Johnson, Nelson, Maynard and other Union men of Tennessee, and carry them in iron s to Montgomery, there either to be punished for treason against the Confederacy, or kept as hostages, says:—" Let the railroad on which Union men of East Tennesse are conveyed to Montgomery in irons, be eternally and hopelessly destroyed! Let the property of the men concerned be consumed, and let their lives pay the forfeit, and the names will be given! Let the fires of patriotic vengance be built upon the union altars of the whole land, and let them go out where these conspirators live, like the fires from the Lord that consumed Nadab and Abihu, the two sons of Aaron, for presumption less sacrilegious! If we are incarcerated at Montgomery, or executed there or even elsewhere, all the consolation we want is to know that our partisan friends have visited upon our persecutors, certain Secession leaders a most horrible vengence!
