victorian is travelling faster than the other.

Fine Class of Immigrants.

It is reported by wireless from the Royal Edward that there is a particularly fine class of English-speaking immigrants on board of the Canadian Northern steamer. They are described as being "well fixed."

Groundings in Lake St. Louis.

There have been several groundings in Lake St. Louis recently, and at present a tug and three grain barges are ashore outside the northern edge of the channel opposite the Riverside Club's property. A steam freighter grounded on the canal sill, but was soon released, while two other steam craft touched coming through the lake. High winds are held responsible for the low water. Usually at this season there is high water in the lake, and pilots can take short cuts.

Damage to the Grampian.

Information from Quebec received by Mr. Andrew Allan indicates that the Grampian has a hole in the sheathing forward of No. 2 hold on the port side. At this point there is a well designed for drainage purposes, so that no water reached the hold. It has been impossible to make a proper investigation, but it is quite likely that the steamer will be fit to make a trip across so as to have proper repairs made on the Clyde.

Welland Canal Busy.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, May 18. — There has been unusual activity on the Welland Canal the last few days. Within twenty-four hours twenty boats went through. This indicates that the rate-cutting on the part of the American boats, who are bringing grain down from Fort William to Buffalo for a cent a bushel, has lost its fascination for some of the grain shippers.

Wreck on Lake Erie.

Windsor, Ont., May 18.—The wooden steamer Faustin, coal laden, from Toledo to Amherstburg, foundered a short distance off Bar Point light in Lake Erie late yesterday. The crew of twelve were taken off by a tug, which came from Amherstburg in response to the Faustin's signals for assistance.

Has Krooniand's Passengers.

Southampton, May 18.—The steamer Adriatic sailed for New York to-day, having on board the first class passengers transferred from the crippled Krooniand, which put in here on Monday. The Krooniand broke a shaft after sailing from Antwerp on Saturday.

SS. Royal Edward, Canadian Northern Line, was reported inward off Fame Point, at 7 a.m. to-day.

SS. Lakonia, Donaldson Line, from Glasgow for Montreal, was reported inward at Rather Point at 8.50 to-day.

Reported All Well.

SUBURBAN BURDENS A MENACE TO CITY DECLARES MR. ROBB

City Treasurer Shows How Montreal's Financial Standing is Lowered by Annexations.

City Treasurer Robb has prepared some figures showing that the finances of the city are seriously menaced by the astonishing burdens which the city is asked to bear by certain municipalities which have been annexed or desire annexation.

As an illustration as to how the finances will be affected, the case of the annexation of St. Louis is cited. In this one case alone the debt belonging to the place which had to be assumed by the city, reduced the borrowing power of the city by over one million and three quarters.

Commenting on this Mr. Robb says in his report:—

"Past experience has proven that many of these annexations prove a serious condition of affairs for the city. Take the most recent annexation St. Louis. Its debt is over $3,500,000, the interest cost of which is over $150,000, and its total revenue in the year of annexation was $173,000.

SOME STRIKING FIGURES.

"Its valuation roll that year approximated $12,000,000, admitting of a borrowing power of $1,800,000 so that debt of $3,500,000 on a borrowing power of $1,800,000 reduces the borrowing power of the city by $1,700,000, to say nothing of the fact that the maintenance of the ward (seeing all its revenue is required for interest) will make a big reduction of our current revenue.

"Instead of deigning to become part of the city on terms dictated by themselves, they ought to be given to understand that if they are to share its benefits they must also show that the benefit is mutual, and that they are to take their chances, similarly with all outlying suburbs, in the making of improvements as the city finds itself in a position to make them."

DELORIMIER MEET IS SANCTIONED BY ASSOCIATION

Half Mile Track Now Admitted to Privileges of Licensed Racing—Meet Begins Saturday.

The Montreal Driving Club to-day received the sanction of the Canadian Racing Association to hold a seven-day meet, commencing Saturday next and continuing until May 28.

A letter containing this information was received by Mr. A. Scott Ives, hon. secretary of the Montreal Club, from Mr. W. P. Fraser, secretary of the racing committee of the association, who writes that "they wish me to state that your coming meeting which you say will commence on Saturday, May 21st, to continue to May 28th, may take place, and that no horse, official, trainer or jockey will be outlawed for participating in this meeting."

The Montreal Driving Club is now in control of the property, known as Delorimier Park, which operated a half-mile track. In compliance with the desires of the new owners this meeting and all future ones will be carried out under a strict interpretation of the rules of the governing body. Of course, now that sanction for the coming meet has been granted, there is no doubt, but that the Fall meet will find the new club in the membership of the association.

The sanctioning of the track will give Montreal 14 days racing, the meet at Blue Bonnets following after. In the autumn it is probable that Delorimier will follow Blue Bonnets' dates again giving this city 14 racing days.

A number of horses now at Blue Bonnets will go over to the Montreal Driving Club to be raced there and, of course, a number of horses now at the other track will go over to Blue Bonnets for that meet.

Mr. Scott Ives to-day said that the meeting would be carried out in accordance with the approved rules, that none but competent and experienced officials would be in control.

He also said that a great deal of work had been done at the track and that the place had been thoroughly renovated. There is a new paddock and jockey house, and the paddock is said to be the best of its kind in America. He added that after the conclusion of the meet a big staff of men will be set at work to make even greater improvements.

A prominent officer of the Montreal Jockey Club when told about the letter received by Dr. Scott-Ives said:

"We know what is going on in this direction, having naturally been consulted like all the members of the Association. Delorimier is now simply on its trial, and the letter does not by any means mean that the black-list has been removed from horses or owners which have been offenders last year.

"The management of Delorimier will have to be very careful how their first meeting of the year is conducted."

CARTER BY-LAW NOT TO COME UP TILL JUNE 1

Ald. Carter was at the City Hall yesterday afternoon to have the acting-Mayor call a special meeting of the City Council for Thursday afternoon, May 26, when the early closing by-law, regarding saloons, could be taken up. Acting-Mayor Lamoureux said he could not very well assent to this date as he had learned that many of the aldermen would be leaving for Quebec, on May 25, to attend the session of the Legislature.

A special meeting will likely be called about June 1, when the first item on the order of the day will be the Carter by-law.

Under the State election laws, Democrats and Republicans joined in the primaries.

LOVE'S DREAM AWAKENED BY IRATE FATHER

Married Woman of 38 Runs Away With Boy of 16 From Ticonderoga

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer Names Given at Victoria Hotel Here, Where Pair Hide.

The picturesque village of Ticonderago, in Essex County, N.Y., situated on the stream connecting Lake Champlain and Lake George, has been linked with Montreal in history in days gone by, but the historic spot has just achieved new fame by sending up to this city a pair of ardent lovers and elopers, of amazing disparity of age. The romance is decidedly sensational, but unfortunately for the lovers, their spell of bliss was of brief duration and broken up by the rude and inexorable hand of the law.

Mrs. John M. C. Thomas is the wife of one of the prominent residents of Ticonderoga, who is general superintendent of the American Graphite Company of the place. The woman is 38 years of age and quite prepossessing, with a daughter at college and a son of 15 years of age at home. Unknown to her husband, it appears, she had been receiving attentions from Walter Chapleau, a boy of 16 years. Unable longer to remain without one another, they fled from Ticonderoga to Montreal.

Clue a Bit of Paper.

Just where they had gone to was a mystery, and the clue which led to its solution was a little sheet of paper sent from Montreal to Ticonderoga. The pair had come to Montreal and put up at the Victoria Hotel, a place near the Grand Trunk Railway station, and there their dream of bliss had its little day. Writing to his father, the boy used a sheet of the hotel's paper, but he carefully cut off the head of the name of the hotel. The old gentleman, however, immediately took steps to have the affair traced, and a clever piece of work followed. Attorney F. B. Wickes, of Ticonderoga, took up the case, and, accompanied by the boy's father and detectives, succeeded in locating the hotel from which the paper had emanated. At first the hotel people refused all information point blank, but the attorney was keen, and finally discovered the pair was in the hotel, and had registered as "Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer."

When the attorney entered the plainly furnished chamber he found the couple as happy as a pair of turtle doves, but agonized despair followed the appearance of the boy's father and the lawyer. The woman burst into tears and the youthful lover proclaimed undying devotion. These appeals fell on deaf ears, and the lad was taken away from the hotel. Several hours later, however, he gave the lawyer and the father the slip, and once more they found him with his lady-love in the same hotel. He was promptly taken in hand the second time, and was taken down to Ticonderoga by Attorney Wickes and the father on the Delaware and Hudson train last evening.

Speaking by long distance telephone to-day Mr. Thomas asked concerning the whereabouts of Mrs. Thomas, and the probability is she will have to explain matters before many hours are over. He also said that young Chapleau had arrived back at Ticonderoga, but declined to state whether or not he would take any legal proceedings against him.

Diet For Mental Work

Have you ever felt the necessity of it?

I am speaking to people who have a certain amount of brain work to do every day and are sometimes hampered in the exercise of thought by a heavy feeling after meals. This is well known.

Of course you ought to study your diet, eat moderately, and avoid all indigestible foods. The presence in the stomach of imperfectly digested nutriment impedes the function of the intellect, and it is advisable to have recourse to small and frequent supplies of easily digested food if you wish your mind to remain alert.

During long business hours, when you feel exhausted, try a piece of TOBLER'S Pure Swiss Milk Chocolate, which contains the three following elements: Pure Swiss Milk, pure crystallized sugar, and pure cocoa.

This combination is both palatable and nutritious, and it will not overload your stomach.

THREE RIVERS WILL REMAIN THREE RIVERS

Attempt to Designate Town Trois Rivieres in Future Defeated in Legislative Council.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, Quebec, May 18.—French and English-speaking members of the Uper House yesterday afternoon unanimously rejected a proposal that the historic city of Three Rivers should in future be legally known only by the the French name of "Trois Rivieres."

A clause to prohibit any translation of the words "City de Trois-Rivieres" was contained in the bill presented by the Three Rivers city council, the measure having previously been adopted in the Lower House without arousing any criticism.

It was only yesterday afternoon, when the bill was considered in detail by Committee of the Whole, presided over by Hon. Mr. Turner in the Upper House, that objections were voiced against any infringement of the dual language principle.

Hon. Mr. Perodeau, the Ministerial leader in the Upper House; Hon. Mr. Chapais, leader of the Opposition, and Hon. Mr. Gilman, all spoke against the clause, the French-speaking members being the first to voice objections.

On motion of Hon. Mr. DeBoucherville, former Conservative Premier of the province, the clause was rejected amid loud applause from the English-speaking members of the Council, who congratulated their fellow-members on the unanimous manner in which the proposal had been combated.

The rejection of the clause means that both "Three Rivers" and "Trois Rivieres" shall continue to remain the legal designation of the city. With this amendment, the Three Rivers bill will now be sent back to the Lower House, where supporters of the bill may attempt to have the clause re-inserted.

The clause which was killed read as follows:—

"The word 'city,' and the word 'corporation,' shall mean the city of Three-Rivers, and, as in the various acts of the Legislature and elsewhere, the city of Three-Rivers is designated in the French version thereof, under the name of 'City de Trois-Rivieres,' such designation shall be legal and the word 'Trois-Rivieres,' cannot, for all legal purposes, be translated into any language."

The Legislative Council will hold another discussion on a dual language issue when Mr. Lavergne's bill regarding the printing of public utility contracts in English and French comes up for final discussion.

BILLS PASSED AND TO BE DISCUSSED.

The folowing bills were finally adopted in the Upper House yesterday afternoon:

To incorporate the Laurentian Society for the Treatment and Control of Tuberculosis; to incorporate the General Trust Company; Regarding the Globenski Estate; to amend the charter of the town of Montcalm; regarding Donald Fraser and Sons; to incorporate the Jewish Synagogue Nurac Hoari; to incorporate the Synagogue Beth Israel of Lachine.

The following public bills which have been adoped in the Lower House were introduced in the Council and will be finally discussed this week:

The Act to repeal the extra tax of five per cent imposed on foreigners receiving legacies, etc. in the province.; the Act respecting working hours of women and children in cotton factories; the bill to incorporate the Suburban Tramway and Power Co.; the Beauharnois Power Company's bill; the bill to strike out the homologated line on Papineau avenue, Montreal, below Notre Dame street; the bills to incorporate the two Syrian Greek Orthodox churches of Montreal; and the Lapraire Common Bill.

Lock Tender Saved Sailor's Life.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, Ont., May 18. — As the steamer Fairmount was going through a Welland Canal lock yesterday, a young sailor started to climb down the vessel's side on a rope.

The rope broke, and the man was in imminent danger of being crushed between the steamer and stone side of the lock, when Lock Tender Cunningham, with great presence of mind, caught the sailor by the collar and pulled him out. The next second the hull crashed against the side of the lock.

THE EARTH'S PASSAGE THROUGH THE COMET'S TAIL.

The passage occurs on the night of Wednesday, May 18, beginning at 11.20 o'clock and ending about 1.20 o'clock Thursday morning, after which the comet will be visible in the evening instead of the morning. In the diagram the earth is moving from right to left, the comet from left to right. At their respective speeds of 18 and 25 miles a second they will pass each other at the joint rate of 43 miles a second. Two days after the passage of the comet's tail its head will be at its nearest to the earth, 14,300,000 miles. The comet's orbit is inclined to that of the earth at an angle of 18 degrees.

Scientists Do Not Agree About Effect of Comet

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cambridge, Mass., May 18.—Director E. C. Pickering, discussing Halley's comet this morning said:

"The only thing astronomers are worrying over now is that the earth will pass through the embrace of the comet without any effect at all, just as if it was an ordinary, everyday occurrence. For this reason astronomers are not showing the interest they should in the celestial visitor. The number of usual observations made on the comet are very few, the only real helpful ones being obtained at Lick and Yerkes Observatories.

MAY BE METEORIC SHOWERS.

Washington, D.C., May 18.—Although the earth's inhabitants will not know that they are passing through the tail of a comet, neither seeing it nor suffering any injurious results therefrom, beginning to-night about 11 o'clock and for four or five hours thereafter, they will be in the midst of the tail of Halley's comet. This estimate was given by Prof. Asaph Hall, of the Naval Observatory here. It is possible, he said, that there will be some meteoric showers, although he doubted it.

