MARSHALL URGES QUICK ACTION AGAINST REDS

World News In Brief

Rome, March 19.—(AP)—Fighting broke out at a big leftist rally in the middle of Rome today and police riot squads were summoned to restore order.

The battling erupted after a speech by Luigi Longo, Italy's No. 2 Communist.

Police quickly quelled the disorders at the leftist rally and no casualties were reported.

Centralia, Ill., March 19.—(AP)—The known death toll has mounted to five after an explosion which destroyed a two-story brick building in downtown Centralia last night. Two bodies were found beneath the pile of rubble by firemen early today after an all-night search. Two bodies had been found in the wreckage about three hours earlier. One woman died of injuries as she was being carried into hospital.

Sydney, Australia, March 19.—(Reuters)—Waterside workers throughout Australia today joined miners in support of railway workers on strike in Queensland. The waterside men held a one-hour lightning strike in sympathy with the railwaymen who came out six weeks ago in support of maintenance men's demand for higher pay.

Athens, March 19.—(AP)—A Greek Foreign Ministry spokesman said today the ministry has received reports of considerable military movements in Yugoslavia and Albania.

He added, however, that he knew nothing about the concentration on Greek borders of an international brigade, as reported yesterday by the United States State Department.

Toronto, March 19.—(AP)—Communist organizations have been forbidden use of Toronto schools for political meetings. Board of Education last night adopted the ban by a vote of 16 to 4.

Washington, March 19.—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark today authorized the release of Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, French scientist, who had been detained by immigration officials at Ellis Island.

Washington, March 19.—(AP)—The Senate foreign relations committee today approved $275,000,000 aid for Greece and Turkey.

Saint John, N.B., March 19.—(AP)—A two-alarm fire raged through a four-story brick business block on downtown Union Street here early this morning causing damage estimated at several hundred dollars.

Secretary Of State Warns That World Situation Was Never More Threatening

Russian-Directed Brigade Reported On Greek Border

Wallace Says Draft Won't Keep Peace

New York, March 19.—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace said last night that President Truman's St. Patrick's day speeches expanded the Truman Doctrine to a point "where it threatens the life of every human being in the world."

The third-party Presidential aspirant, answering Truman's appeal to the United States Congress for new preparedness measures to meet the "menace" of Russia, spoke over a radio (ABC) network.

"Yesterday," the former United States vice-president said, "we heard a call for universal military training. Tonight I plead the case for universal peace."

Wallace, referring to the President's recommendations for speedy enactment of universal military training legislation and a temporary revival of elective service, added:

"Mothers and sons rightfully believe a draft and compulsory military training are not the way to preserve freedom at home or to guarantee democracy abroad."

Truman, speaking here Wednesday night, elaborated on his Congressional address and, at the same time, asserted that he would not accept the support of Wallace and his Communists even if his refusal meant defeat next November.

Apparently referring to that part of the President's address, Wallace said:

"One year ago I said that President Truman was the greatest salesman Communism ever had. I repeat that charge tonight. He has ignored the deep, underlying nature of the people's problems."

Russia, Wallace continued, has "aggressive designs" on the United States. The "men who are stirring up hate and fear" trafficking in the word "Communism," hoping that it will "provoke a hostile response from the great masses of the people."

The people of the world are "on the march," he said, adding that the Truman administration knows the "people of France, Italy, Czechoslovakia—yes, and the people of China and Greece—want to try a new approach."

By The Associated Press

The Communists today faced a charge of having an international brigade ready to attack Greece.

Official dispatches to Washington from Athens, the United States State Department said yesterday, estimate that three divisions, or 30,000 men, are in an international brigade near the Greek border in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria.

The Department said the men are believed to be mostly Albanians and Greeks with over-all Russian military discipline, though no Soviet tactical officers. It said an attack is most likely from Albania.

This charge came at a time when Scandinavian leaders joined the western European line-up against Communism.

Premiers of Norway, Sweden and Denmark took their stand while delegates in Finland, to the east, got last-minute instructions for Moscow negotiations toward a Soviet-Finnish treaty.

The Communists were accused at the same time of having a five-country committee working on Italy, where an election is scheduled April 18, and on France.

The Moscow radio said today President Truman's preparedness speech to Congress Wednesday and the five-power Brussels pact assigned that day favor American imperialists and militarists.

Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi said the nine-country Communist International Information Bureau (Cominform) has a special five-country secret committee to "issue directives to synchronize the conduct of Communists in Italy and France."

He made the statement in an outdoor speech in Bologna. It opened his Christian Democratic party's campaign in Italy's Communist north.

De Gasperi said the committee met first in Poland last September shortly before the Cominform was organized there. It included Col. Gen. Andrei A. Zhdanov, Russian Communist Party secretary-general; Luigi Longo, Italian vice-secretary-general; Anna Pauker, Romanian foreign minister; Jacques Duclos of France; and Milovan Djilas of Yugoslavia.

The heads of the three Scandinavian countries told a Stockholm audience last night their countries will fight aggression from any quarter. All condemned Communism. They spoke after a day-long conference as Social Democratic party leaders of their countries.

Premier Einar Gerhardsen of Norway called Communists "a grave danger to freedom and peace."

Sweden's premier, Tage Erlander, said "However intense our will to peace and understanding, we put freedom before peace."

Marshall Says, However, That Door Is Wide Open For Conciliatory Move by Russia—Spread of Communist Influence Compared With Hitler's Tactics.

Berkeley, Calif., March 19.—(AP)—State Secretary Marshall today said quick action is needed to stop the spread of Communism, but added "the door is wide open for a general conciliatory move" by Russia.

He compared the spread of Communist influence in Europe with Hitler's tactics.

"Never before in history has the world situation been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present time," he told a University of California Charter Day audience.

He called for prompt enactment of the European Recovery Program to check the advance of Communism. He defined United States policy as: "To stand firm on basic principles but at the same time to keep the door wide open for any general conciliatory moves."

A "depressing aspect" of the world situation was "the duplication in Europe of the high-handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime."

"It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice might not be allowed to spread further unchecked."

"We cannot evade the issue by the negative procedure of inaction."

"Unfortunately, critical situations are not confined to Europe," he said. "They exist in the Middle East, in Indonesia, in China—and we cannot ignore Latin America, or our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea."

"Rich and powerful as we are, we cannot afford to disperse our efforts to a degree which would render all ineffective. Our means are not unlimited—we must not spend our efforts unwisely."

The need for prompt congressional action of the European Recovery Program was pointed up by a comment that the plan was first broached June 5, 1947. Marshall emphasized "the importance of timely action on our part in the face of the dictatorial procedure with which we are confronted in Europe. In the long run, I am sure, the democracies will invariably win out."

He took note of "the frank declaration of the Soviet Government and Communist parties to oppose in every way possible the development of the European Recovery Program."

President Truman shakes hands with Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, President of the Senate, from the rostrum of the House of Representatives, where Truman addressed a joint special session of Congress on the world situation. The President asked for quick passage of the European Recovery Program, enactment of the Universal Military Training law and temporary revival of the draft law.

Signers Of Brussels Pact Confronted By Huge Task

By GLENN WILLIAMS

London, March 19.—(AP)—The five powers united under the Brussels pact faced up to the problem today of translating the treaty's words into action.

So far the agreement binding Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg is only a blueprint. The structure to be built from it does not exist.

The pact was inspired by Foreign Secretary Bevin, who saw in it a core around which western Europe would consolidate against the spread of Communism.

First bricks in the structure may be laid next week by a council of representatives of the five countries.

How fast and strongly will they build?

The problems are tremendous.

The most important phases of joint activity are in economic operation and mutual defence. Words come easily. Definite action probably will be more difficult.

For instance, the treaty calls for the five countries to undertake "elimination of conflict in their economic policies, the co-ordination of production and the development of commercial exchanges."

That's a big order and it may take a long time to accomplish.

Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, tied together in a customs union called Benelux, pioneered that path. Their experience may speed up the process. But these three little countries began work on their union early in the war and weren't able to put a workable plan in operation until January. They are still working out some of the kinks.

"Elimination of conflict" in economic policies is a tough subject.

Britain has tariff ties in her Dominions. How will they fit into European economics?

When France proposed to devalue the franc Britain was so fearful of its effect on the pound as a world currency that Sir Stafford Cripps rushed to Paris to remonstrate.

His protest did little good. France went ahead with its plan.

Under the treaty such conflicts will have to be worked out. Their solution will depend on somebody giving way or risking possible ruin of the new structure.

Military clauses say each of the powers will offer "all the military and other aid and assistance in their power" if any of them is attacked.

The council of representatives, designed to meet continuously, is empowered to deal with all phases of the treaty.

Will that mean the creation of joint chiefs of staff, standardization of arms, co-operative training of forces, joint discussions of military policy?

The Foreign Ministers of these countries expected a Paris press report that a joint staff under British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery would be established.

If such joint action is not taken in advance, would the countries find themselves in the same position in 1940 when France fell, Britain evacuated Dunkerque and Belgium's army surrendered?

The treaty is open to others. Will Scandinavia's trio of Denmark, Norway and Sweden join?

"Adequate Control" Will Be Maintained On Uranium

Universities Bill Passed By Council

By GEORGE KITCHEN

Ottawa, March 19.—(AP)—The Commons, driving to clear away emergency Government legislation before the Easter recess begins next week, yesterday touched on sugar, briefly discussed wheat, verged on a full-dress debate on atomic energy and finished with a slowly-moving discussion on the new 25-per-cent excise tax.

Sugar and atomic energy came before the Chamber as it completed study of a measure empowering the Government to continue certain wartime controls until April 1, 1949. The bill, which now goes to the Senate, was given third and final reading.

A highlight of the sugar debate was a suggestion by Jean Francois Pouliot (Ind L.—Témiscouata) that Canada ask Britain for the outright transfer to Dominion sovereignty of the British West Indies in return for the "sacrifices in men, money and food... we have made for the Empire." No response came from Cabinet benches.

The atomic energy discussion began with C.C.F. members protesting against the Government's action in opening the prospecting and mining of uranium and other radioactive minerals to private companies and closed with Reconstruction Minister Howe's assurance that no great wealth would be lost to the country and that there would be adequate control of "every fraction of uranium" mined.

In the tax discussion, developing with study of Government legislation to give statutory force to the dollar-saving program, Progressive Conservative renewed their charges that the tax had been brought into force unconstitutionally.

The wheat discussion came as the Chamber briefly resumed debate on second reading of a bill amending the Canadian Wheat Board Act to increase the initial wheat payment, set up a pension fund for board employees and empower the Board to take over the marketing of barley and oats once the Prairie provinces pass complementary legislation.

In the opening stages, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said he could give no information as to whether steps will be taken to extend the five-power western union treaty to Canada, the United States, the Commonwealth and other nations interested in keeping the peace.

Trade Minister Howe said he could not accept a suggestion by the Canadian Federation of Mayors that the Federal Government advance money to provinces and municipalities for housing construction.

Justice Minister Hiesley said the Federal Government does not propose submitting Quebec's "Padlock Law" to the Supreme Court.

The Senate considered a number of bills and heard Senator T. D. Bouchard (L.—Quebec) charge Premier Duplessis and Roads Minister Talbot of Quebec with making "cowardly and false insinuations" against him in connection with his years as a Quebec Cabinet Minister.

The atomic debate produced charges by Stanley Knowles (C.F.P.)

Col. Wilfrid Bovey Suggests $50,000,000 University Fund Be Established

Special to the Record

Quebec, March 19.—Creation of a special university fund of $50,000,000 was suggested by Col. Wilfrid Bovey in the Legislative Council yesterday when the bill providing grants of $1,000,000 for Bishop's University, $4,000,000 for Laval and $2,800,000 for University of Montreal was approved unanimously.

"Do not let us for a moment think that we have done enough," said Col. Bovey, "our institutions of learning must be fed without cease. Grants such as we have heard of must be repeated over and over again. What we need is a $50,000,000 fund, not more than we put aside for other purposes, which fund could be secured, if necessary, on the public domain or public income, with provision for co-operation with the municipalities. We need a 10, 20 and 40 year plan. Thus our universities and Government could enter on a reasonable discussion of the problems ahead. Our province has much wealth, and is finding more. We must have some of it for training our engineers and technicians. Our new enterprises should be glad to pay tribute to our universities."

Mr. Bovey did not specify how the $50,000,000 fund be proposed should be created should be used.

He deplored the wastage of our university products due to emigration of graduates to the United States. Between 1936 and 1946 a total of 127,829 Canadians went to the United States of whom 16,757 were professional and semi-professional men and women, 5,092 were white collar people, and 15,400 were operatives. In the year ending June 1, 1946, alone Canada lost 235 engineers, 192 teachers, 246 nurses and 69 technicians, and many of them were of this province. He hoped that when the Government in future would think of universities they would also think of students and graduates.

Legislature May Rise Tomorrow

Quebec, March 19.—(AP)—An indication of Government hopes for prorogation of the Quebec Legislature Saturday was seen yesterday in adjournment of the Provincial Upper House, the Legislative Council, until tomorrow.

No Saturday visitings either of the Council or the Legislative Assembly have been held since the start of the Legislature session January 14.

Angry Scenes Erupt Again In Provincial Legislature

Quebec, March 19.—(AP)—Mounting tension in the Quebec Legislative Assembly over sharp debate on the Government's budget erupted into angry scenes yesterday for the second time since the start of the week.

As Opposition questions about administration of the Agriculture Department continued through a third day, Premier Duplessis charged Liberal members with "systematic obstruction," and was told by their leader, Adelard Godbout, they were doing their duty.

The House was thrown into an uproar yesterday afternoon when discussion centred around an agricultural budget item of $250,000 for a bent sugar refinery at St. Hilaire, near Montreal.

Hercule Riendeau (UN-Laprairie-Napierville) criticized expenditure for the plant in 1944 by Mr. Godbout's government.

Referring to an explanation by the Liberal leader about the start of the industry, the Union Nationale member charged that Mr. Godbout had employed "his customary attitude of falsifying the facts and being beside the truth."

Mr. Godbout denied a statement by Mr. Riendeau that $29,000 had been paid "an organizer for the Opposition leader in L'Islet County" in connection with establishment of the refinery.

The Opposition leader added that Mr. Riendeau carried out the "dirty business" of Premier Duplessis.

By then the Assembly was filled

Roman Catholic Missionary From Eastern Townships Is Victim Of Persecution By Chinese Communists

(Editor's note: The following description of the persecution of Trappist priests by Chinese Communists was sent to the Record by Rt. Rev. Louis Prosper Durand, Bishop of Chefoo, China. The grim account by Rev. Charles J. McCarthy, S.J., in the January-February issue of "Jesus Missions" is of particular interest in the Townships because one of the priests who died at the hands of the Reds was Father Albert L. Heures, S.J., who was born at Coaticook.)

By REV. CHARLES J. MCCARTHY, S.J.

"Facilis transitus de cella ad coelum," the father of Trappists, St. Bernard, wrote "From the haven of a monastery to heaven is an easy trip." This is the story of some of his sons, lovers of peace, whose peace the world has always loved; it is the story of men of peace set on by the brutal warlords of Chinese Communism.

In the early morning hours of August 29, 1947, the Trappist Abbey of Our Lady of Consolation at Yang Chia Ping was destroyed by fire; by late October, 14 Trappist priests and brothers had died under Communist persecution. Brother Joachim, one of the 72 Trappist monks of Yang Chia Ping, told the harrowing tale of persecution.

On July 12 two of the Brothers were summoned to a People's Court at Hsin Chung, a little village north of the monastery. The Brothers were charged with having oppressed the people, and as penalty were obliged "give up a number of cows and goats."

In July, Father Seraphim and Father Chrysostom were summoned to trial at Lichia Wantze, a village to the south, both are young men, Chinese. The people had been well rehearsed. And the accused were allowed no defence.

"The monks have been guilty of collaboration with the Japanese," the prosecutor shouted. "Do you agree?"

"We agree!" the people shouted back.

"For this," the prosecutor shouted, "they must give their furniture to the people!"

More Communist-prepared charges were read. One man received monastery property because his parents had been frightened by foreign troops who came to China during the Boxer Wars.

Nothing was said about the year 1939 when the monastery fed 1,000 people of the region two meals a day during a period of terrible drought; nor about feeding a whole village for months during the recent war. Nor about the eight memorial tablets presented to the monastery by the people for outstanding help in time of crises. Two of the tablets had been presented by the Communist county chief.

At midnight on July 8th, mobs of people from 30 villages pounded on the doors of the monastery. They snatched away all the blankets, clothing, all furniture that was movable, everything they could lay hands on. Even women were in the crowds that invaded the cloisters. The Trappists knelt in prayer for their depollers.

The came the trials. No one knows how many of them there were. At each, the monks were violently beaten with clubs. Once Father Seraphim was so brutally beaten he cried out, "Ko' lien!" "Have pity, have pity!"

"This is the time for revenge, not pity," the judge screamed at him.

There was a peculiar similarity between their sufferings and the Passion of the Prince of Peace. The only defender they found was Maria Chang, a woman catechist. She was tied to the post of a candelabra and beaten savagely about the head and across the back until she fainted. After the beating they threw a festive banner across her prostrate body and

Steel And Transportation Affected By Coal Strike

Pittsburgh, March 19.—(AP)—The five-day-old soft coal walkout today made deep inroads on steel and transportation in the United States, leaving idle at least 12,000 to 15,000 workers.

If the 350,000 United Mine Workers who demand $100 monthly pensions stay out over the week-end, many more thousands will be forced into idleness.

Biggest single layoff hit 10,000 employees of the coal-carrying Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. R. J. Bowman, president of the line, said another 5,000 will be laid off unless the strike ends by Saturday.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad reported a 25-per-cent reduction in coal runs and shifting yards crews. It said coal cars ordered by mines had dropped 70 per cent from a normal average of 5,335 daily. Figures on the number of workers laid off were not immediately available.

Other railroads also laid off or failed to call workers for duty.

Other transportation workers reported idle because of the coal walkout included 200 river bargemen in the Pittsburgh area and 100 river coal-loading terminal workers at Huntington, W. Va. There were reports that the Lake Ontario shipping season might be delayed by the work stoppage.

The Bethlehem Steel Company at Lackawanna, N.Y., said it had coal for only a few days full operation. The Bethlehem plant at Johnstown, Pa., said it could postpone a cutback only a few days.

Two steel companies already had cut back. Youngstown Sheet and Tube had banked one blast furnace at Youngstown, O.; Sharon Steel had shut down a blast furnace and five open hearths at Farrell, Pa.

While the number of miners idle crept slowly upward from 350,000, officials at Washington took steps toward ending the walkout and alleviating its effects.

The government banned export shipments of coal except to Canada, to conserve United States stocks.

The Office of Defence Transportation ordered a 25-per-cent reduction of coal-burning passenger train service effective Sunday midnight. About 45 per cent of American passenger trains burn coal.

Hollywood, March 19.—It happened during filming of Bob Hope's new film, "The Paleface," at Paramount Studio.

OBITUARIES

MRS. T. JAMES ROBINSON, OF SWEETSBURG

Sweetsburg, March 19.—Early on the morning of Wednesday February 18th, there entered into rest Mary Agnes Scott, widow of T. James Robinson, of this village and formerly of "Meadow Brook Farm," Brome County, following an illness of six days and a lengthy period of ill health.

Born near Iron Hill on July 20, 1861, Mrs. Robinson had spent her entire life in this section of the Eastern Townships with the exception of two winters spent at Ashburndale, Fla.

Her passing leaves a void in church and in the Woman's Temperance Union work, which will be hard to fill, in both of which she took an active part, as long as her health permitted.

During the funeral service in Christ Church, a former well-known rector of the parish of Newburyville, Rev. A. T. Lorne, M.A., rector of St. Stephen's Church, Westmont, spoke of the church's hospitality and thriftiness of Mrs. Robinson in her home, of her devoted efforts on behalf of the church to which she belonged and of her life membership in the W.C.T.U.

The rector, Rev. John O. Peacock, of Christ Church, conducted the funeral service.

Mrs. George Barker, of Cowansville, presided at the organ and the supplied choir led the singing of "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Unto The Hills Around." Mr. Clayton Robinson, of Waterloo, grand-nephew of Mrs. Robinson, sang as a tenor solo, the hymn, "Abide With Me."

The bearers were her grandson, Mr. Cleson Robinson, of Shawville; her cousin, Mr. Wollen Hastings, of Brome; her nephews, Messrs. Clarence Robinson, Amasa Robinson, Earl H. Laurie and Clayton Ball, all of Granby.

The floral designs were numerous and beautiful. Interment was made in the beautiful cemetery of Christ Church, Sweetsburg.