Its nearest approach to the earth having been made, the celestial wanderer, which comes this way but once every three-quarters of a century or so, will begin to recede. On Thursday, it is doubtful, according to Prof. Hall, if anybody will be able to see the comet; but on Friday night, if the weather is favorable, it should make a good showing.

THIS PROFESSOR NOT CERTAIN.

Amherst, Mass., May 18.—Prof. Todd, the Amherst College astronomer, watched all day in a vain attempt to get a midday glimpse of Halley's comet, but the celestial vagrant remained in obscurity. Prof. Todd said that his observation of the comet showed a tail that was measured up to 10 degrees in length, and supposedly exceeded that figure.

Prof. Todd said possibly the earth is even now in the tail of the comet, and it is possible that the earth will not pass through the tail at all.

NEGROES ARE ALARMED.

Alexandria, Va., May 18. —Halley's comet is doing more in Alexandria and the surrounding country in Virginia for the church than all the revivals and camp meetings have done for years past. The superstitious ones see nothing but dark forebodings in the comet's approach.

Never before in the annals of the colored churches in this part of Virginia have so many new members got the religious fever at one time.

As a result of the appearance on the sky of a large multi-colored circle around the sun, consternation was created among the negroes at work in the fields in Louisiana and Mississippi. The negroes stopped work and fell to crying and praying.

SAY COMET WILL BE VISIBLE.

Cambridge, Mass., May 18.—The great sweep of the tail of Halley's comet of 90 degrees, or the distance from the horizon to the zenith, as observed by Rev. Mr. Metcalf, at Taunton, and Prof. Whiting, at Wellesley College, leads the astronomers at the Harvard Observatory to predict that this portion of the comet will be visible to-day from 1 a.m. till dawn, provided on the other hand the weather is clear. The end of the tail should rise shortly after midnight to-night, and, with the moon setting about 2 a.m., early risers will have a chance of seeing a soft glow in the eastern skies for nearly an hour. The comet may be visible.

WANTED WAX FINGERS BUT MAYOR ASSURED HIM THEY WERE USELESS

Just before Mayor Guerin left for England, where he has gone to attend the King's funeral, he had experience new to him in the medical way.

A man called at his office and told him he wanted money to buy three wax fingers.

His Worship said he had never heard of wax fingers being very useful on living beings, and he doubted very much if they would be of the slightest use to a workingman who had to earn his living.

"I have the three fingers I want to wear in my pocket now," said the man, and they will do splendidly." He pulled the wax digits out of his pocket and laid them on the Mayor's desk.

The Mayor looked at them curiously and shook his head. "My good man," he said, "those fingers would break in no time. They would be absolutely useless to a man who has to earn his living by hard work."

The stranger insisted that wax fingers could be made most useful things; that they would not freeze, as his other fingers had done, and if given money to buy just what he wanted in wax he would be perfectly satisfied.

The stranger's arguments were not satisfactory and he was told to come back when he could think out a scheme where artificial fingers could be of more use. The man has promised to call upon the Mayor, with a new proposition, so soon as he returns from Europe.

REV. MR. GANTT INSTALLED IN CALVARY PASTORATE

The installation of the Rev. H. B. Gantt as pastor of Calvary Congregational Church took place last evening, the service being conducted by the Rev. Principal Hill, of the Congregational College.

In introducing the new pastor, Dr. Hill extended to him hearty wishes for success in his new sphere. The Rev. Mr. Gantt responded with an address in which he said he would endeavor to preach to their needs and serve the congregation in every way he could.

The new pastor was addressed by the Rev. F. E. Day, while the Rev. Mr. Unsworth addressed the congregation. The Rev. Hugh Pedley pronounced the benediction. A social gathering to welcome the minister was then held.

The Rev. Mr. Gantt is a graduate of Gammon Theological College, Georgia, and was pastor of St. John's Church, Brooklyn, for three years.

Dublin's Lord Mayor Installed.

At a special meeting of the Dublin Corporation, Mr. Michael Doyle was installed in office as Lord Mayor of Dublin for the ensuing year. A resolution condemning the Lord Lieutenant for passing over Alderman Farrell, whose name was first on the list submitted to him for the post of City High Sheriff, was adopted.

CANADIAN CHILDREN ACTORS SCORE SUCCESS BEFORE THEY OPEN TOUR

A few weeks ago Mrs. Simpson Hogg, an English lady, arrived in Montreal with the intention of collecting and training a number of children to appear in operatic productions much after the same style as the Pollard kiddies. It was uphill work but she stuck to her task and finally got the consent of parents or guardians to take control of about twenty boys and girls for a period of two years. The youngsters had, many of them never seen a stage when she took hold of them so that her task, in order to get anything like an aggregation fit to put before the public was a very big one. Last night, however, the Hogg Canadian Liliputian Company appeared before invited friends in the Auditorium Hall, Berthelet street, in "The Gondoliers." To say that the production was of unexpected excellence is to put it mildly. It was impossible to believe that the youngsters could have been brought to such a state of comparative perfection in so short a time. They start today on a two years' trip throughout Canada and a few United States centres. A governess goes with them so that their education will not be neglected. The names of the little Montreal artists are Amelia Murphy, Douglas Thompson, Chris. Ehlers, Jenny Tansley, Mary Condon, Gordon Barry, Violet Jackson, Victoria King, Margaret Tinsley, Violet Ross, Gladys Doudley, Dorothy Cockburn, Hazel Lewis, Agnes Tansley, Lillian Ehlers, Baby Grace, Agnes Tansley.

THE HYDRAULIC COMMISSION'S SCOPE ENLARGED

To Be Composed Entirely of Experts and Continue Investigations After Preliminary Report.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, Legislature, Quebec, May 18.—It was decided in the House yesterday afternoon to enlarge the scope of the Hydraulic Commission which will be appointed for the purpose of enquiring into conditions of running waters, lakes, dams, etc., of the province.

According to the Government's original bill, it was not specified that the new commission should be composed entirely of experts, and it was originally intended that the investigation should only extend for about a year and that a report should be completed by next session.

Mr. Bourassa claimed yesterday that such a proposal was altogether inadequate and the Government finally consented to have the commission composed entirely of experts. It is understood that after they have made their report on water-powers next session increased powers will be accorded to the commission. It was admitted that expert commissioners appointed to settle disputes regarding water-powers would fulfill a need that is being felt all over the province.

Messrs. Lavergne and Cousineau claimed yesterday that the Government's original bill simply proposed that a commission be hired to draw up a policy which the Cabinet Ministers should decide for themselves.

Mr. Tellier declared that the commission system had been abused by the Government and that no good had ever resulted from the commissioners appointed to investigate other matters.

Sir Lomer Gouin declared that the proposed commission, like those hitherto appointed, would render justice to the province. The Opposition should not be scandalized by a commission system such as was adopted in all Parliaments.

Would Have Inquiry Last Years.

Mr. Bourassa admitted that the principle of the Government's bill was a good one, but he said that the investigation was one which should last for years. He even believed that there ought to be a permanent hydraulic commission. If it was intended to have a proper inventory of the water-powers of the province, it was absurd to suppose that a commission which would not be composed entirely of experts could possibly finish their report by next session.

Hon. Mr. Allard replied that the intention of the Government was not to go as far as Mr. Bourassa suggested. For the present, they did not intend to have an inventory made of all the water-powers in the province. Perhaps later a permanent commission might be appointed. Meanwhile, the commission might start by locating lakes and places where more dams could be built.

On the suggestion of Mr. Bourassa, Sir Lomer Gouin and Mr. Allard finally decided to introduce an amendment by which the commission should be composed of three experts, probably two hydraulic experts and one authority on forestry.

Mr. Allard said afterwards that this would only be a step towards the appointment of a permanent commission.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie's revised bill to repeal the law which permits the imposition of taxes on issues of bonds, debentures, etc., was read a third time yesterday, the Opposition being satisfied with the extended scope of the bill.

To Reduce Companies' Deposits.

Mr. Mousseau introduced a bill yesterday to amend the law providing for a deposit of $25,000 from insurance companies. He proposes that the companies which do not issue policies for more than $500 should be obliged to deposit only $5,000, instead of $25,000.

At a meeting of the Legislation Committee held early in the afternoon, the bill to authorize the Catholic School Commission of Montreal to borrow an additional $300,000 for the construction of new schools, was unanimously adopted.

The bill to amend the Veterinary Surgeons' Act so as to allow veterinary surgeons to practice only within a radius of ten miles of their residence, was also adopted.

Mr. Perron's bills to remove congestion in the Montreal Court House were left on the Committee table, to be discussed later.

Non-Confidence Motion Defeated.

A motion of non-confidence was proposed by the Opposition as soon as the discussion on the Montreal Bill had been terminated.

Mr. Cousineau argued from the public accounts that $78,000 had been voted last session for farmers' clubs, whereas only $26,000 had been devoted to that purpose, the balance having been spent for other purposes without consulting the House, and had even been devoted to purposes foreign to agriculture.

The non-confidence motion was defeated on a party division. Mr. L. J. Langlois, the Labor member for St. Sauveur, voted with the Government; Mr. Godfroi Langlois, of Montreal, was absent from the House when the vote was taken.

The House afterward continued to sit in Committee of the Whole until 1 o'clock in the morning, several agricultural estimates being adopted.

SUIT OVER WILL SOLVES MYSTERY

Englishman Who Disappeared in 1838, Settled in St. Catharines and Became Wealthy.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, Ont., May 18. — "I am perfectly satisfied that the same hand which signed the marriage register in 1838, wrote the signature in Canada in 1862," remarked Sir Wm. Mulock, thus signifying his conviction that Charles Lobb, the wealthy collier who in 1855 mysteriously disappeared from his home in Lockwood, England, leaving a wife and five children behind, was the same man who came to St. Catharines about that time, became wealthy through investments in Pennsylvania oil fields, married a young man by whom he had several children, and died here in 1883, leaving valuable property in St. Catharines and Stamford township to them by his will.

The Charles Lobb in question married Fanny Atwood, in England, in 1838, and deserted her and her children in 1855. She and her two sons, Charles and John, now bring suit against the estate of the late Charles Lobb, for a proper disposition of the property.

The case was commenced here in the non-jury High Court before Sir William Mulock. The defendant is Charles G. Lobb, and he is represented by Eric Armour, of Toronto. H. H. Collier appeared for the English relatives.

Mr. Shaw, a handwriting expert, swore that in his opinion the signatures made in England and those in Canada were written by the one hand.

Depositions from a lot of old friends of Charles Lobb in England went to show that a photo taken of the St. Cahtarines man, taken here thirty years ago, was that of the missing collier.

Old residents of St. Catharines who knew Charles Lobb, testified that he was an Englishman and quite a sportsman, as the English Charles Lobb was.

NO SPECTACULAR ELEMENT IN SCENE AT WESTMINSTER

Solemn Tribute in Spirit of High Seriousness From Nation to Practical King.

London, May 18.—The most vivid of the impressions left by the solemn ceremony in Westminster Hall yesterday was the impression of its entirely English character.

A lying-in-State suggests elaborate ritual, sensuous music, clouds of incense, gorgeous vestments, everything calculated to stir the emotions. In Westminster Hall there was color and beauty and splendor, but there was no attempt to heighten the effect by appeals to the senses.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, in black and white, the plain service of prayer and praise, the simple order of the proceedings, all matched the quiet, gray nobility of the ancient walls which have served as the cradle of the Constitution and have seen so much of English history made.

This gathering of notables of the realm was a fitting prelude to the opportunity given to the populace of testifying their affectionate respect for King Edward VII. The King, the Lords, and the Commons, the three estates of the realm, met around the bier, not only to mourn— to clasp hands as it were in a fresh compact to serve their country. They displayed their eminently practical English nature by turning their faces rather towards the future than to the past. There was no exaggerated lamentation.

It was a splendid spectacle, yet without any effort toward the spectacular; a solemn tribute in a spirit of high seriousness, the tribute of a great nation to a King who showed his practical, unemotional nature, and who would not have wished to be mourned in any other way.

Royalties Arriving in London.

King Alfonso of Spain and King George of Greece, arrived in London last evening. Both were met at the station by King George, the Duke of Cornwall, the Duke of Connaught, and other royal personages. Prince Henry of Prussia also reached here last night to represent the German navy at the funeral. He was met by the Duke of Connaught.

Colonial Representation.

London, May 18.—For the first time at a great Imperial function in the Mother Country the dominions beyond the seas will be adequately represented at the funeral of King Edward on Friday. The Government have removed the rule. In the past the organizers of great ceremonial functions in the capital of the Empire have been apt to pay scant attention to representatives of self-governing colonies, and even now the secretaries of foreign legations take precedence over the secretaries of the oversea dominions. This condition of things, the Canadian Associated Press understands, will be altered in the future.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, May 18.—Canada will be represented in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, by Lord Strathcona, Hon. Messrs. Aylesworth, Fisher and Marcil, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Sir Daniel Macmillan, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, and the mayors of Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg. The following Canadian officers will march in the procession: Lieut.-Colonel J. H. Burland, Montreal; Major Thatcher, Ottawa; Major Saunders, Edmonton, and Major Campbell Stewart, Montreal.

RUDYARD KIPLING'S TRIBUTE TO THE KING.

London, May 18.—Rudyard Kipling has in this morning's Standard a poem, entitled "The Dead King," the argument of which is summed up in the line, "Our King asks nothing of any man more than our King himself has done." The concluding stanza is as follows:—

We accepted his toil as our right; none spared, none excused him.
When he was bowed by his burden his rest was refused him.
We troubled his age with our weakness, the blacker our shame.
When he heard that his people had need of him, straightway he came
To us. As he received so he gave, nothing grudged, naught denying.
Not e'en the last gasp of his breath when he strove for us, dying.
For our sakes without question he put from him all that he cherished.
Simply as any that served him he served, and he perished.
All that kings covet was his, and he flung it aside for us.
Simply as any that died in his service he died for us.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Favors School for the Blind.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star.

Sir,—I am glad that prominence is being given to the proposal that a School for the Blind would be a fitting memorial to our late King.

As a graduate of the Royal Normal College for the Blind, England, I had many opportunities of witnessing the personal interest shown by King Edward in the above-named institution. On many occasions the various entertainments given by the pupils were honored by the presence of Royalty, and often at garden fetes given by the King at his palaces the pupils of the Royal Normal College were requested to be present to give vocal selections. That His Majesty appreciated the work done for the blind was very recently shown by the conferring of Knighthood on Dr. Campbell, the blind American principal of the Royal Normal College.

One of my earliest memories is of the Prince of Wales (afterwards King Edward VII.) presiding at a concert given in St. James's Hall by the French blind of the Paris Institute, to show the British public what could be done by the blind, in the higher education of music. Hundreds of pupils from various schools for the blind were present.

A statue would undoubtedly be a splendid memorial, but why cannot there be another in the form of a school for the blind? Education means so much to the sightless. It enables them to take their part in the battle of life with their more fortunate brothers and sisters. Occupation means so much to the blind—happiness, health, even sight, for when they are employed they forget their blindness.

There is hardly anything the blind cannot do if properly trained, and it is to be earnestly hoped that at this moment the spirit of true philanthropy and fraternal kindness will prevail to a degree never reached before, and that there will be no danger that the blind will be neglected and left unassisted, and their longing for independence, manly and womanly self-support.

PHILIP E. LAYTON.

Association to Aid Irish Music.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—I should like to draw the attention of the Irish people of Montreal to an organization in Dublin, Ireland, known as the "Feis Ceoil" Association.

This association was formed some years ago and has for its main objects:—1. To promote the study and cultivation of Irish music. 2. To collect and preserve by publication the old national airs of Ireland.

Every year there is held in Dublin a musical festival, consisting of competitions and concerts. These competitions are open to all bona fide residents in Ireland.

In the year 1897 there were 1,193 persons entered as competitors: 1899, 1,334 entries; 1902, 1,758; 1904, 2,070; 1907, 2,266, and in 1909, 2,305.

My object in drawing the attention of the Irish people of Montreal to this society is that if there are any of them who would care to become honorary members of the association, I should be very pleased to send forward their names to the registrar.

Needless to say the amount of expenses incurred every year is enormous. For adjudicators' fees alone last year the amount was upwards of $800, besides many other expenses incidental to an organization of its kind. The fourteenth annual festival was held last week, but I am not as yet in a position to give particulars as to its success.

The amount of money invested in prizes is also of considerable magnitude. In all the solo competitions, i.e., soprano, baritone, etc., wood and bass reed instruments, pianoforte, violin, etc., the first prize is a gold medal; 2nd prize, silver medal, and 3rd prize, bronze medal. These medals are all specially manufactured for the association, and are suitably inscribed with the badge of the association on one side and the name of the winner on the other.

Clock Tower for Memorial.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—In regard to some suitable memorial to our late King, I respectfully suggest that instead of a monument, which is so easily forgotten, except when we have our attention drawn to it by visitors, we should have something which is more than an inert mass of stone. Why not follow old England in her choice of Jubilee Memorials, by erecting a clock tower in the centre of the city (say, Sherbrooke street, with dials east, west north and south, with chimes of large bells. This could be illuminated at night and would be something which would be of use and a constant reminder of King Edward VII.

As regards a Music Hall or Art Gallery, let the western suburbs have it if they like. Westmount surely is of age to do something herself in the shape of a memorial, but the citizens of Montreal—French and English—would appreciate a memorial in the shape of a clock tower far better than art galleries, etc.

Telescopes for Mount Royal.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—Having read the remarks of one of your correspondents in last Saturday's Star in reference to the Incline Railway on Mount Royal, I think it would be an opportune time to suggest that the different "look-out" places on the mountain be equipped with telescopes. They would greatly add to the attractiveness of the place, making it very interesting for tourists and others, and I do not think it would cost very much. I visited a much smaller city than Montreal (in the United States), several years ago, and found its mountain "Summit House" well equipped with these instruments, although the view could not be compared to the one from Mount Royal.

"MONT ROYAL-ASCOPE."

Another View of Garbage Question.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star.

Sir,—I have seen several times in your paper of late letters and advice to use covered receptacles for garbage. I would like to ask these men who are giving this advice if they have tried the scheme themselves. The reason I ask is that if they have their income has been taxed to a fair sum. If all districts in the city are the same as the one in which I live the advice-givers would find that the only way to get a handsome covered garbage receptable back when they had once put it out was to sit on top of it with a shot gun and not go to sleep. If the city could guarantee to supply a receptacle for every one stolen there might be some possibility of making the covered can the rule.

SAUNDERS.

Endorses Dr. Barclay's Proposal.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star.

Sir,—It has afforded me great pleasure to note Dr. Barclay's suggestion with regard to a fitting memorial for our late beloved Sovereign. Every thinking citizen will agree with me that a living monument such as would have pleased His Majesty is the best thing.

Now, I am in a position to know that the King took the liveliest interest in the education of the blind. Nearly every English-speaking blind man in Montreal has received his education outside the city, and, therefore, an up-to-date and undenominational school for the English-speaking blind of the province of Quebec is a prime necessity, and undoubtedly the best place for it is Montreal.

There are very few walks in life wherein a blind man cannot be successful when properly trained, and it, therefore, becomes the duty of all to see that this class of the community gets a chance to become a help and credit to the country, instead of a draw-back and deficit, and, as Dr. Barclay has well said, "now is the time."

Is Comet's Tail Optical Illusion?

To the Editor of The Montreal Star.

Sir,—On May 18th the earth passes through the tail of Halley's comet—that is, through a beam of sunlight focused through the transparent body of the comet. What will happen? The same thing will happen as if one walked across the beam of light thrown by a strong searchlight, viz., Nothing.

The position of the so-called tail of Halley's comet in relation to the sun makes it absolutely impossible for the said tail to contain any substance whatever, either of gases or solid matter, as the tail's position is at about right angle to the course of travel pursued by the comet. Therefore, the poisonous gases discovered by astronomers in the tail of Halley's comet by spectral analysis are the spectrum contained by the main body of the comet acting as lens for the sunlight. "Wherefore, if, according to what I have already said, these facts should be proved true, candid posterity will not refuse to admit that these facts were not discovered by an Englishman."

SILVER COFFEE SERVICE FOR REV. A. J. DOULL.

A splendid tribute to the respect and affection in which the retiring rector of the Church of the Advent, Rev. A. J. Doull, is held in Montreal was paid last evening in Victoria Hall when many members of the church's congregation and city friends of the new Dean gathered to say farewell prior to his departure for Victoria, B.C.

On behalf of the congregation of the Church of the Advent, the people's warden, Mr. F. G. Mingay, presented Rev. Mr. Doull with a silver coffee service and congratulated him on his elevation to the Deanery, while expressing the sorrow of the congregation at his departure from the city.

Rev. Mr. Doull, in reply, stated that he felt it his duty to accept the call to the West, and assured his many friends in Montreal that he would ever treasure the handsome gift he had received and would always look with pleasure on the happy days he and Mrs. Doull had spent among them.

Rev. Mr. Doull will leave for Victoria to-morrow night to assume his new duties as Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, at Victoria.

"JUST LIKE PAPA"

Children Glad to Have Their Drink Like Their Parents.

More than any of the old folks realize, the little folks at the table like to have food and drink the same as Father and Mother.

Perhaps you can remember the time to and a sip from the cup that your when a fork-full of the meat or potaFather and Mother was using seemed to possess some remarkable merit and flavour.

If children can be given a strong, nourishing food drink such as Postum it satisfies their desire to have things like the older folks, and at the same time gives them a drink they love and fatten on.

A lady up in Oakes, N. D., says that since their family have been drinking Postum the children are stronger and better than ever before, and are so glad that they can have coffee to drink "just like papa."

The husband and father was taken sick with a very severe attack of stomach trouble and had to give up work, being confined to the house for some weeks, suffering greatly. For some time he had been in the habit of drinking coffee for breakfast, and tea for dinner and supper. The wife writes: "After reading some of your advertisements we wondered if coffee and tea had not been the cause of his sickness.

"We finally decided to have him quit tea and coffee and try Postum. He dates his recovery from the day he commenced to drink Postum, and has not had to stop work from sickness since then.

"Some years ago I tried a package of Postum and did not like it, but I know now that it was because I did not make it right. It is easy to make good Postum if the simple directions on the package are followed. The only failure is when people do not boil it long enough.

QUEBEC BOARD OF TRADE MET PREMIER AND COLLEAGUES

Disbanding and Reconstruction of Harbor Commission, With Experts Urged.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, May 18.—Both the members of the Council of the Board of Trade and the Harbor Commissioners had interviews yesterday afternoon with Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues first met the members of the Board of Trade Council, headed by their president, Mr. G. A. Vandry. These latter made several demands upon the Ministers, especially urging the construction of a large dry dock, and that the present Harbor Commission should be disbanded, and a new one nominated, composed of a few expert men, as in Montreal, who would devote themselves entirely to the interests of the port.

The immediate settlement of the question of the Transcontinental Railway terminals was urged as being of paramount importance, the other leading matters brought to the Ministers attention being the reconstruction of the Custom House and of the Citadel end of Dufferin Terrace, and also the establishment of bi-weekly Transatlantic mails. On all these points, the secretaries of the Ministers took exhaustive notes, and the Ministers themselves promised careful attention and due consideration of all the requests.

The members of the Harbor Commision were far from endorsing the recommendations of the Board of Trade regarding their own abolition, when interviewing the Premier and his colleagues after their talk with the Council of the Board, though one or two at least of the members of the Commission are partially in sympathy with the demands of the Council.

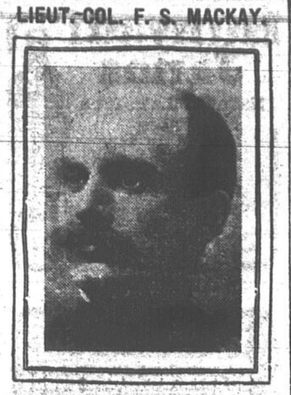

The extension of the harbor works at the mouth of the St. Charles River was the chief subject of discussion between Sir Wilfrid and the members of the Harbor Commission.

Protests Against Form of Service.

Vancouver, B.C., May 18.—"A jamboree, rather than a service," was the vigorous criticism made last night by Rev. Clifton Parker at Central Fairview Baptist Church, when he alluded to the public memorial service to mark the King's funeral day as arranged by Mayor Taylor, who is American-born and favors orators for the occasion.

The reverend gentleman held that the proposed service lacked in several respects the sacred character it should possess. "As a British subject, as a Christian gentleman, and as a citizen of Vancouver, I protest against these propositions," he said, impressively. "This is the only place in the British Empire where such a celebration will take place.

The arrangements provide for a public gathering at Recreation Park, where Judge McInnis will deliver an oration.

BELMONT HALL SOLD TO THE GREY NUNS

Corner of St. Lawrence Boulevard and Sherbrooke Street Brought Almost $3 a Foot.

The Molson property on the northwest corner of Sherbrooke and St. Lawrence Main streets was sold to-day by Mr. John W. Molson to the Grey Nuns for $135,000.

The property on which stands the famous "Belmont Hall" has a frontage of 300 feet on St. Lawrence Main street, a frontage of 166 feet on Sherbrooke street, and a third frontage on Milton street; it also extends to the homologated line of St. Charles Borromee street; the total area being about 50,000 square feet, with the large detached stone residence, "Belmont Hall." The price paid averages about $2.70 per square foot. The National Trust Company conducted the negotiations.

"Belmont Hall" is one of the historical landmarks of Montreal. It was built in 1816 by the late Thomas Torrance, and it was at that time known as "Torrance's Folly," as it was in the open country. The late Mr. Peter Redpath was one of the contractors who figured in the building of the house. In 1832 the Hon. John Molson purchased the building and land, and it has remained with the Molson family ever since. At the time the house was built Sherbrooke street was not in existence, but that section was looked upon as the country and called Cote au Barron.

Within the walls of this mansion were entertained the members of the British Association, among the number being Hon. Joseph Chamberlain. Before Canadian Federation the Governor of New Brunswick made his home at Belmont Hall with the Molson family, as did also the Governor of Nova Scotia, the Governor of Newfoundland, and Governor-General Monck.

In 1870 a grand ball was held in the building at which the Duke of Connaught was present. He was at that time attached to the rifle brigade encamped at Rosemount.

He was wounded in the fight at Poplar Grove, and again while serving with the West African Frontier Force in 1903.

WOMEN'S WORK AND WOMEN'S INTERESTS

MISS KATHERINE KAELRED, becoming well-known on the American stage.

All correspondence for this department should be addressed to Agnes Chesley.

A Policy of Education

In Norway the suffrage has been granted to all women over twenty-five and this wonderful mark of progress has been accomplished so quietly and unostentatiously that we of the New World have heard little about it. It would be of interest to learn from those who know more of the particulars of this step forward just to what it is due. Did the women have to struggle furiously for it or was it granted as a matter of course? The probability is that the body of women were anxious for it and that therefore the men gave it to them as a mere question of justice. In Australia, I am told by an Australian, the vote was given to women owing to the endeavors of the Labor Party who foresaw an added number of votes for themselves. And this has been justified by results, the working women and wives of workers voting in large numbers while the women of wealth and leisure largely refrain from exercising their privilege.