Surviving are one son, Mr. T. H. Robinson, of 25 Birch Street, Gatineau; one daughter, Miss Lora E. Robinson, of Sweetsburg; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Among those in attendance were Mr. T. H. Robinson, of Gatineau; Mr. and Mrs. Cleson Robinson, of Shawville; Miss Eileen Robinson, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hastings, of Knowlton; Mr. Vollen Hastings, of Brome; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robinson, Mrs. Nettie Robinson and son, Mr. Amasa Robinson, Mr. Earl H. Laurie, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ball, all of Granby; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Robinson, of Waterloo; Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCutcheon, of the Centre Road; Mrs. T. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, of Knowlton; Mrs. Curtis Manson, of Dunham; Mrs. C. A. Mizener, of Montreal; and many others.

A grandson Mr. W. Robinson, was absent due to his studies in engineering at Mt. Allison University, Sackville, N.B.

A great many Iron Hill friends of Mrs. Robinson and some from Foster were prevented from being present by the icy condition of the roads.

Coincidental with the passing of Mrs. Robinson was the fact that her double cousin, Mr. Frank Scott, of Los Angeles, Calif., passed away on February 29, from a paralytic stroke the previous day.

MRS. WILLIAM G. WALSH, OF 2061 DECARIE BLVD., MONTREAL.

Kingsey, March 19.—Mrs. Mary Caroline Walsh, wife of William George Walsh, of Montreal, passed away at her home in Montreal, on March 12, after a short illness.

She was born in Kingsey, on March 28, 1879, a daughter of the late John Colborne Moore and Victoria Abercrombie.

Mrs. Walsh was a sister of the late John G. Moore, and the late Dora Ella Moore, of Kingsey, and the late Dr. A. H. Moore, of Halifax, N.S.

She was the French specialist at Ormstown High School for the past 20 years, having taught school for 42 years.

She is survived by one son, Dr. G. M. Self, of Calgary, Alta.; one daughter-in-law, and two little granddaughters, of Calgary, Alta.; one sister-in-law, Mrs. J. G. Moore, of Kingsey; besides several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held on March 13, in the Church of St. James the Apostle, where Mrs. Walsh had been a member of the choir for more than twenty years. Rev. Mr. Jackson officiated.

The pallbearers were six pupils of Ormstown High School. Interment was made in St. Paul's Cemetery at Sydenham Place.

Roman Catholic

wind blew so strong they could hardly stand. The strength of the older Trappists was failing; they had nothing to eat but dry cereal; they were lodged in pig-pens. The younger men made litters to carry the infirm.

Father William, 70, died at Mal Lal Tsun on September 6th. He was being carried on a mountain trail the carriers slipped; his head broke open from the fall. At Teng Chia Yu where they stayed 25 days, the sufferings were terrible.

Wrists bound with wire were inflamed and broke open; the cold was intense, the rain beat down on them, they had virtually no food. There were more "trials" and more beatings; Father Seraphim was "tried" 20 times. They had their hands wired behind their backs, and had to eat like animals.

Eight died at Teng Chia Yu. The first was the Frenchman, Father Stephen. Then Father Alphonsus, Father Alphonsus had been Fr. Albert L'Heureux, S.J., missionary in China for many years. He was born at Coaticook, Quebec, Canada.

"That man died peacefully," a guard told the monks, "he looked like the other man in your chapel on the figure-tan name. The figure-tan in Chinese is a cross."

About September 14, 65-year-old Chinese Fr. Amelius died, and in the next three weeks he was followed by Brothers Conrad, Jerome, Mark, Aloysius, Gonzaga and Bartholomew. They were buried in shallow graves, and at night the dogs came to tear their bodies apart.

There was more suffering for the Trappist lovers of peace; their monastery had been set on fire by the Communist officials. Li T'ai Shih brought three to view the ruins; flames had consumed all except the stables and the chapter room.

"Yang Chia Ping is destroyed," the Red soldiers said, "and before long there will be no Catholic Church in our territories."

By the end of September the tragic drama began to disintegrate; five brothers were released, and then seven more. For some reason the death sentence of the People's Court was forgotten. On Monday (October 13, Brother Joachim and six others were sent away. Brother Joachim's crime was that, in meditation, he had prayed God to rid China of the Communist armies, and to strengthen Chiang Kai-shek.

"If we find you in another seminary," the Red official told the young men, "we will kill you."

They had to cross the Gou-ma's land between Communist and Nationalist troops with the aid of a machine bullet, surrounding them. Late at night, October 18th, the eve of Mission Sunday, they reached Peiping and the Marxist Brothers' school.

On the night of October 13th, Father Antonius Fan died; on the 18th Fr. Augustinus Faure followed. On October 26th, fifteen of the Brothers were released, and they reported increasing brutality.

The fate of twenty-seven Trappists is still in doubt. One, Father Michael, is very near death; Fr. Seraphim's thumbs were wired behind his back, his big toes wired together, and a third strand bound thumbs and toes so that he cannot stand.

For 64 years Yang Chia Ping was a reservoir of Grace for the China Mission. Now it lies in ruins, its monks scattered or dead. May God in His mercy, and in their own wonderful reservoir of Grace in heaven grant the Trappists of Yang Chia Ping a new home to continue their prayer for China!

QUEBEC SWAMPS

BRAVES 7-2 IN INITIAL TILT

Quebec, March 19.—(P)—Quebec Aces, hitting full stride in the third period when they scored five goals, overwhelmed Valleyfield Braves 7-2 here last night to take a one-game lead in a best-of-three semi-final series in the Quebec Senior Hockey League.

The Aces, who surprised hockey fans by eliminating Montreal Royals in three straight, went on the offensive in the middle frame as nearly 8,000 home fans clamored for action after a scoreless first period.

Ray Marshall, who took scoring honors for the night with two markers, sent Quebec into the lead at the 6:46 mark, and Phil Renaud made it 2-0 at the three-quarter mark. Valleyfield retained with- in striking distance, however, Besette scoring before the middle frame ended.

But in the third period the roof fell in on the Braves as Quebec ran wild, counting five in a row on goals by Marshall, Gordie Heale, Freddie Kovalchuk, Laval Poulin and Jimmy Planché, before Bisailon registered Valleyfield's second marker.

As the pace increased, tempers flared and outbreaks were numerous, officials handing out ten penalties, including two majors and as many misconducts. Clarence (Rags) Baglan of Quebec led the parade to the penalty box, drawing three minors.

Second game is slated for Valleyfield Saturday.

U.S. Indoor Finals To Be Played Today

New York, March 19.—(P)—Top-seeded Billy Talbert and the veteran Frank Shields, both of New York, meet today for a final berth in the National Indoor Tennis Tournament.

The winner will take on Sidney Schwartz, a University of Miami student, for the championship. Schwartz advanced yesterday by defeating third-seeded Ed McGrath, Eastern Indoor Champion, 8-6, 5-7, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Two University of Miami strokers—top-seeded Doris Hart of Miami and Barbara Scofield of San Francisco—vie in a women's singles semi-final match.

The victor qualifies to play Mrs. Patricia Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif., for the title. Mrs. Todd won her way into the last round yesterday by defeating Gertrude Moran of Santa Monica, Calif., 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Doubles action also featured yesterday's play.

Talbert and Shields moved into the men's doubles finals with a 6-8, 6-4, 4-6, 3-7, 7-5 verdict over Armando Vieira of Brazil and Vinies Rurac of Romania.

Talbert teamed with Miss Hart to gain the mixed doubles final where they will meet Mrs. Todd and Marcel Bernard of France.

SENATORS DROP

TILT 4-2 TO CATARACTS

Shawinigan Falls, Que., March 19.—(P)—Shawinigan Falls Cataracts, led by veteran Hal Dewey with two goals, shaded Ottawa Senators 4-2 before a capacity crowd of 6,000 fans here last night to even the best-of-seven Quebec Senior Hockey League semi-final series at two games apiece.

After a fast opening period in which each team scored once, Ottawa held a definite edge in play during the last two sessions but their attack made little headway against some sensational goaltending by Young Hal Murphy in the Cataract cage. Murphy blocked 39 shots while "Legs" Fraser at the other end stopped 28.

Besides Dewey's double effort, Eddie Theberge and Alfie Webster fired the other Shawinigan markers, while veteran George Markes and Lude Check garnered the Senators counters.

Substantial Surplus Shown By Municipally-Operated Workers' Compensation Fund

A net surplus of $34,268.03 stood at the credit of the City of Sherbrooke's Board of Claims for Labor Accidents at the close of 1947, according to the reports made by the administrator, City Treasurer Maurice Cormier, to the members of the City Council, on the operations for the year 1947. The fund showed a surplus of $6,688.97.

Revenues for the year amounted to $26,696.72, comprising assessments on departments, $25,194.4; and interest on investments, $1,696.72. Expenditures amounted to $16,262.55. As might be expected, the largest item was for compensation to injured workmen, which totalled $8,378.82. This was followed by $3,753.22 for annuities to the survivors of workers killed during the course of their duty. Other payments included: Quebec Workmen's Compensation Commission, $766.85; hospital bills, $1,480.11; doctor's bills, $1,595.50; sundries, $111.05; administration, $35.22, and interest and premium on bonds purchased, $141.78. In addition the sum of $3,745.20 was appropriated for the payment of annuities, leaving the surplus of $6,688.97.

The total assets of the fund were placed at $46,202.64, comprising: Cash in bank, $142.64; securities on hand, $46,000; furniture and equipment, $60. The liabilities were: Unpaid cheques, $643.85; reserves for annuities, $11,290.76; and surplus, $34,268.03.

This fund was established in September, 1944, when the City decided to carry its own employers' liability insurance, the contributions of the departments to the fund being based on their previous payments to private companies. The report of Mr. Cormier expresses satisfaction with the operation of the plan, the surplus being accumulated despite the fact that in its first four months, the fund accumulated liabilities for annuities in the case of four employees of the gas and electric department and one employee of the road department who were killed while on duty. The electric department workers were killed when an extra gang truck was struck by a passenger train at the Richelieu street entrance to the gas works about Christmas, 1944, and the road department worker was a snow plow operator who was asphyxiated in the cab of his tractor three days later.

Since the inauguration of the fund, a total of 428 cases have been dealt with and payments have totalled $44,899.39, divided between: Compensation, $21,354.74; hospital and doctors, $11,017.36; and annuities, $12,527.29. Pointing to the advantages of the plan insofar as the employees are concerned, Mr. Cormier states that in every case, claims are dealt with immediately and payments made without delay. No worker, he continues, has found occasion to complain of the speed or justice with which his case was handled. In addition to receiving the two-thirds of his salary from the Claims Board, as required by law, the injured workmen receive from the department by which he was employed the balance of his normal salary. This extra payment has meant an expenditure by the city over a three-year period of $10,677.37.