In this connection—the struggle of women for the vote and the restraining power of men—it is perhaps worth while deploring the attitude often taken of hostility towards men. One hears from some women, believers in votes for women, the most violent abuse of the other sex. They are rated as monsters and tyrants. This is a mistake. Anything that produces ill-feeling and an antagonism between the sexes should be avoided. What we need in this fight for the vote is a policy of education. We are all, men and women alike, creatures of custom and habit. For so many centuries woman has been the sheltered, unintellectual half of the family that it is impossible for many of slow mind to realize that the day has dawned when such a role is lowering and degrading for her to fill. Many men, and often clever and highly intellectual men, cling to the old notions that woman is a creature of inferior intellectual gifts and should not attempt to go beyond the sphere of home. One writer in this city actually said, in a series of preposterous articles on women, that we should all return to the days when woman span and brewed and sewed and attended to home duties all day without a thought of broader things. Such men should be taught that times have changed. The hands of the clock have moved forward. Today men and women are on a level intellectually and should be in every other way. And what of the women themselves? Do they not need the same education? Do they not need to be taught that life is something more than a succession of ordering dinners, new frocks, gossip, trivialities and entertainments? It is a difficult and almost a hopeless task but it has been done in other lands and perhaps will be done before long in countries where English is spoken. In the Motherland, the women are doing splendid work with their magazines, newspaper articles, and perpetual public speaking. The cause there is very much alive and perhaps from the Old Country before long an enlightening touch of the divine fire, aided by advanced women there, will reach to Canada. A. C.

Open the Windows.

Nothing is more common than fresh air. Nature has provided it in abundance for all who will take it. There is no one thing so potent to prevent disease, so effective in maintaining a healthy action of the whole body. Bad air spreads disease. Consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, and catarrh are bad-air diseases. Bad air, too, is a cause of colds.

Sewage flowing into pure water pollutes it. So the air we exhale from our lungs pollutes the air, in the room. The impure air from the lungs of any number of people in a room mixes with the pure air and makes it dangerous and unfit for breathing. There must be a supply of fresh air constantly coming in to take the place of the foul air which in all cases should be permitted to escape near the top of the room.

It is a law of nature that air is always in motion, and because this is true we have only to lower our windows a little from the top and to raise them a little from the bottom, and the process of ventilation will go on without our thought or care.

It is impossible to estimate the amount of misery and suffering caused by impure air. If you would escape see to it that you get at all times a plentiful supply of fresh air.

God named the flowers and bade each flower with care
Remember well the title that it bore.
The little flower with eyes of azure blue
Forgot, and, trembling, asked its name once more;
Then the great God replied, "Forget-me-not."

Ashamed, the little flower went away
And hid itself by quiet river bank,
Morning, in sorrow, its forgetfulness,
Under the bushes in the marshes dank,
It witnesseth God's word, "Forget-me-not."

A FASHION HINT.

A smart linen suit, in Russian style. The border trimming, combining eyelet embroidery with soutache braiding, is particularly interesting. With this smart little suit is shown one of the new draped turbans—a model of biscuit-colored straw, which is wound around the head, or, more accurately, the turban frame, one end of the straw being bordered with black velvet and thrust through a massive dull gilt buckle.

Women the World Over

Queen Mary.

There has never been a more popular member of the Royal family in England then our present Queen.

While they love her for her many virtues and graces, the English people have always been especially loyal to the "Princess May" because she is so thoroughly English herself, in birth, in training and in sentiment. She has always been a great devotee of outdoor sports, another attribute which has helped to endear her to the British heart. She is a capital rider and in her younger days was often seen in the saddle.

Mary of Teck—her full baptismal name is Victoria Mary Augusta Louisa Olga Pauline Claudine Agnes—was born at Kensington Palace, London, May 26, 1867, at one minute before midnight. Her parents were the Duke and Duchess of Teck, and she is descended on her mother's side from English royal stock and on her father's side is a direct descendant from King George II. Her mother, who died a few years since, was the daughter of Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, the seventh son of George III., whose father was Frederick, Prince of Wales, eldest son of George II. and Caroline of Anspach. The title of Teck comes from an old castle near the Danube, indicating the German strain in the family.

The early years of the future Queen's life were, for the most part, uneventful. At the age of sixteen or seventeen, after being educated largely at home, she was taken to Florence, Italy, where the entire family remained about eighteen months. It was in the Italian city that the young Princess enjoyed her first ball.

While in Italy Princess May became much interested in Italian art and had already given evidence of considerable musical talent. After being confirmed by the Bishop of St. Albans she attended her first drawing-room in 1886, and during the same season appeared at two state functions.

At the time of her marriage to Prince George she was a mature-looking young woman, above the medium height, of good figure, possessing considerable grace. In type she was distinctly Hanoverian—that is to say, profuse, fair, oval-faced, full-eyed, with a long, finely-shaped nose, just a little retrousse, generous mouth, somewhat heavy chin, and high cheek bones. Her mouth has a trick of curling up at the left side, which, with a look of suppressed merriment in her eyes in her younger days, gave her face a decided interest. In her carriage and dress she resembles the present Queen Dowager, though she is not so beautiful or distinguished as the latter.

Before her marriage she lived the life of the young English girl of high birth, though she was one degree removed from the more pronounced artificialities that surround the daughters of the then Prince of Wales. She, nevertheless, had a large share in the social and philanthropic ceremonies that go to make up the life of every member of the Royal family of England. It was because of her charitable works and her pleasing personality that she was so popular with the people.

In her childhood and youth she enjoyed all the comforts and luxuries that human skill could devise, though these had the simplicity that the finest and most luxerious things always have. From her many tutors she learned three languages in addition to her own, learned how to play well, to sing with taste, and to dance exceedingly well. Once a year she went to Paris to get her clothes. When not making a round of visits at country houses she was always with her mother at the White Lodge at Richmond. Since her marriage her career has been bound up with that of her husband, the new King.

Lines on the Neck.

Effie writes and says she has two lines on her neck caused by wearing high and stiff collars and now that low ones are worn she would like to know how to remove them.

Bathe the neck at night with warm water and a good soap. Then massage it with a good cold cream. And never wear any more high stiff collars. In time the lines will disappear. I saw cucumbers recommended for improving the throat. Peel the cucumbers and bind the outside peeling around the throat with a soft cloth, leaving on all night. Lemon juice is also whitening and softening, a little used after washing.

ANNE of AVONLEA

By L. M. MONTGOMERY

"But Miss Lavendar Lewis is hardly a spellbound princess," laughed Diana. 'She's an old maid . . . she's forty-five and quite gray, I've heard."

"Oh, that's only part of the spell," asserted Anne confidently. "At heart she's young and beautiful still . . . and if we only knew how to unloose the spell she would step forth radiant and fair again. But we don't know how . . . it's always and only the prince who knows that . . . and Miss Lavendar's prince hasn't come yet. Perhaps some fatal mischance has befallen him . . . though that's against the law of all fairy tales."

"I'm afraid he came long ago and went away again," said Diana. "They say she used to be engaged to Stephen Irving . . . Paul's father . . . when they were young. But they quarrelled and parted."

"Hush," warned Anne. "The door is open."

The girls paused in the porch under the tendrils of ivy and knocked at the open door. There was a patter of steps inside and a rather odd little personage presented herself . . . a girl of about fourteen, with a freckled face, a snub nose, a mouth so wide that it did really seem as if it stretched "from ear to ear," and two long braids of fair hair tied with two enormous bows of blue ribbon.

"Is Miss Lewis at home?" asked Diana.

"Yes, Ma'am. Come in, ma'am . . . this way, ma'am . . . and sit down, ma'am. I'll tell Miss Lavendar you're here, ma'am. She's upstairs, ma'am."

With this the small handmaiden whisked out of sight and the girls, left alone, looked about them with delighted eyes. The interior of this wonderful little house was quite as interesting as its exterior.

The room had a low ceiling and two square, small-paned windows, curtained with muslin frills. All the furnishings were old-fashioned, but so well and daintily kept that the effect was delicious. But it must be candidly admitted that the most attractive feature, to two healthy girls who had just tramped four miles through autumn air, was a table, set out with pale blue china and laden with delicacies, while little golden-hued ferns scattered over the cloth gave it what Anne would have termed "a festal air."

"Miss Lavendar must be expecting company to tea," she whispered. "There are six places set. But what a funny little girl she has. She looked like a messenger from pixy land. I suppose she could have told us the road, but I was curious to see Miss Lavendar. S . . . s . . . sh, she's coming."

And with that Miss Lavendar Lewis was standing in the doorway. The girls were so surprised that they forgot good manners and simply stared. They had unconsciously been expecting to see the usual type of elderly spinster as known to their experience . . . a rather angular personage, with prim gray hair and spectacles. Nothing more unlike Mis Lavendar could possibly be imagined.

She was a little lady with snow-white hair beautifully wavy and thick, and, carefully arranged in becoming puffs and coils. Beneath it was an almost girlish face, pink cheeked and sweet lipped, with big soft brown eyes and dimples . . . actually dimples. She wore a very dainty gown of cream muslin with pale-hued roses on it . . . a gown which would have seemed ridiculously juvenile on most women of her age, but which suited Miss Lavendar so perfectly that you never thought about it at all.

"Charlotta the Fourth says that you wished to see me," she said, in a voice that matched her appearance.

"We wanted to ask the right road to West Grafton," said Diana. "We are invited to tea at Mr. Kimball's, but we took the wrong path coming through the woods and came out to the base line instead of the West Grafton road. Do we take the right or left turning at your gate?"

"The left," said Miss Lavendar, with a hesitating glance at her tea-table. Then she exclaimed, as if in a sudden little burst of resolution.

"But oh, won't you stay and have tea with me? Please, do. Mr. Kimball's will have tea over before you get there. And Charlotta the Fourth and I will be so glad to have you"

Diana looked mute inquiry at Anne.

"We'd like to stay," said Anne promptly, for she had made up her mind that she wanted to know more of this surprising Miss Lavendar, "if it won't inconvenience you. But you are expecting other guests, aren't you?"

Miss Lavendar looked at her tea-table again, and blushed.

"I know you'll think me dreadfully foolish," she said, "I am foolish . . . and I'm ashamed of it when I'm found out, but never unless I am found out. I'm not expecting anybody . . . I was just pretending I was. You see, I was so lonely. I love company . . . that is, the right kind of company . . . but so few people ever come here because it is so far out of the way. Charlotta the Fourth was lonely too. So I just pretended I was going to have a tea-party. I cooked for it . . . and decorated the table for it . . . and set it with my mother's wedding china . . . and I dressed up for it."

Diana secretly thought Miss Lavendar quite as peculiar as report had pictured her. The idea of a woman of forty-five playing at having a tea-party, just as if she were a little girl!

But Anne of the shining eyes exclaimed joyfully.

"Oh, do you imagine things too?"

That "too" revealed a kindred spirit to Miss Lavendar.

"Yes, I do," she confessed, boldly. "Of course it's silly in anybody as old as I am. But what is the use of being an independent old maid if you can't be silly when you want to, and when it doesn't hurt anybody? Every person must have some compensations. I don't believe I could live at times if I didn't pretend things. I'm not often caught at it though, and Charlotta the Fourth never tells. But I'm glad to be caught to-day, for you have really come and I have tea all ready for you. Will you go up to the spare room and take off your hats? It's the white door at the head of the stairs. I must run out to the kitchen and see that Charlotta the Fourth isn't letting the tea boil. Charlotta the Fourth is a very good girl, but she will let the tea boil."

Miss Lavendar tripped off to the kitchen on hospitable thoughts intent and the girls found their way up to the spare room, an apartment as white as its door, lighted by the ivy-hung dormer window, and looking, as Anne said, like the place where happy dreams grew.

"This is quite an adventure, isn't it?" said Diana. "And isn't Miss Lavendar sweet, if she is a little odd? She doesn't look a bit like an old maid."

When they went down Miss Lavendar was carrying in the teapot, and behind her, looking vastly pleased, was Charlotta the Fourth, with a plate of hot biscuits.

"Now, you must tell me your names," said Miss Lavendar. "I'm so glad you are young girls. I love young girls. It's so easy to pretend I'm a girl myself when I'm with them. I do hate" . . . with a little grimace . . . . "to believe I'm old. Now who are you . . . . just for convenience' sake? Diana Barry? And Anne Shirley? May I pretend that I've known you for a hundred years and call you Anne and Diana right away?"

"You may," the girls said both together.

"Then just let's sit comfily down and eat everything," said Miss Lavendar happily. "Charlotta, you sit at the foot and help the chicken. It is so fortunate that I made the sponge cake and doughnuts. Of course, it was foolish to do it for imaginary guests. . . . I know Charlotta the Fourth thought so, didn't you, Charlotta? But you see how well it has turned out. Of course, they wouldn't have been wasted, for Charlotta the Fourth and I could have eaten them through time. But sponge cake is not a thing that improves with time."

That was a merry, and memorable meal; and when it was over they all went out to the garden, lying in the glamour of sunset.

"I do think you have the loveliest place here," said Diana, looking round her admiringly.

"Why do you call it Echo Lodge?" asked Anne.

"Charlotta," said Miss Lavendar, "go into the house and bring out the little tin horn that is hanging over the clock shelf."

Charlotta the Fourth skipped off and returned with the horn.

"Blow it, Charlotta," commanded Miss Lavendar.

Charlotta accordingly blew, a rather raucous, strident blast. There was a moment's stillness . . . and then from the woods over the river came a multitude of fairy echoes, sweet, elusive silvery, as if all the "horns of elfland" were blowing against the sunset. Anne and Diana exclaimed in delight.

"Now laugh, Charlotta . . . laugh loudly."

Charlotta, who would probably have obeyed if Miss Lavendar had told her to stand on her head, climbed upon the stone bench and laughed loud and heartily. Back come the echoes, as if a host of pixy people were mimicking her laughter in the purple woodlands and along the fir-fringed points.

"People always admire my echoes very much," said Miss Lavendar. "I love them myself. They are very good company . . . with a little pretending. On calm evenings Charlotta the Fourth and I often sit out here and amuse ourselves with them. Charlotta, take back the horn and hang it carefully in its place."

"Why do you call her Charlotta the Fourth?" asked Diana, who was bursting with curiosity on this point.

In a turbine steamer, the rhythmic thumping of the pistons disappears, and instead the engines give out a thin soprano song that rises or falls in key with the speed, sometimes suggesting a continuous squeal.

MAY MANTON PATTERNS 10c EACH.

Spring and Summer Catalogue. 700 Designs. 15c; by mail 20c.

A GRACEFUL SUMMER GOWN.