In closing, Mr. Cormier urged that the superintendents, foremen and gang bosses exercise greater supervision over their employees so that the accident rate can be diminished. A reduction in accidents, he concludes, would benefit both the workers and their employer, the City of Sherbrooke.

Bishop's Men's And Women's Associations Meet Jointly

The first joint meeting of the Bishop's University men's and women's associations was held Wednesday evening in Convocation Hall. This was a historic occasion in the university's student affairs as it marked the only time such an event has ever taken place.

The enthusiastic acclaim given to the meeting by both the associations and by the faculty, represented by Rev. Basil Jones, acting principal, promises that such meetings will, however, take place regularly in the future. The ground work for this occasion had been laid during the past two years when members of the two executive councils met jointly to discuss problems of common interest.

The meeting itself held more than common interest as several important issues were discussed. Following the regular business sessions Brigham Day presented $550, which had been collected among the students, to Col. Lee Watson, a member of the Extension Fund Campaign committee, as the students' contribution towards that campaign. In thanking the students, Col. Watson stated that close to $2,000,000 dollars had already been collected, and he particularly praised the great co-operation that had been given the campaign by Eastern Townships residents.

The main part of the discussion which followed was concerned with the question of joining the International Union of Students. The National Federation of Canadian University Students, to which Bishop's belongs, had passed to its members a referendum regarding membership in the international body and the university stand on this question had to be decided. Heated arguments, both pro and con, preceded the voting in which the motion for affiliation was carried. Opponents to this proposal claimed that I.U.S. was Communist-dominated and consequently any contributions to the organization would find their way into Communist hands. This claim, however, was denied when it was pointed out that the Canadian federation would enter I.U.S. only on the condition that it become non-political, with the warning that Canada would withdraw if she found unsatisfactory conditions existing in this respect. This warning was further strengthened by the threat if N.F.C.U.S. withdrew due to the fact that the international body remained political in its outlook, then the Canadian Federation would set up a rival organization on a non-political basis.

Additional emphasis to the advantages of affiliation were pointed out in the claim that Communism could not be fought by inaction and membership in I.U.S. would at least give the Canadian students a chance to attempt to make that body non-political. Non-participation, on the other hand, would retain the status quo with the Communists firmly in the saddle.

Dean Jones wished the members success in subsequent joint meetings and expressed satisfaction that the state, when such meetings could be held, had been achieved. Following adjournment refreshments were served in the college gymnasium.

QUEBEC MAYOR AND ALDERMEN GET PAY BOOSTS

Quebec, March 19.—Salary of Quebec's city mayor will go up from $8,000 to $9,000 and aldermen's pay from $2,000 to $2,500 by an amendment of the Quebec Municipal Bill approved by the Legislative Council.

As submitted to the private bills committee of the Upper House, the amendment proposed $10,000 for the mayor and $3,000 for aldermen. The amounts were reduced by the committee. Passed last week by the Legislative Assembly without the salary increase clause, the bill will go back to the Lower House for approval of the clause.

The Council committee also approved a proposal in the Quebec bill prohibiting membership of Quebec city policemen in any union but one made up exclusively of members of their own force.

SLOT MACHINES ARE SEIZED BY MOUNTIES

Disclosure was made this morning by Sgt. J. A. Turgeon of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police of the seizure of three slot machines, a smuggled American car and illicit alcohol in three raids carried out on Tuesday by Sherbrooke and Drummondville detachments.

All three slot machines were seized in this city by the Sherbrooke detachment. One machine was found in the possession of a local man and police impounded his 1941 Plymouth car after investigations proved that the automobile had been used in transporting the slot machines. The other two were seized in the downtown area from a Stanstead man whose 1937 Buick was also impounded.

On the advice of the Rock Island detachment, a stolen American automobile smuggled into Canada was seized in Sherbrooke. Owners of the vehicles will be called to court by summons within a few days.

The Drummondville detachment carried out a seizure on Tuesday in Drummondville against Edmond Gouin and Adrien Ruest of that town, when they were caught with four gallons of illicit alcohol. Their 1947 Chrysler Royal was impounded and the pair are charged with infractions against the Excise Act.

McGILL GRADS PLAN VISIT TO MAGOG

Members of the St. Francis district branch of the McGill Graduates Society will visit Magog on Sunday, March 21, as guests of Dr. M. E. Adams, for an informal gathering which will enable branch members to meet McGill graduates in the Magog district.

The party will meet at Armitage's Cabins corner at 10 a.m. Sunday and travel by car to the Orford road, going the rest of the way either on skis or by sleigh. Some members of the Montreal executive are expected to be present.

The St. Francis district branch, whose president is Eric Morrison, of Asbestos, and whose vice-president is G. M. Young, of Sherbrooke, has been extremely active in the last few years and has held many get-togethers which are becoming increasingly popular.

Future plans call for a sugaring-off party, a crew shoot and the annual spring meeting, which will be held in Sherbrooke.

The membership campaign is coming along well and it is hoped that the objective will be reached next month. Dr. T. J. Quintin is chairman of the membership committee and Mrs. Helen Stuart, women's vice-president, is chairman of the women's membership committee.

One-Act Play Was Highlight Of St. Pat's Entertainment

One of the highlights of the variety entertainment presented on Wednesday under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Parish Society was the amusing one-act play "And So She Made a Novena" a Walter Baker non-royalty play directed by Mrs. F. J. Doherty.

The story centers about Katie, an attractive, spirited spinster, exceptionally well played by Mrs. F. J. Mallette (Monica O'Boyle), who has passed her thirty-fourth birthday and who, after seeing her three younger sisters married, gives way to a panicky feeling of frustration as she feels herself doomed to a drab and lonely existence as an old maid.

The role of the understanding mother was confided to Priscilla Tuite, a member of the original St. Patrick's Players, who can always be depended upon for a good portrayal of any part, she assumes.

Patrick Timmons was completely at home in the part of the blustery but devoted father, Patrick Bryan, who finds his family of women a little too much for him at times. His droll remarks afforded much hilarity and the players were often obliged to wait for the laughter to subside.

Appearing on the stage for the first time, Frances Brodeur was a charming Rose, the little married sister who strives to keep her hard-working husband the slim, dashing Romeo she married, by feeding him vitamins—somewhat to the detriment of his appetite and his temper, with the result that she frequently has to "come home to mother for advice."

Sweden's Olga, the maid who serenely flits off to a romance of her own, pausing on the way to announce to Mrs. Bryan that what Miss Katie needs to restore her good humor is "just a husband of her own," was portrayed by Arlene Hand, who needs no introduction to Sherbrooke audiences and who, although her role was brief, gave her usual efficient performance.

John Michael Hurley and an unforeseen but nearly tragic episode finally solve Katie's problem. Stewart Hansford was well suited to the part of John Michael, the California ranch owner, whose late father was a great friend of Patrick Bryan.

John Michael, who is 40 and very much aware of the fact, finds in Katie the good wife he has been looking for and everything turns out beautifully.

The play although very light was well cast and there were no awkward pauses or blown lines at any point.

Geraldine Hebert was convener of the entertainment and the director was assisted by Keville Doherty.

Both Mrs. Doherty and Mrs. L. E. Codere, who was in charge of the musical portion of the program, were presented with flowers by the Society.

John Michael Hurley and an unforeseen but nearly tragic episode finally solve Katie's problem. Stewart Hansford was well suited to the part of John Michael, the California ranch owner, whose late father was a great friend of Patrick Bryan.

John Michael, who is 40 and very much aware of the fact, finds in Katie the good wife he has been looking for and everything turns out beautifully.

The play although very light was well cast and there were no awkward pauses or blown lines at any point.

Geraldine Hebert was convener of the entertainment and the director was assisted by Keville Doherty.

Both Mrs. Doherty and Mrs. L. E. Codere, who was in charge of the musical portion of the program, were presented with flowers by the Society.

THE GOVERNMENT MUST GIVE THE LEAD

Three of Canada's parliamentary leaders, Justice Minister Ilsley, Defence Minister Claxton and Opposition Leader Bracken, have warned the people of this country of the danger of the Communist infiltration which ultimately threatens the entire democratic system, economic and political.

Speaking in Montreal, Defence Minister Claxton expressed Canadian support for President Truman's call for co-operation in preserving peace. Commenting on the Washington address, he declared:

"There is only one way to preserve peace, and that is to apply the same rules between nations as between individuals — the rule of law, backed up by force which is used for no other purpose than to back the rule of law."

Canadians will agree with the words of Mr. Claxton, but unfortunately they are confronted with some rather distressing questions which they must ask themselves. Where does Canada fit in the picture? What are the specific plans of the Government towards creating such a force? Where is it? How strong will it be? When is it to be established? More than talk is needed and the people of this country are anxious to see some local developments.

Justice Minister Ilsley warned of the internal dangers and Opposition Leader Bracken, in pledging the whole-hearted support of his party to any steps the Government takes, within its legislative powers, to fight Communism, is expressing the real feelings of the Canadian people.

It is all very well for Mr. Ilsley to warn the people of Canada to be on their guard against the infiltration of Communism, and most people will support him in this respect. But they must look to the Government for leadership. What means does the Government propose to organize an anti-Communist drive? What information can it give the citizens on the true situation? Where is the danger greatest? How can it best be met?

Any internal war on Communism requires direction from the top. The individual, regardless of his views on the menace, can do nothing effective unless his efforts are co-ordinated with men of similar goodwill elsewhere and this co-ordination can come only from government agencies.

The Government appears aware of the danger, but does it propose to do anything about it?

FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE

The year 1948 marks the opening of the second half-century of service by the Shawinigan Water and Power Company to the people of the Province of Quebec. During the fifty years of its existence, the prime watchword of the organization was service. The name "Shawinigan" has become almost synonymous with the word "service," and few who have had dealings with that organization, whether they be individuals, corporations or governing bodies, have been able to offer criticism of the service provided by that company or of the courtesy and co-operation which have aided so materially in making it the leading power producer of the world.

Sherbrooke citizens have learned the value of Shawinigan friendship and service. During the recent power crisis, when the municipal power system found itself unable to meet but a small fraction of the demands upon it, the action of Shawinigan alone prevented drastic power cuts which would have affected industry and householder alike. The aid extended by the private company went beyond the normal relations of seller and purchaser, the producer going to extreme efforts to provide scarce transformer equipment to handle a temporary power demand caused by low water in this district. Such a service is not unique in the history of Shawinigan, but in all parts of the Province where it sells its products similar stories can be recounted.

During its fifty years, Shawinigan has proved the chief factor in the industrial development of the Province and with plans for even greater expansion in the future, it promises to continue to serve the needs of those new and extending plants which are coming into the district.

A REAL SCOUT

In his brief lifetime, fifteen-year-old Peter Bullock, son of a former member of the Sherbrooke Record staff, Ted Bullock, whose death of leukemia occurred in a Montreal hospital Tuesday, has offered an inspiration to Scouts throughout the world.

Rewarded just eleven days earlier with the Cornwell Badge, the highest award in Scouting, for undergoing "great suffering in heroic manner" Peter had known his fate from the time he was taken to the hospital two days before Christmas. But he was wholly without apprehension. His chief concern throughout the long fight for his life was to alleviate the sorrow of his family and friends. He arose bravely above the continuous pain which was his lot and remained cheerful, considerate and charming.

Certainly one cannot but be inspired by the manner in which he faced his fate and fully appreciate the merit of the award which was established for "pre-eminently high character and devotion to duty, together with great courage, endurance and gallantry."

TOM CLARK AND FERGUSON PLAY TAG BEHIND POLITICAL PROBES

When Michigan Sen. Homer Ferguson's new investigating subcommittee starts digging into the 1946 Kansas City vote frauds, the real target is going to be Attorney-General Tom Clark and his administration of the Department of Justice.

It was Sen. James P. Kem of Missouri, who last year offered the original resolution to investigate the Justice Department, Kem charges Clark failed to order a thorough investigation of irregularities in the primary race between Roger Slaughter and Enos Axtell, Democratic candidates for Congress, Axtell had President Truman's support.

But investigating Tom Clark will give Senator Ferguson a chance to even up an old score, too. Ever since the now-expiring Senate War Investigating Committee uncovered the Congressman Andy May and Garson brothers scandals, Ferguson claims the Democrats have been trying to get something on him in Michigan.

The political pressure applied to get the May-Garson hearings quashed was terrific. The Republicans were in a hot political campaign in which they were later to take over leadership in Congress. May was a Democrat. The Democrats said that any scandal, involving a Democrat as important as Chairman May of the House Military Affairs Committee, would react unfavorably against the whole party.

GETTING SOMETHING ON FERGUSON

The story is that an effort was therefore made to get something on Ferguson, who was taking a leading part in the May investigation. Ferguson had won his fame as a judge and one-man grand jury cleaning up Michigan graft and crime. It was this success that got Ferguson elected to the Senate in 1942. There wasn't anything there that would make political capital. So attention was centred on the senator's business connections and law practice.

The Ferguson's only daughter is married to a young Detroit businessman, Charles R. Beltz. He has the Grosse Pointe, Mich., agency for Chrysler air conditioning unit sales. The senator naturally had an interest in this business and had done some of the legal work for his son-in-law's firm. Any good father-in-law might be expected to do this if he wanted to see his daughter's husband get along in the world.

Senator Ferguson says he has always been puzzled over just what the Democrats were fishing for. He believes, however, that an effort was made to find that he was serving as counsel for the Chrysler corporation while taking an active part in the Senate War Investigating Committee work, probing war contracts.

The incident sets the stage for the coming summer's work of Ferguson's Subcommittee on Expenditures in the Executive Department. This committee was set up with a broad grant of power and $170,000 appropriation. Other Republican members are Ives of New York, Bricker of Ohio, and Thye of Minnesota. Democrats are McClellan of Arkansas, Hoey of North Carolina, O'Connor of Maryland.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The old Senate War Investigating Committee that made Harry S. Truman famous is due to expire before April 1, when its final reports are in. The new Ferguson subcommittee takes on where the old committee left off, inheriting some 50 investigations left over as unfinished business.

When the Truman committee was set up in 1941, it operated on a non-partisan policy. All its reports were unanimous. But when Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine became chairman in 1947, the committee took a definite political slant. Brewster was blocked on investigating conditions in Germany, however, and the Howard Hughes investigation backed off on him. Brewster then appeared to lose interest and Ferguson took over.

The fact that the committee's work degenerated into something of a political mud-slinging contest has been held against both Brewster and Ferguson. Ferguson, however, says that the results of the May and Hughes investigations were not just political. After disclosures in these cases, both the Army and the Air Forces reorganized procurement and inspection.

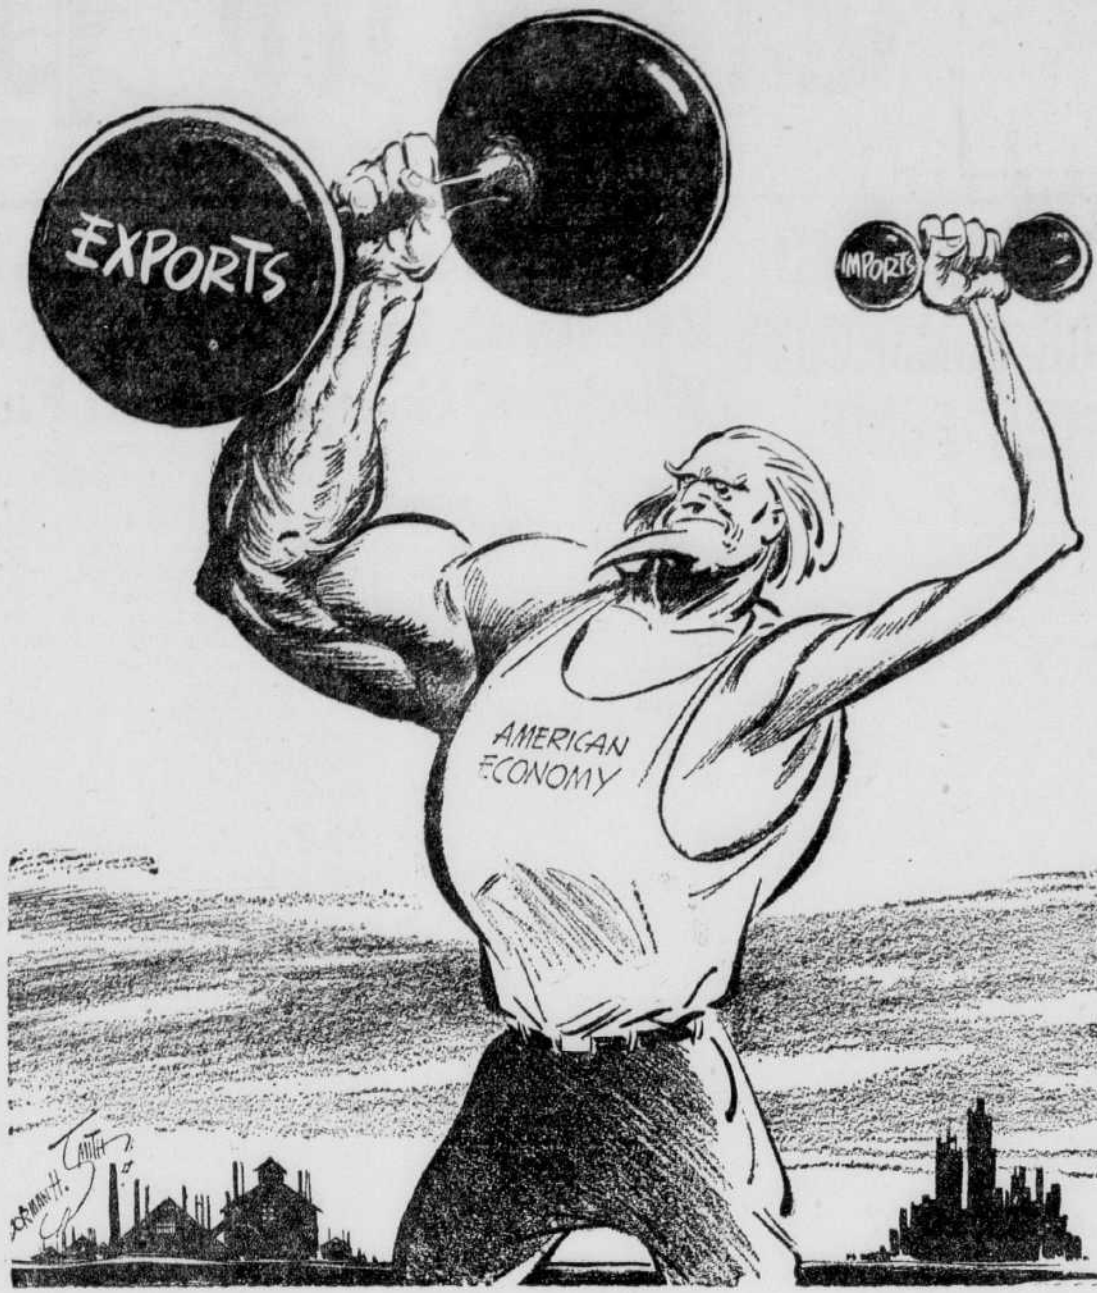

Senator Ferguson, of course, is up for reelection this November. Anything he can uncover on the Democrats before voting day won't hurt his chances in the slightest. He has announced that hearings will be held all through the congressional recess and the campaign. If anything can be revealed which will in any way embarrass the Democrats, it will of course be purely coincidental.

PRESS COMMENTS

THE FIGURES ARE SERIOUSLY BAD

The Gazette
If two news despatches from Ottawa last week are placed beside each other they will be found to be curiously incompatible. They both relate to the same subject, they both come from spokesmen of the Canadian Government, but they seem, somehow, to take slight notice of each other.

One of these despatches was that reporting the statement made on Friday by Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, the Minister of External Affairs. It has been quite properly described as the gravest statement made by any member of the Canadian Cabinet since the war years. Mr. St. Laurent said that the time has come for a showdown with the Soviet Union, which is creeping like oil over the face of Europe. It has become necessary for all free countries, to form a united front and make plain to Russia that she can go no farther. And if, unhappily, there should be another war, "we should, all of us, be obliged to defend ourselves."

The other despatch received little publicity. It reported information given one afternoon last week in the House of Commons, when questions on many different subjects were being asked by members.

It was then that Lt.-Col. Hugues Lapointe, the Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of National Defence, answered questions that had been asked by Mr. E. D. Fulton, Progressive Conservative member for Kamloops, concerning the authorized and actual strength of the three armed forces of Canada.

Here are the answers:
The authorized strength of the Active Canadian Army is 23,303. It has been reduced for the present to 20,079. But the actual strength is 15,400.
The authorized strength of the Royal Canadian Navy (active) is 7,875. The actual strength is 6,782.

The authorized strength of the Royal Canadian Air Force (active) is 18,221. It has been reduced for the present to 14,271. The actual strength is 11,636.

Questions had also been asked by Mr. Fulton about the authorized and actual strength of the reserve sections. These questions brought out the information that the reserve of Royal Canadian Navy has an authorized strength of 18,000, reduced for the present to 4,400. But its actual strength is 3,247.

The auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Air Force has an authorized strength of 4,500, reduced for the present to 3,121. But its actual strength is 692. Though the figures for the reserve of the Canadian Army were not given, they presumably present a somewhat similar picture.

A generation ago the late Theodore Roosevelt used to say it is a good thing to speak softly and carry a big stick. No doubt there is a more realistic wisdom in that suggestion than in the present Canadian policy of speaking loudly and carrying a very little stick.

Certainly these modest objectives for Canada's three services, and the unsatisfactory efforts to meet even such objectives, provide little practical support not only for the words of Mr. St. Laurent (truly spoken as they were), but for the forthright statements of the Minister of National Defence, Hon. Brooke Claxton, in a speech in Montreal on February 9.

Mr. Claxton then said nobody but a fool or an fanatic could maintain that Russia desires nothing but peaceful co-operation with the rest of the world. He said that U.S. experts had estimated Russia's total armed forces at around 4,000,000, compared with slightly over 1,000,000 in their own country. Had he carried the compari-

Letters To The Editor

URGES AID TO EUROPE MOVEMENT

The Editor.
Sir: A short time ago through the interest and courtesy of Rev. Fred Williams of Trinity Church, you published a letter I had received from the Y.M.C.A. in Kiel, Germany, following the receipt of a parcel of clothing I had sent them to distribute among the poverty-stricken people of that area. I want to add my personal thanks for that most helpful publicity.

Since then I have spent a good part of my time preparing and sending similar parcels of food and clothing to this same organization and to a number of individuals whose names I was able to secure. In each of these I have included a letter in which I tried to put across the understanding and caring I had found for what they were passing through over there.

I have had time to receive letters from only a few of these people but from these few, extracts of which are published below, I have experienced a deep conviction that it is only in an all-out undertaking of this sharing by the people in all the nations who still have something to share that there is any hope of us seeing, or us of this generation having a part in a new and different world.

For my part, I am offering all my time from now on to help organize here and wherever needed to assure that this relief is despatched with the shortest possible delay.

It is being said that the only thing that can save us for what seems to be closing in on us these days is the intervention of Almighty God. I see in the despatch of this aid God intervening, as God is love. What we send over will be received as such and one can hardly visualize its far-reaching effects.

Let us come to know and act on the knowledge that true love is still the strongest power in the world. In taking up this work we will be declaring and enlisting in the only kind of a war that will end wars.

This will be the ammunition we will send over and to the extent we individually are willing to share and send over will be shown the part we really want to have in this new and better world which few people believe as yet possible. Nevertheless, the dawn is coming and we will then see that what we son one step further, he could have compared it with this country's total active forces of less than 34,000. Yet in the same speech Mr. Claxton said that Canada "must ensure positive security" under her own arms.

Certainly Mr. St. Laurent or Mr. Claxton, or any other member of the Government, is to be praised for speaking clearly about the seriousness of the world situation. In all such words they speak no more than the grim truth. Yet there is the curious contrast between the general and the practical. The only practical expression of fears and condemnations of the Soviet Union is the development of national defenses. Yet our armed forces, whether active or reserve, are as yet only shades even of their modest objectives.

Quite undoubtedly the blame is not that of the Government alone. The citizens have their duty, not only to their country but to themselves to play their part in the active or reserve forces and to give every movement towards greater preparedness their goodwill and encouragement.

But if there has been a failure of response in this country, there has also been a failure in leadership. The figures are seriously bad. A similar failure in any other department of government would speak for itself and pronounce its condemnation. After all, the finest kind of leadership, and that most wanted at the moment, is that which can awaken the kind of response that is needed.

have been experiencing was necessary before we became willing to pay the price of a different world. The army will be all volunteer. If all who want to have a part in this life-saving offensive will communicate with me at once, they will be notified as to where and when we will meet to plan for these parts.

P. A. SHERMAN.

Stouttown.

Included in the letters received was one from Dr. Peter Meinhold, Professor of Divinity, Kiel University, who says:

"Conditions in Germany are very hard... as the remainder of the last harvest seems to have been consumed already, and it has been announced that people may not be sure of getting any meat nor fat within the next ration period... I am very thankful for the remarks in your letter that you need sincere people for living and working on farms, and I should like to discuss the matter with the Military Government, if you agree, in order to find perhaps a way for the future to bring over some trustworthy young people who are living here without home or family to bring them into a proper job at least for one or two years..."

Sister Ursula Baum, refugee guardian at Weddte, writes:

"Through Pastor Schwotzer, I received from you a parcel, a pair of boots. As guardian for refugees, I have to look after twenty-two widely scattered widows with very bad roads. Since I, myself, am a refugee and lost everything, I have had no strong shoes. What a joy that I now have these boots, for now I can enjoy all my grief and visit and care for the other refugees who live in greater poverty and misery. Pastor Schwotzer has also promised to make me a present of some of the rendered beef fat which you have sent him. For that I thank you very much."

"My dear sister is starving in the East and I, too, know what hunger means. Now, however, this will end, thanks to your most kind gift."

Other letters were also received from Pastor Helmut Schwotzer of Kreis Aschendorf and from Karl Kuhn of Nieder-Ramstadt, telling of the joy and thanksgiving over the receipt of parcels of clothing and beef fat.

POPULAR IN TORONTO

Toronto Financial Post
A middle-aged businessman we know, a gentle and impeccable soul, is the proud owner of a fur hat. Having to go to Chicago during the cold spell, he took it with him. On a gusty, bitter day he was walking along the street searching for a taxi when suddenly a cab swerved to the curb. The driver yelled, "Get in, Canada!" Getting in, our friend asked how he knew he was from Canada. "By the hat, bud," said the driver, "by the hat."

Just then the cab was halted by a traffic light. The door was flung open and a theatrical-looking blonde hopped in. Momentarily startled to find another passenger occupying the seat, she explained she was in a hurry to get to the railway depot. The driver, an obliging chap, asked our man if he'd mind; said it wouldn't take him much out of his way, Canada said he didn't mind.

The girl thanked him and added, "That's some hat! Where are you from?" He said "Toronto." She sighed and said, "Ah, good old Toronto! I played in Montreal, too. I like Montreal, but I like Toronto better. The audiences there are much more appreciative. Our man nearly swooned with pride. Where did you play in Toronto?" he asked. "At the Casino," she said. "I do a sort of striptease."

AN UNUSUAL PLAY FOR VIENNA COUP

One of the most difficult squeeze plays to recognize is the Vienna coup. Today's, sent to me by Oswald J. Ray of New York, is very unusual. Declarer must employ the Vienna coup and then execute a squeeze play on both opponents. The opening lead of the eight of hearts was won in dummy with the king. The ace of diamonds was cashed, a small diamond led from dummy and the jack finessed, East winning.

If East had returned a spade at this point I believe he could have killed the squeeze play. However he led the four of hearts, which Ray (North) won with the queen. Now Ray made the Vienna coup play. He returned the small club and went up with dummy's ace, deliberately setting up East's king. Then he ran off the balance of the diamonds, leaving in his own hand the five of spades, ace-seven of hearts and queen of clubs.

East at this point was down to the queen-eight-three of spades and king of clubs. Dummy had the ace-king-six of spades and ten of clubs.

On the last diamond West had to make a discard from the jack-ten-seven of spades and jack-ten of hearts. If he let go the ten of hearts, Ray's ace and seven would be good. He discarded the seven of spades, and then Ray cashed

The Doctor Says

TUBERCULOSIS ON ITS WAY OUT; COULD BE ELIMINATED ENTIRELY

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

Tuberculosis, sometimes called the "White Plague," seems to be on the way out. This disease has been one of the greatest enemies of mankind since the dawn of history.

Even a generation ago, it was one of the most important causes of illness and death throughout the world. In North America, however, the disease has been fought so successfully that it is no longer the threat that it used to be. Now we know enough to eliminate tuberculosis completely. This should be done as promptly as possible.

Tuberculosis of the lungs—the most common form—can be discovered early on an X-ray film. In the early stage a patient who is given rest and other proper care almost invariably recovers, and rather promptly too. If isolated from others the danger of spread is greatly decreased. Even in advanced stages modern methods of treatment are highly effective.

BCG Vaccination
A recent development in the campaign against tuberculosis is revival of a method of vaccination with a substance called BCG. BCG, standing for "Bacillus of Calmette and Guerin," is obtained from a type of tubercle bacillus or germ originally taken from the milk of tuberculous cows in 1906.

This vaccination was first used many years ago. Because of an unfortunate accident due to carelessness in handling it in Germany nearly 20 years ago, its use was practically stopped. Recently, however, the U.S. Public Health Service and other organizations have revived interest in BCG.

By all these means which are now available, we should be able to eliminate tuberculosis altogether. As long, however, as there are any victims of the disease anywhere in the world, there is some risk. The sooner the campaign can be made effective everywhere, therefore, the safer it will be for all.

Does a constant feeling of pressure in the breast cause tiredness, weakness and nervousness?
It is hard to tell what this means, but unusual sensations do cause nervousness and fatigue.

ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING HELD IN WATERVILLE

Waterville, March 19.—The annual vestry meeting of St. John's Anglican Church was held in the church and was very well attended. The incumbent, Rev. Guy Marston, opened the meeting with prayer, and the minutes of the last annual meeting were confirmed.

The financial report was presented by the people's warden, Mr. L. E. Allen, who moved its adoption, which was seconded by Mr. P. E. Holtham. Mr. R. J. Walsh, who had served in this office of treasurer, for many years, congratulated Mr. Allen on his report.

Mr. P. E. Holtham thanked the congregation for their co-operation with the wardens, during the past year.

Other reports presented were as follows: St. John's Ladies' Guild report, given by the treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Ayer; St. John's Anglican Club, by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lillian McFaul.

Rev. Mr. Marston heartily thanked the wardens, the Ladies' Guild, the Social Club, the Alter Guild, choir, organists, auditors and Sunday School teachers for their splendid support at all times and especially so, during his absence.

when the work of the church was faithfully carried on.

The election of officers then took place and resulted as follows: Clergyman's warden, Mr. T. E. Holtham, re-appointed; people's warden, Mr. Robert Grey; Mr. W. H. Lynch, K.C., of Sherbrooke, was re-appointed delegate to the Synod; Miss Nettie Bradley re-elected as auditor; all the sidesmen of the church were re-appointed.

A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Walsh and seconded by Mr. Masters to Mr. Allen, who retired after several years of faithful service as people's warden. The meeting closed with the "Benediction."

108 MILLION DOLLARS

...blessing or boomerang?