6647 Tucked Blouse. 6622 Tunic Skirt.

Summer gowns made with straight tunics are graceful and attractive and practical all in one, for they can be laundered with ease and with success, and at the same time they are smart in the extreme. This one is made with a pretty effective blouse that is tucked to form its own yoke. There is a plain gored upper portion of the skirt to which the gathered flounce is attached, and over this foundation the straight tunic is arranged. If liked the tunic can be gathered and drawn in as shown in the back view, and the skirt can be made with a train, but for the simple summer gown it is better made as illustrated. Any material that is thin enough to be tucked and gathered successfully is appropriate. The cotton mousselines are very lovely this season, cotton voile and cotton marquisette are having great vogue, and are equally desirable in plain colors and in figured, and there are a great many other suitable materials that might be mentioned. Bordered fabrics are much liked, and bordered marquisette made in this way would be as dainty and charming as could be imagined.

For the medium size the blouse will require 4¼ yards of material 24 inches wide, 2⅝ yards 32, or 2¼ yards 44 inches wide; for the tunic and flounce will be needed 7⅝ yards of material 24 or 32, 4⅞ yards 44 inches wide, and for the gored upper portion of the skirt will be required 3½ yards 24 or 27, 1¾ yards 36 inches wide; often this last can be made from plain lining material or lawn. For trimming the entire gown 10½ yards of banding will be needed. A May Manton pattern of the blouse, No. 6647, sizes 32 to 42 inches bust or of the skirt, No. 6622, sizes 22 to 30 inches waist, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on the receipt of ten cents for each, (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery.)

PLANS FOR Y.M.C.A. BUILDINGS APPROVED

Branches in Westmount and Fairmount and Ground Plan of Drummond St. Headquarters.

The proposed plans for the branch building of the Y. M. C. A. in Westmount and Fairmount were approved at a meeting of the Association last night, as were also the ground plans for the new headquarters on Drummond street. It was reported that Kanawana Lake, near Shawbridge has been taken over by the Association, and here a summer camp for boys will be opened.

Reports read by secretaries of branches showed that the work during the past year had met with much social and financial success. The educational work had been particularly successful, there being over 500 students in attendance.

Dean Adams, of McGill announced that almost one-half of the students of the University are members of the Association. The McGill Y. M. C. A. has rooming accommodation for seventy persons, and in addition to this a list of boarding houses is kept for the benefit of students.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. on the railways was spoken of by Principal Kneeland. Large telegraphy classes had been established and attention had been paid to the advancement of athletics. Mr. W. T. Wilson reported for the Fairmount branch, the chief points of which report was the increase in attendance. A summer camp is also to be established by this branch.

The directors chosen for the ensuing year are:—H. B. Ames, D. W. Ross, D. Bentley, J. W. Knox, G. H. Harrower, T. E. E. Macauley and W. A. Kneeland.

THOUSANDS FILE PAST REMAINS IN WESTMINSTER HALL

Spectacle of Immense Throng of Humble Londoners Waiting in Line Most Impressive.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, May 18.—Threatening clouds, which hung over the city during the procession yesterday, cleared off at 4 o'clock and the sun was shining when the public were admitted to the Hall. People began to line up in the streets near the Hall early in the morning, although they knew they would not be admitted before 4 o'clock. At 3 o'clock there was a line four abreast, which extended through the adjacent police-controlled streets for three miles, and was constantly increasing in length. The police estimated it to be five miles long, when working people began to join the line at 6 o'clock. It closed at 10 o'clock last night.

The spectacle of the immense, silent, patient throng of humble Londoners, men, women, and children, shuffling along, its head slowly disappearing into the Hall, was as impressive a tribute to the dead Sovereign as the more splendid cortege of the morning.

Newfoundland's Wreath.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, May 18—Premier and Lady Morris, of Newfoundland, were privileged to visit the Throne room prior to the removal of the remains of King Edward to Westminster Hall. They took with them an exquisite wreath of Calla lilies and English violets, inscribed, "In grateful remembrance, from Newfoundland, his oldest colony." The wreath was made under the personal supervision of Lady Morris. It will be the official tribute from Newfoundland.

The New Issue of Stamps.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, May 18.—The King has approved the design for the first postage stamps of his reign. These will include a half-cent stamp for Quebec, and a five-cent for Newfoundland.

King George V. Proclaimed at Ottawa.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 18.—The Ottawa garrison—cavalry, artillery, infantry and cadets—paraded at full strength on Cartier Square last night, when the proclamation of King George V. was read by Lt.-Col. Benson, D.O.C.

A Royal salute was given, along with three cheers for the King.

All arrangements have been made for the military display on Parliament Hill on Friday afternoon, and it promises to be of an imposing character. The day is to be generally observed in Ottawa as one of mourning. All of the leading places of business and all public offices will be closed.

In the business sections of the city nearly every building is draped and on the House of Commons the effect is particularly striking. In addition to the drapings running the length of the building, a huge white crown with a base of black and purple has been placed over the main entrance. Earl Grey and suite will attend the service at Christ Church Cathedral, while Sir Wilfrid Laurier will go to the Basilica.

An order has been issued in the Civil Service calling upon all employes to wear appropriate mourning till after the funeral of the King. It is being very generally observed.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Windsor, Ont., May 18.—A memorial service in honor of the late King Edward VII. is to be held here on Friday. The Detroit City Council will be represented.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, May 18.—An order has been issued changing the time of firing the Royal salue on Friday, from noon to sunset.

NO EXCUSE FOR UGLY FACES

Blotches, Red Noses and Pimples May Be Quickly Banished.

It is very easy, after all, to be rid of unsightly pimples, inflamed skin, blotches, red noses, hives, fever blisters and other blemishes, as a few applications of poslam, the new skin remedy, will quickly banish these troubles. Being naturally flesh-colored and containing no grease, poslam cannot be detected on the face in the daytime. The actual healing and curing process is accomplished readily and without inconvenience, the skin being restored to its natural color.

Poslam can be had of any pharmacist who handles pure drugs, particularly R. H. Bryson's and Quennevill & Guerin's. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the minor troubles mentioned, or in curing ordinary cases of eczema, for which disease it is the accepted specific. Itching stops at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, can secure by mail, free of charge, a supply sufficient to show overnight results in clearing the complexion or removing pimples.

TRY THE MONEY-BACK CURE FOR INDIGESTION

Nine times in ten stomach derangements are responsible for sallow complexion, dull eyes and thin body.

It is the stomach that supplies nourishing blood to the muscles, the nerves, and skin. If the stomach is healthy, plenty of nutritious matter will be absorbed by the blood. If it is not healthy, the food will ferment, and undigested will pass along through the bowels, furnishing so little nutritious matter that the blood becomes impoverished and the glow of health vanishes.

If you suffer from nervousness, sick headache, belching of gas, sour taste in the mouth, heaviness after eating, or any other miserable stomach disturbance, you need Mi-o-Na, and the sooner you get it the quicker you will be healthier and happier.

It will relieve any distressed stomach condition almost immediately. It will cure if used according to directions. R. H. Bryson sells it for 50 cents a large box, and he thinks enough of it to guarantee it to cure indigestion.

TORONTO AND HER "MACHINE."

If the plans of a political organization in Toronto can be carried into effect, that city will have the distinction of being practically alone among the cities of the American continent in deliberately "choosing the worse, while seeing the better way" of municipal government. At a meeting of the Central Association of the Conservative party last Saturday, the following resolution was adopted by a practically unanimous vote,: "Be it resolved that it would be beneficial to the municipal interests that all elections should be run on party lines." The meeting is said to have been a thoroughly representative one and attended by many citizens prominent in other than political activities.

Which is to say that, for the sake of drawing party lines a little tighter and sinking the foundations of the "organization" a little deeper in the political sub-soil, the local leaders of one of the two great national parties are preparing to construct a machine out of which they expect to grind, at one and the same time, municipal, provincial and federal policies, all cognate, all in the interests of the public and all for the benefit of the Conservative party. It will apparently matter nothing at all that the special interests of Ward Four, for example, of the city of Toronto have not and can never have any bearing on the question of how the Canadian navy shall be built; the choice of an alderman to deal with one must be in the same hands and for the same reasons that influence the selection of a member of Parliament to deal with the other. The selection of Controllers should, on its face, be determined by business ability and not by views on the tariff coupled with a conspicuous and well disciplined devotion to the interests of a party; the Central Conservative Association of Toronto thinks otherwise.

We may well afford to let all the credit for inaugurating in Canada the system of machine control of every form of public activity rest with Toronto. Government by "primaries" has been universally recognized by members of both parties in the United States as probably the one cause which contributed most to the misgovernment of American cities and which most effectively negatived all non-partizan efforts at reform—and the political history of the Republic shows few efforts which were not non-partisan. It naturally solidifies each party along the line of prejudice; the "machine" demands, and develops equally with its demands, a blind, unthinking support of its nominees. Adherence to principle and personal liberty of choice between two personalities have no place in this regime. An alderman is nominated, not because he is the best man available to care for the Ward's interests, but because his choice moves a cog which helps turn a wheel in the provincial machinery, which, in turn, bears upon the wonderful mechanicism of federal politics—and all for the greater glory of the party, which is to say of the "Boss" of the party. You cannot extend the machine system of politics down to the sub-division of the Wards without creating a Tammany-like horde of "Bosses," "District Leaders," "Lieutenants" and the score of other titular personages who are required to see that "things go right." If Toronto wants to govern itself by these methods, it is at perfect liberty to do so; though, for the sake of the reputation of the Dominion, it is regretable that this should be the case.

NO MORE LEVEL CROSSINGS.

Without reference to possibly exceptional cases, it is wise to lay down as a general principle that grade-crossings must cease to exist in Montreal as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made for doing away with them. One of the best ways of giving force to this idea is to see that no railroad receives permission to enter the city without pledging itself to make all its crossings either above or below the level of the city streets, which is exactly what was done in the Legislature yesterday when the clause of the Montreal bill dealing with the Lachine, Jacques Cartier and Maisonneuve Railway Company was saddled with an amendment which forbids any level crossings.

There is no advantage in going over the long list of casualties which have resulted from grade-crossings in this city during the past ten years. First of all, there is the salient fact to be taken into account that the best of human devices for preventing accidents at these points is far from perfect and that a watchman or a gate-keeper is as fallible as any other mere human being. Nor is it any defence of the system of open crossings to say that, in a large percentage of cases, the fault has large percentage of cases, the fault has been that of the injured person. Because a careless individual is willing to risk his life by darting under a barrier and across tracks in front of an approaching train is no legitimate excuse for the city's permitting him an opportunity of continuing to do so. Level-crossings are being or have been abolished as rapidly as circumstances permit in every city of consequence on this continent. At best, they represent emergency concessions to a public demand for immediate transportation facilities. This demand has ceased to exist with the conditions which gave rise to it but the level-crossings long survived it, a costly monument to industrial conditions of a generation ago. Like other anachronisms, it has taken time to arouse popular sentiment to an effective appreciation of the need for its abolition, but now that it has been aroused, it could scarcely be regarded as the part of wisdom to make it ineffective.

THE RECIPROCITY BOOM IN THE UNITED STATES.

The National Association of Manufacturers of the United States are meeting at the Waldorf Astoria, New York. The report of the Committee on Interstate Commerce has been read and adopted. Its references to proposed improved commercial relations with Canada are naive enough to be interesting and even amusing in the Dominion. It commences by saying:

Politically, our attitude toward the Canadians has varied through the whole range from the most effusive professions of kinship to the most pronounced hostility. Now the remedy for that, if we care for a remedy, is in our hands. If, along with a large and—we believe — growing number of our citizens, we heartily favor a more liberal policy and a more courteous attitude toward our neighbors across the border, because we thus advance our interests as much as theirs, there are several things that can be done in pursuance of suc a policy.

Our esteemed friends have evidently got around once more to the stage of effusive professions of friendship. The report declares reciprocity to be an unmixed good to the great majority on both sides of the line, obtained at no cost. It would be difficult to get the Canadian Manufacturers' Association or the Montreal Board of Trade to endorse this part of the report—or for that matter any other part. The report expresses admiration of the general activity of "those most enterprising neighbors of curs" in the canal building business, but suggests some important modifications in the Canadian programme. It says:

Coming to the practical consideration of how these Canadian projects ought to affect our country and our Manufacturers' Association, we recognize that the Minnesota region stands in a line of cheap and direct communication between it and the Atlantic seaboard. The entire world is more or less interested. The question, then, is well worth considering whether the United States would not gain far more than the outlay by contributing liberally for the construction of a deep water canal through this most suitable part of the province of Ontario and by admitting the Canadians to unrestricted use of the deep water route through New York State in return for equally free use of the Canadian canal by our merchant marine.

The report says nothing about suspending work on the Montreal Harbor improvements or the deepening of the St. Lawrence Channel, nor does it even hint at diverting the Canadian transcontinental railways to American ports. These things may form the basis of a subsequent report and no doubt will be taken up enthusiastically in Canada—"when all the seas gang dry." Meanwhile it must be admitted that the report is more than kin if less than kind to Canadian interests.

GOLDWIN SMITH ON THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

In his quiet life at The Grange, Goldwin Smith has lost none of his deep interest in the problems which are tasking the land of his birth. Nor has he lost anything of the suggestiveness or idiosyncracy of his intellect. He has always thought for himself, and now he has his own remedy for the crisis with which British statesmen are grappling. That remedy he sets forth in a letter to the London Spectator. He writes:—

"You are having a fierce attack on aristocracy. Aristocracy as an instrument of government, powerful in the Middle Ages as it may have been, now in a civilized country is dead. An element of it left in a new Upper House, as Lord Rosebery proposes, would, it is to be feared, provoke, and not unnaturally or unreasonably, a renewal of this jealousy and antipathy and of the evils to which they lead. Everything that the House did that was unpopular would be set down to the aristocratic element. Why should not the two branches of the Legislature, instead of being antagonistic, be united and co-operative? Why should not the Upper House be elected by the Lower House, not of course in the lump, which would only bring on a new set of troubles, but by filling each vacancy in the Upper House as it occurred? 'You surely might hope on the whole for a fair representation of worth and personal influence in the Upper House. Leading men of all the public services would of course be eligible whether they were members of Parliament or not."

We do not fancy that Dr. Smith's suggestion is likely to receive much attention in the swirl of the British constitutional crisis—now suspended by the universal sorrow over the death of King Edward. The chief reason is that the Peers would probably prefer the Asquith Veto; though we fancy that on the other side there would be a good deal of fear that the new Upper House would be too strong to be kept in second place in the constitutional machinery.

But that is not the phase of the matter which strikes us most forcibly in connection with the constitutional reform suggested by the Radical of The Grange. It is the curious parallel between the existing Canadian Senate and the Upper Chamber which Dr. Smith proposes. It is true that the Canadian Senate is not chosen by the House of Commons. But it is chosen by the cabinet, which accurately and effectively represents the will of the majority of that House. Now it may be that a British House of Commons would not always follow the dictates of the cabinet of the day in the choice of members of the Upper House. But we think that improbable. We would expect the choices in the long run to be the choices of the party having a majority in the Commons. The result, then, would be much the same as in Canada, where the Upper House represents nothing but the Governments of the present and of the past and where only for short periods is it any check upon the Lower Chamber.

Of course it may be that the periods of power would be shorter for each party in Britain than here, and in that way the balance of parties in the Upper House would not be so hard to overcome. But even that would only minimize the evil, which would hardly have a compensating advantage. It would merely mean that the periods during which the Upper House would automatically register the will of the Government would be longer. That would be the only probable difference from the Canadian situation.

CHANNEL IMPROVEMENT.

The accident to the Grampian a week ago, gave a serious turn to the thoughts of shipping and marine insurance men. Some eighty ships have arrived since the opening of navigation, and one of these goes ashore. One in twenty would be a serious percentage, a percentage which would kill the port, if it were kept up for the thousand ships which dock here in the navigation season.

But there is a silver lining to the cloud. For years past, as improvements have been made to the harbor and to the channel, accidents have become rarer and when they occur have not led to such great loss as in the days gone by. Last year, for example, there was but one accident above Quebec; when the Corinthian went ashore near Cap Charles, and that was not a very serious one. Like the Grampian, it was early in the season, and it is to be hoped that this season will duplicate the last in having a clean slate from now on.

There is another point about the accident to the Grampian, and that is that from the evidence given at the enquiry by the local authorities, it was as pure an accident as could well be imagined. The lights were all right, the buoys in their proper places and every care had been taken by the officers of the ship. It was such an accident as it is practically impossible to prevent in a long narrow channel like the St. Lawrence or any other river, and can happen only under exceptional circumstances, and at rare intervals.

When it is remembered that a few years ago it was not uncommon for several ships a year to be total, or almost total, losses in the St. Lawrence, the accident to the Grampian emphasizes the advance which has been made in the protection of shipping in the approaches to this port.

Alberta and Saskatchewan have decided that they cannot do better than renew, for another five-year period, their arrangement with the federal Government by which they secure the services of the Northwest Mounted Police. As long as there is police work to be done in districts far from civilization, the splendid force which has kept Canada peculiarly free from the ordinary border country crimes, will lack neither opportunities nor appreciation.

If there is no machinery by which the law can be worked for the protection of agricultural immigrants, the sooner some is evolved, the better it will be for Canada. To lure a particularly desirable class of settlers to this country only to have them robbed and swindled by dishonest farmers is not living up to either moral obligations or practical common-sense. Furthermore, it is especially unfair to the generality of the farming community who particularly desire to see this class of immigration encouraged.

Having nothing particularly to do yesterday, the Hon. Jean Prevost swung his oratorical cudgel two or three times at the heads, and at the pocket-books of the Honorable Recorders of the city of Montreal. Let the Hon. Jean beware! Our Recorders are at bottom, merely human and there is no appeal from their official decisions.

The German press has come to the conclusion that T. Roosevelt's erudition lies in his ability to be gravely platitudinous and monotonously commonplace. They should have lived next door to him for two presidential terms when erudition was the least of his assets.

THE INCIDENT—

Timid Boy—"P-p-please, sir, it wasn't me."

—AND THE SEQUEL.

Travelling Inspector (the same evening to his host, the squire of the village) — "Most amusing thing happened to-day. I was questioning the class, and asked a boy: 'Who wrote "Hamlet"?' and he answered tearfully: 'P-p-please, sir, it wasn't me.'"

Squire (after loud and prolonged laughter)—"Ha! ha! That's good; and I suppose the little devil had done it all the time."—The Tatler.

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The late John Poupore, M.P.

"The member for Pontiac, Mr. John Poupore, was in the city to-day in the interest of the possible railroad advancement of his district."—From The Montreal Star, May 18th, 1880.

THE late John Poupore, M.P., was born on the 10th of April, 1817, and died on the 12th July, 1896, having thus entered his eightieth year. He was elected to the old Province of Canada Government in 1863 for the County of Pontiac, and held that seat till Confederation, after which he was elected to the Quebec Legislature, where he sat till 1875, when he retired from active political life to make way for the late Hon. Ruggles Church, who formed part of the deBoucherville Government of that time as Treasurer. Mr. Poupore remained in private life till the general elections of 1878, when he defeated Thomas Murray, of Pembroke, for Pontiac for the House of Commons. He retired just before the general elections of 1882. As a representative Mr. Poupore was most attentive to the requirements of his constituents. During a year when flour was $15 per barrel, he distributed whole canoe-loads to his constituents along the Ottawa River, and often when his canoes reached his shanties but few barrels were left for his own use in his lumbering operations. This and similar acts of generosity justly entitled him to the cognomen of "Johnnie, the poor man's friend." In religion he was a Methodist, following his mother. With the exception of an only sister, the other members of the family followed his father, who was a French-Canadian Catholic. Mr. W. J. Poupore, of this city, a nephew and son-in-law, also sat in both the Quebec Legislature and House of Commons. He retired from public life some years ago.

"Since the departure from Egypt of Gordon Pasha, there has been a great revival of the slave trade on the Red Sea, owing to the apathy of the Egyptian Government."—From The Montreal Star, May 18th, 1880.

"The police report bad sidewalks in Guy street, and also in Stanley Street."—From The Montreal Star, May 18, 1880.

THIS question of sidewalks in the West End has been a subject of complaint for more than thirty years.

SPRING SALE OF

Bedding Plants, Hanging Baskets, Rustic Stands

It is the aim of the STORE OF SATISFACTION not only to reduce the cost of actual necessities but to bring within easy reach of the most modest purse, the bright and beautiful things that are wholly for pleasure—that is the motive back of this sale—it affords the opportunity of beautifying your garden plots, filling the window boxes of the city dweller—or making bright that hallowed spot where loved ones lie, without having to count the cost.

Why These Low Prices Are Possible

In the ordinary course of events florists and nursery men are only able to sell these bedding plants, etc., in small lots to individuals which entails extra expense and trouble—there is always a possibility too of having plants left on hand—these things have to be taken into consideration when prices are fixed. but we have bought 25,000 plants, and to distribute the entire lot in one day—are content with a small margin of profit—you reap the benefit of our business enterprise. A feature of this sale is worthy of special emphasis.

THESE PLANTS WILL BE SOLD IN SMALL WOODEN BOXES IN WHICH SEEDS WERE ORIGINALLY SOWN, AND COME PACKED IN ONE DOZEN AND ONE DOZEN AND A HALF IN A BOX. LOTS WILL NOT BE BROKEN.

All are of sturdy growth and well matured and need not be disturbed until you are ready to set them out for the summer. The following is a partial list of what may be had Thursday A.M.

RAILWAY HOLIDAY IN MEMORY OF THE LATE KING EDWARD

Every Train, Every Ship, Every Machine on C. P. R. Will Stop—Holiday on the G. T. R.

Special orders have been issued by both the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific for the observance of Friday as a day of mourning on the occasion of the King's funeral.

On the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific, the instructions issued by Mr. C. M. Hays, order the suspension of all work for the whole day in connection with operation of trains, etc., on the entire system so far as the business of the company will permit, the observance of May 20 to be the same as a Sunday, only such freight trains as are required to take care of perishable freight, live stock, etc., being run, and the passenger train service being reduced accordingly. The day will be observed as a holiday by the employes at the headquarters and other offices, and by the workmen in the Point St. Charles and other shops on the system.

All Work Suspended on C. P. R.

On the Canadian Pacific, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has given orders that at the hour fixed for the funeral servies and interment of the King work of every kind shall be suspended on the entire system for three minutes, not a wheel to be turned by the company's trains during that time, nor a propeller by the company's ships on lake or ocean. Every ship on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans that can be reached by wireless will have this instruction forwarded to it. According to the cablegrams which Sir Thomas received from England to-day, the funeral service will start at one p.m., Greenwich time, in England. This will correspond approximately to 9 a.m. Atlantic time in St. John, N.B., 8 a.m. Eastern time in Montreal, 7 a.m. Central time at Fort William and Winnipeg, 6 a.m. Mountain time in Calgary, and 5 a.m. Pacific time at Vancouver and Victoria.

Except for this three-minute cessation of work the train services will be the same as on an ordinary day, but no extra trains will be run. The general offices of the company will be closed for the day, and so also will the Angus shops, as well as the company's shops and offices all over the Dominion.

A Salute in Westmount.

Westmount Battery will fire a salute of 101 guns on Friday in conformity with orders received from the Militia Department. The men of the Battery will meet at the armory at 11 o'clock, attach ropes to the guns and drag them to Westmount Park, where at noon they will begin the salute. The Westmount Battery has four guns of the 18 lb. quick-firing type which are the newest model in use in the British service.

CANDY FACES CHARGE OF MURDER SHOWING NO TRACE OF EMOTION

Technical Plea of Not Guilty Put in by His Lawyer — Voluntary Statement May 26.

Manacled to two men charged with theft, Timothy Candy, held on the charge of killing Constables Fortin and O'Connell, was brought from the jail this morning to the enquete court, where the preliminary evidence for the prosecution was taken.

When he was ushered into the court room Candy was complacently chewing gum. He has apparently recovered from the nervousness which marked his first appearance there and seemed to have regained much of his healthy appearance during his week in jail. He had been shaved and wore a heavy black muffler about his neck. During the hearing of the evidence against him he leaned up against the rail, taking in the statements of the witnesses, but exhibiting no emotion.

He was formally charged with murder, and through his counsel entered a plea of not guilty.

Dr. McTaggart, the first witness, told of making a post mortem examination on the bodies of the dead policemen. He said that in the case of Constable Fortin death had resulted from a bullet wound in the brain. The shot had been fired at very close range, there being smoke marks on the temple of the deceased.

In the case of Constable O'Connell, said the witness, death had been caused by peritonitis and paralysis of the stomach, following upon a bullet which lodged in the stomach, this having produced the complications. Dr. Dugas, who made the autopsy with Dr. McTaggart, corroborated this evidence.

Detective Daniel McLaughlin, of the headquarters staff, said he had been present in court on the day Candy was arraigned. He heard the defendant on that occasion plead guilty to the charge of causing the deaths of Constables Fortin and O'Connell.

There was no further evidence taken. Voluntary statement of the defendant was set for the 26th instant.

Mr. J. C. Walsh, Crown Prosecutor, conducted the prosecution; Mr. Papineau Mathieu appearing on behalf of the defendant.

Concert is Postponed.

The MacVicar Church choir concert which was to have been held in St. Louis Town Hall to-morrow, has been postponed for a week on account of the death of the King.

Often Exhausted

When Spring Came On, But Never Since Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. A. Hopkins, 225 East Ragle St., East Boston, Mass., writes: "Years ago I learned what a good medicine Hood's Sarsaparilla is. When spring came on I was thoroughly exhausted and obliged to take my bed. I thought I would rather die than be so tired. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before long was perfectly well. Since then spring has never come without my having Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Loggieville, N.B., Jan. 18, 1909.

I have worn the Lindman Truss for about two years, and I find it a good Truss. I cannot get along without it. I am about cured of my rupture, but I would not try to do without it yet for a while. I have recommended the Lindman Truss to many as the best Truss that is made, and will be very glad to help in any way to advertise it. Francis Manderson.

COMET: Delighted to see you again—still supreme I see — AND HOW YOU'VE GROWN!

HALLEY'S COMET

is very much in the air these days, and

JAMES STRACHAN'S BREAD

is very much on the table. Is it on yours? It should be there, at every meal or you are missing something, and something good, too.

It is LIKE THE COMET in TWO RESPECTS

It soars far above everything else

AND

It has a tale.

A tale of upwards of one hundred years' growing popularity, increased sales, and unrivalled excellence. In short, it is

The Loaf of Lusciousness

The Comet and Strachan's are old acquaintances. Seventy-five years ago, when Halley's pet last came along, we were busy making bread and we are still here to-day, going stronger than ever and turning out a better loaf every day.

Rumor Street Railway's Capital May be $15,000,000--Call Money is Tight

RATHER EASIER TONE TO THE MARKET AGAIN

When Halley's comet passes through us to-day, it will view (if comets can view) a very quiet stock market.

London came over a little easier again, and there was a pretty general shading of prices both here and in Wall Street.

Crop reports were rather satisfactory, and wheat was a little easier.

Locally the money tightness has been an effective dampener upon the market, as it has discouraged a disposition to "start something," as they say in the classics.

Quebec Railway was stronger at the close, seeing up to 44¾.

Detroit United worked easier, selling at 39½.

"Soo" and C. P. R. held fairly well.

In Wall Street

A wire said: "Traders were bearish, and commission houses, having failed to induce their customers to embrace the bull side, and feeling that it would be impossible to get up a buying movement at present, showed an inclination to urge realizing on all strong spots. Efforts were made to discredit reports of financing abroad.

"The metal stocks were inclined to heaviness, being affected by the setback suffered by Rio Tinto in London, and by the fact that the short interest in Amalgamated and Smelters was driven in last week.

"Among specialties, Chicago Great Western was one of the strongest and American Cotton Oil one of the weakest."

Sales to noon were 135,000 shares.

The regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. has been declared on Traders' Bank stock, payable July 2.

AN INTERESTING RUMOR ABOUT STREET STOCK

It was rumored around the "Street" to-day that it is on the cards to reorganize Montreal Street Railway.

It is said that one plan is to increase the capital to $15,000,000, giving the present shareholders 3 shares for every 2 they have now, and then reduce the dividend from 10 to 7 per cent.

This on the present selling basis would make the new shares 162.

Although this plan was pretty generally talked about to-day, a director of the road said that it was a new one to him.

It has been felt for some time past that there is something on foot in Street Railway circles altogether independent of the operations of the syndicate which recently purchased a lot of the stock, but no confirmation in regard to the current rumors was to be obtained.

EXPECT LOWER BANK RATE.

Arbitrage houses seem to expect a reduction in the Bank of England rate on Saturday.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

Dick Brothers — For the present the market gives promise of being nothing more or less than a trading affair, and we believe it would be advisable to take profits on any hard spots, as the opportunity to re-purchase will present itself.

Miller & Co. — The market is entirely professional; bull interests seem to feel that no decided decline is at all likely pending the banking operations having in view the placing of securities to meet the requirements of the roads.

Sternberger, Sinn & Co. — The appointment of a receiver for Hocking Valley Railroad was a decided chill to the financial community at large. We look for somewhat lower prices.

Hornblower & Weeks — We look for a little irregularity for a day or two, but still think after some slight reaction prices will again work higher for the immediate future.

E. & C. Randolph—We advise purchases of good stocks at this level, or on moderate reactions.

SIR HENRY AND THE MINE CONTEST

Sir Henry M. Pellatt emphatically denies insinuations regarding his contest for a place on the directorate of the board of the Peterson Lake Company.

He says his only motive for consenting to accept a place on the board was that he might be instrumental in putting an end to the constant squabbles which have militated against the success of the Peterson Lake Company the past year or so.

Another Bank Raises Rate To 5 1-2 p. c.

Local brokers received notices from the Dominion Bank to-day announcing an increase in the call loan rate from 5 to 5½ per cent. The Traders Bank raised its rate some time ago.

Whether the local banks will follow suit remains to be seen, but money is on the whole pretty tight.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

It was four years ago to-day that James J. Hill announced his intention of paralleling the C.P.R. through Canada.

Up to the time of going to press at 3.30 p.m. to-day, the C. P. R. was still doing business at the old stand.

This day 1, 1792, or 118 years ago, 20 brokers met in New York and signed an agreement to buy and sell public stocks. This was the first organized effort in the States to form a stock exchange.

In that year the throne of Louis XVI was tottering, only to fall a year later, and give way to the Reign of Terror and the rise of Napoleon.

Forty-three years ago to-day wheat was cornered and advanced to $2.85 a bushel.

It looks as if Halley's comet must have pumped some of its cyanogen gas into the stock market.

Several Colored Cotton directors take exception to the report of the annual meeting in the Star.

It gave the impression, they say, that pessimism prevailed, whereas they assert that the company did extremely well in view of the high price of raw cotton.

QUEBEC MERGER WON ITS FIGHT

And Three Companies Threatening Competition Received Their Quietus This Morning.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, May 18.—Victory was won by the Quebec merger before the Private Bills Committee this morning, when three rival power companies who threatened competition in Quebec were killed outright as a result of the merger's fight, which was led by Mr. J. N. Greenshields. Mr. Forget was also present.

The bills killed were those of the Dorchester Electric Company, which was rejected on a vote of 19 to 18, the Champlain Electric Company, and the Canadian Gas Company. The merger's startling victory was a cause of great excitement among the members who were almost equally divided with a slight majority for the merger.

Some Amendments Rejected.

In the Private Bills Committee of the Upper House the Government's amendment to the Soulanges Power Bill was rejected.

The amendment was inserted to protect municipalities by providing for appeals to the Public Utilities Commission, but it will be claimed that the general law already provided ample protection.

Mr. Montgomery, on behalf of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, attended to introduce an amendment to enforce the new companies to present plans before the Public Utilities Commission regarding the poles they intended to erect, so that present disputes between rival companies on congested streets might cease.

This amendment was also rejected.

Rubber Holders Protested But Were Beaten

At yesterday's meeting of the United States Rubber Co., protests were made by some shareholders against the issue of stock and bonds of the company for the purchase of the Revere Rubber Co. and against the underwriting of the same by a syndicate, of which eight directors of the United States Rubber Company were members.

Among those who filed protests were G. L. Goodday, holding a proxy for E. C. M. Rand, of New York, and William A. Smith, representing Frank M. Mathews, of East Orange, N.J.

The protests were rather vigorous, but the management won out on a stock vote after a recess for lunch had been taken.

MR. JACOBS DENIES INTEREST

Mr. Jacob A. Jacobs, of Montreal, formerly secretary of the Peterson Lake Company, says he is not in any way connected with the new board, that he has no stock interest in the company, and that he has refused to go on the company's board, although many requests have been made to him to do so.

To Amend Lacombe Law,

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, May 18.—The Legislation Committee to-day reported to the House, without any expression of opinion, Mr. Plante's bill to amend the Lacombe Law to provide that poor people may be placed under the law simply by making a declaration in Court. Mr. Perron's bill to give increased powers to prothonotaries was adopted with several amendments.

NO CHANGE IN DIVIDEND ON "WOODS" STOCK

The regular 1½ p.c. quarterly dividend was declared on Lake of the Woods stock yesterday, indicating that President Meighen has made no change in his policy.

Three months hence the directors will be asked to consider the bonus, which is payable semi-annually, earnings permitting.

Both the common and the preferred dividends, the latter of 1¾ per cent., are payable June 1 to shareholders of May 21st.

The regular 1¾ p.c. quarterly has also been declared on Ogilvie Flour Mills preferred, payable June 1st to holders of May 23rd.

Mr. M'Gibbon Speaks of a Cobalt Deal

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, May 18.—Mr. D. Lorne McGibbon says he is in favor of a consolidation of the principal Cobalt properties on the ground that it would make for greater economy in operation and marketing of product, but that so far nothing has been done toward bringing it about.

Officials of the several properties that are likely to figure in the consolidation may even have gone so far as to formulate comprehensive plans, but none has been submitted for official consideration. Some months are likely to elapse before even preliminary steps are taken.

2 NEW DIRECTORS ELECTED.

Messrs. E. S. Williams and James Deshler have been elected directors of the U.S. Rubber Co., to succeed J. J. Watson and W. H. Moore.

Autos Cause Dullness in the Market

(N.Y. Post.)

The broker dismisses his sixty-horse power car at the Fourteenth Street express station and comes the rest of the journey by the subway. On reaching his establishment he goes first to the back office to see what orders have accumulated for the opening. This is a perfunctory task.

He does not expect to find any orders, nor is he disappointed. Business is "rotten."

The market opens. He strolls into the customers' room and frowns upon the consumption of cigars by clients who do not trade. One of them asks him what is the matter with the market.

"This automobile business," he says, "is ruining the country. I don't know where we shall come out. We spend $500,000,000 a year for automobiles and their keep and cannot finance our own railroads. Such extravagance is making the country poor.

There is a client of this office who sold bonds to buy an automobile. Think of it! I know of several such instances. Only the other day a man who keeps an account here, called up on the telephone to ask if he could draw down $1,500.

His account wouldn't stand it unless he sold something. He gave orders to sell something to lighten the account because he needed the money.

He had bought an automobile. That's where the capital is going—out of bonds and out of stocks into automobiles."

Moral: Customers ought not to waste money on automobiles.

ITEMS OF THE COBALT CAMP.

Frederick Morris & Co., of New York, are arranging to take a large number of people to the Cobalt district to inspect the Waldman Silver Mines.

The firm has chartered a private car, which will leave New York on May 26.

OCEAN GRAIN RATES REDUCED

Ocean grain space rates to Avonmouth, Antwerp and Dublin have been reduced 1½d, and to Rotterdam 1½d to 3d, owing to the poor demand. The enquiry from both American and Canadian exporters is slow, as they are now pretty well provided with all the room they want for the grain that has been sold, and, as business is dull, they show no disposition to operate for future requirements. Asking rates are as follows:

McDougall & Cowans' Winnipeg office quotes South African Land warrants at $740 to $745.

CHATS ON CHANCE.

Cable advices received on 'Change to-day from the principal markets of Great Britain give butter markets very dull and unsettled. Fairly liberal receipts of colonial, coupled with increased receipts of Continental butter, and the rapidly increasing make of home and Irish, give the markets entirely into buyers' hands for the moment. Finest grades Danish, 24½ to 25c; Irish 24 to 24½c, New Zealand 23½ to 24c, Russian and Australian 22 to 23c.

Cheese markets are badly rattled owing to continued forced sales by one of the largest holders. Prices at the moment are largely nominal. Finest fall Canadians, 13 to 13¼c. Some new Canadian fodder arriving, but prices hardly established.

"The three prairie provinces of Canada can go for three weeks without a drop of rain and still produce a bumper crop of wheat, the largest they have yet produced." This is the prediction of F. Mac. Saunders, commissioner of the Saskatchewan Board of Trade, who has just completed a 500-mile automobile tour of his province. "The pessimistic reports that have appeared in Canadian papers for the past few weeks are absolutely wrong, as a scientific study of the crop will prove. We have a crop ahead of us such as we never had before."

EGG RECEIPTS HEAVY.

Receipts of eggs were 3599 cases, as against 2165 a year ago. The market is steady under a good demand for small lots. Selected stock, 23 to 24c, and straight receipts at 19 to 20c per dozen.

CHEESE FAIRLY ACTIVE.

Receipts of cheese were 6232 boxes, as against 5579 a year ago. The local market is only fairly active, with prices ranging from 10⅝ to 10¾c.

BUTTER MARKET STEADY.

Receipts of butter were 756 packages, as against 437 a year ago. The local market is steady, with choicest quoted at 24 to 24½c to the retailers.

COUNTRY CHEESE HIGHER.

Campbellford, Ont., May 18.—840 boxes cheese boarded, 775 sold at 10 7-16c. Same price refused for balance.

GOOD DEMAND FOR HAY.

A fair trade continues in hay for local consumption and export account.

No. 1 hay, $15 to $15.50; extra No. 2, $14 to $14.50; No. 2, $12.50 to $13; clover, mixed, $11.50 to $12; clover, $10.50 to $11.50, in car lots.

Wall Street Sentiment

as a whole is tentatively bullish. Traders are preferring to base their conclusions on developments that are far off, instead of making all their arguments on day-to-day conditions.

EXCHANGE TO HELP WAR ON BUCKET SHOPS

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, May 18.—It was stated last evening that within a short time the New York Stock Exchange will adopt a censorship over its quotations, which move is expected to put "bucket-shops" throughout the United States out of business.

In the campaign waged recently by the Government's agents against the "bucket-shop" people, the sources whence the "bucket-shops" received Stock Exchange quotations were discovered.

An official of the Exchange said yesterday that it is the intention to force the telegraph companies to cut off from quotation service every person or firm whose business comes under the "bucket-shop" class. It is understood that the Western Union Telegraph Company stands ready to co-operate with the Exchange.

Beef Cuts are Cent Pound Lower

Chicago, May 18. — A reduction of one half cent a pound was made in the price of the better grades of dressed beef cuts yesterday, while cheaper grades remained the same.

Packers said that since the public awakened to the fact that beef plates, chucks and rounds, are as nutritious as beef loins and ribs, even though their cost is much lower, the demand for the cheap cuts has doubled. Consequently, they say, they were compelled to reduce the cost of ribs and loins in order to equalize the demand for the inexpensive parts.

This latest reduction brought No. 1 ribs to 14½c, and No. 1 loins to 18 cents a pound, as compared with 17½ and 22c in January.

SCALPING MARKET IN CHICAGO PIT

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, Ill., May 18. — Wheat was irregularly lower during the morning, ranging between 112⅝ and 113½, July at 103 to 103⅛ and 102⅞, and September at 100⅞ to 101⅝.

The wheat market may be called a scalping affair without fear of contradiction.

The Pattens hold September wheat out at arm's length, and they have up to this time been able to handle it in any way they see fit. They are giving the market only moderate attention, and are supporting it when support is needed.

To-day's Closing Prices

QUEBEC WON FIGHT, STOCK LITTLE BETTER

The news that the companies seeking to oppose the Quebec Railway in Quebec had been choked off by the Legislature led to a good deal of activity in Quebec Railway stock and the price was rather firm.

There were sales this afternoon at 44 1-2 to 45.

Dominion Steel was a little easier, but otherwise the local market was not materially changed.

BOARD OF CONCILIATION ADJOURNED LAST NIGHT

The arbitration board which, under the presidency of Mr. J. E. Atkinson, of Toronto, has been meeting at the Canadian Pacific offices inquiring into the difficulty between the trainmen and the company in regard to an application for increase of wages, finished its business as far as the C. P. R. employes were concerned last night, and the inquiry was then adjourned. It is understood that the board will now arrange sittings with regard to similar applications made by the Grand Trunk trainmen, who belong to the same union.

Farmers in the Kingston district are reported to be treating English immigrants unfairly. In some cases men hired for $12 per month were actually paid only $2 for that length of time.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

"A Reader"—If Patriarche & Co., do not answer your letters, or if they cannot sell the stock, you will have to wait for an adjustment of the concern's affairs.

"Inquirer."—Hillcrest Collieries is a going concern; the other is not. All things considered, Hillcrest, while the smaller is the better proposition of the two.

"G. P. B."—The bonds of Amalgamated and Black Lake Asbestos should be all right. Amalgamated is doing well now, but the annual statement is not likely to show much more than the preferred dividend earned. No dividend has yet been declared on Black Lake preferred. The common stocks of both concerns are speculative, but should have a fairly good future. No dividends are likely within a year's time.

AUTO AND STREET CAR WERE IN COLLISION.