During 1948 Ottawa will pay back this tremendous total to individual Canadians in the form of refunds on 1942 Income Tax (Compulsory Savings) and as cash for War Savings Certificates maturing during the year. Some of this money may be coming to you:

EXTRA MONEY is always useful, and in homes across Canada these payments will be welcomed as valuable additions to income:

But the catch is that this additional spending power, if translated into immediate buying, would almost certainly drive present prices still higher and increase your own cost of living.

It is, therefore, wise, if your budget permits, to defer your spending, putting the money instead into the purchase of additional CANADA SAVINGS BONDS.

Never forget, the money you have coming to you as a Tax Refund, or as the proceeds from War Savings Certificates, is the fruit of your wartime saving effort. It represents a cash asset; think twice before you spend it.

Canada Savings Bonds can be purchased over the counter at any branch of The Royal Bank of Canada. You can buy them outright for cash, or if you wish, use the proceeds of your government cheque as a down payment for bonds to be paid for by instalments. The procedure is simplicity itself. Our nearest branch will look after all details for you:

"You'll never be sorry you saved."

No Job demands ALL OUR PHYSICAL ABILITIES

He may be physically handicapped, but he isn't vocationally handicapped if placed in a job where remaining abilities are used. It's not what he has lost—but what he has left that counts.

A recent survey among Canadian employers confirms that physically-handicapped workers are: efficient from the employers' standpoint; are less vulnerable to accidents; have excellent records of output and attendance; and can successfully compete with the able-bodied when properly placed.

From January, 1946, to November, 1947, more than 26,500 jobs were filled by handicapped personnel in Canada through the Special Placements Division of National Employment Service.

PROBLEMS OF ALCOHOLISM ARE DISCUSSED

Problems of alcoholics were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night of the recently-formed Sherbrooke branch of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Alcoholism was described as a sickness and A.A. with a membership of 70,000 in Canada and the United States, is a self-help organization comprised of alcoholics who help each other overcome this illness.

A.A. members, it was stated, understand what it is to be an alcoholic. They eliminate the social stigma attached to drunkards. They know that alcoholism is a demanding sickness and that to fight it, a man needs some strength to fall back on.

The local address of A.A. is P.O. Box 624, Sherbrooke.

You Are Cordially Invited to attend an OPEN HOUSE

At 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, March 20th, the employees of the Canadian Ingersoll-Rand Company will be hosts to the citizens of Sherbrooke.

On this occasion, their relatives and friends, as well as the general public will have an opportunity of making a planned tour of our plant.

Since our first OPEN HOUSE was held on a Saturday afternoon in November 1899, we have held many events of a similar nature and the people of Sherbrooke have always shown a keen interest. Today the Company's works at Sherbrooke include engineering and designing offices, a pattern shop, foundry, plate shop, forge department, heat treating and metal plating divisions, numerous tool making departments and large machine shops. The size and variety of lines produced range from rock drill parts, weighing a few ounces, up to large hoists and compressors, weighing hundreds of tons.

One of the features of this plant visit, is the large 14 foot drum Electric Mine Hoist which is at present being erected on our large assembly floor. This hoist, which will soon be installed at Virginiatown, near Kirkland Lake, Ontario, will have, so far as it is known, the greatest rope pull and horse power rating of any hoist on the North American continent and will rank with the largest hoists in use anywhere in the world.

With many years of practical experience, skilled employees and the latest types of machine tools, we are now producing "Made in Sherbrooke" products for almost every branch of industry.

Mothers Should Teach Children Respect For Other People's Possessions

Dear Dorothy Dix: I love all children, but my experience with them has made it so that I can hardly welcome children in my home because of the destruction parents allow them to practice.

DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: I love all children, but my experience with them has made it so that I can hardly welcome children in my home because of the destruction parents allow them to practice.

His parents looked on without even trying to stop the vandalism. If these parents could only know how people dread having children come to their homes because of the deprecations they commit, they might do something about the problem.

For it is nonsense to say that the youngsters cannot be taught to respect other people's property. They can, as is proven by many children who behave like little ladies and gentlemen instead of savages.

Answer: So say we all, for there are few of us, if any, who do not have memories that blister and burn of when somebody's darling little inn and its mother made us a visit, and left behind a room that was a wreck—a rare book with its back torn off, a broken carved chair where little Cuteyums played horsey, curtains torn from their hangings, milk spilled all over a newly upholstered couch.

I still remember, after thirty years, of a fond mother reaching up and taking down a costly Parisian marble statuette from the mantel and giving it to a fretful child to play with, who, in the space of five minutes, had reduced the ornament to smithereens. Yet the mother's only comment was: "Oh, did you break the pretty dolly?"

Dear Miss Dix: I have been engaged to a boy for seven months and we now feel that we are ready to get married, but my mother thinks that we should wait until June. We have discussed this matter and have come to the conclusion that we will go ahead and get married without my mother's consent.

What would be the proper way of preparing for such a wedding? Could we go ahead with wedding plans and have our friends and relatives present at the ceremony? Or should it be better just to have two people as witnesses?

Answer: It seems perfectly foolish for your mother to upset all of your wedding plans by insisting on your being married in June instead of the month you have selected. There is no magic in that month that makes it preferable to any other month.

There is no reason, apparently, why your wedding should not follow the traditional plans for weddings nor why you should cut it down to just having two persons as witnesses, which would certainly give rise to a lot of gossip.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

MISS HYNDMAN VISITS LOCAL B. & P.W. CLUB

Enthusiastic acclaim was accorded Miss Margaret Hyndman, K.C. of Toronto, National President of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, by the Sherbrooke B. and P.W. Club, on her visit to Sherbrooke, Monday evening.

The reception was held at Rockcliffe, Quebec Street, where members of the local club were individually introduced to her by the national president by Miss Alice Milford, Sherbrooke Club president.

Miss Bessie Milford, provincial president, in her formal introduction of the speaker, referred to the remarkable achievements in the outstanding career of Miss Hyndman, the office of national presidency being only one of the many important offices held by her.

The national president enumerated the accomplishments of women in different parts of the world and cited one close to home where in Toronto is a 140 bed hospital directed and entirely managed by women.

Speaking of "Lights Up Fund," started by the Canadian clubs to help British women in emergency, Miss Hyndman said, the funds, instead had been entirely spent on organization of new clubs.

On the subject of equal pay for equal work, the speaker said, "If we cannot have this in our own province, how can we expect it will be procurable in other countries?"

Miss Hyndman brought up the much debated question of an official organizer of B. and P.W. Clubs and advanced arguments in its favor, pointing out the average business or professional woman has no time to carry out plans for increasing membership in any marked degree.

The speaker noted the increase of clubs in the Dominion, especially among the ex-service women who claimed the ideals and opportunities offered them in this organization filled their special need. She said the latest addition in federation is the 101st Dartmouth Club.

In conclusion, the speaker made a stirring appeal for action on all vital matters within the scope of Club members, so it may not be said of us "they only talk and pass resolutions."

Miss Margaret Haight, on behalf of the club, thanked Miss Hyndman. Following the talk delivered by the National President, refreshments were served from the dining room, the tea table being covered with an ecru lace cloth centered with a silver bowl of daffodils on a mirror, around which small pots of shamrock interspersed with floating green candles in silver holders were placed.

Green predominated in the drawing room, where ivy overhung the mantelpiece and tall sanseveria in green pottery vied with the shamrock in carrying Erin's color on the eve of the 17th of March.

Members of the club assisted in serving.

MODERN MARRIAGE

WHEN TO "GO STEADY"

By Dr. Paul Popenoe

Don't "go steady" unless you have a good reason to do so. Irene thinks she has two good reasons. "I don't agree with what you have written several times about the desirability of going with a lot of different fellows, and not going steady," she writes me.

"You never had to face the difficulties that a girl gets into when she is trying to go with a lot of fellows. Going steady is more convenient and less expensive."

Two substantial reasons, Irene, no one will deny the fact. If you are going with a man whom you regard as a possible husband, and have gone with enough men in the past to understand men and understand yourself, you are quite right in promoting economy and convenience, and various other advantages, by going with him. But if you are simply "dating," it seems to me that going steady has serious disadvantages.

1. It stifles competition and prevents you from "making the most of yourself" socially. You are simply taking the line of least resistance. You are getting into a rut.

2. It breeds possessiveness and jealousies. You begin to think you have a right to a man's exclusive attention—when as a fact you are not going steady. This often leads to "two-timing" in secret, by him or sometimes even by you! To that extent, one or both will be "leading a double life!"

3. Going steady tends to promote exploitation. People begin to show up late, to break dates, to keep dates open in the hope that something better will show up; and expect to do so without being challenged, because the partner has agreed that there is no competition.

4. Going steady certainly tends to encourage unjustified intimacies, in many cases.

5. In one or the other, it often leads to expectations of marriage that are not fulfilled. As time goes on, it turns out that the relationship does not mean the same to both.

6. It may lead to a marriage based on propinquity or "not knowing how to get out of it," instead of on genuine compatibility.

Of course there is a time for going steady, Irene, but it ought to be part of a carefully thought-out plan. If you don't find that the relationship is going to lead to something more valuable, drop it promptly and try again.

Questions and Answers Q—On the whole, do men and women have about the same ideas as to the number of children they want?

A—Studies show little difference. Q—Is it true that doctors have more than an average number of divorces?

A—Yes; and dentists still more! Both professions are brought into close contact with members of the opposite sex. Q—Is it true that few divorced women get alimony?

A—In the absence of children, it is becoming more and more rare for a divorced woman to get financial support from her ex-husband. Probably not one in 20 gets alimony from the courts nowadays—most women, of course, do not ask for it. Q—I'm sure there has never before, in the history of the world, been such a situation as in our city, where there are more divorces than marriages!

A—You're wrong. It was true in Paris in 1798. Unfortunately we have no figures from ancient Rome, but its divorce rate was certainly high.

Knowlton, March 19—On Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Knowlton, Marguerite Winifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Taylor, became the bride of William Rousseau, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Rousseau. The pastor, Rev. T. E. R. Nurse officiated at the double ceremony. Prior to the service the choir sang the bride's favorite hymn, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and also sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long white figured taffeta gown with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long tight-fitting sleeves and a full panned skirt falling in a long train. Her long embroidered veil was held in place by a tiny cap trimmed with heather, which had been worn by her mother at her wedding. The bride's colonial bouquet was red roses and she wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller was matron-of-honor, wearing rose moire taffeta fashioned on princess lines, with cap sleeves, long opera mitts and a tiny cap of the same material.