A collision between a street car and Mr. J. L. Smeaton's automobile occurred at 9.20 o'clock at the crossing of Greene and Western avenues. Mr. Smeaton, who lives at 213 Lower Lachine Road, was in the car himself at the time with his family, and had it not been for the presence of mind of the chauffeur when the street car struck the automobile the result would have been disastrous. As it was he managed to reverse the auto and he was the only occupant injured, he sustaining cuts about the face.

The hardware clerks of St. John, N.B., have secured an agreement with the employers extending the half-holiday period through September.

STRATHCONA DENIES NEWS CABLED HERE

Never Took Colonial Office to Task, He Declares

Many Canadian Visitors Accorded Right of Private Entree to View Lying-in-State.

By Special Cable From Our Own Correspondent.

London, May 18.—As a special mark of his personal feeling towards the overseas Dominions, King George is sending two of his private carriages to convey Lord Strathcona and Sir George Reid, Australia's High Commissioner, that they may form a part of the solemn funeral procession from Westminster Hall to Paddington on Friday.

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Aylesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Sir Hugh and Lady Graham, and many other distinguished visitors have been accorded the right of private entree to the Houses of Parliament to view the lying-in-state.

Lord Strathcona authorizes me to deny what he calls the foolish statement cabled to Canada that he went to Buckingham Palace to view the King's body, and was refused admission. He went both there and to Marlborough House to express Canada's loyal sympathy in the usual way, by signing the book. Equally untrue is the mischief-making statement circulated through New York channels that Lord Strathcona took the Colonial Office severely to task for its alleged neglect to include the Canadian Ministers and the High Commissioner at Friday's funeral ceremony.

The Canadian representation in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, will be Lord Strathcona, Messrs. Aylesworth, Fisher, and Marcil, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Sir Daniel McMillan, and the Mayors of Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg.

Interviewed by the Star representative to-day, Lord Strathcona said: "We have no desire to be placed on the same footing as the foreign representatives. We are nearer than they. We are an integral part of the Empire. This is a vital distinction which we are not likely to overlook."

One certain ultimate outcome of the present discussions will be the recognition by official circles here of the full status for colonial Ministers of the Crown and High Commissioners, next only to that of British Ministers of the Crown, but these matters of precedence are of peculiar difficulty, especially when foreign powers are concerned.

WINDERMERE.

FORTY-SEVEN DROWNED.

Alexandrovsky, Russia, May 18.—Forty-seven workmen were drowned through the upsetting of a boat in which a party of ninety-four laborers was being carried across the River Dnieper, near here, to-day. Just one-half the total number managed to reach shore.

The men boarded the craft, which was to have taken them to the opposite side of the river. The cataracts are a short distance above, and the current at this point is strong. The boat became unmanageable soon after leaving the shore, due, it is thought, to overloading. Suddenly, in mid stream, it turned turtle.

VERDICT IN BRYSON CASE.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Bryson, Que., May 18.—This afternoon the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case in which Michael Murphy was charged with manslaughter in connection with the deaths of the two Shawville youths, Dale and Howes.

A crowd of young men had been amusing themselves by throwing missiles at the shack occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, and the latter resenting their actions, fired into the crowd.

FATAL NEW YORK FIRE.

New York, May 18.—The police are looking for incendiaries who they declare, started a tenement house fire that, early to-day, caused the death of three persons, and burned another so badly that death will ensue.

INDUSTRIAL BONDS

An Important Security

It is customary for the larger and more important industries to make Mortgage Loans on their property and assets,—real and personal.

The Bonds of a capably managed company — with the issue to a reasonable percentage of the appraised value of the plant and carrying a sinking fund—constitute an important security — popular, because they yield a high rate of interest, and offer some margin for speculation, as the industry develops greater volume and strength.

We have on hand some attractive Canadian Industrial issues; particulars on application.

CITY WITHDRAWS PERMISSION TO DRAPE STATUE

The city will drape the statue of Queen Victoria on Victoria Square with the royal trappings of purple and black out of respect for His late Majesty, Edward VII.

In yesterday's issue of The Star there appeared an item calling attention to the fact that the statue stood conspicuous in its bareness, amid elaborate displays of mourning on the buildings in the vicinity.

Mr. J. H. Sherrard, who is a member of the general committee of the Victorian Order of Nurses, seeing the item, and after consultation with several other members of the committee, called at the City Hall late yesterday afternoon and asked for permission on behalf of the Victorian Order to drape the statue. There was, however, no one in authority at the city clerk's office when Mr. Sherrard called, but the latter was told that there could be no objection to the proposal of the order.

It was considered eminently fitting that an oragnization, whose splendid work among the poor and suffering of the city is dedicated to the memory of the late Queen, should undertake in so significant a way to express its grief at the passing of her illustrious son.

Mr. Sherrard, accordingly, arranged with a local decorating firm to have the work of draping done to-day. This morning, however, he received a telephone message from the City Hall that the city itself would undertake to see that the work was done on behalf of the citizens an dthat it would be unnecessary for the Victorian Order to take any further steps in the matter.

QUICK TURN PROFITS

Anybody can buy really cheap stock for long-pull profits. That's investment buying when prices are low, and holding until values advance above cost. The present market is attractive for long-pull investment buying.

IT IS VASTLY MORE ATTRACTIVE FOR BUYING FOR QUICK TURN PROFITS.

Stocks are coming back with steady strides.

Before another 60 or 90 days are gone, prices of to-day should appear positively incredulous under the calcium of quotations to be registered on the recovery.

A return of 100 to 200 per cent. or more in one, two or three years is fine. Such may be the result of long-pull buying.

A return of 30 to 100 per cent. in 30, 60 or 90 days is infinitely finer. Such returns may be realized by the discerning operator who buys in this market for quick profits.

He needs only to make his commitments in issues which have a most prominent place on the bargain counters. Such issues, by the operation of the natural rules of appreciation, must swing upwards most sensationally as the pendulum comes back. It is possible to get into and out of these stocks with a handsome profit before price advances have begun to discount profit—possibilities on strictly investment issues.

Buy now for quick profits, prices are dragging bottom. The door of opportunity is wide open. Do your buying for long-pulls later on.

The Railways Are Making for Fort George

You have been told that the railway lines of Central British Columbia, will center at Fort George. You have seen the waterways of the interior converge from this point. You realize that the railways must follow the rivers in order to have feasible grades.

You know that the Grand Trunk Pacific is building into Fort George from two directions. You know that other projected lines center at Fort George, the British Columbia and Alaska Railway; the British Columbia Central Railway; the Victoria and Fort George Railway being among them. The following item reproduced from the Vancouver Province of April 29th, shows the status of the British Columbia and Alaska Railway.

Another Railway.

British Columbia and Alaska Co., Will Send out Survey Parties To-morrow.

Two survey parties now being organized here will leave to-morrow for Lytton to start locating a portion of the proposed line of the British Columbia & Alaska Railway Co., which was incorporated at the last session of the provincial legislature.

Mr. J. Early will have charge of one outfit of sixteen men. They will be employed between Lytton and Eagle Lake. The other engineering party will proceed direct to Fort George and then work south to Eagle Lake. As soon as this task is completed the surveyors will be transferred to the Lillooet district to locate a branch line into Vancouver. The second survey party will be in charge of Mr. E. C. Simpson. It will also number sixteen members.

Although the charter was acquired by Mr. Ralph Smailes, formerly of Greenwood, and Mr. H. B. Robertson, a Victoria lawyer, it is understood that they simply represented the New York capitalists who are behind the enterprise. Mr. Smailes is a member of the engineering firm of Messrs. L. M. Rice & Co., which was awarded the contract for making the surveys. It is understood that the British Columbia Railway will be only a link in a big railway project, having for its object the building of a through line to Alaska. This is indicated by the parent company incorporated for $12,000,000 under the laws of the State of Delaware and styled the British Columbia Railway & Development Co.

The route through British Columbia as authorized by the Provincial Legislature is as follows: Commencing at or near Lytton, thence following the valley of the Fraser through Lillooet to a point at or near Fort George; thence following the valley of the Stuart River to Stuart Lake and the Tacla River and Middle River to North Tacla Lake by way of Fort Connelly; thence following the Skeena and Stikine Rivers to Telegraph Creek, and thence northerly to Teslin Lake to a point at or near the northern boundary of British Columbia; or in the alternative by the most feasible route between Lytton and Teslin Lake. The company which is incorporated for $12,000,000 is also authorized to build a branch line to Vancouver along the south side of Anderson and Seaton Lakes, and via Lillooet Lake and River.

Mr. Smailes is a Canadian by birth, and has a wide knowledge of conditions in the West. The location of the line between Fort George and Lytton as the first step in the Company's plans is regarded as a wise move, as the engineers will have the choice of location over more tardy rivals. Mr. Smailes admitted to-day that the survey of the branch line into Vancouver would be started as soon as the engineers complete the survey between Lytton and Fort George.

Fort George

while it will center the railway systems operating in Central British Columbia, will not be dependent upon them. It is the center of the great internal river system of the province—the center of 1,000 miles of water now navigated by steamboats. With very little expense 1,000 miles additional can be made navigable. The great rich valleys of the interior, with their coal, gold, copper, silver, their timber and their 50,000,000 acres of farming land, will then have two mediums of transportation, and both of them center at Fort George.

Three steamboat lines are now operating from Fort George. Additional steamers are being built.

A second newspaper is being established. Hotels are being built. Four banks will soon have branches doing business here.

NOTE—No lots are for sale in the townsite of Fort George except by us or our accredited agents.

Gingham Dresses For The Price of The Making

We have a line of gingham dresses to sell at $7.50 and we do not think there is a dressmaker who could possibly make up one for that price even outside the cost of material, and even then it is doubtful if she would get the style into it which these dresses have. Moreover, the materials are not available, at least not in the way these dresses are matched, for the reason that the trimmings are designed and made purposely for the dresses on which they are used. The braids are made expressly and the buttons are made expressly to fit in with the workmanship and style of the dress itself. Then the needlework is of a very superior order and shows itself in the general effect of the dresses. It is safe, therefore, to say that there are no other dresses just like these in Montreal at any price, much less at..... $7.50

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. B. ROSAMOND IN LONDON TO-DAY

Former Member of Canadian Parliament Caught Chill and Succumbed to Pneumonia.

By Special Cable from Our Own Correspondent.

London, May 18.—Bennett Rosamond, of Almonte, Ont., former member of the Canadian House of Commons for North Lanark, a well-known woollen manufacturer, died suddenly at the Grand Hotel here this morning, of pneumonia. He was visiting London and contracted a chill on Saturday. He was 77 years of age.

WINDERMERE.

The late Mr. Rosamond's father was a native of Leitrim, Ireland, but his mother belonged to Paisley, Scotland. Bennett was born in Carleton Place, Ont., where his father had settler, on May 10, 1833. He was educated at the Grammar School there and commenced his business career there under his father, who established flour, woollen and other mills at the village. In 1857 the family moved to Almonte, the father having purchased the ground property and rights of the Ramsay Woollen Cloth Manufactory and built mills there.

In 1862 the late Bennett Rosamond and his brother took a lease of the concern and doubled the capacity of their mill, a few years later admitting George Stephen (now Lord Mount Stephen) as a partner. The business expanded and afterwards became known as the Rosamond Woollen Company, with Mr. Rosamond as president of the company. He was also president of the Almonte Knitting Company, and was interested in the Cobourg Woollen Company, of which his brother was the president.

Defeated in First Election.

Mr. Rosamond was among the early members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and taking a leading part in its affairs, was elected its president in 1890. He also took an important part in public affairs and was Reeve and afterwards Mayor of Almonte and chairman of the Board of Education. In politics he was a Conservative, but the first election he contested for the House of Commons he was unsuccessful. That was in 1864, when he ran as an Independent-Conservative against Hon. William Macdougall in North Lanark. He was again a candidate in 1871 for the Ontario House, but was unsuccessful and the following year ran again for the House of Commons at the general election and was beaten for the third time.

It was not until 1891 that he met with success in his political aspirations when in December of that year he ran for the House of Commons to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Mr. Jamieson as a county court judge and sat for the seat continuously up to the general election of 1904 when he retired from politics and the seat went into the Liberal column. He was appointed a member of the finance committee of the Liberal-Conservative Union of Ontario in 1896.

Mr. Rosamond was among the Canadian woollen manufacturers who claimed that it was impossible, under the present tariff regulations affecting that industry, to compete successfully with the importations from Great Britain, and he claimed that his industries suffered severely on that account. He was a man of marked executive ability, large business experience, and a wide knowledge of public affairs.

AMERICAN INTERFERENCE.

Gunboat Commander "Will Permit No Armed Conflict" in Bluefields.

Washington, May 18.—Commander Gilmer, of the United States gunboat Paducah, has served notice on General Irias, who is commander of the Vena, that he will not permit a bombardment of the city of Bluefields, Nicaragua, and he has also notified General Estrada and General Madriz that he will not permit any armed conflict within the city.

These notices were sent after Gen. Irais had given notice of his intention to bombard the city should Gen. Estrada not surrender in the meantime. General Estrada, it is learned, has refused to comply with the demand for surrender.

AN UP-TO-DATE STOVE

Do you realize there is no longer any reason why you should use a coal range? Oil is cheaper than coal; it is lighter and easier to handle, and gives an intense heat. Provided you have the right stove, oil is more economical, cleaner and less trouble. Have you seen the

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME
Oil Cook-stove

The accompanying illustration gives you only a rough idea of its appearance. You really can't appreciate it until you either use it yourself, or talk to someone who has used it. It does everything that a coal range will do—except heat the room. The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove will do anything, from heating a kettle of water to cooking a course dinner, but it won't heat a room. It doesn't "smell," it doesn't smoke. It can't get out of order. Light it and it is ready. Turn it down and it is out. Only a woman who knows the trouble of carrying coal and cooking in a hot kitchen can appreciate what it means to have a clean, perfect stove that will cook anything, boil, bake or roast, and yet won't heat the kitchen. How is it done? The flame is controlled in turquoise-blue enamel chimneys, and directed against the bottom of pot, pan, kettle or oven, and only there. The flame operates exactly where it is needed—and nowhere else. With this stove your kitchen is cool.

The nickel finish with the bright blue of the chimneys makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.