Easter Table Delight to Eye

Glorify your Easter table with lilies and white stock, gleaming white Irish linen and exquisite china, silver and glass.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Easter dinner should be a glorious event in the family this year. Make the table as beautiful as possible. Here's one suggestion from Jean Way, noted for her table arrangements: Easter lilies and white stock with delicate greens in the center of a table spread with a white Irish linen cloth with intricate handwork. The plates are spode, with pale yellow border edged in gleaming white.

For the roast, select leg of lamb. This traditional Eastertime selection will be in good supply. Roast it in a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) for 20 minutes per pound for a medium-done roast, or 25 minutes per pound to a well-done stage. The delicate flavor of the lamb is truly a springtime favorite which combines perfectly with the seasonal foods which make up the rest of the meal.

There's a family treat in store for Easter if fried chicken is the basis for the holiday dinner. Usually reserved for late spring and summer meals, supplies of cut-up, pan-ready chickens for frying are on the market now and that means the family may enjoy the fried chicken favorite as early as Easter this year.

Homemakers seeking an unusual entrée for the Easter dinner should consider Fiesta sweetbreads, another treat which is the very essence of spring.

Fiesta Sweetbreads (Serves 4-6)

One pound beef or veal sweetbreads, 1 egg, 1 cup crushed cornflakes, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup orange juice, 1

ST. PAT'S MEET QUEBEC GENERALS TOMORROW NIGHT AT 7.30

Provincial Juvenile Hockey Title At Stake In Sudden-Death Fixture

Tomorrow evening at 7.30 the St. Pat's Juveniles will be hosts to the Quebec Generals, in a sudden-death game, at the local Arena for the Provincial Juvenile Championship.

St. Pat's, who eliminated the Tremholme Royals, of Montreal, last week in the semi-finals, will meet the Quebec club for the crown. Both clubs have won their respective leagues and districts and will now meet in the finals.

The green and white squad, coached by Paul Farlardeau, with Brother Joseph as the manager, will have their eyes trained on the title. The Irish club completed their season without suffering a single reversal, and walked through the loop playoffs without receiving a set back and judging from their past record should give a good account of themselves.

The Quebec club is kind of an unknown aggregation, although they have a few good players amongst them, they will be in for a good hard game, before they can hope to win the title. A cou-

powder snow

By GORDON HARMER

Although the swish of slush can be heard in the downtown area the crunch of sugar snow can be heard on the slopes where there is still a fair crop of the white manna from heaven. Bare spots are visible on the lower slopes but spring skiing on the higher hills is still going on in full swing.

The recent rainfall and warm sun caused havoc to the unprotected and open slopes but skiers—don't think of putting your slats away yet.

Skiing conditions at Orford, Hillcrest and North Hatley are good. Most tows are still in operation.

Initial Tilt Of Provincial Cage Semi-Finals To Be Held Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening at the William Street Armoury the local Independent cagers tangle with the Shawinigan aggregation in the initial tilt of a two-game, total-points series in the semi-finals of the provincial intermediate playdowns.

The second game will be played in Shawinigan next Saturday.

Last year these same two teams met in the semi-finals, and Shawinigan managed to win by the slim margin of two points. Coach Clint Stocks' boys will be out to turn the tables this year.

There is good seating accommodations at the armoury, and it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out to watch this fixture, which has the earmarks of a thriller. Both teams are strong and each coach is confident of victory.

The game will get underway at 7 p.m. Shawinigan downed Quebec and Sherbrooke trimmed Thetford to reach the semi-finals.

The locals will be at full strength with Bud McLellan, powerful guard, back in action. McLellan, along with the rest of the team, have been practicing constantly during the past week and the squad is in tip-top shape.

Playing for the Independents will be Don Barfield, Benny Linds, Billy Fuller, Gordon Peacock, Jimmy Scott, Bud McLellan, George Kandaiaf, Dour Wootton, Harold Drew, Billy Petts and Bud Jackson.

Two Goalties On Spot With Chance For $1,000 And N.H.L. Championship As League Schedule Finishes Up

Two goalies will be on the spot with a chance for $1,000 dangling within reach of their capable hands—when Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs battle it out this week-end for the National Hockey League Championship and the Prince of Wales Trophy.

The $1,000 goes with the Vezina Trophy, awarded to the goalkeeper "who has played the most games for the team having the fewest goals scored against it" during the regular league schedule.

Both Turk Broda of the Leafs and Harry Lumley of Wings have a chance at it, each with a goals-against record of 138.

Last night President Clarence Campbell of the N.H.L. said at Montreal that in event of a tie the Vezina Trophy would be of dual ownership for a year and the $1,000 would be split. The only time Broda ever won it, back in 1941, he edged out another Detroit netminder, Johnny Mowers.

And as the league leaders moved to give battle in one of the most crucial week-end double-headers in big-time hockey history, it was reported from St. Catharines, Ont., that penalty-killing ace Joe Klukay of the Leafs had a 60-40 chance of playing at Toronto Saturday.

Klukay, an expert at tying up the opposition when his team is short-handed, suffered a knee injury in a Wednesday practice but heat treatments in hospital seemed to be bringing it around. Leafs will decide Saturday afternoon whether he can play at Toronto or in the return game Sunday at Detroit.

In other games, Montreal Canadiens play Chicago Black Hawks at Montreal Saturday and Bruins at Boston Sunday. The Habits lost their last mathematical chance to make the four-team loop playoffs when New York Rangers defeated the Hawks Wednesday night.

The other Sunday game sees the Hawks take on Rangers at New York as the N.H.L. regular schedule winds up.

Racing in the Eastern Townships is over and racers are beginning to enjoy a day's skiing without worry about breaking records, cutting corners to save time and making sure they have the right wax. Now is the time for excursions, parties and gala times.

F. W. McCrea, president of the North Hatley Ski Club, has developed a fine group of midweek skiers at Hatley and next year the young hickory artists should really be hitting the headlines. Mr. McCrea has worked hard for the North Hatley club and his untiring efforts have shown results.

Superb and breathtaking are some of the adjectives used to describe the gala technicolor ski films presented by the Hillcrest Ski Club and shown in the gymnasium at St. Pat's Academy on Monday evening. The films were filmed out in the West by the noted skier and photographer Luigi Foeger from the Laurentians.

This Sunday a five man team representing the Hillcrest Ski Club will travel down to Mt. Burke, Londonderry, Vermont, and will compete in the Bear Den Trophy downhill classic. The top skiers in Eastern United States will compete and a top-galaxy of hickory artists is expected. The elevation of the mountain is some 3,200 feet.

Miss Jacqueline Tracey, from Quebec City, won the slalom downhill and combined championship in the Ladies International

On Easter Sunday, March 28, the Hillcrest Ski Club is planning an excursion to Stowe, Vermont. Last year the trip was a huge success.

If you want to enjoy spring skiing high in the mountains and have the thrill of riding up the longest chair lift in the world and one of the longest T-bars then make the trip.

Picturesque country awaits your visit. There are trails at Stowe, Vt., for all-comers, beginners and expert—especially for the experts in the Nose Dive Trail.

At the summit of the picturesque mountain is an "Octagon" or a hotel where you can relax, eat and pick up a glamorous sun tan and wind burn.

Spring skiing is still ideal at Mt. Orford. The climb to the top of the mountain and the ride down are the thrill of a lifetime. Sugar snow awaits you and usually there is a warm sun.

Although skiers are approaching the end of their fare, the shank of the season offers up the choicest under-cut... cooked Township style. Take to the hills before it is overdone... Happy landings.

Fords Cop Circo Bowling League And Lavallee Challenge Trophy

The Ford team copped the Circo Bowling League championship and the William Lavallee Challenge Trophy last night when they finished on top of the loop standing in the final game.

The Fords have been leading the circuit for the better part of the season, and the loop championship was conceded at least two weeks ago. Ray Olivier, captain, and his mates, the Misses M. Dawson, F. Taylor and F. Currier, A. Anderson and E. Chivers had rolled so far out in front that it was impossible to catch them. In second place the LaSalle's, captained by Joyce Norris, with the Misses E. Bishop, J. Couchman and L. Berwick, E. Chivers and H. Mariani finished in second spot.

The G. M. Young Challenge Trophy, for men's high average for the season was copped by Les Berwick with an average of 133.7.

The Jean-Paul Perreault Trophy for ladies' high average for the season was won by Miss Margaret Dawson with an average of 102.3.

Miss Grace Cuthbert, league secretary-treasurer, wins the G. M. Dick Trophy, for ladies' high doubles with a high of 265 points.

Les Berwick won the H. A. Burbank Trophy for men's high double with a score of 357.

The J. M. St. Cyr Trophies for high single, both ladies and men, were won by Miss Grace Cuthbert and Clary Phillips with scores of 163 and 208 respectively.

High single score team totals for the season was won by LaSalle

Textile Cops City Volleyball Fixture

The Dominion Textile Volleyballers scored a triple win from the B'nai B'rith squad in the latest City League match at the "Y". This trio of points brings them within 1 point of second place, held by the B'nai B'rith team.

In the first and second games the B'nai B'rith just could not meet the pace set by the Textile aggregation and were forced under 15 to 10 and 15 to 8. Rallying strongly the B'nai B'rith ran up a 11-7 lead, but the Textile took over completely to win 15-11.

K. Perry and K. Mills played a very steady and active game for the victors with full co-operation from the rest of the Dominion Textile players. Spark plug for the B'nai B'rith was G. Smith who played his usual deceptive style.

Lineups:
B'nai B'rith: M. Smith, G. Smith, J. Niloff, M. Gordon, C. Simmons.
Dominion Textile: K. Mills, B.

Royals Edge Out Nationales 2-1

Montreal, March 19.—(P)—The Montreal Royals, swamped 11-1 in the series opener Tuesday, showed a sharp form reversal last night as they out-foxed Montreal Nationales all the way to win 2-1 before 5,500 Forum fans and knock the best-of-five Quebec Junior Amateur Hockey Association at one game apiece.

Royals were never behind as they scored single goals in each of the first two periods and held the big Nationale squad off the score sheet until there were only three seconds remaining in the final frame.

Young Bobby Cornforth, up from junior "B" ranks to replace the suspended Jack Donlevy, Royales' regular net custodian, had a fairly easy time of it as defence-coach Tommy Monastarsky, Vic Fildes and Lou Appley threw up a solid blue-line barricade.

Both Royal goals, by Dickie Moore and Neil Langille, came on smart passing plays with goalie Gaston Desforges in the Nationale cage having no chance on the payoff drives.

Rollie Landry's marker at 19:57 of the finale came from a wild scramble in front of the Royal net as the Nats pressed furiously for goals.
